The horse races on the holiday will be a very strong attraction. The two events the named race and the 2.22 class will see some fast starters. A big crowd is certain to be on hand to see the sport. The officials of the Peterborough Turf Club have been very energetic to make their big two days' meet an unqualified success, and from the present outlook their efforts will be well rewarded.

CRICKET

The following team will represent the Peterborough Cricket Club in the game against Warkworth on Civic Holiday:—W. J. Marshall, F. M. Dela Fosse, Wm. Coleman, Geo. Coleman, George Elmer, D. Ferguson, H. Clarke, A. Elliott, C. Poussette, E. Reaston, A. E. Gibbs, J. Gibson.

The train the cricketers will take to Warkworth leaves the G.T.R. station at 8.10 on Monday morning and all the above men are requested to be at the station at eight o'clock. The game will commence at about 10.30.

AFTER TREATMENT

Peter E. Summers, of Kalamazoo, Mich., relates his experience:

"I was troubled with Nervous Debility for many years. I lay it to indiscretion and excesses in early youth. I became very despondent and didn't care whether I worked or not. I imagined everybody who looked at me guessed my secret. Imaginative dreams at night weakened me—my back ached, had pains in the back of my head, hands and feet were cold, tired in the morning, poor appetite, fingers were shaky, eyes blurred, hair loose, memory poor, etc. Numbness in the fingers set in and the doctor told me he feared paralysis. I took all kinds of medicines and tried many first-class physicians, wore an electric belt for three months, went to Mt. Clemens for baths, but received little benefit. While at Mt. Clemens I was induced to consult Drs. Kennedy & Kennedy, though I had lost all faith in doctors. Like a drowning man I commenced the New Method Treatment and it saved my life. The improvement was like magic—I could feel the vigor going through the nerves. I was cured mentally and physically. I have sent them many patients and will continue to do so."

THE HEN SQUAKED AND THE THIEF DROPPED HER AND RAN

Exciting Episode is Recorded at Warsaw—Some Live News From the Centre of Dummer.

Special to the Review

Warsaw, Aug. 6.—The oat harvest is now in full swing and a few days more if fine weather continues will see the end of our harvest with the exception of a few late patches.

Potatoes are not likely to be a good crop in this locality, the halm blight is doing a great amount of damage as well as the potato bug.

Mrs. Rose, from Manitoba, is visiting her aunt here, Miss Lucky, for a few days.

The Miss [illegible], from Anstruther, are also visiting friends here.

Mr. Geo. [illegible], a long resident on the Scotch line, Dummer, died a short time ago. He has been unwell for over three years. Two years ago he gave up farming on account of ill health. His remains were buried at Warsaw. He leaves a wife and one daughter.

William Cuff, of the third line of Dummer, died last week. His wife predeceased him some years ago. He was an aged man and a man much respected and has been a resident of Dummer for many years.

For the last month parties from this locality and parties passing through here have made for the huckleberry grounds around Burleigh Falls. The crop was plentiful and many pails of berries have been picked and sealed away in cellar for future use.

Some party visited a henhouse in our village last week for the purpose of stealing a thoroughbred hen. Some noise, however, the squawking of a hen induced a person to try and find out what was wrong and made for the direction of the disturbance. In the dark he discovered the form of a man who made for other parts as quickly as possible, followed by his discoverer. In the flight the hen was dropped or threw away and the thief showed fight to his follower. Blows were exchanged but the thief, however, got away and the hen has not been [illegible] by her owner.

The storm of Tuesday night did no damage in this vicinity. The rain was badly needed as the corn and other crops had begun to wilt for the lack of moisture.

The first prize for the canoe sailing is a silver cup presented by the Association.

Handsome prizes are offered for the different events.

Mr. R. Neill is chairman and Mr. J. S. Knapman, secretary of the regatta committee.

POULTRY ASSOCIATION WILL HOLD ITS WINTER SHOW HERE DURING JANUARY

Peterborough is to have a winter poultry show. This was decided upon at a meeting of the Peterborough Poultry Association in the association's rooms, Simcoe street, last evening. Vice-President Geo. Paxman occupied the chair and there was a most encouraging attendance, about thirty members being present.

Next January was the time decided upon for holding the show, which will be an annual fixture if it should prove successful, and there is every reason to believe it will. The date will be decided upon at the next meeting of the Association, which will take place on the first Thursday in September, the 3rd of the month.

At last night's meeting a committee was appointed to ascertain the best manner of making coops, a matter of vital importance to all feeders of chickens.

The study of birds was taken up, Minorca, Orphington and Hamburgs having been brought to the meeting for that purpose. A useful discussion of the fine points and objects of the birds was held. Other matters of interest and instruction were taken up.

SUNDAY SERVICES AT STONY LAKE

The services at Stony Lake next Sunday morning will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Langfeldt, of Peterborough, and the Orpheus quartette, of Toronto, will sing. The camp fire song service on Sunday evening at 7.30 o'clock will be held at Mr. Sherrin's cottage, Mt. Julian, and Rev. Mr. Bingham will be the speaker.

Rev. J. A. Rankin, D.D., of Toronto, will take the morning service on Aug. 16th and Rev. J. E. [illegible], of Toronto, the morning service on Aug. [illegible].

NEW CUSTOMS RULE.

Importation of Stock For Breeding Undergoes Changes.

On July 1 there came into effect new regulations regarding the custom entry of animals imported into Canada for the improvement of stock. Heretofore all certificates of registration which were apparently genuine were accepted by custom officers for the purpose of free entry. Under the new regulations either a Canadian certificate of registration or an import certificate as the case may be must be presented:

Canadian certificates of registration must be presented at the port of entry for the following classes and breeds:

Cattle—Shorthorn, Ayrshire, Hereford, French-Canadian, Galloway, Aberdeen-Angus, Red Polled, Jersey, Guernsey and Holstein.

Horses—Clydesdale, Hackney, Shire, Percheron, thoroughbred Belgian and French-Canadian.

Ponies—Shetland, Welsh, New Forest, Polo and Riding, Exmoor, Connemara and Hackney.

Swine—Yorkshire, Berkshire, Tamworth, Chester White, Poland China, Duroc Jersey, Essex and Victoria.

Sheep—Shropshire, Lincoln, Oxford Down, South Down, Hampshire and Leicester.

The Canadian records for all above mentioned breeds with the exception of that for Holstein cattle are conducted under the Canadian national system in the office of the Canadian National Records, Ottawa. The Holstein records is located at St. George, Ont. In making application for the registration of an imported animal the foreign certificate of registration in addition to the usual application must be forwarded.

There are from time to time animals imported into Canada of breeds for which there are no Canadian records, but which are recorded in books of record of one of the following recognized foreign associations:

Horses—Suffolk Horse Society (Great Britain), Cleveland Bay Horse Society of Great Britain and Ireland, Yorkshire Coach Horse Society of Great Britain and Ireland, American Morgan Register Association, American Saddle Horse Breeders' Association, American Trotting Horse Register Association, Commission des Agriculteurs de France (French draft), Commission des Stud Book des Chevaux de Demi-Sang (French coach), Landwirthschaftlichen Hauptverein fur Ostriesland (German coach), Zuchtverband des Sudlichen Zuchtgebietes (German coach), Verband dur Zuchter des Oldesburger Eleganton Schweren Kutschpferdes (German coach), Verband der Pferdezuchter in den Holsteininchen Medschem (Oldenberg).

Cattle—Highland Cattle Society of Scotland, Kerry and Dexter Herd Book (Dublin, Ireland), Sussex Herd Book Society (Great Britain), Polled Durham Breeders' Association (United States), National Polled Hereford Breeders' Association (United States).

Swine—Large Black Pig Society (Great Britain).

Sheep—Suffolk Sheep Society (Great Britain), Kent and Romney Marsh Sheep Breeders' Association (Great Britain), Cheviot Sheep Society (Great Britain), Wensleydale Longwool Sheep Breeders' Association (Great Britain), Black Face Sheep Breeders' Association (Great Britain).

Goats—British Goat Society.

Asses—Societe Centrale d'Agriculture des Deux Sevres (France), Stud Books of Jacks and Jennets of Spain.

To secure free custom entry for an animals so recorded it is necessary to forward to the Canadian National Records, Ottawa, the foreign certificate of registration. The accountant of the Canadian National Records will return to the importer the foreign certificate to which will be attached an import certificate which will be authority to the custom officer to admit the animal duty free. A nominal charge will be made by the National Record for this service.

If future information is desired such will be supplied on application to the Accountant, National Live Stock Records, Ottawa.

TUBERCULAR SANATORIUM.

King Edward Will Be Patron of the Hospital at Tranquille, B. C.

His Majesty the King has consented to be patron of the sanatorium of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society at Tranquille, B. C. Application to His Majesty, preferred by the society through the Provincial Secretary of British Columbia and the Governor-General, resulted in a communication to the above effect.

Messrs. Dalton and Everleigh, architects, of Vancouver, have been notified by the society to proceed with the plans for the new establishment at Tranquille, and, upon their completion, the new sanatorium will at once be constructed. The society now has $40,000 in hand, with which sum considerable progress can be made. There is, however, required a further amount of $60,000 to carry out the plans as they are being drawn, and this sum, it is hoped, will be forthcoming later on.

With the new premises, as provided for in the $40,000 estimate, the sanatorium will have accommodation for 85 patients, in place of the limited number as at present. Dr. Fagan, secretary of the society, states that applications for admission are coming in almost daily, all of which have to be refused. Some of these will be accommodated when the new building is completed, which is not until the end of the year.

The society is at present building an enormous chicken ranch, capable of accommodating [illegible] chickens on the property. From this source the sanatorium will be provided with eggs and table birds.

Chicken Fasted Three Weeks.

Louis Steinewits, of Chatham, Ont., has a chicken which he regards as somewhat of a curiosity. About three weeks ago he missed the bird, and a search failed to locate it. But one of the local papers advised people to clean up their back yards, and by following this good advice Mr. Steinewitz reaped the reward of virtue in the shape of his lost darling. He was in the midst of getting rid of old cans and accumulated tinware when he found an ancient tin pail turned upside down. He righted it, and out tottered the hen. It had fasted three weeks and was so weak that it fell over when it tried to walk. It is surmised that its henship turned the pail over on itself while seeking worms. It is now well and hearty.

Lumber Famine In West.

The lumber dealers of the three prairie provinces are facing the worst lumber famine in their history, as the result of the plan of the Canadian railways to devote all available rolling stock to moving the grain crop, estimated at 125,000,000 bushels. The lumbermen are unable to get enough lumber to supply the demand, and prices have risen alarmingly.

BROKEN IN HEALTH

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Restored Strength After Medical Treatment Had Failed

"I can truthfully say Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did for me what one of the best doctors in Halifax failed to do—restored my health." This strong statement is made by Mr. Wm J. Weaver, 172 Argyle street, Halifax. Mr. Weaver adds: "A few years ago I took employment in a large factory as fireman. I knew the work would be hard, and friends told me I would never stand it, but as I was a strong man weighing 180 pounds I laughed at the idea of not being able to do the work. Anyhow I started and found the job a hard one indeed. There were a number of firemen employed and men were taking and quitting the job every few days. I kept at the work for two years and during that time lost 50 pounds in weight and was a broken down man. I could not take any meals and often took my dinner back home with me without touching it. When I would be working on the night shift I could not sleep in the day time and this added to my trouble. Finally I became a total wreck and had to quit the work. I could hardly drag myself about, and yet had become so nervous that I could not sit still and would walk about the house until I was ready to drop. The doctor came to see me every day and changed the medicine time and again but it did me no good. Finally he wanted me to go to the hospital and at this stage a friend came to stay with me overnight. While he was reading the evening paper he came across the testimonial of a cure wrought by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. He said, 'why don't you try them, nothing else is helping you and they may do you good.' He went out and got me a box at once. When this was done I got a half dozen boxes, and before they were all gone I began to fell they were all gone I began to fell like a new man. I continued using the pills for a couple of months when I was again as well and as strong as ever I had been in my life and I have not seen a sick day since. I feel confident there is no remedy in the world equal to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for building up a broken down and nervous system and for such trouble I would strongly recommend them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure such cases as Mr Weaver's because they make the rich, red blood, that feeds the starved nerves and tones and strengthens every part of the body. That is why they cure anaemia, rheumatism, indigestion, neuralgia, St. Vitus dance, paralysis and other troubles due to bad blood and shattered nerves. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

CURIOUS PROBLEMS.

Do You Think That You Could Count Up to a Trillion?

Some persons openly manifest an aversion to mathematics. Can they be censured when such problems as these are presented to view?

One little statement that set many people to thinking about their limitations first appeared in a publication some twenty-five years ago. It simply stated, "You cannot count a trillion." Many tried it, but all gave up before counting very long. Supposing you counted without stopping at the rate of 200 every minute of the day and night, how long would it take? You could count 12,000 an hour, 288,000 in a day, 105,192,000 in a year of 365 1-4 days. Since a billion is a thousand million, it is a simple matter to see that it would take nearly ten years to reach that sum, and since a trillion is a thousand billion it does not require a great stretch of the imagination to see that we could never reach that amount unless we had in the neighborhood of 10,000 years to devote to the task.

A woman of social ambitions once remarked to an acquaintance that she had eighteen intimate friends whom she wished to have to dinner, but as her table seated only eight she could have only six guests at a time. It was suggested that she invite them in rotation, changing the guests until each had been to dinner with all of the others. At the first dinner she announced her plan, and one of the guests asked if she had counted the number of dinners she would have to give before she had made the complete rotation. When he learned that she thought twenty or thirty dinners would answer he laughed, took a pencil from his pocket and after figuring a few minutes told her that it would require 18,564 dinner parties to finish her plan. At the rate of 300 each year this would require nearly sixty-two years. The plan was abandoned. He then suggested that she see how many ways she could seat the eight people around the table, and she was ready to try that as well until told that it was possible to arrange 40,320 seatings without having any two alike.

Suppose six horses are entered in a race. If some one should offer to bet that you could not tell the exact order in which the six horses would cross the tape you would probably not care to take the bet unless you were given good odds, say 50 to 1 or 75 to 1. Many would be willing to bet under such conditions. But their chances to win would be exceedingly small. Any one of the six horses might be first; any one of the other five might be second. Of the other four any one might be third. There would be three choices for fourth place, two for fifth and one for sixth. Now, since the same possibilities would remain, no matter how we started, it is easy to see that the total number of arrangements must be 6x5x4x3x2x1, or 720, so that the bettor has exactly one chance in 720 of winning, provided he knows absolutely nothing about the horses. If he takes odds of 100 to 1 he is almost certain to lose, for he is really the one who has given the odds 7.2 to 1 even at 100 to 1.

Trees and Lightning.

There is a popular belief that certain trees are less likely than others to be struck by lightning and that during a thunderstorm it is quite safe to stand under a beech, for example, while the danger under a resinous tree or an oak is respectively fifteen or twenty times greater. This is disputed by Dr. A. W. Borthwick in "Notes of the Royal Botanical Garden of Edinburgh." The doctor says that no tree is immune, since lightning will select one species quite as readily as another and the beech quite as frequently as any other species. Apparently the taller trees in a neighborhood are the ones most likely to be struck. Contrary to what is believed by some people, the cells are not "ruptured or torn by the formation of steam, as might happen if the heating by the electric current was very great. The cells collapse and shrink up, but are never torn." The root system does not seem to be ever damaged by lightning.

A Thorough Sportsman.

Sir Thomas Lipton has other hobbies besides that of yachting. He is very fond of most outdoor amusements, and has spent hundreds of thousands of pounds on sport in various forms, but is said never to have made a bet in his life. Among his pet pursuits are billiards, cricket, golf, and motoring. The theatre he does not particularly fancy, and as for reading he confines himself chiefly to magazines and newspapers. He believes in plenty of fresh air, and to avoid sleeping in town will often drive ten miles at one in the morning to Osidge, his place at Old Southgate, in Middlesex. He is also a keen gardener.

Royal Golfer.

King James II. was a fine golfer in the sense of fondness for the game, and in other senses too. He it was as Duke of York who, when challenged by two English noblemen at the Scottish court to a match, the duke to take any partner whom he could find, took to his side an Edinburgh shoemaker named John Patersone. The duke and Patersone won, and the latter, being given half the stake, built for himself a house, which is to be distinguished by the record upon it in Canongate to this day.

The Star Chamber.

The old tribunal which figures so extensively in the history of Charles I. as the "star chamber" is said to have received the name from the fact that the roof of the apartment in which the tribunal sat was decorated with gilt stars. Another explanation is that it took its name from the "starres," or Jewish bonds, which at one time had been kept in it.

INCURABLE HEART TROUBLE

LOOKED FOR DEATH IN A SHORT TIME.

Entirely Cured by "Fruit-a-tives"

"Gentlemen,—The days of miracles are not all past and I feel that my complete recovery, from what seemed inevitable death, is practically a miracle. I suffered from severe Indigestion and Dyspepsia for nearly two years. I could not take food without fearful distress and I became almost a skeleton as the result of the suffering. I could not do any work and became so run down and weak that I could hardly walk. I was attended by two experienced doctors. They both pronounced my case heart failure and incurable, and I looked forward for death in a short time. I not only had the doctors but after they gave me up I tried many remedies and treatments but got no better.

At this time my son asked me to try "Fruit-a-tives," and from the outset of taking these wonderful tablets I was better and gradually this medicine completely cured me. I took a large number of boxes, perhaps a dozen, and now I am entirely cured and I have gained over thirty pounds in weight.

I am now so well that I have sold my farm and bought 200 acres more land. I make this statement voluntarily for the sake of humanity, and I am convinced that "Fruit-a-tives" is a wonderful remedy that will cure stomach trouble where doctors and everything else fail."

(Sgd) Henry Speers, J.P.

The doctors were all wrong. Mr. Speers had what we call "irritated heart." Indigestion and dyspepsia completely upset the stomach. Poisonous gases were formed which swelled the walls of the stomach and pressed against the heart.

"Fruit-a-tives" immediately strengthened the stomach, insured sound digestion and regulated the bowels. There were no poisons—no noxious gases remained in the system, and the heart was no longer irritated. Then the pain and fluttering stopped.

"Fruit-a-tives" is put up in two sizes 25c and 50c. If your dealer has not both, write Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

CHICAGO AND PLAY GROUNDS

Has Taken the Lead Among Western Cities in Agitating for Them

Chicago has taken the lead among western cities in pushing the playgrounds propaganda; in fact, it is doubtful if any eastern city equals Chicago in this respect, says the Kansas City Journal. Sherman Park playground is considered a model, the highest and latest development in the world of the public recreation place for the people. It combines the scenic beauty of a miniature park with fields large and small for gymnastics and athletic purposes.

It also contains a series of buildings of solid construction and classically chaste design. Within these buildings are public assembly halls, small clubrooms, gymnasiums, shower baths, restaurants, reading rooms, and everything that the minds of the builders could devise for physical, mental, and social culture. Sociologists have pronounced Sherman Park and its playgrounds system to be "well nigh perfection, almost utopian."

This little earthly paradise was formerly as bleak and unattractive a spot as any that could be found in the iron bound tenement district of a large city. It has been converted into an ideal resort for tired, care-worn people at a cost of $[illegible]. The big ball field—in the fall a football gridiron—is flooded in winter and in a single night is converted into a skating rink. There are separate playgrounds, besides, for senior and junior boys, and another for women and children.

There is an immense swimming pool in the open air; around it is a border of white sand. Before a bather enters this pool he passes under a shower bath. Near by is another large pool for women and children. In short, Sherman Park is thoroughly equipped for the pleasure and uplift of the people in winter as well as in summer.

TRAVELLER WHO PASSED THROUGH THE DEVASTATED DISTRICT WAS IN THIS CITY

Mr. J. H. Carson Was on Train That Was Stopped for Several Hours at Fernie—Desolation Was Terrible and Heat Oppresive.

Mr. J. H. Carson, of Montreal, traveller for J. H. Wilson, & Co. furniture dealers of Montreal, was in the city yesterday. Mr Carson has just returned from the west and passed through the scene of the terrible holocaust in the Fernie district.

"The country for miles around looks like a gigantic piece of scenery, with mixed paint spread over it for a ground color," said Mr. Carson last evening. Nothing is left in the path of the flames and the places where the tracks have been replaced shine out strangely on the blackened surface. "I would like to state that the sick and homeless, taken care of on our train, were all well provided for, and carried in sleeping coaches and not in box and coal cars. There happened to be facilities there for taking them, and they were given the best that a first class passenger train could afford."

For four hours, the train on which Mr Carson rode, was at Fernie, and the desolation was terrible. Very little remains of the town, even in the shape of ruins, while forests that were green before the fire are razed to the ground, hardly a stump remaining. Elko, Cranbrook, and Frank were filled with refugees from the surrounding country, and to those points the train which brought the first three eye witnesses to Winnipeg carried most of the sick and those willing to go. Everything is upset and disorganized in the district, and stories brought in by late arrivals from the same districts vary in detail to such an extent that none of them can be relied upon. The flames travelled across country with amazing rapidity and the volume of flame descended upon Fernie with so much velocity that the loss of life is remarkable by its smallness. The train made its way between clouds of scorching smoke, flames surrounded it, and at times it looked as though a retreat would have to be made. Things were burning on all sides, while the heat was oppressive. Owing to the smoke an adequate description of the country and the actual damage could not be given, even by those who passed through it. Hairbreadth escapes there were many, but those who got away at all are unhurt. In the opinion of the three eye witnesses it will be days before reliable and definite detail of the destruction and the loss will be ascertained.

In one spot the track beside the main line looked as fit for traffic as the day on which the rails were laid, but they were actually nothing but shapely heaps of ashes through which the metal spikes had in some places dropped of their own weight. In other places the spikes were hanging on to the steel but a touch would drop them through the ash.

Great praise is given to those who aided in relieving the suffering and in constructing the railroad line so as to establish communication with the outside world. The tracks must have been replaced while the heat was almost overcoming, and the operation was fraught with no small danger. The survivors including those who lost everything in the conflagration, are working heroically to alleviate suffering, while from outside, supplies are pouring in. The neighboring settlements are depleting their resources, stores are being supplied without any question as to whether returns will ever be made.

GETTING READY FOR THE FRAY

The Liberals of both ridings are getting ready for the fray. Mr Finlay, M.P. when seen by the Review last evening, swore by the nine gods that he was not to be driven from the field. It is suspected that the Government at Ottawa is not anxious for any of the changes in sight. They have load enough to carry already. Such is life.

LAWN SOCIAL AT WARSAW

Held Under Auspices of Presbyterian Church

Special to the Review

Warsaw, August 7—The young people of the Presbyterian church, Warsaw, held a lawn social on the lawn of the manse on Monday evening, August 3rd. The night was delightful and the gathering large.

After ice cream etc. had been served a good programme was in order consisting of vocal and instrumental music by Miss Coleman of Toronto and local talent.; also speeches by the Presbyterian and Methodist ministers of Warsaw. An address was read by Mrs David Millar to Miss Pearl McIntosh a member of the Presbyterian church union here, and a nice present handed her on the eve of her departure for a short visit to Manitoba.

After singing God be with you till we meet again, the gathering dispersed.

SIMPSON'S RETURN

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—I have been reading your persistent efforts to get some recognition of the splendid efforts of Fred Simpson, the Mississauga Indian. He finished the full Marathon course and had grit and stay enough to beat England's best. Had he won first place nothing would have been too good for him because we would have shared in his pride of victory. But because he has shown that he was no quitter, that he could run a losing race and run it like a man. We let him come home as if he had not been the man amongst men that he has certainly shown himself to be. I hope the Review will keep up its efforts to secure some recognition of true sport.

Yours, etc.,
READER.

LIVELY TIME AT THE CAMP

Y.M.C.A. Boys are Having Splendid Holiday at Sandy Point—Some Happenings are Recorded

Y.M.C.A. Camp, Sandy Point, Aug. 6—"We are here because we are here." We are now enjoying one of the best camps in America. We have had a whole year's fun since Monday. Fishing is something elegant. One of the characteristics of the camp is when the boys go for the mail they generally come home with a "female." On Wednesday morning there was an excursion to South Beach and all the boys went down to see "Duffie's" wife. Duffy went about nine in the morning and had to wait till 2.30 to say a word to the little daffodil and have no dinner, while the others went after dinner and saw the same amount of her as Duffy. Miss Homley had a leap year proposal, which was too sudden. Three cheers for Charlie Brown, with the help of some of our stalwart braves he erected a new flagpole, which adds greatly to the appearance at "Woodside." One of our items for each day is a swim, sometimes one of our volunteers and some times compulsory. "Bunnie" has got four suits wet to-day making a record. The four Port Hopes started out in a canoe to race a gasoline launch, but their ardour was dampened by an unexpected tip in the lake. We have a fast combination to meet all steamers! A big fire was held on the shore last night and people from the cottages near by, turned out in force to see a minor sun. "Bill" Jewill was nick-named by the fair sex "Sweet William." We have corn for dinner and corn for barometer, the latter grown in "Tom's" private patch.

MANY TRAMPS ARE TRAVELLING

Owing to the financial depression prevalent all over the States and in Canada, the number of men out of employment has increased greatly in numbers during the past few months and as a consequence the number of tramps also have increased in number. The frequent burglaries that have taken place recently is attributed to these knights of the road. Too great care cannot be taken in guarding against losses from this source. Business men should take every possible precaution in protecting their property, and residents should also see that their doors and windows are securely fastened at night and when absent.

BIRTHPLACE OF THE QUEEN DENMARK AND ITS CAPITAL

Where Her Majesty Queen Alexandra First Saw the Light —Danes Are a Maritime Race—They Excel in Politeness—Some of Denmark's Worthies.

The Danes call their capital Kjobenhavn, which means the "Haven of the Merchants," and explains the origin of the only large city in the country. To know Copenhagen is practically to know Denmark, for in probably no other country in Europe are things so centralized and concentrated as in the land of butter, milk, and margarine.

When the King and Queen last arrived there they found, as they so often found before, that the Danes are a wonderfully polite people. If a man meet another one in the street, both immediately doff their hats, and if you ask your way of a policeman, enter a restaurant, or go into a shop, the lifting of the hat is obligatory. Not to do so is to show great discourtesy. In walking up Bredgade, Ostergade, Nygade or Frederiksgade, your hat is in your hand continually, and it would really seem as though Danish headcoverings required a double thickness of brim.

At one end of Ostergade, where all the best shops are, is Kougens Nytory (King's New Market) a large open square of some pretension and not unhandsome architecturally. The shops in the neighborhood seem to have three qualities of goods. The inferior is labelled "Dansk," meaning that it is of local manufacture; the intermediate, "Fransk," referring to its French origin; and the best is always "Engelsk," which is flattering to our national pride, if not always strictly true.

The spirit and the art of Thorvaldsen the great sculptor, pervades Copenhagen. The museum of his works is in the centre of the town, and is built in the guise of a gigantic eastern sarcophagus. In the quadrangle in the centre thereof is the ivy-covered tomb, which reminds one of a similar instance at the Dulwich Gallery. Somehow, when one thinks of Denmark, the two first names that spring to one's lips are Thorvaldsen and Hans Christian Andersen, both great men in their way, but by no means Denmark's only worthies.

There is Niels Gade, the great musician, of world-wide reputation; Hartmann, who taught Queen Alexandra music when she was a gril; Holberg and Oehlenschlaeger, the dramatists, whose statues flank the entrance to the National Theatre at the corner of Kongens Nytory; then, to go further back, there was Tycho Brahe, the astronomer, on his little island in the Sound, and Niels Juel, who was buried 200 years ago in Holmen's Kirke. The real old Danish hero, a kind of national saint in his way, is Peder Vessel, called "Tordenskjold," (Thundershield), who from a cabin-boy raised himself to admiral, and whose name is still used to frighten naughty little girls and boys.

At the very beginning of Langelinie, the most charming promenade in Copenhagen, is St. Alban's Church, the place of worship of the English community. It is a very pretty little Gothic building, designed by Blomfield, with a good spire; it was built largely through the initiative of Queen Alexandra.

The royal palaces are round four sides of a quadrangle; two of them are connected by corridors. It is not a beautiful building, but serviceable, fairly roomy, and, in a heavy way, rather imposing. The former royal palace of Christiansborg was burned down in 1884, and its blackened, ruined walls still stand as a perpetual eyesore

All Copenhagen, which is tantamount to saying all Denmark, visits the Tivoli gardens as often as possible. The Tivoli is an extraordinary agglormeration of concerts, restaurants, music hall, theatre, panorama, switchback, and a dozen other things all jumbled up in a comparatively small space.

In good old King Christian's time, he was, in the best sense, the father of his people, and no more affable and accessible monarch ever existed. When he was in Copenhagen he rode every morning for an hour in the royal riding-school, and any one might go in and watch the old gentleman ambling round on a big white horse; he courteously acknowledged the bows of visitors, and when his hour of exercise was up, he nimbly dismounted, threw the reins to a groom, and lighting a large cigar, walked off to the palace. He often wandered about the streets, not after the Haroun el Raschid manner, but openly and recognized by all, nodding to the officials, bowing to his friends, and smiling at all the little children.

A few miles outside Copenhagen, on the Sound, is Helsingor, known to us, by the courtesy of William Shakespeare, as, Elsinore. It is a kind of semi-seaside wateringplace, and there is a big and ugly casino-hotel, known as Mariensyst.

In the grounds is a sort of cairn, built up under some silver beech-trees, and carefully labelled "Hamlet's grave." The deception is so childish that one cannot take it seriously or be offended; all the more so it is related that a neighboring hotel, envious of the distinction of possessing Hamlet's grave (and a statue), fenced in a little pond, and called it "Ophelia's pool." Thus they became quits. But the story goes on that the two hotels came to a mutual arrangement whereby the attractions were exchanged every year, and Hamlet's grave migrated to Ophelia's pool, and vice versa.

After all, there is much in common between the Danes and the English. Tennyson's lines remain to-day as true as when they were written five-and-forty years ago:

Teuton of Celt, or whatever we be,
We are each all Dane in our welcome to thee—Alexandra.

Funeral, Saturday 8th, at 3 p.m. from 326 Charlotte street to Little Lake cemetery.

SIGNALLING IN CAMP.

G. G. B. G. Makes Excellent Showing With Helios at Niagara.

The signallers at Niagara camp this year made a gallant show. The outfit used by the Governor-General's Body Guard at Niagara cost $1,200. Till wireless telegraphy supersedes it the helio will remain the long-distance means of communication in the field.

Signalling Sergt. Wm. Goodwin had fourteen stations in communication at Louis Kop, a distance of 47 miles, in the Boer war. He was then attached to the South African Constabulary and saw much service. Sergt. Goodwin, who is in charge of the signalling section of the G. G. B. G., says that the power of transmitting messages by the helio is practically unlimited; communication in South Africa was established at a distance of 70 miles. The telescopes find the puff of dust they are looking for away on the horizon, the unsilvered spot on the mirror of the helio is set in line with the sight, and the string of wagons is located. In a few minutes the communication with the mobile column has been established.

"Our 'elios winkin' like fun—
Three sides of a ninety-mile square,
Our valleys as big as a shire—
Are ye there? Are ye there? Are ye there?"

The heliograph is popular in army circles as being more secret than any other system. Anyone can read the semaphore or flag signals, but when the heliographs are flashing Morse the messages cannot be intercepted more than 25 yards outside a station. Signalling by flags is quicker than by the helio, but it can only be used for a distance of five miles and under. Directly the messages are flashed in, the reader at the station calls the words out to the man at the typewriter and the message is delivered to the headquarters' staff.

Toronto Man Won This Race.

When Jack Hopgood of Montreal modestly admitted in the Garner House at Chatham that he could sprint as fast as J. William Daniels of Toronto could travel on a bicycle, the latter gentleman promptly offered to cover the statement with a five-dollar bill. Both men are commercial travelers. The hostelry was filled with guests, it being just at the noon hour, and innumerable side bets were at once chalked up, these, it is claimed, amounting to nearly $200. Mr. Hopgood, not at all phased by the readiness with which his friend Daniels took up the matter, promptly consented to a race at once. The course comprised 200 yards up Murray street, and about 300 people and countless rigs were on hand to watch the going.

The race was a hot affair. Daniels had some trouble in getting away on the wheel, so that those around the starting place thought Hopgood would win an easy victory. But the course proved long to the runner, and by the time the end was reached the bicyclist won out handsomely, the sprinter being nearly winded.

STEEL SHIP LAUNCHED.

Splendid Schooner Leaves Ways at New Glasgow—All Home Made.

The whole population of the Maritime Provinces have been aroused with a new interest by the launching a short time ago of the first steel sailing vessel built in the provinces down by the sea. They see in the occasion a revival of the shipbuilding industry of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

The launching was witnessed by a large crowd, who assembled on the bridge, on the adjacent streets, on the river bank, and in the historic yard from which scores of vessels have been launched in the brave days of old, when the wooden ships of Pictou County were seen on every sea. Among those present were Lieutenant-Governor Fraser, Premier Murray and many leading men from various parts of the county.

The new schooner is a handsome vessel, and J. C. Macgregor, who has been the moving spirit in her construction, was congratulated on all sides upon the splendid showing that had been made by New Glasgow workmen. It was also a matter for congratulation that the vessel was "home-made" in practically every part. The large quantity of steel used in the building was almost altogether the produce of the Nova Scotia Steel Co. They supplied everything that was within their capacity. All the rivets, some 40,000, came from the Starr Manufacturing Co., Dartmouth. The canvas came from Yarmouth; the rope from the Rope Works in Dartmouth; the blocks, from Parrsboro. The spars are of Oregon pine from Oregon. All the rest of the wood, except a little teak, which is required in all steel ships, is the product of Pictou County.

The schooner was built by the I. Matheson Co., iron founders, for J. W. Carmichael & Co. Mr. James C. Macgregor is practically the head of both of those concerns, as well as a director of the Nova Scotia Steel Co. The schooner is intended for the coastal lumber trade between Canadian ports and the United States in summer, and in winter time she will carry pine from the gulf ports to the West Indies.

Arrived at Wrong Port.

An incident, probably unique, occurred a few days ago when the Norwegian bark Atlantic sailed up the bay and anchored at Partridge Island. off St. John, N. B. The Atlantic was several hundred miles out of her course, as she is bound to Carleton, Que. This latter port is situated in the county of Bonaventure on the north shore of Chaleur's Bay. A tug spoke the Atlantic, and upon exchange of the customary questions Capt Livingstone of the tug surmised that there was some mistake. The captain of the bark was dumbfounded to learn of the predicament into which he had blundered. He explained that the mistake was due to lack of knowledge on the part of his brokers in New York, upon whom he had depended for information, and who had told him that the only place named Carleton in these parts was situated at the mouth of the St. John. With his course laid out according to their instructions, the Atlantic steered for this port. She remained only a few hours, setting sail again early in the afternoon.

Dog Hunt In Simcoe.

Dr. William Stubbs, of Charleston, and Dr. W. W. Stork of Brampton, Dominion Government veterinarians, are in Simcoe County where a mad dog scare has been on for a month. Two townships are under quarantine and all dogs are required to be muzzled. Many useless beasts have been shot and every dog and his owner have been located. The first dog with the rabies bit horses, cattle, sheep, and many of the animals have died or been killed.

To Patrol Forests.

In order to prevent the destruction by fire of the forests in British Columbia, through which the Grand Trunk Pacific will run, an efficient fire patrol is to be maintained. Railway construction has in times past been responsible for the destruction of vast quantities of the best timber. It is hoped that this will not occur hereafter in British Columbia.

MARRIAGE AS A MERE LEASE FATHER VAUGHAN'S SERMONS

Continues His Talks in the Advocacy of Motherhood—Time to Read the Riot Act, He Says.

Father Bernard Vaughan is continuing his discourses on the married state before fashionable London. His last bomb for society was discharged before so large a congregation that fully 1,000 persons stood in the aisles of the church. In this sermon he condemned what he termed "leasehold marriages."

"There are those," said Father Vaughan, "who contend that married life should continue to bind till some danger zone in it is reached, while others want to make it a sort of partnership which ought to be as easily broken as it is started. They are advocates for leasehold marriage, or, in other words, for free love."

From some false philosophy some people, the preacher observed, were regarding marriage as a mere social contract, which ought by a mutual arrangement to be easily dissolved. If marriage were nothing more than a social or civil contract he saw no reason why it should not be dissolved. But was it? Was not marriage something much higher, more intimate, a natural contract by the law of Christ? The terms upon which the parties pledged themselves at the altar proved beyond question that matrimony was something divine which God had set up for His own divine purposes.

"So clear is this," Father Vaughan averred, "that if any bride and bridegroom were to substitute for the terms 'till death us do part' some such phrase as 'till we make other arrangements,' or 'till we come to grow tired of each other,' or 'till we wish for some new alliance,' a marriage would be regarded by every Christian man as no real marriage at all. It would be a sort of blasphemous concubinage, and they would know it."

Referring to a question which had been recently put to him as to whether there were any circumstances under which it would be permissible for a man and wife who were Christians to break off their marriage and enter into a fresh alliance, the preacher said there were well-defined circumstances which made it perfectly right for a man and wife to seek legal separation, but the marriage tie still held them. They could not enter into another marriage. "It cannot be," he said, "because Christ cannot blow hot and cold and contradict himself in the same breath."

"There is no greater plague upon the earth to-day," Father Vaughan declared, "than the way in which people are changing matrimony. God made it a holy alliance in which men and women should come together and supply each other's deficiencies, so that they might develop patience and the exercise of virtue and of a noble life. But they who live for the riot of sense and for the pleasure of the hour, and gratify their passions, of course will not listen to God.

"When we hear of wives to-day saying that they refuse altogether the privileges of motherhood because forsooth it interferes with their hunting or their London season, or because they cannot be bored with the nursery, because their flat is too small, or because they are not strong enough to bear what they don't like; when wives speak thus, and speak thus openly and boastingly in their boudoirs, in their drawing-rooms, and in the public parks, it is time to read the riot act. For they are boastingly profaning the laws of God and desecrating their sacred state of life."

THE DOMINION IS FIRST AT FRANCO-BRITISH EXPOSITION

Canada Has a Splendid Exhibit, Easily the Best of the Colonies—Col. Hutchinson is in Charge.

Amongst colonial exhibits at the Franco-British Exposition, says the European correspondent of a Toronto journal, the Canadian is easily first. That is the unanimous voice of the crowd as one has heard it in the Canadian building, and all visitors who have been separately questioned.

The display has been done with skill and art. The hard wheat arboreal frieze about the interior, the illuminated transparencies depicting Canadian work, the facts and figures and authoritative opinions which are cited in two languages on boards at many points in the hall are very much to the good.

Col. Hutchinson has found clever scenic artists to assist him in a display that has nothing picayune or provincial about it. The great apple orchard setpiece is characteristic of orchards in all Canada. The prairie animals are used not as academic specimens but as picturesque objects which are thrust west by the cattle man, and the cattle man himself is being palpably pushed west by the grower of wheat and grain.

The public dearly loves a show, and the Canadian commission have proved themselves discriminatory showmen. The great trophy under the central dome—Canada's red grain hopper, with its high cornucopia supports, symbolizes clearly the position of Canada as wheat-grower to the Empire. The working beavers in their tanks hold crowds in front of them all day. The carved butter statues of king and president fraternizing, of Jacques Cartier in his canoe, and the red man stonily looking on, are subjects of universal wonder.

Mining, for some reason, arouses less enthusiasm, although awe is shown before the block of gold in the electric-lit safe. Around and about are exhibits of Canada's miscellaneous manufactures. They show that Canada makes many manufactures well, and serve the purpose less of advertising any especial manufacturer than of promoting a high opinion of Canada as a whole.

The visitors are of every class of French and English. There were working people from all parts of Great Britain, and France, bejewelled ladies and fashionable men. The visitor from Canada gets a warm welcome from Mr. Ernest Girardot and Col. Hutchinson.

At pavilions in the grounds, the Grand Trunk, C. P. R. and Canadian Northern display maps, views, trophies, models and specimen fruits, giving unlimited information.

Canada is judged by comparison with Australia, and at the Franco-British, Australia has courted failure by its provincialism. The hall is split between states, and nothing stands for one and all and the commonwealth. The Dominion has gained principally by force of concentration, and unquestionably the Government is passing the public through attractive Canadian scenes in numbers great enough at the busiest hours to interfere with comfort. Beside either Commonwealth or Dominion buildings, New Zealand's and India's efforts are poor.

Smiling Through Life.

It is a generally accepted though utterly erroneous article of belief that melancholy people have deeper feelings than cheerful people and that those who are endowed with a sense of humor have of necessity, therefore, been denied a sense of pathos. A woman has only to wear a sad expression of countenance and to talk in a winning voice and people give her credit for unfathomable depths of sentiment and emotion, while her sister, who goes smiling through life and irradiates cheerfulness wherever she may be, is credited with utter want of heart, for in these days of advertisement people have not the discernment to perceive that the difference between the melancholy woman and the cheery one is generally the difference between selfishness and unselfishness. They both have their sorrows—they would not be human if they had not—but the former forces her burdens upon other people, while the latter sets herself to lighten them.—Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler.

A NEW EMPIRE.

Canadian Northwest an Unusually Rich and Fertile Country.

The new world of the twentieth century is Canada's fertile northland on the Arctic slope. The Canadian prairie provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta have nearly reached the 100,000,000 bushel mark of annual wheat production, and there are also being produced nearly a million bushels of other grains annually. The tract of country from which this enormous yield of grain is being produced is practically confined to what has been known in past years as the fertile belt. The limit of production in this area is far from being reached. In the country north of this is a great clay belt estimated to contain at least 10,000 square miles, where all the ordinary vegetables and hardier grains can be grown. There are other sources of wealth here. About 11 years ago there was bored on the Athabaska, 170 miles north of Edmonton, a prospect hole looking for natural gas. The gas came in such force as to stop the operations, and this gas well, the largest known in the world, has been burning continuously ever since. Up and down the Athabaska, above and below this point, are remarkable deposits of tar sands, as they are called, which, if utilized, would furnish paving material in abundance. Moreover, there is indisputable evidence of enormous wealth in petroleum, which in oozing out as it has done through centuries, has caused these strange deposits. In the vicinity of the tar sands, along the Athabaska, also are extensive deposits of salt, where it can be taken from the surface in great masses, pure white. Along the banks of the lower Mackenzie for many miles are great areas of burning coal.

KEEP COOL IN HOT WEATHER

The hot weather girl, properly speaking, is the girl who understands the hot weather and how to take care of herself in it. She is the hot weather girl, because she thrives in the hot days and looks pretty in spite of them.

The hot weather girl keeps cool. She is never mussed, never fussed, never hurried, never overheated, never fuming, and never out of condition. In appearance she is cool, and and if you were to ask her how she enjoyed the heat she would reply that the day had not seemed hot to her.

The pretty hot weather girl begins the day with a tepid tub. If she is where she cannot get a bathtub to herself she will take a tepid sponge bath, following it with a spraying of eau de cologne. Nothing so cools the body as a spray of cologne water. No matter how strenuous the heat the effect of that spraying with cologne will remain as a cooling memory.

The ideal beauty bath for a very hot morning is a tepid spray bath taken from a bathroom hose. It is a sort of shower bath, though one need not necessarily wet the hair. Then comes the alcohol spray and one feels cool.

At night the girl who wants to look pretty, even during the dog days, will spray her face with very hot water, which she will use liberally. A small bath spray can be attached to the warm water faucet and with its aid the girl can spray her face until the flesh tingles. No matter how hot the night this will cool the skin. Then comes the liberal application of a good face cream. Then finally, when the girl has taken off all superfluous cream with a bit of flannel she is ready to go to bed.

Even the matter of then sleeping is an important thing to her. She will want to sleep soundly and without discomfort. The girl who sleeps as though she were suffocating with the heat, will wake the next morning with tired look in her face and with circles beneath her eyes. The room must be cool and sweet and the bed clothing must be just warm enough.

To lull one to slumber on a very hot night there is nothing like the odor of lavender flowers. The sheets and pillow cases should be kept in lavender, and on very stifling nights the strongest of the sheets, those that have lain directly upon the lavender pads, should be brought out and spread upon the bed.

The next thing is the perfuming of the room and this can be done in one of a dozen delicate ways. If the room were the bedchamber of a queen or of a woman of millions, there would be hung in it the perfumed sheeting which is used by those who do not care how much money they spend. The sheeting, which is really only an ordinary linen sheet cut in half, is saturated with water. It is then spread over a line in the middle of the room and some agreeable perfume is sprinkled upon it. The odor depends upon individual preference and upon one's peculiarities. Lavender is for nerves; violets will sooth a headache that comes from being tired, while rose is for those who like strong odors and who are suffering from the heat.

DOUBLE VEIL FAD RENEWED

Was Discarded Two Years Ago But Women Are Bringing It in Again

Newport, R.I., August 8—The double veil fad, which was discarded two seasons ago by general request of the men, because it was an impossibility to tell who was bowing to them, has been renewed with vigor.

This morning at the Casino, Mrs. Philip M. Lydig came in for tennis wearing a heavy dark brown veil, over a white tulle effect and as another woman shook Mrs. Lydig by the hand she remarked, "I hardly know you." Mrs. Lydig replied "I'm sure I did not know who you were till you spoke."

Then in came Miss Anna Sands, with another double veil showing only her eyes and a portion of her forehead, and Mrs. Royal Phelps Carroll followed. These veils are either of brown, green, or white and are caught in the back of the head and worn from the bridge of the nose and well under the chin. The eyes and forehead only are shown.

It was a wave of veils at the Casino. Mrs Smith Hollis McKim, of New York, came in wearing a white serge morning gown with a lavender colored parasol, a Panama hat turned up in front and down in the back, with a silk tulle veil carrying almost to the ground. Miss Ethelinda C. Morgan, Mrs. Oliver Harriman and Mrs. Joseph R. Dilworth were the extreme long drooping veils.

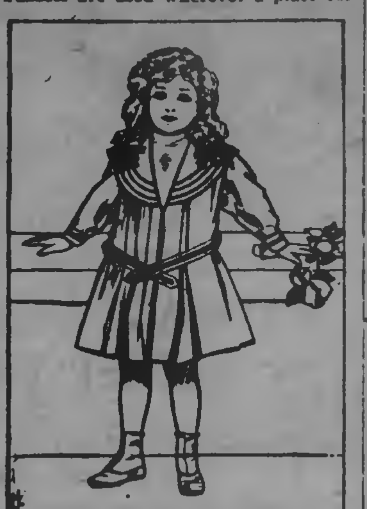
IN FASHION'S REALM.

Trimming a Conspicuous Note of the Summer Gowns.

SOUTACHE IN ALL WIDTHS.

Collars in Many Styles—Not Difficult to Suit Them to the Neck and Make Them Becoming—The Greek Band is Quite Popular.

If the new summer gowns have a conspicuous note this year it is in their trimmings, which seem to stand out in bold relief. Much soutache in all widths and heavy cotton braids are used, in white and dyed to match the fabric. In the skirt and coat suits the outline of the coat is shown by the line of braiding, and either braid or buttons frequently trim the back. Tassels are used wherever a place for them can be found. The heavy and the fine laces are fashionable in combination for trimming both gowns and separate blouses. Very narrow satin plaitings are much used for trimming silk voile or net gowns. They are often introduced in some brilliant shade on a dress of neutral tint. Plaitings of this style frequently define a bib effect on the waist and outline a tunic effect on the skirt. Buttons are used not only where they are needed, but where they are not needed, on the new gowns.



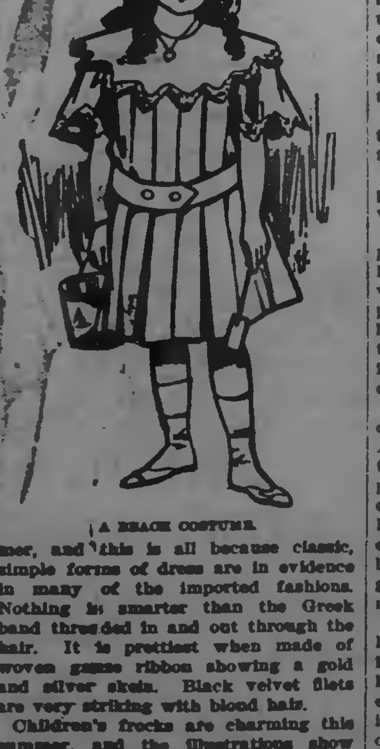
LITTLE GIRL'S TAILORED FROCK.

For the tailored suits there are the fabric colored buttons and the braid buttons. The white and colored cotton crochet button is very popular, and for thin waists there are the new pearl bead buttons.

Collars are in many styles, and it is not difficult to suit your collar to your neck and make it becoming. A short neck and fat face would require a broad turnover collar. These come in stiff linen or soft embroidered lawn or mull. With such a collar a windsor tie is always in good taste.

For the girl with a long neck there are very high transparent collars of lace or chiffon specially high at the sides. An effective way of introducing a touch of bright color into a white or dark gown is by means of an inch wide satin necktie with a satin knot and a tassel of beads at the end. Flat, narrow neckties in this style are also made of beads with tassel ends.

The Greek band, or filet, is the new finishing touch to the hair this summer, and this is all because classic, simple forms of dress are in evidence in many of the imported fashions. Nothing is smarter than the Greek band threaded in and out through the hair. It is prettiest when made of woven gauze ribbon showing a gold and silver skein. Black velvet filets are very striking with blond hair.



A BEACH COSTUME.

Children's frocks are charming this summer, and the illustrations show two pretty models.

AMY VARNUM.

To Clean Osprey.

To clean osprey a lather is made of white soap and tepid water. The feather is then taken in the left hand and dipped into suds. The right hand is drawn down from stem to tip time after time till the osprey is quite clean. If black or white, it is then rinsed in clean tepid water tinged with blue. It must be constantly shaken until dry. All colors require redyeing.

BRIDAL ETIQUETTE.

Plans For Giving a Pretty but Inexpensive Wedding.

Details of a wedding depend much upon the amount of money that is spent, yet a simple and inexpensive ceremony may be more charming than one on which a fortune is lavished.

Unless the bride's family can afford to have a church decorated with palms and flowers it is better to hold the ceremony either in the house or in a hall only large enough to accommodate the guests. By this arrangement the chill and bare effect sometimes met with in churches is avoided.

Bear in mind always that practically every expense in connection with the wedding belongs either to the bride or her parents, and often it is necessary to consider how a limited amount can best be laid out.

To arrange not an altar, but a special part of the room or hall, where the clergyman and bridal party stand, is easily done. For this a few ferns and palms may be hired for a small sum and grouped together to form a background. Should tables or stands be required they may be covered with white cotton.

One bride, whose house wedding was so pretty that her friends have remembered it, arranged a kneeling stand for herself and the bridegroom by laying on the floor a piece of carpeting about six feet long rolled twelve inches deep. Over this was placed a white fur rug. The effect was charming, and the padding was comfortable for the knees.

Cut flowers of course add greatly to the charm of the room, and at a summer wedding blossoms of the season are not expensive.

The flowers carried by the bride and her attendant, if she has one, are supplied by the bridegroom.

If the wedding is a small one and it is intended that the reception shall be informal it is quite proper for friends to be bidden by note instead of engraved cards. In this way money is saved. The notes, if written by the bride elect, must be sent in the name of her mother or guardian—that is, the girl to be married does not issue the invitations, and should it be necessary for her to do the writing she should say:

> Dear Mrs. James—I am writing in behalf of my mother (or father) to ask if you and Mr. James will not give us the pleasure of your company on the occasion of my wedding to Mr. Charles Jones and the reception afterward at such and such a place on Thursday, May the 3d, at 12 o'clock. Yours sincerely,
> JESSICA FROST.

For this communication small, plain note paper should be chosen, and the writing should be on the first page alone. Such an invitation requires an answer from all invited.

The simplest refreshments may be served. Sandwiches, cakes, coffee and chocolate are quite good form. When one can afford them it is nice to have salads, bouillon and ices, but they should not be considered necessary. Wedding cake is not an essential, but at a small wedding there may be one big round cake, cut and distributed by the bride.

KEEP OLD SHEETS.

Many Places in the Household Where They Are Utilized.

There are a number of ways in which every scrap of an old sheet may be utilised if one will give the subject thought. First, there are very few housekeepers ignorant of the fact that if the sides are sewed together and the sheet cut through the center it will be given a new lease of life. Twilled sheets, by reason of their softness, combined with their substantial weave, make excellent polishing cloths and good undercovers for ironing boards.

Old cotton sheets make good bags for inclosing gowns and coats in the wardrobe, one large sheet being sufficient for two wardrobe bags. An old sheet will cut up into several slips for use on the pillows over the ticking. Another plan is to take the best parts for making sheets for cots and cribs, where there are children, reserving the very thin portions for use as dusters.

A large apron for covering the skirt to be used for bedmaking can be made from half a discarded sheet.

Very soft old sheets may be cut in pieces 40 by 20 and devoted to baby's wear.

In the sickroom there is no end to the possibilities of an old sheet. One-half laid across the bed under the patient will serve as a draw sheet. Small pieces may be substituted for a handkerchief and then burned. In infectious cases an old sheet may be dipped in a disinfectant and hung outside the door of a sickroom.

On sweeping days there is a need for old sheets for covering the furniture. As linen wears well and keeps its color to the last thread, many very pretty pieces of decorative work may be evolved from it. An oblong piece, hemstitched all the way around, then embroidered, will make a cover for baby's carriage. Small squares set together with insertion and lace will make a dressing table cover.

Tray cloths and serving cloths of linen are dainty, and simple hemming is within the skill of any person who knows how to use a needle, while clever fingers can convert these remnants into most dainty looking and original creations that will not in the slightest suggest their relations to an old sheet.

An invention that helps one to make puffs of one's own hair without difficulty comes in the shape of a wooden roller, which has a groove in one side and is accompanied by half a dozen big safety pins. The hair is wound around the roller, the pin is slipped through the groove and caught, and the roller is removed and the hair pulled out in a glossy puff. The price for a roller with six pins is 25 cents. Half a dozen extra pins cost 10 cents.

Fort William has paid $52,000 on account of the section of street railway transferred by Port Arthur.

HAY BOX COOKING.

A Boon to Bachelor Girls and Apartment Dwellers.

A hay box which works like a charm has been made by a housekeeper out of a large wooden cracker box. She was very careful to select one without knotholes, through which the heat could escape, and she had the carpenter fit the cover with hinges. Then she put in a lining of asbestus, gluing it to the inside of the box. This is much better than newspapers, she says. Then she put in plenty of good fresh hay, which she renews every two or three weeks.

The kettle in which she cooks her dinner is put in this nest of hay, and a hay pillow with a covering of cotton batting that just fits the top of the box is laid over it, and the cooker is ready for business.

Really ornamental cookers which look like a shirt waist box or a bookcase are a boon to bachelor girls and those who live in small quarters where everything must be in company dress all the time. The food is merely started on the oil stove or tiny gas burner and then tucked apparently in the bookcase to cook peacefully till dinner time.

A woman who has used such a stove gives the following directions for preparing beef a la mode: She advises a piece of from four to six pounds. After wiping and trimming it turn spiced vinegar over it and let it stand for several hours, turning it now and then. Then score it in places, run in strips of lard and brown it in a frying pan with some slices of carrots and minced onion. Put the meat into the pot in which it is to be finally cooked, nearly cover it with water and let it boil for twenty minutes. Put in a small bag of mixed herbs and pack away in the box for at least eight hours. When ready to serve the gravy should be thickened with a little flour.

Another woman says that she has great luck making steamed puddings in her hay box. Any favorite recipe may be used. Put batter into pound baking powder cans, filling them half full, cover, place them in kettle and pour as much boiling water around them as the kettle will hold or until the cans threaten to tip over. Boil one-half hour on the stove and place in box at least four hours. If larger cans are used give an extra hour. The batter should be made a little stiffer than usual. Do not jar the box after pudding is in.

AN OLD STAIRCASE.

How It Was Adapted to the Hall of a New House.

In building a new house it is often possible, given artistic perception and a due sense of the proportionate fitness of things, to adapt old features to it with conspicuous success. The blending of the old with the new, if well planned and judiciously carried out, makes both for interest and beauty, imparting dignity to what is new and creating around what is old an atmosphere of reverent care and appreciation. The picturesque hall in the sketch is a case in point. The original is in a country house built not long ago and, beyond the advantages of good proportions and a pleasant outlook toward a sunny garden, possessing in itself no especial features of striking interest. While, however, the house was in building its future occupants were lucky enough to hear of an old house about to be demolished, in which, it was said, a fine oak staircase was for sale. They went to see it, found their most sanguine anticipations realized and arranged forthwith for its removal to the new house, where it was installed with all honor. The staircase is of English renaissance type, with graceful tapering balusters and classic moldings, wide steps of comfortable depth and a turn after the seventh, making a convenient landing. This turn lent itself exactly to the fitting in of a stone fireplace, which was thus recessed invitingly. The rich honey brown of the old oak, guiltless of stain or of other polish than that best of all polishes, the rubbing of generations, was too beautiful to be hidden by a carpet, and so the stairs have been left uncovered, with only an old Persian rug at their foot, the glory of the hall, which they beautify as no modern stairway, however well designed, could have done.

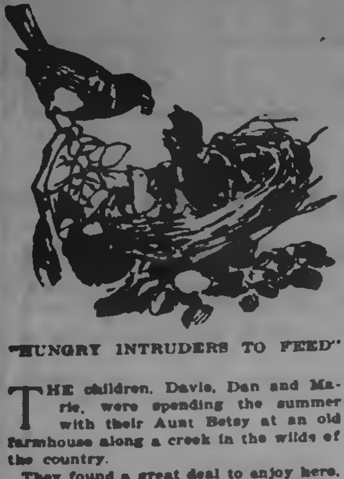
The Cowpen Bird



"HUNGRY INTRUDERS TO FEED"

THE children, Davie, Dan and Marie, were spending the summer with their Aunt Betsy at an old farmhouse along a creek in the wilds of the country.

They found a great deal to enjoy here, but perhaps the many birds afforded them more pleasure than anything else, for they were very much interested in ornithology.

One evening the boys came home from one of their tramps, and Davie said to his aunt, who was sitting on the porch crocheting: "Aunt Betsy, we saw a funny sight today—a bird sitting on the back of a cow, and the cow didn't seem to mind it at all."

"What sort of a looking bird was it?" asked Aunt Betsy.

"It was a black bird, with a gloss of green; the head was gray and the breast a dark violet," answered Davie.

"Oh, that must have been a cowpen bird, or cowbird; also called the cowpen bunting and cow blackbird, for it belongs to the blackbird family," said Aunt Betsy.

"Why do you suppose it was sitting on the cow's back?" asked Dan.

"These birds," answered Aunt Betsy, "are very fond of animals and feeding upon animal parasites, and the name cowbird was given on account of their great fondness for domestic animals. Now, if you will sit down here on the porch with me I will tell you something more about these strange birds."

Marie, hearing the talk, joined them too, and they all settled themselves in easy chairs around Aunt Betsy.

"Among the advanced thinkers in the bird world the cowpen bird occupies the most conspicuous place," continued Aunt Betsy. "He displays the greatest indifference to family relations and has no regard for his children. His courtship is very brief, and he and his wife build no nests."

"THE FAVORITE PERCH"

"No nests!" interrupted Davie, "who ever heard of such a thing."

"No, they do not trouble themselves about nests and housekeeping cares," said Aunt Betsy, "but when the female bird is ready to lay she ceases her search for food, separates herself from her companions and commences a careful reconnoiter. Anxiously and in utter silence she flits from thicket to thicket, peering here and there until she finds a nest with the owner not at home, when she disappears for a few moments."

"And does she really lay her egg in another bird's nest?" asked Marie. "What a mean, dishonorable trick!"

"Yes, that is precisely what she does, and when this is accomplished she emerges perfectly jubilant, ruffling her plumage, and with many a merry chuckle rejoins her companions."

"How many eggs does she lay, Aunt Betsy?" asked Dan.

"That has never been fully determined; it is supposed that but one egg is laid by the same bird in the same nest, but nests have been discovered with two, three or more of the cowpen's eggs in them."

"What sort of a looking egg is the cowpen's?" inquired Davie. "I wish I could see one. I'll bet Mr. Hoopes has one in his collection, for he has about six hundred different birds' eggs."

"Doubtless he has the cowpen's egg among the number," answered Aunt Betsy. "It is a rounded oval, the ground color white, though sometimes so blotched over with fine dottings of purple as to be concealed. It is usually larger than those of the bird whose nest is used, and it hatches from two to four days sooner."

"What birds are most imposed upon by these sly cowbirds?" asked Marie.

"The towhee, black and white creeper and yellow summer bird are the birds whose nests are most frequently appropriated," answered Aunt Betsy. "The cowpen sometimes attempts to use the nest of a catbird, but is not often successful. The yellow summer bird has been known to build a new nest from the old one when used by the cowpen, sometimes making a third story and effectually destroying the foreign eggs in the apartments below."

"How do the foster parents treat these intruders in the family?" inquired Marie.

"I should think they would kill them," remarked Davie.

"No, not at all," replied Aunt Betsy. "On the other hand, they are usually very kind, and never desert their charge, but work with unceasing activity to feed their large and hungry mouths."

"Well," exclaimed Marie, "I never before heard of a bird that was too lazy to build its own nest and shirked the work and care of rearing its young!"

"There are many strange things in bird life, just as in human lives," replied Aunt Betsy.

"Will you not tell us about some of the other birds when you have time?" asked Dan.

"Yes, with pleasure, for I am just as much interested in them as you children are, and here in the country we have every opportunity to study them. I declare, we have talked so long that every swallow has gone to bed and the katydids have commenced to sing."

JESSIE BOWLES FISHER.

Queer Collection Box

AT a church bazaar held in Wimbledon, England, a lad appeared in one of his father's discarded top-hats, which he had converted into a collection box.

PLEASE PUT A COPPER IN MY OLD TOPPER!

"THE COLLECTOR AND HIS BOX"

through it fell into a box placed within the hat.

Round the hat was a placard, bearing these words:

"Please put a copper
In my old topper."

The hat created such a sensation that the lad reaped a rich harvest of coins.

Thing Most Important.

When Dorothy was traveling with her mother in England she was shown a number of relics.

"This," proudly explained their guide, "is a cannon captured from the Americans at the battle of Bunker Hill, in 1775."

"Yes, but we've got the hill," was Dorothy's immediate response.

Sammy's Problem.

Sammy—Ma, am I a lad?

Mother—Yes, of course.

Sammy—And my new pa is my stepfather, isn't he?

Mother—Certainly.

Sammy—Then I suppose I must be his stepladder.

This Dog Grinds Scissors.

In Carpinteria, Cal., there is a dog named Rover, whose greatest delight is to help his master grinding scissors. He will tread on the wheel for hours, never seeming to tire of what is fine sport for him.

Sometimes, when business is not brisk, and there is little grinding for his master to do, Rover will run to him and plead to be allowed to assist at the work again.

The Best Side.

There's a bright side to everything, you know.

A story is told about two buckets of an old well-sweep. One complained because, no matter how it came up, it always went down empty. But the other rejoiced because, even though it went down empty, it always came up filled with clear, sparkling water.

Always Honest.

Once a little servant girl found a dime which her mistress had lost. Upon taking it to the lady, however, she was told that she might keep the coin for her honesty.

A day or so later the mistress asked the girl: "Margaret, did you see a dollar in my room this morning?"

"Yes'm; I found it on the floor, and I kept it for my honesty."

Couldn't Tell a Lie.

Robbie—Only wish I was George Washington.

Auntie—Why, my boy?

Robbie (looking longingly at the pie)—'Cause he couldn't lie, and if he was asked whether he wanted another piece of pie I bet ye he wouldn't have to say "No" when he meant "Yes."

She Knew.

Tillie—Teacher, may I ask you a question?

Teacher—Yes; what do you want to know?

Tillie—Is it because a cat eats lights that her eyes shine in the dark?

Wanted Them Rusty.

When Nellie was taken to the store to have a pair of shoes bought for her, she remarked, "I'd much rather have the rusty ones," thinking of the russet shoes her playmates wore.

Cupid Across the Seas.

By EPES W. SARGENT.

Copyrighted, 1908, by Associated Literary Press.

Grantley Graham leaned over the steamer's rail and regarded the city with a frown. He hated the water, so the distant pier promised relief from the disquiet he always felt when he was on a ship, yet every beat of the powerful engines, every revolution of the huge propellers that pushed the nose of the liner into the very drizzle of a summer rain, brought him nearer to the dreaded dreariness of his own home.

With an almost self commiseration he looked back upon the last few months and contrasted their brilliancy with the life that lay before him, and his soul revolted at the thought of returning to take up the dull monotony of the home life he had always known.

Presently they would dock at the pier. There would be the usual difficulty with the customs which seems to be reserved for the American citizen. The carriages would be waiting, and in a little while he would find himself before the somber brownstone prison that in earlier days had stood to him for all that was elegant and refined.

Jean, his wife, would come out on the high stoop at the sound of the carriage. She would offer her cheek to be kissed. She would ask if he had had a pleasant trip. And then she would follow him into the house and with the closing of the door would be shut out all the social possibilities of the past.

Nothing, however, could deprive him of the thought that he had lived for once. For six weeks in London he had dwelt in a fairyland of fancy. He had mingled with men and women of the world, and almost he had learned to say "My lord" and "Your grace" without feeling his knees weak at the realization that he was speaking to a member of the nobility.

During the year just passed he had accomplished a triumph of engineering and had beaten the British masters at their own craft. They had given up the problem which to Graham had seemed simple enough, and when he had accomplished the result he had become a national hero for a day. The American colony had dined him, and he had been presented to the king, and he had received many invitations to country house parties, all part of the fairy dream.

Graham had married early, and as soon as he left college he had plunged into his work with never a thought of play. This had been his first real vacation, and he had mingled in English society with a delight that was wholly unworthy of his country and his genius.

He had had no time for society in his own land because the work that made him what he was had prevented relaxation. Then, too, Mrs. Graham, proud of his achievements, had been content to share his isolation and find reward for her renunciation of society in the pleasure of removing from his path the hundred petty cares of daily life.

Jean had grown somewhat stout with the passing of the years, and the complexion which had been her greatest charm in her girlhood had faded. At first while abroad Graham had missed her for a time, but in the end he was glad she had not come.

He contrasted her placid content with the feverish brilliancy of the women he had met, and he knew that they and she never could have mixed. For the first time he felt an actual dissatisfaction with his wife and wished that she might be more like those butterfly creatures.

As he thought of them while the carriage rolled uptown he felt more and more a distaste for the wife awaiting him, and when she came to the door to greet him he contrasted the portly figure in its sober dress with the slenderness of the smartly gowned women of title who had amused themselves by turning the head of the clever American for a few weeks.

Yet Graham was astonished to find that he was glad to see Jean. Her kiss of greeting was less perfunctory than he had anticipated. There had been one moment abroad that now he would like to forget. It was at a ball. The lights, the music and a stronger punch than he was used to had all gone to his head.

For one delirious moment he had held a slender, yielding figure in his arms. The next instant Lady Eleanor had accepted the impetuous embrace as a graceful excuse for ending a boyish flirtation that promised to grow embarrassingly serious instead of merely amusing. The memory of that kiss had not been pleasant to Graham, for he was a clean minded man, and he had shuddered at the brink upon which he had found himself.

He followed Jean up the narrow stairway, contrasting it with the great staircases he had seen abroad, and even with the contrast it did not seem to be as mean as he had imagined.

His room was as though he had left it the day before. There were matches on the mantel and some of the cigars he liked best. A book and a reading light were by the head of the bed and his slippers laid out beside the lounge.

Graham was of methodical mind. The prim orderliness of the room was in contrast to the hotel rooms in which he had spent the greater part of a year, and it pleased him to have things just as he wished them to be. This he had not found even in the country houses where he had visited. Some of his disquiet vanished to give place to a sense of satisfaction, and the frown had left his face when he went down to the library, where the recent mail was waiting his attention.

Yes, he was well content to be at home again, and yet he was conscious that a vague something still was lacking. He sat over the unopened letters and wondered what this new feeling might be, yet dinner time came with the solution as far away as ever.

The well served meal with its few simple dishes was a relief after the elaborate dinners of the ocean liner and the still more elaborate functions abroad. Mrs. Graham beamed her satisfaction when he was moved to praise the cooking.

"I was afraid that after the English roast beef you would not care for this," she said.

"As though there was any comparison!" scoffed Graham as he realized that Jean was looking unusually well in her all black gown.

He rather regretted the end of the meal and the custom which decreed that he should be left alone with his work after dinner. The library seemed rather dull, and he was still conscious of that strange sense of a want unsupplied.

For a time he worked over his papers, but a growing dissatisfaction caused him to stop. Impatiently he thrust the papers aside, and, lighting a fresh cigar, he walked over to the window and puffed the smoke out into the silver moonlight while he analyzed his feelings.

To his surprise, he found that, after all, he was glad to get back. He had had a pleasant time, he had enjoyed being lionized, and yet not one of his titled hostesses had made the slightest effort to provide the little things that more than the great ones make for comfort. There had always been a hired housekeeper to look out for his comfort, and the fair chatelaine had been left free for her flirtations and her bridge.

It had been comfortable to find Jean across the table from him, to realize that she was there to see to his comfort, to perform the thousand and one little services of love. It was Jean whom he had missed all the afternoon. She had effaced herself, as she always had done, and he had missed her.

The thought came upon him with the vigor of a blow. He had dreaded meeting her as the steamer had come up the bay, and already he was regretting her absence. He had railed against his dun colored life, and he had regretted that Jean was not like the people he had met.

Now he knew that this quiet life was what he liked best. He would not have Jean other than what she was. Disillusionment had come already in the reaction of the home atmosphere. It was his own fault that Jean was not more to him than she had been. He had himself thrust her into that place. He was still pondering his discovery when his wife entered.

"Is there anything you want, Grant?" she asked as she paused on the threshold. "I am going up to my room unless there was something that you need."

"I need you," said Graham as he came toward her. "I have been wanting you for a year, and I have just found it out. Why, do you know, Jean, that as I came up the bay I was sorry that I was coming home to exchange the whirl of the last few weeks for the dullness of the life we lead.

"And now I find that life very pleasant, and I have made the most astonishing discovery of all—that I love my wife very much indeed."

She saw in his eyes a look that she had not seen since his courtship years before, and she gave a happy little laugh as she laid her head upon his shoulder. The husband that she loved had come home to her, and Cupid had come with him across the seas. Through his very discontent Graham had found contentment.

The Sea.

The small boys who attend a night class in a poor part of Manchester, England, have been writing essays on "The Sea." To many of them the word conveys the vaguest of ideas, for they have never seen the sea, even on a Blackpool bank holiday. In passing through the boys' minds the master's explanations have undergone some quaint refractions. "The sea," writes one utilitarian youth, "is very useful to the crew, as when a sailor dies they have a little service and drop him into it." "The sea," explains another, "is a large piece of land dug from the ground with water in it." One boy seems to have heard of the carrying of trains across by boat from Denmark to Sweden and elsewhere, for he writes, "There are railway routes on the sea as well as on the land," and he adds a comprehensive account of the world under the sea, "At the bottom of the sea are dead people, sponges, water weeds and many other things."

Rhodes and Matrimony.

Cecil Rhodes at one time had a private secretary of whom he entertained a high opinion and whose services he greatly valued. One fine morning this favorite abruptly announced that he was going to be married. The colossus was speechless with indignation for a moment, and then, glaring at the culprit, he growled out, "What on earth am I going to do for another secretary?"

Without waiting for a reply he strode from the room, slamming the door behind him with great violence. His good nature, however, prompted him to extend the forgiving hand later on, and he gave to the bride some fine diamonds. In addition, he lent them his own carriage and horses for use to and from the church.

It never entered his head to give his erstwhile favorite secretary any more employment. Such a crime as matrimony, though forgiven, could not be condoned.

WHERE CIVIC HOLIDAY CAN BE SPENT WITH PLEASURE

Printers' Picnic Promises to be Most Successful Outing—Several Attractive Events on the Programme.

One of the civic holiday events that is attracting much attention is the Printers' Picnic which will be held at Idyl Wyld on Rice Lake. The steamer Otonabee has been chartered for the occasion and will leave Wolfe street wharf at eight o'clock, calling at the street railway wharf. The return fare is fifty cents and if the weather is fine the commodious boat chartered should carry a capacity crowd. Returning the steamer will leave Idyl about five o'clock thereby ensuring an early arrival in the city.

An attractive programme has been arranged for the day and everyone is assured of a jolly time. One of the features will be the drawing for a $20 set of dishes, donated by Hon. J. R. Stratton. A numbered coupon will be given with every ticket for the return trip to Idyl Wyld, and the holder of the lucky ticket will be presented with the dishes.

In connection with the sports at Idyl Wyld, the mile canoe race (open) will be one of the most interesting events. The prize is a ten dollar gold piece, given by Mr. J. H. Burnham. There will be a large number of entries and a most exciting race will be witnessed. Ordinary hunting canoes must be used and single-blade paddles. In addition to several fast canoeists from the city, a number of crack paddlers from Rice Lake will be among the entries.

In addition to a good programme of races there are three events of a special nature. These are the baseball match, tug-of-war and quoit match between the Review and Examiner. The Examiner baseball team got badly swatted last year, but hope to do better this time. "Paxy" and a bunch of city league players tried to hold the Review nine last civic holiday, but were compelled to creep into a hole and pull the hole in after them at the end of seven innings. Everyone hopes they may be able to do better this time. The tug-of-war is a rather uncertain proposition. The Grits are depending on their reputation of having a pull with nearly everything in existence to help them out, but perhaps it will not work this time. The Examiner team is practising daily with a bit of twine in the back shop and so far there has been no breakage. Something of the marvellous strength of the team can be judged from this.

Many improvements have been made at Idyl Wyld since last season and it is an ideal picnic ground. Those who do not take their baskets with them can secure dinner at the hotel at reasonable rates.

The two races which will be given by the Peterborough Turf Club on Civic Holiday, the first day of the two days' summer meet here, promise to be of more than usual interest. On the holiday the named race and the 2.22 class will be contested for, and in the latter event some very fast steppers with marks around .12 1-4 and .21 1-2 will participate. The race for the money has every indication of being a close one.

The named race will be the biggest event of its kind ever held in Peterborough, and there are 12 or 13 entries for it from Brighton, Cobourg, Colborne, Trenton, Port Hope, Lindsay and Peterborough. On the second day the 2.30 and 2.16 classes will be the racing bill.

Organiser Grieve of the Sons of Scotland, was in town on Monday. He is working at Campbellford at present, where he has added twelve new members to the Camp in that town and he expects to have a big meeting here on the evening of the 12th inst.—Havelock Standard.

COTS PUT IN AT ANGUS FOR THE STRIKE BREAKERS

C.P.R. Arranges to Accommodate 1,400 of Them—Elaborate Arrangements Being Made at Montreal to House Non-Union Men

Montreal, Aug. 11.—Interest in the C. P. R. strike was intensified yesterday when 150 more men left work at the Angus shops. The latest addition are cabinet makers, steam fitters, painters and tinsmiths, yet in spite of this the company's officials assert that they are suffering no inconvenience.

While the men were receiving this addition to their ranks, however, the company was making preparations to accommodate a big force of strike-breakers right on their own ground. Some fourteen hundred cots have been purchased and the tents will accommodate that number of men, so that the company seem determined to secure a staff and lodge them on its own grounds.

With regard to the statement that many of the strikers were going back to work, Bell Hardy declared that his advices from all along the line were to the effect that the men were suffering a few cases of defection, but the body was holding solidly together. He also denied emphatically the charge given out by the railway officials that the strike is one of the leaders against the company and not of the men. He points out that the decision to strike was reached after a vote taken by the men from all sections of the system.

He added: "In fact there was so brief a space between the issue of the arbitration commissions' award and the strike that it would have been impossible for the leaders to have influenced the men, even had they tried to do so. What action has been taken was taken by the men spontaneously on the clear cut issue."

At the offices of the C. P. R. the attitude of silence is being preserved throughout.

West Toronto, Aug. 11.—About 20 strike-breakers, nearly all laborers, were run into the C. P. R. yards at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. They came in a train from Toronto and were marshaled by Constable Wright, the C. P. R. detective of Owen Sound.

The C. P. R. constables on duty around the shops speak in the most amicable manner of the conduct of the pickets. "They offer no interference whatever and conduct themselves in a very orderly way. We have no complaint to make at all," said one of the constables.

Toronto, Aug. 11.—It is officially announced from strike sources that they are assured by the American Federation of Labor of support, financial and otherwise. Mr. James O'Connor of Washington, D. C., a prominent official of that organization, will arrive here this week to personally look over the situation.

Winnipeg, Aug. 11.—The harvest fields of the west offer good wages at the present time, and many of the strikers have obtain this class of employment. The strike pay has not commenced in the west.

BOWMANVILLE GAVE WELCOME

To Sergt. Morris, Who won Much at Bisley Meet.

Bowmanville, Aug. 11.—One of the largest and most enthusiastic public receptions ever accorded a single individual was given to Sergt. F. H. Morris on his return from Bisley last night. Citizens turned out in thousands to greet him.

The town was decorated profusedly, and all residences were illuminated.

Addresses were delivered by Mayor Spry and prominent citizens.

Rev. J. Garbutt was just about to speak when a fire alarm close by dispersed the crowd. The barns and stables of Dr. A. S. Tilley were completely burned with contents.

Inspector Makes Charges.

Toronto, Aug. 11.—The Board of Control will investigate the statements made by William Millichamp, who lately resigned his position as civic paving inspector, after nine years' service, because of the outcry against the manner in which the paving of Castle Frank avenue with bitulithic had been carried out.

In an open letter to the city engineer Mr. Millichamp asks an investigation by the county judge and asserts that in allowing defective paving to be laid he merely bowed to the order of G. G. Powell, civic roadways engineer.

Year For Cruel Swindler.

Toronto, Aug. 11.—With a heart full of confidence Miss Kate McClellan accepted the promise of William Curtis, alias Derimo, to marry her and make her a happy woman. But later events have proved that Curtis was a married man, a base deceiver, and that while he was professing love for Miss McClellan, his own poor wife was sending him frantic appeals for little sums of money to keep her from starving. For his villainy Curtis was yesterday sentenced to a year in the Central.

Will Rebuild.

St. Catharines, Aug. 11.—That the Whitman-Barnes Manufacturing Co. will rebuild its Canadian plant in this city was the announcement made by Mayor Campbell last night. The City Council passed a bylaw exempting the company from taxation for ten years.

New Tennis Championship.

Montreal, Aug. 11.—Charles Sherwell of Montreal won the lawn tennis championship of Canada yesterday by defeating Capt. Faulkes of Ottawa, the former champion. Sherwell had an easy victory, winning in three straight sets, 6—4, 6—1 and 6—2.

Claims of West.

London, Aug. 11.—(C. A. P.)—The Archbishop of Canterbury, in a memorandum about the Pan-Anglican thank offering, states that the colonies urgently require aid and the Northwest of Canada has a paramount claim because the need is paramount.

Gets Forty Days.

Toronto, Aug. 11.—G. C. Denton, the former merchant at Sprucedale, Ont., who pleaded guilty a week ago to getting $400 from Gordon, Mackay & Co., by getting goods on padded reports, was sentenced to forty days in jail by Judge Morgan yesterday morning.

Leg Broken and Didn't Know.

Toronto, Aug. 11.—William Dunbar, 20 Geoffrey street, was brought to the city last night and taken to the Western Hospital. His leg was broken four days ago in a lumber camp, but he had been treated for some other ailment.

Fatal Auto Accident.

San Francisco, Aug. 11.—Mrs. Anna Klemme was killed in an automobile accident, and her son Harry was slightly injured.

THE KING AND THE EMPERORS

London, Aug. 11.—King Edward and his suite left London yesterday afternoon for Marienbad by way of Cronberg, where Emperor William is awaiting him.

His Majesty will meet the Emperor to-day and to-morrow he will see Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria at Ischl, after which he will continue to Marienbad, the King's favorite watering place.

That the visit to the two Emperors will not be wholly private in character is suggested by the fact that Sir Charles Hardinge, Permanent Under-Secretary to the Foreign Office, who always accompany the King on diplomatic missions, will be present on both occasions.

King Edward's aim, it is believed, is to endeavor to convince the German and Austrian Emperors that the British policy is not aimed at the isolation or injury of any other power.

Suicide In Jail.

Killarney, Man., Aug. 11.—Edward Scanlan, aged 35, on trial here for breaking windows, and suspected of more serious offences, suicided yesterday morning, in jail by strychnine.

He was for 12 years a resident here, conducting a dray and scavenger business. The trial began Thursday.

He was suspected of numerous arson cases.

Minister Apologizes.

Brockville, Aug. 11.—In the Police Court yesterday morning, Rev. G. W. Snell, Methodist minister at North Augusta, made an apology for malicious damage to property and using insulting language.

The case was dismissed on his paying costs of $31.

Two Die In Auto Wreck.

Painesville, Ohio, Aug. 11.—Mrs. Mary Rowden, 65 years of age, and Mrs. Rose Beckwith, 43 years of age, were instantly killed, and Fred Beckwith, 45 years of age, perhaps fatally injured, and Bessie Beckwith, 16 years, his daughter, badly bruised and burned by the explosion of a steam automobile.

Premier Scott In Court.

Regina, Sask., Aug. 11.—Premier Scott appeared in court yesterday morning on a libel charge that one Laird had received $5,000 on a waterworks contract, but did not state when or from whom. The magistrate adjourned court on technical grounds. The evidence taken was entirely as to publication of libel.

Schoolboys to Shoot.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—A new feature of this year's D. R. A. meeting, which opens Aug. 31, is a school cadets' match, open to one team of eight pupils from any school having a recognized cadet corps.

Every competitor must be under 16 years of age.

Barnardo Boy Drowns.

Smith's Falls, Aug. 11.—Thomas Brown, aged 15, was drowned yesterday while bathing in a creek. He could not swim and got beyond his depth. The deceased was a Barnardo Home boy and was in the employ of Hugh McKenzie.

Fifty Injured.

Piqua, Ohio, Aug. 11.—Fifty persons are reported killed and injured in the collision of two limited cars on the Western Ohio Traction line last night.

Allan Liner's Record.

London, Aug. 11.—(C. A. P.)—The Allan liner Hesperian crossed from Canada to the Clyde in 6 days and 6 hours, breaking all records.

THE CHIEF OF THE FRASERS

Head of Clan Had Busy Day With Scotsmen at Toronto

Toronto, Aug. 11.—Lord Lovat, hereditary chieftain of Clan Fraser, who has come over-seas to meet the Frasers of Canada, broke the record yesterday in the number of addresses presented in a given time to one visitor in Toronto.

The Gaelic Society was given precedence by Lord Lovat in his reply, after which the clan of the Frasers across the seas made their welcome; the Sons of Scotland, the Caledonian Society, the St. Andrew's Society, the Burns' Literary Society, the Highland and Lowland Society, the Daughters of Scotland, the Orkney and Shetland Society, the Caithness Society, the Thistle Club, and many other Scottish institutions.

LORD LOVAT FRASER.

A lunch by the Catholic Union was given at 1.30, when Archbishop McEvoy, Vicar-General McCann, Justice Anglin and W. A. Fraser, Georgetown, were among the guests. Dinner was also given at 7 at the St. Charles, and subsequently a reception was held.

During the day Lord Lovat, who is accompanied by Sir Keith Alexander Fraser, was shown a great part of the city. To-day he will proceed by motor car from Hamilton to Niagara, and he will sail to-morrow from New York by the Mauretania.

THE FLEET AT AUCKLAND

Prime Minister and American Admiral Exchange Greetings.

Auckland, Aug. 11.—Cloudy weather greeted the landing of Admiral Sperry, commander-in-chief of the United States fleet, and his officers to receive official welcome to Australian waters at the hands of Prime Minister Sir George Ward, for the Government. Grouped about the Prime Minister were the members of the Cabinet and various towns, boroughs and district representatives of the Dominion.

In his address Sir George eulogized President Roosevelt as representing the best traditions of the common blood of civilization. He then presented to Admiral Sperry for President Roosevelt a decorated gold and silver album, suitably inscribed. Admiral Sperry was given a beautifully illuminated address of welcome.

The Government gave a banquet to Rear Admiral Sperry and the officers of the fleet last night. There were 750 persons in attendance and the affair was carried out on a magnificent scale. The Prime Minister proposed a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, during the course of which he said: "Each is a born ruler, richly endowed with common sense and a great ardent lover of his country and people. Each is a peacemaker. We are proud of Admiral Sperry's visit and no fleet save a British one is so welcome."

Mistaken Identity.

St. Thomas, Aug. 11.—A. E. Hamilton, who lives a few doors from Mr. McClellan, is convinced that Saturday night's bomb was not intended for McClellan, but thinks it was the work of someone who intended to get spite on him for his work as president of the Humane Society.

Sir Wilfrid Absent.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier did not return to the capital last evening, as expected, but he will be here to-day for the Cabinet meeting.

The Ministers will then disperse for a fortnight's campaign in their constituencies.

General Booth Has Cataracts.

London, Aug. 11.—An officer of the Salvation Army confirms the report that has been current for some time that General Booth is suffering from cataracts on both eyes.

OBSERVING THE LICENSE LAW KIND WORDS FROM THE GLOBE

"'The Provincial Secretary is entitled to credit for the energy and determination he has shown in procuring the conviction and punishment of license-holders who have been breaking the law.'" —Globe, Saturday, August 8th, 1908.

The Whitney Government professes to be in earnest in desiring to enforce the law whether the license law or any other. It is gratifying to find that the Globe recognizes that Government's sincerity. The people of Ontario will give credit where it is due, if they know of it and words such as these coming from a great political opponent may be taken as conveying the truth.

STONY LAKE OUTDID ALL PREVIOUS ACHIEVEMENTS

Annual Regatta Yesterday the Most Successful Ever Held —Perfect Weather, Great Races and a Monster Crowd Some of the Features.

Special to the Review.

Stony Lake, August 10 — The Stony Lake regatta proved to be a grand day for the lake. Early in the afternoon the crowd began to gather and the concourse of people, launches, skiffs and canoes, was the largest ever seen on the lake. A feature of interest was the display made by the famous speed boat, "Miss Fidgetty" handled by Mr Robt Shaw, which astonished people with its marvellous speed.

The races were started promptly on time and carried through a long programme to a capital finish. In many of the events there were plenty of entries, but several were cancelled from the programme for want of competitors.

The sailing races did not bring out many entries, the power launch interests having taken away those who devoted time in past contests to the sailing races.

The several features of the afternoon were taken care of by the ladies of the Stony Lake Association who served tea to the visitors during the afternoon.

The steamer Eturian brought down the members of the Sturgeon Lake Club, also the Chemong Club, with the associations both well represented.

In the evening the usual dance was held in the pavilion.

Prizes Presented.

In the evening the prizes were presented to the victorious competitors by Hon. J R and Mrs Stratton. The presentation took place in the pavilion which was prettily decorated, Mr Acton, pres. of the Cottagers' Association occupied the chair and Mr Stratton made an appropriate speech before the prizes were presented. The winners were loudly cheered on coming forward to receive their prizes.

After the presentation of prizes, a dance was held, music being provided by the Grand Opera House orchestra The hop was most enjoyable. The Peterborough people arrived home on the late train from Lakefield.

FOUR KILLED IN SMASH-UP ELECTRIC CARS COLLIDE

Twelve More Are Injured as Result of Second of Excursion Cars to Erie Beach Running Amuck and Plunging Into First.

Chatham, Aug. 11.—A rear-end collision yesterday morning on the trolley line leading to Erie Beach, a new summer resort, has caused four deaths, while two of the dozen injured are in a critical condition.

Two cars loaded with excursionists left the city shortly after 10 o'clock. One car had about a minute's lead. They were about half an hour late, and both were traveling at a high rate of speed.

When in front of the fair grounds, still within the city limits, the head car stopped to take on a passenger.

The motorman on the rear car saw the one in front stop and tried to check the speed of his car, but was unable to do so. The brakes refused to work, and the car smashed headlong into the front car, which was standing still.

The cars were so crowded with people that they were standing on the steps and in the vestibules.

When the crash came the vestibule of the rear car was smashed and the whole end of the head car was smashed.

Doctors and ambulances were soon on the scene and the injured were taken to the hospital. This city was thrown into a turmoil of excitement.

Wm. Broomhead of Detroit, visiting here, was killed instantly, the top of the skull being crushed.

Wm. Donovan, a small boy, also met instant death, his head being crushed in.

Michael and John Pleasance, brothers, also died during the afternoon. The latter had one leg completely severed.

Among the less seriously injured are: Mr. Fields, badly bruised; Miss Henry, badly bruised; Carrie Snell, bruised and injured; Mrs. Dunkley, eye injured and bruised; Geo. Dunkley, Sr., hand badly crushed and sprained; Frederick Norwood, conductor on No. 14, his leg sprained and bruised; Mrs. James Smith, limbs badly contused; William Hume, wrist sprained; Richard Stein, Dover, contusions of shoulder, hip and legs; Mrs. Stein, injury to eye; Mrs. Richard Pope and Mrs. Dix, seriously ill from nervous shock.

A coroner's jury was empanelled yesterday afternoon and after a short session adjourned to look over the wrecked cars and the scene of the disaster, and it is likely an enquiry will be instituted to learn why the wrecked cars were moved by the railway company before the jury viewed the scene.

The jury will make their findings on the body of Frank Donovan. This little lad's head was practically beaten into a pulp, and a large scar above the right ear allowed the scalp to hang over the face. The other dead are almost as badly mangled. The jury reassembled this morning at 10 o'clock and commenced to take evidence.

The allegation has been made in certain circles that the accident was the result of negligence on the part of the C. W. & L. E. Co. in not having car No. 8 equipped with air brakes.

CHARGED WITH THE THEFT OF BICYCLE

Two Young Men Appeared in Police Court To-day—Were Remanded

Walter Mahaffy and Bruce Hamilton, appeared in Police Court this morning charged with the theft of the bicycle of W. Walker, on Saturday last. City Clerk Armstrong presided in the absence of Magistrate Dumble. Chief Rossel asked for a remand until Friday morning. The two prisoners will remain in jail until then. They were arrested by P. C. Adams and Mebarry on Saturday afternoon.

BROKE COLLAR BONE IN FALL

Jimmy McMartin of Otonabee Victim of an Accident on Sunday

As the result of falling off a bicycle on Sunday, Jimmy McMartin, who resides in Otonabee at the south end of the city, had his collar bone broken. He landed on the hard road with considerable violence. He is now in St. Joseph's hospital and is getting along nicely. Jimmy was to have run in the Otonabee road race on Monday and greatly regretted his accident.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

Thomas Symington of Sarnia died suddenly.

Fred Milligan was drowned at Brantford.

The wife of Joseph Moreau, a Quebec caterer, ended her life by taking carbolic acid.

Canada's revenue for the first four months of the current fiscal year decreased $6,789,589.

George Fox was kicked into insensibility at Strathroy by his horse taking fright at an auto.

Robert Allan, aged 20, was drowned at Keewatin. He dived from a canoe and got caught in the weeds.

William Parker, aged 80 and a veteran of the Crimea, died homeless and friendless in the district jail at Port Arthur.

A survey party, consisting of 100 men, leave Winnipeg this week to locate the route of the proposed Hudson Bay railway.

THE SHAH IS HELD PRISONER

His Tribesmen Protectors Are Holding Him for Ransom.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 11.—Special despatches received here from Teheran give a tragic-comic description of the position of the Shah of Persia, who is virtually a prisoner in the hands of wild tribesmen summoned to Teheran to protect the throne against the revolutionaries, but who have become a greater menace to the monarch than his other foes.

The tribesmen are extravagant in their demands for money, which the Shah is unable to grant, and they threaten to destroy the palace and pillage Teheran.

A Desperate Suicide.

Newburgh, N. Y., Aug. 11.—Chas. Rudman, a cigar manufacturer, aged 50, was found dead on the outskirts of the city yesterday with his throat cut. On Saturday Rudman wrote a letter to an employe, enclosed a check for $123 which he owed him, and told him that he was going to kill himself because his mother was critically ill. He left minute directions as to where the body would be found.

All day Sunday Rudman played cribbage with friends.

Officials Subpoenaed.

Toronto, Aug. 11.—Mayor Oliver and the members of the Board of Control, Corporation Counsel Fullerton and City Solicitor Chisholm, President W. K. Geary and Manager J. O. Orr of the exhibition, and auditors Henry Barber and Henry Vigeon have been served with subpoenas commanding their attendance as witnesses at the trial of Col. J. K. Leslie in the Police Court on Friday morning next.

The sum of $25,000 paid over by Mrs. Leslie last week to cover the shortage has been deposited in the bank to the credit of the Exhibition Association.

Ottawa Nominations.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—The Liberal primaries elected delegates for the party convention to-night. Feeling runs high, a strong party opposing the nomination of Robert Stewart, M. P. The indications at present are that A. W. Fraser, K.C., will be the choice, though it is freely said that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will put his foot down on this, in which case H. B. McGivern may carry the convention. Auguste Lemieux, K. C., brother of the Postmaster-General, seems to hold the card for the French nomination, though Dr. Chevrier has a strong following.

Had a Premonition.

Windsor, Aug. 11.—It is learned that, imperiled by a presentiment that some tragedy had occurred at home, William Overton, manager of the Dominion Fisheries Co., with headquarters at Winnipeg, cut short his visit to friends in this city and started home Friday afternoon. His son was one of the victims on the Premier, which was burned on Lake Winnipeg last week.

Thinks He Should Have Hanged.

Montreal, Aug. 11.—L'Evenement of Quebec has a very severe article condemning the Minister of Justice for commuting the sentence of death passed upon Omer Rochette, who poisoned his wife in the most cold-blooded manner.

The Quebec paper declares that there were no extenuating circumstances whatever, and insinuates that it was party politics which saved the murderer.

BIRTH

At Peterborough on Monday, Aug. 10th, 1908, the wife of Mr. F. J. A. Hall, 22 Crescent street, of a son.

WOMAN'S POWER

The healthy woman, strong mentally and physically, whose ambition and magnetic influence urge men to deeds of grandeur and heroism; such women are all-powerful.

Weak, sick and ailing women have little ambition; their own troubles occupy all their thoughts. They dwell upon their pains, suffer from nervousness and headaches; often are extremely melancholy, and avoid society. For thirty years has been saving women from this awful condition.

Mrs. John Scott, 489 Grand Trunk St., Montreal, writes Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was very much run down in health from a female trouble, was thin, nervous, very weak, and suffered from bearing down pains. Indeed I did not care whether I lived or died.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me of all my troubles. I gained in flesh, and am free from backache, female trouble, sick headaches, and nervousness.

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice.

MODERN STUDIES

Children of the present day are taught to learn by rote. Certain methods are announced and these must be made use of in the most slavish way. Unless supplemented by the father and mother with that slow but pleasant reasoning of the domestic sort a child does not thrive mentally. It gets on but not through. We have seen how plainly even the "latest methods" as in Toronto, fail utterly to imbue the young mind with the spirit of thought when they grow older. Young people, as a consequence, simply chatter. They do not talk. They know nothing of the history of thought unless they have lived down their early training.

The most casual thinker knows that brooding upon a subject is the only way of absorbing it or of making use of it. We are taught to death. Let us do a little thinking for ourselves. This is where, we submit, the value of History as a study comes in. It is not one subject, not religion, science, art or any of those, but all combined. The student of history, rises to where his view is worldwide, but his vision not the less keen. The higher the sweep of the bird of the air, the more it sees. So is it with us. It is much better to cultivate the empyrean than to dig in the bowels of the earth for gold. It is almost strikingly befitting that those who seek gold do so in the depths and darkness not on the heights and in the light. Given then an opportunity and a desire to study History, what can be more edifying? It is true the study of the principles of religion or moral philosophy or of astronomy may furnish a field of investigation more in touch with the Maker and Master of the universe but so far as our own mere human doings are concerned History affords more than any other field the opportunity of grave and reverend introspection. The keynote of today is doing. Thinking, as such has largely been abandoned by the people at large. It is sneered at as unpractical. But is it? The theorist is like the engineer of a great undertaking. The others merely do the work. It is a pity that we are not being educated in the older and truer sense. We, as we have said before, are "taught" but so are parrots. Men shall not live by bread alone. There is also a food for thought. We seem to forget it, however.

THE ISSUE IN SASKATCHEWAN

The issue of the coming provincial elections in Saskatchewan is Federal Interference. Is the province to be governed from Ottawa. Strange as it may seem the provincial public domain is not the property of the province but of the Government at Ottawa. Neither minerals, timber, fish nor water is the property of the province. It has no public domain, no provincial sources of wealth. Ottawa is the real source of power also. It is the most extraordinary case of "holding up" a province in the making ever heard of. But why was it done? Is it a lever for the present only, or for the future? In any event this anomalous state of affairs provides a fairly life-sized issue for the coming election. What Ottawa says goes in Saskatchewan— at present. It is not a case of bearing out the provisions of the B.N.A. our Dominion charter, but of evading them.

TREACHERY

Reports received from various Western division centres show that the strike was practically unanimous all union men obeying the headquarters' call without question. At Moose Jaw, Swift Current, Medicine Hat and other westerly points the Company has endeavored to keep the shops open by bringing in gangs of Japanese from off section work but there is not enough skilled labour to leaven the mass.—Toronto News.

The Examiner of recent date charged us with bidding for votes by our defence of the immigrant from its insulting invitation to "go west" and work. It is bad enough for our contemporary to bluff the immigrant into coming over here without bluffing him when he gets here with charges of laziness and unwillingness to work. The fact is there is not half enough work for our own people here, let alone those who are induced to come across the sea. But the question most seriously and intimately involved in immigration at the present time is that respecting the use of Japanese by the C.P.R. as strike-breakers. Whatever the merits of the strike may be, one thing is certain, there are some merits in it for the Government thus had it under consideration for months. Thus the Japs are to provide the material for breaking up or down, our own good Canadians. It is nothing less than a shame. As the Scotch say, "We're a' John Tamson's bairns," and whatever our differences, let us settle them amongst ourselves and not the importation of Orientals. Such a course as this is bound to produce bad and far-reaching results. The whole plot and scheme of the great and highly advertised Immigration Wonder is now exposed. It may be said that the real game of it was apparent from the first, but the Laurier Government, especially Sir Wilfrid himself, kept saying "Oh! no. We wouldn't do such a thing." Now we have it in all its gruesome disloyalty to Canada and in all its horrible disregard of the amenities and decencies of our own good Canadian life. Sir Wilfrid Laurier should be ashamed to look the people of Canada in the face. He afforded, nay, created, the means by which the east was to provide wage-breakers for the workmen of the Dominion. By strenuous fighting the Opposition, under Mr. Borden checked full fruition of the scheme aided by the rebellion of the British Columbians but the wrong is creeping upon us again and in an even more insidious and hideous form.

TOO THICK

The Mail and Empire is not alone in its deliberate misrepresentation of what has been done with the Crown lands of the West in the way of administration. The Toronto News is equally specific in its falsification. It says one of the grounds of objection to Federal interference in Saskatchewan three years ago was that its lands, timber, and minerals were "seized" in order to serve the exigencies of the Ottawa politicians. The term here used was obviously chosen for the express purpose of creating a prejudice against the present Dominion Government, and it is, therefore, an explicit falsehood. It was used for the purpose of conveying the impression that the people of the West had owned and administered the lands prior to the establishment of the provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta, in 1905, and that they were deprived of them when these provinces were created. There is not a word of truth in the allegation.—Globe.

Does the Globe suppose that anybody is deceived by this man of straw artifice? Are we to suppose that the Globe supposes that anybody else supposes that the "western lands" which as part of the territories, belonged as the territories did to the Dominion Government, which made provinces of them but failed to endow them with "lands" in the usual way—that these lands were wild lands, running round loose to be at last caught like the buffalo and put in irons. This is a bit "thick," even for the Globe. The people of the new provinces never got the lands. That's what the row is about.

Endemics are said always to travel from east to west.

The Upper Lakes traffic in Canadian waters has fallen away this year by one-half.

People who sneer at modern athleticism are perhaps unaware of the enormous improvement it has brought about in the race.

No man who wants to work should be without it. The State can see to that. Self-respect will prevent the habit of relying on the State from getting chronic.

Bourassa went off to Belgium instead of remaining at home to attend the Tercentenary. He evidently does not care to attend the Peace of Paris.

Blights are falling upon the wheat, oats, corn, potatoes, etc., What is the Agricultural College doing. Now is its time to get busy.

The rebound has begun with a vengeance in the United States. Tremendous orders are being given in all directions. The people have caught up with the oversupply and are calling for more. Here in Canada it is lack of cash that affects us. It has gone out of the country the balance of trade being year after year against us. Even borrowing can't save us. Still it is hard to keep down a young country that is almost overflowing with natural resources.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Central Canada EXHIBITION AT OTTAWA

Sept. 18th to 26th, '08

Displays will far excel those of any previous year. A Grand Pure Food Exhibit is to be made by Canadian manufacturers.

High class vaudeville programme will be given daily in front of the Grand Stand in addition to the horse races.

The night entertainment will consist of the latest comic opera "What Happened Then?" by the famous De Wolff Hopper and all star company. Popular prices will prevail.

A grand display of paintings and Ladies' Work will be made to signalize the opening of the handsome new fire-proof building, now being erected at a cost of $12,000.

The special attraction in front of the Grand Stand in the afternoon will include the latest European novelty "Del Oro's Performing Cows." This attraction is billed to appear in Ottawa for the first time in America. There will also be a most sensational automobile race on a specially constructed incline, the contesting chauffeurs being two daring young women.

There will be balloon races daily with a double parachute descent from each balloon by the famous Prof. Hutchison and companion.

Get the official programme when issued next month.

JAPS FILL VACANCIES

Orientals Are Being Distributed on Western C. P. R.

But Strikers Say They Leave as Soon as Situation Is Explained — Two Hundred Employes of Angus Shops Quit Work—Sleeping Accommodation Is Being Installed For New Men—Armed Guards Patrol Yards.

Winnipeg, Aug. 10.—No very important changes in the strike situation occurred yesterday.

The ranks of the men are being continually added to as a result of the company's officers attempting to force men in other departments than those affected to take the places of men on strike, and giving them no alternative but to take the job or quit.

Considerable numbers of Japanese are being distributed at prairie points, to take the place of strikers, but as soon as the situation is explained to them by interpreters, they immediately leave work, according to the reports of the strikers.

"Newspaper reports to the effect that the strikers' places have all been filled are incorrect, as there is very little labor offering, and that available is all unskilled and useless in maintaining equipment," said J. H. McVety, the mechanics' representative to your correspondent.

Large numbers of Pinkerton, and Thiel detectives are being imported from the United States to protect the company's property and the force of C. P. R. police has been increased fourfold, but the mechanics have been warned by their officers to avoid these men, as it is expected that they will attempt to incite the men to violence and bring about the same condition of affairs as existed during the Winnipeg street railway strike.

An accident occurred in the roundhouse here on Saturday. A clerk from one of the offices, who was acting as a boilerwasher, attempted remove a plug from a boiler without first blowing off the steam pressure, the result being that he was seriously scalded.

"While the committee are confident of ultimate success, they hope to see a speedy settlement in order that the commercial interests of the country will not be affected," was a statement made by Mr. McVety last night.

Montreal, Aug. 10.—Over 200 more C. P. R. mechanics quit work at the Angus shops on Saturday, making well over two thousand now on strike here.

The men who came out are sawmill hands, cabinet makers, tinsmiths, painters and steamfitters, and all were employed in the car works, which had kept going with a fairly full force since the strike begun Wednesday.

With regard to the going out of the men in the car shops, it was stated at the general offices that these men were employed on the making of passenger cars and were not laid off before this merely because the company did not wish to have the trouble of reorganizing the staff when times got better and business picked up once more.

The officials declare that some skilled labor is coming into the shops from outside sources. While there is embarrassment in some of the departments, it is stated there is no serious trouble in keeping trains running and in taking care of the regular business of the company.

Bell Hardy for the strikers declared yesterday: "The accession of the men from the car shops shows how the wind is blowing. We have heard every day from the company about the men dribbling back. We do not need to make statements of that kind about strikers coming out, for they come out in such a way that everybody can see and hear them."

North Bay, Aug. 10.—The C. P. R. strike has developed no new features on this division. At North Bay about fifty strike-breakers are at work in various capacities. Italians are being utilized in rougher branches of work.

Passenger cars have been fitted up to provide eating and sleeping accommodation for strike-breakers, who are carefully guarded by C. P. R. policemen.

The railroad yards are patrolled at night by guards armed with rifles, but no hostile demonstration of any kind has been made by strikers.

Trains are moving on schedule time.

FIRE AT STIRLING.

Acetyline Gas Plant Explodes and Damage Is $75,000.

Stirling, Aug. 10.—A disastrous fire occurred here Saturday night at 11.30, caused by the explosion of an acetylene gas outfit in the general store of Fred T. Ward.

The fire quickly spread both ways, and before it was under control the following business places were totally destroyed: The Bank of Montreal. Rosebush barber shop, James Beldrick, fur store; H. Hadley, jewelry store; John Brown, boots and shoes; James Ralph, furniture store; Cook & Fox, general store; Dr. Zwick's office, Dr. Watt's office, George Reynolds, boots and shoes; T. A. Eggleton, photograph gallery and residence; Mrs. Elliott's residence; Fred T. Ward's store and residence.

For some time it looked as though the whole town would be swept and Peterboro was wired for help, but it did not arrive until the fire was under control.

The loss is in the neighborhood of $75,000.

EARTHQUAKE DOWN EAST.

District Around Woodstock, N. B., Feels Distinct Seismic Disturbance.

Woodstock, N. B., Aug. 10.—Seismic disturbances were felt at several points in this county on Saturday.

In Woodstock two distinct shocks are reported. The first was a tremor about 3 p. m., and the second a more pronounced one at about 6.30. In several houses dishes were made to rattle, but no damage is reported.

Reports from Hartland, Bristol, Grand Falls and other river points are much to the same effect, the shocks being more or less distinctly felt by many persons.

One reliable resident of this town says his house seemed to rise about a foot and as suddenly recede.

LEAPS OUT OF WINDOW

Lindsay Prisoner Escapes From Crowded Court Room.

George Walker at End of All-Day Trial Gets Away Under Magistrate's Nose Just Before the Sentence Is Pronounced and Is Lost In Darkness—He Is Still at Large —Had Stolen a Watch.

Lindsay, Aug. 10.—Hurling himself through an open window seven feet above the ground in the court room in which he had just been convicted of theft, George Walker, made a sensational escape, and has not yet been recaptured.

The court room was filled with a large gathering of townsfolk, as considerable interest was taken in the trial of the young man, who is well-known in Lindsay. The charge was that of stealing a gold watch, valued at $60, on Aug. 1 from J. Parsons of Toronto. A verdict of guilty had been returned, and the court room was waiting at 9.30 p.m. to hear Magistrate Moore pronounce sentence, after a trial which had lasted all day.

In a moment during which Chief of Police Vincent had his attention taken up with some papers at the opposite side of the room, Walker, who was seated about the centre of the court room, rose to his feet and slided unobtrusively a few feet towards a window, which was open about a foot. Then, with a cat-like bound, he cleared the intervening space, and, with arms poised above his head like a swimmer about to dive, he projected himself through the window into the darkness.

The court room was in an uproar in an instant. Chief Vincent followed through the window in pursuit, while the attending constable, and the excited spectators rushed for the exit, but Walker was swallowed up in the darkness, and no trace of him could be found.

The only clue to the missing man was supplied by a resident not far from the court house, who said that Walker came to him as he was working the pump and obtained a drink. This incident occurred within a few minutes of his escape. His house was watched through the night, and the police have been scouring the countryside without success.

Walker was convicted in April, 1906, of burglary and thefts committed in Lindsay, and was sentenced to two years in Kingston, but was released on parole in May last year.

He is 5 feet 6 inches high, with florid complexion and brown hair, is freckled and has thin features. He was dressed in blue serge when he escaped, but without hat, collar and tie.

Stopped For Operation.

New York, Aug. 10.—While in mid-ocean, the Cedric of the White Star line was stopped nearly three hours on Sunday afternoon so that a surgical operation could be performed on Mrs. Thomas Trebell, cabin passenger, of this city.

DYNAMITED AT ST. THOMAS.

Enemy of Wm. McClellan Hangs Explosive on Doorknob.

St. Thomas, Aug. 10.—Though lacking the finesse of Harry Orchard's methods, there was apparently serious intention to injure William McClellan through the exploding of a crudely improvised bomb, attached to the knob of the front door of his home, 53 Scott street, Saturday night.

A terrific detonation at 11.10 p. m. aroused the whole neighborhood into startled wakefulness, and, with the impression that safeblowers had been at work, investigations were begun. What was discovered was the remnant of a galvanized iron pail, which had been charged with gunpowder and other explosives wrapped in oiled rags, wire and binder twine, and, with several bricks laid on the top, had been attached to the doorknob. There were evidences to show that a section of a candle had served as a fuse. The violence of the explosion rent the pail into pieces and shattered the bricks, but, by good fortune, the force of the charge was diverted away from the door, which was only slightly scorched.

The police are seeking a clue to the identity of a man in a buggy who, only five months before the explosion, enquired at a house a block away for the McClellan home. The fact that Mr. McClellan was license inspector in West Elgin three years ago, may, it is believed, have some bearing on the situation.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

Mrs. J. Bennett of Weston was found dead in bed on Saturday.

Printing of the voters' lists may commence at Ottawa this week.

Mrs. Alfred Flaws of London was found dead by her husband on Saturday.

William Paul, awaiting execution at Kenora, tried to strangle himself with his blanket.

Prof. W. C. Murray of Dalhousie may become president of the University of Saskatchewan.

W. J. Karr, B.A., Paed., of Toronto, will be master of the bilingual training institute at Ottawa.

The Provincial Government may sue for succession dues on the estate of John Patton, who died in Detroit.

It is rumored that F. H. McGuigan, late of the Grand Trunk, has secured the contract for the construction of the power transmission line.

Strikers Fire on Train.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 10.—Three men were instantly killed and 11 wounded, when striking miners fired into a passenger train on the Birmingham Mineral Railway at Blocton, early yesterday morning.

The dead: Conductor Joe Collins; O. Z. Dent, deputy sheriff; William Willard Howard, non-union miner.

The train was a special bearing non-union men to the Blocton mines, under a guard of soldier and deputies.

Big Temperance Wave.

Toronto, Aug. 10.—Dominion Counsellor Flaige was given an enthusiastic reception by the Toronto Royal Templars on Saturday. He gave a rapid review of his recent successful official tour in Manitoba and the Northwest. The prospects of a local option wave sweeping Manitoba this fall will be considered assured, as contests had been started in 70 per cent. of the municipalities.

NATURE A VERY SKILFUL PHYSICIAN

Puts Up Her Medicines In Most Tempting Form.

Have you ever tasted anything more delicious than the fresh, ripe, luscious fruits? These are Nature's medicines.

A regular diet without fruit is positively dangerous, for the system soon gets clogged with waste matter and the blood poisoned. Fruit Juices stir up Bowels, Kidneys and Skin, making them work vigorously to throw off the dead tissue and indigestible food which, if retained, soon poison the blood and cause Indigestion, Headaches, Rheumatism, Neuralgia and a host of other distressing troubles.

But there is a quicker way to stimulate the organs to do their work properly. Take one or two "Fruit-a-tives" tablets every night, besides eating some fresh fruit every day. "Fruit-a-tives" combine the medicinal properties—many times intensified — of oranges, apples, prunes and figs, with the best tonics and internal disinfectants added.

Their action on Bowels, Liver, Kidneys and Skin is as natural as Nature's own, but quicker and more effective. Sold by all dealers—25c. for trial box—50c. for regular size — 6 boxes for $2.50. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Picton Is Scorched.

Picton, Aug. 10.—At noon yesterday fire broke out in a two-storey brick building on Main street occupied by H. G. McGregor, grocer, and D. J. Goodwin, boots and shoes. McGregor's stock was badly damaged by smoke and water, but the damage to buildings is small. Goodwin's stock was slightly damaged by smoke.

Building Collapses.

Szegedin, Hungary, Aug. 10.—During a hurricane Saturday afternoon a large factory collapsed and a hundred workmen were buried in the ruins.

Four bodies and fourteen persons severely injured have been recovered from the debris. Seventy persons are still missing.

Police Beaten to Death.

Metean, Mass., Aug. 10.—The corpses of Frank Emerson and Frank McDermott, officers of Metean, were found in a meadow on the outskirts of this town yesterday, covered with bruises.

The two officers were sent out Saturday night to watch for hen and vegetable thieves.

They failed to return yesterday and upon a search being made, their bodies were found bearing every evidence that they had been beaten to death.

Booth Off For Africa.

London, Aug. 10.—General William Booth, comander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, sailed Saturday afternoon for Cape Town, on a three months' tour of South Africa. The aged Salvationist, who is almost 80 years old, has mapped out an itinerary that would tax the strength of a much younger man.

Miss Charest Arrested.

Montreal, Aug. 10.—The authorities have made another move in the civic pay roll stuffing scandal by having arrested Miss Anita Charest, a daughter of the road department foreman, who is charged with stuffing the lists and who has left the city.

Some interesting developments are expected.

Accepts Kingston's Offer.

Kingston, Aug. 10.—R. H. Walks, Lindsay, has been offered and has accepted the position of English master in the Kingston Collegiate Institute.

ATTENDED SERVICE AT ST. JOHN'S

Brotherhood of St. Andrew Attended Early Communion Service on Sunday

The early communion service was attended by the members of No. 6 Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, being the occasion of their monthly corporate communion. Matins and evensong were well attended, many visitors finding their way to the church on the hill. The choristers led the services in goodly numbers, service forms being used for the Te Deum at Matins and for the evensong Canticles.

Mr. Joseph Hagarty sang well in the sacred solo, "The Way of the Cross" ably assisted by Master Frank Hagarty (violin) and Mr R. J. Devey (organ).

The anthem, "Praise the Lord" was well rendered at evensong, the accompanying quartette being a special feature. Rev. Dr. Foster conducted all the services and preached scholarly and helpful sermons.

After giving out the notices Dr. Foster announced that he would be in the vestry each morning from 9 to 10 to make any parochial business and to meet members of the congregation. Noting that the way of conducting the services was not stereotyped, Dr. Foster said that he should do so to the best of his judgment according to the authority by which he was priest in charge of St. John's parish.

WEDDING BELLS

CRAIG—BURTON.

An event of much interest to the town was the marriage of Ross Brown Craig, of Peterborough, and Ruby Cameron, second daughter of Frank Burton, of Dundas, which took place Monday evening, August 3rd, at 7.30 p.m. The ceremony was quietly celebrated at St. Andrew's manse, Hamilton, by Rev. Mr. Wilson. Both bride and groom were unattended. The bride wore a stylish travelling suit of brown panama cloth with white blouse and white lingerie hat.

After the ceremony the bride's uncle, ex-Senator Burton, of New York, entertained the bridal party to an enjoyable champagne supper at the Waldorf hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Craig then left on a wedding trip to points west and upon their return will reside in Dundas and their many friends extend best wishes.

OVER 2000 PEOPLE WENT OUT OF CITY YESTERDAY

Picnics to Different Points Were Largely Attended—Many at Stony Lake Regatta—Railways Did Big Business.

Over 2,000 people went out of Peterborough for Civic Holiday, but the city was by no means deserted. Although there were not many people on the streets during the day, the ball games at Riverside Park and the races at the Driving Park were well attended. The weather conditions were ideal for a holiday and it was one of the most enjoyable in years.

Over 400 went out of the city by trains.

Altogether over 2,000 people spent the holiday at points outside the city. This pretty nearly sets a new record.

LOCAL BRIGADE DID GOOD WORK AT STIRLING FIRE

The Peterborough fire brigade did good work at the fire at Stirling on Sunday morning and managed to save Shaw's general store and the entire block of buildings in which the store was located in the main portion of the town.

At 12.05 a call for assistance was given the local brigade by the reeve of Stirling. Chief Howard replied he would be able to render aid provided the Mayor gave his consent. He advised Mayor Rush and Ald. Johnston, chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, of the request from Sterling and he was furnished with a written order to give the help asked for. The reeve of Stirling in sending the message said that the town of Stirling would meet all the expenses the Peterborough brigade incurred in connection with the trip.

It was impossible to get a train to load the apparatus of the brigade out until 2.20. The steam fire engine and hose waggon with 1,000 feet of hose were loaded in 22 minutes. Ald. Johnston, Chief Howard's son and six others volunteered to assist in fighting the fire and they accompanied the chief and two of the regular firemen to Sterling.

It took the train about 35 minutes to reach Stirling, making it around 4 o'clock, when the fire brigade from this city arrived there. It only required 16 minutes to unload. The people were of the opinion that nothing could be done, to stay the flames, but the chief said he could save some of the buildings and he was asked to do what he could.

Streams from two sections of hose 500 feet in length were turned on the flames and also played on the ruins near the building for a couple of hours.

The work of the Peterborough men was well engineered and came in for much praise from the residents of Stirling. When the contingent from this city arrived there the men on the town were pretty well exhausted and the women were doing a great deal of work.

It was about 12 o'clock Sunday when the Peterborough firemen reached home.

CAUGHT TWO LUNGE WITH ONLY ONE SET OF HOOKS

To catch two lunge on one set of hooks and land both of them is somewhat of a remarkable feat, and the story may look "fishy." It is the genuine article, however, as several persons can testify if necessary. While trolling at Idyl Wyld yesterday morning, Messrs. Harry Adams and Geo. R. Browning of this city, caught two lunge on one set of hooks and pulled both of them in. It was a clever as well as lucky achievement and the two anglers were greatly pleased with their luck. Mr. Adams caught another lunge during the forenoon, making three good ones for the day.

VOTE OF THANKS TO THE PASTOR

On return to lodge room from Prentice Boys church parade on Sunday evening to the Charlotte street Methodist church, it was moved by Bro. A. H. Webb, seconded by Bro. S. Adlam, a hearty vote of thanks be tendered the Rev. G. W. Henderson, for his instructive and powerful address, also to the choir for their excellent singing and officials for use of the church.

Mr. Henderson made a suitable reply and he said it gave great pleasure to address so large a gathering. Speeches were made by Bros Bartly, Armstrong, Kindred and Moore, also Bro. W. M. Fitzgerald, of Toronto, Grand Secretary of Orange Order of Ontario west. He said he was pleased to see such a large attendance and to listen to the discourse of Rev Mr. Henderson and congratulated the Prentice Boys on their work, he said the time never looked brighter for the Order than at present. The following committee had charge of carrying out a very successful parade:—Wm. Carter, S. Adlam, A. H. Webb and Geo. Duncan.

A DROP IN HAY

Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir,—In coming to town this morning I was very much surprised to see on the centre of Hunter street east, a farmer from Otonabee upset a load of hay, weighing 4 825 lbs. The front wheel of the waggon dropped into a hole of soft mud a foot deep and over went the load; the driver went floating through the air with the greatest of ease, like the daring young man on the flying trapeze, and just lit before he went through the plate glass window of Maniece's store. Both bunks on his waggon were broken and also the waggon rack. The farmer estimated his loss in repairs to waggon and lost time at seven dollars. Well, Mr. Editor, I have been coming to town for fifty years. When No. 5 ward was only the "Scotch Village," and not even then, nor any time since, have I seen such a mixture of mud and stones put on that street. I was reminded of the story of the boys stoning the frogs. It may be cheap for this town to put this earth out of a cellar close by on the street, but it's very expensive, if not death to the farmer with a heavy load.

Yours truly,
A FARMER.

Otonabee, Aug. 8, 1908.

KING DID IT

Editor of the Review

Sir,—Fred Simpson is home, and what are we going to do about it? Some people think there is nothing to do about it; Now, the most exalted people in the world not only presented the prizes, but were on the great International Committee getting up and managing the games. President Roosevelt cabled his and his people's congratulations to Americans won or did well. The excitement over these great commemorative games throughout Europe was tremendous. But some here say "Oh! well, Simpson did not win." This is what the Times (London, Eng.) says about that:

Another remark by the same paper will throw a sidelight on the same aspect of the race:

"And the Americans who enjoyed the signal honour of providing three out of the first five home" Page upon page and edition upon edition, editorial and otherwise indicate the intense interest in Great Britain. In Rome, the city was en fete at Italy's showing. The remotest villages of Sweden craved for the honour of doing honour to those who bore the national colours nobly. The Review has the endorsation and the hearty sympathy of the citizens of Peterborough in its effort to have Fred Simpson properly recognized. I am sure. Do some of our people think, that they can afford to laugh at or sneer at the U.K., Germany, the U.S.A., Italy, France, etc., and all their rulers, parliaments, people and athletes? They are away behind the age if they do. Simpson is such a man and an athlete that the British press have already done him more honour than we can ever do him. But do we want to let it go at that? The subscription is limited to $1.00, and what is left over will go to pay what Messrs. Ermo Best and Roly Glover became liable for in sending Simpson away. Let us clean this up too. These two gentlemen paid Mrs. Simpson $5.00 a week while her husband was away, or he could not have gone. Simpson's own expenses are paid by parliament, but Simpson had to have a trainer. Look at Bradford. See what it is doing for Wood, who was just one place above Simpson. It is proposed to give Simpson a watch or something that he can keep to show his people that "He who lives well and does well is a worthy example to the kingdom." I am a poor man in pocket, but, thank God, rich in appreciation and sentiment where the object of it is a worthy man or woman.

Yours, &c.,
F.B.

RESTAURANT KEEPERS ARE SUMMONSED TO COURT

Several local restaurant keepers have been summonsed to appear before Police Magistrate Dumble charged with selling ice cream and soft drinks on Sunday which they have been doing for the past year. Those who have been summonsed have restaurant licenses and were of the opinion that their license permitted them to sell the commodities mentioned above.

ONE CENT RATE FOR DROP LETTERS NOW IN FORCE

The one cent rate for drop letters went into effect yesterday.

Peterborough and all other cities in Canada will benefit by the new service.

The Post Office Department sent out the following notice regarding the matter to all city postmasters of the Dominion:

Heretofore drop letters posted in cities and other places possessing the letter carrier service have been liable to a drop letter rate of two cents per ounce. In future such letters posted for local delivery shall be at a rate of one cent per ounce.

The one cent rate for letters will be of great convenience to business men who send out a large mail. The number of letters in a single day often makes a considerable bill for postage. At the end of a month, when a few hundred customers have to receive their accounts the mailing costs the average firm a large item. To cut it in half will mean a big saving.

Not a few storekeepers have found it less expensive to have their accounts delivered by use of their own men than to employ His Majesty's mails for the purpose.

RESIDENTS OF FERNIE B. C.

Were Guests at the Munro House Yesterday Morning

Mrs. Ingram, of Fernie, B.C., with her four children, arrived in the city yesterday morning and were the guests of Mrs. Ingram's uncle, Mr. R. J. Munro, at the Munro House. Mrs. Ingram and family were in Fernie at the time of the fire, that destroyed almost the entire town. Mrs. Ingram stated that she and her children were hurriedly put on the train and started for the east. They left yesterday afternoon for Menie, where they will visit Mrs. Ody, Mrs. Ingram's mother.

MATRICULATION EXAMINATION

Names of Peterborough Students Who Passed Junior Matriculation--May Attend University

The following list issued today contains the names of two classes of candidates who wrote at the recent matriculation examinations; 1st, those who have written upon and fulfilled the requirements of the University of Toronto, in a sufficient number of subjects for full matriculation; and, 2nd, those who have written upon one or more papers, and have fulfilled the requirements therein. It follows that all who made 33 per cent. the standard required by the university, upon the papers upon which they wrote, are here reported.

The certificates containing the marks will be sent to the principals of the High Schools and the inspectors in about a week. Candidates will apply to these officials, not to the department for their reports in detail.

Among those who passed at Ottawa is A. H. 'Bert' Boomer, who is well known in Peterborough.

The British steamer Kirkwell went down in the North Sea on Wednesday night in collision with an unknown barque. Only two of the crew so far as heard have been saved.

CAUSE FOR ALARM

Epidemic Influenza, Grippe, Catarrhal Troubles, Pneumonia Increasing

A marked increase in troubles of the breathing organs is noted in many localities. If you will only have Hyomei at hand to use with the first attack of cold in the head, pneumonia, colds, bronchitis, hoarseness, sore throat, croup, in fact any respiratory affection, the trouble will be quickly overcome.

If the attack is neglected and becomes severe, speedy relief will come in most cases and a persistent use of Hyomei will cure.

The directions for using it vary, but the principal is always the same that of destroying all the germs in the air passages with dry medication from the Pine and Eucalyptus forests.

Remember that liquids or moisture is barred from the bronchial tubes and lungs. It's the dry air of Hyomei that reaches the spot. W. Medill, corner of Hunter and George streets, Peterborough, guarantees it complete outfit $1.

Lager Purity

To make a Beer like O'Keefe's Pilsener after the celebrated German Pilsen formula, purity is not only desirable, but absolutely necessary.

O'KEEFE'S PILSENER LAGER

is brewed only from the best barley malt, choicest hops, and absolutely chemically pure water. The water is filtered before brewing, and the beer filtered before bottling and afterwards pasteurized in the bottles. Mild and delightful, always pure and healthful.

SPORTING NEWS

FRITZ MOHL IS A MIGHTY FORMIDABLE WRESTLER

Fritz Mohl, who wrestles Yankee Rogers here on Aug. 28th is one of the biggest mat artists in the business.

He is the former champion of Germany, stands over six feet in height and strips at 240 pounds. Despite his bulk he is very active and a man of remarkable strength.

He has a big list of victories to his credit and wrestled Rogers once before in a theatre where the bout was confined to 25 minutes.

He gave his opponent an awful run in that time, but was unable to secure a fall. Rogers is anxious to meet him again and thinks he has good chances against the massive German.

After some negotiating a match was arranged and upon suggestion of Rogers and his manager Peterborough was the place chosen to pull it off. Mr. C. G. Graham was communicated with by Rogers' manager and asked if he would assist in the management of the match and he has consented to do so.

He is at present figuring on securing a line of preliminaries that will be in keeping with the main bout which will be a decided treat in the way of scientific and spectacular wrestling.

The fact that Rogers has chosen Peterborough as the place to hold such an important match speaks well for it as a sporting town. The clever American grappler was greatly pleased with the house that he saw before him when he battled here with Hurtubise. He says that Peterborough is one of the best towns he has ever wrestled in and showed his partiality towards it when he selected it for the place in which to pull off such a big encounter.

FINE PROGRAM OF RACES AT DRIVING PARK YESTERDAY

The Civic Holiday races of the Peterborough Turf Club were fully as good as what had been said of them previously would lead the public to expect and those at the Driving Park in attendance were thoroughly pleased with the sport furnished in both the named race and 2.22 class.

The former saw six starters and it was a hot go from the drop of the hat. Prince Medium, owned by E. Clark, of Brighton, only showed sixth in the first heat, but came first in the three successive heats. Holland Boy owned by Dr. Leitch, Peterborough, stepped out in lively fashion in the 2.22 class and got the leading position in each of the three heats. It was a great race and like the one before it took the crowd.

The score for the two events is as follows;—

NAMED RACE.

Prince Medium, F. Clarke, Brighton	6	1	1	1
Lulu Chimes, T. McKiver, [illegible]	1	4	5	[illegible]
Black Prince, Dr. Forrest, Port Hope	2	2	2	3
Lady Black, Eddie Jones, Peterborough	4	3	3	5
Little Mac, M. Storey, Peterborough	5	6	4	4

Time, 1.11, 1.10 1-2, 1.10 1-2, 1.09.

2.22 CLASS.

Holland Boy, Dr. Leitch, Peterborough	1	1	1
Jim K. Lee, Hutcheson, Belleville	2	2	2
Miss Paisley, Mrs. H. Cook, Trenton	3	4	4

Time 2.23 1-2, 2.21 1-2, 2.23.

The officials were Judges Messrs. L. G. Bennett, Port Hope; Fred Peake, Campbellford; H. C. Winch, Peterborough; Timer, Dr. Johnson, Starter, M. Connors.

The 2.30 and 2.16 classes are being contested for this afternoon.

PETES WIN TWO GAMES FROM FAST ST. MARY'S OF TORONTO

Best Ball of Season at Riverside Park on the Holiday—Morning Score 11-1—Afternoon Score 4-1—Locals Show Fine Form.

Yesterday, Civic Holiday, was not only popular with excursionists, but also with the baseball fans of the city. The Peterboroughs have had a fairly easy time all season in winning their games in the Midland League, but the crack Toronto City League team was expected to be a different proposition and many were sure that the locals would be handled rather roughly in yesterday's games. But it was the same old story. Manager Johnston's pets proved even too much for the best team outside the Eastern League, that Toronto could produce. The morning game was a regular walkaway for the locals, as the above score shows. The game was featureless and one-sided all the way through, and the rather thin line of supporters found it difficult to keep interested in what was going on. But the afternoon game was an excellent exhibition of baseball, the score being kept pretty close all the way through. The first few innings the score stood 0 all, but in the 3rd the Petes succeeded in crossing the plate for the first time. With the bases full and one man out it was very common yesterday to see the side retired without scoring and this, together with the fast and clean fielding, made the game full of excitement from start to finish. Although the hits were rather scarce owing to the strong work of both infields, still everybody touched the ball and each nine did fair work with the bat, the Petes having a little the better of it. Anderson, the big-natured local boy on second, played his characteristic game, covering everything in the infield but the pitcher's box, and as much of the outfield as was available. He generally succeeds in spearing the ball no matter how difficult it is and his throw to first is perfect. O'Brien, the 3rd baseman for the Petes, also showed up well handling some very difficult grounders, especially one in the 2nd innings which he nailed over to first like a shot. In the 5th innings Peterborough got two more runs, and in the 7th another while the Saints made their one and only run in the 6th. That the outsiders only crossed the plate once is probably due to their base stealing, which is not up to the standard and below the local nine's standard. "Jerry" Edmunds behind the bat, finds no difficulty in connecting with Clements' stunts, and he also uses his head well, having pulled the locals out of a hole once or twice yesterday by his excellent throws to the bases. Both teams were about evenly matched for fielding honors and everything in the line of flies didn't count for much yesterday. The slab artists for the outsiders pitched good ball, using a peculiar underhand delivery with which he struck out some of the local's best men. He also kept a close watch on the bases and succeeded in catching a few of them napping. "Bill" Fitzpatrick officiated as umpire and acted in a very satisfactory manner;—

The line-up of both teams were as follows;—

Petes.		St. Mary's.
Burns	Right Field	McGuire
Murphy	Left Field	Burn
O'Brien	3rd base	Baldwin
Edmunds	Catcher	Augard
Hawkins	Centre Field	Phelan
Anderson	2nd base	Mawson
Shea	Short-stop	Nye
Clements	Pitcher	Smith
Lawson	1st base	Lackey

CRICKET

The cricket match at the Oval on Saturday between Toronto and Peterborough was a very pleasant revival of cricket relations between the two places. Toronto being short of men on leaving that city, wired to Warkworth and secured two of the best men of the Warkworth club, Messrs. Ingles and Marsland, the former making eighteen runs and the latter eleven of the Toronto total, while the former took five of the seven Peterborough wickets that had fallen at the call of time. The game began at 12 o'clock and stumps were drawn at 4 o'clock to permit of the return of the Toronto team by the evening C.P.R. train. Toronto went in first on a slow wicket making 105 runs of which eight were extras. Eight of the batsmen made double figures. The Peterborough fielding was good although a few catches were missed and the bowling was excellent, Ferguson taking five wickets, Marshall three and Coleman two. For Peterborough Gibson distinguished himself at bat, making 18 runs, made up of three fours and singles, of the total of 35. He was the only one of the locals to reach double figures. With seven wickets down, stumps were drawn with the total at 35. The day was brilliant and the ground in good order. There was a fairly large attendance.

Following is the score;

HAMILTON GREETS KERR

Olympic Champion Sprinter Has Rousing Homecoming.

Caffery, Beattie Fletcher, Sherring and Anderson Get Enthusiastic Welcome and Longbeat is Loudly Cheered—Winners Presented With Address and Trays—Kerr's Purse Will Be Big.

Hamilton, Aug. 11.—According to official count Hamilton has a population of 64,067, and there were only about 67 of them absent last evening when the reception took place to Bobby Kerr, winner of the 200 meter race at the Olympic games; Jack Caffery, the long distance runner, and George Beattie and M. E. Fletcher, the two trap shooters. They came up from Toronto on the Turbinia. The siren whistles of steamboats announced the arrival of the hero shortly before 8 o'clock and the bells and whistles continued with no let-up until nearly 10 o'clock. The reception was the most popular demonstration ever held in the city. From the steamboat wharf all along James and King streets to Victoria Park the streets were lined several rows deep. Many of the buildings were decorated, and there were fireworks and colored lights galore. The 13th band headed the procession, in which nearly everything on wheels in the city joined, filled with people eager to do the champion honor. Kerr occupied a chair on the top of a big float and was cheered to the echo. His father and mother and two sister rode near him in a hack. Caffery and the others also got a warm reception. At Victoria Park the crowd threatened to sweep the platform away. Mayor Stewart presented an illuminated address to Kerr on behalf of the city. R. Tasker Steele, the chairman of the Olympic committee, presided, and presented a silver salver to the champion on behalf of the city. Both he and the mayor referred to Kerr in the highest terms, laying stress on his clean life. Kerr was tendered an ovation. He replied with modesty, and when the demonstration was over hurried home to his family. The others were also presented with silver trays, and were warmly cheered. Tom Longboat was given the glad hand by the champion and was cheered almost as enthusiastically as Kerr himself. Billy Sherring and George Anderson, the trainers, also got their share. The money testimonial was not presented to Kerr last evening, but that will come later. The fund amounts to about $1,500, and it is expected that it will be greatly increased.

The only unpleasant feature about the whole show was the fact that the aldermen who rode in the procession were unmercifully roasted for their Cataract deal.

65 MILES A DAY.

Toronto Y. M. C. A. Boy Runs to New York In Less Than 12 Days.

New York, Aug. 11.—In one hour less than 12 days, running most of the distance of over 700 miles, T. J. McAughey arrived in this city yesterday from Toronto, Ont., bearing a message from the mayor of that city to the mayor of New York City.

McAughey is assistant secretary of the West End branch of the Y. M. C. A. of Toronto, and he said the object of the run was to test speed and endurance.

He left Toronto July 27, and, omitting two Sundays, covered nearly 800 miles on foot, allowing for extra distances traveled by losing the road, in 11 days and 22 hours.

McAughey averaged 65 miles daily, starting out each morning at 5 o'clock, keeping on the road until late each night, and running two-thirds of the time.

THE OTONABEE ROAD RACE PROVIDED SOME GOOD SPORT

The five mile road race held yesterday under the auspices of the Otonabee Athletic Club, resulted as follows:

1. Geo. Fowler, Peterborough.
2. Everett Kidd, Otonabee.
3. Geo. Cross, Peterborough.
4. Jimmy O'Brien, Peterborough.
5. Archie Rose, Otonabee.

Time, 29 minutes 12 seconds.

The race was a great success, a big crowd gathering to see the finish and the course also being well lined. The start was made in Otonabee township near the locks at the south end of the city and the course was 2 1-2 miles out towards the Stewart settlement and return. Fowler ran a careful race and finished a half minute ahead of Kidd, who was a good second. Young Smoke, an Indian from the Chemong reserve, did not arrive in time to take part in the roadrace but went over the course alone, doing it in 26 minutes 30 seconds. His performance was so creditable that it was decided to present him with a medal as well as the boys who finished first and second.

Mr. Jas. Rose was the starter, Mr. Frank Wise, timer, Messrs. Henry McCaffery, Norman Perry and W. K. Huston were at the half-way turn and Messrs. D. Rose and Tommy Spiers were clerks of the course.

The race will likely be an annual affair.

STRTHS. WIN REVIEV TROPHY CHAMPIONS OF CITY LEAGUE

Last Saturday afternoon the Lakeviews made a final attempt to stay in the running for the first place in the City League when they played their last game with the Straths. The game was played at Riverside and although there was a charge for admittance, a good number saw it. Things were pretty close for the first few innings and then the Straths got in some heavy swatting which assisted them in getting a good lead which they kept.

At the first of the year the T.A.B. and Straths were looked upon as the most likely bidders for the Review Trophy, but the Lakeviews worked their way up and last Saturday's game was to prove who was the best team in the city. The game was featureless except for some pretty fair outfielding on both sides. Crowe of the Lakeviews did good work and handled some pretty flies which did much to keep down the Strath' lead.

The batting was not very strong although Belleghem rapped out one for three bags and Heaslip also drove out a long one but it was no good having disappeared in the centre fielders mit. Pentland who held down third bag for the losers played a great game both fielding and batting. Shaw for the Straths also did good work in the field and at bat he made four hits and as many runs.

In the last innings it was very exciting when the Lakeviews got on a batting streak and began to worry Belleghem, who was pitching poor ball. The twirling was rather weak, even for city league work, only four strike outs having been recorded for Belleghem and two for Mahoney. Mr "Bill" Fitzpatrick umpired the game to the satisfaction of both teams.

Line-up was as follows;

WARKWORTH BOWLERS TOO DEADLY FOR PETERBORO

The Peterborough Cricket team journeyed to Warkworth yesterday, and met with a disastrous defeat owing to the deadly bowling of Ingles and Humphries.

The playing of Mr. Reaston, the captain of the locals, was one of the features of the game, he making 21 runs in the first innings in faultless style. Gibson and Clarke of the locals made sensational catches for which they were roundly applauded. For the locals Marshall got 5 wickets for 27 runs and G. Coleman 3 for 38 runs. Elliott had an off day.

For Warkworth Ingles, Thompson, Marsland and Humphries did heavy hitting.

The Peterborough club spent a most enjoyable time and would like to challenge the Warkworth team for a match at Peterborough in the near future.

THE Y.M.C.A. INSTITUTE

Helpful Session Held at Geneva Park---Peterboro' Represented

The Summer Institute of the Young Men's Christian Associations, now in session at Geneva Park, has been favored with excellent weather, and a goodly number of secretaries, physical directors and other workers from all parts of the province have availed themselves of the practical instruction there given, combining with it at the same time a delightful outing. In many ways the school is much stronger in its programme and more helpful in its fellowship this year than during any previous year.

The total attendance at the camp thus far has been 67, with 22 students taking the regular work. The Bible study work by Mr. Harry W. Arnold, Religious Work Secretary of the International Committee of New York, was extremely helpful in its relation to the organization of Bible classes in churches. Dr. Fisher, of the International Committee, gave a series of lectures on Social Service and made a very deep impression on his hearers. Mr. T. H. Billings, National Students' Secretary, spent Sunday with us, and spoke of the significance of the recent Students' Conference at Tokio.

Mr. Frank Oliver, editor of Associated Men, was there and conducted the twilight service in addition to the Toronto Central Boys' Club camp in the afternoon.

Mr. D A Budge, General Secretary of Montreal, and secretary of the Canadian section of the International committee, is with the camp this year and will discuss fully the organization and relationships in the different associations.

Mr. Henry Yeigh, of Brantford, is spending the last two weeks and is endeavoring to keep the camp supplied with fish.

The Camp Disturber is edited by Rev. A. M Hague and bids fair to rival the Toronto papers from the standpoint of popularity.

Following is the list of persons attending the camp since it opened on July 21st;

Among those present were;

E A Frowde, G L Galley, F G Hassard, Mrs Hassard, E Best, Peterborough.

C M and W Copeland, Mrs C M Copeland, A Copeland, W H Watson, L Armstrong, E M, Mrs, and Louise Thomasson, Toronto.

Charles Robson, L W Wilkes, H R Gordon, Dr E L Skinner Gordon, B R Gordon, Geo Tillie, Edgar B Webb, James Stevenson, Miss C A Webb, James Hamilton, Alfred Stoker, Toronto West End. C Fraser, S W Collings, W J Hopkins, Provincial committee; Dr Chas J Copp, Toronto; P. J. Lee, Ottawa.

George J Fisher, H W Arnold, F K. Ober, New York.

Mr. and Mrs S Brent, London; and many others.

The camp is situated at Geneva park, seven miles from Orillia, on Lake Couchiching and is a most delightful spot. The camp resembles a small tented city. The students held two minstrel shows, a circus and several interesting games of baseball were played.

The Peterborough men returned on Saturday night.

TAX COLLECTOR SKIPS

Wm. Martin, Jr., is Gone and North Bay Loses $28,000.

Prominent Citizens, Father and Son, Holding Responsible Offices, Were In Prospect of Prosecution For Shortage In Town's Funds—Restitution Was to Be Made But Was Never Completed.

North Bay, Aug. 10.—The civic treasury is short $28,000, and William Martin, tax collector, is missing and a warrant is out for his arrest.

For several years the positions of town treasurer and tax collector have been filled by William Martin, Sr., and William Martin, Jr., father and son, highly respected citizens, who have grown up with the town and apparently prospered in a general insurance business, besides having the C. P. R. town ticket office and holding various civic positions, including collector of taxes and water rates, and town treasurer.

Some months ago, Martin, Jr., was appointed police magistrate, which position he has held up to the present time.

The appointment of a new tax collector this spring, followed by an audit of the town books, revealed a large shortage in the collector's accounts. An arrangement was made between the council and the officials involved to protect the town, by turning over their property to the municipality, thus avoiding litigation and criminal proceedings. This has not been carried out to the satisfaction of councillors, and it was decided to institute criminal and civil action against father and son.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of Martin, Jr., but up to the present he has not been located. Judgment was obtained by default in the civil action and legal proceedings will be taken against the elder Martin to ascertain to what extent he is responsible for his son's shortage.

While the positions of treasurer and collector were held nominally by father and son, the latter kept the books and looked after the business of both offices and the father disclaims any knowledge of the wrongdoing.

The bonds of both officials total only $4,000, and the agreement between the town and the guarantee company, binds the town to prosecute in case of defalcation. With the exception of about $2,000, the entire shortage appears in the collector's books.

What became of the money is somewhat of a mystery, but to speculation in Cobalt stocks is credited Martin's Jr., downfall.

Property and securities held by the missing tax collector have been turned over the town, which will help to cover the deficiency.

HANGS HIMSELF IN PARK.

Unknown Cuban Cigarmaker Found Hanging From Tree In Toronto.

Toronto, Aug. 10.—"Life is nothing in itself and do not care to live on. "John."

With $20.53, a cigar and this note scribbled in a small memorandum book from which the other leaves had been torn, the body of a young Cuban, as yet unidentified, was found hanging from the limb of a tree near the spring at the northwest entrance to High Park at 6.40 yesterday morning. The dead man was about 30 years of age.

While no definite identification had been made at a late hour last night, a number of French cigarmakers visited the morgue about 6 o'clock and declared that they knew the man well by sight, but could not tell where he lived, but that he was a cigarmaker.

Schoolship Sinks Ship.

Halifax, Aug. 10.—The German schoolship Freya which arrived here to-day reports running down and sinking 16 miles southeast of Halifax on Saturday night the Gloucester fishing schooner Maggie May, commanded by Capt. Eric McCathray of Gloucester, which was proceeding for this port.

Nine of the crew, including the captain, went down with the schooner and four were rescued by the boats of the warship and landed at this place.

Stableman Burned.

Montreal, Aug. 10.—At an early hour yesterday morning an alarm called the firemen to a fire which had broken out in a stable on Versailles street. A horrible discovery was made yesterday, when the ruins were being cleared up, when the body of the stableman was found. He had apparently been overcome by the smoke when trying to escape from the burning stable. Three valuable horses were burned.

Would Tattoo Wives.

Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 10.—"There would be fewer affinities and divorces if all married women in the United States were tattooed on the chin," said Rev. Arthur Rawel, New Zealand, in addressing an audience of 3,000 at Winona Lake assembly.

He added: "Now that I am headed for Washington, I think that I shall ask President Roosevelt to use his influence to have such a bill put through Congress."

Dying Anarchist Confesses.

Barcelona, Aug. 10.—Juan Rull, author of the recent anarchist outrages here, was executed at noon on Saturday. He confessed his crimes, received holy communion from a priest, and died calmly.

Rull's mother and brother, who also were condemned to death when Rull was sentenced, have been reprieved.

Was Frightened by Auto.

Strathroy, Aug. 10.—A horse attached to a light wagon, frightened by an automobile on the main street yesterday, ran away and kicked the driver, George Fox, into insensibility. When picked up Fox was found to have had three ribs broken and was otherwise bruised.

NEW CEMETERY CONSECRATED

His Lordship Bishop O'Connor Performed Ceremony at Ennismore on Sunday

His Lordship Bishop O'Connor was at Ennismore on Sunday and consecrated a new cemetery in connection with St. Martin's parish. It has been decided to close the two cemeteries which have been used in the past and the new one which is about two acres in extent and is situated near the church has only been used for a short time. The ceremony of consecrating it was deferred until the new vault had been completed. A large concourse of people had gathered to witness the interesting ceremony in connection with the consecration of the new burying ground.

Seven persons were hurled from a skidding automobile in Philadelphia recently and a girl of sixteen was probably fatally injured. The accident was caused by the driver taking a sharp turn without reducing speed.

PRINTERS' PICNIC PEOPLE HAD TIME OF THEIR LIVES

Record Crowd Went to Idyl Wyld Yesterday—Great Programme Carried Out—Examiner Proved Pie for the Review in Ball Game—Score Was 5–3.

The Printers' Picnic is over for another year and it was such a success that the committee have reason to have all kinds of hopes for the future. And although yesterday's outing was easily the most successful ever had, the slogan on the homeward trip among those in charge, was "wait till you see us next year." The steamer Otonabee carried the largest and merriest crowd in its history to Idyl Wyld and from the time the boat pulled out at 8.30 in the morning until it arrived home at night, there was not a dull moment. There was something doing all the time and those who participated in the outing were unanimous in pronouncing it one of the best affairs of its kind they had ever known. The Otonabee carried its full government allowance of passengers and the sail down the river and across the lake was most enjoyable. The return trip was just as pleasant and was made at good time. The boat left Idyl Wyld at 5.30 and reached the Wolfe street wharf at 8.10 o'clock.

The day was an ideal one for a picnic, and when it is recalled that it is some eight years since the types have had a bad day for their outing, one is almost inclined to believe that they are among the especially favored.

Despite the large crowd the best of order prevailed, a fact that was freely commented upon. The programme was carried out to the letter and the handing over of the prizes as soon as the winners were announced was a feature that was much appreciated. And they were good prizes too, in every case. The programme was an excellent one and provided sport and amusement in plenty during the afternoon. The features were the baseball match, tug of war, paddling race and pie-eating contest. The Review triumphed over the Examiner in the baseball contest, but lost the tug of war to the wire pullers, beg pardon, rope pullers, from the Grit camp.

BASEBALL MATCH.

By winning the baseball match by a score of 5—3 the Review team came another year nearer the possession of the handsome metallated cup emblematic of the championship of the Press League. The Review has won two successive victories and it begins to look as if the Grits play base-ball as poorly as they perform well in the hockey arena. It was a great contest, characterized by heavy slugging or rather attempted heavy slugging, errors on the part of everybody and a home run by Peterson, the ball getting lost in a deep hole made by a groundhog near the left field fence. The latter went to show that even the animal kingdom was desirous of seeing the Review win. O'Brien (William) and Haney were the Review battery, and they had it on their opponents in 186 different ways. Bill had curves like a Douro line fence and shot the ball around with all the grace, elegance and speed that his [illegible] stature would permit. Haney's back stopping was perfect except when it wasn't, and that was not often. McGuire covered the first sack nicely and Lynch held down second like the veteran that he is not. Pearson made a home-run. As Pearson once claimed Lindsay as his native heath his drive to the groundhog's den for four sacks came as a surprise.

It was a sort of uphill contest all the time, the ground shooting up from the lake like a toboggan slide. The playing space was also somewhat limited and in this respect it resembled closely the speed of the Examiner team. Crough, who did the twirling for the Grits was hit freely and had the rankest kind of support. Sherrard, whose reputation as a catcher was based on the fact that he once caught a bad cold, assisted a clapboard wall in doing the back stopping and did not detract greatly from what the wall had to do. Henry performed around first base like a sewer digger, and didn't uproot anything worth mentioning. Paxman played wonderfully and was withdrawn after the second inning. Theobald had a two bagger, being the only man to hit safely. He had nothing to do at short, which was fortunate. Boiwell was busy in the field watching the lake and so absorbed was he in the beauties of the water that he had not time to watch a high fly coming.

The game was called at the end of the fourth to allow the players to get their supper. The score was 5—3 and the Review, with the able assistance of Kennedy, Reid and Bartlett of the Times, could have made it worse if they had desired to rub it in.

The team were:—

Examiner—Sherrard, c; Crough, p; Henry, 1b; Rathen, 2b; Theobald, 3b; Paxman, 1b; fielders, Boiwell, Shannon, Armstrong and Robinson.

Jimmy Callaghan was all to the merry as umpire and was rewarded for his good work by a handsome present—an eight cent cigar.

TUG-OF-WAR.

The Examiner, which has always had the reputation of having a pull from the office boy up to the head press feeder, won the tug-of-war. An anchor rope from the boat was used, it being found that a tape line was not strong enough.

RESULTS OF RACES.

The programme was carried out with entire satisfaction, the results being as follows:—

Won by W. J. Nelson.

The single canoe race was an exciting feature. The prize was a ten dollar gold piece donated by Mr. J. H. Burnham and was won by Maddon Howard, a Hiawatha Indian, who showed himself a fine paddler. There were five entries and it was a close race all the way. Mr. Burnham also donated a five dollar prize for a double canoe race and it also proved a great drawing card. The finish was very exciting.

Mr. W. J. Nelson was the winner of the handsome set of dishes, valued at $20 donated by Hon. J. R. Stratton. The duplicate numbers were put in a hat at the wharf and Fred Simpson pulled out one and Mr. Nelson held the lucky ticket.

The committee in charge wish to thank all those who contributed prizes and to apologize, if necessary, for the people having to get off the boat at the wharf at Idyl Wyld before leaving in the evening. The tickets were collected as the people entered the boat and in order to get all the tickets it was necessary to have the persons who had boarded the steamer early, get off.

For those who didn't take baskets with them excellent meals were provided at the hotel and on the boat.

FORESTERS AND HIBERNIANS

Held Successful Outing to Jubilee Point Yesterday—A Big Crowd Attended

Between four and five hundred persons took in the annual excursion of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and the Catholic Order of Foresters' to Jubilee Point yesterday. The steamer Rainbow and palace barge carried the pleasure seekers and the delightful sail down the Otonabee river was much enjoyed. The Point was reached shortly after eleven o'clock and after dinner was partaken of, a number of sporting events, including a baseball match between the Hibernians and the Foresters took place. The ball game resulted in the Hibernians winning by the score of 6-0. Mr. George O'Hearn umpired the game satisfactorily.

A barrel of flour was donated for the largest family on the excursion by Mr. J. H. Burnham. Mr Chas. Murty and Mr James Galvin each had a family of ten, and Mr. Burnham very kindly offered another barrel of flour. The handsome set of dishes given by Mr. J. R. Stratton for the drawing contest was won by Mr. Y. Flaherty.

The committee in charge of the outing deserve great credit for the successful manner in which the arrangements were carried out.

THEY ATTENDED DIVINE SERVICE

Prentice Boys Heard Instructive Sermon at Charlotte St. Church

The Prentice Boys of the city augmented by a goodly number of Orangemen and True Blues of the city and district, attended divine service at Charlotte street Methodist church on Sunday evening. There was a large turnout, and Rev. Mr. Henderson preached a very instructive sermon for the occasion. The Peterborough band led the parade to and from the church with appropriate music.

THE TALE OF A TAILLESS DOG

Civic Holiday Was Somewhat Disastrous for Peterboro' Canine

"Rollie" the pet cocker spaniel belonging to Master Austin O'Brien, Gilmour street, decided yesterday that he was going to see a little of what was going on down town. He started chasing a street car and as he was crossing the road in front of it the motorman decided to give him a run for his money and shoved on a little of the speed stuff. The canine endeavored to clear himself but was not very successful as a portion of his tail was caught underneath a front wheel and Rollie came home by the back lane route in company with the Examiner ball team.

For sixteen years the name "Salada" has stood for the maximum of quality, purity and flavor in blended Ceylon Teas, so that the only thing you need to look out for is the "Salada" label on every package of tea you buy.

OBITUARY

MRS. ELIZA A. BINGHAM

The death occurred yesterday of Mrs. Eliza A. Bingham, wife of the late Stafford D. Bingham, of Galt, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs M. A. Turner, Grand Central Block. The deceased had been ailing for some time. She was 68 years of age and was born in Mount Vernon, Brant county. For the past three years deceased had resided with her daughter, Mrs. Turner. Her husband predeceased her three years ago.

Two daughters and one son are left to mourn her loss. The daughters are Mrs. M. A. Turner of this city, and Miss Helen Bingham of Toronto. The son is Mr. Frank A. Bingham of Vancouver, BC.

The funeral took place this afternoon at four o'clock to Little Lake Cemetery and was private.

GETTING TIRED OF STRIKE NORTH BAY MASS MEETING

Speedy Settlement is Wanted—Eleven Strike-Breakers Desert—Special Policeman is Arrested for Disorderly Conduct.

North Bay, Aug. 12.—An enthusiastic mass meeting of citizens was held last night. It was attended by more than one thousand persons.

General Chairman Rigby of the local committee outlined the causes leading up to the strike, stating that the men of the eastern division had waived their demand for a ten per cent. increase in wages and a nine-hour day to avoid trouble, asking that the conditions existing for several years remain in force.

The trend of the remarks was that the Government should step into the breach and bring the company and men together at once in an attempt to arrive at a speedy settlement, and so avoid a national calamity.

Eleven men imported by the C.P.R. as strike-breakers have deserted the company here, five being mechanics, four handy men, one boilermaker and one laborer. Two tramp machinists found sleeping in a box-car Monday night accepted employment as strike-breakers rather than face a charge of trespassing.

A C.P.R. special policeman, imported from Montreal, created a sensation by appearing on Main street in uniform, very drunk and boisterous, and defying arrest. He was placed in the cells.

Local merchants are offering a percentage of their cash sales to the strike fund.

It is reported that a party of engineering students from McGill College has been taken west by the C.P.R. to act as strike-breakers. The ranks of the strikers at North Bay are unbroken. All is quiet and orderly.

The report that guards armed with rifles patrol the North Bay yards is denied by officials, who claim that the guards are armed with wooden batons only, and these may have been mistaken for rifles at night.

The strike leaders claim that they are willing to meet the company halfway, but to accept the new schedule in its entirety means the abandonment of all they have worked for and accomplished to better their condition in recent years. No concessions are asked for, but simply an adherence to conditions existing prior to the strike.

Montreal, Aug. 12.—The C.P.R. has sized up the situation to mean a long fight, and so has made arrangements to bring several hundred English and Scotch mechanics to take the places of the men on strike. The company expects to have two or three hundred skilled men to distribute over the system in the course of ten days. They have not given out what boat the men will come on, but it is one sailing this week.

The men on strike are more confident than ever. They say that, while there are forty engines in the shops yet, the C.P.R. had to hire three from the New York Central to move the cars at the Glen yards. Another point of discontent is the constables. The regulars gets $45 per month and work day and night just now. The specials just engaged get $2 a day, and the regulars are talking of laying down their batons.

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy left yesterday evening for St. Andrews.

The remaining employes in the painting and varnishing departments of the C.P.R. local shops went out yesterday morning, leaving the foreman, the only man in the shop. The electricians, numbering 80, may also go out.

Ottawa, Aug. 12.—A fire of mysterious origin occurred last evening at the C.P.R. round-house on Richmond road. It broke out in the machine shops, in which the local end of the strike is centered, and did some $1,000 damage.

AN EXPLOSION PROVES FATAL

Montreal Youth Accidently Sets Off Gunpowder With Fatal Results.

Montreal, Aug. 12.—Jacques Letourneau, 17 years of age, an employe of Letang & Co., hardware merchants, St. Paul street, died at the hospital last evening as the result of an explosion which occurred on the premises yesterday afternoon. Letourneau was working near where there was some gunpowder and some matches, which he had on him, becoming ignited, set off the gunpowder and a frightful explosion followed, shattering the whole place. He was terribly injured.

Penalty on Loaded Guns.

Toronto, Aug. 12.—"We recommend that the Attorney-General be communicated with, asking that legislation be sought to make the keeping of a loaded firearm in an ordinary dwelling a criminal offence."

This was an important recommendation offered by the West Toronto jury last night at the inquest on the death of little Howard Sharpe of 199 Maria street, who was shot last Friday morning by his playmate, Fred Gracey.

"Accidental death" was the actual verdict, and the jurymen expressed their regrets that gross carelessness has been shown by William Gracey, the lad's father, in leaving a loaded firearm within the reach of children.

Fighting at Tabriz.

London, Aug. 12.—The Times' correspondent at Tabriz, in a despatch dated Monday, says the heavy street fighting there Sunday resulted in the Royalists re-establishing themselves in power.

He adds that the casualties on both sides were the severest suffered hitherto.

Ottawa Nominations.

Ottawa, Aug. 12.—At the Liberal convention held last night the candidates nominated for Ottawa for the Federal contest were: A. W. Fraser, K. C., who beat out R. Stewart, the sitting member, and Dr. Cheviere, who replaces J. B. T. Caron, who has retired from the House.

The New Ottawa Hotel.

Ottawa, Aug. 12.—William Wainwright of the Grand Trunk stated yesterday that their expectation was that the foundations for both the depot and the hotel would be laid by fall.

The company has not yet received the deeds of the site from the Government.

Lost Foot Caught In Frog.

Quebec, Aug. 12.—A brakeman named Lefebvre working at La Tuque had his heel caught in a frog just as a train was approaching and the wheels of the locomotive cut off the foot.

Fete Did Him No Good.

Quebec, Aug. 12.—Augustus Jaillett, who had charge of the catering at the tented city during the recent festivities, has assigned with liabilities $4,850 and assets $3,123.

Buying Big Farm.

Moosejaw, Sask., Aug. 12.—W. B. Smith, Philadelphia, and W. C. Howland, New York, are here purchasing four thousand acres near Saskatchewan river for a large farm.

ODDFELLOWS IN SESSION

J. B. Spence of Brantford is New Grand Patriarch

St. Thomas, Aug. 12.—The Oddfellows' Grand Encampment opened here yesterday morning with R. S. Jennings, Palmerston, presiding.

These officers were elected: Grand patriarch, James B. Spence, Brantford; grand high chief, E. B. Morley, Ingersoll; grand senior warden, Robert Meek, Kingston; grand secretary, M. D. Dawson, London; grand treasurer, S. Beltz, London; grand junior warden, James Crompton, Windsor; representatives to Sovereign Grand Lodge, J. Powley, Toronto; R. N. Jennings, Palmerston; grand marshal, W. J. Cowan, Mount Forest; grand sentinel, W. Pinney, Gananoque; grand outside sentinel, S. W. Priestley, London; auditors, Alex. McFarlane, Ottawa; P. Bradshaw, Brampton.

Lineman Electrocuted.

Toronto, Aug. 12.—Duncan Lamond, an Electric Light Co. lineman, was killed by a live wire while at work on a pole at Dunn avenue and Queen street at 11 o'clock yesterday morning.

Lamond was at the top of the pole leaning over the wires. One of the others called to him and receiving no answer, young Simpson went up the pole and found the man dead.

There were no marks on the body, but a slight burning on the hand.

Lamond was a Scotchman. He was 29 years old, and leaves a widow and two young children.

Posse After Negro.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 12.—A posse of Portsmouth City and Norfolk County officers and fifty citizens are scouring the country near Portsmouth with bloodhounds for a negro who attacked Mrs. Catherine Powell, aged 78 years, in her home with a knife yesterday, and after overpowering the defenceless woman assaulted her, leaving her in a serious condition.

This is the second time in two weeks that the aged woman has been similarly assaulted by a negro.

Overcome In Well.

Woodstock, Aug. 12.—Henry Vogan, a local contractor, was taken out of a cistern at James Tindale's residence on King street in an unconscious condition.

He had gone down into the cistern with a pail of cement mixed with naphtha. He was working with it when he became overpowered by the fumes from the naphtha. He had been in the cistern several hours before a neighbor was attracted by his moanings.

New Parliament Buildings.

Constantinople, Aug. 12.—The Sultan has made known his intention of defraying the entire cost of building a new House of Parliament, and has given orders that plans be prepared.

The general attitude of the Sultan toward the new order of things in Turkey is giving great satisfaction. His Majesty gradually is removing all fears of any attempt to return to the regime of personal rule.

Welland Man Disappears.

Welland, Aug. 12.—Charles Warner, manager of the Warner-Gibson Co., disappeared a week ago and has not been heard from since. His friends believe he will return.

STILL BEING CONSIDERED

The Hydro-Electric Commission Makes no Award of Contract.

Toronto, Aug. 12.—The Hydro-Electric Power Commission is still negotiating regarding the terms of the tenders for the construction of the Niagara transmission line. The matter was before the Cabinet Council yesterday, but nothing was announced regarding it.

Several of the checks sent as deposits with tenders have been returned, including all but half a dozen of those accompanying the lowest bids. In all nearly $500,000 was deposited with the tenders.

The negotiations pending are for the purpose of enabling the commission to proceed without delay on the construction of extension and branch lines, such as will evidently be needed as soon as the system develops a working capacity. The western district of the province, in the neighborhood of Windsor, has indicated the likelihood of a large consumption of 24-hour power, which would be profitable at that distance.

Camper Badly Burned.

Kingston, Aug. 12.—John Keichurt of Jersey City, who is camping near here, was frightfully burned and is in the hospital.

While opening a can of methylated spirits it exploded. He jumped in the lake to extinguish the flames.

Wahcondah Grounds.

Kingston, Aug. 12.—The steamer Wahcondah is aground near Fanan's Point, and the Donnelly Wrecking Co. tug has left for the scene. The vessel was on the way from Fort William to Montreal, grain laden.

Potatoes Drop.

Ottawa, Aug. 12.—Potatoes dropped from $2.50 per bag to $1.70. Heavy supply caused the break in high prices.

THE BODY HAS BEEN EXHUMED

Enquiry Will be Made Into Death of Hugh Graham at Brockville

Brockville, Aug. 12.—The body of Hugh Graham was exhumed yesterday from the family plot in the Caintown, Leeds County, cemetery, at the request of Coroner Gray of Clayton, N. Y., who was accompanied by Dr. Lave, the coroner of the district, Dr. J. D. Cole of Alexandria Bay, N. Y., and Sheriff Bellenger of Watertown, N. Y.

Graham, a Canadian, employed at Alexandria Bay, N. Y., was found drowned there ten days ago. Stories began to circulate shortly afterwards hinting at foul play, from the fact that his money was missing. A post-mortem was held in the cemetery, but revealed nothing to warrant a suspicion of foul play, but it can be shown, it is said, that he was pushed off a coal dock.

Finger Nails Torn Out.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 12.—Police officials here have received news of the torturing of two local men, who were arrested recently in Mexico City, Mexico, on a charge of robbing a bank messenger. Two companions escaped, when the Pittsburgers were arrested and, refusing to betray their companions, the men allege that they were strapped to the bars of their cell while the officer with forceps tore the nails from their hands. Unable to bear the agony, the men gave up the names.

Storm In Indiana.

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 12.—Three lives were lost in a storm which on Monday night did thousands of dollars damage. William Borgdorf was crushed to death in the collapse of a stable. Two children of John Delroy were drowned by a houseboat being swamped. Mrs. Delroy's legs were broken.

KING AND KAISER MEET HAVE CONFIDENTIAL CHAT

Frank Discussion Between Monarchs and Foreign Office Representatives Will Have Beneficial Effect—King and Queen to Visit Germany.

Cronberg, Aug. 12.—King Edward arrived here at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, and was met at the station by Emperor William and his suite. The King and Emperor kissed each other on both cheeks, and embraced in the most cordial manner. After the monarchs had been introduced to each other's suites the King and the Emperor entered an open automobile and were driven to the Friedrichshof Castle, where they had a long talk before lunch.

Sir Charles Hardinge, representing the British Foreign Office; Baron von Jenisch, of the German Foreign Office, and Sir Frederick Lascelles, the British Ambassador to Germany, also had a long conversation together. The King and the Emperor continued their private talk after lunch.

The value of the meeting in the political sense is in the frank talking over of the European situation by King Edward and Emperor William and representatives of British and Foreign Offices.

It is said that it was agreed between the Emperor and the King that King Edward should pay a state visit to Berlin early in 1909, accompanied by Queen Alexandra.

TO PETERBOROUGH FROM NEW YORK BY WATER ROUTE

Dr. Bull and Son Had Interesting Trip—Came by Way of Erie Canal—Got Lost on Rice Lake.

Dr. Bull and son, of New York, were in the city to-day on their way through to Chemong Park, where the doctor is one of the old residents. The trip from New York was made by water where possible, coming by way of the Erie Canal. Their boat, which is a 17 foot gasoline launch, was slightly damaged coming through the canal. The port of entry on the Canadian side was at Port Hope, thence by waggon to Bewdley at the head of Rice Lake. Then occurred their first real adversity, being lost on Rice Lake. In coming from Bewdley on their way to Peterborough they missed the channel and went 12 miles out of the course. However, they arrived safely in the city and left this morning for Chemong.

STILL GOING DOWN THE HILL REVENUE SHOWING BIG DEFICIT

Ottawa, —Pending the expected increase in the imports from the fall trade, the customs revenue of the Dominion is still dropping at a rapid rate. For the month just closed the total customs revenue was $3,723,878, a decrease of $1,709,720 as compared with July of last year. For the first four months of the present fiscal year the customs receipts have been $14,458,725, compared with $20,565,694 for the corresponding months of last year, a decrease of $6,106,049.—(Trade Review.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

William Wise, aged 15, was killed by a live wire at Winnipeg.

Fire in the plant of the Automobile Import Co. at Montreal caused $25,000 damage.

It is officially announced that Mehmed Ali Bey, the Turkish Minister at Washington, has been recalled.

Ernest Haig and William McDougall were perhaps fatally injured by a dynamite explosion while blasting for a well near Norwood.

Walter Haines, aged 16, was fatally hurt by the breaking of a coupling-pin during the cleaning up of some wreck debris near Mills Junction, New York.

Escaping gas in a building occupied by Mrs. J. S. Gavin as a millinery store and residence at Wheeling, Va., caused a fire which resulted in the death of three persons.

Mr A Moxon, a Nova Scotia Rhodes scholar at Oxford, has taken in his second year the B.A. degree, with first class honors in jurisprudence. Only four out of a hundred competitors secured honors, and Mr. Moxon headed the list.

Sunk by the Kingston.

Rochester, Aug. 12.—In trying to pass under the bow of the Kingston, a large passenger boat, the Titania, a small passenger boat that plies between Seabreeze and Charlotte, was struck by the big boat and sunk in 10 or 12 feet of water.

Twenty persons on the Titania were thrown into the water, but all were saved.

Still Fighting Fire.

Cranbrook, B. C., Aug. 12.—A big gang of men under James Bates, C.P.R. fire warden, has been rushed to Kimberley on hand cars. It is hoped that by back-firing the fires may be controlled.

It is thought the Sullivan buildings and town of Kimberley will be safe unless the wind increases in velocity.

Guards Watch Chinese Crew.

Montreal, Aug. 12.—The steamer Crown of Aragon, which arrived in port yesterday with West Indian products, has on board 30 Chinamen stokers and crew. The captain had to put up $500 for each of them, and special constables are watching the crew to see that none escape.

THE SOUTHWARK IS AGROUND DOMINION LINER GETS STUCK

Big Vessel is Ashore at Bras Point and Passengers Are Being Transferred to Steamer Ottawa—A Tug Leaves Montreal to Assist Her.

Montreal, Aug. 12.—The Dominion liner Southwark, bound from Montreal to Liverpool with passengers, is aground at Bras Point, on the outer edge of Forteau Bay, some distance west of the entrance to the Straits of Belle Isle, and not far from the Point Amour signal station.

The accident occurred Monday night during a dense fog. No details are yet available, nor will be for a day or two. The wrecking tug Lord Strathcona has been sent out from Quebec, and should be at Bras Point by to-night.

The spot is a protected one, and the passengers should be in no danger, but a despatch last night says the steamer Ottawa is taking them on board.

The Southwark sailed from Montreal on Saturday morning last, with a number of passengers of both classes, and also a large amount of general cargo for Liverpool. At Rimouski she took aboard the week-end British mails.

Dense fog has prevailed throughout the outer part of the gulf during the past few days, and it was probably this which threw the vessel out of her course. The point of the grounding is about 660 miles from Quebec, and the Southwark had evidently been proceeding somewhat slowly.

With the exception of the collier Portsmouth this is the first vessel to go aground in the St. Lawrence route this season.

The passenger list includes Dr. Chas. O. Reilly, Miss Niven, Mrs. Davey, Miss Davey and Miss Hodgart of Toronto, and the following cabin passengers: Dr. W. F. Bentler, Mrs. Bentler, Miss E. D. Burney, Miss Esther Braley, Miss Lillian Carter, Mr. W. R. Crowft, Miss Mary E. Chryst, Mr. H. W. Cannell, Miss Lucille Cantwell, Sydney N. Deane, Miss Desbrisay, Miss Doherty, Mrs. A. G. Dale, Mr. J. S. Duncan, Mr. Donald R. Forrest, Mr. Robert Fleckert, Mrs Fleckert, Dr. B. H. Horonto-Barr, Dr. H. Hess, Mrs. Hess, Mr. E. H. Harris, Mrs. Harris, Miss E. Harris, Master F. Harris, Mr. Theodore W. Koch, Mrs. Koch, Miss Eliner Lucas, Mrs. Lynch, Miss Lynch, Prof. E. W. McBride, Miss Mary C. McMorrow, Mr. Chas. Manning, Mrs. Manning, Miss Manning, Miss Ida E. Molson, Mr. James Powell, Mr. Gustave Perrault, Mrs. Perrault, Mr. Robert Pringle, Mrs. Pringle, Master Pringle, Miss Elizabeth M. Ryan, Mr. G. H. Smith, Mr. W. B. Stringer, Mr. W. THE BUILDING COLLAPSED

And Six Vancouver Workmen Are Pinned Under Debris.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 12.—About 9 o'clock yesterday morning the flooring and interior construction, extending over a space of 25 feet square, in the rear of the hotel block now in course of construction at the south-west corner of Pender street east and the lane west of Westminster avenue, collapsed and six bricklayers and assistants were buried in the ruins. Their fellow-workmen immediately came to their rescue and in a short time extricated the injured men, all of whom were taken to the general hospital. The more seriously injured are: R. McMillan, foreman of bricklayers, married man, compound fracture of right leg, and M. Dunoon, both legs broken.

Toronto Boy Drowns.

Toronto, Aug. 12.—While walking on the top rail of a wooden footbridge across the Don at Cherry street yesterday afternoon, Albert Stevens, 9 years old, living with his parents at 1 Wascana avenue, fell into the Don and was drowned.

Willie Boyd, another lad, slightly older, was with him at the time. The two were "making dares." When young Stevens was just past the middle of the bridge he faltered and fell. He did not rise after striking the water.

Three New Steamers on Route.

London, Aug. 12.—(C. A. P.)—For some time Canadian supporters of the Manchester liners have been urging the establishment of a weekly service. The Canadian Associated Press learns that it has been decided to augment the service by introducing into it three additional steamers.

Manchester fruit importers will make a determined bid to get a better hold of the Canadian apple trade.

Killed by Electric Car.

Belleville, Aug. 12.—Samuel Irwin, for 21 years assistant inspector of weights and measures in this district, was killed in Los Angeles, California, being struck by an electric car.

Used Old Army Revolver.

St. Louis, Aug. 12.—Using an old-fashioned silver-mounted revolver with which he fought against the French at the battle of Sedan during the Franco-Prussian war, Ferdinand Conrad, 71 years of age, a resident of St. Louis for a quarter of a century, ended his life by shooting. Conrad was despondent because of his inability to get work.

Refused the Petition.

Windsor, Aug. 12.—The Minister of Justice has refused petitions for the liberation of the trio of brakemen doing nine months for stealing butter and eggs from a box-car. A petition signed by 300 names sent down in their behalf netted them nothing.

Salmon Pack Big.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 12.—The salmon pack is estimated at 230,000 cases. Puget Sound is credited with 130,000 cases, giving a total Pacific pack of 360,000 cases of salmon. The estimate is based on the belief among canners that the season is about over.

Mining Camp Wiped Out.

Ely, Neb., Aug. 12.—Ripetown, a mining camp located nine miles from Ely, with a population of 300, was almost completely destroyed by fire on Monday night. The fire started in a saloon by the explosion of a lamp. There was no insurance.

Fatality at Owen Sound.

Owen Sound, Aug. 12.—Thomas Hyslop was accidentally killed yesterday by falling into the hold of the steamer D. C. Whitney, while unloading coal. He leaves a young wife.

Where Land Was Well Cultivated Wheat Withstood Drought.

Winnipeg, Aug. 12.—Where cultivation has been good and land heavy the spring wheat crop has successfully resisted the effects of prolonged drought, and that the yield will be heavy, probably averaging well over 20 bushels, while cutting will be general in a week to ten days.

On light lands, however, the drought has left its mark, and short straw with attenuated ears are eloquent of lack of moisture.

Land so affected will tend to pull down the general average. The crop as a whole will turn out rather above than below the average of the past decade.

Alpine Death Toll.

Berne, Switzerland, Aug. 12.—The death toll paid by Alpine climbers this year is a record one.

In the month of July alone 14 persons were killed and two seriously injured.

Thirteen Dead In Mine.

Saarbrucken, Germany, Aug. 12.—Thirteen men are dead and eight are badly injured as the result of an explosion of fire damp in the Dutweiller mine, five miles from here.

Cruelty to Cats.

Toronto, Aug. 12.—William Turner, 863 Lansdowne avenue, was charged in the Police Court yesterday with cruelty to cats. He is said to have snared them and beat them when they are hanging helpless in the air.

The cats "came into my premises despite my efforts to keep them out," said Turner, "and, as they are trespassing I beat them and I think I have a right to." The case was adjourned till Friday in order that the owners of some of the injured cats can give evidence.

Wants Big Water Front.

Vancouver, B.C., Aug. 12.—In discussion of the new agreement between the Government and the Grand Trunk Pacific, the latter wanted seventeen thousand continuous feet waterfront for an unbroken line of wharves and terminals. The Government, however, stood out against giving away this property in continuous stretch and insisted on having lands for public use distributed amongst the company's property on the waterfront. No sale of lots will be held till next May.

Killed In Runaway.

Brockville, Aug. 12.—Louise Springer, wife of William Brandenburger, of Alice Township, met with an accidental death on her [illegible]'s farm. She was assisting in the unloading of hay, her duties being the driving of the horse hitched to the hayfork. A team of horses hauling a wagon started to run away, and in attempting to stop them the woman was struck by the wagon tongue, sustaining injuries from which she died in half an hour. Deceased was [illegible] years of age.

Protestants Protest.

London, Aug. 12.—The council of the Protestant Alliance, that raised such a storm in Parliament and elsewhere at the time King Edward visited the Pope, is again agitated over the announcement that His Majesty intends ceremoniously to audience the papal delegate, Cardinal Vannutelli at the forthcoming eucharist congress in London.

Knights Templar Gather.

Toronto, Aug. 12.—The silver anniversary of the Sovereign Grand Priory of Canadian Knights Templar will be celebrated at the meeting of that body in this city, which opens to-day. Many prominent Knights Templar and their wives arrived from all parts of Canada as well as fraternal delegations from the United States.

AN OFFER TO FARMERS

The building of the G.T.P. will have an undoubted influence upon the farms of Ontario. There may be some difference of opinion as to whether that influence will be favorable or otherwise. To stimulate public opinion amongst those most likely to know, and to decide the question so far as it can be decided in such a manner the Review offers a prize of ten dollars to the farmer, farmer's wife, farmer's son or farmer's daughter, sending in by September 30th next, the best essay on "How the G.T.P. will affect farm values in Ontario." The writers must be residents of West Peterborough and living either alone or with others upon a farm or portion thereof. The essays shall not be over three hundred words in length. They shall become the property of the Review. They shall be signed with assumed names, and forwarded to the Review. The real and assumed names of the writers shall be enclosed together in sealed envelopes and mailed to the Review marked "G. T. P. essay competition." THE CANADIAN CHURCHMAN

The current number of the Canadian Churchman is an attack on Lies makes this ancient but not honourable reservation. "In some very extreme and exceptional cases deception may be excusable upon the principle that self-preservation is the first law of nature just as tracheotomy for instance may be necessary to avert sudden death." The Rev. Dr. Lyle, of Hamilton, is reported to advocate lying when he may think it necessary, also. There are, of course, classic instances of similar belief which we shall not drag in here. We merely wish to say that lying in spite of such distinguished advocacy has come to be regarded as odious. In the first place the C.C's comparison law on a parity with it which is equivalent to denying the moral law. It is a law or it is not. It is a moral law or it is not, and the C.C. seems to think that it is not. Possibly the C.C. is lying now since it has no unyielding regard for truth. The comparison with tracheotomy is puerile, which is a wholly mechanical process without anything in the nature of morality attachable to it. Moreover to postulate the excusability of lying in cases of necessity is to say that God can not or will not interfere to protect His people about to die for the sake of truth. Thank Heaven, No such ideas can or do prevail in Sport or the affairs of life. The Anglican faith rests apparently if the C.C. is right upon a very insecure foundation. A lie may appear to be pardonable or excusable but how can it be? The violent death of every human being on the globe would not excuse the abandonment of moral right strictly as such. It is deplorable that the Churchman should revive such an injurious conclusion. To leave it to every man when he shall speak the truth is amusing. The crooks, however, will pronounce with one accord for the C.C's theory. It also has a large and increasing usage to support it. Of course it is not contended that it is right That would be a contradiction in terms. It would then be a theory that worked both ways at the same time, viz., it is some times right to do wrong. It is in such matters as the foregoing that we are so far behind the times in Canada. The "tentative hypothesis" style of thought and argument has been long since rejected in Great Britain and America. That there are degrees of wickedness in lying as in other things we agree, but wilful deception is lying and that anyone should pretend to say when he is at liberty to perform the operation and when not denotes a condition of the mind far from desirable— we should think. We do not pretend that we are taking high ground. It simply is a case of being logical and truthful.

THE STORY OF THE SPEEDY

Indirectly connected with dredging is the engaging story of the steamer "Speedy," purchased in 1904 in New York, second-hand, for the purpose of towing dredges and barges on inland waters. On the side, so to speak, the Speedy has been used as a despatch boat, that is to say, by the Minister of Public Works and other politicians to go on little jaunts of their own. There are still two or three Ministers who have no private car, and have to be content with a yacht. Mr. Brodeur's yacht is disguised as an ice-breaker, and has some $3,000 worth of silver plate and cut glass in the dining room. The corresponding yacht on the Pacific is called a lighthouse tender. On the Atlantic the like crafts are supposed to protect the fisheries. But we have now to speak of the towboat "Speedy."

Mr. Howden, Superintendent of Dredging, testified to the Public Accounts Committee that he went to New York and purchased this boat for $25,000. True there was a further sum of $1,750 commission, but the officer explained that this was paid to a New York broker. The boat was seven or eight years old and was bought furnished ready for towing.

On the passage to St. John the "Speedy" encountered rough weather. Her piano, a necessary part of the towing outfit, broke loose and smashed the dining room table and chairs. Therefore the following bills;—

Mahogany table...	$ 100
11 dining room chairs at $12 each...	132
Arm chair...	16
	$248

With the mahogany furniture and the piano uninjured the "Speedy" might be expected to commence towing at once. But it was found that her boilers were insufficient.

That was put right by an expenditure of $17,500.

Then it was discovered that the "Speedy" was still unsuitable for towing St. Lawrence dredges. She was placed in the docks of the Polson Company for treatment.

The bill in 1906 was $22,475.

It included the following;—

New electric light outfit	$3,000
New deck, new sponsons, new galley...	3,500
New deck cabin, new smoking room new bathroom, new upholstering...	2,780
New wheel house and chart rooms, a suite of apartments in mahogany and teak, with first-class upholstery...	3,500
Another new bathroom, new closet, two more new staterooms more electric light fixtures, steam heaters... ...	4,500
Another new closet, another bath outfit, lines bumper, etc.	1,500
Up-to-date plumbing, etc... ...	1,377
New refrigerator...	190
Another new pantry	403
Extra lights, chandeliers, etc., in the dining saloons...	397

The cursory observer might think that with electric lights several luxurious cabins, smoking rooms, numerous bathrooms, suites of chambers elegant staterooms a piano, mahogany chairs and superior upholstery, the "Speedy" would pull barges and dredges from one mud flat to another with good effect. But something was lacking. The officers and men, especially the cooks, stewards, waiters and waitresses must have livery to match. We turn again to the Auditor's report and find;—

8 officers' suits @ $32 each.

7 men's suits @ $17.50 each.

Uniform for the stewardess $25.

8 caps @ $3 each.

7 caps @ $1.50 each.

17 reefers @ $15 each.

And in 1907 we find the same programme repeated.

Having equipped this heavily officered craft, Captain Howden made another discovery in finance. He learned that uniforms cost more than their price. In her labours as a tow-boat the "Speedy" required large quantities of such provisions as strength pears, plums, French peas, spring chickens, Radnor water and other supplies, for particulars of which see Public Accounts.

The Public Accounts Committee asked the Captain to explain why he had to pay 18 cents a pound for his spring chickens and other high prices for similar supplies absolutely necessary for proper towing. Here is his testimony;—

"I will explain how the price was increased. If you are dressed in the "Speedy" outfit with brass buttons on and go into the store to buy chickens invariably they they charge you just about double what the chickens are worth."

His further explanation was;

"We have the patronage list but sometimes when they get on the patronage list they think you have to buy from them and up goes the price."

The Royal Commission made the same discovery.

The result of these things is that the "Speedy" has down to this year cost over $100,000, and has done about as much towing as could have been performed by a private craft for a twentieth of the money.

THE LIQUOR LAW

As our readers may remember, the Globe came out recently with very strong praise of the Whitney Government for its sincere efforts to enforce the Liquor Law. We reproduced that article. The Toronto Star (Liberal) now comes out with one just the reverse. Both can't be right. Which is it? After carefully conning our exchanges from all parts of the Province, Conservative and Liberal alike, we frankly assert that the Globe is right. The Whitney Government here and elsewhere is not making a political use of the liquor law. Our local commissioners and inspector are honestly trying to do their duty, and are doing it. Perfection is not to be expected. A people brought up on humbug does not readily fall into the ways of law-abiding citizenship. It is hard to convince a few of the liquor men and some who are not license-holders at all, that this government is willing to lose votes if need be in its effort to carry out the liquor law. Such is the case, however, and the Star to the contrary notwithstanding the people believe it. Usually fair, the Star on this occasion is very unfair. It refers to five licenses which Mr. Hanna recently mentioned as something he would not tolerate, and is not tolerating. It is up to the Star to specify and retract.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Central Canada EXHIBITION AT OTTAWA

Sept. 18th to 26th, '08

Displays will far excel those of any previous year. A Grand Pure Food Exhibit is to be made by Canadian manufacturers.

High class vaudeville programme will be given daily in front of the Grand Stand in addition to the horse races.

The night entertainment will consist of the latest comic opera "What Happened Then?" by the famous De Wolff Hopper and all star company. Popular prices will prevail.

A grand display of paintings and Ladies' Work will be made to signalise the opening of the handsome new fire-proof building, now being erected at a cost of $12,000.

The special attraction in front of the Grand Stand in the afternoon will include the latest European novelty "Del Oro's Performing Cows." This attraction is billed to appear in Ottawa for the first time in America. There will also be a most sensational automobile race on a specially constructed incline, the contesting chauffeurs being two daring young women.

There will be balloon races daily with a double parachute descent from each balloon by the famous Prof. Hutchison and companion.

Get the official programme when issued next month.

MR. A. CUMMINGS OF FERNIE, WRITES TO FRIENDS HERE

Describes the Awful Fire That Swept That Town a Week Ago—Formerly a Resident of This City—His Loss Was About $450.

The following letter written by Mr. A. Cummings, surveyor of Fernie, B.C., to a friend in Peterborough will be of interest to many. Mr. Cummings was for several years a resident of this city and his numerous acquaintances will be glad to hear that he and his mother and sister are all well.

The letter is as follows:

Fernie, B.C., Aug. 4th.

I thought our Peterborough friends may be asking each other "how Mrs. Cummings survived the Fernie fire," I thought I would drop you a line therefore so they may know that mother, Edie and myself are safe and sound. We were in it, and came through it, and lost everything but my survey instruments, clothes on our backs, a few note books and plans, one roll of bedding. $400 to $450 will cover all we saved and of these $400 at least are instruments that I threw in a small trench and buried with a foot of earth. I had no insurance. I sent a number of trunks and bedding out on a dray, but waggon and everything got burned, for there was fire everywhere, in and out of town. We feel somewhat lucky, for the majority saved nothing. As for furniture, outside some 35 houses that escaped, I have not seen enough furniture, as tables, stoves, etc., to furnish one room and all told, Fernie and suburbs is a place in the neighborhood of 5,000 people.

Mother and I lost each other. She went to the station while I was off saving my instruments. Edie and she went out on one of the trains a short distance from the town and watched the progress of the flames being moved about from place to place to keep in the coolest spot for fire was all around.

I told her women were ordered to the station but expected she would go with me when I returned from saving my instruments. I felt rather anxious about her but knew it was useless to search at that stage, especially as I had been told trains were there to take refuge in.

Well, I must not be lengthy, for I have much to do. The fire galloped through the town, driven by a hurricane that knocked trees down like nine pins. I saw logs smash into several lengths as they fell; the wind cracking them as you would a whip lash. For minutes you could not see three feet ahead for dust. The sparks fell during the worst like a hail storm, and it was under these conditions I left Fernie. On leaving the house for the last time I quietly put on the best coat I could find, put a few odds and ends in a suit case, selected my best hat and marched out drawing a big bundle of survey plans behind me. I said to myself, "everything will be different when I come back." I had not yet reached the corner of the block when my hat went flying down the street, so I trudged on hatless amid the hail of fire. I got out to the edge of the town where a fellow was sprinkling his house, a hopeless occupation. I felt refreshed, so had drink out of it and then bundled myself into a trench someone had dug for a water pipe, and covered it up with earth. If I could only have got back to the dray where my trunks were I could have saved some of them by dragging them into more protected spots, but the fire in this five minutes had cut me off from getting back. Off I went amid crying women and children into an area of burning stumps. I shouldered a couple of children and carried them across a burning area to a clear place near the railroad track and the women followed the way I picked. A train came up and I jumped on the first step, handing the women and children up. It was a sight beyond description, children lost their mothers, did not know where they were, women lost their children and were nearly crazy. Some would hardly get into the car because their husbands were not allowed in until all women were put inside. We were firm and determined with every one for there was no time for gentle persuasion. We just gently led them and lifted them in, some resisting. Why, two women with five children absolutely refused to leave the house that was burning and had to be pushed out and led away.

They had lost their heads. I saw one woman walk away from the car and say "I won't go any further, what is the use, the house is gone and I will die first." But of course, she was brought in. Poor thing. Many a mother with babe in her arms came to the car, and as I took it from her breast and handed it up to the others, so we could pull her up so neither would be hurt she gave such agonizing cries for her baby which of course she got immediately she was on board.

We went out some four miles and through the burning timber on the train. It was so hot that I got my hair singed standing on the steps of the car. We put the folks off on the river bank at a clear spot and I came back to the smouldering ruins. I was almost blind with smoke. The wreck of the town seemed complete. Where once a city stood, was a clear stretch of black country with here and there a blackened chimney or brick wall. Of the remains of animals and fowls that were burnt I will not speak of or of the still more horrible sights of human remains some of which I saw. I am glad to say the mortality was at first greatly exaggerated. At present there are known to have lost their lives between twenty and thirty. In the city proper only two, but West Fernie was a real death trap. And places on the outside also, suffered. It will never be known how many were burned, for those who were in the forest may never be found. A logging camp of sixty men and three women were reported lost as no trace of them could be found the next day. They all turned up next day, having gone up one of the mountains out of the fire and could not get down again until it had burnt most out below them.

No one was starved as a wholesale grocery was among the houses saved and adjoining towns were prompt in sending supplies. Over three thousand were fed at the public tables on the first day. We shipped most of the women to Cranbrook, our neighbor city. Cranbrook has done noble. We will soon be able to take the women back and place in tents with their families but relief will have to go on indefinitely.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

CURE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head

ACHE

Is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

NEW ENGLAND AND THE SEA

This is the caption of a folder issued by the Grand Trunk Railway System and sent free on application to any agent of the company. It is descriptive of the beauties and attractions of the mountain districts of the New England States and the Atlantic Sea Coast. The sea coast resorts are among the finest on the American Atlantic and those who have never enjoyed a few days by the sea, have yet an experience worth having to look forward to. The Grand Trunk Railway System run through Pullman Sleeping Cars, from Chicago, Toronto, etc., and solid trains with Parlor Cafe Library Cars on night trains between Montreal, Portland, Old Orchard, and Kennebunkport. 3d

To Contractors

SEALED TENDERS, endorsed "Tenders for Grading," addressed to the undersigned, will be received up to noon on Saturday, the Fifteenth day of August, 1908, for the filling and grading required on the grounds of the Normal School in Peterborough. Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of the Clerk of Works, at the School building, and at this Department.

An accepted bank cheque, payable to the order of the Honorable J. O. Reaume, Minister of Public Works, for five per cent. of the amount of the tender and the bona fide signatures and addresses, or the bond of a Guarantee Company, approved of by this Department, must accompany each tender.

The Department will not be bound to accept the lowest or any tender.

FUNERAL OF LATE ALPHONSE LEMAY

Took Place on Monday Morning —Was Largely Attended

The funeral of the late Alphonse Lemay who passed away in Syracuse, N.Y., on Thursday last, took place on Monday morning from the residence of his sister, Mrs. H. Le Brun, 366 Simcoe street, to St. Peter's Cathedral, and thence to the Roman Catholic cemetery. The remains arrived in the city on the midnight train on Sunday.

At the cathedral requiem high mass was said by Rev. Father McColl. He also officiated at the cemetery. Many friends of the deceased turned out to pay their last token of respect. The pallbearers were Messrs. M. O'Brien, M. Coughlin, James Lynch, Jos. Picard, Sr., Jos. Picard, Jr., and [illegible] Bennett.

FRED SIMPSON AT IDYL WYLD

The Review had an interesting interview with Fred Simpson, the Marathon runner and 'Dick' Baker, his well known trainer at Idyl Wyld, on Monday. Simpson says he cannot do himself justice in hot clammy weather. Few can. Mr. Baker hopes that the public will remember that their expenses were heavy and that a few stand to lose an amount that to the many would appear a trifle. In view of this unmerited liability the Review as was made known several days ago, has undertaken the circulation of a list for subscribers. The subscription is limited to $1. It is proposed to pay the remaining expenses not included in the parliamentary grant and otherwise unprovided for and to buy a souvenir of Marathon for Simpson with the balance, if there is any.

A COMPLAINT

Editor of the Review

Sir,—I noticed on Civic holiday that on the east shore of Cemetery Point, there are located two closets, the usual blot on our Canadian landscape. When an excursionist goes down the river for a holiday trip the look of such disreputable constructions becomes indeed an eyesore. Cannot the parties responsible for the location of these closets be made to fence them in, or remove them.

Yours truly,
EXCURSIONIST.

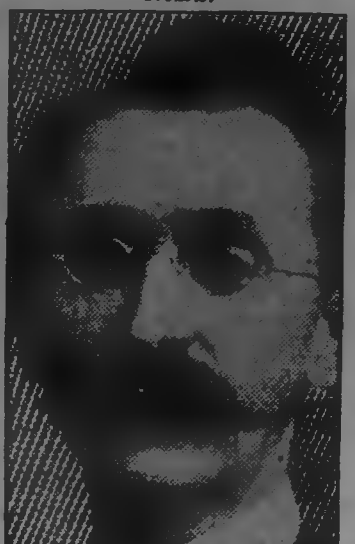
STOMACH INDIGESTION.

Pe-ru-na Strikes at the Root of the Trouble.



MR. S. J. MASSEY.

Mr. S. J. Massey, formerly a resident of Toronto, and a well-known business man, writes from 247 Guy street, Montreal, Quebec:

"I wish to testify to the good results I have derived from the use of Peruna.

"Having been troubled for several years with catarrh of the head, I decided to give Peruna a fair trial and I can truly say I have received great benefit from its use.

"It evidently strikes at the very root of the trouble and good results are soon noticeable.

"I have also found Peruna a very valuable remedy for stomach trouble and indigestion.

"I have no hesitancy whatever in recommending Peruna as a reliable catarrh remedy."

There are several kinds of indigestion. The trouble may be due to sluggishness of the liver, derangements of the bowels, enlargement of the pancreas, or it may be due to the stomach itself.

In nearly all cases of stomach indigestion catarrh is the cause. The only permanent cure is to remove the catarrh.

Peruna has become well-known the world over as a remedy in such cases.

GIVEN A WEEK TO ARRANGE REMEDY

Stagnant Raceway in Ashburnham Cause of Two Companies Having to Answer Charges

At this morning's police court the Peterborough Hydraulic Power Company and the Calcutt Brewing and Malting Company were charged with offences in connection with the unused stagnant raceway in Ashburnham, the former for failing to look after the nuisance after having been notified to do so, and the latter with emptying vegetable matter into the raceway. Magistrate Dumble gave the two companies a week in which to come to some understanding about having the matter remedied, and suggested that in the meantime fresh water be turned on it by the fire brigade.

BIG 'LUNGE HOOKED AT BOBCAYGEON

Weighed 27 Pounds After Being Out of Water for Several Hours

Bobcaygeon, Aug. 10.—This morning Mr. George Morgan, of Pittsburg, Pa., under the guidance of the veteran Garnet Nicholls, sr., made the catch of the season. While trolling on Pigeon Lake, between Allan's landing and Bull Lake Narrows a huge lunge was hooked. The landing of the monster was a most interesting and thrilling experience. Mr. Morgan was using a light steel rod and had to exercise the greatest care lest the fish might escape. The mighty denizen of the deep kept both guide and angler busy. Now, he would sulk in the depths of the lake, now rush away in the most determined manner. Time after time he was reeled in, only to dash off again, and not until about forty-five minutes had elapsed was he got alongside the boat, apparently tired out. Even then he would not yield, and once more bolted. This, however, was his dying effort, and after a few minutes' of struggling, the prize was landed, and a beauty he was. The fish box was too small for his accommodation, so the bottom of the boat became his resting place. There he remained from ten o'clock this morning till six in the evening, and when put on the scales to-night his weight was a little over 27 lbs. When taken out of the water he would have weighed 30 pounds. The measurements of the fish were;—Length 49 inches, girth 23 inches, spread of tail 12 inches, and spread of jaws 10 inches. Mr. Nicholls, who is the oldest and most experienced guide in the neighborhood, says the lunge is the largest he ever saw caught in these waters. It was found that the lunge was only lightly hooked, which is a good evidence of Mr. Morgan's skill at handling big ones.

NOTES OF THE DAY

The fifth anniversary of the coronation of Pope Pious was especially celebrated at the Vatican yesterday.

During a hurricane in Engadin, Hungary, on Saturday, a factory collapsed burying a hundred men beneath the ruins.

Four children of one family dead, and ten others seriously burned or and ten other persons seriously burned or injured, is the record of a fire that early today swept through a crowded tenement in East 112th St., New York. Scores were carried down ladders from the blazing building by firemen.

HAVE PATENTED IMPROVEMENT

Messrs. H. T. Milliard and T. E. Molden Joint Inventors of Improvement for Gasoline Engines

Referring to the gasoline engine mentioned in the patent granted to Mr. T. E. Maldon, formerly of Peterborough, but now of Toronto, it may be explained that the improvement patented is the joint production of Mr. Moldon and Mr. H. T. Millard, of the Hunter street Cycle Works. The feature patented is that the charge is compressed in a separate chamber and then driven into the cylinder, where exploded. The improvement does away with the old idea of compressing the charge before firing in the crank case, by the stroke of the piston, but so doing in a chamber cast in the frame alongside the cylinder proper. The patent has been granted for the United States, and the application is already in for a patent for the Dominion.

WEDDING BELLS

DEARBORN—WOODS

A quiet and pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. George Woods, Park street, when her daughter, Lucy, was united in marriage to Mr. Fred Dearborn of Oshawa. Rev. Wm. Major officiated.

The bride, who is a most popular young lady, was the recipient of a large number of beautiful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Dearborn will reside in Oshawa.

JAMIESON—WAINWRIGHT

The marriage took place at the residence of the bride's parents, London street, yesterday afternoon, of Miss Georgina Wainwright, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Wainwright, to Mr. Arthur Edward Jamieson, of Niagara Falls, N.Y. The ceremony took place at two o'clock and was performed by Rev. J. G. Potter, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, in the presence of a large number of guests. The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Westbrook, Mrs. Westbrook being a sister of the bride. Little Miss Audrey Wainwright, a niece of the bride, was flower girl and Master Lionel Davidson was ring bearer. The house was beautifully decorated, the parlor being arched with green and flowers. The bride was married in her going away suit of navy blue silk trimmed with white lace.

Many handsome presents were received from friends in the city and outside points. The staff of Thos. Barrie & Co., where the bride was employed, presented her with a silver service, other presents were a silver tray from Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Westbrook and substantial cheques from the mother of the bride and father of the groom. The groom's present to the groomsman was a gold ring and to the bridesmaid a gold ring set with pearls.

Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson left on the 4.38 C.P.R. train for Detroit and other points, where they will visit before taking up their residence in Niagara Falls, N.Y. Peterborough friends extend congratulations.

The steamer Monarch will leave on her regular trip for Gore's Landing and Idyl Wyld at 1.30 to-morrow, Thursday, August 13th instead of 8.30 a.m. d1

EXPECT BIG CROP IN WEST

Review Receives Fine Samples of Wheat From Former Resident of Nanton, Alta.

The Review has received from ex-Ald. Jas. Edgecumbe, several heads of wheat picked in a field near Nanton, Alberta, where Mr. Edgecumbe is residing at the present time. The heads are over six inches long, the variety being a new one known as Jones Fife Winter. Mr. Edgecumbe states that if nothing happens, the field from which the heads were picked will average from 60 to 70 bushels per acre. The wheat crop around Nanton is looking splendid, he says.

25 Boys' 2-piece Suits, regularly $3.50, while they last at $1.75 at the Bankrupt Sale, 141 Hunter Street. d4

BREAK CAUSED SOME DELAY

C.P.R. Train Had to Secure New Engine at Claremont

The C.P.R. train from the west was over an hour late today owing to an accident to the engine at Claremont. Owing to a break in one of the driving rods it was necessary to secure another engine to complete the trip. This was done with as little delay as possible. The train arrived at Peterborough about one o'clock.

CARD OF THANKS

Special to the Review.

Sir,—I wish to express my appreciation of thanks to friends and acquaintances for the many kindnesses of sympathy rendered me in so many different forms during my present illness. WOLFE'S HOUSE AT WESTERHAM OCCUPIED BY A CANADIAN LADY

Wolfe's house at Westerham, Kent, England, known as "Quebec House," is now occupied by Mr. Beccles Willson, author of "The Great Company—the Hudson Bay Company—" who married Miss Ethel Dudley, of Colborne, Ontario, cousin of Rev. J. P. Wilson, formerly of George street Methodist church of this city. Rev. Canon Davidson has been paying them a visit. The Review is indebted to this reverend gentleman for a copy of the Daily Graphic of July 25th, in which many illustrations of interest to Canadians appear. "Quebec House," is a very beautiful country-house in the garden of England. The memorial window in St. Alfeye's church, Greenwich, is a very fine example of memorial art. The church itself appears to be of Grecian design although in the photograph it is too heavily draped in ivy to give a sure idea. The medallion shows Wolfe to have been a more determined looking and commanding man than his portraits generally testify. The Olympic games, however, more than divide the honors with the Quebec Tercentenary, every move of the "pride of all nations" being given. Even royalty itself and the "Divinity that doth hedge a King," was overlooked for the time being. The games were not merely games. They were Olympic games, and every participant dates his patent of athletic nobility from that time.

IS APPOINTED THE GENERAL SECRETARY OF WELLAND Y.M.C.A.

Mr. Archie Froude, the popular physical director of the Peterborough Y.M.C.A., has been appointed general secretary of the Welland branch of the Association. His duties in his new field of work commence on September 1st, and he leaves the city on August 22nd.

Mr. Froude has been physical director of the Peterborough "Y" for the past eight months and is very popular with his classes and associates. He has taken an active interest in the progress of the several departments of the "Y" and has been particularly energetic in the promotion of athletics.

During the past summer two very successful athletic meets of which he has been in charge have been run off. He will be greatly missed and is sure to be a favorite in the western town.

EXTRA FARM LABORERS EXCURSIONS

Special Farm Laborers Excursions will be run by the C. P. R. to Winnipeg on August 20th, 27th, September 2nd and 14th in addition to those on Aug. 22nd and Sept. 11th. For all particulars apply to any C. P. R. agent or C. B. Foster, D. P. A., Toronto.

A DRAMA THAT IS NATURAL

"As pure as a flower, as rich as a field of golden grain, and as true to nature as a hollyhock on a country roadside," is what a leading daily recently said of the great New England play, "Quincy Adams Sawyer," which comes here September 8th, 1908, at the Grand Opera House.

It is because of its purity, its sweetness and its fidelity to nature that this great rural drama, standing alone and individual in its class, has won unstinted admiration from the great army of play-goers quick to recognize and appreciate a piece of stage life "that holds the mirror up to nature."

"Quincy Adams Sawyer" is the sort of play that appeals to all classes. City-bred folk enjoy the characters and pictures they have known in other years, the rural folk are pleased with having their own people set before them in the mimic world, and the happy mingling of comedy and pathos please both the devotee of humor as well as the lover of sentiment.

A well selected company, splendid scenery, and a careful regard of detail in stage effects go to make up a complete production.

SPORTING NEWS

CONNIE MURPHY WILL PLAY ST. MARY'S FOR REST OF SEASON

Connie Murphy is going to leave town for the remainder of the season and will play left field for the St. Mary's, leaders of the Toronto city league. The fans will be sorry to hear of the cheerful Connie's departure and the clever left fielder of the Pates was always a favorite with the bleacherites. His work in the field and at the bat have been of the very best order and his averages are high up in both departments. He is one of the most brilliant ball players that ever played on a Peterborough diamond and as an eccentric coach was a star performer. He played for three successive seasons with the Saints before coming here and they wanted him to finish out the season with them in the fight for the Toronto City League trophy.

The Saints have seven games to play yet before the season is over, three with the Park Nines, three with the Wellingtons and one with the Royal Oaks.

AMATEUR BALL NEXT YEAR

Port Hope and Cobourg papers are saying that the Midland Baseball League has gone down the chutes for good, there to remain. The Review does not agree with them. There is no reason why a baseball league composed of Cobourg, Port Hope, Peterborough and Lindsay should not thrive and be a paying proposition at any rate enough money should be made to meet expenses. True the league was not a success this year with the teams composed as they were. It is apparent now that pro. ball, or semi-professional will not pay around these parts. That has been made quite plain this season. There are some who might like to think otherwise, but you can't get around the nasty fact that every club in the league has lost money.

The lesson should be a good one. An amateur league is what is wanted and there is no reason why one should not be organized next year. The present constitution of the Midland League which has loopholes in it, big enough to allow a stack of hay to be pushed through, should be discarded and a new one formulated. Have a strick resident rule that will keep the players confined to homebrews and do away with this importing from every corner of the globe. Peterborough, Lindsay, Port Hope and Cobourg should all be able to place good teams of home brews in the league next year and the games will be interesting enough to draw large crowds. If the present officers do not favor the new order of things they can be dispensed with and others secured. The league hasn't been a success under the present management.

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETE FOR CHEMONG REGATTA TO-MORROW

Good Programme Has Been Prepared—Band Will be in Attendance—Dance in the Evening.

The annual regatta of the Chemong Yacht Club will be held tomorrow and it promises to be the most successful ever held. A large number are going out from the city and Stony Lake, Sturgeon Point and other points will be well represented. The 57th Regiment band will be in attendance during the afternoon and will also supply the music for the dance at night.

The programme of races is an unusually good one, being as follows:—

1. Canoe sailing race, for open canoes, limited to 75 ft. of sail area.
2. Canoe paddling, men's tandem.
3. Canoe paddling, ladies' tandem.
4. Swimming race.
5. Rowing skiff, men's single.
6. Rowing Skiff, ladies' single.
7. Dinghy race. This race will commence at 1.30 for the Kawartha Lakes Challenge Cup and dated Flag.
8. Open sailing race, winner will receive dated silk pennant.
9. Launch race, open.
10. Canoe paddling, men's single.
11. Canoe paddling, ladies' single.
12. Gunwale race.
13. Canoe paddling, four men.
14. Gasoline launches, 3-horse power and under, under 3-horse power allowed two minutes.
15. Gasoline launches, 6-horse power and under, and over 3. Allowance of one minute per horse power.
16. Crab race.

Races will commence at 1.30 p.m. sharp, and proceed continuously.

There must be three contestants in each race.

The order of the programme may be changed at discretion of the committee.

All canoes must be ordinary utility canoes, approved of by committee.

Events open to amateurs only.

All contestants must attend the judges' stand immediately before each event, hand in names and receive instructions.

BRITISH ATHLETIC TEAM MAY COME TO CANADA

The Montreal Star says:

Here is something else that would lead one to believe that the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union and the Athletic Federation of Canada will not always live apart.

There is a scheme on foot to bring an English Athletic team to Canada.

If everything goes well it is to come here next September, and although Mr. J. H. Crocker, manager of the Canadian Olympic team is the prime mover, in the matter he stated when he passed through here that he had consulted Mr. Leslie E. Boyd, president of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association and vice-president of the Athletic Federation of Canada, in the matter and that the latter had agreed to the preliminary plans for the visit.

Mr. Andrews, of Birmingham, has charge of the English end of the trip.

The team is to consist of about ten men and the actual estimated expenses of the trip will be about three thousand dollars.

This amount will be necessary for bare travelling expenses and does not include any allowance for entertainments. A financial guarantee will be necessary and it has been figured out that Toronto and Montreal will each have to guarantee a thousand dollars and that Halifax and Hamilton should be able to put up five hundred dollars each.

With such a combined guarantee the trip would be possible and Canada and Canadians would be enabled to see and compete against some of Britain's greatest amateur athletes.

EXCITING FINISHES AT SECOND DAY OF THE PETERBORO' TURF CLUB'S SUMMER RACE MEET

Talk about spectacular finishes but if the way Queens Baron, Harry Direct and Orillia Belle came under the wire in the last two heats of the 2.16 class at the second day of the Peterborough Turf Club's races wasn't sensational, then there is no such a thing as an exciting finish. In the order mentioned they passed the finishing point in the concluding heats and there was hardly any daylight between the three horses. Queens Baron was a little in the lead of Harry Direct on both occasions and the latter horse just nosed out Orillia Belle for the two heats. The first heat was very close. It was three straight for Queens Baron with Harry Direct and Orillia Belle third.

The result of the 2.30 class was somewhat of a surprise to the railbirds. That good horse Jim K. owned by Mr. L. Ketcheson, Belleville, landed the heavy end of the purse, but Black Prince won the first two heats making it appear as though his chances were good for the leading place. But Jim K won the third heat and after that it was all his race with Black Prince coming in for second money and Prince Medium for third.

The fastest time of the afternoon was made in the two final heats of the 2.16 both of which were made in 2.23 1-4.

Starter Connors rang his bell for the opening of the 2.30 class first and the horses did not have much trouble getting started. The heat was run in good style. Billy C. was stepping nicely for a short distance and broke and kept up his bad acting for the entire race. When he settled down he strided in great fashion, but his skips were too frequent.

In the first heat on the 2.16 Queens Baron, Harry Direct and Orillia Belle got away as named and retained the same positions for this heat and for all of the events in fact.

The second heat of the 2.30 which was a very interesting race to watch on account of the big field of starters was a good one, the horses travelling smoothly and set a fast clip.

In the third heat, Lulu Chimes was withdrawn, her owner stating that her fetlock had been severely cut by the wires of the hobbles.

Doreen was also taken out of the race at this juncture.

The track was in good shape as it always is provided the weather is any way favorable and the officials of the Turf Club, of which Dr. Johnston is president, and Mr. C. R. Nixon, secretary-treasurer, deserve much credit for the two days' of excellent sport afforded by the meet.

2.30 CLASS

Jim K	2	2	1	1	1
Black Prince	1	1	2	2	3
Prince Medium	3	4	3	3	2
Lou Keswick	4	3	4	4	4

INDOOR ATHLETIC MEET TO BE HELD HERE THIS FALL

An indoor athletic meet will be held in Peterborough this fall under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. Athletic Club. The meet last fall was a great success for the first to be held, and this season's should be a big improvement in every respect. It will be held in the Brock street rink early in October and a meeting will be held in the near future to make the preliminary arrangements.

Efforts will be made to bring the best Canadian athletes here for the meet, and it is probable that many of the men who composed the Canadian Olympic team will appear on the local boards.

Peterborough secured a good reputation among athletes on account of the success and the splendid management of the meet held here last fall.

SPORTING COMMENT

Now, why didn't the Lindsay Athletic Club and Mr. "Lotte" Walker the graceful high diver, to the Olympic games. Perhaps he pinched that championship because he felt a little sore. His recent stunt shows that in his particular line he is all to the custard.

The Review baseball team will start their barn storming tour about the twentieth of the month. City league teams please put up and take notice.

INTENDED RUNNING TO PETERBORO'

But Bad Roads Caused Fred Simpson to Postpone His Trip to City

Fred Simpson was to have run into the city to-day from Hiawatha, but apparently he postponed the trip on account of the rain and resultant bad roads. His street clothes came up on the stage this morning, but apparently Fred changed his mind after the stage had left Hiawatha.

TO SETTLE LABOR DISPUTES.

Scotch Railway Man to Try the Arbitration Plan.

The following information concerning a scheme of conciliation and arbitration between the representatives of labor and the Scotch railway companies for the settlement of questions relating to rates of wages and hours of labor is furnished by Consul Maxwell Blake of Dunfermline:

It is proposed to group the various grades of employes into sections, each section to choose by election one or more representatives for each district, and these will compose the employes' sectional board to meet the representatives of the company. Under the scheme there will also be formed conciliation boards for each company to deal with questions of wages and hours of labor which cannot be mutually settled through the usual channels.

In the event of the two boards indicated failing to arrive at an agreement the subject of difference is then referred to arbitration. The appealed reference is to go before a single arbitrator appointed by agreement between the two boards, or, in default of an agreement, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Commons and the lord president of the court of sessions, or one of them. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on all parties.

Each side of the conciliation board is to elect its own chairman. Any proposal agreed to by a sectional board and rejected by the employes is referred to the central board (composed of fourteen employes' representatives, two from members of each sectional board), and a proposal agreed to by the central board and rejected by the employes is referred to arbitration. A proposal agreed to by a sectional board and rejected by the employes is referred to the central board, and a proposal agreed to by the central board and rejected by the employes is referred to arbitration. Where the central conciliation board fail to agree an arbitrator is appointed, and where the central conciliation board have agreed, but the decision is not accepted by the directors or employes, the arbitrator is called in as before.

The total number of employes' representatives on each sectional board is eight, two from the employes in the section in each of the four designated electoral districts. The central board is composed as indicated. The company's representatives on each sectional and central board do not exceed the employers' representatives.

Are Lordly Chauffeurs.

Since it has become usual for younger sons of the English aristocracy to engage in the automobile business, it is extremely difficult for the ordinary purchaser to distinguish between the professional chauffeur and the aristocratic driver who occasionally exhibits a car to a client. There are at least thirty young Englishmen of noble families studying the fine points of motoring and taking customers for trial runs, with the result that some amusing mistakes are made.

Recently a young cousin of the Duke of Beaufort was instructed by his employer to exhibit a car to one of the London newly rich, the wife of a retired tradesman. The young man made himself agreeable, and when the car returned to the big house in Belgravia, the customer alighted and, pressing a half-crown upon the chauffeur, said:

"There my lad; and take care not to spend it foolishly!"

The young man drove back to his employer, a son of Lord Llangattock, and indignantly recounted his experience.

"Well, you can consider yourself jolly lucky," was the consoling rejoinder. "The last time I saw the lady she gave me only a shilling."

How to Preserve Eggs.

Dissolve four ounces of beeswax in eight ounces of warm olive oil. Dip the tips of the fingers into the solution and anoint the eggs all over. The oil will be absorbed and the shell and pores filled up with the wax. Pack in bran or sawdust and put away in a cool place. Eggs treated in this way will keep two years.

A Big Difference.

She—What's the difference between a dimple and a wrinkle?

He—Oh, about thirty or forty years.

SURVEYING FOR THE DOUBLE TRACKING OF GRAND TRUNK

New Line Will be Followed in Some Places in Order to Eliminate High Grades That Are Now a Hindrance.

Lindsay, Aug. 12.—Mr. A. S. Going, engineer in charge of line location for the Grand Trunk Railway, will move with his family to Lindsay next week and will also bring his gang of eight assistants. Mr. Going has been engaged for the past two months in surveying a new location for the line to Midland with a view to eliminating the high grades that now have to be contended against, some of them are as high as 75 feet per mile. The intention is to secure a line that will not have a greater acclivity than fifteen feet and to obtain this will probably mean the abandonment of the old line to Midland. The desired grade has been secured as far as Woodville, and Mr. Going and his assistants will work from Lindsay as far as Port Hope. In many places on the line it will be cheaper to make an entirely new location for the double track, as the expense of the extensive cuttings and fillings on the old line will be quite high.

The Grand Trunk will be seriously handicapped in carrying the grain handled by the elevators at Midland and Tiffin. It is now taxed very severely by the quantity being received by the present elevators, and in October the Grand Trunk Pacific elevator, with a capacity of two million bushels, will be ready for business, and then it will puzzle the officials to handle the traffic. The capacity of the new elevator is greater than all the others in Midland combined, which means, of course, that the jug is much larger than its spout. This condition cannot be relieved until the increase of rolling stock, larger locomotives and double track is secured.

PETERBOROUGH SYMPATHIZES WITH STIRLING VILLAGE

Fire, Water and Light Committee Passes Resolution of Sympathy—Short Session Held Last Night.

A meeting of the Fire, Water and Light Committee was held last night when there were present the chairman, Ald. Johnston, Mayor Rush, and Ald. McIntyre, Buller and Turner. Among the business transacted during the evening was the moving of a resolution of sympathy to the village of Stirling in the loss sustained by the recent fire.

The chairman reported that he and Ald. Turner had examined regarding the request for three hydrants on Elm street and one on Dowling street, between London and Dublin streets.

Ald. Buller moved, seconded by Ald. McIntyre,—That the Peterborough Water Commissioners be instructed to place two hydrants on the new main on Elm street and one on Downie street, between Dublin and London streets, the hydrants to be placed as directed by the chairman—Carried.

Ald. Buller moved, seconded by Ald Turner,—That Ald. McIntyre and the chairman be requested to examine and report as to a request for lights at Knox church—Carried.

Ald. McIntyre moved, seconded by Ald. Buller,—That an expression of sympathy be sent to the reeve of Stirling on account of the loss the village sustained recently by the fire. —Carried.

Ald Turner moved, seconded by Ald Turner,— That the thanks of the council be extended to Mr. Wm. Dandy for giving his services gratuitously as engineer of the fire engine at the time of the fire at Stirling. —Carried.

Ald. Turner moved, seconded by Ald. Buller,—That there be constructed a galvanized iron ventilator from the large dormatory in the fire hall up through the roof.—Carried.

Ald Buller moved, seconded by Ald. McIntyre,—That anything needed for the fire hall, costing over $10, be tendered on by the dealers.—Carried.

CHIEF HOWARD'S REPORT

Peterborough, August 11, '08

To the Chairman and Committee, on Fire, Water and Light.

Gentlemen,—I beg leave to submit report No. 3 of the Fire Department as follows,—

At 12.05 a.m., August 9th, I received a long distance telephone message from Mr. W. H. Mather, reeve of Stirling, Ontario, to the effect that the town of Stirling was in danger of being wiped out by fire, and that an explosion had occurred that had wrecked a number of buildings in the business section of the town.

Mr. Mather on behalf of his council, petitioned for assistance. I informed the gentleman that if I could procure the necessary authority we would proceed at once.

I immediately summoned His Worship, Mayor Rush, and Ald. Johnston, chairman of your committee. These gentlemen responded to the call with all possible haste and gave me a written order to assist Stirling in so far as lay in our power, without crippling the service for Peterborough.

We took the steam fire engine and 1000 feet of hose. I was accompanied by Ald. J. W. Johnston and two of your firemen, and six gentlemen who very kindly volunteered their services. Thus leaving our own city well protected. Two men employed in Robinson's livery agreed to respond to any calls of fire during our absence.

We were unable to get a train until about 2.40 p.m., and by the time we arrived at the scene of the disaster, the most of the danger was over. We were able, however, to save a large general store, owned and occupied by Mr. Shaw, and also a block of buildings owned by Mr. Mather, the reeve. We pumped water for two and a half hours, to cool off the ruins. We were given breakfast at the Stirling House after the fire was entirely under control, and returned to Peterborough arriving at twelve o'clock, noon, August 9th.

His Worship Mayor Rush, received a telegram from the Reeve of Stirling to the effect that the Corporation of Stirling would bear all expense in connection with the trip.

I also wish to mention that at the time this call was received the Fire Department was without an engineer and Mr. William Dandy, of the firm of McColl Bros. & Co., Toronto, very kindly volunteered to act as engineer until such time as we could secure the services of another engineer. I may state that this gentleman is a first class engineer with many years' experience, and was, for a considerable period a member of the Examining Board of the Ontario Association of Stationary Engineers. Mr. Dandy would not accept remuneration for his services.

All of which is respectfully submitted. I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,
W. A. HOWARD

ONE QUEER CASE RECALLS ANOTHER

Port Hope Guide Tells of Strange Deal in Division Court Case

*In our Monday's issue we gave a brief account of a queer law case in Peterborough and we are reminded that a case somewhat similar happened in a town not a hundred miles from here. A debtor was sued in the Division Court for the price of a horse and judgment was given against the defendant, and the bailiff was sent to make a seizure, when he was told by the debtor that he might as well pay up, and then and there paid the amount of the judgment, less the costs of the court. When the plaintiff came around for his money, the clerk kept the costs that the bailiff should have collected out of the pile. So the plaintiff was mulcted the costs, and being tiff was mulcted the costs, and being a peaceably disposed person, he paid without a kick.—Port Hope Guide

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dickson Given Handsome Presents at Zion Lawn Social Special Correspondence.

Keene, Aug. 10.—The lawn social held under the auspices of the Methodist church, Zion, Otonabee, on Mr. W. W. Dickson's lawn was a great success.

The Peterborough Salvation Army Band rendered a fine programme of instrumental music, which was much appreciated.

The attendance was large and the receipts corresponded, being over $37.

A pleasant feature of the evening's entertainment was the presentation to Mr. Dickson, of an oak writing desk and to Mrs. Dickson of a beautiful fruit dish, set in a silver frame.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickson having been called to the front the following address was read.

To Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dickson.—

The friends of Zion appointment on the Keene Circuit have not been unmindful of the years of faithful service which you have rendered in various departments of church and Sunday school work. But more especially in connection with the musical part of the service.

So accustomed have we become to seeing your faces in the choir and having your voices leading in the service of praise that it is with great reluctance we consent to your withdrawing, even for a time, from the responsibilities you have so ably borne in our choir work.

However, we confidently expect the young people who have had in addition to other advantages, the benefit of your training and faithful example will acquit themselves so creditably that in due time they also will receive the commendation of their fellow-worshippers, their own conscience and their God.

As a congregation we were not willing that this evening should pass until we had expressed to you both our gratitude for your faithful service. We also desire you to accept these gifts that in the use of them you may be reminded from time to time of the warm place you hold in the esteem of your friends.

Signed on behalf of the congregation.

REV. W. D. HARRISON,
Pastor.

Greystock, Aug. 5th, 1908.

Mr. Dickson on behalf of himself and wife, made a very appropriate reply, expressing their appreciation of the manifested esteem and sympathy of their friends and their full purpose to give all the assistance they can to the work of God, while life and strength shall last.

THE STRENUOUS LIFE

Pulls so Hard on the Stomach it Must Have Help

The stress and strain of the strenuous life in both city and country makes stomach trouble. Five people suffer to-day where one did ten years ago, with sick headache, dizziness, flatulence, distress after eating, specks before the eyes, bloating, nervousness, sleeplessness, and the many other symptoms of indigestion.

All who are suffering with stomach troubles, and that means at least two out of every three in Peterborough and other towns, should use Mi-o-na stomach tablets. Nothing else is so safe, yet as effective; nothing else can be so thoroughly relied upon to relieve all trouble from indigestion as Mi-o-na.

So reliable is Mi-o-na that W. Madill, druggist, corner George and Hunter Sts., Peterborough, with every 50 cent box he sells, gives a guarantee to refund the money unless the remedy cures.

BAD ACCIDENT NEAR NORWOOD

Two Men Injured in Dynamite Explosion — One May Not Recover

Norwood, Aug. 11.—J. F. Anderson left for Regina, after spending his holidays visiting his mother, Queen street.

Mrs. Adams left for St. Johns, Newfoundland, to visit her mother, Mrs. Dews.

Will Pakenham is attending the I.O.O.F. convention in St. Thomas.

Miss W. A. Patterson and Maggie Calder left for an extended visit to Chatham, London and Detroit, where they will visit friends.

Mrs. Thomas, of Detroit, is the guest of Mrs. Wm. Rogers, Belmont.

Miss Florence and Violet White left for Calgary on Monday last.

Rev. Father Joseph McCarthy, of Montreal, visited his brother, Mr. Thomas McCarthy, last week.

Mrs. James Cummings, of Moose Jaw, an old resident of Norwood, is spending a short time visiting his friends and relatives.

Mr. George Howson, of the Ottawa Bank, is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Howson, Queen street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Laing, of Havelock, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Laing, Peterborough street.

Miss Mabel Laing is spending a short vacation with friends in Peterborough, Monaghan and other places.

A very sad accident occurred this morning near Centre avenue, in which two young men of this vicinity nearly lost their lives. The latest reports state that they are in a very low condition.

Mr. Wm. Medougal, a young man, about nineteen years, and Mr. Ernest Haig, a married man, were engaged in blasting a well on the farm of Mr. Nicholas Collins, when the dynamite exploded, rendering the men unconscious. They were at once taken to Norwood to the home of Mr. Fred Robinson's, where medical aid was at once summoned. Dr. Wilson of this town, and Dr. Holdcroft and his assistant, of Havelock. The Dr. states that Mr. Wm. Medougal had his left eye completely blown out and his face badly disfigured, besides other injuries and very slight hopes are entertained of his recovery. Mr. Ernest Haig is badly injured too, but they think that he may recover.

HAIR SLAUGHTER

Killed by Negligence.

Hair must have nourishment or die. If it does not have proper nourishment it will lose its vitality, grow weak, and become an easy prey to the ravages of the vicious and destructive germs of dandruff.

Parisian Sage is a hair nourisher; it is the result of sincere study and experiment by one of the world's leading scientists.

It should be used regularly as a hair dressing by everyone with healthy hair, because it never fails to prevent dandruff, falling hair, or any scalp disease.

But Parisian Sage is not only a preventive; it is a certain cure for dandruff, it stops itching of the scalp instantly; it makes hair grow thick and luxuriant. It is especially in demand by ladies, because it makes the hair beautiful, soft and fluffy. W. Madill, the Peterborough druggist, Druggist, sells it under a positive guarantee to do all that is claimed for it, or money back, 50 cents for a large bottle.

YOUNG MAN FROM HERE IN TROUBLE

Said to Have Robbed the Nelson House, Pottersburg

John Smith, a 19 year old lad from Peterborough is said to have burglarized the Nelson House, Pottersburg, on Saturday night, taking two gold watches and $10 from boarders there. He also attempted to break into the house of Rev. Mr. McKay, Presbyterian minister but was interrupted and fled. Earlier Saturday night, Smith had rented a horse and rig from Poole's livery and it is thought that he made good his escape. — Lindsay Free Press.

3 GEORGE-ST. RESTAURANT KEEPERS APPEARED IN THE POLICE COURT THIS MORNING

P.C. Meharry and Chief Rossel Visited Their Eating Houses on Sunday and Were Served With Ice Cream and Soft Drinks—Charges Were Laid Against Them—Defence Claim all Were Within Their Rights.

Is it, or is it not lawful for a man conducting a licensed restaurant to sell ice cream and soft drinks on Sunday, in his ordinary course of business. This is the fundamental question in the cases of John Fowler, George Thomas, and Quo Woo, three George street restaurant keepers who are charged with selling ice cream and soft drinks last Sunday. The last two are Chinamen.

Chief Rossel and P. C. Meharry, who bought them were witnesses when the three appeared in police court this morning accused of the offence referred to.

Mr E. H. D. Hall, city solicitor, conducted the prosecution and Mr. G. N. Gordon appeared for Messrs. Fowler and Thomas. The Chinaman with the somewhat aristocratic pseudonym of Ci Quo Woo was represented by Mr. George Hatton.

The evidence of three witnesses was heard, that of Chief Rossel, P. C. Meharry and Miss Esther Mollart also testified to having obtained ice cream at Thomas' restaurant last Sunday.

No evidence was offered for the defence but Mr. Gordon read many rulings as authorities on different points brought up and argued to show that his clients were within theri rights in doing as they had. Mr. Hatton on behalf of Woo submitted the authorities as given by Mr. Gordon and presented a similar line of defence generally.

Chief Rossel who was first called, to give evidence said that he had been informed that Fowler and the two Chinese were in the habit of selling openly on Sunday. He and Meharry went to Fowler's restaurant on Sunday and were served with two drinks of lemon sour. The Chief paid for the drinks and gave 5c a glass for it. There were others across the for it. There were others drinking. Across the room there were two small boys one apparently eight or nine, and the other about twelve. Chief Rosse said they appeared to be drinking ginger ale.

The Chief told the proprietor it was time to cut out that kind of business and said he had called just to see whether he had been doing it or not.

Mr. Gordon asked the Chief if Fowler was a restaurant keeper and inquired of him if his license did not permit him to sell meals on his premises on Sunday. The Chief replied it did.

P. C. Meharry said he was with the Chief last Sunday and confirmed the former's evidence regarding being served with lemon sour on Sunday at Fowler's restaurant;

Charles Davis, a young lad employed by Mr. Fowler, to wait on tables remembered the Chief and P. C. Meharry being in the restaurant last Sunday. He served them with lemon sour. That was all they got. They paid for it. He believed that he had served one or two dishes of ice cream after they were in.

To Mr. Gordon he said that any who had been served with soft drinks or ice cream on Sunday, drank or ate it on the premises

Mr. Gordon said he was prepared to admit that the Chief and P. C. Meharry were served with ice cream and lemon sour and they purchased and consumed at the restaurant of George Thomas, providing City Solicitor Hall would admit that Mr. Thomas was a licensed restaurant keeper. Mr. Hall said he wanted to prove that others had also been served with the same on Sunday last

Esther Mollart said she was in Thomas' restaurant last Sunday. She thought it was about five o'clock when she was there. She got one dish of ice cream and paid five cents for it. She got nothing else. She saw one young man in the restaurant eating ice cream. She bought the ice cream for a little girl who was with her

This was all the evidence offered the defence not calling any witnesses

"It's a question whether these people are within the law selling selling what they sold as food." said Magistrate Dumble

Mr. Gordon quoted authorities in the matter and said the licenses of both Fowler and Thomas allowed them to dispose of ice cream and soft drinks in the ordinary course of business. He submitted that no conviction could be made in the matter.

Woo's case was next considered and Mr Hatton said he was bound to serve such commodities as ice cream and soft drinks. He said the Chief and Meharry knew the law and if the law had been broken they had been parties to its violation.

Mr. Hatton asked the Chief if he had ever warned the accused restaurant keepers that they were breaking the law.

He refused to answer the question.

The three cases were enlarged until Friday.

FOUR HELD FOR MURDER

Slayers of Soo Italian Will go to Assizes---Dog Caused Murder

Sault Ste. Marie, Aug. 13.—The Poiocceo preliminary murder trial came to an end yesterday afternoon and as a result Benny, Ikey and Alex. Sciglìano and Farcione Enrico are held on a murder charge and will appear at the fall Assizes commencing Oct 12.

The case against the Scigliaños is strong, but in all probability the man Enrico will be able to get clear.

A number of those testifying yesterday swore to seeing Ike Sciglìano strike the dead man, Baga Poeioceo, with a heavy piece of scantling. Urbano Poeioceo, a brother of the dead man, was also maltreated and was carried away from the scene of the affray senseless.

The trouble seemed to have started over the kicking of a dog belonging to the dead man, but Eugene Gardi, one of the men held, said the fight started in the kitchen after which those concerned proceeded to the yard and continued it. The Poeioceo brothers attempted to get away, but were assaulted and followed as they proceeded toward the gate.

Smuggling Bombs.

Lisbon, Aug. 13.—The insistent murmurs that the revolutionary propaganda is taking a firmer grip in this country, and needs only a master hand to bring about a crisis, is given importance by the discovery that recently there has been heavy smuggling into the country of arms and bombs.

Wright Flies Again.

Lemans, France, Aug. 13.—Wilbur Wright of Dayton, Ohio, made a splendid flight with his aeroplane here yesterday morning, circling the field five times and remaining in the air six minutes 56 2-5 seconds. The flight was undulating throughout, with the highest level 90 feet.

THE FIRST CLASH IN STRIKE TROUBLE A SLIGHT DISTURBANCE AT WINNIPEG

Winnipeg Picket and Chicago Strike-Breaker Have Trouble---Situation on C.P.R. is Still Very Quiet North Bay Union Member is Expelled on Suspicion of Being a Detective and Other Sleuths Are Said to be at Work Among Men.

Winnipeg, Aug. 13.—The first collision between strike-breakers and pickets occurred late Tuesday evening. A picket approached a strike-breaker, alleged to be from Chicago, and asked him to cease working. An altercation followed and the strike-breaker pulled a villainous-looking knife with a five-inch blade, and shaped like a dirk. The picket at once summoned assistance from his comrades and after a struggle the man was disarmed and the knife, with its sheath, is now in possession of the Winnipeg executive.

J. H. McVety stated yesterday morning, in connection with this incident, that he had been informed that the number of the strike-breakers reported to have come in from the south on Tuesday was 30 or 40. The executive had clear evidence that these men were being brought across the line in defiance of the provisions of the Alien Labor Act, and the executive was considering the question of either instituting proceedings under the act or asking the Government for an enquiry.

Mr. McVety also stated that an investigation had been demanded by independent parties in the city of Winnipeg, and formal complaints lodged with the Railway Commission as to trains being run without an inspection of engines or of air-brakes. It was expected, said Mr. McVety, that the Commission, in defence of their rules, would act promptly in the matter of the investigation demanded.

J. H. M'VETY,
Vancouver Man Who Is In Charge of Strikers at Winnipeg.

North Bay, Aug. 13.—C.P.R. strikers claim that five more strike breakers left the employ of the company yesterday, and that they have information that very little work is being done by the strike-breakers, some of whom claim not to have been aware of the conditions when engaged, and have no desire to act as strike-breakers.

C. P. R. officials say that everything is running smoothly and that work is being satisfactorily attended to.

A sensation was sprung yesterday in union circles by a member being expelled. He was suspected of being a detective in the company's employ, and as union secrets have been leaking out he was watched. His explanations not being satisfactory, expulsion followed.

A stranger, purporting to be a land agent, who has busied himself among the strikers, is also suspected of being a detective, and is under close surveillance.

The strike committee has refused the offer of local merchants to give a percentage of sales to the strike fund, claiming that their finances are in good shape.

London, Eng., Aug. 13.—The local representatives of the Canadian Pacific Railway here and in Liverpool are making enquiries with the view of securing mechanics to replace the strikers in Canada should this step become necessary, but no arrangements yet have been completed for the sending over of any men.

Montreal, Aug. 13.—In the annual statement of Canadian Pacific just issued may be found the reason why the company has decided to [illegible] against higher wages or shorter hours. It showed a decrease of over $900,000 in gross revenue and an increase of over $2,000,000 in operating expenses.

Most of the increase in expenses is due to the wage list, and the officials of the company say that if it were to go on the stability of the company's dividend would be threatened, a serious matter for a young company that has to go to the market for new capital from time to time, they explain. There was only one other alternative and that was to have a more uniform scale of wage and in order to get it to fight the unions.

Those who are working at the shops are taken to work and brought home each day on special trains, which are guarded by strong squads of constables armed with night sticks and revolvers.

It was said down town yesterday that a movement is on foot to make Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the C. P. R., the sole arbitrator between the company and the striking mechanics of the road. Sir Thomas has acted in a similar capacity before and has given satisfaction.

West Toronto, Aug. 13.—The strike situation remains unchanged this morning and the town streets are remarkably quiet, and give little indication of the fact that some 450 railway employes are out on strike.

At the C. P. R. yards the special constables are patrolling the grounds and yards, but no overt act of violence has taken place, nor is there a suggestion of such a course

ITALIANS ON STRIKE

Laborers on Intercolonial Force Comparions to Quit Work--- Police Called Out.

Campbellton, N.B., Aug. 13.—Things are lively on the Intercolonial Railway construction because of a strike organized by Italians. They demanded $1.75 a day instead of $1.50, but the contractor, Thomas Malcolm, gave the men twenty minutes to go to work or leave the camps. The ringleaders at once attempted to force the others to quit work. They unfurled a red flag, and proceeded to march from camp to camp, and ordered the men to quit work. In a short time nearly 800 men were idle. Word was sent here, and Chief Crawford, Inspector Noble of the Intercolonial Railway and five others, all armed, drove 42 miles to the scene.

At the main camp the officers found the men all idle, but the ringleaders had gone ten miles farther in to make the choppers stop work. The police went in and met the agitators bringing out the rest of the gang. The ringleaders were arrested, but not without threats being made and firearms being displayed.

All the Italians in the camps were searched for arms, and the police station was like an arsenal. There were fourteen guns, seventeen revolvers and a score or more of knives.

Knights Templar Gather.

Toronto, Aug. 13.—The proceedings yesterday morning of the Sovereign Grand Priory of the Knights Templar at the Alexandra Theatre, consisted chiefly of addresses and the consideration of reports. Grand Master A. A. Campbell of London referred to the great growth made by the order in Canada, which now has a membership of 5,000. The growth for the year of 643 was a credit to the preceptories. Rain marred the outside ceremonies of the assembly, but the success of the gathering is all that was anticipated.

C.P.R. IS SUED FOR FRAUD GOVERNMENT TAKES ACTION

Alleges Misrepresentation on Dutiable Material—Proceedings Entered to Recover $236,206.70, Amount of Undervaluation of Bridge Material.

Montreal, Aug. 13.—Alleging fraudulent misrepresentation of the value of goods entering the customs by officials of the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Attorney-General for the Dominion of Canada has entered an action in the Exchequer Court at Ottawa for the recovery of $236,206.70 from the company. This is made up of three sums: Sums due on goods on which either no entries had been made, or on which it is alleged an undervaluation had been made by the company's agent, amounting to $44,406.70; the sum of $31,900, claimed as double forfeiture on a charge of bridge material alleged to have been entered as scrap iron, and, finally, the sum of $160,000 which the company had placed with the Government as penal bonds for the faithful representing of goods carried by the company through the customs. The irregularities are alleged to have taken place during the years 1904-05.

No mention is made in the complaint of any officials who may have taken part in the alleged transactions. The Canadian Pacific Railway is named as the defendant, and the specific charges are made against it. The complaint has just been entered at Ottawa, and the company is allowed one month to file a defence. Mr. Arnold Wainwright is acting as solicitor for the Attorney-General.

THIS VISIT WAS PROFITABLE ONE

King's German Trip Has Cleared Away Misunderstanding That Existed.

London, Aug. 13.—The visits paid by King Edward to Emperor William at Cronberg and to Emperor Francis Joseph at Ischl, while not likely to lead to any formal diplomatic transactions, are considered highly important in official circles as effecting the relations of Great Britain, Germany and Austria-Hungary.

It is understood that King Edward particularly wished to see Emperor William to arrange a visit for himself and Queen Alexandra to Berlin in return for the Emperor's visit to London, and His Majesty the King also wanted to show the Germans by his relations with his royal nephew, that the elements which had been brought about with his influence had not been aimed against Germany.

CHASED WIFE WITH HATCHET

Wallaceburg Man is Guilty of Brutal Offence--Has Been Arrested.

Wallaceburg, Ont., Aug. 13.—Wm. Elliott, a stave joiner, was arrested yesterday for brutally assaulting his wife, who is in a critical condition at the hospital. Elliott, while intoxicated, went home and grabbed his wife by the hair, and dragged her into the yard and kicked her in the abdomen and breast. He then chased her into the street carrying a hatchet and only for Clarke Best happening along a murder would likely have occurred. The Elliotts came here from Detroit two weeks ago. He and his brother were both arrested.

Four Sailors Killed.

Sonderburg, Germany, Aug. 13.—Four sailors of the German navy came to their deaths here as the result of a mistake in the electric transmission of an order.

The cruiser Undine was returning to the harbor from target practice, when, for the purpose of drill, the order "man overboad" was given. A cutter with 11 men put out from the ship. An order was sent to the engine room to back the cruiser, but the telegraph transmitted registered "go ahead" instead, and the cruiser dashed forward and cut the small boat in two.

STORM DAMAGE IS HEAVY LIGHTNING PLAYED HAVOC

Two London Companies Lose Roofs and House is Partly Destroyed—Daughter of Strathroy Man is Hurt —Guelph Also Suffers.

London, Aug. 13.—London and the vicinity was visited yesterday afternoon with a terrific lightning storm which ended in a small hurricane in which three people were hurt and thousands of dollars' damage done.

The roof of the Southwestern Traction Co. was partly destroyed and the fireman and engineer both slightly hurt. The roof of the London Rolling Mills was also partly destroyed. The home of G. Pepper, Maitland street, was also struck and partly demolished. His daughter, Miss Lucille was struck, the shoe on her left foot being torn off. The bolt tore a hole in the ground fifteen feet long and six inches deep.

At Strathroy, Edward Nicholl's house was struck and he and his daughter stunned, the girl being seriously hurt. The barns of Prince Allan at Carigorm were burned and his loss is placed at $1,800.

Guelph, Aug. 13.—Lightning yesterday struck the Taylor Radiator Co., stunning an Italian; the home of Mrs. Bergin, where is caused a fire, and the Albion Hotel.

Cayuga, Ont., Aug. 13.—An electric storm, accompanied by high wind and heavy rain, passed over this vicinity yesterday afternoon.

Blake Stewart, a young farmer of North Cayuga, near Canfield, was killed by lightning while turning off the windmill during the storm.

STRIKE ON C.N.R. NOW POSSIBLE

Shopmen on That Road Have Delivered Ultimatum.

Winnipeg, Aug. 13.—A startling statement was made last night on behalf of the C. N. R. shopmen, that trouble is imminent on that road also, and that a rupture may occur at any time. They claim that the company has violated the schedule agreed upon last May, and unless an immediate change occurs a strike is assured. Just what the trouble exactly is cannot be learned, but an ultimatum has been presented.

Fined $300 For Abduction.

Sarnia, Aug. 13.—Wesley McFarland of Petrolea was sentenced by Judge Law of Port Huron to pay a fine of $300 or go to the Iona, Mich., Reformatory for eight months for taking May Blevins into the United States from Canada. The prisoner's wife was in court at the time, and left for her home to secure the money to pay the fine. The Blevins woman has not yet been sentenced.

Alleged Murderer Hangs Himself.

New York, Aug. 13.—During the change of guards in the early morning shift yesterday, William Schenck, held on a charge of murder, committed suicide in his cell in the Raymond street jail, by hanging himself from the bars by his suspenders. The man had protested his innocence, but of late he became despondent.

MacPherson Will Quit.

Ottawa, Aug. 13.—R. G. MacPherson, M. P., has decided to abandon political life. He is offered and will accept the position of postmaster of Vancouver, rendered vacant by superannuation.

Mr. MacPherson is a druggist by profession. He is a native of Wellington County, Ontario, and a brother of Rev. Mr. MacPherson of Toronto.

Rescuer Is Drowned.

Cobourg, Aug. 13.—Mr. David P. Russ, formerly of Haldimand township, was drowned in attempting to rescue the body of an eighteen-year-old Finnish boy, who had been drowned in the Ontonagon river. Another citizen of Ontonagon, Mr. Ed. Crane, was assisting him in trying to find the boy's body, when the fatal accident occurred.

KILTIES VISIT THE GORDONS

Preparations Completed for the Trip---Sail Next Friday.

Toronto, Aug. 13.—The Aldershot contingent from the 48th Highlanders was selected at the armories last night and all preparations have been completed for the trip.

The selection embraces representatives from all ranks and is as follows: Lieut.-Col. Donald M. Robertson, Capt. J. E. K. Osborne, Lieut. Archie R. McGregor, Sergt.-Major J. W. Kirkness, Col.-Sergt. W. H. Grant, Privates W. Bell, L. A. Elliott, Alexander Sinclair, E. L. Johnston, Alexander Wardill and J. Glover.

The contingent will sail from Montreal on Friday of next week, arriving at Aldershot about the 1st of September. The visit to the Gordons will last about three weeks, and the Canadians will spend two weeks of this time on the autumn manoeuvres. This is the first time a Canadian regiment has been so honored.

Sir Thomas Taylor to Act.

Ottawa, Aug. 13.—Sir Thomas Taylor, formerly chief justice of Manitoba, has been appointed to act as judge of the Exchequer Court of Canada pro hoc vice, to take the sittings of that court in the west this fall. Judge Cassells is engaged in the marine enquiry and will not be able to complete his work for some time.

As Labor Missionary.

London, Aug. 13.—Keir Hardie, who is going to Canada to attend the congress of the labor party and address a serious of labor demonstrations, in addressing an Ayrshire meeting, said there was a growing desire on the part of organized labor here and in the colonies to come closer together. He was going to Canada as a labor missionery of empire to try to draw closer the bonds of the working organization.

Woman May Be Drowned.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Since the collision between the R. & O. steamer Kingston and the Titania, a small ferryboat, Tuesday night in Charlotte harbor, resulting in the sinking of the latter craft and the imperilling of the lives of 22 passengers, the wife of Capt. Roscoes of the steamer Algonia, Charlotte, has been missing since and is probably drowned.

BRYAN IS TOLD OF NOMINATION

Notification Ceramony Held in the State Capitol Grounds.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 13.—With a salute of 46 guns, one for each state, given at daybreak, yesterday, Lincoln began the celebration of its notification day. The notification ceremony was held in the state capitol grounds at 2 o'clock. Representative Henry N. Clayton of Alabama, chairman of the notification committee, notified Mr. Bryan of his nomination as the Democratic Presidential candidate in a short speech at the conclusion of which he handed to that nominee the formal letter of notification, signed by all the members of the committee. Mr. Bryan replied, and the ceremony was closed by a short speech by John W. Kern, the vice-presidential nominee.

Conservative Conventions.

Toronto, Aug. 13.—Conservative Organizer Carstairs yesterday announced that the following Conservative nominating conventions have been arranged:

Aug. 22, South Wellington, at Guelph; to be addressed by W. F. Cockshutt, M. P.

Aug. 24.—Middlesex (adjourned convention), at Glencoe; when Major Beattie, M P. of London, will be present.

Aug. 25, East Kent, at Dresden; to be addressed by H. S. Clements, M.P.

Aug. 25, South Oxford, at West Elgin; with Joseph Armstrong, M. P., of Petrolea, to speak.

Aug. 25, Ottawa (two nominations).

Six Killed on Warship.

Toulon, Aug. 13.—(C. A. P.)—Six persons were killed and 18 injured in a gun explosion on the school ship Coronne yesterday off Les Salins d'Hperes.

The accident occurred while a number of recruits were engaged in handling a 164 millimetre gun, the breech of which blew out.

Three of those wounded are in a critical condition.

Engineers Confer.

Windsor, Aug. 13.—The Canadian Association of Stationary Engineers are holding their annual session here, with about fifty delegates in attendance. A complimentary banquet was tendered the visitors at the British American Hotel last night. The principal speakers were Mayor E. S. Wigle, Hon. R. F. Sutherland, and Mayor Howe of Passaic, N. J.

Japan and China Quarrel.

London, Aug. 13.—Another cloud has arisen between China and Japan, according to a special despatch received here from Hong Kong, owing to the seizure at Chinchou by the Chinese authorities of a steamer having on board 10,000 rifles and 2,000,000 cartridges.

Japanese merchants have protested, claiming that this cargo belongs to them, and threaten to make another international question of the incident.

The seizure is similar to that of the Tatsu Maru.

Organizer Arrested.

Halifax, Aug. 13.—Alonso B. Bayne of Five Islands, one of the most active Tory workers in the late bye-election in Colchester, was arrested yesterday, charged with an offence against the Dominion Election Act. Mr. Bayne's offence is alleged to have been committed, presumably on behalf of John Stanfield, M. P., on or before the day of the election of the latter last November in that county.

This case is the first of a number of such actions that it is reported the Liberals of Colchester will institute against Tory workers. It is declared that Colchester was deluged with rum by the Conservatives.

No Action Taken.

Toronto, Aug. 13.—The Hydro-Electric Power Commission was busily engaged all day yesterday again figuring out the results of the tenders for the construction of the Niagara transmission line.

Hon. Adam Beck stated that there was nothing to be added to what had been already briefly said.

He deprecated the elaborate and foundationless stories afloat regarding the expectations of the commission, and refused to discuss the terms of the tenders until the award was actually made.

REGATTA POSTCARDS

Mr. R. M. Roy. has some strikingly good picture post cards of the Stony Lake regatta. They will be of especial interest to those who were in attendance at this gay annual event at the lakes.

THE SOUTHWARK AGAIN AFLOAT

Dominion Liner Proceeds on Her Way to Liverpool.

Montreal, Aug. 13.—The steamship Southwark was reported floated at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. All on board reported well.

In place of making for a Canadian port the Southwark will proceed on her way to Liverpool. At 9.10 yesterday morning she signalled the incoming Empress of Ireland that she would proceed on her way in spite of her damaged condition. She has a forehold full of water, but it is expected that the bulkheads will hold her from further damage.

Special Train to Hospital.

Toronto, Aug. 13.—James H. Gill, son of a wealthy manufacturer of Steubenville, Ohio, was brought to the city at 3.25 yesterday morning on a chartered train of engine and two cars.

His left foot had been severely crushed by the machinery of his gasoline launch at Muskoka wharf at five o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Gill, who is an only son, about 18 years of age, has been staying at Beaumorris, Muskoka. He had gone to Muskoka wharf in the launch and was about to start back when his engineer had some trouble with the machine. Gill went to look at it and in some way his foot was caught.

Soft Spot In Bank.

Cornwall, Aug. 13.—Navigation on the Cornwall Canal was suspended for a short time Tuesday, and since 2 p. m. yesterday no vessels have passed, although it is expected that all will be allowed through to-day.

Since the recent big break above lock 18, a very careful watch has been kept on all parts of the canal bank, and a soft spot was discovered near an old culvert between locks 19 and 20. The affected part was made secure.

DIED

SANDERSON—At his late residence 244 Victoria street, Toronto, on Wednesday, August 12th, 1908, William Sanderson.

THE BORROWERS WILL GO FREE

Persons Who Got Money From Leslie Will Not be Prosecuted.

Toronto, Aug. 13.—The crown does not intend to insist upon the disclosures of the identities of the persons to whom Col. J. Knox Leslie, late treasurer of the exhibition, is believed to have loaned large sums of money on notes which are worthless.

Crown Attorney Corley says he has no wish to have any such borrowers appear in court, as they cannot be connected with any suspicion of guilt, since to borrow money is no legal offence.

No fresh discoveries as to the amount of the shortage have been made, the sum total remaining at $18,263. The report that there is an additional $6,400 deficit is positively denied by the auditors and Manager Orr.

To Meet In Lethbridge.

Vernon, B. C., Aug. 13.—The irrigation convention which has been meeting here passed resolutions in favor of the creation of water municipalities; that the Dominion and Provincial Governments be required to undertake topographical and hydrographical surveys to obtain information as to the amount of water for irrigation and irrigable lands; that the Government, in contemplated legislation, provide protections for owners of water in storage in carrying it to their ditch heads. The motion in favor of Government ownership irrigation was lost by a vote of 26 to 20.

The next meeting will be held in Lethbridge.

Demand For Harvesters.

Winnipeg, Aug. 13.—The binders are starting wheat-cutting in southern Manitoba where the land is light, and farmers are already asking for harvesters.

Canadian Pacific points will need about 14,000 men, Canadian Northern 8,000, and the Grand Trunk Pacific about 2,000.

Independent Mill Yields.

St. John, N. B., Aug. 13.—The St. John cotton mills, the only independent mills in Canada, have entered into a working agreement with the combine, whereby D Morrice & Co., Montreal, will handle the mill's output.

More proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restores women to normal health.

Mrs. Henry Clark, Glandford Station, Ont., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for years, and never found any medicine to compare with it for sick women.

"I had ulcers and a displacement of the feminine organs, and doctors did me no good. I suffered dreadfully until I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has cured me, and also helped other sick women to whom I have recommended it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs Pinkham if there is anything about your sickness you do not understand. She will treat your letter in confidence and advise you free. No woman ever regretted writing her, and because of her vast experience she has helped thousands. Address, Lynn, Mass

The Daily Review

THURSDAY, AUG. 13, 1908.

POLITICAL HEDGERS.

The close connection between dredging and politics has been frequently pointed out by Mr. Bennett and others. Close relatives of Members of Parliament find a great fascination in dredging contracts. The chief man in one dredging company is the lawyer leader of the Ontario Opposition. Another has a local legislator and his brother and the son-in-law of a Dominion Member as the chief owners. A third seems to be controlled by an ex-Member of Parliament. A fourth has the son of the member for Ottawa as the active manager.

The Company last-mentioned has found a small fortune in St. John, N.B., harbor. The Dominion Dredging Company was not required to compete for this profitable St. John contract. A local contractor tendered in 1905 and did much excavation at 55 cents a yard. He did not find it profitable and when the work was offered next year, he raised his price to 90 cents. There were no other tenders, and the contract was awarded to him at the higher rate which was large enough to recoup any previous losses and leave a substantial profit.

The Government then decided that a second dredge should be put on. It did not recognize the previous contractor by giving him another dredge and continue under his existing contract. Nor was there a call for tenders. Instead the Department gave Mr. Stewart's Dominion Dredging Co. the contracts to go in and dredge at 90 cents a yard. Thereupon the Company bought a dredge from the United States and set to work. In about ten months the Government has paid this concern $375,000, out of which, according to estimates made by parties on the ground the contractor has paid for the dredge costing $140,000 for repairs, working expenses and all other outlay, and made $155,000 net profit.

Whatever claim the original contractor had to receive 90 cents a yard as the only tenderer it is evident that the Dominion Dredging Company had no such claim. This is a private contract, made without competition and at prices which appear to be excessive. While Mr. Stewart, M. P., declares that he has no interest in the concern, it is pointed out that his son, the main man in the Company, began business as a dredger, without capital or experience, shortly after his father became member of parliament and that he is now receiving very special favors from the Government.

A LACK OF FORESIGHT.

One-third of the next fiscal year has passed and the Finance Minister is meeting greater disappointments. He foresaw a decline in revenue, and judged that he would receive only $90,000,000 this year, in place of $96,500,000 last year. But instead of losing $6,500,000 in twelve months, he is short that much in four months. The custom revenue alone has decreased $6,106,940. Intercolonial balance is worse than last year at this time, by $323,000, and there is a decrease in inland revenue.

On the other hand, both the current and capital expenditure are rapidly increasing. It now seems certain that the increase in debt this year will be twice as large as in any previous year in our history, and five times as large as in any year since the completion of the C.P.R. It is about time for the Liberal party to call another convention and repeal that plank in the platform which says:

"We cannot but view with alarm the large increase of the public debt."

And perhaps they should modify the declaration:

"We demand the strictest economy."

BAD WORK

It was Mr. Fielding who made the most precise estimate of the cost of the Transcontinental, which also proved to be about the least correct. There is an interest now in examining the statement made by the Finance Minister, the Minister of Railways and the Premier concerning the section from Quebec to Moncton, which runs through a well-known country.

The Premier began it by saying that of course the Intercolonial was a failure because the route from Quebec to Moncton followed two sides of a triangle. The Government proposed to follow the third side and make a road about 130 miles shorter. Mr. Emmerson said that he had hunted all through the middle of New Brunswick (probably pursuing "Beasts of Ephesus") and knew every mile of the country. He confirmed the Premier's statement. Mr. Fielding accepted the Premier's geometry and Mr. Emmerson's topography, but for the sake of round numbers, figured the length of the Quebec to Moncton section at 400 miles instead of 360 or 380.

400 miles at $25 000 a mile, $10 000,000. These were Mr. Fielding's figures and on that understanding the contract was endorsed.

The road is under contract and its length is pretty well ascertained. It is now declared to be from the Quebec Bridge terminal to Moncton 456 1-2 miles and this will be a little increased. The saving as compared with the Intercolonial is 30 miles instead of 100 or 120 miles. Moreover, the new road is to have a "pusher" grade, that is to say, a grade which requires an extra engine to push the train up. Everybody knows that the Intercolonial could be shorted by much more than 22 miles by cutting across a few minor curves. So that there is really no shortening of distance at all.

Now as to the cost. Mr. Fielding said he had obtained careful statements from the Government engineer making it $25 000 per mile. In July of this year the present Minister of Railways brought down the statement of the present estimated cost of this part of the road by divisions. Here it is;—

For 30 miles... ... $32 573 per mile
For 50 miles... ... ... 41 996 per mile
For 64 1-2 miles ...... 45 341 per mile
For 61 miles... ... ... 51 130 per mile
For 53 miles... ... 65 771 per mile
For 1 mile... ...... 65 371
For 61-2 miles ... 83 570 per mile
For 32 miles... ...110 173 per mile

For the remaining 149 miles no estimate is given, but it is said to be as heavy as any section except that last mentioned.

It will be seen that the average cost will be at least $60 000 per mile, or between $23,000,000 and $24 000,000 for the whole; instead of only $25 000 per mile, and only $10 000,000 altogether.

Mr. Fielding now tries to throw the responsibility of his bad estimate on Mr. Schreiber. The engineer is not in a position to explain, but Mr. Schreiber has not troubled himself to discredit the arrangements which the Ministers have made or desire to make with Grand Trunk Pacific people. It was shown last year that when the Company put in its first claim of expenditure to be covered by guarantee bonds, there was an item of $162 000 of "preliminary expenses" which the engineer was asked to certify as a charge for actual construction. The accountant objected, but the bill was certified just the same after Mr. Schreiber had consulted the Minister of Justice. Finally it was brought to the attention of Mr. Courtney, then Deputy Minister of Finance, who set to work examining the items. Thereupon the Company suddenly withdrew the claim to $56 000 and asked for the remaining $100 000. The accountant objected to these, which were largely payable to lawyers and other promoters. Finally Mr. Schreiber took back his recommendation and the bill was not allowed.

The accountant who held up the claim was transferred to Moncton, and it will be remembered that the items of the $56 000 first withdrawn could never afterwards be discovered. The Department had given up the statement of claim without keeping a copy of it. It was sent back to the company, whose proper officer when summoned to give evidence before the committee, sailed for Europe. His assistant testified that the paper had been destroyed, and the Government majority in the Public Accounts Committee, sustained afterwards by the majority in the House, voted down all attempts to further investigate these secret expenditures. Mr. Schreiber would have had the whole bill paid without inquiry, as his Minister doubtless desired.

THE HISTORY COMPLETED

The Quebec bridge is a story by itself, briefly told in the minority report of the committee appointed to inquire into the finances. Mr. Monk, Dr. Barker and Dr. Walsh show that the company, with the nominal capital of a million, had in 1903, paid up only $65,000 in alleged cash, but includes fees voted to the directors. It received $1,550,000 in subsidies, and the bridge was to cost $4,500,000. So Mr. Fielding said in 1903.

By 1903 the company had expended the subsidies and was $779,550 in debt. It came to the Government for relief instead of taking over the enterprise from the bankrupt concern, the Government guaranteed $6,688,200 of the company's bonds. The company then went gaily on, building according to its own plans, which were condemned by the Government's bridge engineer. When the Deputy Minister proposed the appointment of a Government supervising engineer, the company objected and the complaisant government did nothing. The bridge went down, killed nearly eighty men and a Government commission found that the calamity was due to weak designs and inadequate supervision.

When the guarantee was made the company agreed to put up $200,000 capital in cash—a condition only partially performed. To-day the Government is liable for $6,222,008, and has only the abutments, the approaches, and some more or less twisted iron to show for it, with the prospect that the bridge will be re-built in another place.

Meanwhile the President, ex-Premier Parent, who draws $10,000 a year from the Dominion as Chairman of the Transcontinental, has received $24,250 in salary as president of the company. His fellow directors and officers have drawn about $40,000.

When the bridge fell, it was called a disaster for the company. On the contrary, the company gains. The Government is taking over the work not only meeting all losses and liabilities, but re-paying the whole investment of the promoters, whether made in cash or services, with 10 per cent. profit to the shareholders, in addition to what they have already received. The company is receiving the same profit that would have been paid if the enterprise had been successful.

Sally, T. C.

By W. F. BRYAN.

Copyrighted, 1908, by Associated Literary Press.

Sarah Henrietta Westervelt was the name entered in the register of the ivy clad church, and in her baby days she was called Sally. But from the day her Cupid's arch of a mouth learned to frame intelligent sentences Jack Hardy had dubbed her the "town crier."

The nickname was so apt that it stuck, being reduced for simplicity's sake to T. C. Even during those stern minutes in the library with her father he often dropped the sober Sarah for the more universal T. C.

T. C.'s nickname was due to her genius for the dissemination of bits of gossip best forgotten. Her mind seemed naturally to empty itself of all information, and young Hardy altered an old saw into "What goes in T. C.'s ear comes out of her mouth."

As T. C. grew in understanding the habit got her more firmly in its grip. Instead of learning to appreciate the value of reticence, her wider scope of knowledge served only the better to equip her for the gathering of sundry bits of gossip which she would blurt out at the most inopportune occasions until not only her family, but her friends, came to regard her with an affection that was not unmixed with terror.

T. C., being a sensitive little soul, grieved in secret and made earnest vows that she would tattle no more.

HE GATHERED HER TROUBLESOME LITTLE SISTER TO HER BREAST.

She meant to mend her ways, but at the first opportunity her store of knowledge would roll out unchecked and unrealized.

It was to Jack Hardy that she always went for sympathy and advice when these revelations and their consequences hung heavy over her head. Though Jack had given her the odious nickname, he made partial atonement by never employing it.

To him she was "Peterkin," and, though frequently he was a sufferer from her disclosures, he was ever ready with advice, sympathy or candy, as the occasion seemed to demand, for he alone apparently realized that her fault was temperamental and not the result of maliciousness.

T. C. fairly worshiped Hardy, yet all the little intimate details of his courtship of her sister Nell leaked out along with the rest of her chatter, and there were times when Hardy's forbearance was put to a hard test. It was characteristic of the man that even the personal experience did not abate his sympathy for T. C., not even when he proposed to Nell and was given a negative answer.

When Nell made hysterical reference to another girl he felt that he had T. C. to thank for this, yet his office still was her haven of refuge, and she stoutly denied that she had said anything about some other woman.

Hardy's questions had to be discreetly framed if he did not wish the fact of his rejection to become common talk, and he could not press the investigation. Instead he sought absorption in work, but the practice of a country lawyer seldom proves absorbing, and Hardy grew thin and white while he waited and hoped for a clearing up of the trouble.

He was sitting idly at his desk one afternoon when T. C. poked her head into the doorway and, finding that he was alone, entered boldly.

"What is it, Peterkin?" he asked, printing a kiss on the child's troubled face. "Have you been telling the minister what your father said when he was asked to contribute to the chancel fund, or did you explain to the guests at the party that the salad was made with canned lobster?"

"Worse 'an that," was the doleful declaration as T. C. snuggled against the broad shoulder. "The school committee visited this afternoon. Mr. Sprague asked us what love was, and I told him it was the way the principal acted with Miss Saunders. They all laughed, but Miss Squires got red in the face, and I was expelled. It is the truth," she added defiantly. "He kisses her when he thinks no one can see him, and she calls him 'Georgie.' I wouldn't call any man with whiskers 'Georgie,' like a little boy."

"Wait until you grow up," admonished Hardy. "But, see here, Peterkin, I know Mr. Torrance very well. Perhaps I can beg you off if you promise to keep out of his love affairs in future."

"You just bet I will!" declared T. C. with unction. "Lovers are funny people. There's Nell just crying her eyes out because you carry some other girl's picture in your watch."

"What do you know about that picture?" asked Hardy tensely. "Did you tell Nell about that?"

"I saw it one day when you left your watch on the desk," explained T. C. "I didn't tell Nell. I just said it was funny that you had another girl's picture in your watch when Nell's new pictures are so much prettier."

Hardy sprang up from his desk and set T. C. upon her feet.

"Look here, Peterkin," he proposed. "You take this dime and find a place where you can get ice cream soda. Don't be in too much of a hurry to drink it. Better get two. Meantime I'll slip over to the house and sort of prepare them for the news that you are expelled."

T. C. gurgled a delighted assent, and presently they emerged from the office building, and T. C. went skipping along to the candy store, while Jack made for the Westervelt home.

Nell was sitting on the shade piazza as he came up the path. As she saw him she rose to her feet, but it was too late for a graceful retreat. He sprang up the steps and caught her hand.

"Don't go in," he pleaded. "Let's sit out here. It is more pleasant."

"Shall I call father?" she asked. "He is in the library."

"I hope to see him before I go," declared Hardy meaningly. "But first I want to speak to you."

Nell flushed at the suggestion, but she resumed her place in the rocker, and Jack drew a chair to her side.

"When I asked you to marry me you said something about another girl," he began, plunging directly into the subject. "At the time I suspected that T. C. might be able to explain the allusion, but I did not dare question her too closely lest I give forth more information than I obtained. She let it out today. Was it because of that other girl in my watch that you refused me, Nell?"

"No woman cares to be counted second best," was the defensive reply. "Have you changed the photograph again?"

"I have not changed," he said slowly, "but I want you to see it."

He held the watch toward her with the back case open. She saw the likeness of a gentle faced woman who somehow suggested an earlier period in spite of the modern photography. Silently she passed it back to Hardy and waited for an explanation.

"This is my father's watch," he began. "The picture is that of my mother. When she died we had only an old painting of her. Father had it copied, and they made a splendid job of it. That is why I have another woman's picture in my case. When you spoke of 'the other woman' I could not know that Sally had been investigating my watch. She found it on my desk one day. I just learned this and understood your feeling of resentment."

"I supposed that you knew and had no explanation to offer."

"And you will give me another answer now?" he asked as he gained possession of her hand.

An hour later a freckled face thrust itself above the hedge of the Westervelt lawn; then, seeing Hardy on the piazza, T. C. came boldly forward.

"Did you fix it, Jack?" she demanded. Hardy blushed.

"I was fixing another of your scrapes," he explained. "Nell, Peterkin has been expelled from school, but I have promised to see Torrance in her behalf. Meanwhile I have promised that she will not be scolded."

"I couldn't scold her this afternoon," said Nell as he gathered her troublesome little sister to her breast. "You make a great deal of trouble for people, T. C., sometimes, but then again you set them right."

"I'm not to blame that there isn't any stopper to my brain," was the aggrieved explanation. "Jack knows that. That's why he fixed things for me all right."

"You're a dear," said Nell and Jack in chorus, and for once the town crier had the comfortable feeling that she was appreciated.

HOW TO CURE A HEADACHE

To attempt to cure a headache by taking a "headache powder," is like trying to stop a leak in the roof by putting a pan under the dripping water. Chronic headaches are caused by poisoned blood. The blood is poisoned by tissue waste, undigested food and other impurities remaining too long in the system. These poisons are not promptly eliminated because of sick liver, bowels, skin or kidneys.

If the bowels do not move regularly—if there is pain in the back showing kidney trouble—if the skin is sallow or disfigured with pimples—it shows clearly what is causing the headache.

"Fruit-a-tives" cure headaches because they cure the cause of headaches. "Fruit-a-tives" act directly on the three great eliminating organs—bowels, kidneys and skin. "Fruit-a-tives" keep the system free of poisons.

"Fruit-a-tives" come in two sizes—25c and 50c. If your dealer does not have them write to Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

REFRIGERATORS WERE ROBBED

Gilmour St. Residents Had Provisions Stolen

A resident on Gilmour street complains that on Tuesday night some person came to his place and completely robbed the refrigerator of everything that was in it. It contained a considerable quantity of meat, cream and other eatables. Everything was taken. Another resident on the street had the same experience about two months ago. The refrigerators stood on the verandah and when the occupants of the house were away the theft was committed.

It is thought the thieves are some young boys who congregate in Jackson park. A great deal of pilfering has been done this summer.

SIDING NOT LIKELY TO BE BUILT TO MATTHEWS CO. PLANT

It is extremely probable that the Grand Trunk will not build a siding into the Matthews Company property on George street as was intended. The Matthews company were desirous of having the switch on account of the high inter-switching charges they had to pay but since the order was given to have the siding built the Dominion Railway Commission has made a change in the regulations governing inter-switching charges. The change reduces to a large extent the amount the Matthews Company has to pay to get cars placed on the Grand Trunk tracks and while the matter is not definitely decided it is understood that the siding will not likely be built.

"JIMMY DICK'S" CRIES ATTRACT ATTENTION AND HE IS SAVED

The other afternoon a party from Keene, who were spending the afternoon at Routh's Point, Rice Lake, were alarmed by hearing loud cries of "help! help! drowning! help." proceeding from some one apparently in difficulty in the lake. The voice was a male one, and the cries appeared to be coming from a short distance away.

Some of the party immediately set out in two skiffs and a canoe and when they were just clear of the rice beds a voice came: "Don't be in a hurry; I can hang on."

The voice proved to be that of James Dickson, of Keene, one of the oldest and best known trappers and fishermen in the district, and popularly known as "Jimmy Dick."

While fishing his canoe had turned over. After some effort he was hauled into one of the skiffs, together with his dog, who is his frequent companion. He was thoroughly drenched and somewhat exhausted when his rescue was effected.

MRS. SUTHERLAND ARRAIGNED ON MURDER CHARGE AT BUFFALO

Former Peterborough Woman Accused of Murdering Husband—Three Women on Trial.

Buffalo, N.Y., Aug. 12.—Today, for the first time in the criminal history of Buffalo, three women were arraigned in Police Court on charges of taking human lives. The police accuse the women for being responsible for the death of five human beings. The women are Mrs. Annie Sutherland, who is accused of having shot her husband, Alexander, at their home on Niagara street, last week; Mrs. Isabella Sahl n, accused of having strangled her three young children, at her home on Grey street, several weeks ago, and Martha Brokmanke, the seventeen year old girl, who was arrested on a charge of throwing a new-born babe from the second story window of the General Hospital in July last. Warrants charging murder in the first degree were ordered issued for the women at the conclusion of three inquests.

TORONTO MAN LIKELY TO BE NEW PHYSICAL DIRECTOR

In all probability Mr. Seymour W. Collings, assistant physical director of the Central YMCA, Toronto, will become physical director of the Peterborough YMCA, succeeding Mr. E. A. Frowde, who has resigned. Mr. Collins has been offered it and while no definite word has been received, it is understood that he will accept, he having intimated some time ago that he would accept the position he if it was offered him. He is out of the city at the present time and this is probably the reason that he has not been heard from.

Mr. Collings is a young man and has been very successful in his work at Toronto, being assistant to Mr. J. H. Crocker, who was in charge of the Canadian Olympic team.

FIRST C. P. R. HARVESTERS' EXCURSION TO-MORROW

The first Harvesters' Excursion to Western Canada will be run tomorrow by the CPR. The excursion train does not pass through Peterborough but several from this vicinity are taking advantage of the cheap rates and will take the train from Toronto. A large number from different parts of the province will leave on the excursion.

Among those who are departing from here are the following, all of whom come from Douro and Otonabee, Messrs. James Martin, Howard Curtis, Russell Goodfellow, Frank Baxter, Jack Henderson, J. Garrett, Ed. Lee, Frank Lockington, Albert Carpenter.

ALARMING DEPRESSION AT COBALT SAYS LOCAL MAN

Mr. D. W. Porter, of this city, formerly proprietor of Porter's Delicatessen, George street, has not a very high opinion of the Cobalt. He paid a visit there recently in search of a good hotel business and was thoroughly all over the ground.

He says the reigning depression is very marked there and states that fully half of the store keepers would be willing to dispose of businesses at a low figure. The majority of the mines are not paying well and this in itself is one of the most serious drawbacks. Of course there are one or two exceptions, among them the Cobalt City Mines, which are in charge of Mr. H. H. Lang, a cousin of Mr. Jas. Lang, Peterborough.

Besides mines being a non-paying proposition, Mr. Porter says the condition of affairs in Cobalt may be attributed to quite an extent to the large amount of money being expended during the campaign of the Presidential elections in the United States, as much of the capital invested in Cobalt properties is American.

MR. DAWSON KENNEDY WILL BE JUDGE IN THE REVIEW ESSAY COMPETITION

Mr. Dawson Kennedy, who has been and is so closely connected with agriculture and agricultural institutions and societies generally, has kindly consented to act as sole judge and referee in the Review essay competition. The terms governing the competition were published in Wednesday's issue, but it may be said the subject is "How the G.T.P. will affect farm values in Ontario." The essays must be signed with assumed names only. The prize is ten dollars in cash. The limit of length is 300 words. The real and assumed names of writers are to be mailed together to the Review, marked "G.T.P. essay competition." The essays are to be forwarded to the Review, marked, "G.T.P. Essay Competition," in a separate envelope. When the essays have been adjudged the former envelopes will be opened and the winner's real name ascertained. Only farmers, their wives, daughters and sons residing on farms in West Peterborough (federal boundaries) are eligible. The competition closes on Sept. 30th next. The essays become the property of the Review for publication if necessary.

A BLACK HAND LETTER SENT TO LINDSAY MAN

That the Black Hand Society, have started operations in Lindsay is evident from a letter received by a local business man this morning. Whether it is the genuine article, from the hands of a real live anarchist, is the question that is troubling this merchant. The writer, however, only used one sheet of paper to make his demand. It all bore the insignia of the order; the skull and cross-bones in pencil served as a monogram. Dirty finger marks, which are all over the paper, is the only clue the police have as to the identity of that writer, and no doubt Chief Vincent, who is well up in the mysteries of the Bertillon system, will have the culprit locked up before long.

The communication made a big demand for coin which is going to be treated by silent contempt. The merchant, however, felt very uneasy about it all morning, but said they could not bunco him.—Lindsay Free Press.

BIG CLASSES AT ENNISMORE

It is expected that about forty pupils will attend the Continuation Classes in Ennismore during the coming year. The results of the past few years have been very satisfactory indeed, and this accounts for the lively increase in attendance.

Judge Snider of Hamilton has been asked to declare Sidney F. Pilgrim officially dead.

BARNARDO GIRLS SENT TO HOMES

Throughout Ontario—Sixty-four Left on Special Car on G.T.R.

A party of ninety-five children arrived at Dr. Barnardo's home, 'Hazel Brae' on Saturday evening and yesterday and today were sent to various points in Ontario where homes have been procured for them. A special car containing thirty-five went on the GTR. yesterday morning and again today twenty-eight were sent away to new homes. Very desirable places have been secured for these children.

LOCAL BOYS ARE CAPITAL FELLOWS

What One of Port Hope Boys at Y.M.C.A. Camp Has to Say

One of the Port Hope boys at the YMCA camp at Clear Lake, writes to the Port Hope Guide as follows:

The Peterborough boys are certainly capital fellows. The following rhyme will show you how they are engaged:

The Peterborough boys they are fine,
Exceptionally busy all the time;
They have landed 'beauties' down the line—
Two are Wallies and one Martines.

We had a large camp fire last evening and a great crowd of campers all around our part attended it. Gordon Hornsby, of Peterborough, was our organist; the cook, G. Arnott, caroled with his mouth organ, and the others all sang. I tell you we have had a jolly time till about 10.30 o'clock when the gathering dispersed by singing the national anthem.

BATTERY WILL HAVE A DRILL

First One Next Tuesday Evening —Preparing for Camp

The 24th Field Battery has started work preparatory to going to camp at Kingston on August 31st. A drill will be held next Tuesday night and a large turnout is looked for. Uniforms are being given out at the Ashburnham drill shed by Quartermaster Sergeant Biggs. The battery will go into camp full strength.

ARE MAKING THE ARRANGEMENTS

Three Officers of Local Regiment are at Kingston

Majors Begg and Bennett and Captain Eastwood, of the 57th Regiment, are in Kingston making arrangements for the local volunteers going into camp there the first of September. The regiment will spend three or four days at Barriefield camp. A trip through the Thousand Islands will be one of the features of the outing.

TRENT CANAL STATISTICS

The Government Bluebook for 1907 shows under heading of Tolls Collected on T.V.C. during 1907, that the amount of tolls collected during the navigable season of that year was $1,427.93. Some of the items are particularly interesting as showing how business is developing. For example the amount of toll collected on apples was 10 cents, on flour 12 cents, and on cattle the altogether magnificent sum of one cent.

OTONABEE WAS VERY ROUGH

Strong Wind Blowing Down River Yesterday—Roughest of the Summer

Yesterday was the roughest day that has been on the Otonabee this summer, at least that is the opinion of many who are familiar with the river. A very strong wind was blowing down the river and it gave real trouble to the smaller boats. The river was covered with whitecaps.

Last night it was particularly rough at Yankee Bonnet.

SERVED THIS HORSE RIGHT

Became Playful on George Street and Lost its Footing

One of the horses belonging to Mr. R. Wolstenholme, the Charlotte st. wood dealer, took a tumble on George street this morning as the result of his balky tendencies.

The horse, which is said to be a rather contrary one, was drawing an empty wood waggon when it commenced to cut up on the main parade. Its colt-like antics were brought to a sudden termination by a fall to the ground.

When the fall had been secured the animal became quite docile and on being unhitched, quietly followed its leader to the stable.

OBITUARY

MRS. GEO. McBAIN.

The death occurred yesterday of Mrs. Geo. C. McBain at her late residence, lot 19, concession 13, in the township of Cavan. The deceased was 32 years of age and was the second daughter of Mr. Samuel Might, of Cavan, her maiden name being Margaretta Might. She was a member of the Methodist church and was highly esteemed by all who knew her. Her husband and one little girl, Gladys Marie, are left to mourn her loss. She is also survived by her parents, three brothers and six sisters. The brothers are Messrs. James and Charles, of Cavan and Hector of Moosejaw, Sask. The daughters are Mrs James Hutchison, of Cavan, and Misses Hattie, Lizzie, Eden, Nellie and Gladys at home.

The funeral will leave the family residence, lot 19, concession 13, on Friday afternoon, August 14th, at 2 o'clock and proceed to the Little Lake cemetery.

LATE REV. H. McDOWELL.

Rev. Henry McDowell passed away at seven o'clock on Tuesday evening in his eighty-first year. He was born in County Fermanagh, Ireland, and came to this country at the age of nine years. He entered the ministry in 1851 and was superannuated eighteen years ago. He leaves a widow and five children, Mrs. Lightfoot, Peterborough; Mrs. Whelan, Detroit; Mrs. Look, Aurora; Mr. G. K. McDowell, Spokane, and Miss Louise of Winnipeg. Interment took place yesterday in Aurora cemetery. Aurora News.

SPORTING NEWS

YANKEE ROGERS LOOKED UPON AS ONLY SERIOUS RIVAL TO GOTCH WHO ACCEPTS DEFI

World's Champion Frank Gotch has accepted the challenge which Mr W. B. Naylor sent on behalf of his clever man Yankee Rogers. Just when the bout will be pulled off one cannot say, but it will be early in September, so that the match will not interfere with the theatrical arrangements of both men. Mr. Naylor is trying hard to have the bout pulled off in Sherbrooke, at his own rink there, during the exhibition week, but has not yet heard from Gotch's manager as to date.

Mr. Chris. Graham, who looks after Gem Theatre, the local grappler's interests, is very anxious to see what could be done towards the match being pulled off in Peterborough, and if he did have the luck to get the match, it would be a great feather, not only in his own cap but in that of Peterborough's. The public here have always been good to the sporting affairs, the hockey club, the football club, and that good, honest Indian, Simpson, have all good reason to know that. Probably they would support Mr. Graham to pull off the great match. It would put Peterborough right in the eyes of the whole of sporting America, and would be a great boost for the town and its go-ahead citizens. Now is the time to get together and put the town at the head of affairs in one big international sporting affair.

CANADIANS' RECORDS AT THE OLYMPIC GAMES

London, August 12—The great Olympic games of 1908 are over and Canada must be content with two firsts, two seconds and two thirds.

Of this aggregation only one first one second and the two thirds were collected by the Canadian Athletic team under the leadership of J Howard Crocker and William Sherring.

Canada sent over a tidy little team and while there was considerable criticism over the selection the result showed that every one of the men officially sent over by the Canadian Olympic council made some sort of a respectable showing. Even the men who came over under private auspices proved themselves better than the champions of many countries.

There is this about it though, five of the men sent over by private subscription earned their expenses—that is, made a better showing than men officially selected by the Canadian Olympic committee for their particular events. Here are the men's Olympic records summarized;

ROBT. KERR, HAMILTON

Kerr gave Canada the only first in athletics, the other four falling to A. Ewing, the Montreal clay and live bird marksman.

Kerr won the 200 metre championship in 22 2-5s. Had there been a reasonable arrangement in the 100 and 200 metre semi-finals and finals he would have [illegible]. Kerr lost the 100 metres final because he had to run a 200 metre semi-final three hours before the 100 metres final. He was in superb shape, but Hamilton and the American team changed because he had to run a 200 meter semi-final that when he met Rector the American crack, and Walker, the South African who won, he hadn't the 'edge' left to win out on. Kerr can beat either man. As it was, two judges gave him second to Walker, but the referee said Rector, and that settled it. A week before Kerr trimmed Walker soundly in the 100 yard championship.

In the 200 meters Kerr ran a grand race. He won his lead in the four hundred and held Clough and Cartwell, the Yankee cracks, safe in the 100 meters, though they came strong on end. Don't forget that Kerr won the 100 and 200 yard British championships.

D. J. MACDONALD, NEW GLASGOW.

Macdonald, the Bluenose, was one of the chaps Ontario men "couldn't see" on the team, but he ripped off 48 feet 5 1-2 in the running hop, step and jump, and won second to Ahern, the United Kingdom man. Macdonald was sent as a high jumper, but he met Con Leahy and the French wonder in his section and was beaten. He jumped 5.9 3-4 but they did 6 feet 2.

ED ARCHIBALD, TORONTO

The other third place winner was Ed. Archibald in the pole vault. He should have been first, but the excitement of the day took his nerve and he was beaten at 11 feet 9. The winners, Cook and Gilbert of the American team, only did 12 feet 2, and I saw Archibald do 12 feet 4, at the Stadium. He won the British championship with 12 feet, in a rainy day. All Archibald wants is confidence.

A. COTE, MONTREAL.

Cote is the only Federationist to show. He won third in the bantam weight wrestling and earned his expenses. Cote mortgaged his farm to come over. He should have been second. He beat Bert Davis, an Englishman, on points, but drew Mehnert the American, who won the championship in round two, and an unfair fall was awarded against him. Cote was thrown across the edge of the mat—a regular mattress by the way—and bridged, but his head was on the bare floor, and his feet on the mat, and although he had a perfect bridge, his shoulders touched the thick mat, and he was declared thrown. From then on he gave Mehnert an awful tussel, but lost. He gave him a stouter argument than the finalist did. In the wrestle for third place, Cote threw Thompkins in three and eight minutes.

JACK TAIT, TORONTO

Jack Tait, of whom so much was expected, did not win, but he did well. In the 1500 meters he won his heat in 4.12 and was fourth in the final, being beaten by Sheppard of the American team, and Wilson and Hallowes, the English cracks. Tait had a rough passage in the race, and was doing well until Sheppard cut him off and elbowed him. At that Tait beat J. P. Sullivan, the great New Yorker, and Fairbairn-Crawford, Loney, the Britishers, who survived the heats. He also ran in the five-mile, but gave up and in the Marathon was fifteenth at the 14-mile post when his legs gave out. He was in no shape for a road grind.

B. GALBRAITH, TORONTO

Galbraith was second in his heat of the five miles, and qualified for the finals, but as this final and the 3200 meter steeplechase final came on the same day, Mr Crocker sent him into the steeplechase believing he had a better chance there after winning his heat in good time. He ran well for half-way, and then blew up and faded. A physical disturbance was responsible for his sudden loss of speed.

Canadians two

JAS. FITZGERALD, CALGARY

Fitzgerald, a tiny Little Irishman was entered in about everything on the card, and started, too. He was always in the limelight but in the five mile final—the only one he contested—he was seventh just behind Meadows. Fitz is a game little bantam and a general favorite.

DAVE BELLAND, QUEBEC

Belland, the Quebec Touane, had a hard row to hoe in the sprints, but he ran second to Clough in his 100-metre heat and lost to May of Chicago by a narrow margin in the 200 metre heat.

PETERBORO WON AT BOWMANVILLE

Visitors Put up Good Game and Won by Eight Shots.

Speaking of the visit of the Peterborough bowlers to Bowmanville the Statesman, of that place, says;—

Another keen contest was witnessed on the local lawn bowling green Monday afternoon, when two rinks from Peterborough played with two home rinks. A large number saw the game. Peterborough men were certainly bowlers and soon got the run of the green and began scoring lively early in the play. Players and scores;—

RAW DEAL WAS HANDED THEM

Local Ball Players Stung at Bowmanville—Legal Proceedings Taken

A team of Peterborough ball players went to Bowmanville on Monday and got a raw deal. They were guaranteed $25 for the trip but when it came to settling up all the money the generous manager of the Bowmanville team would hand over was $3.00. He went back on his bargain but the Peterborough players have witnesses to prove that the $25 was guaranteed and have taken legal proceedings to enforce their claim.

Bowmanville sports must be real live ones to offer a team $3.00 to come from Peterborough.

TENNIS

The tournament games for this week are;

Thursday, Mr Sheen and Miss Dawson vs. Cyril Devey, and Miss Drury.

Friday, Mrs. Devey, vs Mrs. Ferber and Miss H Whitcroft, and Dr Frederick vs. Mrs. Hatfield and Mr Bell.

Saturday, Mr. Sheen vs Mr Cluxton, Mrs. Davey and Mr. Price, vs. Miss Moore and Mr. Conroy.

All the games in first round of the mixed doubles must be played this week or forfeited.

TRENTON WON FROM LOCALS

The local lacrosse team suffered defeat at the hands of the Trenton twelve yesterday by a score of 7—3. The match was in the championship series of the Trent Valley Lacrosse League.

A W. Fraser, and Dr. Rudolph Chevrier are the Liberal candidates in Ottawa for the Commons.

SIMPSON GOING TO HAMILTON

Will Run Exhibition Race at Benefit Meet for Bobby Kerr

Fred Simpson will run an exhibition race at the benefit meet for Bobby Kerr to be held at Hamilton next week. He will be accompanied to the Ambitious City by his trainer, Dick Baker, and will be a big drawing card at the gathering. It is not known who his opponents will be, but it is not likely that he will meet Longboat at the present time, but it is probable that they will come together this fall.

The Story of an Obedient Boy.

"Mamma, you told me that when one of the boys wanted to pick a fight with me I must turn around and hurry away."

"Yes, dear."

"Well, Willie Jones tried to pick a fight, and when I turned around he kicked me. Then I hurried away."

"That was right, dear."

"Yes, mamma. I hurried around the little circle in which is the fountain, an' Willie Jones hurried after me. But, you see, I can hurry twice as fast as him, an' pretty soon I catched up to Willie an' grabbed him by the hair an' slapped him good an' plenty. Wasn't that right, mamma—'cause I did just what you told me to do?"

Strange Actions of a Steam Car.

Our little four-year-old has always lived in an inland village and therefore is not much acquainted with nautical affairs, though deeply interested in railroad trains and other forms of terrestrial locomotion. Recently he visited in a neighboring town which is situated on a river. Standing on the shore, he saw a little ferryboat approaching and became much excited. Seizing his mother's skirts, he exclaimed: "Oh, look, mamma! Here comes a choo-choo car in swimming!"—Woman's Home Companion.

The Tender Thought.

Harry is six years old. "Pa," he asked one day, "if I get married will I have a wife like ma?"

"Very likely," replied the father.

"And if I don't get married will I have to be an old bachelor like Uncle Tom?"

"Very likely."

"Well, pa," he said after a moment of deep thought, "it's a mighty tough world for us men, ain't it?"—Success Magazine.

A Resentment.

"I's tired o' hearin' 'bout drawin' de color line," answered Erastus Pinkley. "I wanted to give notice dat I ain' gwineter stand foh no Jim Crow soda fountains."—Washington Star.

Real Circus.

"Mister, did you ever see a circus train?" drawled the station master at Bald Eagle Junction.

"I should say so," laughed the soap salesman. "I came down here on a train with fourteen honeymoon couples. Talk about a circus train! Well, you should have seen those couples when we entered a tunnel."—Chicago News.

Britisher Raps Germans.

"In international competition Germany has always been held up to us as a great bogey," Sir Martin Conway, the famous explorer, declared in a speech at Liverpool recently.

"Germany is far too scientific and doctrinaire to be a dangerous competitor to a practical people like the British.

"The chief danger of Germany is that we should try to adopt her theories and apply them to different human material. If, in imitation of Germany, we try to make the mass of our people ill-educated men of science, we shall produce a nation of inefficients. Better a nation of workmen with a few Kelvins in the minority than a nation such as Germany is scientifically producing."

The history of all great human accomplishments, Sir Martin declared, was the history of the "crowd spirit." That spirit was the greatest educational factor and was well developed in our unrivaled public schools and universities. It appeared not to exist in the council school. A royal commission to discover how to introduce it there, and to investigate its causes elsewhere, would be a valuable step towards real education.

Ivory.

To the man in the street ivory means elephant tusks. He forgets or is ignorant of the supply of hippopotamus teeth, walrus tusks, narwhal horns, whales' teeth and boars' tusks. The best ivory comes from Africa. Mammoth tusks are found in extraordinary abundance in Siberia principally, but they are not very highly esteemed, though they run to an enormous size and indeed hold the record, being sometimes twelve feet long and weighing 200 pounds. The natives of Africa regard ivory as the standard of wealth and store it up in their villages for hundreds of years, constantly adding to their stock, and thus the supply continues and will continue for many, many years.

Somewhat Rejuvenated.

Jane Addams, the talented head of the Hull House, said bitterly, apropos of woman suffrage, at a recent dinner in Chicago:

"There are women who will laugh at us for our interest in the ballot and who will then give absorbed hours in the privacy of their rooms to great electrical massage machines, face steaming engines, curious masks and huge flesh reducing mechanisms.

"An elderly woman of this type after an afternoon's struggle with all sorts of beautifying devices dyed her hair a bright gold.

"'Do you think it makes me look younger?' she asked me.

"'Yes,' said I. 'About three weeks.'"

HAD DEEP GASH CUT IN FOOT

Percy Neil Victim of Painful Accident at Idyl Wyld.

Percy Neil, son of Mr. Harry Neil, who is camping at Idyl Wyld, was the victim of a painful accident the other day. While walking through the park he had the misfortune to step on broken glass, inflicting a deep gash in his foot. A professional nurse stopping at the hotel dressed the injury, and although the young fellow's pleasures have been somewhat marred, he is able to remain at the resort and complete his vacation.

THE RACEWAY

At the request of this journal's friends across the river, the Review's composer has written the following lines which may be sung to air of "The Land of the Buffalo";

ODE TO THE RACEWAY.

In Ashburnham there is a raceway,
Where the odors vile hold away;
And the stench that comes from the still stream
Tells of the rank decay.
There they haven't discovered a flow
Since the days of long ago,
And no tongue can tell of the terrible smell
That awakes when the night winds blow.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

ONTARIO RIFLE ASSOCIATION

Annual Shoot Will be Held at Toronto August 25th to 28th Inclusive.

To the Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir,—There are a great number of riflemen, some of whom belong to the local militia, and some to rifle clubs in your vicinity, who cannot be reached through the Toronto press and who are deeply interested in rifle shooting. I am anxious to acquaint these parties, through the medium of your paper, of particulars of the annual matches of the Ontario Rifle Association, whose four days meeting will be held at the Long Branch Rifle Ranges on 25th to 28th August next. As you will see by the memo. of facts enclosed, a splendid prize list is furnished through government grants and private subscriptions, and I have no doubt a number of men in your locality would be glad to take part in the meeting if it were brought to their attention.

Capt. Miller encloses the following information about the annual matches of the association;

Date—August 25th to 28th inclusive.

Place—Long Branch Rifle Ranges, 8 miles from Toronto, reached by Mimico Electric road from Toronto, and on main line Grand Trunk, Toronto to Hamilton. Special train from Toronto morning and evening and several regular trains daily.

Prizes—$5,500 in cash and valuable trophies and cups.

Matches—19 matches, open to School Cadets, members of militia, rifle clubs and citizens. Special matches for Cadets and green shots and special prizes for green shots in every match. Entries already received from Halifax to Vancouver. Usual attendance about 350.

Railway—Single fares on application to local agent from August 21st returning to September 1st.

Entries—Should be made to Secretary, Capt. A. A. Miller, 452 Bay st., Toronto, by the 18th inst., after this date 10 per cent. extra charged. Membership and entries to all the matches about $10. Programmes mailed upon application.

DETERIORATED MILK SENT TO A CHEESE FACTORY

Asphodel Woman Fined $5 and Costs by Magistrate Edmison --Pleaded Guilty.

A case of a somewhat unusual character came before County Police Magistrate Edmison on Tuesday, when Mrs. Emily Elmhirst, of Asphodel, pleaded guilty to having sent deteriorated milk to the Oromocto cheese factory. The information was laid by F. W. Brenton, of Belleville, who did so in the interests of the Dairymen's Association.

A fine of $5 and costs was imposed.

BROUGHT BEER ON TO RESERVE

And Supplied it to Another Indian ---Two Charges Against Richard Mellis of Hiawatha.

Two charges which will be heard before County Magistrate Edmison, have been laid against W. Mellis, of Hiawatha, by D. Crowe, the constable of that reserve.

Mellis is said to have brought liquor to the reserve, which is one offence he is accused of, and he is also charged with supplying liquor to Richard Orde, an Indian. It is stated that beer is the alcoholic beverage that Mellis brought to Hiawatha and supplied Orde with.

THE GREY NUNS AND ZAM-BUK

Leading Institutions Use This Balm.

Most of the leading institutions throughout Canada have adopted Zam-Buk as a standard preparation without equal for skin diseases and injuries, burns, blood poison, etc.

From the St. Patrick's Asylum, Ottawa, comes the following appreciation of its merits:

"Gentlemen.—In the orphanage department of the Asylum, we have found Zam-Buk very good for healing cuts, sores, and skin injuries generally, and shall continue to use it for such.

Yours sincerely,

(Signed) GREY NUNS."

When a mother rubs on to the delicate skin of children a salve to heal some cut, bruise, burn, eruption or skin disease, she needs to be as careful as if she were giving the child an internal remedy. Zam-Buk balm is safe. Zam-Buk is pure—free from all animal fat and all mineral matter, and may be applied even to the skin of young babies.

Zam-Buk heals sores, cures eczema, skin eruptions, ulcers, ringworm, itch, barbers' rash, blood poisoning, bad leg, salt rheum, abrasions, abscesses, cuts, burns, scalds, and all skin injuries and diseases. Of all stores and druggists at 50 cents, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. 3 boxes for $1.25.

LICENSE LAW ENFORCEMENT

For some years past reports have been circulating pretty freely of lax enforcement of the license laws in certain parts of Ontario, and a good deal of indignation has been aroused by what seemed almost open defiance of the provisions of the law. In Kingston, affairs reached such a pass that one of our Methodist ministers, Rev. T. K. Burke, acquired a good deal of unsought and undesired notoriety by a very plain and straightforward reference to the matter. He laid the blame for the state of affairs upon the local officers, and is now, we understand, being sued for libel on account of his statements. We do not know the technical grounds of the libel suit, but the matter became so public that the Government sent its special officer to Kingston to investigate. The investigation resulted last week in the prosecution and conviction of nineteen hotelmen and two steamboat companies for breaches of the license law. Only one of the hotel men denied the charge, the rest all pleading guilty. The fines collected amounted to the sum of $1,575.

It looks from the wholesale character of these convictions as though Kingston had been running pretty wide open. The impression seems to prevail in certain quarters that the lax law enforcement is more general than is usually supposed. If this be the case the Government and the public should be promptly placed in possession of the facts. We would judge from the Kingston episode that the Government means to administer the law promptly and effectively; and we would conclude also that the hotel men of Ontario, if they are fairly represented by their confreres in Kingston, have not yet reached the stage where the law is looked upon as something that ought to be obeyed. The traffic is not yet reformed, and sadly needs watching. When nineteen out of twenty-eight or thirty hotels in one city are convicted at one time of breaches of the law, it makes the ordinary man wonder whether even the other one-third are law-abiding. And yet the votes of these nineteen convicted law-breakers are equal in a local option contest, to the votes of twenty-eight Methodists who have never even been accused of breaking the laws of the land.—Christian Guardian.

NEW DESIGNS FOR CANADIAN COINS

Finance Department Said to be Considering the Matter---Agitation for Cleaner Bills.

Ottawa, Aug. 12.—The officials of the finance department, when asked if there was any truth in the report that the department has under consideration new designs for Canadian coins, declined to say anything on the subject.

It is evident from their reticence that the matter is under consideration, but that they did not consider the time has yet arrived to make any announcement.

They are equally reticent in reference to plans for clearing out defaced money, but frankly declared that no steps are being taken in the direction of keeping the note issue cleaner, at least in so far as Dominion notes are concerned. The officials pointed out that Dominion notes are withdrawn from circulation and replaced much more frequently than the notes issued by the banks. They would not say that there is the intention to make the banks keep their issue cleaner.

It is quite possible, however, that a provision requiring more frequent note issues by the banks will be one of the features of the amendment to the Banking Act, which will be proposed by the Minister of Finance at the next session of parliament.

ON THE TRAIL OF MR. WALKER

Lindsay Sleuths Are After Man Who Made Sensational Escape.

It is rumored that the authorities are on the trail of Mr G. Walker, the notorious gaol breaker, who created such a sensation by making good his escape while being tried for theft on the evening of August 8th.

It is said he still remains in town, and is being looked after by a friend in the north ward. It is supposed that he left town Saturday night by way of the Fenelon track and returned to the outskirts of the town Sunday night under cover of darkness where he is hiding. Chief Vincent was interviewed this morning by a Free Press reporter but he refused to impart any information regarding the matter.—Lindsay Free Press.

Closing With Slang.

A three-year-old child, imbued with the modern spirit of bustle, after playing the greater part of the day was very tired when put to bed. Having a considerate mother, she was allowed to say her prayers in her crib instead of kneeling beside it, as was her usual custom. Folding her tired little hands, she commenced "Our Father," hesitating occasionally, only to be quickly prompted by her parent. Nearing the end her voice grew weaker. Shifting her curly head restlessly and closing her eyes, she finished her petitions with, "God bless papa, mamma," when with a sudden burst of energy she added, "and the whole shooting match." —New York Press.

ADVICE TO YOUNG COUPLES

INSURE NOW AGAINST FIRE
Those starting housekeeping for the first time—on no matter how small a scale—should take the precaution of insuring their household furniture and other effects against fire. Whether in house or flat, there is always danger of accidental fires. Better provide against the consequent loss by having your property well insured. We'll give you the best policy.

PICKPOCKETS ARE STILL CONFINED IN LOCAL GAOL

Hamilton. Gatney and Adams, who were sentenced to the Central Prison by His Honour Judge Weller, are still in the local gaol. They were given their sentences two weeks ago Saturday, and it seems strange that they have not been removed by the provincial authorities. Judge Weller remarked at the time he sentenced the three men that the common gaol was no place for that class of prisoners, but apparently this opinion does not prevail at Toronto by the Central Prison officials, but they are in no hurry.

Gaoler Nesbitt would like to see the three pickpockets removed as the gaol is not a fit place for criminals of that type.

ALMONTE MANUFACTURER DROWNED WHILE SAILING

Death of John M. Rosamond Who Was Well Known in Peterborough.

Almonte, Aug. 12.—Mr. John M. Rosamond, manager of the Almonte Knitting Company of this town and the only surviving son of Mr. Bennett Rosamond, ex-M.P., was drowned last evening about six o'clock, in the Mississippi river about two miles above the town.

All that is known at present is that the victim of the accident left here about 4.30 yesterday afternoon in his canoe with full sail set and started up towards Appleton. The last seen of Mr. Rosamond was about five o'clock, when Mr. Matthew Aitkenhead saw him in the canoe about a quarter of a mile above his property.

Mr. Joseph Burnett discovered the craft some time afterwards in an upright position with the sail set floating about the mouth of a small creek, not far from where the deceased was last seen.

His hat and a paddle was found shortly afterwards and immediately motor launches and boats from town started up the river with grappling irons, and although dragging operations were continued all night and all this morning the body has not been found as yet.

The late Mr. Rosamond was a man of quiet disposition, but one who has always proved himself a worthy and useful resident of town, having on more than one occasion served on the council board.

He was an ardent canoeist and spent much of his time on the water.

He leaves one son, George Stuart Rosamond, at present residing in Vancouver. His wife predeceased him about two years ago.

DAN CUPID MUST HAVE CLEAR CARD

Chicago, Aug. 6.—"Darling, I am in good standing in my union. Will you be my wife?"

This will be the stereotyped form of proposal hereafter, if the plans to-day by officers of the women's trade union league are adopted at its next conference to be held simultaneously in Chicago, from thence back to the city via New York and Boston next month.

The scheme to be considered at conference is to send out cards to every member of the league setting forth a few rules for the guidance of those matrimonially inclined.

The league wants its members to agree not to marry a man unless he is a member of a union and holds a fully paid-up card.

Steamer leaves Wolfe St. wharf at 8:00 a.m. sharp. Returning at 7.30 p.m. Dinner at Mt. Julian and on the boat. Return tickets 50c, Children half price.

GREATLY PLEASED WITH EXCURSION

Bowmanville and Newcastle Papers Speak Highly of Trip to Peterborough.

Bowmanville News says:—So very pleasurable and satisfactory in every sense was the excursion to Peterborough on Civic Holiday that the bowlers talk of making it an annual event. Citizens returned delighted. The Newcastle Independent says of the excursion:—The excursion gotten—up by the Bowmanville bowlers for Monday, the Civic Holiday, for the lake front from Whitby to Newcastle, over the G.T.R. to Lakefield and Peterborough and thence to Burleigh Falls, turned out under favorable weather conditions to be a highly enjoyable affair for its half thousand patrons and perhaps the most so of anything of its kind held this season, for it is difficult to conceive how any similar event could be more highly favored.

LAWS ARE BEING WELL OBSERVED

The fishery and game laws are apparently being well kept. Fishery Inspector Dave Johnston has been very vigilant of late on the outlook for offenders and keeps his district well patrolled.

So far the law is well observed. A close watch will be kept however.

A SIX POUND BASS CAUGHT AT STONY LAKE

Miss Helen Routley Lands the Largest Black Bass at the Lakes This Season.

The largest black bass that has been caught at Stony Lake this season is probably the one that was landed by Miss Helen Routley on Monday morning last. Miss Routley was out trolling near their cottage, "Rockport," when she landed the fish. It weighed six pounds and was as fine a black bass as has been caught for some time. Miss Routley intends entering it in the Toronto Star competition.

RETURN OF PROSPERITY

A Business System Which Feels the Pulse of Trade.

Stronger indications of the revival in business are coming in from every source. The big manufacturing houses have the best barometers. Their reports are true of trade conditions where facts and figures are compiled carefully and systematically. The President of the Slater Shoe Company gets monthly reports from all the largest Slater Shoe Stores in Canada. Not only in Montreal and Toronto do the reports for April and May show a steady gain as compared with the sales of a year ago, but even in Winnipeg the Slater Shoe Store there shows a satisfactory increase in sales.

Mr. Slater has the reports from all the big stores laid on his desk, and they are carefully analyzed once each month.

In Montreal there are four Exclusive Slater shoe stores. In Toronto most substantial gains have been made in the past two years, whilst in Ottawa, Hamilton, London, Quebec, St. John, and Halifax, the steady increase and the gains made, even when compared with the sales of the years of plenty, indicate a healthy revival and an early return of prosperity.

Altogether there are nearly 400 Slater shoe stores and agencies in the Dominion alone, and no great business in Canada is in a better position to prove the condition of business.

WHEAT CUTTING HAS STARTED AT SOME PLACES IN WEST

Winnipeg Looks Forward to Handling Big Grain Crop—Some Live News From the Canadian West.

Special to the Review.

Winnipeg, Man. August 13. — The fine weather with which the western crops have been favored almost uninterruptedly since the seed was put in the ground, continues, and Winnipeg looks forward with hope to the handling of the greatest movement of grain which the west has ever seen. The past week has seen the beginning of cutting in Manitoba as well as at several points in Alberta and Saskatchewan. Only in a few instances, however, has wheat cutting started, and it is generally barley which is being harvested.

LORD ROBERTS' VISIT.

After the great expectations which they had entertained the people of Winnipeg were greatly disappointed at the announcement that Earl Roberts would be unable to visit the city. Great preparations had been made for his reception, and arrangements on an elaborate scale perfected for his entertainment. The people were the more disappointed because they realized that they had missed the last opportunity the most of them would ever have of seeing Britain's famous general.

GRAIN MEN LEAVE.

Desirous of seeing for themselves the great crop which is soon to be garnered in, a party of Winnipeg grain men leave this week for a ten day trip through the west by special train. They will visit every district from Manitoba to the Rockies, and when they return will be able to give an estimate of what the total yield will amount to. Your correspondent also leaves this week for a fourteen day trip through the west, visiting Calgary, Edmonton, Regina and all the important centres.

A BIG CONVENTION.

About the end of August Winnipeg will have as her guests the members of one of the largest and most important organizations in America, namely, the American Public Health Association, which will hold its annual meeting probably in the Royal Alexandra Hotel. This body constitutes all the public health officers on the north half of the continent, and is probably one of the most influential medical organizations in the world. The sessions will last for several days, during which time the visitors will be fittingly entertained by the city.

MECHANICS' STRIKE.

Winnipeg is at present the storm centre of one of the biggest industrial disputes in the history of Canada, namely, the C.P.R. mechanics strike. About 1,500 local men are out, and so far the strike has progressed quietly without untoward incident. Naturally business men and everyone else who has the best interests of the country at heart regret a big industrial dispute at this season of the year, but it is hoped that the points at issue will be settled before the crop begins to move, thus preventing a tie-up, which would work serious injury to Winnipeg and all western Canada.

FERNIE DISASTER.

The terrible disaster in the Crows Nest Pass drew forth a great deal of sympathy from Winnipegers, and in addition to a grant of $5,000 which the council immediately made to relieve the sufferers a fund was raised by private subscription, and a handsome amount forwarded to the relief committee at Fernie to be used at their discretion.

BITTER CAMPAIGN IS OVER VOTING IN SASKATCHEWAN

After Strenuous Fight in Which Many Ministerial Reputations Were Sadly Shattered, Haultain is Confident of Making Gains in the Northern Districts.

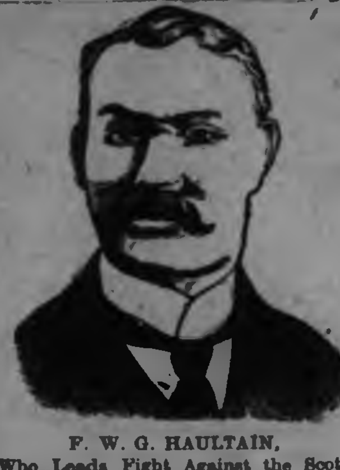
Regina, Sask., Aug. 14.—The day of election finds each party claiming that the end of the polling will see it victorious, and at headquarters here reports are entirely conflicting regarding the outcome.

The redistribution, the fact that there are forty-one seats instead of twenty-five, and the large number of voters added to the lists since the first provincial elections three years ago, all tend to obscure the election.

Athabasca constituency will return its verdict later, as this far north country is far too scattered to have been reached in the time, but of the forty seats remaining it is likely enough that eight or ten will not be able to furnish anything like complete returns until Saturday, and it is altogether possible that even the Government here will not know its fate to-night.

Some of the polls are far distant and returns must be made by runner or by water, while in at least half a dozen constituencies, reports are dependent on a single wire, so that a slight accident may delay returns. Earliest returns to come in will be from the four cities, with their counties and points along the main line of the C. P. R. and the Soo line, with other constituencies along the C.N.R. main line and various branches following at considerable intervals.

It is likely enough that the experience of the last election will be repeated, and that the early returns will deal chiefly with the success of the provincial rights party, as Haultain supporters are confident of holding their seats in the older settled districts and of gaining their fair share of new constituencies lying contiguous.



F. W. G. HAULTAIN,
Who Leads Fight Against the Scott Government.

As the returns from the north come in it will be seen how far the contention of the Government party of making a clean sweep there is upheld.

Regarding the short and brief campaign, perhaps for strenuous effort, enthusiasm and bitter vituperation, it is unsurpassed in the history of Western Canada. After the fray is over the arena may be found strewn with some tattered reputations, for a great crop of slanders, counter slanders, libel suits and innuendoes have developed and the courts must be busy some weeks settling these affairs.

Both parties have worked hard up to the drop of the hat and though there has been no time for much personal canvassing, the respective leaders have fairly covered the ground and have performed prodigies of personal effort in the attempt to reach the electorate.

JAILBIRDS HEAD NORTH

Rose, Churchill and Snow Are Said to be in Vicinity of Kinmount—Walker Still Free.

Lindsay, Aug. 14.—Chief of Police Vincent has received a wire from Inspector Duncan of Toronto, asking him to instruct the constables in the district to keep a sharp lookout for Rose, Churchill and Snow, three of the seven prisoners who escaped from Toronto jail July 17, and who are reported to have been seen in Kinmount on Tuesday night.

The trio evidently intended to make their way on foot to Minden, 12 miles away. Snow is stated to have been arrayed in feminine apparel.

No trace of George Walker, who escaped from the courtroom here by a diving leap from the window, has been found as yet.

Newspapermen at Brockville.

Brockville, Aug. 14.—On Tuesday and Wednesday of next week the daily newspaper section of the Canadian Press Association will hold a convention at Brockville, at which it is expected a representative of every daily newspaper in Ontario and many from Quebec and the northwest will be present. The program contains many interesting and important subjects for discussion.

On Tuesday afternoon the visitors will be entertained to a trip to Gananoque and return, and luncheon on the yacht Magedonna, by Mr. MacKenzie, the manager of the Dr. Williams' Medical Co.

Modus Vivendi Fixed.

London, Aug. 14.—(C. A. P.)—The Foreign Office in announcing last night the conclusion of a modus vivendi regarding the Newfoundland fisheries, says: "His Majesty's Government and the Government of the United States united concerning the notes recording this proposal and its acceptance as constituting in itself a satisfactory agreement for the season of 1908, without the necessity of a more formal agreement."

Charge is Grand Larceny.

Welland, Aug. 14.—J. R. Mack has been arrested in New York, and will be brought back to Tonawanda, N.Y., charged with grand larceny. It is also claimed he passed a forged draft at Clifton Hotel, Niagara Falls.

Broke Sunday Laws.

Hamilton, Aug. 14.—The following were fined $20 each by the magistrate for violating the Lord's Day Act by playing cards: Morris and Jacob Cohen, Barnet Labowitz and H. Miller.

HARVESTERS ROB HOTEL

Chalk River Hosterly is Looted by Rowdy Farm Hands—Two Trains Delayed.

North Bay, Aug. 14.—Two excursion trains of harvesters from the Maritime Provinces were stalled in Chalk River for an hour yesterday in consequence of a slight freight wreck ahead.

During their stay in Chalk River, the hotel was looted, the proprietor carried outside and over $1,000 worth of liquors and cigars carried off on the excursion train. Even the cellar was ransacked, and a carload of beer in kegs stolen.

On the trains riotous scenes ensued. Water tanks were emptied and filled with beer. Fighting became general and one man had his nose split, and another received injuries.

One policeman is with each train, but no attention is paid to him.

At Mackie's Station the traveling hoodlums amused themselves by wrecking the furniture in the station agent's house, and by otherwise misbehaving.

At North Bay the police force and citizens were ready for the lawless horde which every year sweeps across the continent, leaving a trail of depredations, and the first sign of disorder resulted in arrests, which put a damper on the hooliganism.

Rowdies Are Arrested.

Hamilton, Aug. 14.—Detectives Greer and Miller created somewhat of a sensation at Burlington yesterday by arresting three well-known young men on the charge of vagrancy. They are: Colin Martin, F. de Long and J. Klainka. Many depredations were committed around the village and the people applied to the Attorney-General's Department.

University Appointments.

Toronto, Aug. 14.—The board of governors of Toronto University announces the appointment of W. F. Green, B.A., as demonstrator in mineralogy; T. H. Hogg, demonstrator in applied mechanics; and A. F. B. Clark, instructor in French.

Miss J. Forrest has been appointed an assistant in the office of President Falconer.

Barn Is Total Loss.

Hamilton, Aug. 14.—The bran of James Muir, Binbrook, was struck by lightning and destroyed, with the season's crop. The building had been erected only a short time in the place of one that had been struck by lightning and burned. The insurance lapsed on July 25. In trying to fight the flames, Mrs. Muir almost lost her life.

McGUIGAN GETS CONTRACT WILL BUILD POWER LINE

With a Tender of $1,270,000 Which is Lowest Bid by Half a Million Dollars He Will Construct Government Transmission Lines for Hydro-Electric Commission—All Canadian Job.

Toronto, Aug. 14.—At 6 o'clock last evening F. H. McGuigan signed an agreement with the Hydro-Electric Power Commission for the construction of transmission lines from Niagara to St. Thomas in the west and Toronto in the east, 293 miles in all, for $1,270,000.

The agreement was signed by the Hydro-Power Commission to accept the tender of the F. H. McGuigan Construction Co. The tender was actually the lowest presented, the difference between the figures and those of the highest sent in being $500,000. The tender was one of 27, there being one other bulk tender; 15 for the towers; five for cables, and five for the transmission line.

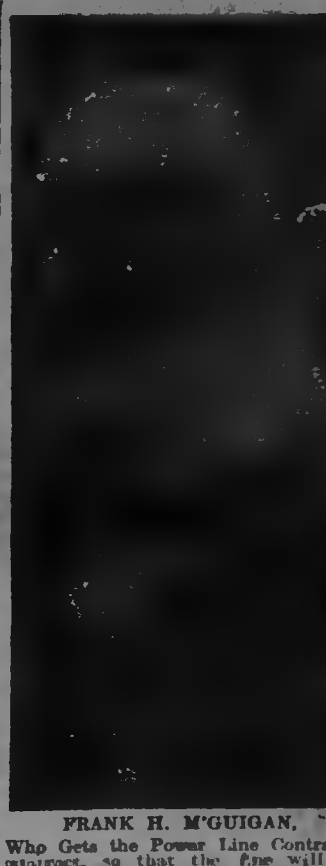
The tender is remarkable as being wholly Canadian, which, in the face of so many English and American tenders, is regarded as very creditable to native enterprise. The steel towers, numbering 3,176, will be supplied by the Canadian Bridge Co., Walkerville, and the Ontario Iron & Steel Co., Welland. They will consume 6,554 tons of steel. The cables will be of aluminum wire, weighing 1,014,209 pounds. This will be supplied by the Northern Aluminum Co. of America, at Shawinigan Falls.

For double telephone lines over the right of way 140,000 pounds of wire will be required, and the guard lines and lightning protection will also take a large quantity of metal.

Separate tenders were sent in for the several portions of the work, but Mr. McGuigan's tender was lower than the lowest combination of any of these. His tender was therefore accepted on its merits.

A marked check for $35,000 accompanied the tender, and a bond for the execution of the work, amounting to $175,000, will be provided.

The work is to be completed within 15 months of the signing of the contract, so that the line will be ready to deliver power in December of next year.



FRANK H. M'GUIGAN,
Who Gets the Power Line Contract.

A WELL KNOWN SOLDIER DEAD

Lieut-Col. Henderson's End Hastened by Eating Bad Canned Peas.

Toronto, Aug. 14.—As a result of uraemic poisoning aggravated by the ill effect of bad canned peas eaten at the Quebec celebration, Lieut.-Col. Wilbur Henderson died yesterday. He had been ill ever since his return from the Tercentenary.

Lieut.-Col Henderson was a native of Whitby, where his brother commands the 34th Ontario Regiment. Col. Henderson joined the 46th in 1891 at its formation; became regimental major Dec. 15, 1900, and brevet lieutenant-colonel Jan. 14, 1905. He was attached to a mounted infantry corps in the South African campaign. He had the officers' long service decoration and took a prominent part in regimental musketry instruction.

Col. Henderson had a position in the Inland Revenue Department. He was 55 years of age and leaves a widow, a son and a daughter.

The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon.

Murder Ends Dispute.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 14.—Joseph Anderson, an Icelander, shot and killed J. R. Leighton, and wounded J. R. Brown, at Fernan, B. C., yesterday morning, following a dispute affecting ditch. Anderson was arrested.

To Go on Market.

Montreal, Aug. 14.—The management of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway announces that the townsite of Prince Rupert will be placed on the market in September.

To See Western Mines.

Ottawa, Aug. 14.—Hon. Wm. Templeman and a member of the geological survey, left to-day for British Columbia, and will together visit the mining centres of the Pacific coast province so as to ascertain the condition of this industry and to obtain the views of mining men on all questions in which they are interested.

Canadian General Organizer.

Providence, R. I., Aug. 14.—At the Canada-American Association convention Dr. A. E. Brien, Manchester, N. H., was elected president and Joseph Francoeur, Levis, Province of Quebec, general organizer.

The next biennial convention will be held in Montreal in 1910.

Ex-Mayor Ekers Named.

Montreal, Aug. 14.—Ex-Mayor Ekers was nominated by the Conservative convention in St. Lawrence division last evening. R. Stanley Bagg was another nominee and was defeated by the ex-mayor by four votes, after which the nomination was made unanimous.

Two Years For Small Theft.

Quebec, Aug. 14.—Two years in the penitentiary was the sentence imposed upon a young man named Denechaud at the Police Court yesterday morning for stealing $14 from the residence of Mr. Bouchard on Saturday last.

In Ottawa Next.

St. Thomas, Aug. 14.—At yesterday's session of the I. O. O. F. Ontario Grand Lodge the officers were all advanced a step.

Ottawa was chosen for the next convention.

ENGINES ARE TAMPERED WITH

Liquor Sellers Blamed for Outrages in Sussex, N.B.

Sussex, N. B., Aug. 14.—When a serious fire broke out in the south end of the town yesterday morning, firemen who started out in response found that the engines and other apparatus had been tampered with.

Nuts were off the wheels and pipes disconnected.

This is the second time this week the firemen have found the engines in this condition.

The authorities have a good idea who the guilty parties are. The magistrate has fined Scott Act violators very heavily during the last few weeks, and it is believed this is the way some of the sympathizers of the liquor interests are getting even.

Hit By Tree Branch.

St. Catharines, Aug. 14.—H. O. Miller, Winona, attended the Lincoln Farm Institute picnic at the experimental farm and while tying his horse in a grove at Victoria Hall lightning struck a tree, knocked a big branch from the top, which, in falling, struck Miller on the head. He is in a serious condition.

Secretary For New Commission.

Ottawa, Aug. 14.—It is understood that William Foran, now secretary of the civil service board of examiners, and chief clerk in the Secretary of State's Department, will be appointed secretary of the new civil service commission.

Farm Hand Gets One Year.

Brockville, Aug. 14.—Dennis Plow, the farm hand from near Gananoque, who pleaded guilty to two charges of forgery, was sentenced to one year in the Central.

Killed by Train.

Delhi, Ont., Aug. 14.—Charles McNamara, aged 23, a farmer, residing near Hawtry, was struck by the M. C. R. express shortly before noon yesterday and instantly killed.

He was standing at the crossing at Lasallete and had his horse tied across the street.

Seeing the flyer coming he attempted to cross the track to look after his horse.

Killed In Los Angeles.

Lindsay, Aug. 14.—A telegram has been received here announcing a trolley accident in Los Angeles, California, in which Mr. Samuel Irvine, a former well-known and highly-respected citizen of this town, had been killed.

The late Mr. Irvine was over 80 years of age, and was widely known and respected throughout the district.

Rain Saved Oats.

Winnipeg, Aug. 14.—Rains, worth millions of dollars to western farmers, fell during the last thirty-six hours through the greater part of southern and central Saskatchewan and Manitoba, and should prove a potent factor in saving the oat crop, which has been seriously affected by continuous droughts.

Discovered Plot In Time.

Kingston, Aug. 14.—Penitentiary guards discovered in the nick of time that a number of convicts who worked in the kitchen were planning to get out of their cells, and had a couple of bars sawed through and bricks loosened ready to pull out. They also had skeleton keys.

STRIKERS ARE ARRESTED CHARGED WITH TRESPASS

Some Trouble at Montreal—Windows Broken in Trains in the West—Men Are Paid Off.

Montreal, Aug. 14.—The chief incident in yesterday's strike proceedings was the arrest of Max Giroux, machinist, and Max Bouresky, a carpenter, both being strikers and charged, the first for loitering on the premises of the company, and the second for endeavoring to intimidate strikebreakers at Place Viger Station.

Winnipeg, Aug. 14.—It is estimated that ten per cent. of the C. P. R. strikers have gone to harvest fields.

The strikers were paid off and the total bill for wages amounts to $121,000.

With regard to the trouble between the C. N. R. and its employes, it is learned that prior to the present schedule coming into effect on May 1, the men were in the habit of getting an extra hour's pay a week, as they left work at 4 o'clock Saturday, but were paid until 5 p. m.

The extra hour has been cut out by the company, and some trouble has resulted. It is not expected that any serious results will follow negotiations, although the men consider the present time a favorable one to press for a settlement.

The Moosejaw local, on Wednesday evening had a number of windows broken, and passengers stated that between Brandon and Broadview stones and other missiles were hurled through windows.

It was learned yesterday morning that a fiendish attempt was made by some persons, as yet unknown, to wreck a C. P. R. excursion train running from Winnipeg Beach on Tuesday evening with several hundred passengers on board. Suspicion, of course, is directed towards strike sympathizers, but there is absolutely no evidence to connect anybody with it.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER WILL TOUR ONTARIO

The announcement is made today that commencing about the middle of September Sir Wilfrid Laurier will address a series of meetings in Ontario covering a period of about three weeks. This is the most important news for the Liberals of this province for many a day. Nothing is said as yet as to the date of the Dominion elections, but the fact of the Premier's long tour should be an incentive to every member of the party to bestir himself at once for the welfare of the cause of good government.

Busy man as he is, constantly overwhelmed by the pressure of a thousand public duties, Sir Wilfrid has had little time since the last general elections to meet the people of this province. His record meantime shows an abiding desire to promote the cause of Liberalism in the broadest sense, and his programme of constructive legislation still places him in marked contrast with the obstructionists and negative politicians on the Opposition benches.

Sir Wilfrid, no longer a young man, comes to Ontario in splendid health, having evidently thrived on the contentions of the recent session. That he will be enthusiastically hailed everywhere as the great Liberal chieftain is beyond question. The details of his tour are being arranged by Mr. F. G. Inwood, the Liberal General Secretary, who is co-operating with the various Liberal organizations concerned. The tour will commence about the middle of September in Welland county, probably at Niagara Falls, and thereafter meetings will be held at central points in the province, probably on alternate nights. Hon. Geo. P. Graham will accompany the Premier at several of the meetings. Full details of the dates will be published in due course.—The Globe.

WAS THERE A PLOT TO KILL KING?

Arrest of Italian Anarchists is Believed to Have Frustrated Well Devised Scheme

Special to the Review.

Geneva, Switzerland, Aug. 14.—What the police assert was a well-devised plot to assassinate King Edward and Emperor Francis Joseph as the two monarchs conferred together at Ischl on Wednesday, was frustrated by the arrest of two notorious Italian anarchists at the railway station at Langen on the Swiss Tyrolese frontier.

After a rigid awaiting by the police, during which the anarchists outwitted the police in shrewdness, the anarchists were sent back to Italy.

KING EDWARD LEAVES ISCHIL

Has Satisfactory Interview With Emperor Francis Joseph.

Ischl, Austria, Aug. 14.—King Edward left yesterday for Marienbad, where he will take the waters. Emperor Francis Joseph, who displayed wonderful activity during King Edward's visit, was at the railway station to bid his royal visitor farewell.

The Emperor on Wednesday night entertained King Edward at a gala dinner, during the course of which toasts were exchanged expressive of the mutual pleasure of the visit, the King congratulating Emperor Francis Joseph on the celebration of his jubilee and both dwelling with satisfaction on the friendly relations existing between the two countries.

Actor Wounded In Play.

Renfrew, Aug. 14.—Through the mistake of an errand boy in purchasing loaded cartridges for blank ones, George Hyett, an actor in Joseph Machan's dramatic company, which is playing a week's engagement here, might have met with a serious accident at the performance on Wednesday night.

In the second act the revolver, a 38-calibre one, which had been loaded with the supposed blank cartridges, was fired off at him, the bullet striking him in the left leg near the hip.

Fortunately it proved only a flesh wound, and did not prevent his continuing the performance.

Engineer Falls Out.

Battle Creek, Mich., Aug. 14.—With Engineer Charles Strang lying injured alongside the track and the fireman busy at the back of the tender the Grand Trunk flyer eastbound, ran four miles with no guiding hand on at the throttle and with the two hundred passengers in the coaches calmly gazing out the windows, ignorant of the fact that they were riding on a runaway train.

The engineer lost his balance in leaning from the window or gangway to look for a hot box.

Treasurer Took Poison.

Fireman Rescues Woman.

Toronto, Aug. 14.—In a fire yesterday at the Thistle Restaurant, Fireman George Henderson hearing that a woman was still in the building, crawled in and after a long search in the smoke-laden building carried out Mrs. Roach, a domestic. She was unconscious and would have died in a few minutes if she had not been rescued. In the dense smoke Mrs. Roach had tried to find her way out and had fallen down a flight of stairs.

Stopped at Pistol Point.

Hamilton, Aug. 14.—Four wealthy tourists from Columbus, Ohio, who came here from Toronto Wednesday in a big touring car, ran into James Stevens' rig near Stoney Creek, smashing it up, and without stopping, headed for Niagara. Constable Springstead 'phoned to Winona and the men were held up at the point of a gun. They each paid a fine and left $200 for the owner of the rig.

STOLE PAPER WEEK IN GAOL

Hamilton Engineer Given Severe Sentence—Fine Was Refused.

Hamilton, Aug. 14.—For the theft of property valued at a cent, George Harris, an engineer employed by Bowes, Jamieson & Co., was sent to jail for a week yesterday, without the option of a fine, despite the pleadings of Chief Smith and the crown attorney, who, when they recovered from their surprise, asked for a fine. Harris' young wife and two children were in court.

Harris stole a Toronto morning paper from a doorstep and was caught by a constable. Magistrate Jelfs said it was necessary to make an example of some one to stop petty theft.

The Daily Review

FRIDAY, AUG. 14, 1908.

THE ROMAINE ST. SEWER

The sewer between the King Edward school and Aylmer street is stopped up. It is suspected that the obstruction is due to quicksand in the pipe somewhere between the junction with Aylmer street and the main outfall. This occurred before. Is this not a favorable time when there is not much water in the ground, to open the trench and sewer and make it right? This is rather a serious business, but whether the present council is responsible or not it must face the difficulty. Complaints are general.

SASKATCHEWAN

The elections to-day in Saskatchewan represent the struggle of an electorate in the grasp of Ottawa. That has accounted for the political history of the province so far and there is no possibility of change. We cannot see how there can be a change. The power, patronage pelf—everything, is still in the hands of the Government that gave the territories their charter name "Saskatchewan and Alberta, Limited." It is not possible for any Opposition to win under such circumstances.

NEXT WINTER

The problem of the unemployed has not been solved in Canada. We do not propose in the course of these few remarks to discuss the cause of it all but merely to bring early to our readers' notice the necessity of getting ready now for next winter. In Great Britain, Germany, France and the United States, schemes of employment bureaus have been carried to a high degree of development and usefulness. In Canada, Russia, Mexico, etc., the unemployed problem has not even been got into shape yet for consideration. The best features of all the plans are not combined into one but are allowed to work out in their separate ways the close connection which they may severally bear both to the subject and object in hand. Not one but many centres of information are desirable, separate yet mutually informing each other. The question of immigration into the city itself must be considered. All our sources of information point to hard times next winter and we must not be caught napping. It is both undesirable and expensive. If the summer's work is a criterion next winter will find the Children's Shelter overcharged. In Germany, 400 public bureaus found employment for 550,000 persons last winter. In France such a measure is compulsory. Evil or unfortunate times must be handled with care and consideration. Let us have some common sense displayed in the employment of the worker out of work in Canada. We are away behind in this most useful branch of public service. Our mishandling of it loads us with waifs, strays, vags and criminals. There must also be more care taken of the innocent by closer and longer confinement of the guilty. We have had enough of weak tea fads.

THE WOOLLEN INDUSTRY

A great deal has been said and written of late about the pitiable condition of the woollen industry in Canada. It is really exasperating to conceive why the Government should treat this important manufacture so lightly as almost every day brings about some additional evidence of the struggle owners of woollen mills are facing.

The product of a woollen mill is reckoned by the number of setts of cards employed of a certain standard size, the belts of which in the Canadian mills are 48 inches wide. A sett of cards of these dimensions should produce at lowest estimate value in finished cloth on a average of $20,000 per annum. Mills with combing machines of these dimensions make up goods for the wholesale dry goods and clothing trades, and the plants vary in size from two up to twenty setts.

There are small one-sett mills in many parts of the country, but these are never over 40-inches wide. These mills usually make blankets and coarse cloths for the country trade. They also make up wool rolls from which the farmers' wives spin their own yarn. Very little of the product of these small mills come on the market. Even these small mills are being reduced in the same proportion as the larger ones, is not more so.

Fifteen or twenty years ago the cloth industry in Canada was at its best. Below is a list of the mills then operating and the number of setts of cards employed, and whose existence depended on what was known as selling to the trade. A list of those operating at the present time, or partly so, is also shown.

The value say in 1890 from the forty-five mills then running, with 242 setts of cards, was $4,840,000. To-day, with the seventeen now operating, with 124 setts of cards, it is $2,480,000. It is questionable, however, if anywhere near the last named amount is now turned out, as few of the plants are working full time.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The Dominion Commissioner for payment of the T.V.C. damage claims is on his route. If this does not mean an early appeal to the people, what does it mean?

London, Aug. 8.—Ten municipal officials of Mile End parish, charged with grafting, have been convicted after a trial lasting a month. The case excited great interest, because trials on such a charge are usually rare in England—Wow! Wow!

La Patrie gives prominence to a rumor that Mr. Fielding will be a member of the Railway Commission thus relinquishing his hope of succeeding to the premiership. It thinks possibly the rumour is foundationless. It is well known that Lemieux is the hope of the Quebeckers in this particular.

There will likely be lively doings in the east riding before long. Mr. Finlay and Hon. J. R. Stratton for the Liberals and Mr. Sexsmith for the Conservatives will provide a very interesting triangular campaign with one side greater than the other two. Mr. Finlay, M.P., says that if a certain Liberal outsider opposes him in the contest he will bring Ganey into the riding. He says it as if he means it too. He considers his own record and the Laurier Government's endorsement of him good enough for anybody.

Another sample of costs and estimates is afforded in the history of the Hillsboro Bridge in Prince Edward Island. This structure was first estimated to cost about $500,000. When it was fairly undertaken by the Railway Department, the estimate had been raised to $700,000. By the time the bridge was completed the bills had run up to $1,200,000. Contractor Haney, who is not only a bridge builder, but a valuable supporter of the Liberal party, afterwards put in large claims for extras beyond what had been allowed him. Deputy Minister Butler had been Mr. Haney's engineer and Mr. Schreiber was appointed to arbitrate the claim. He found Mr. Haney entitled to $164,653.33 more than had been allowed him, and the amount was promptly paid. This brings the total cost of the bridge to $1,365,376 or about double the estimate made at the time the work was under way.

The question has been raised, and it may be again and again brought up, why a smaller amount of revenue is not raised each year when the annual receipts so greatly exceed the annual expenditures. The answer is that eleven years ago the Fielding customs tariff was enacted after a thorough inquiry into commercial and industrial conditions, that it was enacted as a revenue measure, that it greatly reduced the duties on many articles and entirely abolished them on many more, and that it is necessary to maintain the same duties from year to year in the interest of both manufacturers and importers. The Fielding tariff has proved itself a great revenue producer, and after the present temporary depression has ceased its efficiency as a fiscal device will again be demonstrated in actual practice.—Weekly Globe.

It is this mangling of the N.P. that has helped to swell the damage so materially.

From the Globe.

ONTARIO OVERBURDENED

INSANE AND CRIMINALS COST THE PROVINCE ENORMOUS SUM

Bill for Last Year Was More Than $300,000—Strict Inspection of Immigrants Needed at Ports of Entry May Protest.

Owing to the fact that Ontario is contributing annually an enormous sum of money, entirely out of proportion to the percentage of foreign-born residents, for the maintenance of criminal, insane and dependent persons of foreign birth, it is likely that the Provincial Government will protest to the Dominion Government against the latter's system of inspection at the ports of landing. Mr. Samuel A. Armstrong, Inspector of Asylums, Prisons, and Public Charities, following his investigation into the matter, states that many cases of foreign-born of the most defective type have been allowed to enter the Dominion who have been in asylums in their own country or belonged to families in which there were one or more insane members, and of course they soon found their way into the hospitals or asylums here.

The exact figures for the year 1907, which have just been issued, show that there were 1,517 patients in hospitals for the insane, who cost the province for their keep $227,560; 4,313 prisoners in the jails cost $61,339.23; and 280 prisoners in the Central Prison cost $25,425.80. The total cost of maintenance of the mentally afflicted and the criminal classes was thus $314,315.03, more than two-thirds of which was incurred on account of the first class, constituting about one-fourth of the number of persons altogether.—The Globe.

The above news item headlines and all, we take from the Globe, just as it appeared in that journal on Thursday, Aug. 13th. Surely no one can be partizan enough in the face of this scathing indictment to praise the Laurier administration for its work either in immigration or quarantine. The half-crazy theory that immigration means prosperity must surely be given up.

NUMBER OF WITNESSES APPEAR AGAINST FORBES AND PEACE ALLEGED HOUSEBREAKERS

Judgment Will Be Given in a Week's Time—Evidence Appears To Be Very Strong—Stolen Articles Identified—Prisoners Recognized

Forbes and Pearce, charged with breaking into the residence of Mr. E. G. Patterson, 415 Rubidge street, were in the police court this morning to answer the charges against them.

Both prisoners chose to be tried summarily.

Mr. Patterson was the first witness called. He and his family were summering in Chemong at the time. He was staying there. He was driving by his house on Saturday, Aug. 1st and met Mr. Loch, who told him the house had been burglarized. Entrance had been made into the house through a pane in the back door. He found that the premises had been ransacked, boxes broken open, bureau drawers broken open and things ransacked in general.

He identified a purse belonging to his containing the owner's card, some silver money and a ten dollar bill, also a razor, a pair of glasses, watch and jewel case, cuff buttons, fountain pen and other articles, the thieves making quite a clean-up.

Mr. K. G. Loch said a young man called at his house and said he thought there were burglars in Mr. Patterson's house. He lives on Rubidge street opposite Mr. Patterson's residence. This was about a quarter to two on August 1st. The police were communicated with and he and the young man, Mr. Ecclestone, Mr. Patterson's cousin, kept watch on the house. After a while they saw two men running across the street from the short street north of the Cathedral. Mr. Ecclestone and he followed them. He was within 30 or 40 feet of them. He recognized the older one in the prisoner's box. Did not recognize the younger one. He followed Pearce, the older one, along Reid as far as Brock. He turned west on Brock. On passing the residence of Rev. Mr. Pogue, the fleeing man threw some articles over the fence into Mr. Pogue's yard. He ran on until he got across Donegal street. On the west side of Donegal street he lay down. Mr. Loch watched until Constable Meagher came along and arrested him. He then went back to Mr. Pogue's yard and found a silver clock and belt buckle. He gave them to P.C. Meagher. He identified the clock produced in court as the one he found in the yard and also the belt buckle.

Stanley Ecclestone said while Mr. Patterson's family were in Chemong he was in the habit of calling at the house daily. He had a key. On the day of the robbery he went into the house, and on hearing a noise upstairs, inquired if Mr. Patterson was there. He received no reply, but simply heard some one say, "S'h."

He knew then it was not Mr. Patterson. He ran across the road to telephone for the police from Loch's. He thought it was better to be outside watching the place as he could keep track of them better in case they were observed coming out of the house and join in the chase. Mr. Walter Stocker caught Forbes in front of the priests' house on Reid street. The two of them put him in Mr. Stocker's rig and took him to the police station. He saw Forbes searched at the police station by P.C. Adams and some of his own property was among what was taken from the prisoner. He identified it in court. He recognized both prisoners to be the men came out of the front door of Mr. Patterson's house.

Mr. Walter Stocker told of his share in the capture of Forbes, and corroborated Mr. Ecclestone's evidence.

P.C. Adams who searched Forbes, told of searching him.

Pearce, the prisoner, said he had evidence to offer on his own behalf. About the middle of July he left Buffalo after being paid off from a lake boat. He came to Toronto and met an old shipmate who had been with him on salt water.

"Unfortunately for me," he said, "we got drunk together."

He stopped with him until his money was mostly gone. When he got to Peterborough he couldn't remember. He was drunk when he reached the city.

"The next thing I remember was waking up in the police station. How I got there I don't remember. I have always been a working man, as my hands will show."

He said his right name was Charles Percival. To Mr. Wood he said his appearance in court was the first one. The Crown Attorney said he acted like a man who had had experience in criminal affairs.

"Why did you refuse to have your photograph taken?" asked Mr. Wood.

"Other prisoners in the gaol told me not to," was the reply.

He stated that he did not know Forbes, the other prisoner.

"Do you want to say anything?" Magistrate Dumble asked Forbes.

"No sir," he replied.

Judgment was reserved for a week so that inquiries could be made into their records, if they have any.

CARTER'S

CURE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them.

SERIOUS ERROR OF ERRAND BOY

Renfrew, August 13—Through the mistake of an errand boy in purchasing loaded cartridges for blank ones, Geo. Hyett, an actor in Joseph Machan's dramatic company, which is playing a week's engagement here, might have met with a serious accident at the performance last night.

In the second act the revolver, a 38-calibre one, which had been loaded with the supposed blank cartridges was fired off at him, the bullet striking him in the left leg near the hip. Fortunately it proved only a flesh wound and did not prevent his continuing the performance.

Joseph Machan is well known here and was in the city for some time, staying here after his company, the Royal Alexandra Stock Company, failed, while playing an engagement at the Grand Opera House. He and his wife and two children were later identified with the Crystal Amusement Company.

RECEPTION TO "BOB HALL" CREW

Omemee Pleased as Result of Clearing of Pigeon River

A number of our business men and other citizens gave the "Bob Hall" crew a reception on Friday upon reaching Omemee, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all, the best of good feeling prevailing throughout. The crew received hearty congratulations upon their good work. The river is now open clear from Pigeon Lake for excursions here—a distance of 18 miles sail. The beautiful farm homes and scenery on each side of the river are looking at their best, and greatly admired by the Americans visiting here.—Omemee Mirror.

THE POINTS IN DISPUTE

Between the C. P. R. and the Mechanics—What Caused the Strike

The chief points in dispute between the CPR. and the men are:

The overlapping of hours; The men want to work in three eight-hour shifts, 8-4, 4-12, 12-8; the company want to overlap an hour at each end, in order to avoid paying overtime.

The ratio of apprentices—The company wanted the ratio of one to three, the Conciliation Board finding it at one to four, and the men want it one to five.

The question of employing machinists only to operate a drill press, where a boring or facing tool is required. The company want to employ their machinists or machinists' helpers as they please.

Classification of boiler makers—The board endorsed the contention of the CPR. that boiler makers should be classified as regards ability. The C.P.R. says this change will reduce the wages only five per cent. of the boiler makers, and the men say it will reduce the wages by 70 per cent.

The question of discussing grievances with the company—The men claim that the clause that the man charged with a fault who is found "entirely blameless" shall be paid for lost time is ambiguous.

The question of treating Eastern and Western lines together—The men object to ruling made in Winnipeg, without any evidence from the employees in Montreal being binding in the East.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

BACK FROM WHENCE HE HAD WANDERED

Former Champion Billiard Player in Port Hope Police Court

Wm Jex, of Cobourg, at one time champion billiard player of Canada, was arraigned before Magistrate R. H. Holland on Friday morning on a charge of being drunk. Just as the trial was about to proceed Constable Garbutt whispered into Chief Bond's ear and immediately the latter asked Jex if he hadn't strayed from the House of Refuge. Jex admitted having spent six months in the resort, which he vacated a few days previous. The court concluded that one year was the shortest term. The drunk charge was abandoned and Jex was taken back to the institution.—Port Hope Times.

NEW RATE IS APPRECIATED

But Some People do Not Seem to Know About One Cent Rate for Drop Letters

"The one-cent drop letter privilege is already being availed of," said a postman today.

The fact that the new rate is in force does not appear to be generally known, however, as numbers of letters went through the mails that were paid for at the two cent rate, while they might have gone for one cent.

About all the privilege means to some business men for instance those who send out circulars, is that they are able to seal letters that formerly they had to leave open if they sent them for one cent.

OPERA HOUSE CHANGED HANDS

Lindsay Academy of Music Now in Charge of Mr. Roenigk

The Academy of Music, which was formerly controlled by Messrs. R. H. Bradburn, Thos. Sadler and W. Roenigk, has passed under the sole control of the latter. Mr. R. H. Bradburn was in town today and informed the Free Press during an interview, of the change of management.

Mr. Bradburn has had considerable experience with opera houses, and was the first proprietor of the Grand in Peterborough.

Mr. Roenigk has been business manager here for several years and knows all of the best shows travelling and will no doubt make the coming season a bumper year.

The first show to visit Lindsay is "Quincy Adams Sawyer" and if the following shows are of the same merit the theatregoers of Lindsay will no doubt attend in great numbers. —Lindsay Free Press.

INTERPRETER WAS PUZZLED

During the trial of an Indian who was arrested for murder in Fort Temiskaming away back in the early eighties a brother tribesman was put on the witness stand to act as interpreter. The prosecuting attorney read the long charge interspersed with the several weighty legal terms common to such cases and at the conclusion of same, asked the interpreter to present it in due form to the accused. To his discomfiture the interpreter made no endeavor to translate. In a rage the lawyer cried:

"Can't you speak English?"

"Yes," replied the Indian.

"Then why don't you give the charge to the prisoner."

The interpreter shook his head sadly and muttered in a low voice:

"No speak English like that at Fort Temiskaming."

NEW HOUSE FOR THE LOCK MASTER

Mr. Peter Grant is now engaged in constructing a house for the Lockmaster on the Government reserve, next to the tennis courts. It is to be a comfortable place, 32x32, including an eight foot verandah. It is a sort of bungalow colonial style, white pressed brick for the first story the large gable of roof which forms the upper story being shingled. When the ground is filled in and levelled, it will be a pretty site, many young trees having already made a nice growth since the cattle have been stopped from running at large. It is expected that the building will be completed by the end of next month.—Bobcaygeon Independent.

NEW METHODIST CHURCH

To the Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir,—On my return to Peterborough after a year's absence, nothing has impressed me so favorably in reference to your city as the number of fine public buildings recently erected, or now in course of erection, such the King Edward Public school, the large armouries, the stately and imposing Normal school, the commodious, well-arranged Collegiate Institute and the beautiful Roman Catholic church. To these is soon to be added another, in that tenders are being called for to erect in the south of the city St. James Methodist church, which, according to the plans and specifications will be no discredit to the other buildings referred to, or to your beautiful city. This project was of great interest to me during my pastorate here. Rev. Mr. Manning has proved himself the right man for the task, pushing forward the project with such zeal, persistency and wisdom that already its success is assured. To his credit, be it said, that such was his conviction of the need and importance of the undertaking, and his faith in its practicability, that he refused inviting charges offered him, and without thought or likelihood of personal or family advantage, or provision beforehand for his support, set himself to this arduous task. Very many of your readers will be glad to learn that he has met with most gratifying response in the south of the city. Any similar response from others interested, and able to assist, will place this year on Aylmer street south, a beautiful and commodious church free of debt, with a wide field for usefulness.

Yours, &c.,

J. G. LEWIS.

ESSAY COMPETITION

To the Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir;—

In your last evening's edition I read with great interest your plan for a prize essay competition, and in my opinion it will prove to be one of the most interesting affairs of its kind ever put forward in Peterborough. The gradual but sure progress of our different railroad organizations which enhances to a large degree the values of farm lands and opens up fresh channels for the export and transmission of our products, is an object of greater interest to country folk than to their urban brethren, and since it is the farmer who is to be firstly benefitted by the construction of the G.T.P., the rules governing your competition are altogether just and natural. The competition will, in my opinion become very popular and the efforts of candidates for your generous prize will, doubtless, be watched with the keenest interest by the readers of your enterprising paper.

POLICE COURT CASE

To the Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir,—Amongst the several cases being heard at the Police Court today is one in which the man [illegible] is charged with selling liquor without a license. The offence, I understand, was committed in the County of Peterborough, but outside of the municipality, and cases of this nature are usually heard by the County Magistrates. Has the local Magistrate commission to sit on this case or should it be heard in the usual manner? While I would not say that the action is illegal, it appears to me extraordinary and I would very much like to hear the opinion of the Attorney-General's Department in this matter.

G.T.R. EXCURSION IS POSTPONED

The officials and workmen of the local line of the GTR are greatly disappointed this year in receiving word from the head office of the postponement of their annual excursion.

The citizens of the town will also be disappointed as many were looking forward to it, but on account of the new plan laid out by the head office, Toronto, each district will in the future have their turn.

The officials on this line say that the Lindsay district excursion is not far off.—Lindsay Free Press.

FROST—ASHLY

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Leeson on Saturday evening, August 1st, when Miss Eliza Violet Ashby, sister of Mrs Leeson, was married to Mr Frank H. Frost, of Peterborough. The bride was handsomely gowned and carried a lovely bouquet of white roses. Rev. A J H. Strike, pastor of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony.

After the ceremony the guests who were all friends of the bride and groom, sat down to a sumptuous wedding supper. After the honeymoon the happy young couple intend to make their home in Peterborough, where Mr. Frost has a splendid position.—Campbellford Herald

BREWER—BRAND.

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mr. Malcolm Brand, "The Maples," Lake Shore Road, on Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 12th, when his second daughter, Olga Winona, was married to Mr. Charles Leo Brewer, late of Montreal. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. E. Abraham, B.A., pastor of St. Paul's church, in the presence of a goodly number of friends.

After partaking of a sumptuous repast, the happy couple left by the 10.39 train for Montreal and other eastern points. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Brewer will take up their residence in Peterborough. — Port Hope Guide.

JUDGMENT IN RESTAURANT KEEPERS' CASES SEPT. 1st

When the cases of Jno. Fowler, Geo. Thomas and J Q. Woo, the three George street restaurant keepers who are charged with selling soft drinks on Sunday, came up in the police court this morning, Magistrate Dumble said he would adjourn them for two weeks further.

He stated that there was considerable law involved in the disposing of the cases and he wanted to study them further.

Mr. Gordon asked that the cases be enlarged until September 1st as he was going to be out of town and wanted to be in court when it came up again. His request was granted.

CHILDREN SET FIRE TO BED AND BRIGADE WAS CALLED

A couple of children playing with matches in an upstairs bedroom was responsible for damage by fire to the extent of twenty-five dollars, being done to the home of Mr. Richard Haley, 114 Hilliard street this morning.

Exactly at eleven o'clock the alarm was sent from box forty-eight. The brigade was quickly on the scene of the conflagration but there was no water in the vicinity and the firemen extinguished the blaze by means of chemicals.

The house was a storey and a half frame one. The upstairs is all in one room. The children had been playing with matches when the bed clothes caught fire. Mrs. Haley tried to put it out with a pail of water but it had beyond her control. Fortunately she shut the bedroom door, preventing a draught and the spreading of the blaze.

The only damage done was to the wall paper and bedding amounting to twenty-five dollars.

The brigade returned to the hall at 11.45 o'clock.

SUGGESTIONS WERE NUMEROUS

For the "Request" Band Program—The Selections Which Have Been Chosen

Bandmaster Glidden, of the 57th regiment band, received over fifty suggestions for the "request" band programme to be given in Victoria Park this evening. Of course it is impossible to accommodate everybody in one evening, so it has been decided to have another request programme next week. The selections chosen for this week are the ones for which there have been the largest number of requests. The programme decided upon is as follows;—

1. Cakewalk—"King of Rags."
2. Anvil Chorus from Il Trovatore.
3. Intermezzo, "Cherry."
4. Medley No. 4—Remick's Hits.
5. Song—My Rosary— Sergeant Hughes.
6.—Baby's Sweetheart.
7.—My Old Kentucky Home, with variations for all instruments.
8.—Mumblin' Moss.
9.—The Forge in the Forest.
10.—Selections from the Yankee Consul.
11.—Reminiscences of Ireland.
God Save the King.

There were more requests for "The Forge in the Forest" than any other selection.

SPORTING NEWS

RUGBY AGAIN TO THE FORE AMONG SPORTING FRATERNITY

Officers of Local Club Have Started Work and Prospects Are Bright for a Successful Season—Peterborough in the Inter-Provincial

With the baseball season drawing to a close, rugby is beginning to come in for consideration among the sporting fraternity of Peterborough. The winning of the junior championship of Ontario last year and the creditable showing made against the fast Montreal team, has given the game a big boost here and has paved the way for big things this year. Peterborough is the only one of the smaller cities in the province to give rugby a prominent place on its sporting calendar and great credit is due for the success that has been made of the game here. Last year's team was as good as any that ever represented the city and it should be even better this fall. The younger players have had valuable experience and it should tell when the team gets into action this year.

It looks like a case of "the Long Mary," between Peterborough and the O.R.F.U. on account of Peterborough playing Montreal last fall and the locals will not likely be found in the Ontario body this year. There is every prospect that Peterborough will be taken into the interprovincial league, which last year was composed of Toronto, Argonauts, Hamilton, Montreal and Ottawa. The local club, however, can hardly hope to compete with the senior teams in the league, but will without doubt find a berth in the strong intermediate series which will be formed. The second section will probably consist of the Hamilton seconds, Argonaut seconds, Peterborough, Ottawa seconds, Westmount and probably the Limestones of Kingston. The Victorias of Toronto may also cast in their lot with the Interprovincial League, as it does not look as if there was going to be much left for them in the O.R.F.U. Peterborough should have a good chance of winning the intermediate honors in the Interprovincial League as with the exception of Tom Colledge, the great kicking centre half, all of last year's team is available. It will be difficult to get a man to take Colledge's place. Alex Gillespie is in the city and will likely be here for the rugby season. He will be a source of strength to the team if he dons the padded togs again.

The officers of the local club are at work getting everything into shape for the coming season and report that prospects for a fast team are very bright.

HOW ABOUT A CITY RUGBY LEAGUE FOR PETERBOROUGH?

Three or Four Good Teams Should Be Available—Championship Trophy is Needed—Someone Should Take the Matter Up

How about a city rugby league for Peterborough this fall?

Two years ago when one existed a great bunch of material was developed and considerable of the success of the Peterborough seniors last year was due to the players brought out in 1906. A city rugby league is not the easiest thing in the world to run on account of the difficulty in getting the players all in time for the games, but the difficulties are not insurmountable and a league should be organized. There seems no reason why one or two games should not be played each Saturday.

Who would form the city league? Three or four teams should be available. The Y.M.C.A. should be able to get a team together, likewise the T. A.S. Both organizations have a large number of young men within their folds and should have no difficulty in getting teams together. The G.T.R. should also be able to put a team on the gridiron and the bankers might get in line again. That would make four teams and a rattling good league.

The donation of a trophy would increase the interest and some gentleman or firm might do a worse stroke of business than donating a cup for the city rugby league. It could be put up for perpetual competition and would be good for years.

Some one should take the matter up and see what can be done.

LACROSSE PLAYERS FIGHT IN GAME AT PORT HOPE

Port Hope Guide says:—The disagreeable weather yesterday, Aug. 12th, prevented many from attending the lacrosse match, and only about fifty spectators were in attendance. Both teams were inclined to mix it up and the result was that to prevent a free for all fight, Chief Bond interfered and removed one of the Belleville players from the field. This was in the second quarter, with the score 3 to 2 in favor of Port Hope, and Belleville refused to finish the game.

It was an unfortunate occurrence, but the manner in which both teams were mixing it up was certain to result in serious trouble if steps were not taken to prevent it. The local team were the chief offenders, and had the referee penalized them severally, the game might not have resulted in such a breakup. Moore, the Belleville man, who caused the trouble, had been warned by Chief Bond, but notwithstanding this, he dropped his stick and engaged in a pugilistic encounter with one of the locals. It was a regrettable incident and has in all probability, killed lacrosse in Port Hope for this season at least.

A WONDERFUL RECORD

Since last here, when he met Gene Tuetschein, Yankee Rogers has put in some very strenuous work. Accompanied by Manager Naylor, the big Yankee made a great Canadian tour, extending from Peterborough to Sydney and Glace Bay, in Cape Breton. He met all comers. No one was barred, and after going over the list of battles, one must think truly it is a great performance.

Below will be found the records of the tour.

Sherbrooke, June; beat Karakanoff the Terrible Turk, in two straight falls.

Windsor Mills, June, beat Karakanoff, handicap four times in one hour; time 28 minutes.

Bromptonville, June, beat Simard the Giant-Canadian, in 2 straight falls.

Sherbrooke, Dominion Day, beat Fritz Mohl, German champion, losing first fall.

St. Johns, N.B., July 2; beat John Karlsen, Swede, in two straight falls.

Sydney, C.B., July 4; beat Fritz Mohl in 29 minutes; breaking small bone.

Sydney, C.B., July 13th; beat Cy Burns in 20 minutes.

Glace Bay, N.S., July 21; beat Jim Smart in handicap of seven times in one hour; threw Smart five times in six minutes and forty-four seconds; Smart then quit.

Glace Bay, July 24; beat Dan McDonald, local champion two straight falls.

Sydney, July 28; handicap to throw four men in one hour; Dan McDonald, nine minutes; Jim Smart, four minutes; Dan Parker, six minutes; J. S. McCormack, in six minutes; winning handicap in 22 minutes.

New Glasgow, N.S., August 1; beat Walter Smith, 265 pound local giant in six minutes and three minutes.

Campbellton, N.B. August 3; beat Chas. Hackenschmidt, in 22 minutes and six minutes.

River du Loupe, August 6th; beat Karakanoff in two straight falls.

Fraserville, August 7th; beat Emile Simard, two straight falls.

Yankee Rogers is specially engaged to open the great Columbia Theatre, Boston, on Monday night, the 17th of August, owing to his popularity there. He is up against Eckerberg, the great Dane, whom he beat after a hard fight at Sohmer park, Montreal, last November.

He will be sure to get the glad hand from the sports of Peterborough when he meets Fritz Mohl on Friday, August 28th, in the Brock street rink.

ORILLIA MAY PLAY LOCALS

Trying to Arrange Games With Lindsay and Peterboro' Cricketers

The Orillia Cricket Club is endeavoring to have games arranged with Peterborough and Lindsay according to the Orillia News Letter.

If the arrangements are made the Orillia team will play in Lindsay on August 26th, and in Peterborough on the 27th.

THE RING

San Francisco, Aug. 13.—Abe Attell and Owen Moran last night both agreed to fight 25 rounds before Coffroth's Club in the Mission St. Arena on Labor Day, September 7.

Chicago, Aug. 13.—Joe Gans will take up his training for his third meeting with Battling Nelson in the course of a week. He has been out roughing it in the woods since his defeat by the Dane, but will return to Alameda, Cal., on August 19, and will make his training quarters there, as the climate is considerably cooler than at San Rafael, where he has trained before. His manager has arranged for Frank McDonald, who handled Gans for his first fight with Nelson, to take charge again. With Gans practically winding up his career in the ring it is an odd coincidence that Charley Rochette, the man who gave Gans his first fight in California twelve years ago, is preparing to meet some unknown fighter in Frisco this week.

LACROSSE

Capt. Harry McLean of the Ontarios has received a communication from Mr. O. S. Moyer, manager of the Rochester club, asking for an exhibition match in the latter city on August 29th. Rochester offers a $25.00 guarantee. Although the amount offered is small the local organization is considering the proposition and may possibly accept. The Rochester club offers to play a return game on the same basis.—Port Hope Times.

HAMILTONS BIG ATHLETIC MEET

Longboat and Simpson Will be Two of the Leading Attractions

The Hamilton Herald says:

One of the big special features for the Bobby Kerr athletic meet at Britannia park next Saturday will be the special race between Longboat and Simpson. Mr. Barton received word today from Simpson that he would be on hand with his trainer, Mr. Baker, to meet Longboat in a special match race, and as Tom Flanagan assured Mr. Barton that he would be more than pleased to have Longboat compete at Bobby Kerr's meet, the race is now a fixture. It will go down in history as one of the greatest events of its kind, and would be worth travelling miles to see. A large crowd of Toronto people will likely be on hand to cheer for Longboat, while Simpson's ability as a runner is too well known in Hamilton to have been forgotten.

Mr. Clark, physical director of Brantford YMCA, told Mr. Barton that he would plan to have Woods, who was the first Canadian to finish in the great Olympic Marathon, and also Tom Coley here for the five mile and with Jack Caffery, Tait, Melody, Muirhead, Dymont, Holden and several other good men, this five-mile race should be another strong feature of the day's events.

The Herald is apparently in wrong as Simpson will not meet the Onandaga at Hamilton, although he will run an exhibition race there.

OLYMPIC PHOTOS ON EXHIBITION

In Lang and Mahers Window—Simpson Seen With His Team Mates

Splendid photographs of the Canadian Olympic team and the representatives to the famous games from Canada are on exhibition in the south window of Messrs. Lang & Maher's store George street, together with a souvenir medal of the Olympiad, presented to Mr. "Dick" Baker, Simpson's trainer, by the English Olympic Committee.

Prominent in the group of Canadian athletes is our own Fred Simpson, the Peterborough Indian.

The pictures are being viewed by a large number. They are the property of Mr. Dick Baker.

SPORTING COMMENT

Copious tears are falling in Whitby because of the collapse of the Midland and Central League baseball clubs. They hired players, got new suits and started out with a grand flourish of trumpets. The whole aggregation has gone to pieces, leaving debt and disappointment to all concerned. The Gazette says if Whitby puts a team in the league all the players should be Whitby men living there and available at all times. Amateur sport should be conducted with wisdom and prudence.—Bowmanville News.

CATTLE MARKETS.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—London cables for cattle are steady at 11½c to 14c per pound, dressed weight; refrigerator beef is quoted at 10¼c to 10½c per pound.

Toronto Live Stock.

TORONTO, Aug. 13.—Receipts of live stock at the City Market as reported by the railways, for Wednesday and Thursday, were 96 carloads, composed of 1248 cattle, 1934 hogs, 2155 sheep and lambs and 140 calves.

Exporters.

Few, if any, were on sale, unless it was a few light weights. Geo. Rowntree had 200 of extra choice cattle, 1450 lbs. each, bought several weeks ago in the country. Had there been any cattle for export on sale to-day, they would probably have brought about the same prices as on Monday last.

Butchers.

A few prime picked lots of butchers sold at $4.60 to $4.80, which is a little higher than early in the week. Loads of good, $4 to $4.25; medium, $3.75 to $3.90; common, $3.50; cows, $2.50 to $4.00; canners, $1.50 to $2.00.

Stockers and Feeders.

Few stockers and feeders offered and few wanted. Stockers, 500 to 700 lbs., $2.60 to $3; feeders, 800 to 900 lbs., $3.25 to $3.75.

Milkers and Springers.

There was a good demand for good cows at steady prices, ranging from $30 to $60. The average price for the best cows would be about $45 each.

Veal Calves.

Receipts light, prices firm at $3 to $6 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

Receipts, fair, prices firm at about steady quotations. Export ewes, $4 to $4.25 per cwt.; rams, $3 to $3.25 per cwt.; lambs, $5.50 to $6.25, with a few selected lots at $6.35.

Hogs.

Mr. Harris quoted prices unchanged at $6.65 for selects fed and watered, and lights at $6.40. Too many light and coarse hogs are being marketed.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

EAST BUFFALO, Aug. 13.—Cattle—Receipts 100 head; steady; prime steers, $6.25 to $6.75.

ANNUAL REGATTA AT CHEMONG AGAIN PROVED BIG SUCCESS

Day Was Favorable and There Was a Large Attendance of Spectators—Races Were Most Interesting.

The Chemong Yacht Club did itself proud on Thursday at the annual regatta. Early in the afternoon it seemed as if rain would spoil the the sports but the weather cleared up and the day proved as fine as could be wished for. There was a large attendance and the keenest interest was taken in the several events.

The steamer Esturion brought down a large number of Sturgeon Point people and the Otonabee came up from Stony Lake, bringing members of the lower lakes association. Several private steam yachts of the larger class were also on the lake and well filled with visitors from different points.

Dr. Young acted as starter, Mr. Walter Davidson, as clerk of the course, and Mr. Peter Campbell and Mr. D. Hughes-Charles, as judges.

Promptly on time the programme was taken up and the several events run off. There were sixteen contests in all and plenty of entries. First and second winners are mentioned. Following is the list of results:

Canoe sailing, 1st, Chas. Dean, Chemong; 2nd, Harold Munro, Chemong.

Canoe paddling, Men's tandem; 1st, F. Jopling and J. Conway, Chemong; 2nd, Warner and Knowlson, Sturgeon Point.

Canoe paddling, Ladies' tandem; 1st Miss Jean Flavelle and Miss Knowlson, Sturgeon Point; 2nd, Misses P. and M. Denne.

Dinghy race, three miles, five entries: Howard Hopwood, Chemong; J Bruce Hopkins, Sturgeon Point.

Mr. Hopwood wins the Kawartha Cup the trophy of the race. A claim of foul made by Hopkins was not allowed.

Canoe paddling, four men; 1st, Warner, Knowlson, Knowlson and Fortt; Sturgeon Point; 2nd, Jopling, Conway Nichols, and Gallon, of Bridgenorth.

Canoe paddling, men's singles, seven entries; 1st J Conway, Chemong; 2nd M. Nicholls, Bobcaygeon.

Canoe paddling, ladies' singles; six entries; 1st, Miss Marion Denne, Chemong; 2nd, Miss Grace Knowlson, Sturgeon Point; the young ladies paddled this race pluckily, the water being somewhat rough and the wind rising. It was one of the best contested events of the day and the paddlers were heartily cheered at the finish.

Gasoline launch race, 6 h.p and under; five entries: Won by David Ball, on time allowance, with thirty-one seconds to spare; the other contestants were; C B. Scott, Fenelon Falls; Rich, Nicholls, Bobcaygeon; W M. Goodwin, Lindsay, and J M. Powell, Sturgeon Point.

Dinghy race, open, five entries; 1st, A. A. Hollingshead; 2nd Bruce Hopkins, Sturgeon Point; the others were Messrs. McCallum, Matthews and Langford, of Chemong; the course was three miles and the wind very weak.

Crab race; eleven entries; 1st, H. Munroe; 2nd, H. Hill.

Gasoline launch, speed boats; six miles; four entries; It was required that there should be four to start, so Mr. E. G. Patterson entered the race to make up the number. The four included the fast speed boat, 'Miss Fidgetty' sailed by Mr. R. Shaw, Mr. Scott's launch, from Fenelon Falls and Mr. A. A. Hollingshead's speed launch. In order to place the contestants on fairly equal terms, the committee made handicaps, varying from 7 1-2 minutes to 12 minutes. Shaw was placed at the line Scott was allowed 7 1-2 minutes, Hollingshead 9 1-2 minutes and Patterson 12 minutes. The event was won by Shaw with 1 3-4 minutes to spare. Numerous guesses were made on the relative speed of the boats. Time was not taken on the first round but on the second round the watch showed that 'Miss Fidgetty' covered the three miles in 9.17, or at nearly twenty miles an hour.

Music was supplied by a contingent of the 57th Regiment band, under the leadership of Mr. Gliddon. The band also played for the evening dance in the pavilion.

Of the sixteen events, Chemong won twelve, and Sturgeon Point, three.

During the afternoon the ladies of Chemong served tea and refreshments to visitors, a courtesy that was much appreciated.

In the evening the dance in the pavilion was well attended and enjoyed by the residents of Chemong and the visitors from the city.

Among the owners of power boats, great interest was taken in the performance of the speed launch, 'Miss Fidgetty' which was on the water during the afternoon. The boat is credited with being one of the fastest so far turned out of the Canadian factories and was built by Schofield & Holden, of Toronto. It is a marvel of light yet rigid construction and in the hands of Mr. Robt. Shaw was beautifully handled. The engine is a four cylinder and seems to be as reliable as a steam engine and under equal control, the boat gaining speed in a few seconds and stopping as soon as the power is shut off. The boat is said to have shown a speed of 23 miles per hour, when running with direct exhaust. On Thursday she was run with the under water exhaust which cut down the speed.

In the open gasoline launch race, she was entered under a handicap. The course was laid off at three miles —twice around, making six miles to run. Time was taken on the second round and showed that the three miles were covered in 9.17, indicating a sustained speed of about twenty miles an hour. The day was favorable and the water smooth and no wind, and if anything, the course was a trifle over the three miles. No doubt the pace set by Miss Fidgetty will stand among the records for some time to come.

An alleged assault of a very serious character is reported from the northern part of the county.

The condition of the victim of the assault is precarious and his assailant may have to face the charge of murder. Latest reports say that it is just a question whether he will recover, although they may be somewhat exaggerated as the physician called to attend the wounded man has not yet given out anything in the matter for newspaper publication, as to whether the man will succumb to his injuries or not.

Abraham LaGaou, an Assyrian peddlar, is the man who was assaulted, and has made a statement of the affair. He has been boarding with a farmer near Lake Katchewanooka and is of the opinion that the farmer must have seen the money he had in his possession. He states he started out on his peddling route yesterday and after he had left his boarding house, he was suddenly attacked and knocked down being hit three times with a club. The man who made the attack on him he says, is the farmer with whom he was boarding. Information as to whether the money was taken from him or not is not yet to hand.

According to his account he was unconscious for some time and on regaining his senses he managed to straggled along to Mrs. Westlakes who lives in the vicinity of where the assault occurred and about 8 miles north of Buckhorn.

He was conveyed as quickly as possible to Buckhorn and taken to the Windsor hotel there.

A 'phone message was sent to Lakefield from the hotel asking that a physician be sent there as quickly as possible.

It was at the hotel that he told of the assault and the circumstances in connection with it and the people there said they believed the man was in a dying condition.

The message was received at Lakefield about 5.30 yesterday evening and a doctor from the village answered the call as quickly as he could do so.

Search was immediately made for another Assyrian peddlar, Solomon Euwick by name, and a well known figure around Lakefield. He could not be found however at the latest moment that intelligence, on inquiry of the Review, was forthcoming.

Provided La Gou was in a conscious condition at the time his friend would probably be able to learn more from him by conversing with him in their native tongue than those who have up to the present been in conversation with him, could.

PROMISING CAREER CUT OFF BY DEATH

Demise of Mr. Edward Lamb, Nephew of Mr. B. Shortly—Passed Away at Montreal

Mr. Ben Shortly received word from Montreal last night informing him of the death of a nephew, Mr. Edward Lamb, a well-known consulting engineer of that city. Mr. Lamb was about thirty-five years of age and his death was the result of brain trouble caused by overwork. He was exceedingly clever in his profession and his untimely death cuts off - what would, no doubt, have been a brilliant career.

Mr. Shortly left for Montreal on the noon train to-day.

CATERPILLARS ON WARPATH

Much Damage Done to Shade and Fruit Trees in the City

Caterpillars are playing havoc with the fruit and shade trees in the city. They are of the variety known as "army caterpillars," the name being derived from the fact that they travel in what might be described as swarms. When they strike a tree they strip it of its foliage in a few hours. The caterpillars were not much in evidence till a few days ago but during the past week their ravages have been noticed in many parts of the city.

SHE WAS WINNING WADER.

Much Interest Evinced In Outcome of the Contest.

At the recent annual outing of the State Coal Dealers' Association at Clear Lake, Des Moines, Ia., Miss Olive Mott won the wading contest in the presence of 600 admiring spectators. The conditions were that barring shoes and stockings, each competitor should wear her accustomed clothing; if the lake water wetted her lingerie she was disqualified at once.

Miss Mott's father is president of the association, and, being very anxious she should win, said to her paternally: "Go as far as you like, Olive."

Miss Mott, who is a very tall girl, went seventy-five feet into the lake, five feet further than her nearest competitor, Mrs. G. L. Reeves. And the winner was the only one of the eighteen waders whose clothes remained as dry as if they had just come from the ironing board.

The eighteen took off their shoes and stockings in a tent, and, after other necessary preparations, walked to the lake between two lines of women, each of whom had a parasol over her shoulder, so all the men at the outing rushed to the water's edge and got their feet wet. The three men who judged the interesting contest were in a small boat. There had been much rivalry for the position of judge, for the lake is well named.

The judges took the victorious but blushing Miss Mott in their boat and carried her, triumphant, to shore. Besides their shoes and stocking, most of the competitors put on dry lingerie in the robing tent. Miss Mott's prize was three-fold—a box of silk stockings, garters with gold buckles and silk parasol.

WOULDN'T FISH SUNDAYS.

Lord Linlithgow Declined Invitation to Sunday Merry-Making.

Several stories are told about Lord Linlithgow, the first Governor-General of the Australian Commonwealth. In the colonies his lordship was a great success, and it is related of the earl that when paying his official visit to Gippsland he rode through the country attired in bush garb—colored shirt, breeches, top boots and slouch hat. At Alberton he was received by the municipal fathers in shirt sleeves, and they, thinking to do him honor, invited him to a boating and fishing picnic on the following Sunday. Lord Hopetoun, as he then was, replied that, as he never went fishing on Sunday, he was unable to accept. Although a Scotsman, Lord Linlithgow usually attended the St. Patrick's Day demonstration in Melbourne. At one of these gatherings he related how, as a very young man, he had set out on tour of Ireland. A Dublin horsekeeper, who fitted him out for the expedition, slyly remarked that perhaps his eye would linger on some pretty colleen who would make him happy for life. "It did," remarked his excellency, amid general laughter, in which Lady Linlithgow, who is the daughter of an Irish peer, heartily joined.

Lady Balfour's Kindness.

Lady Blanche Balfour, the mother of Mr. Balfour, was once hurrying to catch an afternoon train for her home, when she noticed a child weeping piteously in the street. Lady Blanche at once stopped and inquired the reason of its distress and the little one sobbed out that her mother was dying and that they were all starving at home. Lady Blanche, the kindest-hearted of women, put all thoughts aside of catching her train and went instead with the child to ascertain if the story was true. It proved to be so, one of those terrible tragedies of humble life where the dying widowed mother was troubled in death over the future of her children. Her visitor, however, reassured her, and promised to care for these helpless beings left behind to face the battle of life. Lady Blanche kept her promise, she took an active interest in her proteges and finally started them in various useful professions.

Ants Build Skyscrapers.

The white ants, or termites, are great builders. A naturalist exploring in Somaliland came across a cone shaped mud and clay hill which they had constructed which was eighteen feet in height, while many others were from ten to fifteen feet high. When one compares the size of these ants with that of men it becomes apparent that these hills are real skyscrapers from the termite viewpoint, if there is any. While the average man is five and one-half feet high, the ants are only half an inch high. Therefore a ten foot ant hill is 240 times the size of one of its builders, while such a structure as the Eiffel tower, though rising 984 feet, is only about 179 times the height of the average man.

Got What He Wanted.

"Good morning, uncle. How are you to-day?"

"Ah, nephew, I am well. How are you?"

"First rate. Guess what brought me here."

"Oh, the old story, I suppose."

"I'll bet you 5 shillings you can't guess."

"I'll take it! You came here to borrow some money."

"You've lost! Pay me the 5 shillings! I only wanted to inquire how aunt is to-day!"

New Cure For Diphtheria.

Dr. Ernest Jentsch of Chicago declares he has found a new and efficient cure for diphtheria in lobelia injected hypodermically. He proved his faith in the new treatment by treating his son when he was sick with diphtheria a year ago. The son recovered, and since then, he says, he has cured 150 cases of the disease with the remedy.

ADVICE TO YOUNG COUPLES

INSURE NOW AGAINST FIRE!

Those starting housekeeping for the first time—on no matter how small a scale—should take the precaution of insuring their household furniture and other effects against fire. Whether in house or flat, there is always danger of accidental fires. Better provide against the consequent loss by having your property well insured. We'll give you the best policy.

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED FOR THE REGIMENTAL TRIP

57th Regiment Will Leave for Kingston on September 4th —Trip Through Thousand Islands on Labor Day

Majors Clegg and Bennett and Captain Eastwood have returned from Kingston where they completed arrangements for the trip of the 57th Regiment, Peterborough Rangers, to that city the first week in September. The trip should be one of the most enjoyable and at the same time one of the most profitable ever held by the corps. The regiment will leave Peterborough on Saturday, September 4th, and immediately upon arrival at Kingston will go into camp at Barriefield. On Monday, Labor Day, a trip will be taken on one of the large steamers of the Ontario Navigation Company, through the Thousand Islands, touching at Alexandria Bay, Rockport, Gananoque and some other far-famed summer resorts. The beauty of the Thousand Islands is known far and wide and the trip should be a rare treat for the members of the regiment.

The regiment will remain in camp on Tuesday and probably Wednesday. Three thousand troops will be in camp at Barriefield, but the local regiment will not have to take part in the active work. Arrangements are now being made for the tenting and feeding of the men and also for transportation.

The regiment will go to Kingston full strength, with both bands, signalling corps, stretcher bearer section, etc. Two or three drills will be held towards the end of the month to get the regiment into first class shape.

THE TALE OF A FISH HOOK

A well known sportsman acquired a fine 'lunge and put it in his buggy beside his wife at Chemong yesterday. He "went back to get his whip" when two strangers hove to and quietly took the fish. Help! cried the sportsman, but his cry was of no avail. There have been many strange disappearances of late.

Strike Breakers at Havelock are Boycotted by the Merchants of That Place

The strike situation in Havelock has been very quiet to date, but signs are not wanting to show that matters may yet become more lively. The C.P.R. have some eight men working in the shops, all of whom were brought in from Toronto under charge of a special constable. The men are boarding in a car in the yards and not allowed off the company property. One of the six who came in on Tuesday night, joined the strikers almost before the train pulled out from the station. He informed a representative of the Standard that the company had told them there was no trouble east of Toronto. None of the strikers are allowed in the yards, and the strike breakers can not secure any provisions or supplies of any kind from our local merchants all being brought in from Peterborough.—Havelock Standard.

Mrs. Wm. Dunn of Killarney attempted to give her baby dry sulphur for throat trouble and smothered it.

WRITES HIS MOTHER, WELLER STREET, ABOUT FERNIE FIRE

Mrs. Archibald Hunter, Weller St., received a letter on Tuesday from her son, Walter J. Hunter, Cranbrook B.C., giving particulars of his escape from the Fernie fire.

He and his wife and little two year old daughter had their home destroyed by the fire and while trying to save some of the effects, Mr. Hunter was struck on the shoulder by a falling timber and his shoulder was badly bruised. In the letter to his mother he said he thought it was broken at first and said the injury has given him much trouble ever since he was hurt.

Mr. Hunter describes the awful fire in graphic terms and says that many painful scenes came to his notice as people lamented the loss of their homes and places of business.

He went with his family to Cranbrook where the majority of the Fernie citizens departed for at the time of the fire and immediately telegraphed to his mother from there.

Fortunately his insurance largely covers his losses. Mr. Hunter has considerable mining interests in British Columbia.

CLOSE CONTEST IN THE WEST LATEST REPORTS ARE 19-17

Returns From 36 Constituencies Indicate That Standing is 19-17 With Several Ridings Not Heard From. Motherwell is Defeated.

Regina, Sask., Aug. 15.—The latest returns seem to indicate a very close election with the result very much in doubt.

Of forty constituencies heard from the returns indicate:

Liberals 19.
Conservatives 17.

The returns are incomplete from 13 constituencies.

The Liberal headquarters, however, claim they will win 22 and concede the opposition 16, with two in doubt.

Both the leaders are elected.

Hon. Mr. Turgeon, Attorney-General, who ran in Duke Lake and Prince Albert City, is defeated in the latter by 156, and is only 10 ahead in the former.

Hon. Mr. Calder, Minister of Education, seems to have been defeated in Milestone by 120.

THE STATE OF THE PUBLIC MIND IN FAR SASKATCHEWAN

Regina, Sask., August 14— One of the most acrimonious and keenly contested election campaigns in the history of Canada concluded last night. The fight has been a bitter one and if it had been prolonged nearly all the leaders and active supporters on both sides would have either been in jail or defendants in actions for damages.

J. G. MacDonald, the Conservative organizer, was arrested last night on information sworn out by Premier Scott, charging him with defamatory libel. The Premier has also entered action against the editor of the Moose Jaw News for $10,000 damages for libel. The Premier himself is defendant in an action entered by Mr. Laird the Conservative candidate in Regina.

The campaign has been one of personalities and ferocious attacks upon the characters of the men engaged.

Montreal, August 14—A despatch to the Montreal Gazette from Regina says: The outlook for the Provincial Righters is most cheering. Mr. Haultain stands a splendid chance of victory. Every precaution is being taken to prevent ballot switching and tampering with the boxes. At Moose Jaw a troop of armed men will see that the ballot boxes are safely deposited in the bank vaults after the count is made and similar precautions are being taken in every constituency. In Swift Current, where the Premier is standing, cowboys have volunteered to man the polls.

AN ERASURE IN THE PASS BOOK

Col. Leslie's Accounts Show the Erasure of $10,000 Item.

Toronto, Aug. 15.—The discovery of the erasure of an entry of $10,000 in the bank passbook of the Exhibition Association followed the surrender of the book to the crown by former Treasurer Col. J. K. Leslie yesterday, after the latter had remained in custody for two hours, owing to Magistrate Denison's refusal to renew bail until the granting of the crown's request.

Col. Leslie, who was till yesterday allowed access to all books and papers in the exhibition offices, will not be allowed further approach to them. What is more, the combination of the vault door has been changed.

Floods in New Brunswick.

Hopewell Cape, N. B., Aug. 15.—Enormous damage has been done to the dykes in this county from the unusually high tides in the Bay of Fundy and Petitcodiac river. A large aboideau costing an immense sum of money has been carried away and a hundred acres of fine marsh and grass land submerged.

Dykes all along the river for a hundred miles have been carried away, and at Moncton, near the head of the Petitcodiac, all low lands are under water and a number of families in town forced to leave their homes.

MAY BE MINISTER WITHOUT PORTFOLIO

A report comes to the Review which owing to the Prime Minister's absence in England, the Review is unable to confirm, to the effect that it is likely that Mr. T. E. Bradburn, MPP, will be made Minister without portfolio in succession to the late Hon. Dr. Willoughby. The source of the Review's information however, would indicate the probability of the report's being authentic. Mr. Bradburn's position as chairman of committees while member of the last House would qualify him for a promotion. That the report is correct will be the general wish of the citizens of Peterborough who testified so unmistakeably to his fitness and popularity in June last. Mr Bradburn was not interviewed respecting the rumor.

May Get Him a Medal.

Kingston, Aug. 15.—Steps will be taken to have William Losee, baggage man of the steamer Kingston, who did heroic work in life saving at the accident at Charlotte, presented with a Canadian Humane Society medal.

Horse's Kick Kills Boy.

Brockville, Aug. 15.—Harold, aged 16, third son of Joseph Patterson of Oxford Mills, was engaged in cleaning a horse when it drove its foot into his abdomen, killing him.

THIRD VICTIM IN ONE FAMILY

Maggie Frame, Aged 10, Drowned in River Credit---Two Other Fatalities.

Brampton, Aug. 15.—Maggie Frame, 10 years of age, fell from the bridge crossing the river Credit at Cheltenham yesterday afternoon and was drowned.

Three years ago the child's brother was drowned at the same place.

Ten years earlier her father was killed on the G. T. R. with three companions. While going around a curve on a hand-car they were struck by an express train.

Thugs Posed as Policemen.

North Bay, Aug. 15.—Two young Englishmen, Ernest Deeley and Robert Chadell, who left New Liskeard on Thursday for the western harvest, were held up at the C. P. R. yards on Thursday night by local thugs, representing themselves as police officers and robbed of $20. The thugs were arrested and Wm. Bevair was given two years in the Central and William McHale two months in jail.

Presentation to Parmelee.

Ottawa, Aug. 15.—W. G. Parmalee, for thirty-five years an official of the civil service, and Deputy Minister of Trade and Commerce since the organization of the Department in 1893, until his superannuation last spring, was yesterday morning presented with a silver casket containing $600 in gold by the staff of the Department.

Says Judge Pretended Illness.

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 15.—J. A. Aikman, counsel for C. B. Bratton, in jail on a charge of incendiarism, has issued a writ against Justice Martin of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, for £500 damages, alleging that the latter feigned illness in order that he might not be compelled to hear a habeas corpus application.

Grand Trunk Dividend.

Montreal, Aug. 15.—Accounts of the Grand Trunk for the half year ending June 30, show a surplus of £180,500, which, added to the balance from December, 1907, of £6,700, made a total amount of £187,200 available for a dividend, which will be declared only on the guaranteed stock according to a report here yesterday.

Deprived of Their Honors.

Montreal, Aug. 15.—Although riflemen from Quebec won the highest aggregate score for the P. Q. R. A. matches and the third place, they will be robbed of their badges and medals, owing to the fact that they are military men of long standing. They entered as civilians.

Brute Is Sentenced.

St. Catharines, Aug. 15.—Jerry Doyle was convicted in the Police Court yesterday morning of indecent assault on Elizabeth Barker, aged 5 years, and was sentenced to two years in Kingston penitentiary.

REUBEN FAX PASSES AWAY

Famous Creator of "Posty" Dies in New York.

Toronto, Aug. 15.—A despatch received by James Fax from New York Friday afternoon announced the death in that city of Reuben Fax.

The telegram conveyed no intelligence other than the fact of his death.

Reuben Fax was born in Brantford and was 46 years of age. After completing his education in the Collegiate Institute there he was for a number of years employed in Agnew's shoe store in that city, where he remained until going on the "stage."

As "Posty" in the "Bonnie Brier Bush" he was a warm favorite with Toronto theatre-goers.

Last season he was with David Warfield in Belascoe's Theatre in "The Music Master," and "The Grand Army Man." Mr. Fax had been summering in Muskoka for six weeks.

Three brothers and one sister survive. The brothers are John, in Chicago, and George and James in the city. One sister, Mrs. Barnes, lives in Texas. He was unmarried.

Wood is Welcomed.

Brantford, Aug. 15.—Billy Wood, the Marathon runner, was given a right royal welcome last night. The procession ended at the rink, where congratulatory speeches were made, and Wood was presented with a handsome cabinet of silver.

Churchill to Marry.

London, Aug. 15.—It is announced that Winston Spencer Churchill, president of the Board of Trade, will marry Clementine, daughter of the late Sir Henry Montague Hozier, who for 32 years was secretary of Lloyds.

To Be Assistant Deputy.

Ottawa, Aug. 15.—Arthur St. Laurent, assistant chief engineer of the Department of Public Works, will shortly be appointed Assistant Deputy Minister of that Department.

Stabbed His Uncle.

Mount Carmel, Pa., Aug. 15.—After a brief argument on the sidewalk in Market street here yesterday, Daniel Thompson, a young man, stabbed and killed his uncle.

Drowned in the West.

Cornwall, Aug. 15.—A message from Beausjour, Man., to relatives in the Township of Lancaster, announced the drowning of Edgar Morrison in Brokenhead river.

APPOINTMENTS AT OTTAWA

F. C. T. O'Hara Succeeds W. G. Parmelee as Deputy Minister.

Ottawa, Aug. 15.—F. C. T. O'Hara is gazetted Deputy Minister of the Department of Trade and Commerce in the place of W. G. Parmelee, retired.

J. A. Cote has been formally appointed Assistant Deputy Minister of the Interior.

Other appointments gazetted are: E. C. L. Forster, Ottawa, assistant analyst, Inland Revenue; Jas. Stott, Edmonton, inspector of electricity for Alberta and Saskatchewan; J. F. McNamara, Lloydminster, to be a commissioner under the Naturalization Act; Harold Fraser, inspector of electricity for the Belleville district, and inspector of gas for Brockville and Kingston; G. B. Mooney, third-class excise officer on probation at Windsor, Ont.

Three Rivers Asks Aid.

Quebec, Aug. 15.—The situation in Three Rivers, as a result of the recent conflagraton, still continues to be a somewhat serious one, and a deputation from that town waited on the Premier and asked for aid on behalf of the fire sufferers. The Premier promised to submit the request to the Cabinet.

No Money For Guelph Fair.

Guelph, Aug. 15.—No more money this year for the winter fair building from the Department of Agriculture is the news received by Mayor Newstead from Hon. Nelson Monteith, Minister of Agriculture, and which practically means that there will not be another winter fair building built this year.

Drowned While Bathing.

Toronto, Aug. 15.—Standing upright in water just covering his head, with his feet tangled in weeds, 10-year-old Alexander Baillie was drowned in the free bathing limits at the western sand bar yesterday afternoon.

British Ambassador at Berlin.

Berlin, Aug. 15.—Sir Edward Goschen, at present the ambassador of Great Britain at Vienna, is to succeed Sir Frederick C. Lascelles, the British Ambassador at Berlin, who retires Oct. 24 on account of age.

Queen Wilhelmina Expectant.

Apeldorn, Aug. 15.—It is announced here that an interesting event is expected in the Dutch royal family. Queen Wilhelmina is now staying at the royal castle at Hetloo, near here.

C.P.R. FIREMEN AND ENGINEERS PROTEST TO THE GOVERNMENT

They Want an Arbitration Board to Look Into Case of Alleged Wrongful Discharge of Engineer—Want Aliens Stopped by Authorities.

Toronto, Aug. 15.—Another international union has crossed swords with the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. It is the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers. The brotherhood has applied to the Dominion Government for an appointment of an arbitration board. The charge is made that an engine man on the Lake Superior branch has been wrongfully discharged on account of his activity as a trades unionist.

The finding of the arbitration board on the charge against the C. P. R. telegraphers that an operator was wrongfully discharged may be made public by the Ottawa authorities next week.

A red hot protest is to be sent to Ottawa by the C. P. R. strikers against the importing of alien strikebreakers by the company. The strike leaders state that it is useless to take police proceedings as the strike would be ancient history before any conviction took effect.

The strikers will make a vigorous effort to have the Dominion Government send an alien labor officer to the points where complaints are made, examine into the charges and if they are established have the alien strike-breakers deported at once.

Ottawa, Aug. 15.—H. B. Spencer, superintendent of the Ottawa division of the C. P. R., states in connection with the strike, that the company has at the round-house all the men it wants. There is no great rush of work and no difficulties are being experienced.

All freight, passenger and special trains are being run on schedule time.

Montreal, Aug. 15.—The only new development in connection with the C. P. R. strike yesterday was that the moulders in the car wheel department of the Angus shops, to the number of about 75, joined the ranks of the strikers. The strikers received their pay for the month of July.

West Toronto, Aug. 15.—The official Winnipeg bulletin received by the striking C. P. R. mechanics at West Toronto yesterday indicates that the company is being much hampered by deterioration of rolling stock.

According to the pickets on the John street bridge there are only five men left in the company's roundhouse there. They had sixteen on Wednesday, but yesterday eight men left because the C. P. R. refused to board them, and three more left later. The coal chutes have not been repaired as yet, and the engines are still coaled up by hand.

The pickets in West Toronto assert that engines were taken off freight trains to take out the harvesters' excursions to the west from the Union Station yesterday, and that the freight was left standing in the yards. The last train of the afternoon did not get away from West Toronto until after 5 o'clock p. m.

Through the breaking down of an engine, the C. P. R. train from Parry Sound, due here at 10.55 last night was delayed several hours at Blackstone, in the Muskoka district, and did not reach Toronto until about 3 a. m. to-day.

CIVIL SERVANTS HAVE UNITED

Arrange for Federation of the Entire Service in Canada.

Ottawa, Aug. 15.—Considerable talk has led to a definite plan for a complete federation of the civil service in Canada.

Though no action has yet been taken in the matter, it is probable that the outside service all over the Dominion will be asked to come into the federated association of civil servants.

This, at any rate, is the idea which some of the prominent local members of the Government intend to act on. With complete organization, employes of the Government throughout the Dominion would become a powerful body and through complete co-operation, service would be much more likely to gain its ends than through the incomplete organization of the inside service alone.

Jas. McGregor's home near Lambeth, was damaged by a windstorm.

PETITION FOR HIS RELEASE

Attempts Being Made to Secure Freedom of Hillhouse Brown.

Hamilton, Aug. 15.—Petitions are being circulated for the release of Hillhouse Brown, former manager of the east end branch of the Bank of Hamilton, who three years ago was sentenced to seven years for defalcations amounting to about $100,000. Since being incarcerated he has devoted himself to music and has become a skillful organist. It is said that the Bankers' Association will oppose the movement to secure the release.

Fatal Balloon Accident.

London, Aug. 15.—Two persons were killed and six injured by the explosion of the envelope of the balloon owned by Capt. Lovelace of the New York Aero Club at the grounds of the Franco-British exhibition yesterday. Miss Hill, aged 17, secretary to Capt. Lovelace, was burned to a cinder.

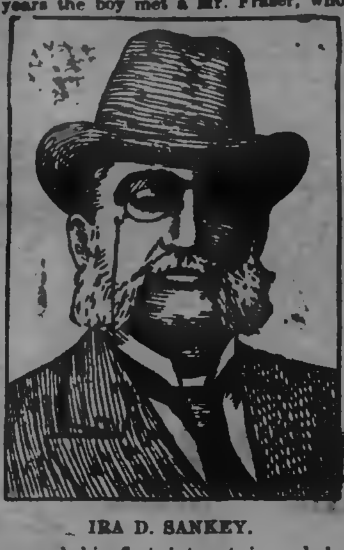
FAMOUS SINGING EVANGELIST IRA D. SANKEY, PASSES AWAY

Was For Thirty Years Companion of Dwight L. Moody and Was Pioneer of Evangelistic Hymnology—Was Quite Blind Last Few Years.

New York, Aug. 15.—Ira D. Sankey, the evangelist, died at his home in Brooklyn Thursday night.

While Sankey had many successors in evangelistic hymnology, he was the pioneer.

Ira D. Sankey was a son of Hon. David Sankey. He was born in the village of Edinburgh in Western Pennsylvania, Aug. 28, 1840. When six years old he moved to Western Reserve Harbor, where his father engaged in a commission business. Later his father moved to a farm and the boy assisted in the work. Sankey, senior, was elected to the State Legislature during the thirteen years of his life as a farmer. During these years the boy met a Mr. Fraser, who aroused his first interest in a holy life.



IRA D. SANKEY.

In 1857 the family moved to Newcastle, where the father became president of the bank. Here Ira attended high school and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. Soon he was superintendent of the Sunday school and leader of the choir.

His voice attracted attention and before long the Sunday school was overcrowded with people who came to hear his singing.

In 1863 Mr. Sankey married a member of his choir, Miss Fanny V. Edwards, a daughter of Hon. John Edwards.

Later he became secretary and then president of the Newcastle Y.M.C.A., and by the sale of gospel hymns raised $40,000 for a new building.

In 1870 at a Y.M.C.A. convention in Indianapolis, Mr. Sankey met the late Dwight L. Moody, with whose name his own was to become immortally associated. Their names became famous throughout the world. No hall was large enough to cover the thousands who flocked to hear them.

Congregations since then throughout the civilized world have raised their voices in the words of Sankey's hymns.

Mr. Sankey's work was carried on for thirty years on both continents. In 1898 Mr. Sankey visited the Holy Land, singing at Cairo and Jerusalem. On his return the Spanish-American war was being waged, and he went to Tampa, Fla., to hold meetings in the camp there. In 1899 Mr. Moody died, and the singer-evangelist was left to conduct his future meetings alone. In 1903 he lost his eyesight, but for the last five years had not been idle, issuing new editions of his songs and solos and publishing the story of his Gospel hymns. The songs and solos have had an enormous circulation, over 50,000,000 copies having been published. The songs have also been translated into many languages. Mr. Sankey's works include The Gospel Choir, The Male Choir, The Christian Endeavor Hymn Book and My Life and Sacred Songs. Among the best-known hymns of his composition are "The Ninety and Nine" and "When the Mists Have Rolled Away."

MUCH MARRIED IS THIS MAN

If Windsor Police Are Right Geo. Ferguson Has Four Wives.

Windsor, Aug. 15.—The police think that George Ferguson, charged with bigamy, is "four-flushing." Chief Wills is in receipt of a letter from Woodstock which alleges that, in addition to the three women already declared to be Ferguson's better halves, there is a fourth in Woodstock. It is alleged there that Ferguson, under the name of Bliss, married a young woman less than a year ago. If the other three marriages are proven she will be the second on Ferguson's list of matrimonial ventures. The first he is alleged to have married in London about a year ago. The third in Lambeth last January and Windsor last April. It is the former Miss Norish who is bringing the charge.

Poisoned by Sardines.

Guelph, Aug. 15.—When Robert Brandon, an employe of the Sleeman Brewery, arrived home late Thursday night he found his wife, two children, and Mrs. Donald and little child of Toronto, visitors, all in a very serious condition and suffering great pain, from the effects of having eaten a quantity of canned sardines.

Convinced 'Twas Murder.

Brockville, Aug. 15.—High Sheriff Bellinger of Jefferson County, N. Y., who has charge of the district attorney's investigation into the death of Hugh Graham, at Alexandra Bay, N. Y., after minute examination was fully convinced that Graham was murdered and his body placed in the water and wedged between two rocks.

Nothing In It.

Kingston, Aug. 15.—In an interview with The Daily Standard yesterday, Dr. Cartwright, Sir Richard's son, speaking for Sir Richard, says that there is nothing in the report that Sir Richard has been offered the Lieutenant-Governorship of Ontario, and that at any rate he would not accept it.

Thaw Will Be Free In a Month?

New York, Aug. 15.—It is believed that Thaw will be free in a month if he is permitted to go to Pittsburg on the bankruptcy case. He is not convicted of any crime which would force the officials to return him to New York.

Brantford Must Take Action.

Brantford, Aug. 15.—Ald. Andrews, chairman of the Power Commission, was notified yesterday by President Fryer of the Municipal Power Union, that Brantford must take action within ten days if it is to remain in the union.

Burned While Ironing.

Hamilton, Aug. 15.—Mrs. Ethel Ford, 93 North James street, is in the hospital suffering from severe burns sustained while she was ironing yesterday afternoon. Her dress caught fire.

Gold Mine a Failure.

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 15.—The Boston Richardson mine at Goldboro, the largest gold mine in Nova Scotia, has gone into liquidation and is now in the hands of a receiver.

"ONLY MEDICINE THAT DID ME ANY GOOD"

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured Backache After Doctors Failed Utterly.

"I have received most wonderful benefit from taking "Fruit-a-tives." I suffered for years from backaches and pain in the head and I consulted doctors and took every remedy obtainable without any relief. Then I began taking "Fruit-a-tives" and this was the only medicine that ever did me any real good. I took several boxes altogether, and now I am entirely well of all my dreadful headaches and backaches. I take "Fruit-a-tives" occasionally still, but I am quite cured of a trouble that was said to be incurable. I give this testimony voluntarily, in order that others who suffer as I suffered may try this wonderful medicine and be cured."

Mrs. Frank Eaton, Frankville, Ont.

Be wise. Profit by Mrs. Eaton's example, and start with "Fruit-a-tives." They will quickly relieve Pain in the Back, and stop Headaches because they keep bowels, kidneys and skin in perfect order and insure the blood being always pure and rich.

"Fruit-a-tives" is now put up in the new 25c trial size as well as the regular 50c boxes. All dealers should have both sizes. If yours does not, write Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

TOO BAD

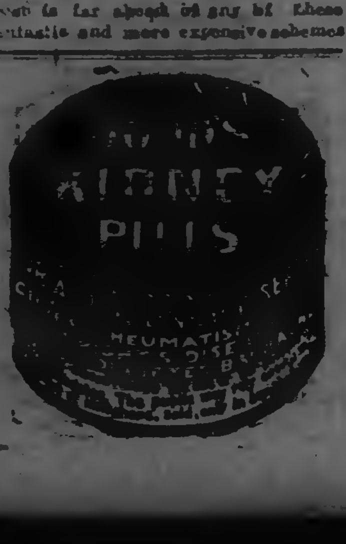
McAughey, the young Scottish-Canadian, who undertook an endurance race from Toronto to New York and accomplished 65 miles a day, complains bitterly of the utter lack of decency shown towards him by Canadians, who all along his route in Canada set dogs on him and otherwise persistently inflicted bodily injury upon him. Across the line the change was instantaneous. Kindness, hospitality, consideration and the most delightful good manners and politeness characterized the Americans' treatment of him. He says the two peoples are entirely different. He indirectly charges us with a mere animalism and crudeness not to say brutalism, that is not flattering to our pride.

THE G. T. P. ESSAY

The Review has received many words of commendation and approval of its plan of having farmers express their opinions on questions of state by means of essays or written opinions. It will eventuate in a proper system of study and discussion amongst a class of people who read and think much but who have no great opportunity for the exchange of ideas such as is enjoyed by those more immediately in touch with their neighbors. It is true that at this juncture the competition has indirectly a political bearing, but that is no objection to it so long as the competition is conducted fairly and without political bias. The competition may be said to be wholly under the control of the judge of essays, Mr. Dawson Kennedy, whose name is a guarantee of good faith. A certain number of the essays of all shades of opinion will be published in the columns of the Review. There is no desire to discuss the question upon other than its merits. The Review will gladly supply any information wanted.

THE GEORGIAN BAY CANAL

To keep Montreal in her premier position as a continental port it is necessary to deepen the Welland canal without delay, and in such a manner as will not interfere with navigation. To expend an enormous sum on a Georgian Bay canal means to defer a manifest and immediate necessity for the carrying-out of an expensive and problematical undertaking. The Hudson Bay railway as an outlet for the west is far ahead of any of these fantastic and more expensive schemes such as the G.T.P. and the Georgian Bay canal. If the west needs another spout the opportunity is at Fort Churchill. The development of new and rival fields of agriculture where immigrants are to compete with us and at our own expense, is economically wrong. It may be pleaded that it will develop manufacturing in Ontario and create a home market. It will not do so as the tariff stands and still less with a Hudson Bay inlet from Europe. But it will develop manufacturing in Great Britain. Neither agriculture nor manufacturing, therefore, can hope to benefit in Ontario. The Winnipeg to Moncton portion of the G.T.P. is in any event is just so much wasted money. It is a fine thing for the financiers, however.



THE LIBERAL CASE

The elections are practically upon us. Sir Wilfrid's announced tour of Ontario extending for three weeks, from Welland elsewhere, from Sept. 15th, means as the Globe admits that a general election is impending. The coming conflict will embrace a number of leading issues. The tariff question has to be settled all over again. The woollen industry, the most extensive of the manufacturing industries is in ruin. Its downfall implies that of others. The case against manufacturers is briefly stated as follows by the Globe:

"On much of his raw material the Canadian maker pays duty, while the English obtains his free. His buildings cost him 40 per cent. more, his machinery 30 per cent more, fuel 100 per cent, and labor 60 per cent more. Money is 2 1-2 per cent dearer."

There are grievances here that should be removed, but their removal is merely delayed by efforts to increase taxation. It is not well to put up barriers for the purpose of shifting the entire burden to the consumer. The burden should be removed. As to labor the statement is questionable, because, in proportion to work done though not in proportion to time expended, it is about as cheap in Canada as in Britain. But while the workman, here, must pay inflated prices for woollens, meats, canned goods, graniteware, and other household necessaries labor must seem dear. That machinery should cost 30 per cent more shows the need of tariff relief. If buildings in this land of building material have such inflated values there is need of relief in the many lines of taxation that enhance their cost. The higher rate for money is due to the uncertainty that results from such campaigning as that now carried on for the upsetting of tariff stability, and to the general obstruction that prevents freedom of investment. The cost of fuel can be counteracted by a victory over the forces united to control the white coal supply.—Globe.

Thus it will be seen every irregularity of industry is accounted for by the existence of a tariff. Free trade is to be once again the motto inscribed upon the Liberal banner while protected and embargoed nations like Great Britain, the United States, Germany, France, etc., rejoice and the Canadian workman is reduced to slavery. Low wages would give us the command of the markets of the world but do we want it at that price? To square our world accounts we have paid out several hundred millions more than we have taken in. An example shows the absurdity of having a balance of trade on the wrong side. The country that is pocketing the surplus cash is laying by the sinews of life in all departments. It is money that keeps us going. The more we ultimately part with the less we retain. So as at present how can we expect to be prosperous. It is the delusion of theorists. Whatever we can supply cheaper than other people we can sell but to do so means a flat state dependent and mean condition. The wealth of the United States, albeit, it is not fairly distributed is the wonder of the world. How long would our cities, our towns, our villages or our farmers, exist without protection. The Laurier Government led us to expect different treatment. It has betrayed all industry into the hands of the financier.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Has the Preference made you rich or is it the tariff?

The Laurier tariff is a practical joke, and like all practical jokes works grievous injury.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that immigration meant prosperity. Do you believe it? Has it immigrated?

The actions of the N. S. harvesters would indicate lunacy. Fun is fun but stealing is stealing and rioting is likely to lead to trouble.

What plans have been made to welcome the Lawn Bowlers on their return from Great Britain? This is the Limping year with them.

When after he reaches the point where he has to wear a trunk strap for a belt a man still feels that he has a pleasing personality.—Puck.

When the various representatives of nations embrace and kiss each other do they ever stop to think what they are doing?

It is said there are more men buried to the square foot along the line of the Panama Canal than in any other part of the world.—Exchange.

What has been the matter with the U.S.—excessive poverty or riches in the hands of the powerful and unscrupulous? Whither are WE drifting?

Although a large number of people are departing to make their homes in the west, there will still be enough left behind to look after the destitute immigrants brought over by the Laurier Government this winter.

Our contemporary, the Examiner, has a column article credited to the Montreal Herald, which amounts to a confession that the members of Laurier's Cabinet are no good and begging the country to put them back for Sir Wilfrid's sake. They will be "put back" all right, all right.

French Canadian families, which have lived in the same spot in Quebec for a century and a half or more are to be decorated with magnificent medals, real works of art brought from France by M. Kleczkowski, the French ambassador, to the Tercentenary. It will be a striking ceremony and is to take place in September.

It's tough on the hotel men, this whisky-detective business. But hotel men don't have to break the law, even for whisky-detectives. Let it always be considered that the most energetic and clever detective is powerless to harm a licensee who keeps the law.—Hamilton Herald.

The famous Transmission Line or wire line transmitting electrical power throughout the western peninsula is to be built by the McGuigan Co. The contract price is much below that estimated by the Hydro-Electric Commission's engineers. Thus ends the adverse speculative knocking of the Liberal journals. It is a great triumph for the Whitney government, in fact, from first to last it amounts to a revolution.

The depression in Great Britain is chargeable with a falling off in shipbuilding. As compared with the preceding fiscal year the one just closed has 178 fewer vessels to show, with an aggregate tonnage of 451,140. This deficiency is made up of 152 steamers and 26 sailing vessels with aggregate tonnages respectively of 442,225 and 8,915.—Globe.

"How is this," as the Globe would say, "if Great Britain is a free trade country?"

London, Aug. 11.—There appears to be some misapprehension in Canada over the operation of the new British Patent Act respecting Colonial inventions. The main term of the Act is that all articles patented in Great Britain shall also be made in the British Isles. The rule applies to patents originating in the colonies as well as in other countries of the world.

WINDERMERE.

The above message to the Montreal Star contains Great Britain's latest answer to the Canadian preference.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that a "moderate tariff" immigration, great enterprises and a wise administration would make Canada rich. Have they done so? Can we become rich with the Balance of Trade against us? How can we restore the balance of trade except by making Canada a self-contained country? And how can any country be self-contained that is paying out to others—such as Yorkshire—for work it should do itself?

Has the admission of Orientals, as Sir Wilfrid intended it, fulfilled your idea of a "wise administration?"

The following may be taken as the Examiner's contribution to the Review prize-essay competition:

The construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway will make available for settlement and bring into potential productivity one hundred millions of acres of land, comparatively of no value, without facility for access and egress and marketing of products. It is estimated that this one hundred million acres acquires a value of three dollars per acre by the building of the Transcontinental Railway. Thus we have a national asset of three hundred millions value created out of nothing, so to speak, which would not have been brought into existence but for the enterprise and statesmanship of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in building the people's railway—the National Transcontinental.—Examiner.

GIVEN THREE MONTHS IN GAOL FOR THEFT OF A BICYCLE

Walter Mehaffy and Frank Hamilton, who were given a hearing a few days ago on the charge of stealing a bicycle, the property of William Walker, elected to be tried summarily by His Worship at the police court yesterday. The former pleaded guilty, and the latter not guilty to the charge. The owner of the machine was examined first and when being administered the oath attention was called by Mehaffy's mother that he had not kissed the Bible. This was immediately rectified.

Witness testified that the bicycle was stolen last Saturday from where he had left it temporarily in front of the Bank of Commerce. He found it later in Young's bicycle shop.

J. W. Young, who was next called, testified that he had known Mehaffy by sight. The latter had called at his store in the morning and endeavored to bargain with Mr. Young towards the purchase of a front bicycle wheel. He returned at five o'clock accompanied by Hamilton. The latter said that he had a wheel to sell and asked twenty-five dollars for the same explaining that he was going out west. Young asked him the original purchase price of the wheel and he replied that he had paid Mr. C. Banks $45 for it. Hamilton finally said that he would take fifteen dollars for the bike and on Young's refusing to buy said that he would send store for the latter's inspection. They left the store and Mehaffy returned with the wheel at six o'clock. While showing the wheel to the proprietor, P. C. McHarry took the wheel and the prisoner Mehaffy from the store.

Hugh Cruikshanks on being examined stated that he worked at the Grand Trunk freight sheds. He had known Hamilton and saw him on Saturday about 5.30 o'clock at the freight sheds. Hamilton wanted to sell Cruikshanks a bicycle and said he had one for sale at Laroque's hotel. He, Hamilton, later returned with the wheel produced in court and offered it to Cruikshanks for $20. The latter would not purchase it in spite of the fact that Hamilton reduced the price to $15.

Cyrus Jones, who is employed at Tooley's hotel was also offered the wheel by Hamilton at the $25 price, but did not purchase same.

Hamilton in his own defence stated that Mehaffy asked him to dispose of his—Mehaffy's—wheel on the Saturday in question. Mehaffy said that he was going away and that he had purchased the bike at Bank's.

Hamilton then endeavored to dispose of the wheel to the parties above mentioned. He had been convicted on a cheque forging charge last winter, but was liberated on suspended sentence. On the first visit of the pair to Young's, Hamilton found out that the wheel was stolen and let Mehaffy finish the transaction himself.

His Worship stated that there was no evidence to show that Hamilton was a party to the theft and could therefore not make a conviction against him. He, however, severely scored Hamilton stating that this was a second warning to him that it would pay him to do what was right.

The latter beat it while his shoes were warm.

Mehaffy's record was reviewed His Worship regretting the fact that he could not live honestly after his past month. A sentence of three months in the common gaol was imposed on him.

A small boy was charged with stealing some cement bags, pleaded not guilty and was remanded until next Thursday.

GOOD CROPS WILL RELIEVE DEPRESSION IN GREAT BRITAIN

Although there is a general financial depression in Scotland and England, the present good crops will do a great deal to brighten matters and relieve the present situation, is the opinion of Mr. James Stewart, of McDonnel street, who has returned from a six weeks' visit to the Old Country, where he has been visiting relatives.

Mr. Stewart says hard times are painfully prevalent in the Old Country, but the crops are the best they have been for years and they were entering the second crop of hay in the middle of July.

The grain harvest will also be a magnificent one.

Owing to the depression the shipbuilding yards have nearly all closed down. Protection is the political cry in Great Britain and the defeat of the present Government, who have not granted it, is looked for at the next elections. The bye-elections are proving unfavorable to the Government.

ABOUD AND HIS ASSAILANT WERE BEFORE THE MAGISTRATE

Last evening about five o'clock, Abraham Aboud an Assyrian, James Baldwin, and Constable Pearson, of Buckhorn, waited upon Magistrate Edmison. It appears from Aboud's story that he was assaulted by Baldwin, who used a club on him and had afterwards robbed him of $160. The particulars of Aboud's assault was reported in last night's Review.

Baldwin admitted striking the Assyrian, stating that it was done in self defence. He said that he was accosted on the road by Aboud who demanded with an open knife a dollar he owed him. He had the money and had to defend himself with the club.

Both men were remanded. The case will come up next Friday. Aboud secured bail this morning he having been arrested on a charge laid by Baldwin.

MR. P. P. YOUNG ENTERS ACTION

The Stony Lake Navigation Co. has opened an action for damages against the Otonabee Navigation Co. The Stony Lake Co. claim $300 for damages done by the steamer Otonabee.

On July 27th the above boat ran into a scow belonging to the Stony Lake Co. and damaged it considerably. Messrs. O'Connell & Gordon are solicitors for Mr. P. P. Young.

WILDLY TOSS ALL TO MISSION CAUSE

Zealots Fight as Mob to Donate $70,000 to Religion—Bushels of Gems

Old Orchard, Me., August 14—Amid wild scenes of fanatical zealotry, which at times approached the abandon of a street mob, 5000 men and women alternately shouting and praying, crying and laughing, gave up nearly seventy thousand dollars in support of the missionary movement of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, of which A. B. Simpson, DD., of New York, is leader. When it was over many of the congregation had all but beggared themselves.

Five hundred delegates are attending the national convention of the association. The rest of the audience of five thousand Sunday was made up of people gathered from all parts of New England.

Soon after Dr. Simpson began his address a wave of hysteria seemed to sweep over the audience. A man started it away in the back of the tabernacle.

"Hallelujah," he shouted and in ecstasy ran down the aisle, shouting praises to God, turning out his pockets and stripping himself of his valuables as he went. He dropped them into the collection baskets at the altar.

A minute later men and women were fighting for places before the baskets. Men, staid and sedate at other times, pulled out their pocketbooks and wallets, removed their rings, watches, and scarf pins, and frantically jostled and shoved for a chance in the struggling mass to drop them in the baskets.

Society women, servants, daughters of the rich and poor alike pushed and jammed through the crowd, divesting themselves of their earrings, rings, lockets, and other articles of personal adornment of value. Even combs and lorgnettes were contributed.

The hysteria lasted an hour and a half. Then, worn out and most of them without a cent, the people left the church. They left behind them ten big baskets containing almost ten bushels of valuables.

Tonight Dr. Simpson said that nearly twenty thousand dollars worth of valuable could be disposed of for about $40,000 and pledges for $10,000 had been received. Besides this, 100 people pledged themselves to go to India as missionaries.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

GIVEN THREE MONTHS IN GAOL FOR THEFT OF A BICYCLE

Walter Mehaffy and Frank Hamilton, who were given a hearing a few days ago on the charge of stealing a bicycle, the property of William Walker, elected to be tried summarily by His Worship at the police court yesterday. The former pleaded guilty, and the latter not guilty to the charge. The owner of the machine was examined first and when being administered the oath attention was called by Mehaffy's mother that he had not kissed the Bible. This was immediately rectified.

Witness testified that the bicycle was stolen last Saturday from where he had left it temporarily in front of the Bank of Commerce. He found it later in Young's bicycle shop.

J. W. Young, who was next called, testified that he had known Mehaffy by sight. The latter had called at his store in the morning and endeavored to bargain with Mr. Young towards the purchase of a front bicycle wheel. He returned at five o'clock accompanied by Hamilton. The latter said that he had a wheel to sell and asked twenty-five dollars for the same explaining that he was going out west. Young asked him the original purchase price of the wheel and he replied that he had paid Mr. C. Hanks $45 for it. Hamilton finally said that he would take fifteen dollars for the bike and on Young's refusing to buy said that he would send store for the latter's inspection. They left the store and Mehaffy returned with the wheel at six o'clock. While showing the wheel to the proprietor, P. C. McBarry took the wheel and the prisoner Mehaffy from the store.

Hugh Cruikshanks on being examined stated that he worked at the Grand Trunk freight sheds. He had known Hamilton and saw him on Saturday about 5.30 o'clock at the freight sheds. Hamilton wanted to sell Cruikshanks a bicycle and said he had one for sale at Laroque's hotel. Mr. Hamilton, later returned with the wheel produced in court and offered it to Cruikshanks for $20. The latter would not purchase it in spite of the fact that Hamilton reduced the price to $15.

Cyrus Jones, who is employed at Young's hotel was also offered the wheel by Hamilton at the $25 price, but did not purchase same.

Hamilton in his own defence stated that Mehaffy asked him to dispose of his—Mehaffy's —wheel on the Saturday in question. Mehaffy said that he was going away and that he had purchased the bike at Hank's.

Hamilton then endeavored to dispose of the wheel to the parties above mentioned. He had been convicted on a cheque forging charge last winter, but was liberated on suspended sentence. On the first visit of the pair to Young's, Hamilton found out that the wheel was stolen and let Mehaffy finish the transaction himself.

His Worship stated that there was no evidence to show that Hamilton was a party to the theft and could therefore not make a conviction against him. He, however, severely scored Hamilton stating that this was a second warning to him that it would pay him to do what was right.

The latter beat it while his shoes were warm.

Mehaffy's record was reviewed. His Worship regretting the fact that he could not live honestly after his past season. A sentence of three months in the common gaol was imposed on him.

A small boy was charged with stealing some cement bags, pleaded not guilty and was remanded until next Thursday.

Although there is a general financial depression in Scotland and England, the present good crops will do a great deal to brighten matters and relieve the present situation, is the opinion of Mr. James Stewart, of McDonnel street, who has returned from a six weeks' visit to the Old Country, where he has been visiting relatives.

Mr. Stewart says hard times are painfully prevalent in the Old Country, but the crops are the best they have been for years, and they were entering the second crop of hay in the middle of July.

The grain harvest will also be a magnificent one.

Owing to the depression the shipbuilding yards have nearly all closed down. Protection is the political cry in Great Britain and the defeat of the present Government, who have not granted it, is looked for at the next elections. The bye-elections are proving unfavorable to the Government.

ABOUD AND HIS ASSAILANT WERE BEFORE THE MAGISTRATE

Last evening about five o'clock, Abraham Aboud an Assyrian, James Baldwin, and Constable Pearson, of Buckhorn, waited upon Magistrate Edmison. It appears from Aboud's story that he was assaulted by Baldwin, who used a club on him and had afterwards robbed him of $160. The particulars of Aboud's assault was reported in last night's Review.

Baldwin admitted striking the Assyrian, stating that it was done in self defence. He said that he was accosted on the road by Aboud who demanded with an open knife a dollar he owed him. He had the money and had to defend himself with the club.

Both men were remanded. The case will come up next Friday. Aboud secured bail this morning he having been arrested on a charge laid by Baldwin.

REQUEST NIGHT AT THE PARK

Last Evening's Concert One of the Best This Season

The request band concert given by the 57th Regiment Band last evening was as usual highly enjoyed by the large crowd present. The solos were particularly fine. Although general disappointment was felt when, through the agency of a dog fight, it became impossible for Bandsman Hughes to finish the solo, "My Rosary." It was to have been put on later in the evening, but time would not permit. This solo will be rendered at next Friday evening's concert.

The prices at to-day's market were somewhat higher than usual. The attendance was only fairly large. Twenty-seven cents per lb. was asked for butter, although a few pounds sold at 25 cents. Eggs were 18 and 19 cents per dozen. Ducks sold at $1.00 per pair, while chickens ranged in price from 60 to 90 cents per pair.

On the outside market large quantities of fruit and vegetables were offered for sale at good prices.

WILL LEAVE THE CITY SOON

Mr. Ernie Best Local Merchant Retiring From Business Here

Mr. Ernie Best, who has been for the past seven years manager of the Best Stove Company, has decided to retire and devote his time to Y.M.C.A. physical work. With that end in view Mr. Best will leave next month for Springfield, Ill., to enter the Y.M.C.A. Training College, where he expects to put in about two years. Mr. Best will leave Peterborough about the middle of September, and his departure will be sadly felt by the host of friends he has made during his long residence in this city. While here Ernie was a member of the Y.M.C.A. and B.A.C., and was prominently connected with several amateur sporting organizations. He made a name for himself as a lacrosse player a few years ago and has been one of the best all-round athletes the city has ever had. In his business ventures Mr. Best has also been singularly successful, having made the local branch of the Best Stove Company one of the neat and most progressive business houses of this city.

NEW STAFF OF TEACHERS FOR QUEEN ALEXANDRA SCHOOL

Report of Com. Appointed to Confer With Principal of Normal School—Special Meeting of School Board Last Evening.

A special meeting of the Board of Education was held last evening. The following were present, Messrs. Robt. Fair, chairman; D. W. Dumble, Dr. Burnham, John Crane, W. F. Nelson, W. H. Hill and Dr. Morrison.

The meeting was called for the purpose of considering the appointments of teachers for the four new departments in the Collegiate Institute and which is referred to in another column.

Other business transacted is as follows:

COMMUNICATIONS.

From Mr. H. R. H. Kenner, Principal of the High School, asking that each pupil in the chemical and physics laboratory, be required to make a deposit of one dollar at the beginning of the term for supplies used by them and at the end of the term cost of articles broken by the pupils will be deducted from that amount. This will prevent carelessness on the part the pupils. Mr. Kenner also intimated that dumb bells and clubs would be required for the gymnasium. This communication was referred to the supervision committee with power to act.

QUEEN ALEXANDRA SCHOOL STAFF.

Your committee appointed to confer with the principal of the Normal school regarding the Queen Alexandra staff, beg leave to report;

1 That the appointment of Mr. Dunlop and Mr. Walley has been approved.

2 That Misses Lockhart, Watt, Parkin, Carlisle, E. Morrow and M. Morrow have been appointed as assistants on the staff.

3 That Miss Warner and Miss Gillespie be given charge of the Kindergarten class, as previously arranged by the Board.

The new members of the staff, viz. Misses Lockhead, Watt and Carlisle, all hold first class certificates which meets the requirements of the Education Department.

W. H. HILL,
Chairman.

COLLEGIATE BUILDING COMMITTEE.

Your Collegiate Institute Building Committee beg leave to report that they asked for tenders for the table and cupboard for the physical and chemical laboratories, cap and cloak horse required for the collegiate Institute and we beg to report that we accepted the tender of the Mann Lumber and Cheese Box Co., of $1,000. This sum is to include two key boards, not mentioned in the specifications, with rubber figures.

Your committee recommend that 500 chairs in sections of two be purchased from the American Seating Co. at the price per sitting to be delivered f.o.b. Peterborough, duty paid.

Your committee further recommend that screens be purchased for the four west windows in the basement and that Mr. Dumneau be instructed to put in 1 1-2 in. bore for the stand pipe.

M. A. MORRISON,
Chairman.

Upon motion the above reports were adopted.

WILL CHOOSE ROOMS.

On Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock the Supervision Committee with Mr. Mowat, the Public School Inspector will visit the old Collegiate building and will choose the rooms to be used as Miss Carey's room and as the Kindergarten and the ones to be used for domestic science and manual training.

Upon motion the Board then adjourned until the call of the chairman.

PRIZE LIST OF PETERBORO EXHIBITION IS NOW READY

May be had by Applying to the Secretary, F. J. A Hall—Brilliant Prospect for Most Successful Fair Ever Held—Splendid Grandstand Performance and Two Day's Horseracing.

The prize list for the Peterborough Fair is now ready and may be had on application to the Secretary, Mr. F. J. A Hall, Peterborough. The prize list will be a very large one, larger than that of last year, and many special prizes will be offered.

If the Peterborough Industrial Fair of 1908 is not the biggest success in every way of any exhibitions ever held here then the present calculations and prospects are away out. The directors are doing everything possible to make it such and are working conscientiously and systematically for the accomplishment of that object. From all indications, the entry lists for the various exhibits, will be record breaking.

SOME FEATURES

It is impossible at this early date to fully enunciate all the special features in connection with the fair, but among the outstanding ones, are the vaudeville performances and the horse races. On the second day of the exhibition Friday, September 18, a free show of unusual merit will be given in front of the grandstand. Knowing that the grandstand performance appeals strongly to the people the directors have engaged the best vaudeville artists and acrobatic performers that they could engage. The ones selected were chosen from a big list of recognized entertainers of the above class who made application.

The horse races on Friday and Saturday also promise to be excellent and taking the interest the horsemen are taking in them, there should be some fast horses start in all of the four classes.

It is the general opinion that they will be the finest ever seen in Peterborough and good prize moneys have been hung up as inducement to owners of trotting horses.

While the preliminary preparation has been done there is still much work ahead of the directors and committees of the fair, and many meetings will be held in order that affairs may be rounded into good shape and that everything may be in readiness when the gates swing back on the opening day, Thursday, September 17th.

THE FIRE BRIGADE SAVED THE HOUSE AND CONTENTS

At 1.30 this morning P. C. Adams discovered that the small shed at the rear of the dwelling house of Mr. Jas McIntyre, Murray street, between George and Aylmer streets was on fire and immediately sent in an alarm from box 23. The brigade responded with their usual promptness. Chemicals were used on the interior of the house which is a two storey roughcast one and the hose was played on the outside.

The shed was destroyed as the fire was well under way when noticed and it was dry and inflammable anyway. There was nothing in it of value.

The house, with its entire contents was saved however, with very little damage to the building.

The blaze was a very bright one and lent a wide illumination.

NO FOUNDATION FOR RUMOR THAT PAT CLUNAN WAS DROWNED

Lindsay Paper States That it was Reported That He was—Mr. A. Dunn of Port Hope, His Employer Contradicts it—Mr. Dunn now in City at Grand Hotel

The Lindsay Post says:

A rumor was in circulation around town today to the effect that Patrick Clunan formerly of this town, had met death by drowning. The Post endeavored to trace the origin of the report but up to the hour of going to press had been unsuccessful.

Mr. Clunan was at one time in the hotel business in Lindsay and also filled the position of nightwatchman. He afterwards removed to Peterborough, where he conducted an hotel there.

After leaving Peterborough it is understood that he went to Port Arthur with Mr. Austin Dunn, a former Peterborough hotelman.

How the rumor originated concerning his death is a mystery and his many friends are anxious to secure more information concerning the rumor.

Mr Clunan was an enthusiastic horseman and was a well known figure at the different races held in Lindsay.

The above rumor is entirely without foundation. Last night Mr. Dunn who is proprietor of the White House at Port Arthur, arrived in the city on a visit, accompanied by Mr. Thos. Cox, proprietor of the Huron House, Little Current. Both registered at the Grand hotel.

Mr. Clunan is in Mr. Dunn's employ and the latter was surprised to hear that there was any such rumor afloat as the one mentioned in the Lindsay paper.

JUDGMENT IN LIQUOR CASE WILL BE GIVEN SEPT. 1ST.

The case of a Peterborough man charged with running a blind pig occupied several hours at the Police Court yesterday afternoon. In a raid made last Sunday by License Inspector Stewart accompanied by P. C. Meharry on the shack down the river near Crawford's grove in addition to several bottles of temperance drinks were found three dozen ale bottles, the majority of which were filled with Calcutt's ale. As the bottles belonged to different brewing firms it became a pleasant necessity for his Worship and the License Inspector to taste the contents in order to satisfy the court that they contained intoxicating liquor. This was done with evident relish by those who sampled the drink and "very good ale" was the conviction expressed.

W. H. Moore, who acted as Crown prosecutor, examined Messrs. Stewart and Meharry, the successful raiders, and the secretary and one of the drivers of the Brewing Company. It developed that altogether this summer twenty cases of ale had been delivered to the house of the accused. During the examination of the secretary the latter was called upon by Mr. Moore to turn up the account of the accused, which was done only on order of the bench. Asked by Mr. Moore why the product of the Calcutt Brewing Co. was sold in other companies' bottles, witness stated that the different hotelmen returned these bottles to the brewery and they were filled with ale without examination.

Mr. Moore, "Then a person demanding a certain brand of ale would be served with Calcutt's in a different bottle?"

Witness—"I don't know anything about that."

Mr. Moore—"There are tricks in all trades—but ours."

Mr. G. N. Gordon, who appeared in the interests of the defendant, pointed out through his two witnesses that the ale received on the two different occasions by the defendant was paid for by the real owners in advance at the time they rented boats from defendant. He held that the latter did not engage in the barter of drink, but merely ordered it for other parties. As no barroom apparatus had been found on the premises he urged that the case be dismissed as there was no clause providing a punishment for that case. His Worship in reply stated that he was very doubtful as to the veracity of the evidence given by the defence witnesses and expressed the opinion that it was nothing more or less than a "blind pig."

Judgment was reserved until September 1st.

BARBER SHOP CLOCK GONE

Why Did Timepiece at Lewis' Disappear?

Yesterday a clock mysteriously disappeared from Lewis' barber shop. Where it went or how it got away is unknown.

The chair men claim that the proprietor himself, deprived the shop of the timepiece owing to the fact that its ticking offered too ready a suggestion to slow pay customers. The man who stole the clock is asked to bring it back at once and when he does so he will immediately be handed over to the police.

Web of Black Cloth Hanging From Ed. Huff's Window Made People Curious

A web of black cloth hanging from an upper storey window of Mr. Ed. Huff's tailor shop on George street, this morning aroused quite a curiosity among a large number of people. Many thought that someone had died and the black was hung out as a token of respect. However, several satisfied their curiosity by calling on Mr. Huff and asked him what it meant. Mr. Huff was repeatedly called to the front shop to answer the question, "What is the black hanging out for?" He kindly informed them that the cloth was put out for the purpose of shrinking it.

FORMAL OPENING OF NEW COLLEGIATE ON OCT. 2ND

At the special meeting of the Board of Education last evening Dr. Morrison stated that the new collegiate would be in readiness to take off the contractor's hands in a week or ten days. In consulting with Mr. Kenner, principal of the collegiate, they had decided that the school would open on September the first, but that the formal opening would not take place until Friday, October 2nd. It is expected that the Hon. R. A. Pyne, Minister of Education, will have returned from the Old Country by that time and will be able to be here on the occasion of the formal opening. Just what the programme will be on that day has not yet been decided. The arrangements are in the hands of a committee and will likely be laid before the board at a meeting to be held in two weeks.

MOHL-ROGERS MATCH WILL BE SEEN TO BEST ADVANTAGE

When the big grapplers, Yankee Rogers and Fritz Mohl, meet at the Brock street rink on August 28th, every member of the audience will be at an equal advantage in seeing the mat battle.

A platform elevated three feet has been built and the mat will be placed within the ropes, the platform is 22 feet square and the mat will be 18 feet square, the regulation size.

The mat will be laid soon and may be used by those desirous of working out. The track used at the walking match is in excellent condition and would make an excellent one for indoor running.

FRED SIMPSON HIGHLY HONORED IN OWN VILLAGE

People of Hiawatha And White Residents From Surrounding Community Show Appreciation of His Fine Showing in England—Presented With Handsome Clock and Address—A Delightful Evening.

There is a saying that a prophet is without honor in his own country, but the above saying does not apply to a foot runner from the way the villagers of Hiawatha and the white people from the surrounding community turned out to honor him, at the village hall at Hiawatha on Wednesday evening.

There were about one hundred in attendance and the popular athlete was presented with a beautiful marble mantle clock and the following address:

Dear Mr. Simpson,—We, a few of your friends assembled here, desire to express our appreciation of the honor you have brought to us during the short time you have devoted your attention to athletics. We have followed your athletic career with much interest and we are proud of the success which has thus far attended your efforts.

In the recent Olympic games in London, England, you showed your superiority over many of the famous long distance runners of both the new and the old world. We are also very proud to say that your conduct in public and private life, has always been a credit to yourself and your friends and an example to those with whom you have mingled.

We ask you to accept the accompanying clock as a memento of the high esteem in which you are held by your friends of Hiawatha and vicinity.

Committee Chief Alfred Crowe
Daniel Cowie.
Robert Cowie
A. W. Dunkley.

The address was read by Mr. Albert W. Dunkley, M.A., classical master of Hamilton Collegiate Institute and a son of Rev. George Dunkley, the missionary at Hiawatha. He also made the presentation.

Rev. Mr. Dunkley occupied the chair and a bright programme was given consisting of selections by the Hiawatha choir and short speeches by Chief Alfred Crowe, Mr. Daniel Cowie and others, and an entertaining recitation by Miss Dunkley, of Picton.

Among those present were Mr. Dick Baker, Simpson's trainer. He was one of the most welcome guests and his remarks were listened to with interest. He told of the trip to the old country and of the famous games there referring to the splendid reception of the Canadian athletes and the popularity of the celebrated Simpson, among his team mates and the general public as well.

Mr. Simpson expressed his gratitude for the thoughtfulness of those who had so handsomely remembered him and in arising to express his appreciation was greeted with "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Taken altogether the occasion was a most happy one and the hero of the evening received the heartiest congratulations on his splendid showing.

"God Save the King," marked the conclusion of an evening that will long be remembered in Hiawatha.

TY COBB, DETROIT OUTFIELDER ONE OF GREATEST IN BUSINESS

Tyrus Cobb is one of the youngest, highest salaried and most eccentric baseball artists in the limelight of American balldom today. His latest record shows a total of 124 hits in 91 games or an average of about one and one-third hits per game. Although barely twenty-one years of age he is a great general and probably the best pinch hitter in the business. He will bunt the ball and beat it to first, or slam out a long drive with equal facility. He is a splendid fielder but plays to the grand stand and has received several roasts from his manager for making easy chances look difficult. He is a hot headed Southerner and will not stand for a coach when he is running bases. Last week Tyrus took a few days off and journeyed to his home in Atlanta, Ga., where he married an old schoolmate.

BIG ATHLETIC BANQUET TO BE HELD AT THE LOCAL Y. M. C. A.

A meeting of the Physical Committee of the Y.M.C.A. will be held at the Y.M.C.A. on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, when arrangements will be made for a banquet, to be held in the near future. The banquet will be given for the different athletic societies of the Y.M.C.A., and the presentation of cups and medals to the winners of them will take place.

A speaker of note from Toronto will be present, and is being communicated with. The banquet will be of special importance and provision will be made for a large attendance.

THE LATEST SASKATCHEWAN RETURNS

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 15. — The latest returns from Saskatchewan indicate the return of 19 supporters of Premier Scott and 17 Provincial Righters. Four places are still to be heard from, and the election in one constituency is yet to be held. Hon. J. A. Calder is likely defeated in Milestone and Hon. W. R. Motherwell's defeat in North Qu'Appelle is conceded. Hon. Mr. Turgeon was defeated in Prince Albert, but carried Duck Lake, according to incomplete returns.

NOT ENOUGH TO FORM QUOROM

So Warsaw's Protest Against Warkworth Was Not Dealt With

The meeting of the Midland Football League, which was to have been held at the Y.M.C.A. last night to consider the protest of Warsaw against Warkworth, did not materialize. There was not a sufficient number present to form a quorum owing to most of the officers being away from the city.

Another meeting will be called at an early date.

TWO YOUNG MEN UPSET IN THE SWIFT BUCKHORN RAPIDS

Messrs. Wm. Long and Alf. Ralph, of Toronto, who are spending their holidays at the Buckhorn hotel, had an exciting experience the other day while out canoeing. These young men had been in the habit of running the rapids in their boat and it was while engaging in the daring effort that they were upset. After succeeding in swimming the rapids they got to some rocks, where they righted their boat and paddled to shore. Several persons saw the upset and enjoyed a good laugh at them. As both young men are expert swimmers there was no uneasiness felt on the part of the onlookers.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES TOOK PLACE AT MOUNT ST. JOSEPH THIS MORNING

The solemn reception ceremony took place this morning at Mount St. Joseph when three young women took the habit and eleven postulants made their vows, preparatory to entering a religious life. His Lordship Bishop O'Connor presided, being assisted by Ven. Archdeacon Casey, of Lindsay, Rev. Father McColl and Rev. Dr. O'Brien of this diocese, the latter being master of ceremonies. Several of the relatives and friends of those who made their vows, were present and a very appropriate sermon was preached by Rev. Father Donaghar, S.J., St. Louis, who had preached the retreat. The sanctuary clergy included Rev. Father Donaghar, S.J., Rev. Father Soratt, Wolfe Island; Rev. Father McCrea, Brechin; Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, Ennismore, and Rev. Father Kelly, of Peterborough.

IMPOSED FOUR FINES FOR ILLEGAL CATCHING OF FISH

On information laid by Fishery Inspector Watt four convictions were made yesterday by Capt. Hunter, of Belleville, Warden for Eastern Ontario for the Fisheries Department. He came to the city yesterday morning for the purpose of hearing the charges, and returned to Belleville again this afternoon.

The offences committed were the snaring and netting of fish and the fines imposed were from $2 to $5. The breaches of the law were owing to the ignorance of the act, by the guilty parties who been in the habit of catching fish for their own use in the illegal ways referred to, hence the imposing of nominal fines. They were intended to be a warning to other offenders and should further infractions take place those guilty will not be by any means so lightly dealt with. There were two others who appeared before Mr. Hunter, but no convictions were made in their cases.

Mr. Hunter will go down the Rideau next week where he has to hear several similar charges laid by fishery inspectors in that district.

"Have there been many violations of the fishery laws this season," he was asked by a Review reporter, who interviewed him.

"Yes, a large number indeed," he replied, "I have made about 75 or 80 convictions. The majority of inspectors in the different localities have been very watchful."

"The people are not yet familiar with the new regulations," Warden Hunter stated. "Last May the Game Act was incorporated with the Fishery Act and it has now to be differently interpreted. Changes in the close season have been made and the limit has been changed. All persons from outside the province must have angling permits and this also applies to all from foreign lands who have not attained citizenship."

Speaking of the fishing in the Bay of Quinte, Mr. Hunter said it was especially good and some remarkable catches have been made there this season.

The other day an American fisherman from New Jersey, staying at the Quinte Hotel, Belleville, caught a 40 pound lunge in the Bay of Quinte. The lunge have been biting well all season and large numbers of bass have also been caught.

The Government has seen to the strict enforcement of the Fishery laws and is taking measures to see that the game laws are also well observed. All the wardens are being notified to carry out prosecutions whenever an offence occurs, irrespective of individuals or their politics.

JUNIOR CHURCH BASEBALL LEAGUE HAS A GOOD START

First Season of Its Existence Has Been Most Successful---Good Officers in Charge---Handsome Trophy Donated.

An organization that has apparently come to stay among local sporting bodies is the Junior Church Baseball League. Although it only came into existence last spring, it has attained a good foundation and with the capable officers in charge, it should have a most successful future. Mr. T. E. Bradburn, M.P.P., has generously donated a handsome silver cup to be emblematic of the championship of the league and to be competed for annually. No matter how often one team may win it, the trophy does not pass into their permanent possession. This is the rule that prevails in connection with the Stanley cup, the Minto cup and other famous trophies and is undoubtedly the best re- permanent possession of a club it is shelved somewhere and is of no further use in the stimulation of sport.

MR. T. E. BRADBURN

THE BRADBURN TROPHY

Presented to Junior Church League by Mr. T. E. Bradburn, M.P.P.

But to get back to the Junior Church League. Last Spring it was felt that something should be done to encourage baseball among the boys of the city and it was decided that the formation of a league would have the desired effect. Accordingly a meeting was held and six teams were represented — St. Andrews, St. Lukes, Knox Church, All Saints, George St. church, and the YMCA Chieftains, following officers were elected:

Hon.-Pres, Rev. J. G. Potter.
Pres, N. E. McWilliams.
Sec.-Treas., H. Wilkie.

Each club had a representative on the executive committee as follows;

St. Andrews, Ernest Reid.
YMCA Chieftains, Dr. Wightman,
All Saints, A. E. Wilson.
George Street—Dr. J. E. Middleton.
Knox, H. Wilkie.

The teams were divided into two sections, St. Andrews, Knox and All Saints comprising one, and St. Lukes Chieftains and George Street, the other. A schedule was drawn up and the games were splendidly contested. The boys played good ball and no doubt some of them will shine in big league company in a few years. St. Andrews won the championship of the section in which they were grouped and the YMCA Chieftains carried off the laurels in their division. In the deciding game played at Riverside Park, the Chieftains won the championship of the league after a great struggle, the score being 7—6. It was ding-dong all the way and the result was in doubt till the last ball was pitched. Mr. H. R. H. Kenner was umpire and gave every satisfaction.

The league games were played in the evening, seven innings constituting a game.

The cup donated by Mr. Bradburn is a handsome one, being over eighteen inches in height and of very striking design. Very few leagues are so fortunate as the Junior Church League in the matter of a championship trophy. The officers of the league deserve great credit for the successful season and the Chieftains are deserving of praise for their work on the diamond. The St. Andrews nine also played fine ball.

The Bradburn trophy will likely be publicly presented to the Chieftains in the near future.

YEARLY TESTS MADE VALUABLE

Are of More Benefit Than Those of Shorter Duration

We do not consider a 7 day test conclusive evidence of the producing capacity of a cow for the entire year, though it is a good evidence of her capacity for six or eight months and frequently indicates her capacity as a yearly producer. We never had had an A.R.O. cow that has not made yearly a large quantity of milk and butter.

Therefore we say without hesitation, that 7-day tests are of great value, inasmuch as they designate our best producers and also furnish evidence of the producing capacities of the Holstein cow.

But, while we think 7-day tests are valuable, we think 30-day tests are more valuable and that yearly tests are more valuable than 30-day ones.

A yearly test of a cow under normal conditions as to the health, care and feed is infallible evidence of her producing capacity, but such a test under natural conditions with too great a supply of medicine and stimulating food is indicative of her ruin for future use. Without doubt many of the great records that are made depend in large measure upon the long preparation, the peculiar skill of the feeder, and the special feed that is fed. We query whether the rules for the Advanced Registry should not be amended so as to require the supervisor to report the kind and the amount of feed and drink that have been given to the cow during the time of each test, and also the weight and physical condition of the cow at the beginning of the test.—Burton W. Potter. Rutland, Mass.

SAID TO HAVE SOLD TO MINOR

Charge Against Local Man of Selling to Walter Mehaffy—Mother Says He is Minor

John Carr was charged yesterday afternoon with selling tobacco to Walter Mehaffy, who, by his mother's testimony, is a minor, being only sixteen years old. The defendant did not deny the charge, but asked for an adjournment for one week in order that he could search the records of the county in which the boy was born and find out his age.

An adjournment of one week was granted.

AMID HOWLING WOLVES.

Woodman's Skill Saved Trapper From a Lingering Death.

Many persons are pleased to think the simple life is one of pure joy, but that the contrary is sometimes the case was recently proved to the residents of Woonga, a Canadian frontier village of the silent north, when they were called upon to go to Big Cat lake and bring out Eugene Hardy, a trapper, who for nearly three weeks had been slowly starving because bedridden with a severe attack of rheumatism. That the man survived is considered remarkable.

Hardy, who, in spite of his name, is anything but robust, was found by a fellow trapper through the merest chance, and was then in such a wasted condition that it was impossible to take him out of the woods for six days. By administering coarse broths made from venison and partridge bones, he finally strengthened his charge enough to move him over 20 miles of trails on a litter. From that point the trip to civilization was made by ox or horse teams.

Peter Lovejoy, the woodsman who fortunately came upon Hardy, was prospecting for a new camp when he discovered traps with dead animals in them. His experienced eye told him that the animals had been dead from one to two weeks and they had probably been caught some days before death occurred. The latter fact was pretty conclusively established by the wasted condition of the bodies. Lovejoy immediately deduced that the owner of the traps had met with a mishap and he set out to find him.

At the end of a two days' search he heard a couple of wolves howling in a sheltered ravine and a little later he came upon a small cabin built against a ledge of rock. There was no indication of human life about the place. Snow, untracked save by wolves and other marauders, covered the ground, but a pail turned upside down, showed that someone had placed it by the door long after the first snow had fallen.

When Lovejoy opened the door, which had been securely caught with a drop latch, Hardy was seen lying on his bunk apparently dead. He was white, emaciated and still. The cabin itself was in disorder. Most of the rough furniture had been used for fuel, and broken tables and chairs lay strewn near the fireplace. Some potato skins and strips of deer hide were soaking in a rusty pail of snow water and a few grains of wheat lay on a hollow stone where an attempt had been made to grind them. A bear skin, three blankets and an old coat covered Hardy while another skin lay within easy reach.

Lovejoy first determined that his fellow trapper was alive and then he set about to care for him. First he built a rousing fire and when this had begun to warm the cabin he went to a grove of spruce nearby and shot a couple of partridges. A rabbit was also knocked over. With this supply of provisions and some coffee and jerked venison from his own sack he prepared a substantial meal. The principal dish was a rich but coarse soup, and when a cupful had been forced down Hardy's throat he opened his eyes and looked about.

"Rheumatism," he said feebly, and then relapsed into a stupor from which he did not arouse for several hours. On awakening he was fed more soup, but it was not until the following morning that he could give an account of himself. In the night wolves appeared, but they made no effort to enter the cabin.

Hardy's story when finally told was pitiful in the extreme. He said that he had begun experiencing twinges of rheumatism in one arm early in the fall, but as they did not increase he paid little attention to them. Three weeks before he was found he got soaked in a chilling rain and next morning was in a high fever. When he tried to arise he was attacked by shooting pains in legs and arms and it was with great difficulty that he could prepare his breakfast. He got through with the ordeal after intense suffering and managed to gather a little wood.

Work was out of the question and Hardy remained in his bunk for three days, getting out only to feed himself and keep the fire burning. All this time the fever kept up and the supply of wood and provisions diminished. To make matters worse wolves put in an appearance and howled about the cabin both day and night, making it dangerous for Hardy to creep out for wood.

How the time passed after the first week he scarcely remembered. He said that when the wood gave out entirely he managed to break up some of the furniture by rolling a heavy rock up an inclined board and letting it fall on tables and chairs. With the food gone he resorted to unground grain, tallow candles and strips of deer hide boiled in snow water.

Lovejoy saw he could not take the man out alone, so after getting supplies from his own camp, nine miles distant, he went to Woonga for help. Volunteers went into the woods and Hardy was carried out.

Canada's Garden Spot.

Canada is all the time discovering fertile districts of limited extent which it calls garden spots. The Canadian school geographies of 20 years ago gave that name to the Annapolis valley in Nova Scotia where the apples grow.

The Okanagan is a depression in the mountains, running north and south for more than 150 miles. It holds a lake of the same name which is 80 miles long and of an average width of three miles. The area from the shores of this lake to the foothills is fast filling up with orchards.

Of course there are apples, as there are everywhere almost in Canada, but peaches, apricots, nectarines, grapes and even figs flourish in the southern part of the valley.

The rainfall is less than 10 inches a year, so irrigation has to be resorted to. The soil is amazingly fertile, an orchard earning its keep in a few seasons. It is a prosperous community.

The names of the towns have a prosperous sound. There is Summerland and a Peachland. Presumably it is all Happyland.

James Muir's barn, of Birkbrook, for the second time this year, was struck by lightning and destroyed.

MANUAL TRAINING, DOMESTIC SCIENCE, ART AND MUSIC TEACHERS WERE APPOINTED

At Special Meeting of Board of Education Last Evening —Domestic Science and Manual Training to be Taught in Old Collegiate Building— Teachers Will Only Cost the Board $1060.

The introduction into the public schools of this city of four new departments of school work, namely, manual training, domestic science, art and music, will no doubt, be highly approved of by the citizens of Peterborough. The matter has been under discussion by the board of education for some time and last night four teachers of these special courses were appointed at a special meeting of the board. The board is to be highly commended in its obtaining these new departments and at a cost of only $1060 to the board. The balance of the salaries are paid by the department of education. The department requires these teachers at Normal school, for two-fifths of their time, leaving the remaining three-fifths at the disposal of the board.

Domestic Science and Manual training will be taught in the old Collegiate building. Two rooms will be fitted up for these two classes.

At a special meeting of the board of education held last evening, the following were present; Messrs. Robt. Fair, chairman; D W Dumble, John Crane, W F Nelson, Dr. Morrison, W H Hill, Dr Burnham and Public School Inspector Mowat.

Previous to the regular session a meeting of the supervision committee was held and the report of special teachers was carefully considered.

Upon motion of Mr. J. Crane and Dr. Burnham, the report was adopted when it came up in the special meeting and was unanimously carried.

THE REPORT

To the Chairman and Members of the Board of Education:

Gentlemen,—Your committee appointed to confer with the Education Department regarding the engagement of special teachers beg leave to report as follows;—

1. The Education Department proposes the joint engagement of four teachers, viz.; a teacher of Manual Training, a teacher of Domestic Science, a teacher of Art, and a teacher of Music. The Department will require the services of these teachers at the Normal School for 2-5 of their time, leaving the remaining 3-5 at the disposal of the Board.

2. Your Committee believe that the present is an opportune time to secure the services of a class of teachers that will do much to advance our schools. This Board has on several occasions favorably considered the introduction of Manual Training and Domestic Science into our schools and only the lack of a suitable building has prevented the Board taking action in the matter in the past. The executive value and refining influence of Music and Art (which includes all forms of drawing) are so manifest that your committee feels sure that these subjects, too, will meet with the favorable consideration of the Board.

The old Collegiate building is now available for public school purposes and rooms can easily be fitted up in this building for the Manual Training and Domestic Science classes.

Your committee has carefully considered the question of expense and feels that the Board is being offered generous terms by the Education Department.

The Department agrees to contribute the following amounts;—

A.—GRANTS TO SALARIES.

a—Manual Training Teacher, $550 per year.
b—Domestic Science Teacher, $100 per year.
c—Art Teacher, $550 per year.
d—Music Teacher, $550 per year.

B.—GRANTS TO MAINTENANCE AND SALARY.

a—Manual Training, $350 per year and 10 per cent on all salary over $600.
b—Domestic Science, $200 per year and 10 per cent on all salary over $600.

C—GRANTS TO EQUIPMENTS.

a—Twenty per cent. per year for five years on Manual Training equipment up to $500.
b—Twenty per cent. per year for five years on Domestic Science equipment up to $300.

Regarding the equipment, the Department pays the whole amount in five annual grants as the cost will not exceed the above mentioned amounts.

Not taking into consideration the grants towards equipment, the Department will contribute annually towards the expense in connection with the special teachers, the sum of $2,740, leaving $1,060 to be defrayed by the Board. The Board, however, will be put to the expense of supplying the rooms, heating them furnishing supplies and such like.

3. Your committee favors the joint engagement with the Department of four special teachers, and after consulting with the Principal of the Normal School together with our Public School Inspector would recommend, subject to the approval of the Education Department, the engaging of the following applicants;—

1 Mr. A. W. Scarrow, of Owen Sound, to be teacher of Manual Training at a yearly salary of $1,200.

2 Miss E. Steinhoff of Stratford, to be teacher of Domestic Science at a yearly salary of $900.

3 Miss Jessie C. McRae, of Belleville, to be teacher of Art, at a salary salary of $1,000.00.

4. Miss Helen Davies, of Peterborough, to be teacher of Music, at a yearly salary of $700.

5. Your committee would further recommend that the Manual Training and Domestic Science classes for the present be formed from the first forms of the Collegiate Institute and the Entrance classes in Public schools.

Respectfully submitted,
W. H. HILL,
Chairman Committee on Appointments.

WEDDING BELLS

HICK—STONE

A quiet but pretty house wedding was solemnized at noon to-day, when Madeline, eldest daughter of Mr. Giles Stone, 618 Bethune street, was united in marriage to Reginald F. Hick, of Toronto, son of Mr. F. B. Hick, of that city. The ceremony took place in the spacious drawing room, which was artistically decorated for the occasion under an arch of evergreens and asters.

Rev Dr. Langfeldt, of St. Luke's church, was the officiating clergyman.

The bride was given away by her father, and as she descended the stairs, Mrs. Thackeray, played Mendelssohn's wedding march. Miss Francis Stone, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and the groom was supported by Mr. G. Duncan, of Toronto.

The bride was attired in a rich gown of cream eolienne over silk a la princesse and shirred bodice with berthe of Irish lace. The costume was completed by a veil of silk chiffon and orange blossoms. Miss Stone carried a bouquet of white asters and ferns and the bridesmaid, Miss Francis Stone, who was tastefully attired in a dress of cream nuns veiling and silk carried a bouquet of pink asters and ferns. Previous to their departure on the 4.38 train for points west, luncheon was served and cordial congratulations extended to the the principals in the pleasing function.

The bride's going away costume was a pearl grey tailored suit with white hat and plumes to match.

The wedding gifts both in number and quality were worthy of the occasion.

Among the invited guests included friends from Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, Penoka, Saskatchewan; Witchita, Kansas, Hamilton and Toronto.

WHY NOT?

Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir,—A few days ago attention was called to the unfinished Gilmour street job. Immediately afterwards some improvement was made, or at least, started but as yet the work on this otherwise beautiful street has not been finished. Is it the intention of the city to make further attempt to build a road?

RESIDENT READER.

A DIFFERENCE.

To the Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir,—From time to time I have noticed in the different newspapers cases of bums and drunkards being sent to gaol for their offences. But what about the men who call themselves the upper class, who get just as drunk and who have, in my opinion just as many of the bum characteristics as the other poor unfortunates. It's up to some of the so-called upper class to think a little before they smile when they read newspaper articles of this nature.

Yours truly,

CHANGE IN CONNECTION WITH WELL KNOWN LOCAL FIRM

Mr. Wm. D. Campbell Becomes a Partner in the Best Stove Company—Mr. E. M. Best Leaving the City to Engage in Y.M.C.A. work

Mr. Ernest M. Best, who has been manager of the Best Stove Works manager of the Best Stove Company for the past six and a half years, has decided to enter Y.M.C.A. work and as a result there will be a change in connection with the Best Stove Co. Mr. Wm. D. Campbell, who has been connected with the Perkins, Ince Co. and is well known in the city is being taken into partnership by Mr. Best, the new arrangement going into effect on September 1st. Mr. Ray P. Best will remain with the firm, and will be associated with Mr. Campbell in the management.

The firm will retain the name of "The Best Stove Company," and will be conducted on the same fair and businesslike lines that have characterized it in the past. It is six years and a half since the Best Stove Company was established in Peterborough and under the management of Mr. E. M. Best has grown steadily on a good foundation. At first only stoves and tinware were handled but three years ago hardware was also added and now the establishment carries a complete line of stoves, tinware and hardware. Continued success is assured under the new regime as Mr. Campbell is a clever young business man with plenty of ambition and energy. He is extremely popular with a large number of friends and has a reputation for fairness and good business ability.

PETTY THIEVING GOING ON IN THE CITY TO A LARGE EXTENT

A number of petty robberies are being made in the city. A short time ago a couple of refrigerators were robbed on Gilmour street. The case of Forbes and Pearce breaking into the residence of Mr. E. G. Patterson is another instance of burglaries on the same scale, although quite a clean-up was made in this instance.

On Thursday entrance was made to the cellar of Mrs. Giles, Park street, and pies, cakes, a large piece of cheese and other things were stolen. It would be a good thing for the community if the thieves could be lodged behind the bars, as depredations are becoming altogether too frequent.

LIBERAL CONVENTION FOR WEST PETERBORO SATURDAY, AUG. 29TH

The Toronto World seems to have the requisite authority for announcing that the West Peterborough Liberal convention will be held on Saturday, August 29th. This from other rumors of an accurate character, may be taken as the correct date. Mr. R. R. Hall, M.P., is said to be the prospective candidate, although in all probability nominations of other prominent Liberals will be made as usual. The East riding nomination will be held the following Saturday, it is said.

SIR WM. MACDONALD AND WHAT HE HAS DONE FOR EDUCATION IN CANADA

Some Striking Characteristics of the Man Who Stands Alone as One of the World's Greatest Reformers.

(By C. D. Cliffe)

“I am a solitary man. I do my own thinking, I do my own acting; I am sorry you ever suggested the idea of writing anything about me because I do not like it.”

So spoke Sir William C. Macdonald, the other day, the noted philanthropist, benefactor to McGill University, and education generally, and highly successful business man of Montreal. This, then, in one paragraph, explains one side of the man. To call him a merchant prince would be no compliment. To say anything but just plain, unvarnished truth would be a waste. Cut out all platitudes, and Sir William stands alone as one of the world's greatest reformers. His munificent donations to education running into millions have established a monument to his memory “more lasting than bronze, especially as it will dispense through countless generations numberless blessings to the land he serves.

“A foolish consistency is the hobgoblin of little minds, adored by little statesmen, philosophers, and divines. With consistency a great soul has nothing to do.” So wrote Emerson and it applies aptly to such benefactors, when the fanatics say, “How did he make his money?” “Is it tainted?” “How much did he pay his half-capable employee whom he discharged?” etc., “Whisper it not in Gath,” etc., for it would be a weary world were it not for the open-handed generosity of the Carnegies, the Strathconas, the Mount Stephens and the Macdonalds.

Sir William Macdonald has been over half a century in the tobacco business. He has always been as near independent as human beings can be, because he believed early that when men get the crook out of their backs and the hinges out of their knees and the cringe out of their souls they are free.

From his earliest childhood in Glenaladale, P.E.I., where he was born in 1831, his dominant characteristic has been thoroughness, an ambition to be first in his classes, first in competitive games in the field, and, later, first in affairs. Those who have known him all these years believe him to be just such a man all through — a man in whom the people could easily believe; they know his voice, the very intonation of kindness, they looked looked upon his strong, lithe, form, have seen the gleam of his honest eyes, and felt the presence of a man — a man who wants nothing and gives much—a man who has given more than his life for this country's education. When asked as to how he came to turn his minds towards educational improvement; if it was want of education in his own life, etc., he smilingly replied: “Want of education applies to all mankind.” So there is the keynote to his benevolence, the subtle basis of his scientific economy for education.

In the little Central Academy at Charlottetown, P.E.I., the future millionaire, knight and benefactor, was educated, his capacity for absorbing knowledge was early marked. The traits of the rugged Scottish ancestry were his, even to a theological stiffness at home which robbed his mind of much of its humor. In fact, it is well known that reformers must be color-blind — they see only red or purple and nothing else. Young Macdonald left home early, and, to use his own expression, he escaped much religious rigidity. Morgan's Book of Men states that he was of Roman Catholic family. This is wrong. He is opposed in toto to the Roman Catholic doctrines and to much of the Protestant.

His parents, though not wealthy, were people of prominence, and were, best of all, thinking people. His father, Donald Macdonald, was a well-known figure in the East, and was for some time President of the Legislative Council of Prince Edward Island. His mother, Anna Matilda Brecken, came of good old United Empire Loyalist stock, and was very fond of William, her youngest son.

She it was who instilled into the young man the right principles of life, the careful thrift and the evenness of mind which have served him well. It is said by those who know that Sir William's abiding affection for his mother prevented him from marrying at an early age, so he never took the step at all. It is, however, from his grandfather, that Sir William inherits much ability. He was Captain John Macdonald, eighth chieftain of the Clan Macdonald, of Glenaladale. He was a leader of men and a benefactor, living a life devoted to public good. After founding the sterling Scotch settlements of Tracadie, Scotchforth, Glenfinnin and Fort Augustus, all known throughout the province of Prince Edward Island to-day for their sound Scotch worth, he served through the American War as captain of the Royal Highland Emigrant Regiment, organized by Col. Allan Maclean for the defence of Quebec.

His young grandson was proud of his stirring parents, and it is easy to see that Sir William inherited the power to lead and rule men, by his mental strength, his excellent physique and the combination of poise and sympathy which go to make up the equipment. The Macdonalds were like most of their race; they always bought the things they should have bought and never left unsold the things they should have worked off. William was at work early, although he acquired a fine education.

He spent one year in the employ of Daniel Brennan, in Charlottetown, which is merely an incident, and is more honor to that man than to Sir William now as it was really the only man he ever worked for. At 20 years of age, a time when most young men are just beginning to find their feet and often are just “getting out of college,” young Macdonald left his native district and started business for himself as an importer and commission merchant in Montreal, subsequently going into the tobacco business. From crudest beginnings he has developed an immense business, and, incidentally, a large fortune. fortune Employment is given to a large number of hands and the business ranks as one of Canada's leading enterprises. His business methods and his opinions have been kept as secret as if in watertight compartments. Even in the matter of his donations to McGill College, he loathes even the mentioning of it. He has given nearly two millions of money alone to McGill, to say nothing of his five-million dollar college bearing his own name at St. Anne de Bellevue, and his hundreds of thousands distributed in other ways. He is the largest shareholder in Canada's largest bank, the Montreal; is a director of it, as well as many other important financial and commercial institutions, is life governor of many charitable and beneficent institutions and a supporter of many unknown to the public, yet he holds up his hands in apparent agony and cries out:—“LEAVE ME ALONE. I DO NOT WISH TO HEAR ABOUT IT.” Though Sir William seems to have shut himself in, he has never been a recluse, nor has he ever been in danger of dying at the top from mental asphyxiation.

Asked why he did not now advertise his tobacco, he said he had for years used the papers freely. This, with a good factory system and a very high quality in his products, laid the foundation for the largest individually owned tobacco business in the world. He would have been equally successful in any other business. The methods he employed in his career form the strongest object lesson for the present-day business man. Questioned further about his business and some of his peculiar methods, Sir William said he would be shocked to have any reference to his private business.

Many acts of munificence to many charities, kindnesses to old employees, donations to needy and suffering ones, are known to the writer, and when the idea of mentioning them was heard by Sir William he exclaimed, “Horrible! Horrible! I am sorry I ever met you.” What then can be done to dissipate the misunderstanding that is abroad among such men. Self-seekers invariably brand such a man as the “meanest man on earth,” “an old curmudgeon,” “a miserly millionaire,” “he made his money by grinding down his staff,” etc., and all the other puling stuff that is emitted from incapables and jealous fortune seekers who hate, because this man or that man declines to dip down into his pocket and pass out his hard-earned money whenever asked.

“Misunderstood, indeed! It is a right fool's word. Is it so bad, then to be misunderstood? Carnegie was misunderstood, and Rockefeller and Strathcona and Mount Stephen, and every pure and wise spirit that ever took flesh.

Sir William is on close and friendly terms with many of Canada's greatest men. He is friendly with his employees and most of his customers. He does not dictate their religious opinions or tell them how they shall vote. He respects their convictions and they respect his. He has made money and is making money. But his first object in life has never been to make money—it is to be true to himself and serve the public. He has been well paid for his services.

“There is that which scattereth and yet increaseth,” etc. Cool, practical and courageous, his feet are always on the earth, even though his head may be sometimes in the clouds.

Think what it would mean to have his services at the disposal of the nation. Firm, resolute and incorruptible, unmoved by flattery, unshaken by fear, just and tenacious in conviction, he has enriched Canada by a modest and noble example of strength and fidelity. He has given a rebirth to education; has quickened the aspiration of our children and planted firmly a heritage worth more far than a mint of gold.

In this home, and this is dangerous ground, as far as displeasing Sir is concerned — one finds all the earmarks of a voracious student. He has a fondness for fine books, loves the work of fine artists and engravers; joys in communing with the thoughts of great souls who have worked and loved and failed and died to help the world's freedom. That he thinks his own thoughts or is a free-thinker is his own business. He is familiar with Emerson, Carlyle, Darwin, Huxley, Spencer and Morris. His heroes are men like Benjamin Franklin, Abraham Lincoln, and Thomas Paine.

The students at McGill convocations have been heard to say, “Bill, we need the money.” But Sir William only smiles and gives more. Those who do not care for him do not know him.

Those who think Sir William anything other than a high-minded gentleman of superior attainments, are like the old maid who had a profound belief in the rascality of man—it was all founded upon hearsay.

The man is a picture of what is known as character. Character is like an Alexandrian puzzle; read it backward, forward or across and it still reads the same thing. He wears a full beard which is now flecked with grey, but to see that long, square, lower jaw, with the chin almost sticking out, it is so prominent; pursed lips, the long, nicely curved nose, with just the hint of a hook, topped by a broad, well-shaped bare head, the forehead bulging out just over the eyes which twinkle through his glasses, and the thoughts of mastery, control, serenity — success strike one with even ordinary observation. The face itself is smooth and rosy as if its owner had never known a care, while at seventy—even he walks as straight as a lance and with a step as firm as a lad of twenty.

At Christmas, 1898, he was knighted by her Majesty Queen Victoria, for his services to education. His great work has been, however, latterly. Jas. Wilson Robertson, now principal of the Macdonald College at St. Anne, had been for many years very successful in Canada as a dairy expert, and later as Agriculture Commissioner for the Dominion. Some years ago he had a plan for interesting the young people of the Dominion in the work of agriculture. He had offered $100 in prizes to boys and girls who would send him the largest heads of wheat and oats from their father's farms.

The response was most gratifying and Prof. Robertson saw its future possibilities. He enlisted the support of Sir William Macdonald, who offered $10,000 as prizes. As a result the yields of grains increased 27 and 28 per cent., and from this movement has grown the Canadian Seed Growers' Association, who estimate that in three years crops have been increased in value by half a million dollars.

From seed grain Professor Robertson interested Sir William in manual training. Professor Robertson had studied the best systems in vogue in the United States, England and elsewhere and adapted their best features to his manual training schools. He founded twenty-one of these, attended by 7,000 children. Sir William contributed the whole cost for three years, and then left the municipalities free to continue the schools if they wished. In every case they have been continued, and the movement is spreading rapidly. In Ontario the number grew from three to foty.

Another move was to consolidate rural schools. Professor Robertson took up this work with his characteristic energy and again enlisted the sympathies of Sir William Macdonald. In these consolidated schools the course was broadened to include gardening, sewing, cooking and manual training. Dr. Robertson felt that our elementary education system was too bookish, that it did not appeal to the skill of hand and eye which calls out intelligence, and prepares for the home, the farm and workshop, or the mill, where most boys and girls spend their lives. These schools were successful beyond all anticipation. The attendance was larger, the education better and broader, the results more permanent and effective. In these schools selected seed was sown in the gardens, attention paid to the value of rotation of crops, the protection of crops against insects and fungus diseases.

The educational movement of these two men was now so broad that teachers were required to be trained. Recognizing this need, Sir William has provided at Guelph two large buildings fully equipped for instruction of teachers. Here are courses in manual training, household science, cooking sewing, etc; also a course in nature study and gardening. At St. Anne he has taken all that he found best at Guelph and in other colleges, and combined them into a system as unique and perfect as is possible to obtain.

The farm consists of 561 acres, divided into three parts; the campus, 74 acres, with plots for illustration and research in grains, grasses and

SIR WM. MACDONALD AND WHAT HE HAS DONE FOR EDUCATION IN CANADA

Some Striking Characteristics of the Man Who Stands Alone as One of the World's Greatest Reformers.

(By C. D. Cliffe)

("I am a solitary man. I do my own thinking. I do my own acting; I am sorry you ever suggested the idea of writing anything about me because I do not like it."

So spoke Sir William C. Macdonald, the other day, the noted philanthropist, benefactor to McGill University, and education generally, and highly successful business man of Montreal. This, then, in one paragraph, explains one side of the man. To call him a merchant prince would be no compliment. To say anything but just plain unvarnished truth would be a waste. Cut out all platitudes, and Sir William stands alone as one of the world's greatest reformers. His manifest donations to education running into millions have established a monument to his memory "more lasting than bronze," especially as it will dispense through countless generations numberless blessings to the land he serves.

"A foolish consistency is the hobgoblin of little minds, adored by little statesmen, philosophers and divines. With consistency, a great soul has nothing to do." So wrote Emerson and it applies aptly to such benefactors, when the fanatics say, "How did he make his money?" "Is it tainted?" "How much did he pay his half-capable employee whom he discharged?" etc., "Whisper it not in Gath," etc., for it would be a weary world were it not for the open-handed generosity of the Carnegies, the Strathconas, the Mount Stephens and the Macdonalds.

Sir William Macdonald has been over half a century in the tobacco business. He has always been as near independent as human beings can be, because he believed early that when men get the crook out of their backs and the hinges out of their knees and the cringe out of their souls they are free.

From his earliest childhood in Glenaladale, PEI., where he was born in 1831, his dominant characteristic has been thoroughness, an ambition to be first in his studies, first in competitive games in the field, and, later, first in affairs. Those who have known him all these years believe him to be just such a man all through—a man in whom the people could easily believe; they know his voice, the very intonation of kindness, they looked upon his strong, lithe, form, have seen the gleam of his honest eyes, and felt the presence of a man—a man who wants nothing and gives much—a man who has given more than his life for this country's education. When asked as to how he came to turn his mind towards educational improvement, if it was want of education in his own life, etc., he smilingly replied: "Want of education applies to all mankind." So there is the keynote to his benevolence, the subtle basis of his scientific economy for education.

PROF. J. W. ROBERTSON
To whom Sir Wm. MacDonald Entrusted the work of founding the MacDonald College at St. Anne de Bellevue

In the little Central Academy at Charlottetown, PEI., the future millionaire, knight and benefactor, was educated, his capacity for absorbing knowledge was early marked. The traits of the rugged Scottish ancestry were his, even to a theological stiffness at home which robbed his mind of much of its humor. In fact, it is well known that reformers must be single-minded — they see only red or purple and nothing else. Young Macdonald left home early, and, to use his own expression, he escaped much religious rigidity. Morgan's Book of Men states that he was of Roman Catholic family. This is wrong. He is opposed in toto to the Roman Catholic doctrines and to much of the Protestant.

His parents, though not wealthy, were people of prominence, and were, best of all, thinking people. His father, Donald Macdonald, was a well-known figure in the East, and was for some time President of the Legislative Council of Prince Edward Island. His mother, Anna Matilda Brecken, came of good old United Empire Loyalist stock, and was very fond of William, her youngest son.

She it was who instilled into the young man the right principles of life, the careful thrift and the evenness of mind which have served him well. It is said by those who know that Sir William's abiding affection for his mother prevented him from marrying at an early age, so he never took the step at all. It is, however, from his grandfather, that Sir William inherits much ability. He was Captain John Macdonald, eighth chieftain of the Clan Macdonald, of Glenaladale. He was a leader of men and a benefactor, living a life devoted to public good. After founding the sterling Scotch settlements of Tracadie, Scotchforth, Glenfinnin and Fort Augustus, all known throughout the province of Prince Edward Island to-day for their sound Scotch worth, he served through the American War as captain of the Royal Highland Emigrants Regiment, organized by Col. Allan Maclean for the defense of Quebec.

His young grandson was proud of his stirring parents, and it is easy to see that Sir William inherited the power to lead and rule men, by his mental strength, his excellent physique and the combination of poise and sympathy which go to make up the equipment. The Macdonalds were like most of their race, they always bought the things they should have bought and never left unsold the things they should have workdd off. William was at work early, although he acquired a fine education.

He spent one year in the employ of Daniel Brennan, in Charlottetown, which is merely an incident, and is more honor to this man than to Sir William now as it was really the only man he ever worked for. At 20 years of age, a time when most young men are just beginning to find their feet and often are just "getting out of college," young Macdonald left his native district and started business for himself as an importer and commission merchant in Montreal, subsequently going into the tobacco business. From crudest beginnings he has developed an immense business, and, incidentally, a large fortune. Employment is given to a large number of hands and the business ranks as one of Canada's leading enterprises. His business methods and his opinions have been kept as secret as it in watertight compartments. Even in the matter of his donations to McGill College, he loathes even the mentioning of it. He has given nearly two millions of money alone to McGill, to say nothing of his five-million dollar college bearing his own name at St. Anne de Bellevue, and his hundreds of thousands distributed in other ways. He is the largest shareholder in Canada's largest bank, the Montreal; is a director of it, as well as many other important financial and commercial institutions, is life governor of many charitable and beneficent institutions and a supporter of many unknown to the public, yet he holds up his hands in apparent agony and cries out:—"LEAVE ME ALONE. I DO NOT WISH TO HEAR ABOUT IT." Though Sir William seems to have shut himself in, he has never been a recluse, nor has he ever been in danger of dying at the top from mental asphyxiation.

Asked why he did not now advertise his tobacco, he said he had for years used the papers freely. This, with a good factory system and a very high quality in his product, laid the foundation for the largest individually owned tobacco business in the world. He would have been equally successful in any other business. The methods he employed in his career form the strongest object lesson for the present-day business man. Questioned further about his business and some of his peculiar methods, Sir William said he would be shocked to have any reference to his private business.

Many acts of munificence to many charities, kindnesses to old employees, donations to needy and suffering ones, are known to the writer, and when the idea of mentioning them was heard by Sir William he exclaimed, "Horrible! Horrible! I am sorry I ever met you." What then can be done to dissipate the misunderstanding that is abroad among such men. Self-seekers invariably brand such a man as the "meanest man on earth," "an old curmudgeon," "a miser millionaire," "he made his money by grinding down his staff," etc., and all the other puling stuff that is emitted from incapables and jealous fortune seekers who hate, because this man or that man declines to dip down into his pocket and pass out his hard-earned money whenever asked.

"Misunderstood, indeed! It is a right poor word. Is it so bad, then to be misunderstood? Carnegie was misunderstood, and Rockefeller and Strathcona and Mount Stephen, and every pure and wise spirit that ever took flesh.

Sir William is on close and friendly terms with many of Canada's greatest men. He is friendly with his employees and most of his customers. He does not dictate their religious opinions or tell them how they shall vote. He respects their convictions and they respect his. He has made money and is making money. But his first object in life has never been to make money—if is to be true to himself and serve the public. He has been well paid for his services.

"There is that which scattereth and yet increaseth," etc. Cool, practical and courageous, his feet are always on the earth, even though his head may be sometimes in the clouds.

Think what it would mean to have his services at the disposal of the nation. Firm, resolute and incorruptible, unmoved by flattery, unshaken by fear, just and tenacious in conviction, he has enriched Canada by a modest and noble example of strength and fidelity. He has given a rebirth to education; has quickened the aspiration of our children and planted firmly a heritage worth more far than a mint of gold.

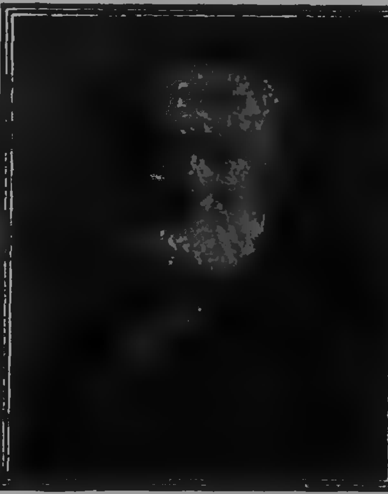
In his home, and this is dangerous ground, as far as displeasing Sir is concerned — one finds all the earmarks of a voracious student. He has a fondness for fine books, loves the work of fine artists and engravers; joys in communing with the thoughts of great souls who have worked and loved and failed and die to help the world's freedom. That he thinks his own thoughts or is a free-thinker is his own business. He is familiar with Emerson, Carlyle, Darwin, Huxley, Spencer and Morris. His heroes are men like Benjamin Franklin, Abraham Lincoln, and Thomas Paine.

The students at McGill convocations have been heard to say, "Bill, we need the money." But Sir William only smiles and gives more. Those who do not care for him do not know him.

Those who think Sir William anything other than a high-minded gentleman of superior attainments, are like the old maid who had a profound belief in the rascality of man—it was all founded upon hearsay.

The man is a picture of what is known as character. Character is like an Alexandrian puzzle; read it backward, forward or across and it still reads the same thing. He wears a full beard which is snowflecked with grey, but to see that long, square, lower jaw, with the chin almost sticking out, it is so prominent; pursed lips, the long, nicely curved nose, with just the hint of a book, topped by a broad, well-shaped bare head, the forehead bulging out just over the eyes which twinkle through his glasses, and the thought of mastery, control, serenity — success strike one with even ordinary observation. The face itself is smooth and rosy as if its owner had never known a care, while at seventy-seven he walks as straight as a lance and with a step as firm as a lad of twenty.

At Christmas, 1898, he was knighted by her Majesty Queen Victoria, for his services to education. His great work has been, however, latterly. Jas. Wilson Robertson, now principal of the Macdonald College at St. Anne, had been for many years very successful in Canada as a dairy expert, and later as Agriculture Commissioner for the Dominion. Some years ago he had a plan for interesting the young people of the Dominion in the work of agriculture. He had offered $100 in prizes to boys and girls who would send him the largest heads of wheat and oats from their father's farms.



SIR WILLIAM MacDONALD.

The response was most gratifying and Prof. Robertson saw its future possibilities. He enlisted the support of Sir William Macdonald, who offered $10,000 as prizes. As a result the yields of grains increased 27 and 28 per cent., and from this movement has grown the Canadian Seed Growers' Association, who estimate that in three years crops have been increased in value by half a million dollars.

From seed grain Professor Robertson interested Sir William in manual training. Professor Robertson had studied the best systems in vogue in the United States, England and elsewhere and adapted their best features to his manual training schools. He founded twenty-one of these, attended by 7,000 children. Sir William contributed the whole cost for three years, and then left the municipalities free to continue the schools if they wished. In every case they have been continued, and the movement is spreading rapidly. In Ontario the number grew from three to forty.

Another move was to consolidate rural schools. Professor Robertson took up this work with his characteristic energy and again enlisted the sympathies of Sir William Macdonald. In these consolidated schools the course was broadened to include gardening, sewing, cooking and manual training. Dr. Robertson felt that our elementary education system was too bookish, that it did not appeal to the skill of hand and eye which calls out intelligence, and prepares for the home, the farm and workshop, or the mill, where most boys and girls spend their lives. These schools were successful beyond all anticipation. The attendance was larger, the educational better and broader, the results more permanent and effective. In those schools selected seed was sown in the gardens, attention paid to the value of rotation of crops, the protection of crops against insects and fungus diseases.

The educational movement of these two men was now so broad that teachers were required to be trained. Recognizing this need, Sir William has provided at Guelph two large buildings fully equipped for instruction of teachers. Here are courses in manual training, household science, cooking sewing, etc; also a course in nature study and gardening. At St. Anne he has taken all that he found best at Guelph and in other colleges, and combined them into a system as unique and perfect as is possible to obtain.

The farm consists of 561 acres, divided into three parts: the campus, 74 acres, with plots for illustration and research in grains, grasses and

Central Canada EXHIBITION AT OTTAWA

Sept. 18th to 26th, '08

Displays will far excel those of any previous year. A Grand Pure Food Exhibit is to be made by Canadian manufacturers.

High class vaudeville programme will be given daily in front of the Grand Stand in addition to the horse races.

The night entertainment will consist of the latest comic opera "What Happened Then?" by the famous De Wolff Hopper and all star company. Popular prices will prevail.

A grand display of paintings and Ladies' Work will be made to signalize the opening of the handsome new fire-proof building, now being erected at a cost of $12,000.

The special attraction in front of the Grand Stand in the afternoon will include the latest European novelty "Del Oro's Performing Cows." This attraction is billed to appear in Ottawa for the first time in America. There will also be a most sensational automobile race on a specially constructed incline, the contesting chauffeurs being two daring young women. There will be balloon races daily with a double parachute descent from each balloon by the famous Prof. Hutchison and companion.

Get the official programme when issued next month.

Whence These Balls?

An iron ball measuring nearly four inches in circumference, and weighing three ounces, was found embedded in a rock elm tree to the depth of seven inches from the inner bark over fifteen feet from the ground. The tree stood on the farm of Mr. Stoddart, West Nissouri, on a piece of ground which at high water forms an island in the north branch of the Thames. It was found by a man engaged in getting out timber for a barn. A duplicate was found in a tree nearby.

B. C. Needs Teachers.

There is a notable dearth of school teachers in British Columbia. About ninety positions, with salaries ranging from $40 to $100 a month, are vacant. There are 400 public schools in the province, employing 775 teachers.

Nova Scotians Going Home.

The outstanding feature of the season has been the number of Nova Scotians who are returning from the United States to make their permanent home here. The financial depression in the neighbring republic is, therefore, operating to the advantage of this province. There are, perhaps, half a million people from the Maritime Provinces scattered through the New England States, and they are returning by the score on every train and steamer to the land of their birth. One steamer from Boston recently carried no fewer than eighteen families, with all their household goods, to Yarmouth. The exodus of ten and fifteen years ago has been converted into an influx, which bears testimony to the increasing prosperity of Nova Scotia.

This Snake Beats 'Em All.

Mr. Alex. Jackson of Mud Creek, near Gananoque, had an exciting experience with a snake recently. He saw a monstrous reptile grab one of his horses by the fetlock. He saw that the mower would probably kill it, so drove right on, and in a second or so the creature was minus its head. The reptile proved to be nine feet long, and over four inches in diameter. About an hour previous, Mrs. Jackson trod on it, but felt it moving under her and ran away.

The Maxim Gun.

The wonderful part of the Maxim gun is that it has only one barrel, and yet it can discharge 600 shots in one minute.

Butter And.

The French chef insists that the very foundation of all good cooking is butter and onion married in the pot. The Italian cucinaiere prefers butter and garlic. The Spanish cocinero seasons his dishes with butter and leeks.

The Zulu.

If he is properly led the Zulu does not understand the meaning of the word "surrender."

Old Iron Work.

In a dark corner near the west entrance of Winchester cathedral is a door composed of four pieces of iron grill work, which have the distinction of being the oldest specimens of their kind in England.

Amber.

Amber is found all along the Prussian shores of the Baltic, but principally in the peninsula of Samland. All amber found everywhere is state property, but the state cannot mine amber without the permission of the owner of the ground.

The Short Cut.

By MARTHA COBB SANFORD.

Copyrighted, 1908, by Associated Literary Press.

When Marjorie opened her sewing room window to let in the brisk morning breeze the picture she made in her white dress, framed by the climbing vines, was refreshing enough to make any passer by look up a second time. One did, though Marjorie was quite unaware of the fact.

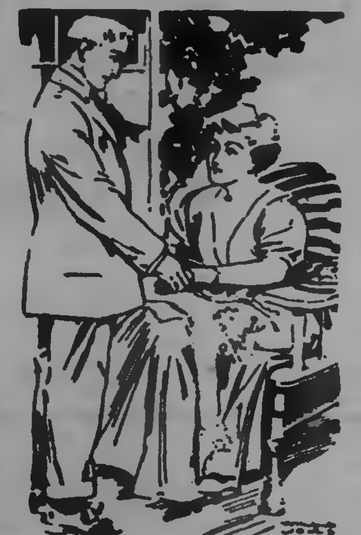
Her thoughts were as far away as the shadowy mountains beyond which she had lived her old and happier life. For several years now Marjorie's world had been on this side of the hills, so she sighed, sat down by the open window and began sewing interminable yards of lace on strips of fine muslin. The stitches were microscopic, as befitted the trousseau of a "daughter of the rich."

Half an hour later a whistle as spontaneous as a bird's trill made her jump up and again look out of the window.

In the young man swinging down the road Marjorie recognized one of the summer guests. He opened the gate and came down the path toward her window.

In her haste to escape being caught in the very act of provincial curiosity Marjorie dropped her thimble. It struck a stone on the edge of the walk and, with a metallic ring, bounded off into the garden. The young man rescued it most gallantly.

"It isn't every day a young man finds thimbles growing in a garden," he said, significantly dropping the silver trifle into her hand.



"DON'T YOU LOVE ME? DON'T YOU WANT TO BE MY WIFE?"

Now, Marjorie understood perfectly well his reference to Peter Pan's calling kisses thimbles, but she feigned ignorance. Diverting as such audacity might be, she must not encourage it, wherefore she said "Thank you" with austere courtesy.

"You are Miss Marjorie Phillips, are you not?" asked the unperturbed young man. "I started out very early this morning to find you."

Marjorie glanced at the thimble, which unconsciously she had slipped on its proper finger.

"There's no denying the evidence," she said, with a pensive little smile which crept straight into the young man's heart.

"I have a message for you, Miss Phillips, from my cousin, or, rather," he corrected, smiling up at her, "a request to make. Julia—Miss Robbins—has a friend visiting her and wants to know at what time she may bring her down this afternoon to see the things you are making. There; I think I got that right. Does it sound rational?"

"Quite intelligent," laughed Marjorie. "Please tell Miss Robbins that the exhibit will be ready any time after 2, which means"—

"Oh, I know," broke in the loquacious message bearer. "It means that I mustn't bother you any longer." Then he added mischievously: "I came by here an hour ago on my way to the postoffice, but was too scared to come in. It was lucky you dropped the thimble just when you"—

But at the word "thimble" Marjorie took flight.

"Well," called Julia Robbins as Overton reached the steps of the luxuriously appointed porch, "did you deliver my message to the village sewing girl?"

Before replying Overton lit a cigarette with exasperating deliberation.

"Yes," he answered at length. "I gave your message to Miss Phillips, and she says you and Miss Morton may come any time after 2."

"Upon my word!" exclaimed the astonished Julia. "'We may come,' and 'Miss Phillips,' indeed!"

"Look here, Julia Robbins," returned Overton feelingly, "I think it's an outrage for a little flower of a girl like that to be sewing her eyes out for another girl who happens to have money and can"—

"Stop right there," commanded Julia. "Catherine here will think you're a hot headed Socialist. Would you have me sewing my own eyes out perchance, dear cousin?"

"Well, perhaps I am a bit hasty, Julia," admitted Overton good naturedly. "Forgive me and tell me what you know about this little Miss Phillips."

"Nothing romantic, Garret, I assure you. Her family used to come here summers, I believe. And after her father died a bankrupt the girl took in sewing for the summer folks. Does that fire your young imagination?"

"And she supports herself and her mother?" inquired Garret, with cutting directness.

"Why, I suppose so," answered Julia languidly.

Whereupon, with a careless "Well, goodby; I'm off for a day's fishing," Overton sauntered away with little comprehension of the feminine consternation he was leaving behind him.

Julia was the first to recover.

"Don't you care, Catherine," she said defiantly. "We'll nip that little romance in the bud."

Several days later, upon catching sight of Marjorie at the window, Overton swung open the little cottage gate and called out cheerily, "Lost any more thimbles, Miss Phillips?"

Marjorie, her color mounting high, pretended not to hear and continued sewing with nervous haste.

"You have another message from Miss Robbins?" she asked politely.

"Not on your life!" was the unexpected reply. "I came on my own account this time, Miss Phillips. I want to ask you some questions."

"I'm very busy, Mr. Overton."

Garret noted the knowledge of his name. He remembered that he had not mentioned it at their first interview. So she had been making inquiries about him! She was more interested than she appeared.

"Do all girls think these frippery things a—a necessary matrimonial asset?" he asked, indicating with a nod the piles of snowy thin stuff on the chairs about her.

"Your cousin and Miss Morton are not exceptions, I think."

As she mentioned the girl's name Marjorie watched Overton's face closely, but there was no betrayal of any personal interest.

"Do you make a specialty of trousseaux?" was his next question.

"It looks as though I should have to," Marjorie answered. "As soon as I have finished your cousin's there will be one to make for Miss Morton, I understand."

"Really!" was Overton's surprised exclamation. "Who's the man, may I ask? You have evidently been taken into confidence."

"I've evidently been taken in," was Marjorie's scarcely audible reply as, with flushed cheeks, she gathered up her sewing and left the window.

"Well, by Jupiter!" exclaimed Overton as the truth of the situation dawned upon him. "So that's the game!"

Every morning thereafter, rain or shine, Overton bade Marjorie "Good morrow" at her window, for he had discovered that through her garden lay a short cut to the village postoffice. Marjorie, on her part, failed to hang out a "No Trespassing" sign, though common sense told her that she ought to do so.

But one sunny morning Overton, impatient, threw discretion and conventions to the wind.

"Little Miss Marjorie," he said pleadingly, "do you suppose I could persuade you to make a trousseau for —for my wife to be?"

The color flashed rebelliously into Marjorie's cheeks, and tears gathered in her eyes. One daring little drop slipped over her lashes and fell upon Garret's hand.

"Why, what is this, dearest? You're not crying? Don't you love me? Don't you want to be my wife? I thought"—

For answer the tired girl dropped her head on his hands, which still held hers, and sobbed softly.

But Overton understood.

"Marjorie," he said lovingly, "look up at me, little one."

Very shyly Marjorie lifted her pretty, tumbled head, then drew away from the window with frightened haste.

"They are watching us," she whispered from behind the curtains, "your cousin and her friend."

"I'm glad of it," Garret replied, with a laugh. "Do you think if I should come back tonight, sweetheart, that we could find any—thimbles—in the garden?"

"It will be pretty dark," she answered softly, "but—I'll help you."

Origin of the Cravat.

While every man wears a cravat, there is probably not one in a thousand who could in an offhand way tell you how it came about that men first placed such an ornament about their collars. The word cravat came into our language about 1636. Prior to that year a feature of the uniform of the Austrian cavalry was a wide band of coarse linen worn in folds around the neck under their short hussar jackets. This cavalry organization was called the Cravatts, its members being styled the Cravattes. Later in the seventeenth century France recruited a regiment of cavalry, adopting for it the uniform of the Austrian regiment recruited in Croatia, calling it the Royal Cravattes. Later in England the word cravat was applied to a neckerchief. After the battle of Steenkerke, in Flanders, in 1692, an English officer brought home the steenkirk, a long flowing neckscarf. The neckwear today is clearly traceable to the steenkirk and the modification it underwent.—Sartorial Art Journal.

A Proper Pride.

Farmer Green—D'ye remember thet ornary little Pimpernell boy thet helped me with th' hayin' last year? I give him $18 a month an' found. Well, he's got to be a right smart ball pitcher, an' t'other day a feller came along an' offered him $3,000 to finish out th' season with a perfeshunal club.

The City Boarder—Well, well! He jumped at it, of course?

Farmer Green—Not yet. Sandy Pimpernell may be a freckle faced runt, but he's got a proper pride about him too. He says that he don't know as he cares to be tied up to any team that looks like it might be a tail ender.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

HOW BRITISH TARS DIED

BRAVELY THEY WAITED FOR A WATERY GRAVE.

With Prayers on Their Lips and the Ship's Bell Telling For Chuch Service Seven Hundred British Sailors Sank on the "Glorious" Amid the Cheers of the Fleet—Bugler Sounded the Last Post.

The "Glorious" had been steaming at full speed on a starless night, without light, and had been run down by the battle-fleet, also taking war risks. She had been struck on the starboard bow, and her forebridge had gone by the board, taking the captain, commander and first lieutenant with it. For the moment authority was disorganised.

But for the moment only. Then a young lieutenant, in his pyjamas, took over the command, giving his orders as calmly as if a collision in mid-Atlantic, with a terrific sea running, was an every-day occurrence.

Within a minute from the first shock, men were picking their way with lighted lamps. The watch below, quiet and orderly, was streaming up the ladders to the upper deck. Stokers were clambering up narrow hatchways, or patiently waiting their turn.

There was nothing to be done. Water was pouring through the huge rent in the ship's side, preventing the watertight doors from being closed. "Collision quarters would have been useless. To jump overboard was absurd, with such a sea running. And there seemed but little chance of their comrades in other ships being able to launch boats, though they were working like demons. The men on the "Glorious" could hear the davits creaking, and the bo'suns piping shrilly, but not a single human voice.

Silently they stood there waiting, and silently their comrades worked.

At last a young seaman—a boy, scarcely out of his teens—could stand the strain no longer. He fell out, and, leaning against the rails, began to sob. An old tar bent over and touched him on the shoulder.

"Buck up, matey!" he said kindly. "Death's all right. And you've only got yourself to think about. I've got a wife and two kiddies—Heaven help them!"

The youngster pulled himself together with a jerk.

"Thanks, cockey!" he said huskily. "I'm sorry. But the country'll look after them."

Suddenly a deep throated cheer rose from the fleet; a boat had succeeded in getting away from a battleship. The searchlight showed the smiling face of a lieutenant in her stern as the cockleshell rose for a moment on the crest of a mountainous wave. Then the cheer died away in a groaning wail as the "Glorious" gave a mighty heave.

Her bows were already submerged, and her propeller, high out of the water, was racing and whirring and vibrating through the whole ship. With the last heave it stopped, and the only sounds were the wind screeching through the rigging, and the waves roaring their jubilation at finding an ingress.

The watch below had not yet escaped from between the decks; some stokers were still shut in the engine-room. The doctors were busy with the wounded, and a small party of men under a quartermaster, intent on making things ship-shape even in the face of death, were trying to secure one of the seven-ton guns.

And then a bell began to toll for church. The chaplain's voice rose above the howling of the wind. The ship gave another heave as a bugler-boy on the after-bridge began to sound the "Last Post."

Up, up, up went her stern. The men standing on the decks swayed for'ard, and a frantic shout came faintly from the officer in the boat:

"Wait—wait! For Heaven's sake, wait!"

The great cruiser shivered slightly, steadied herself, then, with a deep, shuddering sigh of escaping air—the regretful sigh of a gallant ship for her still more gallant crew—the stern of the "Glorious" disappeared beneath the waves, with her crew still standing reverently on the decks listening to the chaplain's prayer.

For one moment the wind ceased to howl, the waves to roar, and the spectators heard the last wailing notes of a bugle, and saw a small, blue-coated figure standing to attention, and blowing as he had been taught on the Eastney parade.

A great swirl of waters, a few figures bobbing about, a tiny boat straining forward. Then the swell subsided, the figures disappeared, and only the boat remained—buffeted, beaten, and tossed about, a speck on the mighty deep.

In the space of three minutes the nation had lost a first-class cruiser and seven hundred gallant men. And the officer in the boat risked seventeen more lives in his effort to secure a bugler's cap, which floated gently on a wave, as a memento of the way our British tars can die.—London Answers.

His Accursed Luck.

The intoxicated individual who, after bumping into the same tree thirteen times, bemoaned the fact that he was lost in an impenetrable forest is no greater disgrace to modern civilization than the hero of this story:

A citizen of Seattle who had looked upon the wine when he was no longer sure what color it was in the course of his journey home encountered a tree protected by an iron tree guard. Grasping the bars, he cautiously felt his way around it twice.

"Curse it!" he moaned, sinking to the ground in despair. "Locked in!"

ONTARIO RIFLE ASSOCIATION

Annual Shoot Will be Held at Toronto August 25th to 28th

Dear Sir,—There are a great number of riflemen, some of whom belong to the local militia, and some to rifle clubs in your vicinity, who cannot be reached through the Toronto press and who are deeply interested in rifle shooting. I am anxious to acquaint these parties, through the medium of your paper, of particulars of the annual matches of the Ontario Rifle Association, whose four days meeting will be held at the Long Branch Rifle Ranges on 25th to 28th August next. As you will see by the memo. of facts enclosed, a splendid prize list is furnished through government grants and private subscriptions, and I have no doubt a number of men in your locality would be glad to take part in the meeting if it were brought to their attention.

Capt. Miller encloses the following information about the annual matches of the association:

Date—August 25th to 28th inclusive.

Place—Long Branch Rifle Ranges, 8 miles from Toronto, reached by Mimico Electric road from Toronto, and on main line Grand Trunk, Toronto to Hamilton. Special train from Toronto morning and evening and several regular trains daily.

Accommodation—Tents and meals furnished on ranges at reasonable terms.

Prizes—$5,500 in cash and valuable trophies and cups.

Matches—19 matches, open to School Cadets, members of militia, rifle clubs and citizens. Special matches for Cadets and green shots and special prizes for green shots in every match. Entries already received from Halifax to Vancouver. Usual attendance about 350.

Railway—Single fares on application to local agent from August 21st returning to September 1st.

Entries—Should be made to Secretary, Capt. A. A. Miller, 152 Bay st., Toronto, by the 18th inst., after this date 10 per cent. extra charged. Membership and entries to all the matches about $10. Programmes mailed upon application.

ADVICE TO YOUNG COUPLES

INSURE NOW AGAINST FIRE!

Those starting housekeeping for the first time—on no matter how small a scale—should take the precaution of insuring their household furniture and other effects against fire. Whether in house or flat, there is always danger of accidental fires. Better provide against the consequent loss by having your property well insured. We'll give you the best policy.

THE WEARING OF AIGRETTES

Obtainable Only at Mating Season and Should be Sacred as Wedding Ring

A strong plea for the protection of wild birds was put in at the third summer lecture in connection with the University at Convocation Hall, Toronto, by Mr. Kelly Evans, secretary of the Ontario Fish and Game Protective Association. The destruction of wild birds he showed to be largely due to ignorance for most of them served a useful purpose in devouring insects. Mr. Evans' strongest point was an appeal to the ladies who predominated in the large audience which had filled the spacious building, against the use of the egret (or aigrette) for the decoration of their heads. The Queen of England, he remarked, would not permit the ladies of her court to wear this kind of adornment. The egret, Mr. Evans explained, was only attainable at the mating season and one writer had stated that the egret was "as sacred as the wedding ring." The egret was obtained from the snowy heron, a bird which was harmless to the agriculturist. Yet men, for the greed of gain, destroyed the bird. In spite of the laws which prevailed in some of the states, but if the women and girls would refuse to wear the adornment the destruction of the bird would cease. A large number of lantern slides were shown of various kinds of birds which frequent the province and the habits of each were explained. In almost every case Mr. Evans showed these birds to be a service rather than a hindrance to the farmer. To quote only a few instances the pigeon hawk had a most vicious appetite with a special taste for flying ants, yet sportsmen, for a display of marksmanship, found pleasure in destroying the bird. However Mr Evans expressed his conviction that when the real use of the bird became known its destruction would cease. Even the humble robin received a good word from Mr. Evans. "There seems to be no public sentiment in regard to him in the United States," he remarked. "People claim that he does damage to the fruit, but if you compared that with the number of insects he destroys you would find the percentage in favour of the robin. If farmers knew the value of the barn owl, the lecturer declared, they would see that it was not destroyed. And so in connection with many other birds to be found in Ontario. Mr. Evans showed that they did much good in devouring insects, grubs and seeds of harmful weeds.

The slides were loaned by the Audubon Society, a powerful organization in the United States instituted for the protection of wild birds.

IN FASHION'S REALM.

Cotton Voile a Cheap and Attractive Dress Goods.

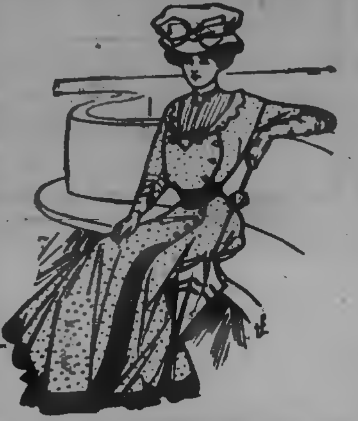
IT DOESN'T HAVE TO BE LINED

A Desirable Pattern Comes In Gray, Black and White in a Shadow Check. How a Gown of This Voile Can Be Made.

Are women sufficiently grateful for the invention of the cheap cotton voile? They should be, for it is a fabric that supplies many a need.

The weaving of it has been so perfected that even at small prices this voile has the most attractive appearance. It is soft, silky, sheer and delightfully cool.

It has gone through all the dyes necessary to fit it for a fashionable fabric.



A GRAY CHECKED FROCK.

In this respect it has no superior, not even in satin crepe de chine, which seems to have done its best this year.

Cotton voile when it first appeared did not strike the popular fancy as it should. Women who didn't know passed it by for cheap taffeta when they wanted an everyday shirt waist suit. It was not until the second season they chose the other material.

You can do almost anything with this fabric this season. It ranges in the neighborhood of 35 cents a yard and is wide enough to cut by any pattern to advantage. In the faint colors, trimmed with lace and a little soutache, it can be worn with quite an air for afternoon and evening occasions. In substantial colors and not burdened with lace it makes the best train frock, office frock and one for general wear in dusty, hot weather.

It is a joyful fact that it does not need lining. There is something about this climate that is made distinctly worse by a lining in a frock. A woman feels a sense of relief in even touching a fabric that bears that magic explanation, "It doesn't have to be lined."

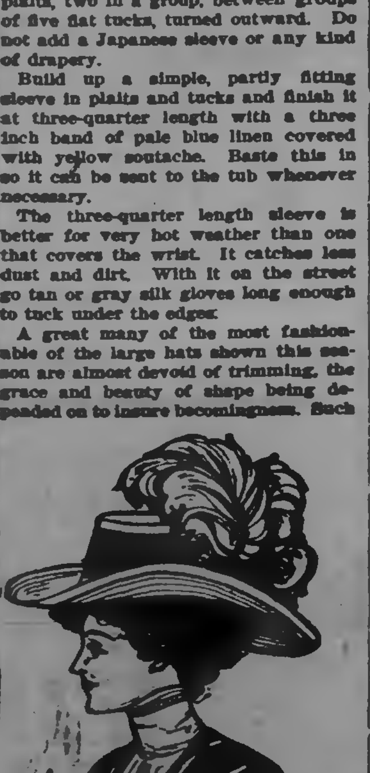
The skirt can be made by a seven gored pattern with two double box plaits in front and back. At the foot line may be put a five inch hem on the outside of bias facing. Cut it three inches from the ground, so it will have a chance of not touching anything.

Make blouse with small double box plaits, two in a group, between groups of five flat tucks, turned outward. Do not add a Japanese sleeve or any kind of drapery.

Build up a simple, partly fitting sleeve in plaits and tucks and finish it at three-quarter length with a three inch band of pale blue linen covered with yellow soutache. Baste this in so it can be sent to the tub whenever necessary.

The three-quarter length sleeve is better for very hot weather than one that covers the wrist. It catches less dust and dirt. With it on the street go tan or gray silk gloves long enough to tuck under the edges.

A great many of the most fashionable of the large hats shown this season are almost devoid of trimming, the grace and beauty of shape being depended on to insure becomingness. Such a model is here pictured. This hat was of fine white chip and was becomingly rolled at the left side, the trimming of a cluster of white ostrich plumes being placed toward the back at the left side.



WHITE CHIP HAT.

Light gray summer suiting is combined with black and white checked goods to make a dress. The waist and the skirt are sewed together, the closing being made in front. The girdle hooks under the arm. Narrow collar and cuffs of shell pink embroidered linen and a bow of black satin make an attractive finish to the gown.

AMY VARNUM.

Harvesters are carried on the CPR to any point east of Moosejaw for ten dollars.

SUMMER VACATIONS.

If You Live In the Country, Visit a City.

If your time is limited and your purse light, do not dream of impossibilities in the way of a vacation that can never be realized. Make up your mind to go near enough home not to take most of your time and money getting there.

On the other hand, go far enough away to get change of air. A visit to the suburbs will give you rest, but will not give you the tonic of change.

Try in your vacation this year to get off from the beaten track. You want change of scene and thought as well as of air.

If your home is in the country, then, despite heat, you will get more real pleasure and recreation in a week in the city than anywhere else.

Get a room high enough to be above the street noises and dust, and you will not be unbearably hot at night, while the day is always endurable, even for sightseeing, unless you are unlucky enough to strike an extra hot spell.

There is much to do and see, and in these days of trolleys and cheap water excursions there are plenty of chances for outings when you are tired of shops, museums and roof gardens.

The girl who is shut up in office, or store needs the country—not crowded summer resorts where there is no relief from people, but the real country, with green woods and pure air, fresh vegetables, fruits, rich milk and cream and absolute rest.

She does not want to keep on the go. She wants to rest, to build up her health and to get color into cheeks.

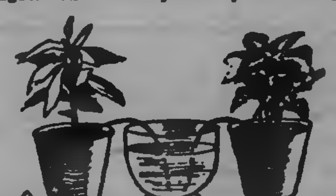
The gay vacation for the worker may be exciting, pleasurable, and the girl thinks she is getting all that is coming to her in the way of rest, but generally she comes home more tired than she leaves and finds too late that her long looked for vacation was a mistake.

Do your planning wisely. Don't think it necessary to half kill yourself getting ready. If your wardrobe is scanty go somewhere where few clothes are necessary and save the extra money for taking short excursions into the country or down to the shore on Saturday half holidays and Sunday during the rest of the summer.

IRRIGATION SCHEME.

To Protect Life of Plant While on Holiday Trip.

Holidays are very pleasant incidents in life, but they have their disadvantages. Should one possess plants there is always the difficulty of keeping them watered. This may be overcome in the manner shown in the accompanying picture. Stand a vessel of water near the plants and then beg, borrow or otherwise procure some pieces of thick wool. Place one end of each of these in the water and the other in the flowerpot. The wool will absorb the water, which will drip slowly on to the plants.



PLANT ALWAYS DAMP.

Gift to Jean Reid Causes Guessing.

One wonders what kind of wedding gift the Roosevelts will send to the daughter of Whitelaw Reid when she becomes Mrs. Ward. There are hints that the president is not enthusiastic about international alliances. He was positively angry toward Theodore P. Shonts when that man's daughter Theodora was married to the Duc de Chaulnes. When the duke and duchess were in Washington in the honeymoon the duchess, who had been on terms of intimacy with the Roosevelts, asked permission to call and present her husband. Miss Hagner sent a curt intimation that Mrs. Roosevelt would not be at liberty to receive the duchess at any time in her stay in Washington. There was great chattering in society about the incident and more still when it became whispered that the president had expressed frank opinions to Shonts about the marriage. So there is guessing about the greeting for Jean Reid, who is to be married outside the charmed circle of Harvard men, Republicans and rough riders, all Americans.

A Delicious Icing.

Put on a cup of granulated sugar with a half cup of water and let it boil without stirring until it spins a heavy thread.

Beat very stiff the white of one egg and into it pour slowly the hot sugar. Let the sirup cool a little before putting it in the egg or it will cook it. Beat steadily until the icing is smooth and creamy.

Just before it is too cold to stir longer add one ounce each of candied cherries, chopped citron, candied pineapple and blanched almonds.

The Four T's.

There are four T's too apt to run,
'Tis best to set a watch upon—

Our thoughts:
Oft when alone they take them wings
And light upon forbidden things.

Our temper:
Who in the family controls it best
Soon has control of all the rest.

Our tongue:

When silence is most eloquent.

Our time:
Once lost, ne'er found. Yet who can say
He's overtaken yesterday?

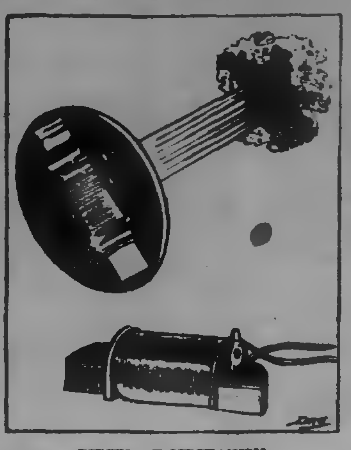
SMART TABLE LAMPS.

The Latest In Decorative "Wireless" Electric Light Apparatus.

A "wireless" electric light for dining tables, which needs no replenishing or attention, has been patented, the electricity being taken from the regular house service. The advantages of such a lamp are manifest, it is claimed by the inventor, when it is stated that no direct connection with the house supply is needed.

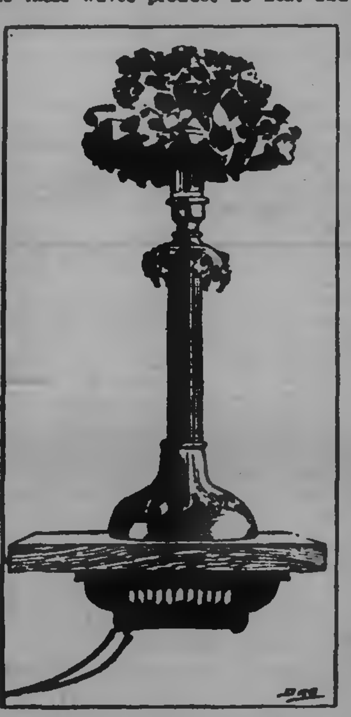
This freedom from connecting wires is the main feature of this device, the electricity passing directly through the wood of the table, silence cloth, the tablecloth and even a plate without making holes in or injuring any of them in the least. The usual portable electric light is apt to be unsightly because of the necessary cord. The working of this device can be best understood from the illustrations.



PIECES OF MECHANISM.

One of the pictures shows one type of lamp resting on a table, while below the table may be seen a special apparatus or coil. It is this lower coil which sends out the electricity to the lamp stand, and it is called the transmitter.

The reason why no injury is done to the table or cloth by the passage of the current is that the transmitter converts the house supply current into magnetic waves. There is no danger, as these waves produce no heat and no shock, and yet they pass through wood or even glass as easily as through air and reach the receiver in the stand.



A BANQUET LAMP.

It is not necessary to bring the house current only to the underside of the table, where the transmitter is permanently located. The lamp lights instantly upon being placed on the table over the transmitter and continues to burn until removed or until the current to the transmitter is switched off.

Rehearsing the Ceremony.

"These college girls," said a clergyman as he gazed at the white and superb ranks of the beautiful graduates, "are a boon to the race. They introduce new ideas.

"I christened the other day the first baby of a married college girl. Now, babies usually cry while they are being christened, but this one was as quiet as a lamb. Throughout the ceremony it smiled up beautifully into my face.

"'Well, madam,' said I to the young wife at the christening's end, 'I must congratulate you on your little one's behavior. I have christened more than 2,000 babies, but I never before christened one that behaved so well as yours.'

"The young mother smiled demurely. "'No wonder he behaved well,' she said. 'His father and I with a pail of water have been practicing christening on him for the last ten days.'

"The idea of rehearsing a baby for a christening! Who but a college girl would think of such a thing?"

A Cheap Writing Table.

An excellent writing table may be manufactured from two boxes, and if more pigeonholes are required four smaller boxes may be joined together on each side of the knee hole, instead of two. When nicely sandpapered, sized, stained with permanganate and finished off with varnish stain, this will form a very ornamental and solid piece of furniture, invaluable to those who write, says Woman's Life.

Do not be too sparing of screws. They cost very little. Begin by drilling a hole with a gimlet; then insert the screw, working it well in. The great disadvantage of all amateur work is that it is not done with sufficient care.

This is the best year in the history of the Niagara peninsula for gardens and orchards.

KISS DETECTED POISON ODOR

And Saved Life of a Woman--Sorry She Didn't Die.

Detroit, Mich., August 12.— "Something will surprise you folks before long," said Grace Komorsky, 19 years old to the family of her brother-in-law, Fred Jolly, 434 Monroe avenue, last night. Then she went to her room and drank laudanum.

But for a kiss the woman might have died. She awoke the family by her delirious raving at 3 o'clock this morning. Her sister, Mrs Jolly, hurried to her bedside. The sick girl did not recognize her.

"You poor dear," murmured Mrs. Jolly, stooping over and kissing her.

"Get a doctor, quick,' she exclaimed. 'Her breath smells of poison."

The doctor came and the young woman's life was saved.

The young woman was married about two and a half years ago. 8 months later her husband, Otto, left her. He is in Sacramento, Cal. During that time he has sent her 10 cents. He told her to treat herself. He sends her postal cards with endearin messages upon them.

Monday night she expected a telegram before midnight. From whom it was to be her sister does not know. It did not come. She bought the laudanum at a nearby drug store.

"I'm sorry it didn't kill me," she said after regaining consciousness.

DANGEROUS OPIATES

Most of the liquid medicines advertised to cure stomach and bowel troubles and summer complaints contain opiates and are dangerous. When the mother gives Baby's Own Tablets to her little ones she has the guarantee of a government analyst that this medicine contains no opiates or narcotic. And she has the assurance that no other medicine will so speedily cure stomach and bowel troubles, if they come unexpectedly. Give the well child an occasional dose of these tablets and they will prevent sickness by clearing the stomach and bowels of offending matter. Mrs. Wilbert Bone, Canvilla, Ont., says:—"I have used Baby's Own Tablets for stomach and bowel troubles and know of no other medicine so satisfactory." A COLOR BEARER.

Most people cease to celebrate
When ends the glorious Fourth.
It is not so, as I can vouch,
With James Augustus North.

I called on him one afternoon
When that great day had passed
And found the country's colors still
A-flying at the mast.

His face—all I could see of it—
Was blazing, burning red,
Contrasting bravely with the white
Of bandage round his head.

And when I asked him how he felt
He gave a loud "Booboo!"
Which proved to me that James August-
Us felt extremely blue.

Queen's Chinese Chow Dog.

Not the least important passenger by the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Ireland, which arrived at Liverpool from Canada recently, was a fine specimen of the Chinese chow dog, a gift, from King Edward's equerry, Col. Sir Henry Knollys, to Queen Alexandra. In order to acquire the dog Capt. M. H. Hamer of the 128th Baluchis, Indian army, undertook, on behalf of the donor, a journey of 12,000 miles. Connected with the Indian frontier forces, Capt. Hamer went from the Afghanistan hill station with which he was associated into the Chinese empire, and was there successful in obtaining a beautiful specimen of the chow dog, which in build and style of coat, excepting the color, which is a light brown, somewhat resembles the popular Pomeranian. Having acquired the dog, Capt. Hamer continued his journey to Vancouver and thence to Montreal, where he embarked on the Empress of Ireland.

An Ancient Drinking Game.

Drinking bouts have been accompanied among all peoples by curious diversions. Cottabus is the most classical, having been in vogue over most parts of the ancient world. The player lay on a couch and without moving his position attempted to throw from his goblet a few drops of wine at a mark in a high curve without spilling any of the liquor. The mark consisted generally of a little image of Hermes, placed on a bronze saucer, which sometimes floated on water, so that until it was filled by a sufficient quantity of wine to sink it the game continued. To play cottabus well was a mark of good breeding in Athens.

PURE BREEDS ARE ESSENTIAL TO SUCCESS WITH POULTRY

Quality an Important Feature in the Farm Flock---Demand for Good Poultry Has Always Exceeded the Production--Some Interesting Information for the Man Who Keeps Hens.

Most farming communities throughout Canada number among their residents one or more successful stockmen of whom all the rest are secretly proud, although they seem unable to follow the successful one's example. These successful men, as a rule, are not the 'dog-in-the-manger' style. Usually they are more than willing to give their neighbors the benefit of their experience and to tell the secret of their prosperity. What it is that prevents the others from going and doing likewise, is unexplainable.

GOOD STOCK AN ATTRACTION

A visit to the farm of the good stockman is a treat to anyone, whether he is interested in stock, or farm work, or not. The man with the scrub herd, on the other hand, has nothing to show and his farm lacks attractiveness. The farmer with good horses is always followed by admiring eyes whenever he goes out. The buyers look him up when they want something especially good. Another one, whose specialty is some pure breed of cattle, is a kind of showman. His neighbors' visitors are always trotted over to his place, to see his herd. His name, also, soon becomes known, and purchasers are plentiful for all of his specialty that he can raise. The sheep breeder, and the man with the pedigreed porkers, also occupy their places among the progressive ones in the neighborhood, and share a full degree of the prosperity that goes with that position.

POULTRY WORTHY OF OUR EFFORTS.

It is only the man who has devoted special attention to the care of a flock of pure-bred fowls, that is thought to be giving his attention to something too small to be considered of importance. That this idea is entirely erroneous is proven by the statistics of our country, as well as those of the United States. There the American Hen is discovered to lead every other industry by a large margin.

As in the case of the other breeders of purebred stock, many of the poultry farmers have gone right on, building up a fine flock, and a lucrative trade. They soon find their venture to be a paying one, providing a much greater dividend on capital invested than any other branch of the farm work. Such is no fancy picture or book logic, but can be seen at any time at many places within reach of nearly everyone.

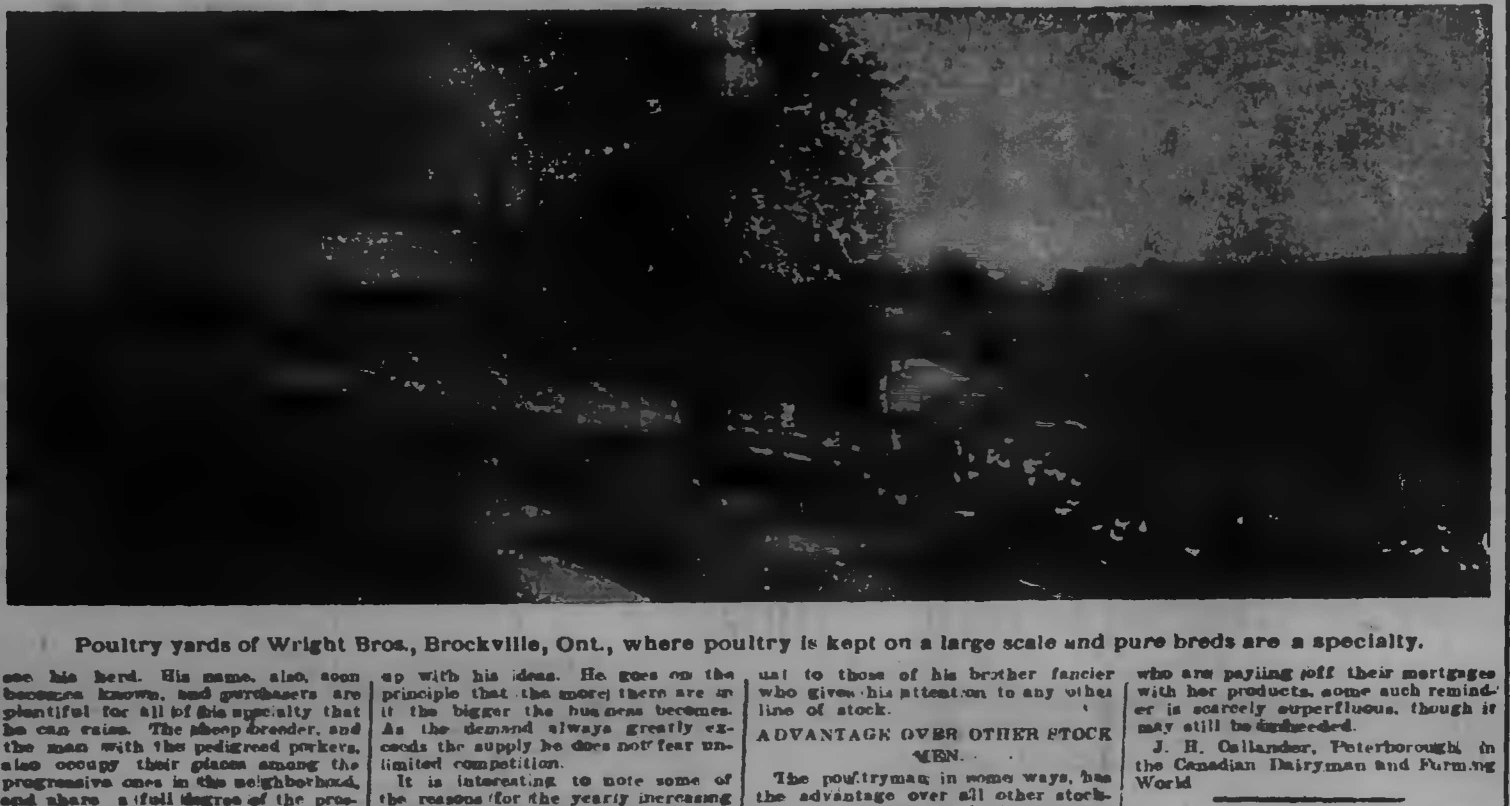
DEMAND GOES WITH PRODUCTION.

Like the other stockmen, the poultryman does not want it all. He is not hoping that others will keep out of it, and leave the profit to him. He is always willing to tell how he does it, and he hopes more will take up with his ideas. He goes on the principle that the more there are in it the bigger the business becomes. As the demand always greatly exceeds the supply he does not fear unlimited competition.

It is interesting to note some of the reasons for the yearly increasing demand for poultry and eggs. The first is the gradual education of the people to their use, just as a new community, in which a flower store opens up, requires a process of education to a freer use of flowers before a lucrative trade is worked up. The consumption of dressed poultry and fresh eggs increases every year, and the export trade is never fully supplied. England cannot begin to secure its supplies of poultry there, and has to import immense quantities from Denmark, Belgium and other countries.

DEMAND ALWAYS EXCEED SUPPLY.

It would seem that as the production increases, the demand grows proportionately greater, and there appears to be no chance of a glut in the market for a long time to come. Another reason for the consumption of the product of the busy hen, is the high price of all other kinds of meat. Dressed poultry, which at one time was considered a luxury, is now placed on an equal plane with the coarser meats, and hence has become a much more common article of diet than ever before. Considered by results, then, the man with forethought enough to give his flock of poultry special attention has good reason for so doing, and his prospects from a financial standpoint are equal to those of his brother fancier who gives his attention to any other line of stock.



Poultry yards of Wright Bros., Brockville, Ont., where poultry is kept on a large scale and pure breds are a specialty.

ADVANTAGE OVER OTHER STOCKMEN.

The poultryman in some ways, has the advantage over all other stockmen. His feathered flock increases and matures with great rapidity, and they are easily and cheaply fed on the farm, where they forage for a large share of their feed. A $200 cow may produce one $200 calf each year, but that is her limit, besides it takes two to three years for the calf to become worth $200, which is a long time to wait. The $1.00 hen, on the other hand, may, even without modern appliances for attention to the incubation, and brooding produce fifty like herself in one season. They will all be fully matured when only a few months old, and the process of reproduction may again be going on.

$1 TO $2 A HEN PROFIT.

This does not mean that a one dollar hen produces $50 worth of young chickens in a year, and there is a profit of $49. This case is given as a possible one, the hen, of course, being of one of the non-sitting breeds. No such profit is claimed for the the hen. But from $1.00 to $3.00 a hen clear of all expenses, has been, and can be, realized from a flock of pure-bred fowls.

Now-a-days, the careful poultryman knows every item of expense in connection with his flock. Likewise, he gives biddy credit for all donations to the family larder, or to the market basket. At the end of the year, the account, if the flock has been properly managed, invariably shows a balance in favor of the hen.

THE PROFIT IN PURE-BREDS

To those who think the same results can be achieved with the scrub hen, as with the pure-bred, it is only necessary to point out that the results are not being accomplished by means of scrubs, and they are with pure breds.

After all that has been written on poultry on the farm by poultry papers, it seems scarcely necessary to submit the foregoing matter, but while the profitable hen is still kept in the background, and her cultivation left to the few enlightened ones who are paying off their mortgages with her products, some such reminder is scarcely superfluous, though it may still be unheeded.

SMASHED ONE RECORD FOR LONG DISTANCE TELEGRAPHING

Chief Operator of the New York Sun Accomplished a Remarkable Feat in Connection With Denver Convention.

One record that was smashed at the Democratic convention at Denver, was for long distance telegraphing. The man who broke this record was Geo. W. Conkling, the New York Sun's chief operator.

Working over a wire that stretched more than half way across the continent, about 2,500 miles, Mr. Conkling attained the high speed of 3,136.20 words an hour, or 52.27 words a minute, a record which has never before been equalled anywhere. Furthermore, Mr. Conkling, in just twenty-eight working hours sent over the wire to the Sun (by the Morse system and using the Phillips code, a total of 73,000 words, an average of 2,607.14 an hour, or 443.45 words a minute. Much of the matter was sent from a seat in front of the speaker's stand in the convention hall while pandemonium was being raised.

The wire worked by Mr. Conkling was a duplex circuit, it really was four wires joined together by the Western Union Company for this emergency. It ran from Denver to Kansas City, thence to St. Louis, thence to Pittsburg and thence to New York. As everybody knows it is impossible to transmit sounds over such a long distance without the aid of repeaters, which are nothing more than automatic relays. These were at Kansas City, St. Louis and Pittsburg.

It is a great deal more difficult to send over a wire 2,000 miles in length than over one running, say, 200 miles. In the former case it is necessary, as the telegraph men says, to overcome the "swing" of the wire. That is, to overcome the tendency a wire has to make the clicks at the receiving end. To send a message of 2,500 words an hour, it is absolutely necessary that every letter should be distinct, otherwise the man receiving it will have to break in and have it repeated. The man at the receiving end of the wire that reached the Sun office from Denver, H. R. Clark, did not break in on Mr. Conkling once in three hours, a record in itself.

In the convention hall Mr. Conkling was not permitted to use the ordinary sounder. Instead of the usual instrument with its loud ticks that are so familiar, it was necessary to use what is known as a secret sounder. This resembles a watch and is worn strapped to the operator's ear with ticks not much louder than the ticks of a watch. Two of these were required for the duplex circuit, one strapped on the ear and the other one held in the hand, the latter being for messages coming from New York.

In the long session at which Mr. Bryan was nominated at 3.45 a.m. Denver time, words were flashed from Denver right into the Sun office at the rate of fifty-two a minute and were taken by Mr. Clarke on a typewriter without a break, the ticks of the instrument being as distinct as if the wire ran to Harlem instead of to the Rockies.

On July 7th, the first day of the convention, Mr. Conkling sent 14,750 words in five hours and 23 minutes, an average of 2,730 words an hour. On July 8th he increased the average to 2,949 words an hour, sending 8,100 words in two hours and 45 minutes, and on the day following the record was 4,750 words in one hour and 50 minutes, or 3,136 words an hour.

The last day of the convention Mr. Conkling sent 10,370 words in three hours and 20 minutes, or 3,111 words an hour, which was only a shade under his record of the previous day.

Not only is this put down as a record as far as long distance work goes, but there is nothing in the archives to show that it has ever been done over short lines.

Mr. Conkling has been in several tournaments. In 1903 he won a silver loving cup as the most perfect sender with a Morse key. Formerly he worked a wire famous for its fast service between the Sun and Chicago and had a record of 845 words in five minutes.

Mr. Clark, who was at the receiving end of the Denver wire, some years ago received and wrote on a typewriter a President's message containing 22,000 words in ten hours without misplacing a single letter or "breaking in" on the sending operator.

Sir Wm. MacDonald And What He Has Done For Education

flowers; the small culture farm of 100 acres, for horticulture and poultry keeping, and the live stock and grain farm of 387 acres. All the buildings are modern, fireproof structures, models of simplicity and good taste.

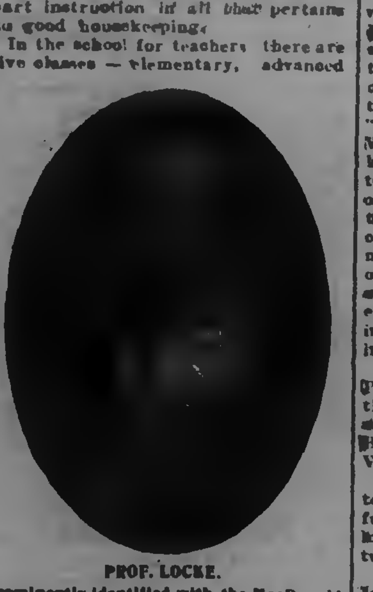
The college has three departments:

School for teachers which takes the place of the former Provincial Normal School. In this special attention is paid to the needs of the rural districts.

School of Agriculture, which aims to provide a training by combination of theory and practice.

School of Household Science, to impart instruction in all that pertains to good housekeeping.

In the school for teachers there are five classes — elementary, advanced elementary, kindergarten, model school instruction and pedagogy.



PROF. LOCKE.
Prominently identified with the MacDonald Agricultural College.

The School of Household Science gives instruction in a wide range of subjects, including the study of foods, cooking, housekeeping, economics, clothing materials, dressmaking, millinery, fuels, ventilation, home nursing, and hygiene, and home art. These courses admirably supplement those of the school of agriculture and show the wonderful educational instinct of the principal. In the School of Agriculture boys are taught how to win wealth from the soil, the dairy, the cattle farm and the poultry yard. How to earn a good income is taught here and how to spend it wisely and carefully is taught in the department of household science.

Professor Robertson's work has been a natural growth. From seed selection and manual training grew the movement to reorganize rural schools. From consolidated rural schools grew the plans for the great Macdonald College at St. Anne. The question naturally arises, Will he succeed in the larger sphere? To know the man is to say yes.

St. Anne has won more than a national reputation. Delegations from the United States and Europe have visited Macdonald College in numbers. Professor Robertson has so won the confidence of Sir William Macdonald that together they go forward developing ideas and applying them to the advancement of education and to "the building up of the country." Sir William has put over five million dollars into the movement for the betterment of rural conditions by means of education. Not many men are able to inspire such confidence as to receive co-operation and backing so magnificent. This is as true of the one man as of the other, for Professor Robertson says Sir William has ever been the predominant partner in ideas and good-will as well as in wealth.

Recently the Quebec Society for the Protection of Plants was formed at the Macdonald College, with Professor Wm. Lochhead as President and Brother Liguori, of La Trappe, as Vice-President.

The purpose of this organization is to study and control the insect and fungus pests that cause so much loss to farmers. Probably there is ture in this way as any.

It will help to show the cause of loss, and when the cause is defined the remedy will be more readily discovered and applied.

It has been said that Sir William's characteristic virtues are commonplace, and that it is easy to give money when you have it. Then may Heaven send us more such commonplace men. He has accomplished a work which would have broken a genius and driven a creature of public flattery to despair. If this be not greatness, no man need desire to be great.

His donations to education may be enumerated as follows:

$20,000 to endowment for Mechanical Engineering; erected the W. C. Macdonald Engineering Building, valued with its equipment at $350,000, with an endowment for its maintenance; endowment of Electrical Engineering with the sum of $40,000; erection and equipment of the Physics Building, valued at $300,000 and two Chairs of Physics, with endowments amounting to $90,000; the endowment of the Law Faculty with $150,000; a further sum of $150,000 for the maintenance of the Engineering Building; $50,- towards the endowment of the Pension Fund; erection of a new building for the Department of Chemistry, Mining and Architecture at a cost of $50,000, making a total of $1,650,000 in this list. In December, 1897, he founded a new Chair of Chemistry in McGill and contributed a further sum of $250,000 towards those departments with which his name was associated.

A short time ago the McGill Engineering Building was completely destroyed by fire, and it is now in course of reconstruction. Thanks also to private work on the part of Sir William.

BEFORE TREATMENT

AFTER TREATMENT

He was surprised at how the sores healed. "I took your NEW METHOD TREATMENT for a serious blood disease with which I had been inflicted for twelve years. I had consulted a score of physicians, taken all kinds of blood medicine, visited Hot Springs and other mineral water resorts, but only got temporary relief. They would help me for a time, but after discontinuing the medicines the symptoms would break out again—running sores, blotches, rheumatic pains, looseness of the hair, swellings of the glands, palms of the hands scaling, itchiness of the skin, dyspeptic stomach, etc. I had given up in despair when a friend advised me to consult you, as you had cured him of a similar disease 8 years ago. I had no hope, but took his advice. In three weeks' time the sores commenced to heal up and I became encouraged. I continued the NEW METHOD TREATMENT for four months and at the end of that time every symptom had disappeared. I was cured 7 years ago and no signs of any disease since. My boy, three years old is sound and healthy. I certainly can recommend your treatment with all my heart. You can refer any person to me privately, but you can use this testimonial as you wish." W. HIGH PRIESTESS OF LOVE WEDS A MONTREAL MAN

Head of the Notorious Love Syndicate Which Flourished Two Years Ago is Reported to Have Taken a Man.

New York, August 13—Mrs. Isela W Brown, high priestess of the House of Hearts and head of the notorious Love Syndicate which flourished in West Eighty-second street two years ago, was married, according to report from Boston, at St. John's, Newfoundland, on May 12th, to Robert H. Reid, formerly of Montreal. They were married at the home of Mr. Kenneth Prowse, by the Rev. Andrew Robertson. As the couple were unknown in St. John's, no attention was paid by the townspeople to the marriage, and it was only yesterday that the secret leaked out. The news will surprise score or more of ardent but disappointed admirers in this and other cities of the high priestess and her assistants, the late Bina Verrault.

Mr. Reid was formerly a contractor and builder, and at one time was a member of the New York Athletic Club. He will be known as the "Unknown Stalwart," who so vigorously championed Mrs. Brown's cause during the trying times following the discovery of the syndicate. He championed it so heartily, that she fell in love with him, although it is said that, up to the time of the marriage last May, she discouraged his matrimonial pretentions.

When the House of Hearts was disrupted the two "queens" separated. Mrs. Verrault went west to die at Tonopah, Nev., a short time ago. The two women had been friends for years and the death of Mrs. Verrault was a hard blow to Mrs. Brown.

Mr and Mrs Reid are supposed to be somewhere in Newfoundland at present, keeping house in the proverbial love cottage, while Mrs. Reid is engaged in writing her memoirs of the Love Syndicate with the aid of two Massachusetts writers, one a Boston newspaperman, who are at present arranging and classifying the scores of ardent love letters received by the Love Syndicate, with their answers.

Meanwhile many men who were visitors at the House of Hearts in Eighty-second street, are trembling lest their identity be so thinly veiled that they will be recognized in the train of admirers who paid court to the syndicate.

In the host are reported to be well known physicians, lawyers, ministers, brokers, senators and congressmen, to say nothing of one nobleman, reputed to be of the royal blood of Spain.

One dominie in a Jersey hamlet paid ardent court to one of the fascinating beauties of the Love Syndicate by special delivery letters. He didn't want to leave his happy home for her, so he proposed that she should go over to Jersey and preside over the parsonage and superintend the week-end meetings of the ladies' aid society. That he was disappointed in his matrimonial hopes, friends of the woman say was not strange, for it was crowns and not creases that the fair mistress of the House of Hearts was after.

The book which Mrs. Reid is compiling will contain hundreds of ardent letters from volunteer wooers such as might have been written in the ancient days of chivalry. It will be published in the early fall in Boston, under the title of "Members of the Love Syndicate."

SCOTT HAS A MARGIN OF NINE IN SASKATCHEWAN

Certain Standing Now is 23 to 14 With Three in Doubt—South and North Battleford, and Moosejaw County Have Not Made Complete Returns.

Regina, Sask., Aug. 17.—Latest election returns indicate 23 certain seats for the Government and 14 for the opposition, with three seats, South Battleford, North Battleford and Moosejaw County still in doubt.

Of the Government seats, new elections are certain in Lloydminster and Weyburn, as in the former, Lisle will be disqualified because he is a resident of Alberta, residing just across the boundary line, while in Weyburn Dr. Mitchell's majority of 28 is less than the eligible vote of a disqualified polling sub-division, where 63 electors were disfranchised because the deputy returning officer was not sworn.

The Liberals claim Kinistino, which at present figures in the Provincial Righters' column, and contend that Langley has a majority of 113 with two polls to hear from.

There is an evident discrepancy in figures, and if this seat goes Liberal the Opposition's total of certain seats will be reduced to 13.

Of the three seats in doubt, Dewar (Opposition) leads in South Battleford, but it is not expected he can hold the seat. In North Battleford, Finlayson (Liberal) leads, and will likely be elected.

Following are the seats, with majorities, though several of these are not complete and are subject to amendment as distant polls come in:

Liberals.

Arm River, George A. Scott, 146 majority.
Cannington, Stewart, 178.
Canora, Robertson, 251.
Duck Lake, Turgeon, 143.
Estevan, Bell, 300.
Francis, Stevenson, 100.
Hanley, McNeil, 64; one poll out.
Humboldt, Neely, 366; three polls out.
Moosomin, Smith, 70.
Regina City, Bole, 264.
Rosthern, Ens, 210.
Swift Current, Premier Scott, 277.
Saskatoon City, McNab, 77.
Saskatoon County, Sutherland, 15.
Prely, Johnson, 32.
Redberry, Langley, conceded with several polls to come in.
Saltcoats, McNutt, conceded.
Weyburn, Mitchell, 28.
Touchwood, Atkinson, 55; three polls out.
Wadena, Pierce, 386.
Vonda, Totske, large majority.
Yorkton, Garry, 223.
Lloydminster, Lisle leading and election likely.

Conservatives.

Last Mountain, Anderson, 146.
Milestone, Whitmore, 92.
Moosejaw City, Wellington, 81.
Maple Creek, Wylie.
Pheasant Hills, Willway, 250.
Pipestone, Gillis, 388 (opponent loses deposit).
Prince Albert City, Brandshaw, 186.
Prince Albert County, Donaldson, 165.
North Qu'Appelle, MacDonald, 115.
South Qu'Appelle, Haultain, 374.
Regina County, Tate, 341.
Souris, Riddel, 485.
Moose Mountain, Elliot, 85.
Kinistino, Johnston, 160; several polls to hear from.

EIGHT FAMILIES WERE DEPORTED

Forty-Eight English Immigrants Were Charge on Community.

Belleville, Aug. 17.—Eight English families were deported from Deseronto, near this city, on Wednesday last. They will be taken back to England.

The men were shiftless and would not work, and the town authorities declined to be burdened with them next winter. The eight families numbered forty-eight people in all.

It is said that other families will be sent back.

Is 101 Years Old.

Chatham, Aug. 17.—Philip Westmore, born in Kent, England, on Aug. 16, 1807, yesterday celebrated his 101st birthday, when a reunion of his family was held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Gregory, Gravel road, Raleigh Township.

Mr. Westmore is enjoying fine health, and since he passed the century mark he has only been ill for one week. He has smoked a pipe since quite young.

Launch Explodes.

Newark, N. J., Aug. 17.—Four members of a launch party were drowned in the Passaic river when the craft caught fire. The victims were Mr. and Mrs. Pankopen of Belleville, N. J.; Miss Catherine Ward of Waterbury, Conn., and Walden Davey, 20 years of age, of Belleville.

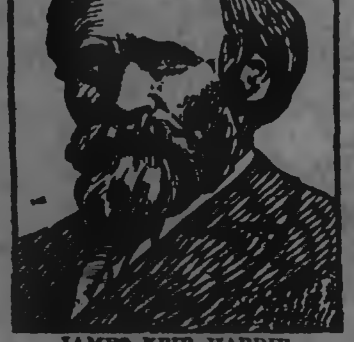
HAS SAILED FOR CANADA

Labor Member of House of Commons on Board of Hesperian.

Glasgow, Aug. 17.—James Keir Hardie, Socialist member of the House of Commons, left here Saturday on board the Hesperian, for Canada and the United States. The object of Mr. Hardie's tour is to try and amalgamate the American and Canadian trade unionists and socialists into one political organization like the British Labor party.

He will attend the meeting of the Trades Union Congress at Halifax beginning Sept. 21.

Before then, however, he will visit Montreal and other Canadian cities in connection with the C. P. R. strike.



JAMES KEIR HARDIE,
British Labor Leader and Socialist Member of Parliament.

Mr. Hardie states that these forces should be brought together for joint action at election times and can see no reason why this step should not be accomplished before the next Federal elections in Canada. With his wife and daughter he expects to arrive in Quebec on Aug. 28.

MANY DEATHS AMONG INFANTS

Sunday in Hamilton Saw Death of Ten Little Ones.

Hamilton, Aug. 17.—The deaths of no fewer than ten children were reported here yesterday. Cholera infantum was the cause in nearly all the cases. The bereaved parents are Mrs. W. J. Milligan, 190 North Wellington street; J. E. and Mrs. Hemingway, 168 Bold street; George and Mrs. Davis, 142 North Hess street; Joseph and Mrs. Cousins, 344 North Emerald street; George and Mrs. Clements, Hilliard street; Thomas and Mrs. Phillips, 38 Clyde street; Kenneth and Mrs. Keyworth, 16 Garth street. Mrs. Milligan's child was six months old and was born shortly after the death of the father, who was killed in a street car accident.

Three Girls Drown.

Grand Isle, Vt., Aug. 17.—Three young women who were staying at a cottage near Adams' Landing were drowned yesterday while bathing in Lake Champlain. They were Miss Lucy Perry, Miss Sarah Dissaway, Miss Elizabeth Dissaway, all of Plattsburg.

France Attracted to Canada.

Quebec, Aug. 17.—The Committee Dupleix, a body of distinguished Frenchmen, are on the way over to see Canada for the first time, to verify all the glowing accounts of this country's wonderful expansion and the possibilities for the placing of more capital.

THAW TRAGEDY IS REPEATED

Military Man Slays Publisher Over-Attentive to Wife.

New York, Aug. 16.—Captain Peter Hains, junior, son of Brigadier-General Peter Conover Hains, U.S.A., retired, fired five shots of a revolver into William E. Annis of New York, owner and publisher of Burr McIntosh's Monthly and other magazines, late Saturday on the landing stage of the Bayside Yacht Club, Flushing Island.

Annis, who Captain Hain's brother accused of having been improperly attentive to the captain's wife, died in the Flushing Hospital a few hours after the shooting.

A crowd of gaily-dressed women and yachtsmen, among whom was Mrs. Annis, witnessed the tragedy.

Overcrowding Trains.

London, Ont., Aug. 17.—William Mullen of Dorchester fell from a Pere Marquette Railway train and was killed, and the coroner's jury, while holding the officials guiltless, says:

"We feel that attention of the Dominion Railway Commission should be urgently called to the violation of the laws of the land by railroad companies in allowing passenger trains to be overloaded much beyond their capacity, and that more stringent measures should be adopted and put in force, so as to improve the safeguarding of human life."

Insane Man's Frenzy.

Kingston, Aug. 17.—Frederick Babcock, Verona, is locked up on a charge of attempting to kill his wife. He burnt down his house and attempted to cut his throat with a razor. He is believed to be insane.

Montreal Ladies Hurt.

London, Aug. 17.—(C. A. P.)—The Misses Kerry of Montreal have been injured in a coaching accident at Lynmouth. The elder had her collarbone fractured and sustained a severe shock.

FIFTEEN STORES WERE BURNED

Gore Bay Swept by a Costly Conflagation.

Gore Bay, Aug. 17.—At 1 o'clock yesterday morning fire broke out in the rear of Mutchmore's general store, and with the high east wind soon spread, and, crossing the street, cleared a strip on both sides of the main street to Bickle's store on one side and Dr. Johnston's drug store on the other. Both of these were damaged considerably.

In all fifteen places of business and eight residences were burned.

R. R. Gamey's new block and the Cement Block had glass broken only.

Both printing offices were burned.

Fatality at Montreal.

Montreal, Aug. 17.—Joseph Tremblay was instantly killed on Saturday afternoon by having his head crushed under the rear truck of a street railway dump car. Tremblay was working on the track and preparing to unload the car, which was full of earth. He was stooping forward when the car was dumped, crushing his head flat on the track.

Autos Cause Runaway.

Leamington, Aug. 17.—Two automobilists giving the names of George Piljemier and W. H. Glover of Detroit were arrested at London Friday evening, charged with having caused a runaway at Ruthven, where a man and woman was injured. They were released on bail pending appearance here for trial.

Chamberlain's Condition.

Birmingham, Aug. 17.—Joseph Chamberlain, who has returned from Valascure, looks well, but is unable to walk without assistance. A great improvement will have to take place before he can hope to have any share in political life again.

Explosion Kills Five.

Syracuse, N. Y., Aug. 17.—Five men were instantly killed and several injured by the premature explosion of dynamite at the plant of the Benson Mines Iron Ore Co. at Benson Mines.

Falls From Scaffold.

Kingston, Aug. 17.—John Prendeville fell 20 feet from a scaffold at the Royal Military College and had his skull fractured.

DOUBLE DROWNING TWO MEN PERISH

In Lake Waquekobing While Out in Canoe.

Thessalon, Aug. 17.—John Willan of Thessalon and Charles Pinder of Day Mills were drowned Saturday.

They had been across Lake Waquekobing in a canoe, taking Mrs. Willan with them. She was picking berries while they went for some logs, telling her they would return within an hour.

After waiting till near dark Mrs. Willan walked around the road several miles to her home at Day Mills and reported the matter. James Harris found the canoe upside down on the north side of the lake.

Yesterday morning letters were found floating on the lake, which had evidently dropped out of Pinder's pocket when the canoe overturned.

Willan leaves a wife and family of small children. Pinder was unmarried.

Three Are Stabbed.

Boston, Aug. 17.—During a fight on Atlantic avenue early yesterday morning between the crew of a train on the Union Freight Railroad, a local transfer line, and a number of Italians, Peter Needham, a switchman, was stabbed to death, Thomas Morse was probably fatally cut, and Thomas Curley, the engineer of the train, was slightly wounded.

The railroad men claimed that the Italians obstructed the train, and that in an attempt to clear the track the Italians pulled knives.

Three of them were arrested.

Was True Till Death.

Tombstone, Ariz., Aug. 17.—Gen. G. D. Wardwell died Saturday whlie in quarantine with his leper wife. Her sufferings from the combined effects of leprosy and the nervous strain following the notoriety of their case, has destroyed her reason, and she is totally unaware that her husband is dead.

Appointments For G. T. P.

Montreal, Aug. 17.—W. E. Davis will be passenger traffic manager for the Grand Trunk Pacific, G. T. Bell will be general passenger agent, and J. G. Quick will be general baggage agent. These are dual positions with those now held by the same gentlemen in the Grand Trunk Railway.

TRACKMEN ARE INJURED IN VICINITY OF PORT ARTHUR

Harvesters Throw Bottles at Section Men—Hoodlums Try to Upset Shack Containing Woman and Child Over Embankment.

Port Arthur, Aug. 17.—Word was received here from a small place east of here that when the train carrying harvesters to the West stopped for water on Friday a number of men swarmed off. Sighting a small shack of a section man they ran to it and endeavored to dump it over off an embankment. A woman and some children were inside at the time. Failing to dump the shack the men were planning some further development when the woman went back to the house and secured a revolver, and when they made a dash at the place she shot into the crowd. One of the men received a flesh wound in the neck. They then all ran for the train.

It has become necessary for section men engaged along the line to get to cover before the arrival of trains, as they become targets for bottles, etc. West of here many have been injured and five are in Fort William Hospital suffering from severe injuries caused by the throwing of empty bottles from the trains. The men are acting like madmen.

At larger places like Port Arthur and Fort William the men have been kept in subjection by police officers who are out to meet all trains. Some of the men on the trains state that some of the cars are continual scenes of disorderly conduct.

Winnipeg, Aug. 17.—Two of the gang of harvesters who have been committing outrages along the Canadian Pacific, were placed under arrest on reaching Winnipeg on Saturday. They were Charles McLean and William Gill, both of Truro, N. S. The specific charge is breaking indicators along the railway. They were involved in trouble at Chalk River. Instructions were wired from Fort William to have the depot closed at Winnipeg, so that others could be arrested before they escaped into the city, but the instructions were not followed, and eight other men wanted got away clear. They may be picked up later.

The gang comprised about the toughest-looking outfit that ever pulled into the C. P. R. depot. The majority looked as if the only water in sight along the route had been in the little lakes along the railway. Many were without hats, collars or ties, their clothing was torn and disheveled, and with the exception of a couple of dozen, all were dirty to a degree. Evidences of the drunken orgies were not lacking, and several black eyes were very much in sight.

Respectable passengers on the train had taken possession of a couple of coaches, and had prevented the drunks from molesting them. In these coaches the women had been collected, so that they had not been greatly distrubed, but all agreed that it was a trip long to be remembered. It was a constant nightmare of drunken rackets and fights.

WILL CONSIDER THE TENDERS

For the New St. James Church—Meeting To-night

Tenders for the new St. James' Methodist church in the south end of the city were received up till 12 o'clock today. A meeting of the committee to consider the tenders will be held in the Canada Life offices tonight at 8 o'clock. However if there are not enough tenders to choose from the time will be extended and the meeting will not be held until a later date.

LOTS OF DUCKS THIS SEASON

Prospects Good for Duck Shooting on Otonabee and Rice Lake

The Port Hope Guide says: The lovers of the grand sport of duck shooting state that present prospects for the coming autumn are fine, and that the opening of the season will find game plentiful in Rice Lake and the Otonabee.

From Hale's bridge down the young birds may be seen flying along the shores and feeding on the banks, and this fact has filled many a sportsman's heart with pleasure.

VIOLENT MOBS TERRORIZE THE CITY OF SPRINGFIELD

Four Dead and Many Wounded in Race War—Attempt to Lynch Negro Assailant of Woman Results in Fighting Between Whites and Black.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 17.—Two white men were killed, an unknown negro was lynched and nearly a hundred persons were injured and two scores of houses, mostly occupied by negroes, were burned Friday night as the result of an attempt by a mob to lynch a negro who had assaulted a white woman. After a night of riot, arson and slaughter the state troops were called out by the governor and succeeded early yesterday in restoring a semblance of order and stopping the fire. One thousand militiamen, including three companies from this city and companies from Bloomington, Decatur, Peoria, Pekin and Pontiac, are patroling the streets, and it is believed that further disorder will be prevented.

The First Infantry of Chicago was also ordered yesterday to Springfield on the first train that could be made to carry them. When this organization arrived the town was protected by three full regiments.

The negroes are well armed and showing a spirit of determination. The whites are in an ugly mood and farmers and men from adjoining towns are constantly arriving.

Citizens are leaving town and women and children are departing on every train and interuban cars for places of safety.

The rioting was precipitated by an assault committed early Friday morning by a negro upon Mrs. Mabel Hallam, wife of a street railway conductor.

Order was maintained yesterday only by the presence of 25,000 armed soldiers.

The race rioters who terrorized the city Friday night were held in general restraint on Saturday by the troops that were hurried to the city, but on Saturday night an 80-year-old negro, William Dinagan, a cobbler, and respected as a simple and unoffensive citizen, was murdered in cold blood, without cause or excuse, by a mob.

A crowd who tried to get at a party of negro refugees in the Armories was only dispersed by the use of fixed bayonets on the part of the troops.

CANADA GIVEN SEVERE REBUKE

Statist Says This Country is Presumptuous Regarding Immigration.

London, Eng., Aug. 17.—(C.A.P.)—In an article on "The Color Prejudice," The Statist remarks that Canada, with a population about the size ada, with a population about the size of London's, and occupying, or pretending to occupy, a territory nearly as big as Europe, takes upon itself to exclude Indian fellow-subjects representing a population equal in number to the whole population of Europe. The Canadian people, it says, have no right to take up this attitude except the right of mere brute force.

In regard to Japan, The Statist says that neither Australia nor Canada nor the two combined have power to exclude the Japanese if Britain stood aside.

NOTICE TO FILL THE VACANCIES

C.P.R. Gives Men Till Tuesday to Return to Work.

Montreal, Aug. 17.—The following notice has been issued by General Manager Leonard of the C. P. R. to the mechanics on strike at the various points along the line:

"The company will at 12 noon on Tuesday, Aug. 18, commence filling vacancies in shops and car department. Seniority standing of employes engaged in resuming work thereafter will count only from date on which they start work."

The men profess to regard the notice as a bluff and say the company has been hard at work trying to fill the vacancies.

North Bay, Aug. 17.—The strike situation on this division of the C. P. R. favors the strikers for the Chapleau and Schreiber shops are idle, not a strike-breaker being in evidence, while at North Bay the new staff is dwindling daily, six going out Saturday. Four of these were given transportation to Montreal by the company and two were looked after by the strike committee. The strike-breakers going out state that the living in the boarding cars is unbearable and predict a general desertion.

Ottawa, Aug. 17.—The Department of Labor a few days ago received a message from Moosejaw, complaining that the alien labor law was being violated at that point. A reply was sent, pointing out that the enforcement of the law was a matter for the aggrieved party and the local court. The procedure is for the person who desires to bring action to obtain leave of the Provincial Attorney-General or judge.

Slew Her Husband.

New York, Aug. 17.—Mrs. Rose Graziano, 19 years old, walked into a police station in Brooklyn yesterday, presented a loaded revolver to the detective at the desk, and announced that she had shot her husband, Dominick Graziano, an Italian barber.

"I killed him because he wanted me to become an immoral woman." Mrs. Graziano said to the detective, "Do you think I did wrong?"

WESTERN CALL FOR MEN

25,000 Harvesters are Needed and Good Wages Offered

Preparations have commenced in earnest for the handling of the Northwest's big wheat crop, the only difficulty experienced by farmers being the scarcity of labor in the harvest fields. To induce men to go to the West the C.P.R. has made the remarkably low rate of ten dollars from Ontario. This fare carries the ticket holder to any point on the company's lines east of Moose Jaw; trains are run direct to Winnipeg, and the men are reticketed there for the points where they wish to work. After at least one month's work in the fields laborers are issued tickets back to Ontario starting point at $18.00. Leaving dates of Canadian Pacific excursions are August 18, 19, Sept. 1, 9, from stations north-west of Toronto. Aug. 18, 19, Sept. 1, 9, from stations south-west of Toronto, and August 20, 22, 27, Sept. 2, 11, 14 from stations east of Toronto. The most important excursions are August 18 and 20 and on these dates special trains will be run from all C.P.R. stations, times of which agents will furnish. The C.P.R. is the only Canadian route to the West, and the only line carrying Farm Labourers through without change. Apply to ticket agents or C. B. The Daily Review

MONDAY, AUG. 17, 1908.

STILL INTERESTING

In 1908 there was published at Ottawa the Government Blue Book containing the full report of the Civil Service Commission, which report was submitted by the commissioners on March 17th, of that year. It dealt with the present condition of the Civil Service at Ottawa and with the act of 1908, which it will be observed is supposed to contain the latest ideas of the Laurier Government on that point. The report finds that the auditor-general in his evidence pointed out that in one department he did not believe in the certificates received. This is a very serious affair. A further remark of similar character will be remembered with regret. "Your commissioners are of opinion that in many instances stores are ordered unnecessarily and it may be doubtful that a good quality is always delivered." Last but not by any means least, was this ever-memorable clause in the report; "In this connection your commissioners respectfully beg to recommend that inquiry be made as to the working of the Prevention of Corruption Act of the Imperial Parliament passed in 1906 and the bribery clauses in connection therewith." This highly suggestive and damaging report was hailed with shouts of anger by the Laurier Ministerialists and Mr. J. M. Courtney, the senior commissioner and ex-Deputy Finance Minister, was subjected to copious abuse. The now famous finding of the commissioners who were appointed by the Government upon the demand of the Opposition, was but one more unveiling of years of corruption and consequent extravagance.

THE PREFERENCE

What is Great Britain doing for us in response to the Canadian Preference tariff? The character of the answer must, we are afraid, be that Great Britain is looking after her own interests and why not? Like the members of any other well-regulated family, we are expected to do the same. Another woollen mill "went up" yesterday—one of the fading remnants of a ruined civilization. It was a sacrifice to the preference. What sense is there in ruining our woollen trade? Are we to have our home market destroyed? This is the age of the capitalist, not of the capitalist-employer, but of the dealer in money. The eastern farmer, the manufacturer, the employer are all in the hands of the money trusts. It is also the age of railways here, there and everywhere. They may carry a party into power once, but not twice. They are sometimes a vast extravagance. Like one or even two suits of clothes, they are to that extent necessary, but more are a luxury. It has been abundantly proved on several disastrous occasions that it is quite possible to overdue the expending of monies in railway building. It becomes a cause of national indigestion. The liability becomes in time a heavy tax on the people ostensibly served. The enterprise instead of being of benefit to the people who ultimately have to pay for it becomes very frequently a mixed blessing and plague, a temptation and a snare. But the building of railways at the public expense when the public has not control of them is a crime. The same reckless policy with regard to trade will come out in about the same way. The financier gets the benefit of it. The manufacturer and employee lose the benefits of their work. No work is wasted. The value of it goes to somebody. In course of time the country feels the effects and bad times arrive. They are here now. The mills of Yorkshire that were formerly idle are in full blast supplying the Canadian market with poor stuff, while ours producing better goods at actually cheaper prices are made sacrifice to a theory that is wholly chimerical and false.

DEPRESSION IN BRITAIN

"Working people currently are not having a good chance to save money. Wage receipts in Lancashire cotton trade were over nine per cent less during June than in the June of a year ago. Of trade unionists in the principal industries 8.2 per cent are unemployed as against 3.6 Wage reductions have been enforced in several quarters, and others are contemplated. The home railways are paying shorter dividends, and the least pessimistic of commercial authorities now postpone the return to prosperity to a period from twelve to eighteen months hence."—(London correspondent of the Monetary Times.)

Wage-reductions, increase in number of the unemployed, shorter dividends from the railways, etc., all indicate a depressing state of things in Britain. We may rest assured that the persistent advocacy of Tariff Reform by eminent British statesmen is founded on the rising needs of the British people. These needs are exemplified in the unhappy character of the information which we quote. There is plenty of labour, plenty of material and plenty of means of fitting the one into the other in the world, and that these means should be cornered and controlled by the few expert financiers who live on this supreme necessity of life—cash—is a shame. The whole difficulty lies there. It will be for the next generation to liberate the employer and the employee alike from the clutches of the financier. It is better to have no intricate modern system of trade and commerce at all—better to get to the food provided by nature at once, as natives do, than that a confiding populace should be held at bay like a lot of hungry dogs, dependent upon a money-hearted master. The uncivilized races of the world starve only when nature fails them. We starve in the midst of plenty.

PUBLIC OPINION

What is public opinion? The opinion of the public when uninfluenced by side-issues or fits of insanity. A well-known local Irish-Canadian wit, a man who has sense and pride enough to know and feel that he is a Canadian, and yet of the Keltic strain, which, like the gulf stream, may wander far, but still remains warm and characteristic of its source, made that reply. It looks about right. Have we a public opinion in Canada? We didn't use to have any, but we have now. Everything was "separate and distinct" in the olden days. The family compact, the recent arrivals from the Old Country, prince or peasant, it made no difference, one was just as haughty as the other, the French-Canadian, and so on. Intensified by religious bitterness racial hate was strong. But there is little left of most of it now. Sensible people of all creeds and races have learned to trust each other, and that is the foundation of a true public opinion.

THE NEW IDEA

A political sermon of the right sort was the one preached by the Rev. Dr. Lyle in Central church last evening. The duty of every citizen to interest himself in public affairs national, provincial and municipal, and to assume the responsibilities of citizenship, was strongly emphasized. Dr. Lyle has no patience with those who hold aloof from politics on the plea that politics is a dirty business at best.—Hamilton Herald.

There is the usual recurrence of irritation in Canada concerning misgovernment, and particularly graft and uncleanness. The former is a matter of opinion, the latter of taste. It is a taste that like many another depraved taste must be put down. No elector can shirk his plain duty. Indifference is sometimes really laziness. At any rate there is a strong and united movement amongst the "silent voters" to straighten things out, and we expect "big doings" in 1908 in this province.

WHAT TALK WILL DO

"Public opinion in England has been stirred by the recent revelations of gambling at Lloyd's and the matter has even been brought up in the House of Commons. It is high time some steps were taken to restore the reputation, plainly besmirched, of one of the oldest commercial institutions in the realm and to protect merchants from unwarrantable loss. It is now known that eighteen persons, who had been taking, individually or in groups risks at Lloyd's upon a great variety of ventures—fire, marine and other—are unable to meet their obligations. Indeed, all the assets they are able to show do not, it is said, exceed the $45,000 each they have to deposit with Lloyd's committee, while their responsibilities amount to two millions of dollars. Besides, under the rules of the committee, these aggregate deposits of $450,000 are available only for the payment of marine claims, while much of the obligations here described consist of fire claims in the States and elsewhere.

The situation is intolerable. No community, much less an Anglo-Saxon one can endure to see an institution which should be so inviolable as insurance of property become the playground of reckless or impecunious speculators. It is related as an instance of the irrational folly of these latter-day "underwriters" at Lloyd's that a group of them accept $1,400 premium for guaranteeing in the sum of $7,000 that it would not rain to the extent of a sixteenth of an inch at a certain race meeting in New Jersey on July 4th. Nor is the failure of these men a local matter only; they have been taking risks almost all over the world."—Monetary Times.

This is an institution that has apparently lived on wind. It is one of those British institutions which, like the Times, has been taken at a good deal more than it was worth by the universal public, simply because it was always spoken of as beyond discussion, one of those laughably secure affairs which people smilingly referred to when they wished to pose upon the invincibility of the invincible. But the feature of it that culls for most tears is the gambling spirit that lay behind it all. It was or is apparently no better than a syndicate of race followers. It is a very serious business. The question is, "How could a mere shell be taken for the real thing by the business world in which it lived daily without being discovered."

ROWDYISM SHOULD BE KEPT DOWN

Mr. George Sylvester of North Bay, Tells of Actions of Roughs on Harvesters' Excursions

Mr. George Sylvester, of North Bay who is on a visit to friends in the city, says that a very wise move was made by the authorities there when they decided to adopt summary measures in dealing with riotous excursionists going through that town to the Northwest on the Harvesters' excursions.

"For years," said Mr. Sylvester, "the presence of rowdyism on the part of the tough element who go on these excursions has been much in evidence and the coming of the trains through the towns they chance to pass through along the route has been awaited with feelings of uneasiness and the actions of the rowdies have disturbed and disgusted the citizens.

The women are often insulted and the independence of the offenders, with everybody is intolerable. This year, however, the police made some quick arrests putting a stop to further disorder. In my opinion all those taken into custody for such conduct should be given terms in prison."

A SERIOUS MATTER

"Perhaps to those who live in this part of the province, the depredations the class of thugs, referred to doesn't appear to amount to much but the matter is too serious a one to be dismissed lightly.

"In my opinion, it would be in the interests of the C.P.R. to have their western excursion trains thoroughly policed by constables sworn in for the occasion with instructions to place anyone under arrest who acted disorderly and hand them over to the local authorities."

MOTHER'S GUIDE

When a young girl's thoughts become sluggish; when she has headaches, dizziness, faintness, and exhibits an abnormal disposition to sleep; dislikes the society of other girls; then the mother should come to her aid promptly, for she possesses information of vital importance to the young daughter.

At such a time the greatest aid to nature is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It prepares the young system for the coming change, and has helped to bring three generations safely from girlhood to womanhood. Read what has accomplished for Miss Olson.

Miss Ellen M. Olson, of 417 North East Street, Kewanee, Ill., in a letter to Mrs. Pinkham says:

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me of backache, sideache, and established my periods after the best physicians in Kewanee had failed to help me, saying that an operation was necessary."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Railroad Courtship.

By J. LUDLUM LEE.

Copyrighted, 1908, by Associated Literary Press.

Alice Twitchell stood in the concourse of the Grand Central station bemoaning her fate. She had just missed the 3:45 for Greenwich. Something (or was it some one?) struck her violently in the back, and she swung round just as a young man dashed by to the closed gate. She was adjusting a shaken puff when the youth returned full of apologies.

"I beg your pardon, but I did want to catch that 3:45 train the worst way," he said as he mopped his brow.

"So did I," replied Alice with emphasis, "but I did not think it necessary to employ personal violence as a means of catching it."

Alice turned from the apologetic man, who stood regarding her with open admiration. The latter or something magnetic in his personality, added to the thought of the two hours she had to wait before the next train left for Greenwich, made her hesitate.

"You deserve some form of punishment suited to your offense," she said, with charming assumed severity.

"Oh, I say," continued the man, "I'm no professional slugger, you know, just a plain, everyday lawyer running out of town for a holiday," and he produced his card in verification of the statement. "And maybe you'll be easier when I tell you that there was a girl on that train I've been trying to meet for two years."

Alice read the name on the card, "Mr. Walter Witherspoon." Then she smiled. He followed her into the waiting room, and they sat down on the uncomfortable benches. Conversation of an impersonal but interesting nature made the wait remarkably short. Once settled in comfortable Pullman chairs they were like old traveling companions.

"You see," Mr. Witherspoon was explaining, "this girl I missed on the other train is a peach—the prettiest girl ever—except you."

"Don't you think we might have a window open, Mr. Witherspoon?" Alice interrupted. Witherspoon opened the window and turned the conversation into a less personal channel.

"Where do you visit in Greenwich?"

"Oh, me—that is, I—oh, I am going to visit my grandmother," answered Alice, with halting speech.

"I bet she's a dear old lady," assured Witherspoon. "Now, this other girl that I was going to meet—she had no relatives."

Alice offered no interruptions this time, and he rattled on.

"She's an orphan, no brothers, sisters, mother or grandmother—nobody but herself. The Hardys are giving a celebration of their wedding anniversary, and they asked Miss Twitchell and me. And, well, you know that all happy brides are matchmakers! But I'm jolly glad I missed her, 'cause"—

"The next station is ours, I think," suggested Alice.

"By Jove, so it is," agreed Witherspoon. "How time does fly in good company! Say, there's a chap. Billy Brewster, who's going to be there, and he gets all the girls under the spell of his fascination. I thought if I could just head him off with this other girl—but now"—

"Greenwich!" shrieked the conductor.

It was quite dark when the two left the train, and Witherspoon bade reluctant adieus to his companion. He offered to find her carriage, but she declined this assistance. Then he asked if he might know her name.

"Smith," said Alice, "just S-m-i-t-h, the old fashioned spelling, you know," and she was lost in the darkness and the crowd.

Billy Brewster met Witherspoon with the trap, but seemed surprised to find him alone.

"Where's Miss Twitchell, old chap? She didn't come up on the other train," said Brewster as they climbed in the trap.

"Hanged if I know, Bill," assured Witherspoon. "And, for that matter, I don't care. I met the most beautiful girl on the train, and I'm all in. If it takes me a lifetime I'll find her again and marry her."

"You ought to have lived in the twelfth century, Walter. They carried off the women by force in those days," encouraged Billy.

Once inside the Hardy country home the men were called to account. Where was Miss Twitchell? Mrs. Hardy expressed so much solicitude that Billy Brewster offered to go back and look for her guest once more.

Witherspoon turned to go to his room and change his clothes for the evening when the bell rang and Mrs. Hardy opened the door to admit the lost guest. Witherspoon caught her voice and stood glued to the stairs.

"Oh, I'm here all right," she said gayly. "Came up in a station trap. I missed the 3:45 and had to wait for the 5:45. Now, do let me run up to my room and get into a comfy light frock, and then I'll tell you all about it."

Half an hour later Witherspoon returned to the drawing room. His collar seemed a bit too small, for he kept pulling at it. Why did his vest keep riding up? He pulled it down once, twice and then again. Perhaps he was nervous. He stood by an open window smoking a cigarette, trying to look perfectly calm, when the rustle of silken flounces made him change color.

"Walter, come here," called Mrs. Hardy. "I want you to know the dearest girl, Miss Twitchell. You've heard us talk about her so often."

And, as usual, the woman saved the day.

"Mr. Witherspoon and I are old friends," said Alice as she took his hand and looked up into his eyes with a merry twinkle in her own. "But the person I want to meet is the invincible Mr. Billy Brewster, said to be world famed for his fascination."

The guests at Mrs. Hardy's celebration, which lasted until Monday morning, promptly realized that two of the party were almost continually missing from the circle. When a bridge whist game was announced neither Mr. Witherspoon nor Miss Twitchell could be induced to make up a table. When swimming was suggested in the morning Alice declared it a bore to get ready, and Witherspoon agreed that sitting on the porch was preferable to a dip in cold water.

Try as he would, Billy Brewster could not secure a moment's conversation with Alice without seeing Witherspoon inconsiderately near and glowering at him. To be sure, they condescended to appear at meals with the other guests, and at the dance Saturday night Witherspoon was decently attentive to his hostess.

Monday morning arrived with unseemly haste, and who can say how it happened that the wagonette would hold only six of the eight guests returning to town? And who will explain how it happened that Witherspoon and Alice were the two selected to go in a hired trap?

It struck Alice that the drive to the station was much longer than coming from it, despite the most agreeable company by her side. Finally the old horse drew up alongside the platform, and Witherspoon helped her out. She looked in all directions for their fellow guests.

"Why, where are the rest of our crowd?" she asked in amazement.

"A-hem!" started Witherspoon. "It looks as if we had missed another train."

"How can that be?" suggested Alice. "We started at the same time they did, and now we will have to wait thirty minutes for the next train. How could it have happened?" she repeated.

"Well, the fact is," confessed Witherspoon, "it didn't happen by accident. I paid the driver $2 to miss the train."

Alice looked at him searchingly to see if she really heard him aright.

"You see," continued Witherspoon, "I wasn't going to have Billy Brewster staring at us all the way in town. I wanted you all to myself. And I want to say something to you."

"Not here in a railroad station!" cried Alice, with feminine premonition of what that something was.

"Why not?" asked Walter recklessly. "We're all alone, and I want to tell you that I love you, and, oh, Alice, won't you say 'Yes?'"

"Want the New York train?" yelled the station agent.

"Yes, of course," replied Alice.

Witherspoon beamed on her and grasped her hand. "Oh, sweetheart, if you knew what a happy man I am—and do you really love me?"

"I was speaking to the station agent when I said 'Yes,'" said Alice blushingly. "But maybe the same answer will do for both."

Old Fashioned Wit.

The standard of wit varies from time to time. What passes for the genuine article at one period without challenge is at another condemned as puerile. Stories were commonly told of Beau Brummel and his friends which there is good reason to believe to be authentic, but which would now be regarded as too silly for credence. The famous man about town once laid a wager with the prince regent that he would see the greater number of cats if the prince chose which side of Regent street he pleased. As the result Brummel saw about twenty, while the prince had not encountered one. He was asked to explain the system on which he had gambled and did so thus: It was a very hot morning, and George IV., who liked to take his ease, chose the shady side of the street. But cats like sunshine and gratified their inclination by sunning themselves in large numbers.

Beau Nash's wagers were not always so successful, and he once found himself nonplused by a young woman at Bath. Having bet that he would "take a rise" out of the girl, he addressed her with the remark that no doubt she was familiar with her Bible and had read the history of Tobit and his dog. "Now," said he, "can you tell me the dog's name?" The reply was as prompt as it was pertinent: "Oh, yes, sir. His name was Nash, and a very impudent dog he was."—London Globe.

Cards Are Out.

"I am glad your name is Mary," said Mr. Slowcoach to his sweetheart, whom he has been courting for several years.

"Why so?" she asked.

"Because I was reading today and came across a line which said, 'Mary is the sweetest name that a woman ever bore.'"

"That is poetically expressed. I've heard my father say it to mother, whose name is Mary. It is from some poet, isn't it?"

"I believe so."

"But I've heard my father say there was even a sweeter name than Mary."

"I think he must have been mistaken," said the lover as he tenderly pressed his sweetheart's hand.

"No. I don't think he was mistaken."

"What was the other name?"

A beautiful flush suffused the maiden's cheek, the silken lashes fell and veiled the lovely eyes, and, in a tone as soft as the whisperings of an aeolian harp, she murmured:

"Wife!"—London Answers.

FOUR YEAR OLD WANDERED AWAY

Got Lost on George St. on Saturday---Father Found Her at Police Station

A little girl apparently about four years of age was seen crying on George street on Saturday evening, and said she was lost. She was taken to the police station about 6 o'clock and her father called for her there about twenty minutes after she was brought to the station.

P. C. Meharry, who was in charge, did not find out the little one's name.

RAIN WET THE STOOKED GRAIN

Some Thunder and Lightning in Emily Yesterday

The rain yesterday was much appreciated by city people as it laid the dust and cooled the atmosphere, but caused some inconvenience among the farmers.

It was hardly needed on account of the recent showers and drenched the peas and other grain stooked up in the fields. As a result they will have to be turned over again to dry and the drawing will be deferred.

A local man who was in Emily yesterday said the rain fell there in quite a quantity, accompanied by a little thunder and lightning.

FOR THE PROVINCIAL EXHIBITIONS

All cities over the province are preparing for their exhibition and Peterborough is no exception to the rule. It is the time we meet our old and new friends, and those who are not our friends, it is also the best time for the introduction of the newest and smartest cuts in fall suits, and where they can be shown to the greatest advantage.

The New York Ladies' Tailoring establishment have removed their parlors and workshops from 658 George street to 327 Reid street, opposite St. Peter's Cathedral, for the better accommodation of their patrons and are prepared to take orders in any line of ladies' garments.

Mr Wm. W Steele, superintendent of Bradstreet's Rochester office, and friend, Mr J A Thompson have returned after a pleasant holiday on Sugar Island.

WRITES TO HIS BROTHER ABOUT FERNIE FIRE

Mr. G. Marshall of this city has received a letter from his brother, A. P. Marshall, Cranbrook, BC. telling of some of his experiences during the Fernie fire. Mr. Marshall is an engineer on the CPR running from Cranbrook and will shortly pay a visit to his brother here next month.

In the letter he says in part;

"Our escape was miraculous. I hope never to see the like of it again. We thought our time had come.

ANOTHER FALLING OUT OCCURED

Review Staff Hear Row of Couple—The Girl Had Grievance

On Chambers street, between the window of the santum of the Review and the pressroom door seems to be a chosen fighting ground for couples who don't agree.

On several occasions and at a somewhat late hour the tranquility of the night has been disturbed by discordant outbreaks and the language of the quarrelers has not always been of the most parlor-like variety.

Last night another one of these disturbances took place and both parties separated as a result, the young "lady" going her way unaccompanied by her escort, whose language to her had been neither chivalrous nor parliamentary. Nearly all the words of the couple could be heard and the trouble arose over the alleged breaking of a date on the part of the young man.

WEDDING BELLS

O'DONNELL—MURVIFF.

A very pretty marriage ceremony took place this morning at 6:30 at St. Peter's cathedral, when Wm. O'Donnell, of Peterborough, and Carrie Murviff of Lakefield, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. Father Galvin being the officiating clergyman. Mr. Joseph O'Donnell a brother of the groom, and Miss Cecilia Crough were groomsman and bridesmaid.

The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of white silk, with hat to match and the bridesmaid wore a gown of cream lustre.

TWO NEW AUTOS IN THE CITY

Mr. G. L. Stevens Buys a McLaughlin Machine---Dr. Halliday Has a New Ford

The number of automobiles in the city is rapidly increasing. Mr. G. L. Stevens, George street, has purchased a new machine from the McLaughlin factory of Oshawa. There are not many of the McLaughlin autos in Peterborough, most of them there being the "Ford." Mr. Stevens brought his new auto from Oshawa on Friday. It is a handsome machine and will seat two persons. Mr. Stevens has owned a "Ford" for some time but intends to dispose of it.

Dr. Halliday also has purchased a new Ford machine.

He turned over in shallow water, however, and he soon managed to reach shore.

VERY HEAVY RAIN FOR SHORT TIME

But This Afternoon's Storm Was Only of a Few Minutes Duration

The storm that came up this afternoon was a remarkably short one, lasting only about 12 minutes. But while it did last a driving rain fell and the water ran along the streets in streams and made the road quickly assume a khaki like color.

The storm was preceded by a threatening wind, a small blizzard just before it commenced. It looked as though there would be a big thunder shower and the citizens were relieved when it turned out to be nothing more than a big downpour of rain.

JOLLY PARTY ON THE "LOTUS"

Left To-day for Two Weeks' Outing at Rice Lake

A jolly party left to-day to spend a two weeks' outing on the houseboat "Lotus." They arrived here from Toronto on the noon train and left this afternoon for Rice Lake. The party is in charge of Mr. Robson, of Toronto, and the houseboat is being towed by the yacht "Victoria," in charge of Mr. Geo. Rogers. The same party took a trip last year through the Kawartha Lakes to Rosedale on the houseboat.

PLANKED THE LAUNCH BACK TO THE SHORE

This morning some local man had quite an experience with a gasoline launch on the Otonabee. They put out from shore in the boat but the engines refused to work when they got it in the middle of the river.

They had to push the boat back to land again with a number of planks that happened to be on board. Work is being done to the engines now to get them into running order.

AN EXCURSION FROM BELLEVILLE

LIQUOR CASES

Editor of the Review

Sir,—Regarding the letter in your paper of Friday wanting to know why county liquor cases were tried before the city magistrate, I can say that it is because I think Mr. Dumble is alive to the requirements of the law and to the strong wish of the Government and the law abiding people of the city and county that there should be no failure to convict where conviction ought to follow.

REV. DR. FOSTER AT ST. JOHN'S

Preached Yesterday on "Solomon" and the "Queen of Sheba"

Following up last Sunday's sermon on "Solomon," the Rev. Dr. Foster at the morning service yesterday, took Solomon and the Queen of Sheba, as his subject. After pointing out that the Queen of Sheba spent a vast quantity of money in taking a journey that meant more exertion than did a trip around the world today in the pursuit of knowledge, Dr. Foster contrasted the attitude of many people of today who were so taken up with the flipperies of so-called society that they gave neither time or thought to the smallest matters of religion. At the evening service taking as his subject "The Crystal River" (from a text in the book of the Revelation) Dr. Foster traced the history of the church as being like to that of a river, the Church of God being as necessary to the true Christian's spiritual life, as the water to the thirsty bodies in our earthly life.

The holiday season in no way interferes with the choristers at St. John's, the services being as fully musical as in winter. The anthems were finely rendered, both morning and evening. The singing of the boy soprano, Cyril Devey and Arthur Horsfield, in the solo parts of "Now the day is over," being especially good. The Rev. Dr. Foster heartily thanked the choristers for their splendid work.

Mr. McAlister of the C.P.R. survey party, assisted in the choir at yesterday's services.

The chair factory at Wingham is closed and some of the machinery has been removed.

HAS RETURNED FROM ORILLIA

Mr. Jack Gibson Back to City After Absence of Six Weeks—Took Over Dr. Baileys Practice

Mr. Jack "Doc" Gibson, has returned to the city after six weeks in Orillia, where he took over the practice of Dr. Bailey, of that town who was on a trip to Calgary. He will again take up his work at the office of Dr. Johnson, Chambers st., until October, when he will attend the Ontario Veterinary College for the final year's course and will commence a post graduate course at the Chicago University College, after Christmas.

Mr. Gibson says there was quite an epidemic of typhoid fever among horses at Orillia during the hot weather and the disease in fact seems to have been quite common all over the province.

The Soanes Family are always requested to make a return engagement. To-night in Foresters' Hall, Simcoe St.

CAFE WINDOW PANE BROKEN

Glass Shattered in Window of Dominion Cafe Last Night

A pane of glass about two and a half by three feet was broken at the Dominion Cafe, George street, last night, about nine o'clock, by whom it is unknown.

The window faces the market arcade and is just a step or two off George street.

Mr. Thomas, on hearing the shattering of the glass, investigated and found the pane was smashed. He telephoned the police station and P. C. Adams answered the summons, but the guilty ones had fled when he arrived and no arrests were made. It is not known whether the damage was done maliciously or accidentally.

PETERBORO, SASKATCHEWAN LAND COMPANY SELL ALL THEIR HOLDINGS IN SASK

Possibly one of the largest sales of Northwest land that has been reported lately was closed on Saturday when the Peterborough Saskatchewan Land Company closed out their entire holdings in Saskatchewan, over 12,000 acres to the Luse Land Company of St. Paul. The sale was effected through Mr. W. G. Austin, secretary of the company and was accepted by the directors as satisfactory.

The lands of this company are located about 45 miles south of Battleford along the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. The Luse Land Company the purchasers, are the largest dealers in Northwest lands that is operating in our Northwest today—owning their trains of cars and doing a large business in settling American families on our Canadian lands.

WORK ON DAM AT BUCKHORN IS NEARING COMPLETION

Mr. Thos. Eastwood, proprietor of the Buckhorn hotel was in the city on Saturday and was registered at the Snowden House. He stated to the Review that the fishing was excellent and many good catches were being made. He has not for years experienced such a good season. Every room in the house is filled and all the guests are apparently enjoying themselves and having good luck with the rod and line.

The new dam at Buckhorn is rapidly nearing completion. A gang of workmen are busily engaged on it, and it is expected that by the time the cold weather has come it will be finished.

Messrs. Conroy of this city are the contractors for the construction of the dam.

NEGROES FLYING FOR LIFE—MILITARY STILL UNDER ARMS

Special to the Review

Springfield, Ill., August 17.—With nearly the entire force of the Illinois National Guard in control to-day Springfield again is ruled by law and order. DROWNED WHILE BERRY PICKING AT MOORE'S LAKE

A sad drowning accident occurred about seven miles from here at Moore's Lake, on Sunday, August 7th, when Tom Burns and his oldest son, Will, started to go up the rocks to pick huckleberries. They attempted to run their boat over Moore's Falls and in some way the boat capsized and Tom Burns was caught in the current and the swift water and drowned, but his son clung to the boat and was saved. Much sympathy is felt for his wife and eight small children.—Lindsay Post correspondent from Norland.

PEACH CROP WILL BE A HEAVY ONE

The peach crop this year from all reports will be a heavy one. This will no doubt make this fruit cheaper than it was last season. The Dominion and Canadian Express Companies anticipate a big business in the transportation of this fruit from the Niagara district. Already the rush has begun and the local fruit dealers are each day receiving big consignments.

LOCAL MERCHANT GOT A BARGAIN

50 Baskets of Tomatoes and Ten of Cucumbers Sold for Five Dollars

One merchant in this city certainly got a bargain on Saturday. Fifty baskets of tomatoes and ten baskets of cucumbers were sold for five dollars. It appears that the above consignment came through the Dominion Express Co., from the Niagara district for a certain George street fruit man. However, when delivered to him he refused to accept them, whereupon the express company decided to sell them for express charges. The whole consignment was allowed to go for five dollars, much lower than the original price asked for the vegetables.

HANDSOME CUP OFFERED FOR LONGBOAT AND SIMPSON RACE

Mr. J. H. Burnham offers to put up a handsome cup for a race between Longboat and Simpson in this city, distance ten miles, the proceeds to go to the contestants so far as the CAAU may allow under whose auspices, of course the race would be run. These two famous runners would "draw" well without a doubt. The distance is the shortest that Simpson can do himself justice in. If the two runners accept Mr. Burnham's offer, the details of the race can be arranged to their mutual satisfaction. Simpson is in need of local sympathy and patronage and this seems to be the best way to secure them in practical form. Neither he nor his chief pushers are "men of wealth" and it is not fair that their staunch patriotism should go unassisted in so deserving a case.

ALD. MORGAN STEPS SOME

Walked Six Miles and a Half in Close on an Hour---Fast Going

If Hoagland is a good walker, so is Alderman Morgan, of Ashburnham. Yesterday he walked from Ashburnham to visit friends in Zion and the course he covered was 6 miles and a half.

He made the distance in close on to an hour, which is slipping along pretty fast. Ald. Morgan does not intend to enter the next walking tournament, and his performance was not at all in the nature of a tryout. It was merely a private call to see friends in the country. But the time made was too creditable to let the jaunt pass by unnoticed.

LOCAL BOWLERS ARE IN TORONTO

Two Rinks are Playing There This Afternoon

Two rinks of local bowlers left today for Toronto where they will play bowlers of that city. Those who composed the rinks were Messrs. B. J. Boden, F. Cottrell, Dr Marshall, J. H A Fitzgerald, and Messrs W Talbot, A McIntyre, R Waddell and R. Kerr. They left this morning and the games are being played this afternoon.

ST. JOHN'S A.Y.P.A. TENNIS CLUB

Games Played on the Oval on Saturday

On Saturday afternoon on the Oval a scheduled game was watched by the onlookers in the final game of the men's singles. Mr. W. H. Clexton winning a finely contested game by two sets to one from Mr. Sheen, the actual figures being for the winner, 6—1, 6—8, 6—3.

The final of the ladies' singles will be played this week, probably on Wednesday, between Mrs. R. J. Devey and Miss Drury.

The draw for the second round of the mixed doubles will take place this evening.

WALKING

Joseph Guerin of Peterborough, who took part in the four days' walking match here in July is anxious to arrange a bet on the Toronto-Port Hope. Joe states that if he is given $3 to $1, he will endeavor to accomplish the undertaking in thirty-three hours.—Port Hope Guide.

PADDLING

A funny story is told about the Chemong regatta held on Thursday last, which reflects credit on Warner, the clever paddler. Warner pushes an 18-foot canoe and several persons from Peterborough told him he would be disqualified. He paddled at once over to the judges' launch, and when within a few feet of them protested about the 18-foot canoe and pointing out a certain paddler in another canoe, asked to have him ruled off the course. The judges told Warner to take his place in the race if he wanted to but they would not listen to any protest. After Warner took his place the news spread around and everybody had a good laugh at the expense of the judges. —Lindsay Free Press.

SPORTING COMMENT

The Post and Warder nines are playing ball in Lindsay today.

The Athletics of St. Catharines challenged for the Minto Cup.

A meeting of the City League will be held to-night at 7.30 at the Y. M.C.A.

The Brandon Maroons were last week awarded the silverware emblematic of the championship of the Copper County League, for the season of 1908. Since the first game last May the victorious club had held first place at practically all stages. And although the wheat city fans will naturally feel elated, the possession of the cup has been a foregone conclusion during the past month.

Fred Simpson, the pride of Hiawatha, whom the Peterborough papers touted as their representative at the great marathon event in England, and who made such a remarkable showing in that great contest, got a mighty poor reception when he returned to the electric city. No measures were taken to give him a reception and he quietly departed for his home on the shores of Rice Lake. The Indians of his native burg have set the sports of Peterborough an example by giving him a right royal welcome. He certainly deserved better treatment at the hands of those who claimed him as their own. —Lindsay Post.

Last Thursday was "Cy Young" day at Boston, and the grand old man of the baked bean town was given as great a reception as has ever been accorded a baseball player. The veteran was presented on the diamond with two large loving cups, one from the American league and the other from the Boston fans. He was also given every cent taken at the gate and as five American league teams were represented in the benefit game, the gate was an enormous one. There is a movement on foot to hand out a similar line of treatment to Matthewson, the famous New York twirler. Already this season, Hans Wagner, Cy Young, and McGinnity have benefitted by public functions of this nature.

Hearken unto the following howl from dear old Lindsay: Those who saw the dinghy race at Chemong claim that Hopkins who had a good chance of winning, was fouled by Hollingshead in order that Hopwood might pull out ahead. Hollingshead is one of the best yachtsmen in Eastern Ontario and was though incapable of anything of this nature. Isn't that rotten. Why doesn't that Free Press man make a specific charge or dry up. If Mr. Hollingshead is as the article says one of the best yachtsmen in Eastern Ontario he certainly would not need to stoop to any fouling to beat Hopkins himself. Or perhaps the Press is merely hinting in its usual non-committal style that Hopkins is the best.

Gee! but its great to be a good ball player. Down in Georgia last week Ty Cobb was married and he enjoyed on of the swellest events of its kind ever pulled off in that State. To begin with, Mrs. Cobb is the daughter of one of Georgia's wealthy men. It took exactly six trunks to convey the costly presents donated by Ty's Detroit team mates and fans and Georgia sympathizers. Messages of congratulation were received from all the prominent kings of the diamond, managers and other club officials and even the State Senator and Congressmen wired the happy couple. At the conclusion of the present season, Mr. and Mrs Cobb. will make a trip to Japan and return.

HARD KNOCK FOR THE WEST END Y

McAughey the Distance Runner Complains of Treatment---Left Him in New York Without a Cent

T. J. McAughey, the long distance runner has the following to say:

Just a few lines about my little run from Toronto to New York. Sorry I did not write you sooner. It has been a nerve-racking, body-tiring journey of 11 days and 22 hours, covering a distance of more than 700 miles. Most of the New York papers give it as 775 miles, and I suppose they know.

Altogether I have received very cold treatment going sometimes without food for over 24 hours. The heat was fearful. Most of the roads were good, but so hard that my feet were pounded until I was in terrible agony. Other roads were covered with dust three or four inches deep, fine limey dust that held the sun's heat and almost burned the shoes from my feet. People were afraid of me, or so mock modest that they ran away when I approached. Sometimes I could not even get a drink of water, insulted, made fun of and laughed at by a class that could not walk twenty miles to save their lives. Dogs were let loose upon me, and I often feared personal violence. You may know that I had no easy job getting through.

Of course there were places where I received the very best treatment, namely, at Hamilton, Ont., Niagara Falls, Tonawanda, Buffalo. The boys there were perfect gentlemen, and Bavaria, Rochester, Syracuse, and other Y.M.C.A's. At Albany I stopped at the Railway Men's Branch, where they did all they possibly could to help me. They are a bunch of fine fellows there.

Setting out from Albany I took the wrong road and lost most of the day in that journey going towards Pittsfield, Mass. I was treated well at Hudson, Poughkeepsie and Ossining, resting on Sunday at Mr. Ryan's, inspector of schools at the latter place, to whom I am more than grateful and shall always count him a very great friend.

I am also very grateful to a number of the farmers who were thoughtful and kind to me, allowing me to rest and supplying me with refreshments which I needed very much indeed. I take this opportunity to thank them one and all through the medium of your valuable paper and wish them to understand that I am more than grateful for their kindness to me.

But the officers and men of the 23rd street branch of the Y.M.C.A. will be my personal friends for life. I cannot find words to express my appreciation for their kindness to me. Particularly Dr. Geo. F. Poole, of the physical department and his assistant, S. W. Starling. I have been under their care and attention since I arrived. In fact, they have acted as every American citizen would.

I arrived here in New York without a five-cent piece in my pocket, expecting to find money waiting for me to pay my fare home to Toronto. Wiring the association which I represent for money to pay my fare back they not only snubbed me, but ignored the request altogether. I have been running for their benefit and they stood to gain a few hundred dollars by my run, but their conduct has forced me to the conclusion that the benefit to them shall be very small to the extent of nothing.

Yes, we have sportsmen in Canada but they have to stand most of the time in the background, the mollycoddles are so numerous that the good men are crushed out. I have been around West End Y.M.C.A for a long time, taking a great interest in everything for the benefit of the association sometime assistant secretary and in all probability would have continued to act as such for another year and owing to their treatment of me this time I propose cutting loose from my connections with them altogether.

Oh yes, we have a lot of fine fellows about the gym, manly fellows every one of them, but the woodenheads who rule the roost allow them very little chance to demonstrate what they are worth. Well, surely, the run was worthy their consideration in any case, but I have never received a word of congratulation from them at any stage of the journey.

Was the test not really worth at least a post card. Do I boast overmuch when I say that I have made the greatest run that has ever been made in the history of the world. Running over sixty-five miles per day and on Tuesday of last week, doing over a hundred and ten miles, after having been entirely without sleep for the previous two days.

West End has no need for a man who can get through such a performance; stamina and ability are of no account to them. What use have they for a man of brain and muscle. They want the man who is clean living. Living his life that others may learn to copy from. Oh, no. L.S.D. can crawl like a snail, slouch along with shoulders bent, slouch along hands in pockets, tobacco tainted breath, what do they care. They need no advertisement. They read the the Bible every morning and bathe once a week. Thank God there are still men left in the world today.

In closing let me say no doubt my run will go down to posterity as a wonderful feat of endurance but I also request that the treatment encountered at the West End Y.M.C.A. shall also be put on record as the meanest and most beggarly, and altogether most niggardly behavior that any club or association could stoop to or be guilty of.

T. J. McAughey.

The reply of the West End Y.M.C.A. officials to McAughey's biting letter is awaited. The West End has never before been accused of dealing unfairly with its athletes.

FOUGHT ON STEAMER OVER MERITS OF THE OLYMPIC GAMES

Plymouth, Eng., Aug. 4— Passengers on board of White Star Liner Teutonic, which arrived here today from New York, in addition to the diversions which are usually incidental to a transatlantic voyage had the unique privilege of witnessing a real prize fight.

The principals were two passengers an American and an Englishman, Fred Nolan, of Washington and Henry Duval of London and the excited spectators were practically everybody on board the ship.

The cause of the fight was a heated discussion over the Olympic games. It was agreed that the men should meet for seven rounds of fight Monday morning at six o'clock. Everybody was up bright and early. A ring was formed on the after deck, and the passengers crowded to the ringside.

A San Franciscan acted as referee, and the Marquis of Queenberry rules were read to govern the contest except that no gloves were used.

Both men fought like tigers. The first round was in Duval's favor, and the second closed with Nolan's eyes in mourning.

In the third round Duval's nose was pulverized and he bled freely. Recovering, however, Duval planted a jab on Nolan's beak and it was a question which looked worse.

The fourth round saw Duval getting rapidly weak and he was saved by the call of time. Nolan came lightly to the scratch in the fifth and rushed at Duval and with a trip-hammer jolt he caught Duval on the point of the jaw, and the Englishman went to sleep.

Both men showed unmistakeable evidences of the affray when they landed here and all the passengers agreed that it was as pretty and game a fight as they ever experienced. —Montreal Star.

ABOUT BOBBY KERR

Mr. Robert Kerr is one of the most modest men on earth. He is mightily popular in Hamilton where he has lived the greater part of his life and has always been a young man who earned his own living. His performances in England have shown him to be the greatest amateur sprinter of the day.

The following peculiarities have been noted about his style of running:—

He starts with his four fingers on the line and his thumb back, not with his thumb and forefinger on the line with the others lying back, not with his thumb and forefinger on the line with the others lying back. In other words he starts with all four fingers pointing toward the finishing line.

He does not clench his hands. Once in his stride he straightens out his fingers and keeping them close together, paddles with them in the air.

He runs with his shoulders high.

He holds his body a trifle forward of his feet and never runs with his head and chest back.

He takes a short first stride.

He gets his best speed with a man ahead of him.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

GUESTS AT SOUTH BEACH ENJOY MOONLIGHT TRIP

Steamer Stoney Lake Carried Jolly Crowd Around the Lakes—Season at its Height at the Lakes—Hotels and Boarding Houses Are Filled.

The gay summer season at Stony Lake is fast drawing to a close and soon the lake will again assume its quiet aspect. At the present time, every hotel, boarding house and cottage is filled. The visitors to the lakes have been favored with particularly fine weather enabling them to fully enjoy their outing.

On Thursday evening last the guests at the South Beach hotel enjoyed a delightful moonlight trip. The Stony Lake carried the party, taking them up to Crow's Landing. The evening was an ideal one and the people danced on board the steamer, which added greatly to the pleasure of the outing.

On Saturday evening the usual large crowd gathered at the pavilion, Juniper Island, and enjoyed a few hours' dancing.

The annual regatta of the East End Cottagers' Association is being held on the Crowe's Landing course this afternoon and from all indications will be a gigantic success. Some valuable prizes are being offered including three silver cups, donated by Hon J R Stratton, Mr Jas Thompson, MPP. and the association.

The evening boat Saturday brought up a large number of week end visitors.

Mr. Leo Young spent Sunday at Young's Point.

Mr F M De La Fosse was at the lakes over Sunday.

Mrs. J N. Barber returned from the lakes this morning.

Ald Neill came down from his cottage "Clear View" this morning.

Mr R L Morris spent the week end at South Beach.

Messrs. Jas. Hogue, Jack Lightfoot and Harry Mann returned to the city on Saturday after a two weeks' outing.

Going to School in Burma.

Shortly after the native college was opened at Rangoon the head, the Rev. Dr. Marks, says in the Church Family Paper that the king of Burma came to him and asked if he would teach some of his sons. When he agreed the king asked, "What ages do you like them at?"

"From twelve to fourteen."

The king turned to one of his assistants and commanded:

"Bring all my sons between twelve and fourteen to me."

Nine princes came in.

Four came to school the next day, each riding on an elephant and with two golden umbrellas. Each also was escorted by forty soldiers. Afterward the whole nine came, so there were nine princes, nine elephants, eighteen golden umbrellas and 360 soldiers.

Unlike Mary's lamb, Dr. Marks says, the elephants stayed outside, but when the princes came into the schoolroom all the other boys threw themselves flat down with their faces to the ground. It was forbidden for any one to stand or sit in the presence of princes.

Dr. Marks found this state of things very inconvenient and put the matter to the princes. They talked the situation over and made up their minds what to do.

"You fellows may get up," one of the princes said. "You need not be frightened."

"After that," says Dr. Marks, "we had very little difficulty on the score of etiquette."

A Matter of Time.

It was the day of the ball game, and Willie, the office boy, approached the head of the firm and stammered, "If y-you p-p-pl-please, sir"—

"Come, hurry up!" said his employer. "If you have anything to say, say it. Don't take half a day."

"But that's just what I was going to ask you if I could take," said Willie.—Harper's Weekly.

A Greek Song.

It was not I that dared betray
What none should know save you and me.
The moon beheld from heaven's way
And told the tale to all the sea.

The ripples laughed in elfish joy
And told the oar blade, water pearled.
The oar blade told the sailor boy,
Who sang our love to all the world.

A Dreadful Man Indeed.

Miss Mincer—Oh, I suppose Mr. Gruntle is not so bad a man; but, then, he's not the man a woman would care to marry.

Miss Candor (of Boston)—Good gracious! Is it possible that there is such a man as that in the world?—Boston Transcript.

Garden Sounds.

I love to hear the bluebells chime
And little cowslips moo.
Of tiger lilies roaring I'm
A constant lover too.

But best of all the garden sounds
To which I love to hark
Is when at eve I go my rounds
The johnny-jump-ups bark.

DEFIES ATTACK.

The Wonderful Strong Room Under the Bank of England.

There is a close analogy between the struggle of the locksmith against the burglar and the contest between armor plate and big guns. Time after time has the locksmith exhausted his ingenuity in devising apparently impenetrable chambers, and again and again have the marvelous skill and patience of the burglar foiled his efforts.

A hundred years ago the Bank of England kept its cash and securities in a great oak box clamped with iron. From this the strong room of to-day, constructed of armor plate, has been gradually evolved.

If a mob overcame the guards and "watch clerks" at the Bank of England, they could not possibly penetrate into the vaults, for their passage would be blocked by large reservoirs of water. The strong room here is one of the largest in the world. The foundation, sixty-six feet below street level, is a bed of concrete twenty feet thick.

Above this concrete is a lake seven feet deep, and above that thick plates of iron specially manufactured to resist both force and skill. Any one attempting an entrance from above would find a similar bed of concrete, a similar lake and similar plates of iron. The walls are impenetrable, while the doors are one foot thick, weigh four tons each and are made absolutely undrillable.

Many years ago, when the strong room was less rigorously protected, the directors were startled one morning by a letter from a man who said he had been in the vault.

Some days later a heavy chest, which had been abstracted from the "treasury," was returned to the bank by the writer of the letter, who had gained entrance from the sewers. He was rewarded and given a pension for life.

In the safe deposit, which has become a necessary adjunct of modern life, are to be found the most modern developments in strong room construction. One of the largest in London, which cost $1,000,000, consists of thirty-two great vaults, whose doors have no locks and are worked by hydraulic power.

When the doors are closed the mechanism is disconnected, and any one attempting to connect it would release 50,000 gallons of water and flood the place from floor to ceiling, although the strong rooms would remain absolutely dry. Many and varied are the valuables stored in these treasure houses.

At another London depository the writer was shown a room which contained $150,000,000 worth of securities. The next contained a collection of rare books worth $10,000 each, and another held a collection of old china. In a fourth were paintings worth $500,000, and a fifth contained tapestries which could not be duplicated for $250,000.

Gave Him Piece of Shroud.

Some time ago the New Kilpatrick parish church minister, Rev. J. H. Dickie, attended, in ministerial capacity, a funeral in Glasgow, and he was somewhat surprised when the chief mourner handed him a small cutting of the shroud. Naturally he asked the reason of the gift, but the mourner could not tell him, merely remarking that it had been an old custom of her family to present the minister with a bit of the shroud on similar occasions. An antiquarian friend has been looking into the matter, and finds that away back in the thirteenth or fourteenth century an act was passed for the purpose of encouraging the wool trade in Scotland, which ordained that every corpse be shrouded in a woollen garment, and to make certain that the order was attended to, it was made the duty of the parish minister to examine the shroud before the coffin lid was "screwed down." In the event of the minister not being able to be present, a "swatch" of the dead person's garment had to be cut off and handed to the clergyman who officiated at the "liftin'." The fact that the old custom has been preserved in the mourner's family showed that their genealogical tree had a fairly respectable antiquity.

Queerest of Creatures.

The duckbill, or mulligong, of Australia is one of earth's queerest creatures. It is essentially an aquatic and burrowing animal. The beak is well supplied with nerves and appears to be a sensitive organ of touch by which the animal is enabled to feel as well as smell the insects and other creatures on which it feeds.

The duckbill can run on land and swim in water with equal ease. It is covered with fur, which is thick, soft and readily dried while the animal enjoys good health.

The food of the duckbill consists of worms, water insects and little mollusks, which it gathers in its cheek pouches as long as it is engaged in search for food and then quietly eats them when it rests from its labors.

The Long Lived Parrs.

Thomas Parr, who died in London in 1635 at the age of 152 is notable not only for his longevity, but also for that of his descendants. Parr lies buried in Westminster Abbey. He worked his farm at the age of 130 and married for the second time at the age of 122. Robert Parr, a great-grandson, died in Shropshire in 1757 at the age of 124. His father lived to be 109 and his grandfather 113. John Newell died in 1761, aged 127, and John Michaelson, aged 127 also, died in 1763. Both were grandsons of Thomas Parr.

Cause For Resentment.

"Yes," said Mrs. Newrich, "I treat my domestics as equals."

"And don't they resent it?" queried Mrs. Oldgold.

The Mysterious Time.

LAND SHARKS ARE BUSY

THEY ARE GETTING IN THEIR WORK AT PRINCE RUPERT.

Outlying Farms Nowhere Near the New City Are Being Unloaded by Boomers Upon the Unsuspecting Public as Town Lots — Property Listed at $600 Is Worth About $6—Port Simpson Being Boomed.

The land sharks, of whose methods Martin Chuzzlewit and Mark Tapley had so grim an experience, would appear to have joined the steadily rising stream of immigrants into Canada, says Cy Warman.

Fourteen hundred acres of the town site of Prince Rupert, from which I have just returned, have been cleared, grading has begun at the terminus, and, at this writing, the shore line for miles is wreathed in smoke, where men are busy clearing the right of way of the Grand Trunk Pacific. For nearly three years now people have been talking of the Pacific Coast terminus of this new railway, and men eager for investment are constantly inquiring as to when lots in the new city will be on the market. Taking advantage of the general interest in Prince Rupert, a number of the rankest "Edens" that ever blossomed out on the American continent have developed.

One man, who claimed to have a right to call a given piece of scenery "Prince Rupert," is said to have unloaded it upon a group of United States land boomers, with offices in the States and in Canada for $100,000. Nobody who has seen this scenery believes this story, but this particular bit of forest is being advertised as "Prince Rupert," and sold to the unsophisticated as town lots.

This land is on the line of the railway, ten miles from the real Prince Rupert, and, in view of the fact that the railway passes through it, taking up about all there is of it between the mud flat where the proposed docks are pictured and the mountain that rises abruptly in the background, it might be a fair gamble at $50 an acre. One advertisement shows that some 300 lots have been sold in one of these "towns," ranging in price from $125 to $600 a lot. At low tide there is barely enough water in the slough, which is called the water front, to float an ordinary canoe.

Another "town," called "East Prince Rupert," and sometimes Cloyah Bay, lies behind a range of mountains six miles from the railway line, but that does not trouble the land shark. He leads the railway right over this range of mountains, half a mile high, and draws it down through "East Prince Rupert," so that future travelers can have a good view of this perpendicular town site, which at the present moment is an unscarred forest. The lots, listed at $600, would be expensive at $6 each.

At Port Simpson, twenty-five miles up the coast from Prince Rupert, the land boomer is busy despatching maps that show three railways entering the port, which in reality is only a Hudson Bay post, and an unimporant post at that. They picture the Grand Trunk Pacific, which does not come within twenty-five miles of Port Simpson, the Canadian Northern, which is 1,000 miles away, and the Hudson Bay and Port Simpson Railway, which at present is a dream.

Most of these men are buying pages in Canadian and American Saturday and Sunday papers, and these papers are unconsciously helping in the work of separating the innocent investor from his money. Nearly all of these enterprises are the most shameless frauds, with nothing to excuse them.

In all probability, if they have not done so already, these land sharks will advertise extensively in English papers, and to prevent this, and the pillage of the public, is one of my objects in giving this brief account of the actual facts. The Canadian authorities are doing their best to caution the public. Canada has too great a wealth of high-class investments to permit of any good Canadian wanting to attract capital into wild-cat schemes.

Pastor-Hero Dead.

The death occurred at his home in Halifax, N. S., a short time ago, of Rev. William J. Ancient, the preacher-hero of the wreck of the White Star liner Atlantic. His death came as a shock to the community at large. Although he had not been in the best of health recently, his early demise was not expected. Mr. Ancient was stationed at Tereen Bay at the time of the wreck of the Atlantic, April 1, 1873, and by his gallant conduct in pushing out to the battered steamer was the means of saving two lives. His boat crew succeeded, in the face of tremendous seas, in rescuing the two last survivors, who were clinging to the masts of the stranded ship. This gallant deed won him renown, and when in 1905 a monument was erected to the drowned at Tereen Bay with money raised by friends of the dead, Mr. Ancient's part was fittingly eulogized. He came to Halifax shortly afterward, and became rector of Trinity Church. Then he went to Londonderry, and was rector there up to the date of his appointment as Diocesan Secretary of the Anglican Church, which position he held with the greatest satisfaction up to the time of his death. He leaves a widow and three daughters, one the wife of Rev. W. B. Sisam, and two at home. He was 75 years old.

Didn't Get the Skunk.

Mr. William Levi, an old gentleman who lives at Markdale, Ont., took down his musket the other day and made a bee-line for the hiding-place of that gentle little animal described in the dictionary as a carnivorous, odoriferous quadruped — commonly known as skunk. The old weapon had been in disuse for some time and when in the act of firing it off it exploded and parts struck him in the face, inflicting an ugly gash on his forehead. He is not thought to be dangerously injured. The animal is still at large.

James Muir's barn, of Bickrook, for the second time this year, was struck by lightning and destroyed.

ADVICE TO YOUNG COUPLES

Fire
INSURE NOW AGAINST FIRE

Those starting housekeeping for the first time—on no matter how small a scale—should take the precaution of insuring their household furniture and other effects against fire. Whether in house or flat, there is always danger of accidental fires. Better provide against the consequent loss by having your property well insured. We'll give you the best policy.

DEATH OF "RUEB" FAX ROBS STAGE OF TALENTED COMEDIAN

Probably the Greatest Comedy Actor Ever Born in Canada—Won Fame as "Posty" in "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush"—Regarded as One of America's Leading Comedy Stars.

The death of Reuben Fax in New York marks the passing away of one of the foremost humorists of the American stage.

The late Mr. Fax was born in Brantford 46 years ago and his career on the stage has been one of increasing success since the time he first made his appearance in professional company.

He was well known throughout Canada and the United States and was one of the most brilliant comedy actors, probably the most brilliant, that Canada ever produced.

The late W. J. McCallum, of this city, knew Fax well, and told many interesting anecdotes in connection with the famous comedian. He remembered when as a boy in Brantford Fax used to be an enthusiast in juvenile theatricals and later appeared in amateur presentations, finally embarking on a stage career.

The commencement of the calling which he was so conspicuously successful in, was strikingly similar to that of Raymond Hitchcock, who made such a tremendous hit in the title role in "The Yankee Consul." Like Hitchcock, he was a clerk in a shoe store when he forsook the selling of footwear for a more absorbing and much more remunerative profession.

It is somewhat of a co-incident that he was also chosen to fill Hitchcock's part in "The Yankee Consul" when that big operatic production was put on the road after a long cosmopolitan run.

While Fax was regarded as a most worthy successor to the other celebrated prince of laughter, it was not with the "Yankee Consul," but as "Posty" in "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush," that he achieved a triumph in character acting that established him a reputation of comedy actor whose work was natural and whose humor was bright and spontaneous. He was associated in that play with the late Mr. Stoddard for six years.

After he had been with the "Yankee Consul" for some time he left that company, the character he assumed being played by Harry Short.

Both Fax and Short were seen here in the part, the piece, with Fax in it, opening the Grand Opera House here.

"Rueb" Fax was too talented a man not to be noticed by big producers and David Belasco, one of the largest independent theatrical managers in the United States, and who controls many theatres and well-known stands reached out after him and secured him. He immediately signed him on a long contract recognizing in him a comedy star of the first water. He was given an important role in "The Music Master" and so clear was the portrayal of his part that he won the unanimous praise of the New York public and dramatic critics.

He appeared with David Warfield in his big success from the pen of Charles Klein, author of "The Lion and the Mouse," and later in "A Grand Army Man," with the same star. He was to have been with "A Grand Army Man" again this season, but his sad death from pneumonia robbed the cast from one of its most gifted members. The stage suffers a severe loss and Reuben Fax will long be remembered as a really great comedian.

LINDSAY POLICE WANT WALKER

Description of Man Who Jumped From Courtroom Window and Got Away

The chief of police of Lindsay asks for the arrest of George Walker, who escaped from custody there. He is described as 24 years old and weighs 140 pounds, 5 feet 8 inches in height, slight build, grey eyes, brown hair, thin pointed nose, florid complexion, somewhat freckled. Dressed in blue serge, no collar or hat. He is an expert burglar and thief and has served time in Kingston. He has been employed in electric light work, but more recently in a lumber yard. He was found guilty of theft and while waiting for sentence jumped through a court room window and made his escape.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO

What Booth's Kidney Pills are Doing for Peterborough People.

All the blood in the body passes through the Kidneys every three minutes.

The Kidneys filter the blood.

They work night and day to daily remove about 500 grains of impure matter. If they fail, some part of this impure matter is left in the blood, bringing on pain in the back, headache, dizziness, irregular heart, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gravel, dropsy, deposits in the urine. Booth's Kidney Pills make the filtering right and overcome Kidney trouble. Hundreds of Peterborough County residents have found this out.

Mrs. John Wallace, of 323 Water street, Peterborough, Ont., says: "I had suffered with many painful and annoying symptoms of kidney trouble for over two years and could find nothing that would benefit my condition. My back was weak and a dull, heavy pain settled across the small of it extending to my kidneys and into my sides and shoulders. I could not sleep at nights as the kidney secretions were so frequent and irregular that I would have to leave my bed a number of times. I was dizzy and weak and would usually awake with a dull headache. Booth's Kidney Pills produced at McDermid & Jury's Drug Store cured me when all else failed. I am stronger and feel better generally. I can conscientiously recommend Booth's Kidney Pills and I would not be without a box in the house.

TRENT CANAL STATISTICS

The Government Bluebook for 1907 shows under heading of Tolls Collected on T.V.C. during 1907, that the amount of tolls collected during the navigable season of that year was $1,427.03. Some of the items are particularly interesting as showing how business is developing. For example the amount of toll collected on apples was 10 cents, on flour 12 cents, and on cattle the altogether magnificent sum of one cent.

EXPERIENCES OF A HARVESTER FROM NOVA SCOTIA AND RETURN

The average Canadian cannot have a very distinct notion of the size and importance of the yearly excursion of Eastern harvesters, unless he stands upon the platform of the colossal CPR depot at Winnipeg, "The gateway to the Golden West," when the trains, groaning under their loads of condensed humanity, draw into the above distributing point.

For a fortnight, perhaps a month before the arrival of the first section all Manitoba is in a ferment. "Will we have enough to go all around," anxiously inquires the farmer; he remembers the time he had last year, in the effort to engage a couple men to assist him to garner his heavy crop. The railroad companies have constructed temporary platform, ticket, and enquiry offices, the immigration committees have cleaned and aired their large halls and installed additional tables, benches and chairs to accommodate their patrons, upstairs in the long handsome corridors and labyrinth of offices. New clerks are sweating over their papers and stenographers fingers are travelling faster over the keys, and down town in the several newspaper offices the editors are spurring on the cub reporters in the effort to get all the news and get it before the other fellow.

The day of the arrival of the first of the half dozen sections arrives at last and at the depot there is a crowd, yes, a much greater crowd than was ever here before. As we enter the large waiting rooms we see twice as many cabs and express rigs than usual. The cheaper down town hotels have six advertising agents stationed here, now, instead of the customary one, and a dense throng awed into good behavior by the presence of those giant policemen for which Winnipeg is noted impatiently await entry to the finest railroad rotunda in Canada. We know the policemen and after elbowing our way through the panting crowd, we gain admission to the waiting room. The seats and there are several of them, are already filled and after a brief look around, we make our way to the door leading to the platform and guarded by the uniformed doorkeeper. Our passes are carefully examined and we join the privileged few on the platform. Conscious of the fact that there are at least half a dozen pairs of eyes focused on us—the new arrivals.

A short wait and in comes the big powerful engine snorting and puffing with its seemingly never ending freight load of husky helpers. Long before she pulls up the vestibules are crowded with open mouthed spectators, each trying to catch the first sight of the capital of this much advertised province, and in a very few seconds the passenger cars have discharged their crowds. The doorkeeper allows those waiting within to go on the platform as soon as the train has been sidetracked and in ten minutes every harvester has a job. It is a great sight indeed to watch the happy husbandmen marching away proudly with his capture perhaps to a nearby eating house to get the dinner that he stands so much in need of, or to an adjacent bar to seal his contract and better his friendship over a social glass of ale. During the fortnight following the first arrival the scenes are enacted a dozen times and when the last train has been emptied of its passengers the large station is practically deserted, and the policemen, clerk and reporter, breathe freely once again. In the meantime the newcomers have been distributed over every branch line in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, and the harvest is on. It is truly a grand sight for the young Easterner to gaze over the never-ending horizon of golden grain. Down in Ontario he ruminates, "We have just as good grain, but our acres are few and our fences many." The grandeur of the scene cannot fail to impress the outsider. In the distance a line of black smoke indicates renewed traffic. Were he closer he would see probably a load of brightly painted harvesting apparatus including traction and movable engines.

In a few weeks the western fields put on a different appearance. Instead of the wide waving fields of standing grain are to be seen the regular rows of stocks ready for the pitcher: and the engine owners have fitted up their machines preparatory to the invasion of the threshing crews. Perhaps the cabooses will receive a new coat of paint if a promising season is assured; at any rate the owner will buy a pound of nails to close up new apertures in the travelling hotel and wash the blankets.

The long days which follow are realized to the full only by those actually engaged in the work, but as the writer has been intimate with several such gangs he gives it as his opinion that they are pleasant ones, not the least of which is the day on which all hands are paid off for—the harvesting is done.

During the spare moments that the young man has enjoyed during his work in the West, he has resolved upon one of two courses, either return home or settle out West. The first is by far the easier of the two to follow since he has both the money and a signed returnable certificate from his late employer. The second merits more serious consideration since the perfection of the plan means to him long weary years of stumping, clearing, saving and I might add worrying. At all events he accompanies his new friends to the nearest station and as he extends to all the hearty hand of good fellowship, before boarding his train, he realizes perhaps with a slight pang of regret that his pleasant if busy sojourn in the Golden West is a matter of the past.

Six men were fined $20 each in Hamilton for gambling with cards on Sunday.

A Chinese sailor of the crew of the Crown of Argon at Montreal, has escaped.

AT OTTAWA
Sept. 18th to 26th, '08

Displays will far excel those of any previous year. A Grand Pure Food Exhibit is to be made by Canadian manufacturers.

High class vaudeville programme will be given daily in front of the Grand Stand in addition to the horse races.

The night entertainment will consist of the latest comic opera "What Happened Then?" by the famous De Wolff Hopper and all star company. Popular prices will prevail.

A grand display of paintings and Ladies' Work will be made to signalize the opening of the handsome new fire-proof building, now being erected at a cost of $12,000.

The special attraction in front of the Grand Stand in the afternoon will include the latest European novelty "Del Oro's Performing Cows." This attraction is billed to appear in Ottawa for the first time in America. There will also be a most sensational automobile race on a specially constructed incline, the contesting chauffeurs being two daring young women.

There will be balloon races daily with a double parachute descent from each balloon by the famous Prof. Hutchinson and companion.

Get the official programme when issued next month.

VOL. LVII., No. 46. PETERBOROUGH, ONT., CANADA, TUESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1908 TEN CENTS PER WEEK

NUMBER OF C.P.R. ENGINES OUT OF WORKING ORDER

Strikers Say Seventeen Are Out of Commission on C.P.R. Majority of Mechanics Maintain That Ultimatum Giving Men Till To-day to Avoid Losing Jobs is Only a Last Card.

West Toronto, Aug. 18.—Among the striking machinists here the leaders made a canvass of the men yesterday and report that not one will go back as a result of the company's ultimatum.

The threat of filling the shops with men from the old land is not taken seriously as it would take two weeks to bring these out, and another week to distribute them over the system, and during that time what would become of the company's rolling stock?

All the best mechanics in Britain, said a strike leader last night, belong to unions and they would not come out, and they are welcome to the other kind, but we think that the agitation by Mr. Trotter of the Dominion Trades Congress will prevent many of these even from coming out to this country. They all know now what the labor conditions are in this country.

The company paid the striking car men and round-house men yesterday, as well as the engineers.

The official bulletin from Winnipeg says there are seventeen engines "dead," or out of commission, at Chapleau. The strikers claim there are nine at John street round-house, Toronto, and men on the inside at West Toronto shops assert that there are ten there. Among the latter lot are two of the big "1100" passenger class, and another is said to be going to pieces. There are only seven of these big passenger locomotives in the Ontario division."

In talking of this a leading striker said last night that there are over 150 cars of freight stalled in West Toronto yards for lack of engines to pull it out.

The report is also going the rounds that the C. P. R. has lost the carrying contract they had with the Armour people in Chicago to carry their meat products through.

Montreal, Aug. 18.—The feature of the strike news yesterday was the report to the effect that the Ottawa Government was to intervene and put an end to the strike. It soon became apparent that there was nothing in this story and that the men and the company will be allowed to fight it out on their respective lines.

The men persist in the declaration that the ultimatum is a bluff, and it is said that very few men were yesterday induced to return to work in any of the departments.

Last evening Vice-President McNichol announced that all men who were not at their posts to-day at noon will be considered discharged from the company's employ.

To Talk Over Power.

Whitby, Aug. 18.—Mayor Jackson is inviting municipal councils of places east of Toronto as far as Cobourg to meet in conference at the earliest possible date in order to have the Niagara power transmission line serve this part of the province constructed under the McGuigan contract.

HARVESTING IS ON IN THE WEST

Cutting General in Manitoba—Crops Run 18 to 20 to Acre.

Winnipeg, Aug. 18.—It looks as though the crop in Winnipeg will average 17 to 18 bushels to the acre.

Wheat cutting was general yesterday in Portage Plains, the Brandon district, Indian Head, parts of the Sool line and everywhere where the crop is not late.

Several trainloads of harvesters are being sent out to-day from this city, and the demand by farmers is brisk, wages being about the same as last year, $1.75 per day and $45 per month up.

Trains with harvesters from Ontario coming in report no more trouble, though several were stoned in passing by irate sectionmen and construction gangs, smarting under the insults and indignities they had received from the lawless crowd from the Maritime Provinces.

A FINE PROGRAM IS PREPARED

For S. A. Band at Victoria Park To-night—Should be One of Best of Season

The following programme will be rendered at the musical festival given by the Salvation Army band tonight in Victoria park and it should be one of the most interesting of the season:

March, Southall.
Selection, Great Masters. This is one of the finest arrangements published by the Army.
Saxophone duet, Beautiful Christ, by Bandsmen Brown and James.
March, Candidate. One of the latest marches.
Selection, Songs of Scotland, by request.
Instrumental Sextette, "Bugle Calls."
March, Marching On.
Selection, Mercy. This selection won first prize in the competition, in 1906
Hymn, Nearer my God to Thee.
Finale, Songs of All Nations.

This is an exceedingly fine arrangement in which is introduced the National Anthems for different countries, arranged into one grand selection, with a finale of "God Save the King."

OBJECTS TO THE HOLIDAYS

The merchants and trade people of some towns do not evidently take very kindly to the weekly half holiday. The following article shows the objection to the much needed rest for the overworked clerk and the reasons for the objection.

The Wednesday half holiday in Dundas may be an outing for the boys, but it is certainly one of the greatest drawbacks ever introduced to the business of the town. It is driving business elsewhere; building up the trade of the steamboats and railways and helping young men to spend their earnings of the present and lay up nothing for the future.

The Wednesday afternoon holiday as a day of rest as a few hours' respite from overtaxed energies, is nothing more or less than a farce, and the sooner it is abandoned in Dundas the better it will be in the interest of Dundas as a business centre, and also in the interest of the employer and the employees.—Wentworth Light.

NOW CHARGED WITH MURDER

Two Hundred Jailed for Springfield Outrages

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 18.—Two hundred are prisoners in jail for rioting and stand to be charged with murder by the special grand jury, which the state's attorney is to request today.

A careful estimate places the number of negroes who have left Springfield since the beginning of the race war at 2,000. Of this number nearly three-fourths have gone out of the county on railroads and interurban lines. The rest have gone by wagon and on foot and are located in the rural districts.

All day 5,500 national guardsmen have been on duty and Springfield is again ruled by law and order.

The claim of George Richardson, the alleged attacker of Mrs. Hallam and one of the negroes spirited out of Springfield before the rioting reached an acute stage, that he could prove an alibi in the accusation against him, is generally credited here.

One more victim has been added to the death list as a result of the riots. G. W. Scott succumbed to a gunshot wound in the lungs. W. H. Bowe, city clerk in the county treasurer's office is expected to die at any time. His friends say if he does die he will be avenged.

"Wait till the troops go" is the slogan passed about among the citizens.

AN EXCELLENT TRIP OFFERED

When Bowlers Run Excursion to Cobourg on Thursday—Horse Show at Lakeshore Town

One of the very best outings of the summer will take place on Thursday afternoon, August 20th, when the members of the local Lawn Bowling Club will run an excursion to Cobourg in connection with bowling games to be played in the lakeside town.

Those who take advantage of the trip which in itself is a delightful one, to the prettiest summer town in the province, will also have an opportunity of seeing Canada's leading open air horse show. The most aristocratic horses from different cities will be seen at the show. The famous 48th Highlanders' Band of Toronto will be in constant attendance.

The special train for the excursion leaves the G.T.R. station at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and leaves Cobourg on the return trip at 9.30 in the evening.

THE PRIZE LIST FOR FALL FAIRS

Of Peterborough is Out—An Excellent One

The prize list for the sixth Peterborough industrial exhibition to be held on September 17th, 18th and 19th is out and is being eagerly sought after by competitors. A number of special prizes are being offered, among them being four offered by the Quaker Oats Co. for the two best loaves of bread made in the county. The first one is a barrel of Quaker flour, the second one a half barrel, the third one a quarter barrel and the fourth one a case of Quaker toasted corn flakes. Several other prizes too numerous to mention, are being given, comprising one of the best lists ever sent out.

CENSURE FOR THE OFFICIALS

Magistrate Says Restitution in Col. Leslie's Case Was Illegally Secured.

Toronto, Aug. 17.—Sharp words of censure on the neglect of Mayor Oliver and the police authorities to prosecute Col. J. K. Leslie when the original shortage of $10,000 was discovered was spoken by Magistrate Denison on the resumption of the preliminary enquiry yesterday.

Col. Denison made some biting references to the advice given the mayor by Corporation Counsel Fullerton, wherein the latter said that the city's first duty was to recover the money and that there was no obligation to prosecute. The magistrate reaffirmed his belief that illegal means had been taken to obtain restitution.

Flyer Stalled.

Chatham, Aug. 18.—The G. T. R. International Limited met with a slight accident just west of here on Saturday evening. The officials state that the journal of one of the drivers burned out, somewhat alarming the passengers. Another engine, which happened to be in the Chatham yards, was despatched to the scene and pulled the train into the city two and one-half hours late. No one was hurt.

Celebrate Scott Victory.

Regina, Aug. 18.—On Saturday evening the Liberals of Regina celebrated the victory of the Liberal party in the recent election by a monster gathering at the City Hall, a torchlight procession and a fireworks display.

Hotelman's Sudden Death.

Ottawa, Aug. 18.—W. R. Queale, one of the best known Ottawa hotelmen, died rather suddenly in St. Luke's Hospital last night. He was proprietor of the Bodega, but had his license taken away quite recently.

Many Children Die.

Montreal, Aug. 18.—One hundred and twelve children under five years of age died in this city last week. This number represents 66 per cent. of the total number of deaths in the city.

Injunction at Berlin.

Berlin, Aug. 18.—The Mayor of Berlin has been served with a writ of summons calling for an injunction against the town to prevent the mayor from signing the power bylaw.

C. P. R. Earnings.

Montreal, Aug. 18.—C. P. R. traffic for week ended Aug. 14, 1908, was $1,420,000; for the same week last year $1,546,000.

CRAZY MOTHER'S AWFUL CRIME

Gave Four Children Morphine and Attempted to Shoot Herself.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Aug. 18.—Mrs. Ida Spooner, a widow while temporarily insane, gave her four children morphine Sunday night and attempted to shoot herself next morning.

Gardner, six years old, is dead; Eastmain, aged 9, and Morris, aged 16, are in a serious condition in Vassar Hospital. Mattie, 10 years old, is out of danger.

Mrs. Spooner shot herself above the right ear with a 22-calibre revolver and may have taken some of the poison also. She is in the hospital conscious, but irrational.

Fire at Mt. Pleasant.

Bradford, Aug. 18.—Mount Pleasant, two miles north of here, which two weeks ago was badly wrecked by a windstorm, was yesterday the scene of a fire which did considerable damage. The entire property of Richard Thorpe was completely destroyed, his loss being more than $4,000, with insurance of $3,000.

The Mt. Pleasant school house and the residence of Mr. Beswetherick were also damaged to a slight extent.

Steamship Ashore.

Sydney, N. S., Aug. 18.—The steamship Bruce of the Reid-Newfoundland service ran ashore at Baldwin's Reef in a dense fog. The passengers were taken off safely in lifeboats.

The Bruce was built at a cost of $250,000. She was a splendidly equipped passenger boat of 15 knots speed, and specially fitted to encounter ice. She has gone through solid ice ten feet thick. The vessel was the pride of every Newfoundlander.

Earl Grey Leaves.

Montreal, Aug. 18.—Earl Grey left Montreal this morning to inspect the canals of the St. Lawrence. He will make the trip on board the steamer Speedy, belonging to the Department of Public Works. Accompanying Earl Grey officially will be Deputy Minister M. J. Butler. The Lachine Canal and the Soulanges Canal will be the first inspected.

Runaway Rector Resigns.

Kingston, Aug. 18.—The wardens of the St. Mark's Church have received the resignation of the Rev. J. H. Nimmo, who eloped with Miss Stewart, whom he married in Rome, N. Y. He requests that he be deposed from the ministry, and he will be formally deposed as soon as authority is received from the bishop, now in England.

RUIN THROUGHOUT PROVINCE FROM YESTERDAY'S STORM

Weston G.T.R. Station is Struck and Destroyed During Electrical Disturbances—Goderich Heavy Sufferer Family of Indians Wiped Out.

Toronto, Aug. 18.—The electrical storm early yesterday frightened the citizens of Toronto and did much damage throughout the province.

The tower at the Mercer Reformatory, Parkdale, was struck by lightning shortly after midnight. Cowan avenue firemen were called, and without alarming the inmates the fire was extinguished with $50 damage.

The G. T. R. station at Weston, built in 1857, was struck and destroyed. A passing train crew raised the alarm.

The rainfall in Toronto was comparatively light, only .64 of an inch.

Lightning struck the Thorold bridge on the Welland division of the N., St. C. & T. Railway over the Welland Canal, and did about $100 damage. The transformer station of the Falls Power Co. in St. Catharines was struck, and the whole equipment reduced to scrap. The damage is estimated at $6,000 to $8,000, partly covered by insurance.

The damage to fruit in the Niagara district was small.

Around Goderich trees were uprooted and broken branches are strewn in all directions. The roof was partially blown off the McLean block on the Square over the stores occupied by W. C. Pridham and H. Edwards. The Wheel Rigs Co.'s plant was badly damaged, windows blown in and the roof half taken off.

The Brantford waterworks plant was struck and the chimney, 86 feet high, was damaged to the extent of $1,400. The top was split and the fluid plowed a course from top to bottom, cracking the outside shell.

At Hamilton $50 damage was done in a private house, where the lightning ran in on the wires and a maid servant at T. Peacock's residence fell down stairs while hunting for cover from the vivid flashes and was badly shaken up.

George Bowman's barn, at German Mills, was burned; loss $2,000.

Alexander Barnet, lumberman, of Kingston, has had reports from his men at the headwaters of the Soulange river, in Quebec, telling him of the wiping out of a family of Indians by lightning. They had gone to an island to wash when a storm arose and lightning struck a tree under which they sought shelter. A babe in a cradle held by the mother escaped.

Circus Twice Wrecked.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 18.—Barnum & Bailey's big circus, which arrived to show here, met with an accident at Port Kells on Sunday, when four cars were derailed and a second mishap occurred at noon yesterday near New Westminster, when the fourth section was derailed.

Two men are injured as a result of the accidents.

To Vote on Sunday Cars.

London, Aug. 18.—The City Council last night, by a vote of six to five, granted a petition sending the question of Sunday street cars to the people for a vote.

Drowns In Water Tank.

Elm Creek, Man., Aug. 18.—Chas. Trimmer, 18 years of age, was drowned here.

He was engaged in filling a tank with water and in some manner the tank overturned and held him in the water.

Hockey Player In Police Court.

Brantford, Aug. 18.—William Taylor, hockey and lacrosse player, appeared at the Police Court here yesterday morning charged with brutal assault on his wife and also with having also drawn a revolver on her.

Policeman Badly Beaten.

Toronto, Aug. 18.—P. C. Pat Lyons of No. 6 division was brutally set upon and beaten by a gang of Brockton hoodlums in Francis Carey's backyard, 55 Delaney crescent, while taking one Woods into custody.

The officer was knocked down and kicked about the head and face. One of his cheek bones is fractured, and he will be laid up at his home for some days.

Barnardo Boy Drowns.

Smith's Falls, Aug. 18.—A young English youth, a stranger here, named George Gutteridge, was drowned while bathing in the Rideau river yesterday. Some boys who were near him saw him disappear and when he did not come up one of them dived for him and found him lying in the bed of the river. Though not more than five minutes elapsed from the time he went down two hours of skilled work failed to resuscitate him.

Aitken Is Appointed.

Toronto, Aug. 18.—Kenneth L. Aitken is to be engineer in charge of the construction and operation of the civic electrical distribution plant at a salary of $3,000 a year.

The board of control made the appointment on recommendation of the city engineer.

BROTHERS ARRAIGNED FOR MURDER OF W. F. ANNIS

Soldier and Author Appear in Long Island Court Handcuffed Together as Murderer and Accessory—No Insanity Plea Will be Advanced and Prisoners Confident of Acquittal.

New York, Aug. 17.—Capt. Peter C. Hains, Jr., who shot and killed W. F. Annis at the Bayside Yacht Club on Saturday, and his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, seemed but little disturbed yesterday when they were arraigned before Magistrate Gilroy in the First District Court in Long Island City. The two brothers, handcuffed together and followed by a crowd of men and boys, were compelled to walk all the way from the magistrate's court to the county court house, a mile away. Capt. Hains was arraigned on a charge of murder, and his brother, who kept back the crowd with a revolver while the captain slew the man he asserted had ruined his home, was charged with being an accessory. General Peter C. Hains, father of the young men, sat in the court room and nodded to his sons, but did not have much opportunity to talk with them. A remand of a week was asked for and granted.

District Attorney Darren will vigorously oppose any attempt to secure bail. He says that he will present the case to the October term of the grand jury and will endeavor to have the case disposed of by a speedy trial.

Before the arraignment yesterday Harvey G. Rockwell, who had been a close friend of William Annis, the slain man, turned over to the district attorney of Queen's county a package of letters received recently by Annis, in which he was warned that his life was in danger. It was said that the last letter received cautioned him against visiting the Bayside Yacht Club Saturday.

General Hains, a tall, erect, splendid figure of a military man, stated that he had no fear of the outcome of the case and neither had his sons.

"The defence? Well, Annis was the man who ruined my son's home and was named as co-respondent in his divorce action. I guess that supplies both motive and defence."

Attorney Percy at this point made the direct statement about the defence which the old general had hinted at.

"We have in our possession," he said, "the signed confession of Mrs. Hains. We expect it to be our principal defence. I cannot make the confession public or even intimate closely its nature until it has been examined by prominent criminal lawyers who will be associated in the defence."

From all indications the trial of the brothers will be even more striking as a legal battle than either of the Thaw trials, for it seems that no plea of insanity is to be made. Discussing the case, District Attorney Darren said: "I cannot see how the men can plead impulse or insanity—since the shooting was apparently planned hours, if not days, before it took place. They cannot put up a Thaw defence."

LOSS IS HEAVY AT GORE BAY

Damage in Sunday's Fire Amounts to $75,000.

Gore Bay, Aug. 18.—The most disastrous fire in the history of the town started at 1.20 Sunday morning somewhere behind Mutchmore's general store, and in a few hours most of the business section was wiped out.

The total loss is estimated at $75,000. There is nothing standing between J. Russell McGregor's stone block and the Gamey building on one side of Meredith street. Across the road the fire made a clean sweep between Dr. Johnston's drug store and the small building owned by John Goodmurphy. In all about twenty buildings have been destroyed.

Arrested a Funeral.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—Because a funeral drove over a boulevard, Policeman William Hallman arrested it. He took the corpse, hearse and 27 carriages full of mourners to the police station, and it was held there thirty minutes until the police captain of the precinct ordered the funeral's release.

At the station the mourners became so angry that a rush was made to attack the sparrow cop. He drew his revolver and held the crowd at bay until eight policemen came to his rescue.

Confesses to Burglaries.

Guelph, Aug. 18.—Berd Tryon, 20 years of age, yesterday morning pleaded guilty to a charge of breaking into the office of M. F. Gray, a coal dealer and James Goldie, a miller. This clears up the mystery of a half dozen attempted burglaries that have been attempted within the last three months. Gray's office was entered no less than four times and Goldie's twice. In all his attempts the amateur cracksman has not succeeded in getting more than $12.15. He was remanded for a week.

Horse Thieves Caught.

Hamilton, Aug. 18.—Three alleged horse thieves were captured yesterday. Two of them at Waterdown, and County Constable Tufford rounded up another later in the day. The prisoner's name is Parker, and it is alleged that he stole a horse and outfit in Brantford. County Constable Kerr took him to Brantford last night.

Leg Crushed by Roller.

Toronto, Aug. 18.—His bicycle slewing on the wet and greasy pavement, James Heffernan, a 15-year-old lad, was thrown in front of a slow moving 15-ton steam roller, and the lower part of his right leg was mangled and rolled out almost as thin as cardboard yesterday afternoon.

Would Tax Roads More.

Welland, Aug. 18.—H. J. Pettypiece, ex-M. P. P. for Forest, advocated increased railway taxation at a gathering of seven thousand people at Crystal Beach yesterday, the joint picnic of the Farmers' Institute, Women's Institutes and Boards of Trade of the county.

Dock Strike Settled.

Brockville, Aug. 18.—The strike of the Prescott longshoremen employed at the coal docks, which took place over three months ago, has at length been satisfactorily adjusted, and the Italians who took their places at the time have been retired.

Woollen Mill Closed.

St. Catharines, Aug. 18.—The woollen mill belonging to the Penman Manufacturing Co. at Thorold is all but shut down. The company have now sufficient stock on hand to supply all of next season's orders that are in sight.

THE DUKHOBORS ARE HERETICAL

They Reject James Sharpe Who Professed to be Their Saviour.

Winnipeg, Aug. 18.—The crusade of James Sharpe, the leader of the band of fanatics who created a sensation by invading Canada from the United States about a month ago, declaring they had a divine message to the Doukhobors, has ended as was foreseen. The Doukhobors refused positively to share Sharpe's hallucinations that he was Christ, or that his wife was the Virgin Mary, and he, in turn, true to his declaration, has decided to shake the dust of Canada off his feet.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

An epidemic of cattle stealing is reported in Middlesex.

E. D. Earle, formerly of Toronto, has been appointed J. P. at Mardstone, Sask.

The C. P. R. roundhouse was burned at Minnedosa, Man. Three engines were badly damaged.

Harry Denney of Kingston, Ont., fell off the steamer Caspian at Rochester and was drowned.

During the stay of the U. S. fleet at Auckland, two negro stokers got into a fight and one was killed.

A distant earthquake was recorded at Ottawa Observatory. The disturbance was 3,000 miles away.

The Nebish Channel in the Soo river opened Sunday. The steamer Geo. F. Baker was the first through.

Osman Nizami Pasha has been appointed Turkish Minister of War to succeed Redjeb Pasha, who died suddenly of apoplexy.

The boiler of the steamer Leelanau blew up on Carp Lake, Mich., killing Mrs. Isabel Labonte and two others, and injuring a score.

Slashed Victim's Face.

Toronto, Aug. 18.—Seated astride his victim and slashing at his face like a demon with a broken butcher knife, blood covering both their faces, John Flynn, 190 West Adelaide street, was pulled off the writhing body of Joseph Noonan of 97 Sackville street by P. C. Saunderson on West Adelaide street last evening and locked up in No. 1 police station.

Noonan was taken to St. Michael's Hospital, where it was found he had five slashes in his head and face and a bad wound in his shoulder, requiring 24 stitches.

Negligent Trainman Flees.

Ottawa, Aug. 18.—The Railway Commission has received reports upon the fatal railway accident near White River on July 27.

This was a rear-end collision, a section of the Transcontinental crashing into a preceding section.

It proves to have been a bad case of negligence, the brakeman of the forward section, L. Atkinson, not having gone the proper distance to the rear to signal the approaching train.

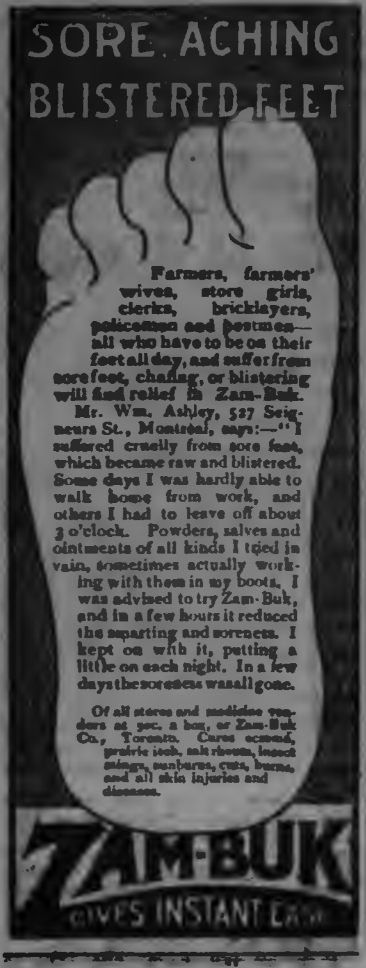
Atkinson is reported to have fled the country.

Raps International Unions.

Montreal, Aug. 18.—Dr. P. Pelletier created a sensation at Sherbrooke when he denounced international unions at the meeting of the Carpenters' and Joiners' Union.

For Canadian workmen he believed in local unions, but what did the carpenters of the Southern States care for the carpenters of Sherbrooke? But the latter would have to go out or leave the union if international officers say so, even if no grievance was felt here.

Dundas Methodists are arranging to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the founding of their Sunday school.



Farmers, farmers' wives, store girls, clerks, bricklayers, policemen and postmen—all who have to be on their feet all day, and suffer from sore feet, chafing, or blistering will find relief in Zam-Buk.

Mr. Wm. Ashley, 527 Seigneurs St., Montreal, says:—"I suffered cruelly from sore feet, which became raw and blistered. Some days I was hardly able to walk home from work, and others I had to leave off about 3 o'clock. Powders, salves and ointments of all kinds I tried in vain, sometimes actually working with them in my boots. I was advised to try Zam-Buk, and in a few hours it reduced the smarting and soreness. I kept on with it, putting a little on each night. In a few days the soreness was all gone.

Of all stores and medicine vendors at 50c. a box, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Cures eczema, prairie itch, salt rheum, insect stings, sunburns, cuts, burns, and all skin injuries and diseases.

NIAGARA POWER

The public will gain by the saving of a quarter of a million dollars in the cost of the Niagara power transmission line. This is one of the advantages of a public power system. —The Globe.

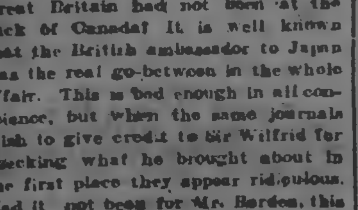
The rescue of Niagara power from the hands of the spoilers where it had been placed by the Ross Government, whose treacherous action was heartily endorsed by Mr. A. G. Mackay, was one of the greatest blessings of the age. The transmission line which the "financial" men derided as a hopeless expense has fallen $250,000 short of the Whitney Government's Commission's estimate. So much for the money lords. There will be no getting rich at the people's expense under the Whitney Government if Sir James knows it. He is now in London with Hon N. Monteith, looking after immigration. No wild cat immigration schemes for him !

QUEBEC

It would appear that an effort is being made to stampede the French-Canadians, as usual, immediately prior to an election. Why French-Canadians should fear English-Canadians is more than can be readily understood. They now have a portion of Canada at least three times as large as any other province extending from Davis Strait on the extreme north of the Maine boundary. Since the acquisition of Ungava, Quebec has become practically the whole Atlantic front of the Dominion. They have through the Premier and a fair share of ministers, practically dominated Canadian thought and action for the last twelve years. In the eyes of the world today Canada is French, not English. Why then should our fellow-Canadians grumble? We are willing to give them full credit for their numerous good qualities. Why can they not do the same with us?

BLUFF

The ministerial press is making a great boast that the Japanese immigration question was settled without the 'interference of Great Britain.' How much of it would have been settled we would like to know if Great Britain had not been at the back of Canada? It is well known that the British ambassador to Japan was the real go-between in the whole affair. This is bad enough in all conscience, but when the same journals wish to give credit to Sir Wilfrid for checking what he brought about in the first place they appear ridiculous. Had it not been for Mr. Borden, this country would now have a horde of oriental competitors at a low wage for Canadian work. What do these journals take their readers for?



THE SCANDAL GOVERNMENT

When Mr. Oliver and his colleagues in the Ministry were accused of improper disposal of timber limits to their friends they said Conservatives were allowed the same chance to buy. One case in proof was given over and over again. They said that William Cowan of Prince Albert, a Conservative, got a valuable limit just the same as Mr. Burrows, brother-in-law of the Minister in charge.

But an examination of the papers and an inquiry in the Public Accounts Committee showed the matter in a new light. Mr. Cowan did not write his own tender. He did not fix the amount. He did not furnish the cheque. The tender was written by A. W. Fraser, the Ottawa politician, who is now the Government candidate in that city, and who has been mixed up with the Imperial Pulp Company and Mr. Burrows in a dozen Western timber deals, and has carried through several of his own. Mr. Fraser was before the committee, and testified that he had written the Cowan tender under instructions from Mr. Burrows, and not from Mr. Cowan, that Mr. Burrows had furnished the cheques and was the only man he knew in the matter.

Mr. Fraser also stated that he wrote the McBain tender, and that McBain had no interest in it, but merely lent his name for the purpose. Mr. Fraser had another man in Montreal named Nolan, who also lent his name to Mr. Fraser and to Mr. Burrows' Imperial Pulp Company, when they did not wish to appear in their own name. Mr. McBain obtained this lease and assigned it to Mr. Fraser.

Fraser and Burrows got the property and sold to Cowan. Cowan paid them $80 000. They paid the Government $6 000. All these facts came out in evidence before the Public Accounts Committee of Parliament. So it was not Cowan, the Conservative, but Fraser and Burrows who got the pickings. But the funny part of it all was that Minister Oliver proclaimed on the floor of the House that Cowan, who got the property, was the highest tenderer and that everything was regular. So it was. A regular swindle, one of the usual regulation everyday sort that have filled the pages of the record of Parliament with shame and with details of the wholesale robbery of the people. Now, we understand why Grit politicians are so fond of shouting "We are the people!" From the way they walk off with timber limits they evidently think so. This is the same Mr. Fraser who bounced the sitting member for Ottawa and has taken his place as candidate in the coming contest.

SASKATCHEWAN

The following editorial of the Toronto Globe gives a better idea of the utter rankness of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's pretensions respecting the western provinces than anything that the Opposition press might offer. It is well worthy of study ;—

The returns now in make it certain that the Scott Government has been sustained in Saskatchewan. The majority is not as large as is desirable, but in a House of forty members Mr. Scott will find his support quite sufficient for all practical purposes. The Opposition is not able to congratulate itself on the success of the demagogic appeals which were its main reliance in the election. Persistent efforts were made to persuade the electors that the Province was entitled to the Public lands. They were left to infer that they should have these lands without any diminution in the yearly subsidies from the Dominion treasury. In apportioning the Dominion subsidies those to Saskatchewan and Alberta were made proportionately larger than those to the other Provinces as an allowance in lieu of lands. They cannot have the lands and the increased subsidies too. To pretend otherwise is a piece of arrant demagogery, which Mr. Borden has tacitly encouraged. The leader of the Opposition knows that if he were in power to-morrow he could not, in justice to the other Provinces convey the lands to the western Provinces and at the same time continue the present subsidies.

A judicial consideration of the question must lead to the conclusion that in retaining the lands (lands which are purchased by the people of Canada) the Federal Government took the right course. It is charged with the development and settlement of the Dominion and the keynote of its policy in this behalf has been the offer of free lands to settlers. On this its immigration policy is built. Would the Provinces maintain them as free lands? If so, where would the Provincial revenues come from? If, on the other hand, a price were set on them would it not largely invalidate the Federal Government's immigration policy and put a check on the growth of population in the West? All the great transportation projects there are based on an expectation of increased and increasing population. Indeed, the most important lines of Federal policy are interlocked and interwoven in such a way that to withdraw any portion of them would seriously impair the integrity of the whole structure. If Mr. Borden were in power he would have to make a choice between transferring the lands and reducing the subsidies or letting things remain as they are, and the latter alternative would be the best for the Dominion and the best for the Provinces.

The question should be frankly and fully discussed in the West. The possession of the lands is no source of profit to the Dominion. Quite the contrary. Their value is as the keystone of the arch of western settlement. When the time arrives that the offer of free lands is no longer considered necessary, and that may arrive sooner than any of us expect, the propriety of transferring the lands to Provincial management will arise, and a valuable asset will be handed over to the people of the West—made valuable by the present judicious and energetic policy of immigration and settlement.—The Globe.

THE COMMON APPLE A GREAT SOURCE OF HEALTH

The Juice of the Ordinary Apple Is One of the Best Things in the World For Keeping the Blood Pure.

Few people there are but enjoy a ripe, juicy apple. But how many realise that it is a medicine as well as a treat?

Apple juice has a very marked effect on the kidneys, increasing their power to throw off the waste products of the body, called urea, and thus prevent Rheumatism, Sciatica, Neuralgia, and similar troubles that come from poisoned blood.

Similarly, other fruits stimulate the action of the liver and bowels—others of the skin. Combined, they keep the blood pure—the body clean and healthy.

To get this effect, however, one must eat a great deal of fruit, or better, eat a little fruit and take "Fruit-a-tives."

"Fruit-a-tives" are tablets in which the juices of ripe fruits, with their medicinal value intensified, are combined with valuable tonics. They act directly on Bowels, Kidneys and Skin and put them in perfect condition—thus ensuring the thorough elimination of all waste matter and poisons from the body. Trial box 25c. Regular size 50c.—6 Boxes for $2.50. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The majority in the last House in Saskatchewan for Scott was 7. It is now in a House of 41, 10.

Ontario, New Brunswick, British Columbia, Manitoba Prince Edward Island on one side a doubtful Nova Scotia, Saskatchewan and Alberta together with Quebec on the other. If provincial elections mean anything in the federal arena there is plenty of meaning here.

The table waiters at the St Lawrence summer resorts who are not getting the regular union tips should apply for intervention under the Lemieux Act.—Globe.

This sneer just about describes the Globe's idea of being reasonable not to say sympathetic. It evidently thinks there is only one side to the wage question.

Liberal newspapers in all parts of Ontario have entered into the fight against further inflation of the cost of woollens. The Conservative campaign in that regard has had the good effect of clearing the public mind on a question that will never entirely pass from public discussion.—Globe.

There are a few woollen mills left.

Nearly all the constituencies where the electors are independent of homestead officers and immigration officials and can defy the power of the federal government have gone Conservative. In the new districts, where foreign settlers have not yet secured titles to their lands, in places where seed grain was distributed by the Dominion Government, among European strangers whom Government interpreters could persuade the ministerial party did better.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

TORONTO MEN HAD A GOOD TIME

Were at Stony Lake—Recommend Painting of the Buoys

Messrs H F Strickland, O E Foote, and H. O. Friend of Toronto, came down from Stony Lake yesterday, where they had been for the last two weeks at Tates' dump, better known as 'Maaquabemish," which may be translated as "Shanty in the Woods" The party report a good time, such as Toronto men appreciate.

The gentlemen being of an observing eye, suggest that the buoys be re-painted a decent and perceptible white. This would, they aver, smarten the scenery and give a joy to boat owners.

The Taking of Lorena.

By ANNE HEILMAN.

Copyrighted, 1908, by Associated Literary Press.

Although it was the second week in May, there were sudden and chill whiffs of wind from the north, accompanied by flying particles of ice and snow, grim warning that winter had not yet renounced its sway in the northland.

Floyd Jordan, striding down the steep mountain trial, halted irresolutely near the abrupt turning at Farrell's bluff. He appeared to be meditating deeply. Suddenly he threw up his head, squared his shoulders and hurried on, not in the direction of the boarding house in the gulch, but toward Farrell's cabin.

Farrell's cabin consisted of two log houses joined together and chinked with mud. There were other cabins of the same simple architecture scattered over the mountain side and nestled in the gulches, but white curtains hung at the Farrell windows, and the windward side of the living room was hung with gay Navajo blankets.

The brown fur of a mountain bear was on the floor, and its mate was spread luxuriously beneath the red pillows of a couch. And, set like a torch in the south window, a geranium, potted in a brilliant Indian basket, lifted its scarlet bloom.

But Jordan felt without seeing this harmony. He was looking into the face of the girl who had opened the door. It was a face of light and shade which spoke the swift thought before the voice found words, a face to hold a man's glance in a crowd. Closing the door, she resumed her seat by the fire without replying to Jordan's genial greeting.

He seemed to fill the room. Six feet two and broad shouldered, he looked even larger in the clumsy canvas coat, corduroys and high laced boots of the prospector. He whipped his hat against his knee, evidently disconcerted by the girl's hostile attitude.

"That you, Floyd Jordan?" inquired a voice from the inner room.

"Yes, Mrs. Farrell. How're you feeling?"

"Some better, I'm glad to say. Set down and warm yourself, Floyd. 'Tain't to be wondered at that people have rheumatism in a land where there is ten months' winter. If you'll shut the door, Loreny, I'll get up and dress."

Lorena closed the door.

"Floyd Jordan, what are you coming here again for?" she burst out suddenly.

"Wouldn't be very neighborly not to drop in with your mother sick and your dad away, would it?"

"Didn't I tell you that I never would speak to you again and that I never wanted to see you?" she said fiercely, taking a few steps toward him. Even in that critical moment, with her eyes blazing unjust and unreasonable anger, the miner's heart throbbed acknowledgment of the tall, pliant, reedlike grace before him.

"Yes, Lorena, but I have just a little hope that you don't always mean what you say."

"Don't you think I mean it when I tell you I've heard how you bragged to the boys at the store that you could take me whenever you got good and ready?"

"I never said it in that way. Some one has garbled my words to suit their own purpose. Why, I've loved you from the first time I ever set eyes on you. I've been thinking of building a cabin on my claim—if you'll have me, Lorena. If you won't I'll sell out and go to the States."

"You can't go any too quick to suit me," answered the girl, her voice tense with scorn. "And you can tell them loafers at the store that I'm not to be taken so easily. I'd rather die than marry you, Floyd Jordan."

"I reckon that settles it," said Jordan, rising and buttoning his coat. "Please tell your mother goodby for me," and he was gone.

"Loreny Farrell, what have you been and done?" demanded her mother, limping into the room in her stocking feet. "You know's well as I do that Floyd never said nothing to nobody about you! The Blake girls made it all up, jealous 'cause you'd caught the likeliest young feller in the camp. You've driven him away for good this time. "He'll keep his word—he always does—and go to the States."

She re-entered the bedroom for her shoes, and Lorena stealthily opened the door and looked after her lover's retreating figure. He had almost reached the bluff. If he passed it she knew she would never see him again. Something stirred in her throat. The long stretch of trail that ran away through the dreary landscape seemed like her life, and Floyd was going out of it. Her heart yearned for him. What would her life be without him?

"Loreny, where are you?" called Mrs. Farrell, emerging from the bedroom fully shod. The girl was not in the room. Her mother opened the door and looked out, but a wall of whirling white met her vision.

"My God!" she gasped. "The child's gone after him."

She knew the risk. All morning the storm had been brewing, and now it thundered by, a veritable blizzard, the sort that swoops down on the northwest territory as late as June and as early as August. It compels the settler to string a wire from house to stables; it sets men circling in the snow; it catches little children coming home from school and buries them in monstrous drifts.

A knock sounded on the door, and Floyd entered, noisily stamping the snow from his feet.

"Thought I'd come back and have another talk with Lorena," he began.

"Oh, Floyd, she's gone after you!" cried the distracted woman, wringing her hands. "I saw her footprints pointing toward the bluff. She got scary right after you left."

"I'll find her," said Floyd quickly. "Don't worry." And he dashed back into the storm.

When Lorena softly closed the kitchen door she could just see Floyd rounding the bluff.

"Floyd! Oh, Floyd, come back!" she called, all her reserve gone, her fierce pride thrown to the stormy winds that blew the fringe of her shawl into her eyes.

Realizing that he could not hear her, she started after him, but by the time she had covered half the distance a sea of white swept in between and blotted him from view.

She hurried on, calling his name repeatedly, but the furious wind tore at her breath and walled her about with fleecy clouds. She never even made the bluff.

And when she found that she had missed it and tried to retrace her steps the drift had filled her tracks. If she could only strike the trail! In desperation she turned to the right and turned to the left, but one turn offset the other.

Thus she struggled on and on and still on until in spite of the biting cold the perspiration burst from every pore. This was well enough as long as she kept moving, but when the time came that she must stop she would freeze all the quicker for her present warmth.

This, being born and bred of the northland, Lorena knew, and the knowledge kept her toiling, toiling on until her tired limbs compelled a pause in the shelter of a bluff. She leaned panting against a rock, all unconscious of a pair of eyes which glared from a willow thicket near by.

While she rested the green lights in the eyes flared brighter, a long red tongue licked the grinning jaws hungrily, and forth from his covert stole a lank, gray wolf.

Lorena uttered a frightened cry. This was no coyote, to be chased with a stick, but a wolf of timber stock, a great beast, strong as a mastiff. He emitted low snarls as he slunk in half circles across her front. He was undecided.

So while he circled, preparing for a spring, drawing a little nearer at every turn, Lorena fell back—back toward the bluff, keeping her white face always to the creeping beast.

With sudden inspiration she took off her heavy shawl and threw it, blanketwise, over the wolf's head and then fled desperately. Once clear of the shrub she ran on, plunging through drifts, stumbling, falling, to rise again and push her flight.

Of direction she took no heed. Her only thought was to place distance between herself and the famished brute. But when, weary and breathless, she paused to rest, out of the drab drift stole the lank, gray shadow.

With a terrified shriek Lorena ran and ran and ran as the tired doe runs from the hounds. At last she stopped, spent, unable to take another step. Looking around, she saw the wolf, licking his hungry jaws, crouching for the final spring. With a bitter cry she fell upon her knees and closed her eyes.

Just then two shots rang out in quick succession. Looking up, she saw Floyd Jordan, with his smoking revolver in his hand, standing over the prostrate beast.

"Floyd, oh, Floyd!" she sobbed as he came to her with eyes tender and anxious. He picked her up from the snow, wrapped her in his coat and held her against his breast.

The storm was lifting. Farrell's cabin could be plainly discerned not a quarter of a mile distant.

"I'm dead sure now I'll build that cabin on my claim," Floyd said as they started homeward.

Exporters.

Export steers sold at $4.90 to $5.55, and one load at $5.60; bulls, $3.50 to $4.50 per cwt.

Butchers.

Best picked butchers, $4.60 to $4.75; loads of good, $4.25 to $4.50; medium, $3.90 to $4.25; common, $3.50 to $3.75; cows, $2.50 to $4; canners, $1 to $2; common cows slow sale.

Milkers and Springers.

About a dozen milkers and springers sold at $30 to $60 each.

Veal Calves.

A limited number of veal calves sold at $3 to $6 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

There was a fairly good demand for export sheep, at $4 to $4.25 for ewes, and $3 to $3.25 for rams, and lambs sold at $5.50 to $6.10 per cwt.

Hogs.

Gunns, Limited, report selects, fed and watered, at $6.65, and $6.40, f.o.b. cars at country points.

Montreal Live Stock.

MONTREAL, Aug. 17.—(Special.)—At the Montreal Stock Yards West End Market the receipts of live stock for the week ending Aug. 15 were 2281 cattle, 1225 sheep and lambs, 1085 hogs and 225 calves.

The offerings this morning for local consumption consisted of 800 cattle, 800 sheep and lambs, 700 hogs and 100 calves.

A stronger feeling prevailed in the market for cattle, and prices, as compared with a week ago, show an advance of 15c to 25c per 100 lbs. This was due to the fact that the supply was fully 150 head smaller, and good to choice beeves were somewhat scarce. There was a good demand from local and Quebec buyers for the best beeves, and a fairly active trade was done.

Choice cattle sold at 5c to 5¼c; good at 4¾c to 4⅞c; fair at 4c to 4½c; common at 3½c to 3¾c, and inferior at 2½c to 3¼c per pound.

In spite of the continued small arrivals of lambs, a weaker feeling has developed in the market of late and prices are lower, sales of small lots this morning being made at 5½c to 6c per pound, and at $3 to $5 each. The demand for good to choice sheep for export account is fairly good, but as supplies are limited the volume of business doing is not large, and prices rule firm at 4c, with the culls selling at 3½c to 3¾c per pound. Calves are scarce, for which the demand is good, and prices are firm, with sales of good to choice at $8 to $10, and the lower grades at $4 to $7 each.

Altho the supply of hogs was small, there being only 700 head on the market, a weaker feeling prevailed, and prices ruled 10c to 25c per 100 pounds lower than a week ago. This was due to the fact that packers were fairly well supplied, and in consequence the demand was not very keen, even at the reduction, as sellers in some cases found it difficult to find buyers, and the indications were that some would be carried over for a later market.

Sales of selected stock were made at $6.80 to $7 per 100 pounds, weighed off cars.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

EAST BUFFALO, Aug. 17.—Cattle—Receipts, 3750 head; butchers and stockers and feeders active and 10c to 15c higher; prime steers, $6.25 to $6.50; shipping, $5.25 to $6; butchers', $4.50 to $5.65; heifers, $3.50 to $5.50; cows, $3 to $5; bulls, $2.75 to $4.50; stockers and feeders, $3.25 to $4.50; stock heifers, $3 to $3.50; fresh cows and springers in good demand and strong, $20 to $55.

Veals—Receipts, 1500 head; active and 50c lower, $5 to $8.

Hogs—Receipts, 12,000 head; fairly active and 10c to 25c higher; heavy and mixed, $7 to $7.15; yorkers, $6 to $7.10; pigs, $5 to $6.50; roughs, $5.25 to $5.75; stags, $3.75 to $4.25; dairies, $6 to $6.75.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 5000 head; active and steady; lambs, $4.25 to $6.25; a few, $6.35; yearlings, $4.50 to $5; wethers, $4.50 to $4.75; ewes, $4 to $4.25; sheep, mixed, $2.50 to $4.25.

TWO FINE SHADE TREES BLOWN DOWN

Two in Front of Mr. P. Hamilton's House on Water St. Over Thrown

A large maple tree in front of Mr. Peter Hamilton's residence on Water street was blown down during yesterday afternoon's windstorm. Last night it was lying right across the street, blocking the thoroughfare. Last week during a thunderstorm another beautiful shade tree was thrown over, just alongside of the one blown down yesterday. The street has been robbed of two fine shade trees and has been made rather bare looking.

THE HUSBAND BADLY FOOLED

A Marital Episode in Which Couple From These Parts and American Millionaire Played Principal Parts

A story is in circulation to the effect that a man from the vicinity of Peterborough had a very unexpected, and to express it mildly, unpleasant experience in an American city recently. It is said that he was robbed of his better half, who is by no means unattractive and by an American millionaire. Rumor has it that he is a millionaire and from all reports he has an abundance of money.

The rich man had the husband in the city referred to as his guest, so the story goes, and gave him a fine time, taking him around the place in an automobile, and showing him many attentions.

However, it was managed to get the unsuspecting Canadian in the company of a woman who was not his wife, and his wife seeing him in such company, became very wrath at once. She said she had had enough of him and accusing him of being unfaithful to her, left him and when last heard of was living with the man of wealth.

The good time for the husband suddenly ceased and he awoke from his dream of pleasure to find himself deserted. It is said that his wife is prepared to take divorce proceedings against him should the occasion ever come up when it would be desirable to do so.

WEDDING BELLS

REID—STEWART

A very pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at 10 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. Joseph Stewart, License Inspector for West Peterborough, 514 Aylmer street, when his eldest daughter, Margaret E. (Retta) was united in marriage to Mr. Percy S. Reid, youngest son of the late Edward Reid and manager of the J. C. Turnbull Co. of this city.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. A. Pearson, pastor of the George street Methodist church, in the drawing room in the presence of only the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The wedding music was provided by Miss Viola Palmer, of this city.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was gowned in a dress of cream marquisette over taffeta with trimmings of lace and satin ribbon. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride and groom were unattended, except by the bride's little sister, Miss Eva, who acted as ring bearer. She wore a pretty dress of white mulle.

After the ceremony and hearty congratulations had been bestowed upon the young couple, the guests sat down to a dainty breakfast, served by Mr. T. Hooper. The groom's gift to the bride was a hoop of pearls to the ring bearer and pianist gold bracelets. The bride received a handsome cheque from her father and mother, and a china tea set from Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Might.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid left on the 11.45 G.T.R. train for Port Hope, where they took the steamer for Charlotte, N.Y., and then down the St. Lawrence to Montreal. Mrs. Reid travelled in navy blue taffeta, with a blue mohair hat.

On their return they will reside at 227 Westcott street, where Mrs. Reid will be at home to her friends after the 22nd of September.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Review Does Not Hold Itself Responsible for Opinions Expressed by Correspondents

THE THEATOR HAT

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—I was pleased to note that a correspondent took well-timed objection to the too prevalent custom of ladies destroying the pleasure of the patrons of public amusement places. It seems to me the height of supreme selfishness that women should wear hats to, and particularly throughout the shows that effectively debars those for several seats back from seeing the performance.

If the ladies must wear these wide sized feathered hats let them in common thoughtfulness and with some care for the enjoyment of others, remove these "Merry Widows" whilst in the Crystal.

Yours,
READER.

August 17, 1908.

HON. J. P. GRAHAM

To the Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir,—At the Council meeting last night a motion that the Mayor and a Board of Trade representative meet the Hon. G. P. Graham at Gore's Landing, and that a reception be tendered the above gentleman and Mr. J. Butler, Chief Engineer of the Railways and Canals Department, was carried.

Now sir, what is the object of Mr. Graham's visit to Peterborough. Anyway the time to make such a trip is not in the middle of an Election but after it. Can't the Council see the object of that trip to Peterborough? It is a recognized fact this is the honorable gentleman's last term, and a man does not come at such a stage for nothing.

Who delegated R. R. Hall, M.P., to write and read the address? Eh? What?

Signed,
W. O.

GROWLS FROM GROWLER

Editor of the Review

Sir, Growl No 1, 'Eyesores' The rear of the city buildings is a disgrace. It is evident that for many years they will have to serve for municipal purposes, then why, in the name of decency, is not a little paint put upon them.

Victoria park is not kept as it should be. At the north side just east of the lawn there is an unsightly heap of rubbish; besides, there are at all times on the upper part numerous pieces of paper which entirely detract from the beauty of the lower part. Why should not the prisoners be utilized to keep this spot in order. The city contributes towards their maintenance and should get something out of them. There are other spots too numerous to mention which come within this category —it is to be hoped now that attention is drawn to them, there will soon be a change.

Growl No. 2; "Discourtesy." No one likes to be accused of this offence, but is it not true that there is a painful lack, in this city, of the courtesy due to strangers and foreigners. Visitors must frequently leave here with a feeling that Peterborough people are very ignorant of the amenities. I could instance some recent cases sufficiently glaring to make one blush for his town.

Every one should aim to make his town not only beautiful in appearance, but also in character.

Yours truly,
GROWLER.

MR. BAILEY AGAIN

The following post card, not pictorial, was received by Chief Rossel this morning;

"Because someone was using my canoe I moved it further down the river. Mr. Stocker, who camps opposite, informs me that some youths were using it last night and that I should have lost it if he had not them. You beg and borrow my money, break into my house, swindle me, insult and slander me in your newspapers. Is it not unfair.

Yours obediently,
W. A. BAILEY.

A SOLICITATION FOR MONEY THAT DOESN'T SUIT GROCERS

The Canadian Grocer says;

The grocers of Peterborough are very much averse to the prevailing habit among Sunday schools churches and other organizations of soliciting prizes for picnics. Almost every excursion leaving the city has previously arranged a programme of sports and many of the prizes for them are "begged" from the merchants.

One grocer in referring to this matter stated that it was a nuisance, and instead of being lessened or curtailed altogether was on the increase. It is only endured because of the fear of losing a number of customers. Once he begins to give, he is always giving and thus the nuisance continues. Baseball and other sporting clubs want to be supported and during the summer months in particular, the generosity of the grocer is imposed upon. The evil, it was thought by the grocer, was one that ought not to be countenanced. Though in a few cases it may work so as to put the grocer in a better light in the community it has become so common a thing that this scarcely applies.

It is not good business remarked the grocer, and he thoughtfully believed that the grocers who refused politely though firmly, to countenance such requests will be a good deal better off in the end. The system complained of prevalent in Peterborough has also been strongly condemned in Lindsay and it seems as if the practice is chronic. Grocers and other merchants should join hands to put down the nuisance.

THE SOANES' GOOD ENTERTAINMENT

Talented Musical Family at Foresters' Hall Last Night

The Soanes family gave a pleasing musical entertainment at the Foresters Hall, Simcoe street, last night.

The programme consisted of instrumental selections by the family and vocal and elocutionary numbers.

Among the various instrumentals in chorus and solo, were piano, violin, guitar and cello.

A couple of vocal duets, "How Many Have You Told That To," and "Sincerity," were well received and was the vocal trio by the Soanes juveniles "Capt. Baby Bunting." The various instrumental numbers, many of an original and bright character, were excellently rendered.

Come to Cobourg with the Peterboro Lawn Bowling Club on Thursday afternoon, July 20th and enjoy the finest open air Horse Show in America. The famous 48th Highlanders Band in attendance. Special excursion train leaves G.T.R. Station at 1 p.m. Returning special train leaves Coubourg at 9.30 p.m.

STORM BLEW A TREE DOWN

On Property of Mr. McMahon in Ashburnham

During the severe windstorm that accompanied the shower yesterday, a maple tree to the east of Mr. McMahon's house on the corner of Burnham and Robinson streets, was blown down. The wind must have been exceedingly forcible to blew a tree down as large as the one that was thrown over. Fortunately in its fall it did not strike the house.

ALL OFF WITH THE CIRCUS RINGLING'S WON'T BE HERE

It will be news of disappointment to the citizens to learn that Ringling Bros.' circus will not pay a visit to Peterborough this year. It was thought that the circus would be here this month, but no contract for the grounds has yet been received by Mr. C. A. Nixon, secretary of the Peterborough Turf Club, who looks after their renting (and from every appearance there will be no circus here this season.

Ringlings appeared in Winnipeg some time ago, but have deviated from the route through these parts which it was expected the circus would take.

Mr. Walter Stocker informed the Review this morning that it was a certainty the circus would not come this way.

FIRST DRILL OF 24TH F.B.C.A. IN ASHBURNHAM TO-NIGHT

The members of the 24th FBCA. are growing quite enthusiastic over their trip to Kingston on the 31st, when they leave to go into camp there for twelve days. The boys are getting in readiness for the outing and anticipate a thoroughly enjoyable time

It is most desirable that they should be well up in their drill movements, for the occasion and a full attendance at all drills preparatory to going to camp is requested.

The first drill will be held this evening at the Ashburnham drill shed and every battery man is asked to be present.

The issue of clothing will be made tonight.

The 24th has always made a favorable impression at the annual camps and will no doubt have the distinction of being one of the smartest batteries at Kingston this year.

SECRETARY TO MARK TWAIN A VISITOR HERE YESTERDAY

An Interview With Mr R. W. Ashecoft, of New York, Secretary to America's Greatest Humorist—A Member of a Party of Tourists on the Houseboat "Lotus"

One of the jolliest parties that have passed through this city this summer is that which was here yesterday and which left yesterday afternoon for Rice Lake on the houseboat "Lotus," where they will enjoy a two weeks' cruise on the lower waters. Last year the same party toured the Kawartha Lakes as far as Kirkfield, on Mr. R. B. Rogers' houseboat, the "Lotus." Those who constitute the party are the Misses L. Ashcroft, E. and K. Dalgeish, M. Nelson, of New York, and Misses E. McLean, D. Clark and Mrs. McPherson (chaperone) of Toronto, and Messrs. R. W. Ashcroft, of New York, and Fred Robson, of Toronto, and G. G. Beall, of Lindsay.

Among this party is Mr. R. W. Ashcroft, of New York, who is the private secretary of America's greatest humorist, Mark Twain. A reporter from the Review called on Mr. Ashcroft at the houseboat yesterday afternoon before it set out on its trip and had an interesting interview with him.

Mark Twain's name in private life is Mr. S. L. Clemens and at present he is residing at Redding, Conn. He has given up his New York residence and has taken a very beautiful country home among the hills of Connecticut. Mr. Ashcroft has been with Mark Twain for the past six years. He with the great fun-maker, spent the winter in the Bermudas. Mark Twain is very fond of travelling by water, but hates a journey on a train.

Although in his seventy-third year, the old humorist is still hale and hearty. He is an enthusiastic billiard player and Mr. Ashcroft stated that he would play until long after midnight before tiring. Another favorite game of Mark Twain's is "hearts" played with cards. He became so interested in this game that he would play three and four hours at a time.

Mark Twain has large business interests which are looked after by Mr. Ashcroft. This renowned story writer devotes his mornings to his literary work. A stenographer comes each day and while the author walks up and down the rooms he dictates as though he were addressing an audience.

Mark Twain's only surviving male relative was drowned while bathing at Sea Bright, N.J., two weeks ago. It was his nephew, Mr. Samuel E. Moffett for many years an editor on Collier's Weekly.

Speaking of financial conditions in New York, Mr. Ashcroft stated that the depression had passed away and things were assuming their old time liveliness. Although a Democrat, Taft would be elected.

FAIR DIRECTORS TO HOLD MEETING

LONGBOAT-SIMPSON 10 MILE RUN WOULD BE RACE OF CONSIDERABLE IMPORTANCE

Longboat and Simpson have both been notified of the cup that has been offered by Mr. J. H. Burnham, editor of the Review, for a ten mile race to be held in Peterborough. The responsible gentlemen of Peterborough, who take an interest in sporting affairs and who have been interviewed concerning the race, have all expressed themselves in favor of it and it is thought that the athletes will be glad to come.

To see Simpson and Longboat run ten miles would furnish a contest the like of which never has been seen in Peterborough and it would be a contest that would attract much attention in all parts of the province and in fact the result would be awaited with interest throughout a large part of the Dominion.

It is proposed to hold the race, should it materialize, with the sanction of the C.A.A.U.

BEST GAME OF THE SEASON YET TO BE PLAYED HERE

When Petes Clash With Winners of Toronto Senior City League for Championship of Ontario—Three Games in Series—Harry Burridge will Catch For Locals.

Although all the ball games in the Midland League are over, the best contest of the season will take place when the champion Petes, play the winners of the Toronto Senior City League for the championship of the province. At present there is much speculation as to which nine the local aggregation will have to meet for the honors, as there is a three-cornered tie to be fought among the Wellingtons, Park Nine and St. Mary's. Knotty Lee, the well-known twirler of the Montreal Eastern League team, has been signed by the Wellingtons for the balance of the season, and if that team wins the championship the Peterborough fans will have an opportunity of seeing the famous "Knotty" untie himself.

There will be three games for the provincial title, one here, one in Toronto and the third probably in Cobourg. Harry Burridge, who caught for Peterborough last year, will be the backstop for the locals in the game here and the enthusiasts will doubtless attend in large numbers to have the opportunity of seeing him work. From all reports Burridge has developed into a brilliant catcher, and has improved 50 per cent. during the past season. He has his work down to a scientific basis and has played this year in perfect style.

TOM LONGBOAT IN GOOD FORM WHEN HE WON FROM SIMPSON

The Toronto Star says the following about the Simpson-Longboat race at Hamilton at the reception to Bobby Kerr:

The first mile in 5.20, loafing, and talking to his opponent.

The second in 5 minutes flat.

The third in 5.04.

Victory by half of a quarter-mile track.

That is, in brief, the story of Tom Longboat's first step back towards the top of the ladder of fame.

It was Saturday at Bobby Kerr's meet in Hamilton, and the man he beat was Fred Simpson, the Mississauga Indian, whom Will Sherring picked to win the Olympic Marathon. He finished sixth.

Fred Simpson came to Hamilton to add himself to Bobby Kerr's list of athletic celebrities. He came expecting to do an exhibition two-mile run just to let Hamilton people see him run.

Tom Longboat was asked to meet Simpson in a two-mile race. He came expecting a race, and after an hour's communion with himself rejected a proposal that the pair just do a friendly gallop, and demanded a real race.

Simpson wasn't ready for a two-mile race, and doesn't profess to be a short-distance man, but he was game and said he would run Longboat five miles. Longboat refused five, and they compromised on three. At the pistol Tom took the lead, and after loafing the first mile to give Simpson a chance to loosen up, he ran in real earnest. For a period Simpson clung on, and then slowly went back. Longboat, loosening right up, ran the next two miles in 10.04, a remarkably good performance, when it is considered that most two-mile races around here are won in 10.30, while in England the top-notch two milers do 9.40. The Onondaga did his three miles in 15.24, or 31 seconds faster than Fred Meadows' three miles in the five-mile race, and Meadows was chased all the way, while Longboat ran alone. Simpson was never dangerous.

While the two Indians were together the critics got a chance to study their respective strides. "There is no use talking, Longboat has the better stride," said Dr. Thompson. "He has improved greatly in style."

A five-mile race between Simpson and Longboat is mooted.

The fickleness of a crowd was well illustrated in Saturday's race. When Longboat, once the idol of Canada, appeared, there was a faint cheer, and some hisses. Simpson got a good cheer."

"No faking now," some one shouted.

When he won the crowd received him with hearty cheers, and swarmed about him in the same old way.

SIMPSON BEATEN BY LONGBOAT AT BOBBY KERR'S RECEPTION

Hamilton, August 18—Bobby Kerr must have been flattered by the reception he got at the athletic meet held at Britannia park yesterday, fully 20000 people were present. The grand stands were crowded and it was difficult to keep the spectators off the field. The affair was most successful.

Kerr gave two exhibitions at 100 and 220 yards. The crowd cheered loudly when the first appeared.

Paced by Lambert in the shorter distance, he quickly passed his opponent, breaking the tape in ten seconds flat.

Ralph Fowron raced with him in the 220 yards, getting 20 yards handicap. Kerr took the lead after the first 100 yards and won easily. It was a remarkable performance from a time standpoint, some watches catching it at 21 1-5, which is a world's record and Don Cameron an experienced timer, made it 21 3-5.

In addition to the champion, Longboat, Simpson, Wm. Sherring, Jack Caffery and a number of Olympic men took part.

Sherring ran an exhibition mile in 4 minutes and forty-seven seconds.

The veteran Caffery fell down in the five mile race, which was won by Fred Meadows.

White put up a good performance in the 100 yards race, beating a number of good men.

A. Taylor, starter.

Tom Longboat showed that he can still run, defeating Fred Simpson, in a special three mile race. Longboat took the lead after the first mile and won easily.

The officials were:

N. J. Stevenson, referee.

W. Sherring, D. M. Cameron and J. H. Crocker, timers.

N. Crow, Murdoch McDonald, R. T. Steele, Dr. Thompson, T. H. Best, Inspector McMahon, N. Chambers and E. Wilkins, judges.

The summary:

100 yards: W. White, Hamilton 1; J. J. Murphy and H. R. Fraser, Hamilton; time, 10 3-5.

One mile: Chas. Skeene, Toronto, 1; Chas Selby, Toronto, 2; John Rose, Toronto, 3; time 4.30.

One-quarter mile, bicycle: W Clark Hamilton, 1; Fred Schudt, Buffalo, 2; G. G. Young, Toronto, 3.

440 yards, boys: J Eccles, J Manewilt, Hamilton; A R Scholes, Toronto; time 55 2-5.

220 yards, Cal Ogilvie, Hamilton, 1; W White, Hamilton, 2; H. Fraser, 3; time 23 3-5.

Mile bicycle race: Fred Schudt, Buffalo, 1; W Clark, Hamilton, 2; W Morton, Toronto, 3; time 2.24 3-5.

Running broad jump, Geo Barber, Toronto, 19 feet 11 inches; Langstaff, Toronto, 19 feet 8 inches; J R Moss, Hamilton 19 feet 5 inches.

440 yards, C Ogilvie, Hamilton, 1; H R Fraser, Hamilton, 2; C W Thorley, Toronto, 3; time 53 4-5.

Five mile race, Fred Meadows, Rockwood, 1; I Near, Toronto, 2; R Holden, Beamsville, 3; time 27.30. N Dyment, Toronto; Wallace Muirhead, J Cook, T Ellis and J Caffery, also started.

Pole vault, F Archibald, Toronto, 11 feet 6 inches; J Eccles, Hamilton, 9 feet 10 inches; Langstaff, Toronto and L Brown, Toronto, tied for third at 9 feet 8 inches.

Three mile race, Tom Longboat, 1; Fred Simpson, 2; time 15.24.

GOOD ATHLETES FOR C.L.S. SPORTS AT LINDSAY

A meeting of the C.L.S. was held yesterday afternoon to transact some urgent business relative to the great Labor Day meet, which it is learned will be one of the finest ever held in Lindsay. Longboat, Simpson and other prominent runners are on the line-up for a big race, and these two runners alone will be worth the admission fee.

A communication was received from Tom Flanagan, president of the I.C.A.C., and he has promised to send some of his best athletes down for the occasion. The C.L.S. have secured the sanction of the C.A.A.U., and promise to have one of the best amateur meets ever held in eastern Ontario. The 45th band will be away in Kingston on Labor Day, but no doubt another band will be secured.

Final arrangements are not completed as yet, but among the races on the programme will be 100 yards, 220, 440 and 220 yard hurdles. A champion baseball match will also be picked between Cobourg and a picked Lindsay team. A good live committee have been appointed to look after the programme and no doubt it will be a monster event for the town.—Lindsay Free Press.

WALKING

James Yates, a lad of sixteen, Sergeant-Major of the 17th Co. Boys' Brigade, of Bathurst Street Methodist Church, walked in from Hamilton, a distance of 45 miles, in 11 hours, and 30 minutes. He left Hamilton at 5.30 pm. Saturday and arrived in Toronto Sunday at 5 pm. He was met by Captain H G Hammond, and Sergeant Trumpeter J Lavery, who walked part of the way home with him. After the Exhibition Sergeant-Major J Yates, Sergeant J. Spicer, and Sergeant Trumpeter J. Lavery are going to try to run in from Hamilton.—Toronto News.

John Willan of Thompson, and Charles Pinder, of Day Mills, were drowned from a canoe in Lake Waquekobing, near Thessalon.

WILL PLAY THE TORONTO CLUB

Local Cricketers Will Pay Visit to Queen City on Thursday

At a meeting of the Peterborough Cricket Club held last evening at the Snowden House, it was decided to accept the invitation of the Toronto cricketers, and the locals will meet the latter club in Toronto on Thursday next.

A full turnout of the Peterborough members is asked for Wednesday evening for a practice preparatory to the Toronto trip.

A letter was read from the secretary of the Orillia Cricket Club, stating that they would be here on Thursday, 27th of August.

McAUGHEY TO RUN HAYES OF U. S.

Fresh from his run of 775 miles, from Toronto to New York, T. J. McAughey, the West End YMCA long distance runner arrived in Toronto Saturday night.

"I felt a bit shaken up at the end of such a long grind," said McAughey, "but I am all right, now. I am regaining my weight."

"What are you so annoyed at the West End YMCA for" he was asked.

"Because they showed such a strange lack of interest in me," was the reply.

"They gave me a great send-off, and then when I accomplished the feat of running 775 miles I did not even get a card of congratulation. They did not send me any money due me from the West End YMCA. for acting as assistant secretary to Syracuse as I requested before I left, and when I wired from New York about it they did not even reply until Dr. Poole, of the Twenty-third Street YMCA. New York, sent out a telegraphic tracer, and then Mr. Zimmerman of the West End YMCA. wired: 'McAughey is at his own expense.' I didn't ask for my expenses. I only asked for what was coming to me. Here is a letter I received from Dr. Poole, the physical director of the Twenty-third Street YMCA. whose members treated me royally and sent me back home":

Twenty-third Street Branch
Young Men's Christian Association of the City of New York,
August 12th, 1908.

My Dear McAughey:

Enclosed you will find a telegram which will explain itself. You will kindly give Mr. Zimmerman my compliments when you arrive there and tell him what I think of the West End Toronto men, and especially the assistant secretary would not look well in print.

I am more than pleased to have been of any assistance to you, and hope you will not judge the members of the Association Fraternity by such treatment as has been dealt out to you by your presumed friends in Toronto. Am sorry that I cannot be with you to see you off, but assure you of my best wishes both now and for the future.

Most sincerely yours,
Geo F Poole, M.D.
Director Physical Department, Y. M.C.A. New York

Poole's letter is pretty lively, but he is only judging from McAughey's side of the story.

Secretary Stokes and Physical Director Stafford of the West End Y. MCA disclaim on behalf of the West End YMCA. any responsibility for McAughey's run.

"We tried to dissuade McAughey from making the run, but when he was determined to go, we unofficially notified the YMCA's along the route. We considered the attempt as foolhardy. The branch only owes Mr McAughey about a dollar and a half or two dollars. He said he had plenty of money when he went away. We were in no way responsible for Mr. McAughey's expenses. We did not sanction the run."

"I will return to New York and run a 25-mile race against J. J. Hayes, the Marathon winner," said McAughey.

"Several clubs want me to meet Hayes there and I have consented.

"I will go back there and live; I have had several offers of positions."

SAYS THERE WAS NO MARATHON

Professor Ernest A. Gardner, writing to the Westminster Gazette, says:—There never was in ancient Greece, so far as we know, anything at all analogous to the Marathon race. The long-distance races at Olympia were held in the Stadium and did not approach twenty-six miles in length. The modern event and the title given to it were an original invention on the part of the promoters of the first "Olympic Games" at Athens in 1896, and they are certainly to be congratulated on the success with which the name has "caught on" with the public. Next, as to Pheidippides, his great exploit, as recorded by Herodotus, was to run from Athens to Sparta within two days for the practical purpose of summoning the Spartans to help against the Persian invader. The whole Athenian army made a forced march back to Athens immediately after the battle, also for a practical purpose; but there is no reason to suppose that Pheidippides or anyone else ran the distance. The tale of his bearing the message of victory and falling dead when he arrived is probably an invention of some later rhetorician; it is referred to by Lucian, as well as by Robert Browning, but the two authorities are about of equal value for an occurrence of the fifth century B.C. It is most unlikely that Herodotus would have omitted such a story if it had been current in his time.

It is much to be regretted that the picturesque tale of the running of Pheidippides and his interview with Pan on the Arcadian mountain seems likely to be obscured by an apocryphal story. In any case, it is to be noted that the founding of a race to commemorate the supposed journey of Pheidippides from Marathon to Athens must be assigned, not to the fifth century B.C., but to the end of the nineteenth century A.D.

PEACH CROP WILL BE A HEAVY ONE

The peach crop this year from all reports will be a heavy one. This will no doubt make this fruit cheaper than it was last season. The Dominion and Canadian Express Companies anticipate a big business in the transportation of this fruit from the Niagara district. Already the rush has begun and the local fruit dealers are each day receiving big consignments.

TRADE STATEMENT INDICATES HUGE DOMINION DEFICIT AHEAD

Ottawa Returns for First Four Months of Year Show Decrease in Revenue of Nearly $7,000,000—Expenditures Increased by Large Sum—Debt Increased by $22,000,000

The following statement of the financial condition of the Dominion of Canada at July 31st, end of the comparison with last year, shows a decided change for the worse. With the immense undertakings now in hand a tremendous financial backset is impending. Money will be scarcer and expansion and extension of ordinary work checked. The Laurier Government's policy is worse than a failure. It has plunged the country in mourning. This can be corrected only by a restoration of the Conservative National Policy of Canada for the people in it:—

Ottawa.—The statement of revenue and expenditure for the first four months of the current fiscal year, as indicated by the returns received by the Finance Department up to July 31st, shows a total revenue of $35,502,299, a total expenditure on consolidated fund account of $17,821,105, and on capital account of $5,452,898. As compared with the corresponding four months of 1907 the revenue decreased by $6,789,569, the consolidated fund expenditure increased by $629,443, and the capital expenditure by $[illegible].

The total net debt at the end of the month stood at $275,511,372, as compared with $253,601,[illegible] on the corresponding date last year."

LINDSAY YOUTHS MAKE MERRY WHILE HOUSE OWNER IS AWAY

On information received from residents of the South Ward Saturday night, Constable Short proceeded to that part of the town to investigate the truth. Upon arriving at a house on Russell street belonging to Mrs. Flood, who is at present at Sturgeon Point, he was attracted by music and singing escaping from the open windows, and upon closer investigation he perceived that a merry crowd within consisted of a bunch of Lindsay youths. The officer immediately went for assistance, and upon returning gained admission through the rear door of the house. The policemen did their best to round up the bunch, but it is thought that three escaped. The two captured were both under the influence of liquor, one was in bed, apparently enjoying a good sleep, and the other was walking from room to room guarding his intoxicated companion. Neither heard the policemen when they came in.

The house gave all appearances of a good time having been indulged in. The table had been set and dainty refreshments served, after which the fiery liquid was passed around.

Overcome by sleep the boys were retiring one by one when interrupted by the cops. The other three made their escape through an open window and have not been seen since.

The two young men arrested appeared before Magistrate Jackson this morning and pleaded guilty to a charge of house breaking. They were fined $11 and costs and $10 and costs, or three months and one in jail, respectively.

It is learned that the two boys who were fined started a rumpus in a house in the south end and the neighbors began to get curious. Then they moved on to another, and it is believed that Mrs. Flood's home is the third residence turned into a rendezvous for these merrymakers.—Lindsay Free Press.

"TEDDY" THE OWL DIDN'T FANCY YOUNG EAGLE AS CAGE ATE

In the matter of being presented with carnivorous birds Mr. James Head, proprietor of the Peterborough House is being highly favored. For some time, "Teddy" a big owl now thoroughly domesticated has blinked ominously from a big cage in which he is confined at the hotel in which he is confined at the hotel and yesterday Mr Head was presented with a beautiful young brown eagle captured on what is known as the Kincaid farm, Otonabee.

The man who presented the bird to Mr. Head suggested that it be put in the same cage that the owl was in. Mr. Head knowing "Teddy's" scrapping tendencies, did not think well of this.

"Oh, it will be all right," said the man with the eagle which was then placed in the cage. With one peck from "Teddy" who savagely resented the intrusion, the poor little eagle lay on its back in a corner of the cage.

He was immediately removed and placed in another cage. The bird has apparently not yet recovered from the shock and has refused to eat anything since it has been in captivity.

Breathe Hyomei and be Cured of Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma

Nature has a remedy for catarrh, epidemic colds and bronchitis that is far better than dosing the stomach with medicine and drugs.

It is the healing oils and balsams of Hyomei which medicate the air you breathe, reaching the most remote air cells in the nose, throat and lungs, killing all catarrhal germs and restoring health to the mucous membrane.

Hyomei acts like a curative internal air bath and has the same healing and antiseptic effect as the air where pine and Eucalyptic forests give off their fragrant and healing balsams.

Breathe healing Hyomei and see how quickly you will get relief from catarrh and head colds. If it does not help you there will not be a penny's expense, as W. Madill, druggist, corner Hunter and George Sts., agrees to refund the money. The complete Hyomei outfit costs only $1.00.

GOOD FISHING AT SOUTH BEACH

Many Fine Catches Have Been Made—The Guests at This Resort

Young's Point, Aug. 18.—With its large, beautiful and spacious grounds South Beach is spoken of as one of the most popular summer resorts in Ontario.

There are large crowds of tourists there now, mostly good, jolly Americans, who speak in the highest terms of South Beach and its accommodation. The hotel is modernly equipped and is large and well ventilated. There is also a pavilion connected with the hotel and delightful "hops" are held every evening.

The fishing in the vicinity of South Beach has been exceptionally fine this year, and there are very few who come in without a fish. A party of six [illegible] for the day Thursday last and returned with 12 lunge, the smallest weighing 6 1-2 pounds and the largest tipping the scales at 18 pounds and 8 ounces, which was pulled in with rod and line, and provided excellent sport in getting it landed.

Decline of Billingsgate.

Billingsgate, whose decline in rhetoric has already been noted, has declined also in other ways since Queen Elizabeth appointed it "an open place for the landing and bringing in of any fish, corn, salt stores, victuals and fruit (grocery wares excepted)." Stow gives the list more fully, as including "fish, both fresh and salt, shell fishes, salt, oranges, onions and other fruits and roots, wheat and rye, and grain of divers sorts for the service of the city and the realm adjoining"—which suggests the contents of a village general shop. In William III.'s reign Billingsgate was limited to a "free and open market for all sorts of fish," and it was after this that its reputation for language grew up, alluded to by Pope:

There stript, fair Rhetoric languished on the ground;
His blunted arms by sophistry are borne,
And shameless Billingsgate her robes adorn.

Buried Treasures in England.

There must be a good deal of treasure in the form of church plate and so forth concealed in different parts of the country, as quantities of it were buried at the time of the dissolution of the monasteries. There are two legends in Worcestershire regarding some silver bells, for instance, which have been handed down most persistently from one generation to another since the sixteenth century. One version of the story is that the bells were buried by the last abbot of Evesham, Abbot Lichfield, in a subterranean passage which formerly existed between the abbey and a house on the opposite bank of the river, while the other story has it that a peal of silver bells was buried at the same period (the dissolution of the monasteries) at Abbots Morton, a village ten miles distant from Evesham.—Wide World Magazine.

THE KING'S DERBY BANQUET.

Exclusive Function But Always of a Merry Character.

The Derby Day dinner which, in accordance to his usual custom, the King gave on the night of the big race to his friends of the Jockey Club at Buckingham Palace, is, and always has been, a very exclusive affair. It is one of the hardest things in the world to become a member of the Jockey Club; it is ten thousand times harder to obtain an invitation from His Majesty to dine at the palace a few hours after the greatest sporting event in the world has been won.

Only those members of the club who enjoy the personal friendship of the King are invited. One need only mention the names of Lord Derby, Lord Rosebery, Lord Crewe, the Earl of Ellesmere and Mr. Chaplin to show the very exclusive character of the gathering.

George IV. gave two such dinners, the first of which took place at St. James' Palace on June 28, 1828. The company assembled in the throne room and dinner was served in the great supper room. There were only thirty guests, and only those members were invited whom the King cared for; he had struck several names out of the list which had been prepared.

These dinners are invariably of a very merry character. King Edward is one of the most amusing conversationalists, and is said to approach Gen. Horace Porter's easy felicity in joke making. They were not lacking in humor in the old days. Mr. Greville was one of those invited to the table of George IV., and he has left an account showing the kind of innocent nonsense which formerly characterized these functions. He relates how the King made him eat a dish of crawfish soup after a quantity of turtle, "till I thought I should have burst."

It has been stated that this same dinner ended in an "orgy," which is quite untrue, for, according to Mr. Greville, "the King ordered pens, paper, etc., and they began making matches and stakes." The second dinner was very magnificent, but is described as being "not half so gay and joyous."

For a number of years after 1863 the Prince of Wales dined in Grosvenor Square with Lord Wilton, who gave a Derby dinner every year, and it was after his death, in 1882, that a Jockey Club dinner was started at Marlborough House, and it was continued—except when the royal family were in mourning — until the King's accession, and was then removed to Buckingham Palace. The most interesting episode in the history of the banquet occurred in 1898, when, for the first time, His Majesty had to entrust to other hands the task of proposing the toast of the evening—"The Winner of the Derby."

Killed—By Order.

"Manners makyth man," said an old philosopher; but sometimes manners, in the form of etiquette, has done the opposite, and killed man.

A former Queen of Siam was a victim to the strict rule that her person was sacred. While embarking on her state barge, she had the misfortune to fall into the water.

Her royal husband was not there, so no one could save her. For a court official, however high his station, to lay hands on her would have been sacrilege. So the poor woman was left to drown. The onlookers felt they were doing everything for the best. Court etiquette was being strictly observed. And, in due course, the Queen's demise was deeply mourned.

The present King of Siam figured in a similar affair. When a small boy, he was playing in the palace at Madrid, when he slipped, and fell head-long down a marble staircase. But for the intervention of a footman, he must inevitably have been killed.

Instead of that, the footman suffered. He had laid hands on his monarch, so he was dismissed in disgrace!

The Queen Dowager provided for him by finding him other employment, but she could not avert the punishment inflicted on him for saving her son's life.

Struggle With a Tiger.

Two brothers, Khuda Bakha and Shaikh Abdul Ghani of Moradabad, were despatched recently to Rampur on an errand, and while entering a grove at Khadpura a tiger sprung upon Khuda Bakha, who, being an athlete, warded off the blow aimed at him with his right hand and caught one of the paws with the other and maintained his hold, though the tiger was mauling the other hand.

Abdul Ghani now rushed up with a stout stick, which he forced down the tiger's throat, making it release his brother's hand, when Khuda Bakha seized another paw with his wounded hand, forcing both the paws back. He wrestled with the tiger, keeping it down by sheer force, while Abdul Ghani belabored it with his lathi and killed it.

The tiger was carried by the brothers to his highness the Nawab of Rampur, "who kept the skin as a memento and sent Khuda Bakha to the state dispensary for treatment."—Indian Telegraph.

Napier at the Battle of Meeanee.

When, in the fight I held my life as gone, for, as to escaping, all idea of that vanished when I saw the Twenty-Second giving way and was obliged to ride between the fires of two lines not twenty yards apart. I expected death as much from our men as the enemy, and I was much singed by our fire, my whiskers twice or thrice so and my face peppered by fellows who in their fear fired high over all heads but mine and nearly scattered my brains. In agony I rode, holding my reins with a broken hand (he had sprained it a few days before) and quite unequal to a single combat had a Beloochee picked me out, as one was about to do when Marston slew him.—Letter of Sir Charles Napier.

Ennui Defined.

"Why, that's a kind of wrapping paper which comes around a package of wealth."

MANY MATTERS WERE DEALT WITH AT COUNCIL MEETING

Hon. G. P. Graham Will be Here Thursday Accompanied by J. Butler, Chief Engineer of Department of Railways and Canals—Board of Works Appropriation Nearly Used up—Smith-st. Bridge Again.

At the council meeting last night R. R. Hall, M.P., J. H. McClellan, superintendent of the Trent Valley Canal, and Dr. Morrison, representing the Board of Trade were a deputation with a view to getting the council to arrange for a reception to the Hon. G. P. Graham, Minister of Railways and Canals, who will visit Peterborough on Thursday next, in company with Mr J. Butler, chief engineer of the Department of Railways and Canals.

The Minister will leave Hastings on the Government boat, 'Bessie Butler,' Thursday morning, and depart from Gore's Landing for Peterborough at four o'clock, reaching this city at about seven pm.

It was decided that some representative men should meet the minister at Gore's Landing and accompany him up to Peterborough. Also that a suitable reception be tendered him in the evening when the need of the earliest possible completion of the Lake Ontario outlet will be urged upon the hon. gentleman, together with improved wharfage, etc.

Mr McClellan pointed out that the outlet of the canal into Lake Ontario as arranged for by Hon. G. P. Graham will put Peterborough on the lake board when opened, the Richelieu and Ontario steamboats will be able to reach this city as a terminus.

R. R. Hall, M.P. is going to meet the minister at Hastings. He will also prepare the address to be presented to Hon G. P. Graham in the evening.

Ald Bradburn moved, seconded by Ald. Johnston, that the mayor and a representative of the Board of Trade meet the Hon G. P. Graham at Gore's Landing on Thursday next at four o'clock. Also that arrangements be made by the reception committee for a reception to the hon. gentleman and his companion at evening in the city council chamber.—Carried.

The city council met in committee of the whole last night. There were present, Mayor Rush, and Aldermen Phelan, Tovey, Bradburn, J J Turner, jr, Buller, McIntyre, Morgan, Elliott and Johnston.

In the absence of City Clerk Armstrong, who is on his holidays, City Treasurer Frank Adams acted as clerk.

Dr. Boucher asked why it is that the Peterborough Bowling Club should be asked to take down the streamer they had erected across the street advertising their excursion to Cobourg. Other banners advertising excursions, Peterborough fair, etc., have been allowed to remain across the street. He wanted to know why it is that the Bowling Club should be made an exception of.

The mayor stated that there had been a number of complaints about this streamer, and the chief of police had spoken to him of it. As it was contrary to an existing by-law the chief ordered the removal of the banner in question.

But as other organizations were allowed to leave their banners up, Ald Phelan moved, seconded by Ald. Tovey that the banner be allowed to remain until after Thursday, the day of their excursion.—Carried.

Messrs Adam Hall and W H Meldrum of the Canada Flakes Co. waited upon the council and asked that the trouble existing between them, the city and Col J Z. Rogers, concerning the water front be settled definitely at once.

The Canada Flakes Company have disposed of their building, removing since the fire to parties who intend using the site and building for manufacturing Diamond Calk Horse Shoes and electrical heating appliances.

Messrs. Collier Bros., who are interested in the manufacturing project above alluded to, pointed out that in assuming the site and building of the late Canada Flake Co. the property will be utilized by two amalgamated companies, viz., The Diamond Calk Horse Shoe Co. and the Canada Electrical Co. And they wished to know if the city would allow them the privilege of operating under the same by-law passed in favor of the Canada Flakes Co., as to free site, fixed assessment, etc.

Ald. Phelan moved, seconded by Ald. Elliott.—That this matter be referred to the Finance Committee to report.

Mr. Harry Rudkins asked that King street be put into decent shape as soon as possible, as to water, crossing, sewage, etc. The crossing will be constructed at once, and the other matters attended to in the usual course of things.

MONEY SCARCE.

Ald. Phelan reported that the Board of Works appropriation has been exhausted, except the amount of about $2,000, and there is a lot of work yet to be done.

The Mayor said there is plenty of work demanded by ratepayers, and should their demands be acceded to work would be furnished many men who need it.

Ald. Morgan.—Would the same men be continued in employment, who are on the pay roll now, or other needy men employed.

The Mayor—"I presume all men employed by the city are ratepayers."

Incidentally it transpired that both the appropriations of the Board of Works and the Fire, Water and Light Committee will be overdrawn this year.

The Board of Works will report on their position at next Council meeting.

It was also shown that the Romaine street sewer is again choked up with sand.

A Voice—"We had better dig it up and build a new one."

Street Commissioner Evans advised that this sewer be again cleaned out as before. This advice was adopted.

DIVERSION OF STREAM.

W. R. Tiffin of the Grand Trunk Railway Company, wrote, agreeing to pay $300 towards the diversion of the Aylmer street stream. This was accepted.

The same also agreed to recommending the city granting the privilege of erecting a foot bridge across the unused right of way of the Chemong branch at Conger street.

INSTITUTE SIDEWALK.

Dr. Morrison urged upon the Council the need of a sidewalk being constructed to the new Collegiate Institute, which will be opened in a couple of weeks.

The Board of Works will meet on this matter at an early date and invite some members of the School Board to be present.

SMITH STREET BRIDGE.

Ald. Phelan again drew attention to the unsatisfactory condition of Smith street bridge, which now requires another expenditure for repairs, to the amount of $140. A definite move should be made in the direction of erecting a permanent structure at Smith street as early as possible. Ald. Phelan has been urging this movement all year.

Engineer Hay offered that some time ago he gave an estimate for a new permanent bridge at Smith street which was considered too expensive. He then explained that his estimate was not at all high when it was considered that it would cost the interest on the amount estimated to keep the present bridge in repair. His opinion had been justified by the repairs since executed.

Ald. Turner remarked that a good permanent bridge should at an early date be constructed as the Street Railway Co. want to cross the bridge in the near future.

Ald. Neil was not sure of Ald. Turner's contention, but he had reason to believe that the Government has in consideration the erection of a deep waterway from Peterborough to the St. Lawrence. In such an event a permanent swing bridge would be needed by the Quaker Oat Co. at Hunter street, and that is a measure which should be urged upon the Minister of Railways and Canals on his visit next Thursday.

MUST REMOVE BUILDING.

Ald. Phelan moved, seconded by Ald. Neil.—That the Legal Committee see that Houdrey Bros. remove their building from off King street, as soon as possible in accordance with a resolution passed some months ago.—Carried.

The building stands on the public right of way.

WAS LOOKING FOR A PAWNSHOP WATCH AND OTHER THINGS GONE

"Is this the police station?"

"Yes sir. What can we do for you?"

"Well, is there a pawn-shop in town? My watch and several articles besides were stolen from my back kitchen on Saturday, and I thought perhaps the thief would leave it in a pawn-shop."

The above dialogue between the Chief of Police and an old south end resident, the latter being in search of the advice necessary to help him locate the missing articles, took place at the police station this morning.

"Yes," went on the victim of the dastardly robbery. "My girl hung the watch up in the kitchen, and while absent for a short time the thief walked in, took the watch and butcher knife and several forks that I know of, and—walked right out again." The chief gave the old man a list of the places where articles of this nature might be disposed of.

"The watch was a good little one," said the searcher. "But I'd rather catch the thief than get the watch." Mumbling a fond farewell to the Chief the little old gentleman quietly withdrew.

SAVED YOUNG BOY AND NEARLY DROWNED IN THE ATTEMPT

Jesse Airess a River Driver Went in Otonabee After Young James Butler and Rescued Him—Exhausted and Sank Few Feet From Shore—Both Reached River Bank With Assistance.

Although fully clad in his working clothes with heavy spiked boots Jesse Airess a river driver jumped into the Otonabee to save a young lad named James Butler, who was in swimming and had got too far out and sank.

His companions ran up and down the shore crying "Jimmy is drowned" and their cries were what attracted Airiess' attention. He immediately went after the boy and managed to get him.

Encumbered as he was by his heavy clothing, he became exhausted when about twelve or fifteen feet from shore and both he and the little fellow went down. Another man jumped in and rescued the boy, and then reached out a pike pole to Airiess who grasped it and was pulled to the shore.

He was thoroughly tired out from his efforts when he reached the river bank. He deserves great credit for his brave action in going in after the boy and it is most fortunate that a double drowning did not take place.

The scene of the affair was at what is known as the old dam.

PRAIRIE FEVER AT BRIDGENORTH

Several Cases There---Personal Items From Chemong Lake Hamlet

Bridgenorth, August 18 — The priarie fever has again struck our little hamlet and several are suffering from attacks of it.

Messrs. Galvin McManus and Adams left last Friday on the Harvesters' excursion.

Miss Winnifred Coburn of Cobourg has been visiting her friend, Miss Ida Mann, for the last week.

Miss Letta Tottum of Bobcaygeon, is the guest of Miss Beatrice Kelly at their summer cottage.

Mr. Hollis Mellmoyle has been spending his holidays in the village.

Miss Ida Mann has gone to Cobourg to attend the annual horse show held there.

Misses Mary Moore and Mary Elliott are the guests of Mrs. W. I. Kelly, at her summer home.

Mr. A. H. Mann leaves for Hartney, Man., on Thursday.

CHANGE OF PROGRAMME

The City Council and Board of Trade have decided to tender the Minister of Railways and Canals an entirely non-political reception. It is taken for granted that the Minister is coming through on official business and the interview with him in the City Council Chamber will be concerning the work of his department. If the Council and the Board make clearer the necessity of the Government's completing the work begun it will be work well done, for which the community will not be ungrateful.

PERSONAL

Mr. A. Rountree is in Toronto today.

Miss Jennie Thompson of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. Montjoy, Stewart street.

J. R. Inkster, wife and daughter, Paris, are the guests for a couple of weeks of Dr. Holloway, 826 George street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Archer, Petrolea, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Alice, to Mr. Walter Milburne Fowlds of Hastings, Ont. The marriage will take place early in September.—Globe.

WANTS IT REPEALED

It is stated on good authority that Mr. James Webber, proprietor of the the King Edward Hotel, Campbellcroft, will endeavor to have the Local Option by-law, in the township of Hope, repealed at the January election. A petition, which is already largely signed, will be submitted to the Council at an early date.

DIRECTIONS FOR MAKING ICED TEA

Warm the teapot. Put in a heaping teaspoonful of "Salada" Tea for every two cups. Pour on freshly boiled water and allow to infuse from 6 to 8 minutes. Pour the liquor off the leaves and let cool. "Salada" Tea iced is a most delicious and refreshing beverage. A small piece of lemon will add to its flavor.

THIS WOMAN DRIVEN MAD

Wild Orgies of Harvesters on the Train Upset Her Reason.

Winnipeg, Aug. 19.—Journeying on a harvest excursion to join her husband in Edmonton, a woman was driven mad by the saturnalian orgies on the train.

She was taken care of by the C.P.R. physician at Winnipeg, or the Winnipeg officials would have returned her east. She appeared to be suffering from delusional insanity. Her husband was communicated with and finally the woman was placed in the care of friends.

Springfield Quiets Down.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 19.—That those in authority believe that the danger of serious trouble in the race war is over was made evident last night when Governor Deneen issued orders that the First Infantry of Chicago shall return to that city to-day.

Resolutions were adopted for the protection of citizens regardless of color or nationality.

Col. Buchan Honored.

London, Aug. 19.—(C. A. P.)—Col. Lawrence Buchan, C.M.G., A.D.C., O.C., Quebec command, Canadian militia, is attending the cavalry manoeuvres at Aldershot. He has been made an honorary member of all the military and naval clubs in London, his name being proposed by Lord Roberts.

Survey Parties Out.

St. John, N. B., Aug. 19.—The Public Works Department, Ottawa, is sending out two survey parties to survey the shoals and rapids on 60 miles of the St. John river, between Woodstock and Fredericton. This is preliminary to their removal, so as to make the river navigable to Woodstock.

Woman Novelist Ill.

Utica, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Mrs. Chas. Rohlfs, who is known in literature as Anna Catherine Green, was taken ill at a summer resort in the Adirondacks and came to the city and entered St. Luke's Hospital.

Florists Convene.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Aug. 19.—The American Florists Association opened its convention here yesterday with more than 1,700 members attending.

THE NEGROES ORDERED OUT

Armed Miners Forced Blacks to Leave Town on Pain of Death.

Knoxville, Tenn., Aug. 19.—Another mining camp near Jellico was cleared of negroes yesterday by an armed band.

Notices have been served on all negroes within a thirty mile radius to get out in three days, and even Jellico and La Follette are threatened.

It is reported that a cabin has been burned and six negroes cremated.

Will Plead Insanity.

New York, Aug. 19.—Friends and acquaintances of Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., and of his brother, Thornton Jenkins Hains, at Fort Hamilton, are convinced that a plea of insanity will be offered in defence of the captain at his trial for the slaying of William E. Annis. They have reason to believe that the defence will follow much the same line as was followed in the Thaw case, with justification for the killing of the victim always in view.

Clever Swindlers.

Welland, Aug. 19.—The police are looking for Robert Yard, with his wife, who have mysteriously left Welland. Yard came here a stranger and purchased a large house from Colbeck, making a small payment. He furnished it luxuriously on the installment plan, and opened a tailoring shop. Then he mortgaged this unpaid for stuff, and after mortgaging it again, sold part to Will Knew, a town official. The couple left in the early hours.

Aeronaut Killed.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Arthur Lane, an aeronaut who has been making ascensions at a local amusement park, was so badly injured Monday night that he died early yesterday.

Lane, who was clinging to a trapeze bar, perhaps 25 feet from the balloon, was carried by a strong breeze against the theatre building and losing his hold, fell 30 feet to the ground.

Drowned In Two Feet of Water.

Toronto, Aug. 19.—Seized with an epileptic fit, Cecil Whitefield, aged 19, fell into two feet of water in an island lagoon opposite Chippewa avenue yesterday and was drowned.

He was employed by Mrs. Gray, and when she missed him her son went out to make search, finding the body, probably about an hour after death occurred.

T. HAMAR GREENWOOD TALKS THE DETRIMENTS OF BRITAIN

He Says Beer and Bigotry Are Curse of British Nation—Brilliant Young Canadian Member of British Commons—Believes in All-Red Route.

Toronto, Aug. 19.—"England to-day suffers, and suffers grievously, from beer and bigotry." This statement was made last night by Hamar Greenwood, the Canadian member for the City of York in the Imperial House of Commons, who is in the city and who chose to make a few observations in reply to numerous questions.

"England," he went on, "is the richest country in the world and her fiscal policy is all right, but the beer lords and the State Church parsons are working hand-in-glove against the present Government, which is fighting and which will fight for the well-being of the nation as a whole above the miserable interests of an unscrupulous trade and a privileged Church. In short, the battle being waged by Mr. Asquith and millions of strong men is a battle against the monopolizing and degenerating power of the drink traffic, and against the idea of a State Church that attempts to socially ostracise here and damn hereafter those who disagree with it, and against the still strong vestiges of feudalism in the matter of large estates for the few and no land for the millions."

"I am certain the all-red route is bound to materialize," Mr. Greenwood declared emphatically, "and I am equally certain that all the talk about a line of 25-knot steamers is out of the question. I have every reason to believe that before the present old country Government goes to the country there will be a steamship and railway route around the Empire subsidized in fair ratio by the English, Australian, New Zealand and Canadian Governments, and possibly by that of South Africa. My own impression is that existing lines will be used for this purpose, perhaps with the addition of some 18-knot steamers.

CHARGES AGAINST TWENTY-FIVE

Inspector Golpin of London Lays Charges Against Many Hotel-keepers.

London, Aug. 19.—Early yesterday afternoon Inspector Golpin lodged charges against twenty-five hotels in this city for violation of the liquor license act.

This is the outcome of the happenings on Aug. 3, when the old boys were here.

It is understood the inspector's hand has been forced by the temperance league, as the hotels were unmolested in previous reunions.

Oil Well on Fire.

Mexico City, Aug. 19.—The great fire which has been raging in the oil well near Tampico for 43 days, has baffled all attempts to extinguish it. From a hole eight inches in diameter, the well has widened into a volcano, with a crater 100 metres across.

It is estimated that the flames reach a height of 500 feet. The amount of oil consumed is about 20,000 gallons a minute.

Boys Steal Papers.

Thorold, Aug. 19.—Two boys, William Randall and David Comfort, appeared before Magistrate Munro charged with stealing a number of bundles of Toronto morning newspapers from the Grand Trunk station. A plea of guilty was entered, but the boys were let go on suspended sentence.

Loss Five Millions.

Winnipeg, Aug. 19.—Further reports received by the Canadian Pacific Railway of forest fires on their property on Vancouver Island indicate that up to the present the timber loss will reach close to $5,000,000, and the fires are still burning.

Three Fishing Schooners Gone.

Paris, Aug. 19.—(C. A. P.)—Great mourning at Cancale for three fishing schooners, the Bordelaise, Aliceetpaul, and Marceillaise, which sailed for Newfoundland in March are given up as lost. The crew numbered 78.

Fisher's Opponent.

Montreal, Aug. 19.—F. A. Olmstead, president of the Brome County Conservative Association, was chosen yesterday at Knowlton as the Opposition candidate to the Hon. Sydney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture.

HAVE PLANS BEEN STOLEN

Fear Expressed That Canadian Military Secrets Were Stolen.

Halifax, Aug. 19.—The fortifications works here are delayed and some trouble is being experienced owing to the non-arrival of the details of the defence scheme at Halifax.

It has leaked out that the important and valuable file has been lost or stolen between here and the militia department at Ottawa. It is said to have been despatched to local military authorities by post, but evidently has never been received.

If the plans be stolen they are of considerable value if in the hands of a foreign country.

Fugitive Caught at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Aug. 19.—Detectives yesterday apprehended Edward Craven, a young man who recently arrived in Ottawa, and was about to open up a wine manufacturing business.

Craven is in reality Edward Cotteringham, defaulting treasurer of the Union Traction Co. of Tipton, Indiana, who left that town about two months ago after embezzlements which total between $4,000 and $5,000.

Extorted Money From Men.

Hamilton, Aug. 19.—Giovanno Transillo, an Italian foreman at the steel plate, was arrested yesterday on two charges, one of carrying a revolver and stiletto and a second of obtaining money from his fellow-countrymen by threatening them with these weapons. It is alleged that he forced his compatriots who worked under him to contribute money to him.

Miss Eva Booth Is Ill.

Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 19.—Overcome by the intense heat after addressing an audience of four thousand persons at the Winona Lake Bible Conference, Miss Eva Booth, commander of the Salvation Army of the United States, fainted just after leaving the auditorium, and is under the care of physicians.

Woman Disappears.

Hamilton, Aug. 19.—Mrs. Syer, wife of Charles Syer, Bartonville, gardener, disappeared from her home last Saturday while her husband was at the Central Market. She left three or four children. She is a young woman and quite pretty. The bay has been dragged.

THE ULTIMATUM IS IGNORED AND MECHANICS STAND FIRM

Very Few Men Went Back Yesterday on Final Day on Penalty of Losing Seniority and Pension—Two Hundred Men Taken on at Angus Shops.

Montreal, Aug. 19.—Yesterday was a particularly busy one about the union headquarters, and hundreds of the men from the various Angus shops were around during the morning anxious to see what reports came in from the different men doing picket duty. As noon approached, and it was seen that the men were standing pat and ignoring the ultimatum of the company, the joy of the men knew no bounds, and cheers started in the hall were taken up by those on the street, and men wildly raised their hats.

Bell Hardy, on behalf of the union officials, issued a statement that the men had not asked for any action by the Government, and did not want any arbitration of any kind.

The C. P. R. yesterday took on 200 men at the Angus shops, most of whom were hands laid off some time ago when the slack times began.

North Bay, Aug. 19.—The notice of the C. P. R. Co. that the men must return to work yesterday or their places would be filled failed to break the strikers' ranks here, not one man responding. Trespass notices have been posted up on the company's property as, notwithstanding the police patrol system, the strikers have had access to all parts of the property. The strikers living in houses owned by the company have been notified to vacate immediately.

An unusual incident occurred at Chapleau. Superintendent Brady and Assistant Superintendent Way were on the platform when a harvester excursion pulled in. The harvesters took Mr. Way for a strike-breaker, and pitched the assistant superintendent into the ice box, following this up by turning the hose on him and then tossing him up in the air.

Ottawa, Aug. 19.—Not one of the local C. P. R. strikers returned to work yesterday on expiry of time allowed by company. Strikers have not yet been paid.

VALUABLE ARCHIVES FOR THE PETERBORO' HISTOR'L. SOCIETY

The following letter will be of great interest to those concerned in collecting the archives of the city. The documents mentioned are open for inspection at the museum. They comprise information both of interest and value:

Vancouver, B.C., Aug. 7th, 1908.

Dear Sir,—Some time ago I was showing our mutual friend some old papers which came into my possession at the time of my grandfather, the late Capt. Rubidge's death, in 1874, and he suggested that there was a Peterborough Historical Society which you took a deep interest in, that I should send these papers to you as you would doubtless consider them, as we did, of sufficient historical value and interest to be placed amongst the papers of that society. I am, therefore, taking the liberty of enclosing them herewith. They consist. 1. Two letters from Hon. Peter Robinson to my grandfather, one dated 19th September, 1830, and the other 20th June, 1831. These are both in Mr. Robinson's handwriting and bear his signature. If I mistake not, the town and county of Peterborough are called after him.

2. Report of commission appointed to enquire into and settle claims of inhabitants of the county of Peterborough arising out of what is commonly known as the McKenzie Rebellion.

3. Letter dated 8th July, 1830, from Lieutenant-Governor's Secretary to Capt. Rubidge, re formation of Orange Societies in the Newcastle District.

4. Return to writ of election (1844) appointment of the late Judge G. B. Hall, member for what was then known as the north riding of the County of Northumberland.

I would be much obliged if you would present these papers for me to the Peterborough Historical Society, if you consider them of sufficient historical value and interest to warrant such presentation.

With kind regards, believe me,

E. D. ORDE.

VIOLATION OF THE INDIAN ACT HEAVILY FINED AT HIAWATHA

A charge of violation of the Indian Act, regarding the bringing of intoxicants to Hiawatha Reserve on August 5th was tried there yesterday. Mr. Edmison, police magistrate of Peterborough and Crown Attorney Wood, also of Peterborough, had charge of the prosecution and Mr Gordon was the lawyer for the defence. The minimum fine of $50 and costs was imposed with a warning that on a second offence the maximum penalty of $300 and costs, would be imposed. It is to be hoped that this conviction will deter other white men from bringing liquor on the reserve.

DR. WILD HAS PASSED AWAY

Famous Preacher Well Known in Canada Dies in Brooklyn.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Rev. Dr. Joseph Wild, formerly of Toronto, died last night at 10.30 at the home of his son, Dr. Zimmerman Wild.

Dr. Wild had a stroke of paralysis while visiting his son, C. Wild, at Piqua, Ohio, one year ago last June.

Joseph Wild, M.A., D.D., was born at Summit, Lancashire, England, on Nov. 16, 1834. He received his early education in England in the Methodist College, but completed the theological course at Concord, N. H.

DR. JOSEPH WILD, M.A., D.D.

He came to Canada, where he joined the Methodist Episcopal Church and was stationed at Hamilton. After his Concord graduation he preached at Goderich for a year, and then spent another year traveling in Europe. On his return he was stationed at Orono and Belleville, remaining nine years at the latter place, and acting there as professor of oriental languages in Albert College.

From Belleville he went to Brooklyn, N. Y., where he joined the Congregationalists and labored for eight years. In 1880 he accepted the call to Bond street Church, Toronto.

His ministry there for fifteen years made him one of Canada's most famous preachers.

Dr. Wild's great hobby was the identification of the Anglo-Saxon race with the lost tribes of Israel of the Bible.

SMALL DOG GNAWS MISTRESS' FACE

Pet Dog Chews Toronto Woman While She Lies in a Fit

Toronto, Aug. 19.—With a lust that was terrible to behold and a fierce snarling, a little pet black-and-tan dog was literally eating the face off from Mrs. Aileen Sherwin, 26 years of age, 59 Sydenham street, when Mrs. Edward Durnan, a neighbor, rushed into the house in response to the unfortunate woman's screams. Then the woman's left eye and side of the nose had been destroyed.

Mrs. Sherwin had been seized with an epileptic fit while preparing supper and as she fell on the kitchen floor the canine, which had been under the stove, pounced upon her.

J. De Wolf Spurr, a prominent citizen of St John, N.B. is dead.

Winnipeg has not yet received any tenders for its power debentures, which is attributed to the fact that the plant is to cost one million instead of half a million.

HARVESTERS ON BAD BEHAVIOUR

Attempt to Arrest Rowdy Harvester Results in Small Riot.

Winnipeg, Aug. 19.—What came near developing into a serious riot took place yesterday morning at the C. P. R. depot when fifteen hundred harvesters tried by force to prevent the arrest of one of their number, James Forrester of Truro, N. S.

The man was one of the notorious maritime contingent and was behaving indecently and using foul language when arrested. Five policemen had to fight their way out through the angry crowd, literally battling an avenue with their clubs. When they got outside they hustled Forrester, who was fighting desperately, into a rig, but the crowd hung on to the vehicle until dispersed with whip lashings.

They followed, however, to the police station, and only on a threat of further arrests did they retire.

Several trains pulled out for the West yesterday afternoon and as no more are due from the east for a day or two the situation will be relieved.

WOMAN DROWNED AT BEAUMARIS

Wife of Registrar Lount, of Muskoka Loses Her Life.

Beaumaris, Aug. 19.—Mrs. Lount of Bracebridge, wife of J. E. Lount, registrar of Muskoka, lost her life by drowning on Monday.

Mrs. Lount with Mr. Lount and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Diggle of Orillia, were out sailing. When off Columbia Island the boat was struck by a squall and capsized. All except Mrs. Lount succeeded by a desperate struggle in clinging to the boat until help arrived. Mrs. Lount in some way lost her hold. The body was recovered late yesterday morning and taken to her home in Bracebridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Lount were occupying a cottage at Gibralter Island.

Nearly Swims Channel.

London, Aug. 19.—Of the many attempts to swim the English channel none has come nearer in resulting in success than that made by T. W. Burgess, the blacksmith swimmer.

Burgess was compelled to give up his attempt within one mile of Cape Grisnez, on the coast of France, because of the adverse tide and the currents, which carried him miles out of his course. Burgess remained in the water for 20 hours and 11 minutes. This is the sixth unsuccessful attempt Burgess has made.

Unknown Man Killed.

Toronto, Aug. 19.—An unknown man was cut in two by G. T. R. train No. 776, north bound at about fifty feet north of the King street subway at 8.40 last night.

From the story told by the engineer, John McCarthy of Stratford, it would appear that the victim deliberately suicided, as he was noticed walking along the side of the track until almost abreast of him, when he suddenly stepepd in front of the engine.

Cobourg Horse Show.

Cobourg, Aug. 19.—The fourth annual summer horse show opened yesterday under favorable conditions with one of the finest strings of horses ever shown in a Canadian ring. Among the prominent out of town exhibitors were Miss Milkes and H. T. Roche of Galt, Crowe and Murray, Dr. Young, Mrs. H. C. Cox, James Milne, George Pepper, Hugh S. Wilson and A. J. Rogers of Toronto.

THREE FIRE FIGHTERS MEET DEATH IN A FIRE AT LONDON

Chief Clark, Fireman Wynne and Sergt. Cockburn Are Killed While Fighting Flames in Hardware Store—Five Men Buried in Ruins.

London, Ont., Aug. 19.—Fire Chief Lawrence Clark, Fireman Wynne and Sergt. Cockburn of the Royal Canadian Regiment were killed last night while fighting a fire in the premises of the Westman Hardware Co. at 121 Dundas street.

Firemen Ferguson and Dean were taken out of the ruins alive.

Fireman Cole was with the party in the building, but had a miraculous escape, being dug out of the ruins at 10 o'clock not seriously hurt.

How Cole escaped he cannot say. He became separated from his fellows and was pocketed under a canting floor, saving his life.

The fire broke out about 5 o'clock and was apparently confined to the basement. There was dense smoke and it was not until about 7 o'clock that the firemen began to enter the building.

Chief Clark, taking hold of a lead of hose near the nozzle, led the way in to the first floor.

A minute later there was an ominous rumble and then the second floor collapsed, taking the first floor with it to the basement and burying the firemen in the debris.

In the confusion it was not until nearly 10 o'clock that it was definitely known that the chief was among the dead. At midnight the three men were still in the ruins and no hope is held that they have survived.

It is a sad coincidence that Chief Clark's predecessor, Chief Noe, was also killed while on duty. That was four years ago. Clark was formerly on the Hamilton Fire Department, and has been very popular and successful here.

Cockburn, who is well-known to the firemen, had been lending a hand in the emergency and was with the squad.

Wynne was unmarried. Fire Chief Borland of Woodstock is a brother-in-law.

The fire loss will run about $100,000, divided:

Westman Hardware Co., loss $50,000; insurance, $26,000.

Darch & Hunter, flour and feed, loss $25,000; insured.

Morrison Shoe Co., loss $5,000; insured.

Cowan Hardware Co., loss $5,000; insured.

John Friend, confectioner, $1,000; insured.

Canada Packing Co., $500, insured.

P. Cronin owns the building, a four storey one, which is valued at $30,000.

Early Morning Fire at Oshawa.

Oshawa, Aug. 19.—Fire broke out at 36 West King street, Oshawa, at 4 a.m. yesterday, completely riddling the premises of W. O. Derrant. The cause is unknown. The fire was controlled in half an hour.

Dutch Can Wallop Castro.

The Hague, Aug. 19.—With the single proviso that no military occupation of territory must occur, the Government at Washington is understood to have given the Cabinet of the Netherlands a free hand to deal as it sees fit with President Castro of Venezuela.

Gets Contract.

Kingston, Aug. 19.—W. D. Lacey, Kingston, is awarded the contract for the new rifle range at Barriefield.

Foresters at Meaford.

Meaford, Aug. 19.—The Central Ontario High Court, Independent Order of Foresters, are in session here.

Dies From Broken Neck.

Belleville, Aug. 19.—W. A. Phillips, a well-known resident of Malone, was killed while uncovering a lumber pile. While removing one of the boards it broke, precipitating him to the ground and breaking his neck.

His brother's neck was broken through falling from a bridge some years ago.

Abused Sister-In-Law.

The Daily Review

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 19, 1908.

THE G. T. P.

As promised last week, and as already announced, the Review has secured Mr. Dawson Kennedy the well-known agriculturist, as sole judge of essays in the farmers' essay competition ending Sept. 30, the subject being "How the G.T.P. will affect farm values in Ontario." The competition is limited to those living on farms and in the West Riding of Peterborough, which includes Galway and South Monaghan. The essays are to be signed by an assumed name only and forwarded to the Review. The real and assumed names of writers are to be enclosed in another envelope and mailed to the Review for purposes of identification after the award. The prize is ten dollars and the essay must not exceed 300 words in length. The essays become the property of the Review for purposes of publication. The publication will be made with a view of giving the public a fair idea of what the farming community thinks concerning the subject stated. All envelopes must be marked "G.T.P. Essay Competition."

POLITICAL NOTES.

It is rumored that Sir Wilfrid Laurier has sent for Mr. Kinlay, M.P., with a view to getting him to withdraw in favor of Mr. Stratton. Some of these rumors may appear to conflict but they are all from proper sources or they would not be given

---

The promises of the Hon. G. P. Graham, Minister of Railways and Canals made at this critical moment and on so auspicious an occasion will be sure to be construed as governmental bribes. They must in any event be considered as merely conditional upon re-election and this lessens their effect upon the public mind. As it is not the close season, however, fishing is permissible, although it may be well for us all to remember that the season is past for one brand. The meeting at the Council Chamber being wholly non-political and informal is, even at this time, therefore, in every way unobjectionable and the discretion and good taste of those in charge is to be commended. It may be said in palliation of the interview that it was not sought by the citizens first. The number of men in the service of the T.V.C. in various capacities can scarcely be increased with comfort, unless the canal is either widened or deepened. If we are to have a canal let us have a good one that serves a useful purpose. The "ditch" as the Examiner used to call it contemptuously in the days of the old regime, developed with strange, but not unaccountable suddenness into a canal. Thus do the views even of politicians expand.

The Review has it on excellent authority, that there is a strong probability of a new man in the East riding political field on the Liberal side. Mr. Thomas C. Curtis, undertaker, of Havelock, is one mentioned. He is a prominent citizen there, having been for two years a member of the County Council. It is said that he is the most likely man, from the point of view of some of the more ardent Liberal politicians at least, to re-unite the scattered forces of his party. Mr. Finlay, M.P., it seems has offended a wing of his party by his independence and failure to conform to the "instructions" he has received at various times. So far, however, it looks as if he was "pushing in" the faces of his opponents at a lively rate. The Liberal pot is in danger of boiling over in that riding. It seems that the people of Liberal persuasion there in common with the public generally are getting together. It never does for an electorate to neglect its political interests too long, especially when it has got to abide by them whether it likes it or not.

COMPLETE FINANCIAL HISTORY OF CANADA FROM 1896 TO DATE

A Revelation of Reckless Extravagance—Estimates Increase Sevenfold and Public Work Elevenfold—Canada Crippled for Years to Come.

Ottawa, Aug. 15.—Soon after he assumed office Mr. Fielding must have become aware that the tide had turned, that a period of expansion had opened, and that it was natural to expect an era of increased revenues. What was the general situation which he had to face?

1. The country's ordinary business of course had to be carried on. It was bound to expand to some extent.

2. He had on his hands in 1896 a net debt of $258,000,000. This is a book-keeping expression which really means very little. The actual national debt was nearly $228,000,000, consisting of loans of which $218,000,000 were held in London, and nearly $10,000,000 in Canada. These loans would mature roughly as follows;—

1896-7	$ 500 000
1900-1	781,000
1903-4	33,700,000
1905-6	5 000,000
1906-7	12,000,000
1908-9	29 200,000
1909 or 1938	24 500,000
1909-10	31 000,000
1910 or 1935	19,500,000
1913-14	8 500,000
1938	80 600,000

3. There were certain national services which demanded larger expenditures than so far had been possible. The deepening of the canals and the lighting of the St. Lawrence are examples.

4. Obviously, sooner or later, some very big capital expenditure, some great public enterprise like the building of the Canadian Pacific Railway, would be necessary. The necessity came in 1903 in the shape of the Grand Trunk Pacific project, behind it again loom the the Georgian Bay canal and the deepening of the Welland.

5. Perhaps we may add that the party which was in power had just come into office pledged to the hilt not merely to economy, but to an actual reduction of expenditure.

A prudent and far-sighted Finance Minister assuredly would have laid out his scheme of expenditure in view of some such set of considerations as these.

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE.

Let us see what Mr. Fielding has done.

We may first examine those departments which may be described as the ordinary running of the country.

If the reader turns to page 13 of the current Public Accounts he will see there set down a list of rather over forty national services. Of these some like debt charges, subsidies to Provinces, Post-office and Railways, we have in a previous letter agreed to drop from calculation as either fixed charges or cross-entries. Others afford channels for development work. But there are many which may be described as the ordinary routine management of the country. The framework of the country was fixed in 1896; its only physical growth has been the appearance of the Yukon and of some new western towns and districts; in the older places the denser population should render the public service more economical in proportion, as the same machinery is needed to serve 100 000 people as 150 000 people. Parliament is very little bigger in 1908 than it was in 1896 though the indemnity is bigger. We have few additional customs houses; law courts sit in a few additional places but not very many; the penitentiaries are running in much the same old way. Including civil government (i.e., the civil service), legislation (i.e., Parliament), administration of justice, the costs of the customs and excise, the geological survey, pensions, superannuation, etc., we have about 25 services which may be prescribed as falling under this category. Adding all these services together we have:—

Their cost in 1896	$7 612,000
Their cost in 1908	13 078,000
Increase	5 465,000
Rate of increase	71.8 per cent

THE SPENDING DEPARTMENTS.

We now come to departments in which there have been noticeable increases. We may omit such comparatively trifling cases as the Yukon which was not in existence in 1896; let us examine the expenditures of nine departments or sub-departments of the service. These are:—

Agriculture—Increase 180 per cent.
Immigration—Increase 601 per cent.
Quarantine—Increase 566 per cent.
Militia—Increase 277 per cent.
Public Works—Increase 475 per cent.
Mail subsidies—Increase 127 per cent.
Ocean service etc., lighthouses and coast service—Increase 442 per cent.
Fisheries—Increase 136 per cent.

Or a grand total of $15 117,627 over 1896, or 336 per cent.

In other words these departments, in which the more especial departures in expenditure have occurred spent in 1908 between four and five times as much money as they did ten years before.

Now let us see what are the Government's intentions for the future. We can take only the estimates for 1908-9; we have no detailed figures for 1907-8 and 1906-7, was only a nine months' period. Now, if we take practically the same twenty-five items, which we have described as the humdrum routine work of managing the country we find that the appropriations for these amount to $16,780,000. If we deduct five per cent. for votes which will not be expended, we find that the probable spendings on these heads will be about $15,250,000. We thus arrive at a calculation somewhat as follows:

Cost in 1896	$7,612,000
Rate per head	$1.50
Probable cost in 1908-9	$15,250,000
Rate per head	$2.18

Rate of increase of total cost, 100 pc.
Rate of increase of cost per head, 45 per cent.

Cost per Head Increased

Thus the increased population seems to be leading to no economy in the routine management of the country. On the contrary the cost of the routine management has exactly doubled in the twelve years and even when we allow for an increase in population of two millions, the cost per head has increased very heavily.

Now let us look at those heavy spending departments and see what the prospects are. Let us take the estimates for the current year; instead of figures

Let us take the estimates for the current year; In Agriculture the increase of 1908-9 over 1896 was 600 pc.; quarantine 53 pc.; immigration, 750 pc.; militia, 391 pc.; public works 1109 pc.; mail subsidies, etc., 228 pc. ocean and river service, 511 pc.; lighthouse and coast service, 544 pc.; fisheries, 244 pc.; or a grand total increase of $20,710,000 or 800 pc.

Thus the appropriations for these nine great services in the current year are as nearly as possible seven times what the spendings were 12 years ago, when the Liberal party entered office, pledged to economy, and a reduction of expenditures.

A feature of these particular appropriations is the remarkable proportion of them which was held back and sprung on the House in the last days of the session as supplementary estimates. In these nine departments or services the division was:

Main estimates	$22,988,000
Supplementary estimates	8,194,000
Total	$31,182,000

Of these eight millions of supplementary estimates no less than $6,602,000 are in the Public Works Department.

If we assume the unexpended portion of these appropriations to be five per cent. we still have a probable expenditure of $29,500,000. The increase in the dozen years thus works out to be about $25,000,000.

Thirdly, we come to the question of embarking on really big development enterprises. We now have the National Transcontinental; so far, we have spent about $25,000,000 on it, and if we include the Quebec Bridge the entire cost is likely to be about $200,000,000. What else has been done.

If we look to the capital expenditure statement in the Public Accounts we see that the principal expenditures during the decade from 1896 to 1906 have been:

Canals	$23,888,000
Intercolonial Railway	25,685,000
Public Works	11,969,000
Militia	7,277,000
Prince Edward Island Railway	4,192,000
	$73,011,000

LITTLE CONSTRUCTION

How much of this seventy-three millions has gone in the actual working out of single big schemes, comparable to the Canadian Pacific, on which the old Conservative government spent $62,000,000, or the National Transcontinental, on which the present government is spending $200,000,000. The only such large development enterprises which occur to the recollection are the deepening of the canals to fourteen feet, a work which had been started by the Conservative Government, and the various efforts which have been put forward to improve the Intercolonial, partly by extending, partly by double tracking, etc. The public works expenditure with its multitudes of public buildings, break waters, wharves, etc., contains no such outstanding piece of work. The militia capital expenditure, though it represents national security, is not constructive.

An examination of the canal deepening enterprise reveals a curious fact. A good deal was heard about the vigor with which this was pushed on. If we take the five-year period before and after the change of Government, and lump together all the capital expenditure on all the canals, we find:

Spent by Conservatives, 1892-1896	$11,271,000
Spent by Liberals, 1897-1901	14,455,000

CONSERVATIVES DID BETTER

The Conservatives, with painfully small revenue, managed to find nearly as much for canal improvements as did the Liberals under far easier circumstances. Their revenue in the five-year period was $182,000,000, and they spared six per cent. of it for canal enlargement. The revenue enjoyed by the Liberals in the ensuing five-year period was $228,000,000 and they devoted six per cent. of this to canal enlargement. To set aside six per cent. of an abundant revenue, in an era of surpluses is far easier than to spare six per cent. in an era of deficits. It would seem then, that the Liberals pursued this constructive work with rather less energy proportionately than did the Conservatives.

As for the Intercolonial there has been much squabbling over capital expenditure. Without challenging the propriety of charging the whole of the twenty-five or twenty-six millions to capital account, it is fair to note that a proportion of it is bound to be the sort of betterment which a road must effect if it is not to go back; such capital expenditures represent ordinary good management rather than constructive enterprise. Not to go too minutely into a very difficult question, we may say that it will be fair to allow fifteen millions on the railways to constructive enterprise in big undertakings. Thus, by a comfortable rough method we get about $30,000,000 which the Government spent in really large constructive schemes up to the launching of the National Transcontinental.

On a general review we find that in the decade from 1896 to 1906 the Government enjoyed a revenue of $578,000,000. During the preceding decade the revenue was $371,000,000, so that the Liberal Government had over $200,000,000 more to spend than had its predecessors. The use to which it put this additional money was—

1. The national debt was reduced from $228,000,000 in 1896 to $215,500,000 in 1906, a decrease of $12,500,000.

2. The expense of the ordinary routine management of the country was increased from $7,500,000 to $13,000,000 a year.

3. The nine heavy spenders among the services increased their expenditures from $4,500,000 to $19,500,000 a year.

SPENT TOTAL OF $742,000,000.

4. A sum which we have put at $30,000,000 was spent in large constructive development work.

Up to the end of 1907-8 the sum of $742,000,000 has passed through the Liberal Government's hands, or $304,000,000 more than the Conservatives had in the twelve-year period preceding their expulsion from office. The revenue, however, now is dropping. Instead of $96,000,000, the figures for 1907-8, it will be about $85,000,000 in 1908-9. The situation is—

1. The actual debt, including temporary loans, stands at $247,000,000, an increase of $31,500,000 in the last year.

2. The cost of ordinary routine management this year will stand at $15,250,000.

3. The nine big spending services will account for $29,500,000.

4. The fixed charges and big cross entries (railways and Postoffice) this year will amount to $38,800,000.

5. We shall spend this year about $25,000,000 on the National Transcontinental, and are in for a total expenditure of $200,000,000 on this by 1912.

These are simply the large divisions of the subject. Comment may be reserved to a later letter.

Elinor's Afternoon Off.

By CECILY ALLEN.

Copyrighted, 1908, by Associated Literary Press.

It was the proud boast of Mr. and Mrs. James Regan that their flowerlike daughter, Elinor, had never set foot in that plebeian vehicle, a trolley car.

To be sure, there had been a time when James Regan would have welcomed the chance to drive one of the good, old fashioned street cars, but those days belonged in the dark ages of Regan family history along with the momentous Sunday when that same flowerlike daughter had been christened plain Mary Ellen.

Today, thanks to a pocket of gold in the Sierras and a few lucky speculations made possible by those same glittering pockets, the fair Elinor had at her disposal a variety of private vehicles, from a tiny electric runabout to a sixty horsepower touring car, from a smart trap on their Long Island estate to a correctly equipped victoria for her daily drive in Central park.

The men who were glad to ride beside the girl in motor car or trap were equally glad to acknowledge their friendship with the blunt, shrewd Irish capitalist, for, though the Regans were counted among the newest of the newly rich, they were not of them.

A strain of royal blood had surely filtered through the dark ages of Regan family history, for both generations took to the newly found luxury as ducks had taken to the mudholes behind their cabin in the Sierras.

From the moment they had come east Elinor had been surrounded by irreproachable governesses, companions and chaperons. Her comings and goings had always been attended by chauffeur or footman or groom. And there had been times when, watching other girls flit fearlessly and unattended from ferry to trolley car, she had felt an odd twinge of envy.

Some things of life she had missed, and this something was vaguely represented by the trolleys in which she had never ridden, the city streets on which she never set foot unattended. Even more vague was her feeling that somehow her doting father had not quite played fair with her about Reginald Schuyler.

It meant something, of course, to marry into one of the old Knickerbocker families. Schuyler always let her realize this fact. He allowed his blue blood, which showed little enough in his pallid face and deep ringed eyes, to do his wooing.

The other man—he was, like themselves, new as to wealth, fresh and vigorous in every vein—he might have been so different if given half a chance. Sometimes she wanted to give him the chance. Sometimes she wanted to please her father. And neither of the two men in the case nor her father dreamed of the vague unrest in the girl's heart.

All this to explain why Elinor Regan's eyes fairly danced when she stepped from the door of the ferryhouse and reviewed the long line of public vehicles. Belden, the punctilious, was nowhere in sight.

Elinor's companion, Miss Greenleaf, was young, but keenly alive to her duties and very anxious to retain her pleasant and lucrative position.

"Something must have happened. I am sure I worded the telegram very carefully. Shall I call a hansom or an electric cab?"

Elinor shook her head.

"I've heard you can get smallpox riding in public vehicles. Don't they use them for funerals and that sort of thing?"

She was watching her companion from the tail of her eye and wondering just how far she might go.

Miss Greenleaf looked worried.

"Perhaps I had best telephone to the house."

"Oh, no," interrupted Elinor quickly. "We can reach home by trolley while they are sending down the car for us."

Miss Greenleaf hesitated—and was lost. A few seconds later she was swept, golf clubs and bags, into a crosstown car. It was crowded with suburban women bound for the shopping district. Elinor swung blithely from a strap and enjoyed Miss Greenleaf's discomfiture.

"If Mr. Regan ever hears of this!" thought the worried companion. And just then they alighted to change cars. Evidently there was a delay far down the street, for the two women stood some minutes on the corner, and then Elinor spied a drug store whose windows were filled with garish advertisements, beyond which loomed a soda fountain. Miss Greenleaf never knew just how it happened, but she found herself, feebly protesting, before a mahogany topped table which a white coated boy mopped up with a damp cloth.

"Chocolate ice cream soda for both of us," was Elinor's calm order. "Now, don't scold, dear," she added to her companion. "Even our maids have an afternoon off. Why not their mistress? I'm having the time of my life."

The white coated lad studied his stunningly gowned customers with profound interest. Never before had a young woman asked him to put 5 cents' worth more of ice cream into her soda. Then she had asked her companion, now entering into the spirit of the thing, whether she would have more soda or more ice cream. She might spend 5 cents more!

"Gee," said the boy as he dipped out the extra cream, "they act like two kids on a lark!"

As they sallied forth once more Elinor clutched her companion's arm.

"Let's make an afternoon of it, Miss Greenleaf. I've never, never ridden in the subway—please."

Something in the girl's tones made Miss Greenleaf turn suddenly reckless.

"We will, we will," and then she added under her breath, "if I lose my place for it."

In the subway Elinor turned a trifle serious. The noise, the confusion, the shouts of the guards, the crowding of the mob bound for a ball game, the flashing white pillars beyond the open windows—and this was how the girls who worked for their living rode back and forth each day. She thought of her trap and her runabout, her victoria and her touring car, and then she studied the faces of the women around her. A man had risen instantly on her entrance, and she had sunk behind a row of newspapers. But there were other women, older women, more plainly dressed women and more tired looking women, who swung from straps.

She leaned forward and peered around the screen of afternoon papers. Oh, that tired looking woman with gray hair and arms filled with bundles, who clutched desperately at a strap and swayed resignedly with the movement of the car! Elinor half rose in her place to offer the tired woman her seat, and then she sank back. Behind the screening newspaper directly in front of the tired woman she had caught sight of a face, a face she knew, Reginald Schuyler's.

And that man behind the paper was the real Reginald Schuyler, who could sit behind a paper while a tired woman swayed before him!

Elinor did not reason consecutively or logically. She had simply a vague feeling that if ever she became less radiant, less charming than she was today Reginald Schuyler was not the man who would forgive her defects. Reginald Schuyler would be a delightful companion so long as no sacrifice was demanded of him.

It was a subdued Elinor who a few stations farther along signaled to Miss Greenleaf that she had had enough of the subway. She slipped out of the car in dread fear that Schuyler might lay down his paper and see her.

Once more in the fresh air, she bade Miss Greenleaf hail a passing taxicab. Miss Greenleaf laid the girl's sudden quiet to the foul air in the subway and berated herself for yielding to her charge's nonsensical scheme.

That evening James Regan felt that never before had he fully appreciated his daughter's beauty and charm. She was so wondrous tender and womanly as they sat alone in his "den."

"Daddy," she whispered, her arms crossed on his knee, her face uplifted to his—"daddy," she repeated very softly, "if I were to ask you to buy the crown jewels of Patrovia or some other tiny kingdom for me to wear you'd get them, wouldn't you?"

Her father nodded and smiled down on her.

"And if I wanted to buy a prince and a palace I could have them?"

Regan frowned. He hated monarchical institutions. Then he smiled and patted her head. "I guess, yes—sure," he said.

"Or a new sort of orchid—and you'd send to the heart of Africa for it?"

"Now, what are you driving at, Elinor, girl?" demanded her father, his shrewd eyes twinkling.

Elinor flushed beautifully and gripped both his hands in hers.

"Such a little thing, daddy—and it will cost you just 5 cents."

The old man turned serious.

"Out with it, darling."

"I—want—you—to telephone Jack Boardman to spend the week end with us at Grey Towers."

For a few seconds silence reigned in the high ceiled room. Then Regan laid his hand tenderly on her bright hair.

"Elinor, if you want that more than anything in the world"—

He hesitated, and the girl said softly, "More than anything in all the world, daddy."

The man flung back his shoulders and said firmly:

"Then I'll phone him now, before I change my mind."

For Jack Boardman was—the other man!

All There.

Old Lady Goodyear laid down the paper, with a sigh, and looked over her spectacles at Grandfather Goodyear. "I feel quite ashamed when I remember our humble marriage notice," she said.

"'Married in the First Congregational church of Harborville, Abel Goodyear to Mary Lawton,'" chanted Grandfather Goodyear. "It read well, to my thinking."

"Yes, for those days, but not for present times," said his old wife. "You know Anastasia Cummings' daughter Laura married a Toby, and their daughter has just married Sophy Leavitt's grandson. His mother, Sophy's child, married a Wilson."

"Well, what of all that?" inquired Grandfather Goodyear, rubbing his forehead in great confusion of mind.

"It's the fashion to keep all the family names," said Old Lady Goodyear severely. "You hear how grand it sounds:

"'Married, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Frederick Cummings-Toby, by the Rev. Harold Lowden Kirkbright, Edith Smythe Cummings to George Broune Leavitt-Wilson.'

"Now, there's something for old Grandpa Broune and Grandma Smythe to be proud of—if they were alive."

"M-m!" said Grandfather Goodyear.

THE RECEPTION OF HON. MR. GRAHAM

Arrangements Made at Meeting of Com. Last Evening

A meeting of the Reception Committee of the City Council was held last evening. Those present were Ald. Elliott, chairman; Mayor Rush, Ald. Turner and McIntyre and Mr. T. F. Matthews of the Board of Trade.

The reception of the Hon. G. P. Graham, Minister of Railways and Canals, was considered and discussed and the programme of reception to be arranged. It was decided that Ald. Elliott, chairman of the Reception Committee, was to arrange for hacks to meet the boat on arrival at the Wolfe street wharf about 7 p. m., with representatives of the Council and Board of Trade, take a short drive around the city, if time permitted, then drive to the City Council Chamber where an address would be read by the Mayor. He was also to invite the following speakers, or as many of them as can attend, to address the Minister on the importance of the Trent Canal—Messrs. R. R. Hall, M.P., W. H. Denham, T. F. Matthews, W. H. Meldrum, E. G. Patterson, D. Hughes Charles, J. H. Burnham, D W Dumble, J R Stratton, John Carnegie, W. H Moore, Ald Neill and Elliott.

FOR THE PROVINCIAL EXHIBITIONS

All cities over the province are preparing for their exhibition and Peterborough is no exception to the rule.

It is the time we meet our old and new friends, and those who are not our friends, it is also the best time for the introduction of the newest and smartest suits in fall suits, and where they can be shown to the greatest advantage.

The New York Ladies' Tailoring establishment have removed their parlors and workshops from 658 George street to 387 Reid street, opposite St. Peter's Cathedral, for the better accommodation of their patrons and are prepared to take orders in any line of ladies' garments.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THAT CANAL CRY

To the Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir,—Having read the Examiner as well as your paper for several years I cannot fail to remark the decided change of policy taken by the former sheet of late years. Away back in the eighties just previous to the coming into power of the Conservatives in the Dominion House, the latter party were held up to contempt by the Examiner, that paper claiming that the Trent Canal building was merely a party dodge an election cry, etc., etc. Under the Conservative Administration the same canal was only a "ditch," although a long stretch of it had been built. Now it's all changed. The Examiner was down on the whole canal but just at present it is booming up everything relating to that waterway. The Government proposes on the eve of election to build that seventeen mile section between Hastings and Trenton. Am I not as a reader of your paper and as a Conservative entitled to say, "Election Cry!" I conclude, I would not advise tramping on a fallen foe but would rather welcome the prodigal sheet to partake of what looks to be the fatted calf.

VICIOUS BITE FROM A CAT

Went to Stroke the Feline When it Bit His Thumb

Mr. R. A. Sutcliffe, of the CGE. office staff received a very painful bite from a cat the other day while visiting in the country. The apparently good natured pussy rubbed up against his pant leg in an affectionate manner and the reached down to stroke it.

The cat seized him by the thumb of the right hand and bit it severely. Half of the thumb nail had to be removed by the physician who treated the wound. The thumb became swollen. Blood poisoning fortunately did not set in and no serious results are feared.

THE REPORT FALSE ONE

Investigation Proved Nobody Had Been Electrocuted

It was reported last night that a man had been electrocuted at the power house at Nassau. A couple of Review reporters drove up to make an investigation of the matter but found that the rumor was without foundation.

Mr. Fred Morden, of George street north, received a very severe shock while experimenting with a battery at the house of a friend near Nassau a physician being called to attend him. This gave rise to the other untrue report.

LOCAL BREWING FIRM CHARGED

With Selling Liquor to Unlicensed Persons—Case in Police Court To-morrow

The Calcutt Brewing and Malting Company must face a charge of selling liquor to unlicensed persons contrary to the Liquor License Act. The charge is laid by License Inspector Stewart and is the outcome of the case against the south end man who was charged with selling liquor without a license a few days ago.

RESIDENTS AGAIN ARE COMPLAINING

Of the Ashburnham Raceway—Stench is Yet Very Bad

That Ashburnham raceway is again causing trouble. At the instigation of Magistrate Dumble last week, the Mayor ordered Chief Howard to flush it out, which he did. This remedied the evil for a time, but that time was very short. The residents in the vicinity of it are again up in arms about it and complaining. The odor that comes from this waterway is by no means a pleasant one and persons who are so unfortunate as to have to pass it, are obliged to do so, holding their nasal organs. Immediate steps should be taken to wipe out the evil. A well known resident remarked last night, that the stagnant water would yet to be the cause of an epidemic of typhoid fever and then the authorities would suddenly wake up and take action when it was too late. He further stated that the trouble could be remedied in about two hours by a man digging a sluiceway for the water to run away. It is to be hoped that there will be no further delay in making the necessary improvements.

DEEP GASH CUT IN RIGHT FOOT

Mr. Sam Bredin, Ashburnham Had Painful Accident

While chopping some wood in preparation for the evening meal yesterday Mrs. Samuel Bredin, Rogers street, Ashburnham was the victim of a painful, although not a serious accident. Splitting the wood in her hurry the axe slipped and came with great force on her right foot. The sharp blade cut through her cloth shoe, and made quite a deep gash on the top of her foot. The woman was attended by her daughter who dressed the injury.

APPRECIATES AID GIVEN BY PETERBOROUGH AT FIRE

The following expression of gratitude has been received from Stirling:—

Moved by L. Meiklejohn and seconded by S. Wright and resolved, that the Council of the Village of Stirling desires hereby to express to the Mayor, aldermen, and Fire Chief Howard, of the city of Peterborough their deep sense of obligation and appreciation for the free and generous response made by them to the appeal of our Reeve for aid in fighting the disastrous fire which devastated our village on Sunday morning, August 9, 1908, and further to intimate that their noble and disinterested exertions shall not soon be forgotten by the citizens of Stirling on whose behalf they were made.

Dated at Stirling this 17th day of August 1908.

(Signed)
G. G. THRASHER.
Clerk.

To the Mayor of Peterborough.

MR. G. A. GILLESPIE OF WHITE AND GILLESPIE BOUGHT ALL THE CHEESE BOARDED

When the bidding commenced at this morning's meeting of the Peterborough Cheese Board the session came to a close in a very little over five minutes [illegible] 12 7-16 chalked after the boardings of every factory gave the board which usually has several different prices on it, a very unusual appearance. One buyer Mr. G. A. Gillespie, of the firm of White and Gillespie, bought out the entire board at the figure mentioned above.

Several bids were made by other buyers in attendance but when Mr. Gillespie reached his figure they did not go any higher. He named all the factories listed.

Mr. Gillespie stated to the Review today that the purchase money would amount to pretty nearly $45,000.00. White and Gillespie will ship all the cheese to Montreal where they will be exported to the Old Country. 2-818 cheese were bought.

FINANCIAL AND POLITICAL SUCCESS; SOCIAL AT THE POINT

Yesterday a very successful lawn social was held in aid of St. Aidan's Anglican church, Young's Point. The speakers were Revs Reed Spencer and Creighton and Messrs. Hall, M. P., J B. Stratton, J. H. McClellan and W. H. Meldrum. The visit of the Minister of Railways and Canals was referred to and the entire population invited to participate in a welcome to him. It was a beautiful day and the entertainment was much enjoyed by those who were there. The afternoon was not only pleasant but profitable for everybody.

SWAM ACROSS CLEAR LAKE; BECAME ILL AS A RESULT

The many friends of Mr. Arthur Hall Simcoe street, will regret to learn that he is lying seriously ill. Mr. Hall was one of the members of the YMCA. senior camp when he was taken suddenly ill and had to be brought home.

It appears that the young man, one day last week, swam from the camp across the lake to Big Island and back again. It seems that although he successfully accomplished the feat he was so weakened by it that he became quite ill and was obliged to return to the city at once. He was in the water for nearly an hour and a half.

THE RIOTS IN SPRINGVILLE

Were Witnessed by Mr. D. O'Connell of This City

Mr. O'Connell of the law firm of O'Connell & Gordon, has returned from a visit to St. Louis. Mr. O'Connell was also in Springfield, Ill., and was a witness of some of the riots that have occurred there recently. He is reported to have said that they were all as they have been described through the daily press.

MANAGER CROCKER OF CANADIAN OLYMPIC TEAM AT "Y" BANQUET

On August 26th—Will Speak of Olympic Games—Presentation of Athletic Prizes—An Occasion of Interest.

The Y.M.C.A. will hold a big athletic banquet on Wednesday, the 26th of August, in the Association Hall. It is expected that over one hundred men will be present to hear Mr. J. H. Crocker, who managed the Canadian Olympic team in England recently. This will also be made the occasion to present medals to the winners in the Howden and Eastwood Trophy competitions and the cups will also be presented to the winners. The Bradburn trophy, won by the Y.M.C.A. Chieftains in the Junior Church League, will also be presented. In addition to this, several local speakers will eb present and a good musical programme will be given.

A meeting of the Y.M.C.A. Physical Committee was held last night at which all arrangements in connection with the banquet ere completed. The committee is to be congratulated upon getting Mr. Crocker's consent to attend the banquet. His work as manager of the Canadian team was thoroughly appreciated by the country which he represented. He will give a comprehensive talk on the Olympic games and it should prove of great interest.

DOES ART BURN DREAM HE CAN BEAT TOM LONGBOAT?

Arthur Burn, formerly of Peterborough who finished twenty-fourth in the Marathon race at the Olympic games last month passed through Ottawa this week en route to the North west, looking much healthier than when he forsook Ottawa two years ago, the climate around Calgary, where he owns a brick yard apparently agrees with him. He still wears his hair very bushy. "I ran a poor race," said Burn in describing the Marathon. "I should have gone over the course before so as to pick out all the short cuts. A person knowing the course could have easily saved a mile. I led for the first mile then second mile Longboat came up to me and we ran side by side for ten miles The Indian seemed to be going good, although he looked a little heavy. At twelve miles I decided to let Longboat go on and I picked up the running with Lawson. We went together for three miles, then my head suddenly got dizzy in a most unaccountable way. The result was I had to walk a mile and a score of runners passed me along the way. After that I felt a little better and finished the race." Burn says the authorities could do nothing else but give the race to Hayes, and there was no kick coming whatever from the other competitors. Burn also saw Carpenter foul Halswelle in the 400 metres and states that it was most deliberate.

"Do you think that you'll ever be able to meet Longboat."

"I don't know but I'm coming down for that Herald race at Hamilton this fall and if he's in it I'll bet he don't win."

There is no doubt Burns can beat Longboat, that is if the Indian will let him, but even if he did we all know the Calgary man wouldn't run crooked and would insist on the better man winning. Around here Burn was nice and straight like a dog's hind leg. Yes.

DOMINION LAWN BOWLING TOURNAMENT SEES LOCAL SKIPS WELL IN RUNNING

FIRST DAY THE 17TH.

All things worked together for the good of the Dominion Lawn Bowling Tournament which opened yesterday. Everything seemed to happen sufficiently opportune to make that event a happy one in its every detail.

Ninety-two rinks out of the ninety-six entered were on hand, and engaged to play. Peterborough rinks made a good show. The opening ceremony was rather unique.

With the four hundred bowlers and visitors as spectators Mr. Jos. Oliver, Mayor of Toronto, who was to skip a Kew Beach rink, gracefully rolled the kitty down the green. Then, while the spectators applauded, Messrs. J. S. Russell and John Bain, respectively eighty-six and eighty-one years of age, perhaps the oldest bowlers in Canada, engaged in a game of singles which happily ended in a draw. Mr. S. B. Brush, president of the Dominion Association, then declared the tournament open. And it was a popular start.

Four rinks defaulted right at the beginning by not showing up for their games. They were; Dr G. H. Holmes, of Owen Sound, who was matched with E Y Parker, of Parkdale, J A Snord, Rusholme, who was to play H N Rogers, St. Catharines; O R McKeown, Orangeville, who was drawn with R J Kearns, RCYC., and W J Ramsey, Dunnville, who should have met T H Lister, of the Toronto Thistles.

GOOD BOWLERS DOWN

The first day had its surprises, too. Some promising rinks were left in the shade in the preliminary and first rounds. Among these were Dr C F Moore's Canadas, who went down to A E Ecclestone's St Catharines rink; 18 to 12. He had a good rink, too, composed of J H McKenzie, lead, C. G Robertson, Fred Poole and himself; The St. Kitts men were W Gffleding, J Phelps, W W Gourlay and Skip Ecclestone; Dr. B E Hawke of the Granites; J S Willison, Canada, and Mayor Oliver, were other prominent local skips to go down in the first round. Dr. Hawke was outplayed by C W Readman, Balmy Beach; Mr Willison was beaten by J E A Fitzgerald, Peterborough, and the Mayor's measure was taken by T. F. Carey, Rusholme

SECOND DAY THE 18TH

The second day of the Dominion lawn bowling tournament was favored with splendid weather and the beautiful lawn was alive with players from 9 am. until dark. The Walker Trophy reached the 8's. Of these five are Toronto clubs, Canada, Victoria, Kew Beach, Balmy Beach, and Alexandra. The visitors left are Georgetown, Peterborough and London Thistles. Of these it is hard to pick the winner, Georgetown, Alexandra and Peterborough have won all their games by large margins. To forecast the winner would be a lottery. On previous form would prefer the chances of Knox or McKee.

Kerr in the Toronto Cup competition and Fitzgerald in the Ontario Cup are both doing exceedingly well for Peterborough.

The Goldwin Smith Trophy known as the Ontario Cup, the second competition was played through the first, second and third rounds.

In the Toronto Cup the third competition, two and part of the third rounds were played. This morning the fourth round of the Walker Trophy was played, leaving the semi-final and final for tomorrow morning and afternoon. The finish of the third and fourth in the cup will also be completed today. Play will also be continued in three and four rounds of the Toronto Cup.

The entry in the singles and doubles are the largest in the history of the association, there being 102 in the singles and 76 in the doubles. Play in both of these will begin at one o'clock and continue all afternoon. The play today was full of close games, Forbes and Creelman's notably so. It was tie on the last end and only a beautiful draw by Skip Forbes, with his last bowl won for him by one shot. Ecclestone of St. Kitts, after putting out three Canada rinks met defeat from Hurst, Canada rink. This was another close finish, the Canada men only winning with the last bowl on extra end. To comment on the many close games and beautiful ends would also take columns.

The following are the results of yesterday's games as far as the local rinks are concerned;

HARRIERS MEET WILL BE HELD ON SEPT. 18th

Friday, the 18th of September, is the date set for the big Harriers meet to be held in the Brock street rink. An effort will be made to have several of the Olympic team here for the occasion, including Longboat, Simpson, Bobby Kerr, McGrath, Archibald, J Tait, E Wilson, T. Coley, and the much talked of team of English long distance men, viz., Appleby and Duncan.

The meet promises to surpass everything ever held in Peterborough

OLYMPIC REPORT READY

Ottawa, August 18—The report of Mr. J. H. Crocker, manager of the Canadian Olympic team, was received by the Olympic Committee this morning. Its contents will not be divulged for a week or so, as the committee desires to give it careful study. When asked as to its contents, Mr. P. D. Ross said; "The Committee will prepare a report which will be given out for publication on a specified date, but until that time nothing can be stated regarding its contents." The report is a lengthy one and apparently covers every minute detail of the Canadian team's doings.

LACROSSE

The Peterborough lacrosse team will be here on Thursday to play the locals. Each team has won a game and both will try hard for victory. The Petes will be sure to bring up a good team.; — Lindsay Warder.

SPORTING COMMENT

Art Burn, it is said, runs a brickyard out in Calgary. If he had all the bricks that should have been thrown at him when he was doing his double cross stunts in these parts he would have been able to start a brickyard long ago.

The Peterborough Lawn Bowlers are certainly doing well in Toronto. It would indeed be a distinction if the Walker Trophy were to be captured by the local club.

Rugby should come in for a wide patronage here this fall. From the way things look now the great fall game will boom. A City league should by all means be organized and it is not a bit too early to hold an organization meeting.

LONGBOAT WAS IN GREAT TRIM

When He Won From the Peterborough Indian at Hamilton

Speaking of Longboat in his race against Simpson in Hamilton, the Hamilton Spectator says:

Longboat is evidently in much better shape than any one, outside of his most intimate friends, ever dreamed. Longboat led from the start, taking a two-yard lead on the flash of the pistol, and for the first mile, which was covered in 5.20, he maintained this advantage. He gradually increased his lead and it was announced that he had covered the first two miles in 10.20. Tom Flanagan has come in for a good many knocks but he certainly had it on the fans Saturday when his charge trotted three miles in 15.24. Pressed, the Indian would have cut this down near the 15 minute mark, as he was apparently in pretty fair condition.

GRAHAM TO TRY AND BREAK HARTLEY'S RECORD

James Graham, the Buffalo pedestrian, who was fifth in the walking tournament held here in the spring has sent the following letter to the sporting editor of the Review;—

Buffalo, Aug. 17, 1908.

Sporting Editor:

Dear Friend —Well, how are things in Peterborough? I am in very good shape, and would like to come and try and break the record made by Hartley from your city to Toronto, and to represent your paper. I am sure that I can break that record. Would like your paper to be known as backing the event.

Yours truly

PETES. PLAYERS IN GREAT DEMAND

Six of Local Team to Play With Wellington To-morrow

Wellington and Bloomfield are out after each others scalps tomorrow. Bloomfield have imported an Eastern League battery and a number of fast players for the game and Wellington have called on no less than six of the champion Peterborough team. Clements or Hawkins will be on the firing line and will be helped out by Edmunds, Lawson, Burns, Anderson and Murphy. They should make the big leaguer pitch some too.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

NORWICH UNION BULLETIN ON THE FIRE AT FERNIE

The last number of the Norwich Union Bulletin, the insurance paper published in Toronto, has the following news of interest concerning the Fernie fire which tells of the conflagration from a standpoint not treated by press despatches:

Everyone in Canada must have been shocked to read the alarming news from Fernie on Monday, August 3rd, recounting the entire destruction of that city and probable destruction of Hosmer, Coal Creek, Sparwood and Michel, mining towns within a radius of twenty miles of Fernie. All of these towns are situated in the valley of the Elk river in South eastern British Columbia, only a short distance west of the boundary of the province of Alberta on the line of the Crow's Nest Pass division of the Canadian Pacific Railway. The valley is fairly wide, with frequent level stretches of two or three miles in width. Fernie was built on one of these and although there was some bush in the vicinity it was not considered to be a city threatened by bush exposure.

There were several large saw-mills both above and below the city on the Elk river, which had cut most of the timber in the vicinity and were drawing their supplies from limits some distance away. Most of these mills were large and equipped with good force pumps, hose and other apparatus for fire protection.

Fernie itself, with a population of 6500 was a prosperous and growing city. The business centre had been burned four years ago, it being then built of wooden buildings rushed up in a hurry but in the business section at the time of the fire, two-thirds of the buildings were of brick and concrete construction. The ground was level and the residdences were scattered north, south and west of the business centre, nearly all detached and with numerous open spaces in the nature of squares or lots not built upon.

The water supply was obtained from Coal Creek, taken at a point 673 feet above the level of the city and brought to an intermediate reservoir of 900,000 gallons, 202 feet above the level of the city. The distribution throughout the city was by a well designed gridiron, system composed of 10 inch, 8 inch, and 6 inch mains feeding two-way hydrants spaced 250 feet apart in the mercantile district and about 500 feet in the residential district.

They had a well organised, partly volunteer, brigade with six men sleeping in the fire hall at night. There were the usual reels and hose waggons, also one chemical engine. The water pressure at a test made in April this year by the Inspector of the Board of Fire Underwriters showed about 87 lbs. and when three 1 1-8 inch streams were running, the pressure was maintained at 81 lbs., showing an abundant water supply.

Disasters like this emphasize once more the truth that no place no matter how built or how constructed, is free from the hazard of conflagration.

The immediate cause of the conflagration seems to have been a fire burning in some brush a couple of miles distant from the city. It was thought that this fire was extinguished but a strong gale sprang up fanning the embers into flame and carrying burning brands for long distances.

It is said that the first building to burn in the city of Fernie was a store in the centre of the business section which was at least a quarter of a mile from the outlying residences.

There has been a good deal of competition in British Columbia from English Lloyds and American unlicensed companies which secured two years ago the entire insurance of the Crow's Nest Coal Co., amounting to $750,000. They also captured the insurance on some saw-mill plants and lumber. The Companies regularly licensed like the Norwich Union, can congratulate themselves now on their firmness in refusing to meet the absurd rates offered by these organizations as they will save probably $800,000 of losses. Perhaps those cheap policies do not look so attractive now.

BRUTAL ATTACK IS REPORTED

On Belleville Woman—Brother-in-law Arrested

Belleville, August 18 — Albert Greaves, a married man was arrested here at midnight last night on the charge of brutality towards his sister-in-law, Mrs. Fred Renfrew.

Greaves, with his wife and family, with Renfrew and his family, had been camping on Zwick's Island, on the Bay of Quinte for the past month. Last night Greaves went home drunk and in a quarrel which ensued it is alleged Greaves kicked Mrs. Renfrew in a brutal manner as well as using his fists.

The physician is unable at present to state the extent of the injuries, but they are severe. Greaves was remanded to jail for a week to await the outcome.

NORWOOD

Norwood, Aug. 18.—The East End Cottagers' regatta on Monday was well attended by Norwood people. A large number drove out in the morning, and, although rain threatened early in the morning and all day, the sports were unmarred by foul weather or any serious accidents. Monday was Norwood's civic holiday and was enjoyed by the people in various ways. While a large proportion went to the regatta, Round Lake and Trent River were not neglected, and we expect to hear some good big fish stories from these places.

Mr. Ernest Haig and Wm. McDougall who met with the terrible misfortune while blasting in the well at Mr. W. Collins's, Centre Dummer, a report of which appeared in last week's paper, are doing better than could have been expected. The last report received said the men had good chances of recovery. It seems almost incredible that men could survive such injuries. Both lost an eye and had the other injured. McDougall's face was almost shot away on one side. Haig lost nearly all of one hand and had his arm broken in two places, besides minor injuries. Should they recover, both will be badly handicapped for the battle of life.

Mr. G. V. McLean, principal of the High School, sent in his resignation on Tuesday of last week. As his agreement requires him to give a full month's notice previous to the commencement of a term there is likely to be trouble. We understand the matter has been placed in the hands of a solicitor. The Board however have advertised for another principal, and it is reported on the street that several good applications have been received.

A fine cement walk has been laid at the main entrance of the High School extending from the street to the school and around the side of the school to the rear. In all about 000 feet have been laid. The work was done by Messrs. Elliott and Jenkins of Norwood, and reflects credit to the contractors.

Mr. Wilbert, of Peterborough, is the guest of friends in Norwood.

Mr. Edwin Searight, of Peterborough is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Searight, Peterborough street.

Miss Sybil Livingstone is visiting her mother, Mrs. George Livingstone, Queen street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira D. Moore, of Peterborough, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Searight.

Mr. Wal Copperwhaite of Cobalt, who has been working in the mines is home.

Miss Ethel Searight, who has been engaged in one of the large millinery stores in Vancouver, B.C., is home for some time.

Mrs. Charles Blake is visiting friends in Burleigh, Chandos and other places.

MI-O-NA MEANS STOMACH COMFORT

Its of Special Value to Many Here in Peterborough

A notable discovery and one that appeals especially to many people in Peterborough, is the combination of stomach help in the Mi-o-na treatment. This preparation works wonders in case of indigestion or weak stomach.

It acts directly upon the walls of the stomach and bowels strengthening and stimulating them so that they readily take care of the food that is eaten without distress or suffering.

So positive are the good effects following the use of Mi-o-na that the remedy is sold by W. Midill druggist, corner George and Hunter streets, Peterborough, under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it fails to cure. A 50 cent box of Mi-o-na will do the good the stomach needs, which is simply to make it do its own good work

OPINION OF THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC

View Expressed at Recent Meeting of Catholic Total Abstinence Union

The ninth convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union was held in New Haven last week. The T.A.S. of Peterborough, affiliated with this organisation but did not send a delegate. The following despatch will interest the members of the above body;

"New Haven, Conn. August 14— Denunciation of the liquor traffic, an appeal for the sanctification of Sunday and the exclusion of those engaged in the liquor traffic from membership in Catholic societies were the striking features of the resolutions adopted by the Catholic Total Abstinence Union today.

The resolution says: 'Catholic periodicals that cannot live without liquor advertisements should die. Let them not drag down the Catholic on their greed. We earnestly suggest that Catholic organizations which exclude saloon keepers from membership and which forbid the use of liquor at their meetings should not tolerate the formation of clubs within their membership which despise the letter and the spirit of those laws that have been made by their organization for their honor."

The soles of policemen's boots made of goats' hair, seaweed, dust and gum!

This is not a recipe from "Alice in Wonderland," but the composition of a substitute for leather, invented by John Campbell, a chemist, long employed in the rubber trade, who resides at Wood lane, Shepherd's Bush, London, England.

Fourteen years ago Mr. Campbell began experiments with old rubber, but these he discarded some time ago, and now he has perfected and patented a substance which, in a fluid, pliable or hard state can be used for a very large variety of purposes.

From seaweed, carpet dust, goats' hair, Irish moss, gums and a chemical process which is his secret, Mr. Campbell has already made the following astonishing list of commodities: Policemen's boots (outer soles and heels), picture frames, ornamental mouldings (for railway carriages), partitions (to resemble wood), belting (for machinery), upholstery, bobbins (for cotton spinning), electric switchboards, flooring, golf balls, fountain pens, "marble," in all colors; chessboards, bookbindings and "ivory" combs.

A reporter recently visited the laboratory, which will shortly give place to a factory, and examined many of the samples. Mr. Campbell makes no startling claims for his invention, and admits that his composite is not equal to materials of the highest quality, but he says that in the case of leather, for instance, it provides an excellent substitute in the manufacture of goods which could not bear the price of the best hides.

"The product has been tested by policemen and postmen, and the soles and heels are in good condition after nine months' wear," he said.

"Two thousand feet of it are now in use as belting in machine shops, and the substance has been proved to be impervious to oils, acids or atmospheric conditions.

"It is absolutely non-inflammable. As it is made of waste products, the price is low, and, being very light in weight, it is specially suitable for railway purposes.

"I hope it will be adopted for electrical apparatus. In its hard state it is a good substitute for vulcanite, and is less than a quarter the price.

"I obtain my seaweed from Devonshire, and the most expensive variety for the manufacture of marbles from Japan. Imitation marbles and woods, which can be turned out in any color or design, are made of seaweed, moss; carpet dust, gums and chemicals, hydraulically pressed.

"A beautiful marble floor can be obtained by pouring the composite in a fluid state over a floor and allowing it to set. The seaweed, which can be colored or made to form any design, not only gives the effect of the veining shown in real marble, but the color and veins go right though the material.

"Any kind of wood can be imitated, and in its pliable state the substance can be used in the same manner as linoleum."

Death In the Telephone.

According to a report by a medical officer from Westminster to The Lancet, a startling result has been attained from a test to discover whether tuberculosis germs exist in telephone mouth pieces.

One of the post office public telephones on the central exchange was wiped around with a swab to remove any existing germs in the mouthpiece, and the contents of the swab used to inoculate two guinea pigs. One guinea pig was killed twenty-three days after inoculation, and a post-mortem examination showed pronounced signs of tuberculosis. The second guinea pig was killed twenty-seven days after inoculation and showed similar signs of infection, thus proving that the deadly germs of tuberculosis can be transmitted by the public telephone as at present in general use.

It is added that this proves conclusively that all telephones, whether in public or private use, need to be periodically disinfected, as is the case on the London Stock Exchange, where the fifty telephones are sprayed daily with a disinfectant under an agreement with the general postoffice.

Lion Eats a Porcupine.

The question has just arisen among Rhodesian hunters whether lions make it a habit to eat porcupines, and if they do does it often happen that the victim, in his death agony, leaves his fatal darts in the throat of his destroyer? It seems that recently two well known Rhodesian hunters, natives of Holland, shot an antelope. Returning to the spot an hour later the carcass was nowhere in sight.

The animal, it was seen, had been dragged away, but the men declared that a lion was not the thief. However, a lion was found to be the culprit, for the hunters discovered the animal with the booty in his mouth. The men shot the lion, which was in an emaciated condition.

A post-mortem examination was held, and it was found that several porcupine quills were stuck in the lion's throat in such a manner as to prevent the passage of food.

A Military Record.

Probably the world's record for continuous service as a soldier is held by a Russian non-commissioned officer named Budnikoff, 128 years old. He entered the army in 1797, at the age of 15, as a private in the hussar life guards and served as a soldier for more than eighty years. He fought in many wars, including the campaign of 1812, won all four classes of the St. George's order for valor, besides about forty other crosses and medals, and now receives an annual pension of $60. He is still hale and hearty. He was married ninety years ago and had a son and two daughters. The son was killed in the Russo-Turkish war.

ADVICE TO YOUNG COUPLES

INSURE NOW AGAINST FIRE!
Those starting housekeeping for the first time—on no matter how small a scale—should take the precaution of insuring their household furniture and other effects against fire. Whether in house or flat, there is always danger of accidental fires. Better provide against the consequent loss by having your property well insured. We'll give you the best policy.

NEWSPAPER PROPRIETORS AND MANAGERS IN BROCKVILLE

Special to the Review.

Brockville, Aug. 18.—This morning there was a meeting at the Hotel Strathcona of the newspapermen of Ontario comprising the business managers and publishers of a number of the leading dailies of the Province.

The chief order of business included a discussion of rates of local and foreign advertising. Other matters pertaining to the successful publication of newspapers were also considered.

At noon the visitors accompanied by Mayor C. S. Cossitt, P. M. Graham and M. C. Franklin of the Brockville Recorder, A. T. Wilgress, proprietor, and W. R. Scace, business manager of the Brockville Times, boarded the yacht Magedoma as the guests of J. A. Mackenzie of the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, and proceeded to Gananoque, where lunch will be served at the ..dam, after which the party will return early this evening and another session for the consideration of business management will follow.

The delegates and friends in attendance included the following:—

L. H. Dingman—St. Thomas Times.

W. S. Dingman—Stratford Herald.

A. C. Woodward—Chatham News.

J. H. Dobbin—Peterborough Review.

J. B. Hanna—St. Catharines Journal.

W. V. Uttley—Berlin News-Record.

F. W. Sutherland—St. Thomas Journal.

G. B. Van Blaricome—McLean Trades Journal, Toronto.

W. B. Burgoyne, Mrs. and Miss Clara Burgoyne—St. Catharines Standard.

J. I. McIntosh, Mrs. Jas. McIntosh—Guelph Mercury.

J. J. Gibbons—Advertising Agent, Toronto.

J. A. McKay—Windsor Record.

W. J. Elliott and Mrs. Elliott—Ingersoll Chronicle.

W. J. Taylor—Woodstock Sentinel-Review.

W. R. Givens—Kingston Standard.

Leman Guild—Kingston British Whig.

W. B. Burgoyne, of St. Catharines, is the President, and A. G. Donaldson, of the Toronto Star, secretary. It is expected that the deliberations of the gathering will conclude to-morrow. If time will permit the delegates will be entertained to a drive around town as guests of the Town Council.

SALVATION ARMY S. S. EXCURSION

The Salvation Army Sunday school excursion takes place to-morrow (Thursday) per steamer Otonabee to Jubilee Point. The boat leaves Wolfe street wharf at 1.30 p.m. and will return about 9 p.m. Every preparation has been made for an enjoyable afternoon. A long list of prizes will be run off. There is every prospect of a large attendance.

DRINK JOHNS' TEA

DOINGS AT THE POLICE COURT

P. C. Meharry ran into John Donohue and William Jaques late last night, and demanded the why and wherefore of their presence at that uncomfortable hour. They endeavored to give a lucid explanation of the same, but a faint suspicion that both had been monkeying too freely with the tarantula brand, crossed the officer's mind and he begged them to accompany him to the station. At the police court this morning Jaques pleaded guilty to the charge of being drunk and was asked for the usual two-spot. Donohue was charged with attempting to obtain liquor from a licensed hotel keeper yesterday, knowing that he was on the list. He pleaded guilty and asked his Worship to let him go as he had been keeping pretty straight of late. But he was remanded until tomorrow, when judgment in his case will be given.

Albert Parrish came down from the woods yesterday with his wad and foolishly endeavored to shoot the bunch. He was corralled before he had spent it all and smiling acquiesced when the charge was read to him this morning. He showed most excellent grace when handing over the requisite two dollars this morning and with a Chesterfieldian bow he walked away.

Two youngsters with big league aspirations managed to break a couple of windows in a local bakery, and were represented at the Water street conservatory of justice by their daddies. The latter testified that the breakages had been repaired but as a warning against such costly practices the Magistrate taxed each two dollars.

Chief Rossel considers that the raceway is a nuisance and representatives of the Brewery Company and the Hydraulic Power Company asked for one week to get the proper materials to remedy the same.

ARCHIDIACONAL CONFERENCE AT LINDSAY

The annual conference of the Archdeaconry of Peterborough, will be held at St. Paul's church, Lindsay, on Nov. 16th and 18th. This was decided by the Council, who met at St. Luke's vestry yesterday. A preliminary programme was also drafted. Ven. Archdeacon Warren, Rev. Rural Deans Allen and Langfeldt, Rev. W. J. Creighton, of Lakefield, A. J. Reid, of Campbellford, and A. C. Crummer, of Kinmount, attended.

RUMOR RENEWED OF NEW MINISTER

Toronto, August 18— A report is current in well informed circles that Mr. T. E. Bradburn, MPP, will be made Minister without portfolio in succession to the late Hon. Dr. Willoughby.

The Post's informant states that the report is authentic, but as the Prime Minister is at present in England no information could be secured from that source.

Mr. Bradburn is a former resident of Lindsay and his host of friends there would be pleased beyond measure if the report turns out to be correct.—Lindsay Post.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. Madill desires to announce to the readers of the Review that they have secured the agency for Parisian Sage, the marvelous dandruff cure and delightful hair dressing.

Mr. Madill is glad to state that Parisian Sage is a rigidly guaranteed hair restorer.

It cures dandruff in two weeks by killing the dandruff microbes; it stops falling hair; it cures all scalp diseases, or money back.

It is a most pleasant hair dressing, especially for ladies, as it makes the hair soft and lustrous. The price is only 50 cents a large bottle at W. Madill's Drug Store, George street, Peterborough, or by express, all charges prepaid, from Giroux Mfg. Co., Fort Erie, Ont.

BAND PLAYED GOOD PROGRAM

Salvation Army Musicians Heard to Advantage Last Night

The Salvation Army Band concert last night at Victoria Park was a splendid one, a well chosen programme being rendered. "Songs of All Nations," was a particularly interesting selection. The programme was as follows:

March, Southall.

Selection, Great Masters. This is one of the finest arrangements published by the Army.

Saxophone duet, Beautiful Christ, by Bandsmen Brown and James.

March, Candidate. One of the latest marches.

Selection, Songs of Scotland, by request.

Instrumental Sextette, "Bugle Calls."

March, Marching On.

Selection, Mercy. This selection won first prize in the competition, in 1906

Hymn, Nearer my God to Thee.

Finale, Songs of All Nations.

WEDDING BELLS

HAMILTON — McGREGOR

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Tuesday, August 18th, when Mary, third daughter of Mr. W. J. McGregor, Sherbrooke street, Peterborough, was united in marriage to Robert David Hamilton, son of Mr. David Hamilton, Westcott street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Livingstone, of Hamilton. The young couple were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will reside in Hamilton.

To All the Women Who Suffer Pe-ru-na Is Earnestly Commended

Mrs. Geo. C. Worstell, 11 River Road, Clarksburg, W. Va., writes:

"I trust that no one will think from this that I want my name in public for any cause only to let sufferers know where they may find relief from many ailments.

"I can truly say I have been much benefited by the use of Peruna. I feel better than I have for two years. It is the best medicine that I know for pelvic troubles.

"I have taken medicine from the doctors and found no relief; but when I began taking Peruna I could see that before I had finished taking the first bottle it was doing me good."

MISS NETTIE E. BOGARDUS

MRS. GEO. C. WORSTELL

MRS. O. D. ROBINSON

Cold Developed into Catarrh.

Mrs. N. P. Lawler, 423½ N. Broadway, Pittsburg, Kas., writes:

"Peruna is a sovereign remedy for catarrh. Last spring I caught a severe cold which developed into a serious case of catarrh. I felt weak and sick and could neither eat nor sleep well.

"A friend who had been cured of catarrh through the use of Peruna advised me to try it and I did so at once. I expected help, but nothing like the wonderful change for the better I observed almost as soon as I started taking it.

"In three days I felt much better and within a week I was well. I continued taking the entire bottle and within two weeks I was in fine health. Peruna is a wonderful medicine."

Catarrh of the Bowels.

Mrs. Maggie Durbin, 1322 North St., Little Rock, Ark., writes:

"I was troubled for five years with a chronic disease. I tried everything I heard of, but nothing did me any good. Some doctors said my trouble was catarrh of the bowels, and some said consumption of the bowels. One doctor said he could cure me; I took his medicine two months, but it did me no good.

"A friend of mine advised me to try Peruna and I did so. After I had taken two bottles I found it was helping me, so I continued its use, and it has cured me sound and well.

"If anyone wants to know what Peruna did for me if they will write to me I will answer promptly."

Pains in the Side.

Mrs. Julia Braxton, Apollo, Pa., writes:

"Peruna has cured me of heart trouble and pains in the side.

"A year ago I was expected to die at any time, and the doctor was sometimes called at two o'clock in the morning. But I am thankful to say that I do not not have to send for a doctor now.

"Since I have used your Peruna as you advised me, I am well and able to do all my housework.

"I have all the faith in the world in Peruna as it cured me and I know that it will cure others.

"I cannot praise Peruna enough for what it has done for me."

Stomach Trouble.

Miss Anna Carsten, Clayton, Ill., writes:

"Your Peruna did me so much good.

"I am feeling so well now and have no trouble with my stomach."

Miss Nettie E. Bogardus, R. F. D. 21, Westfield, N. Y., writes:

"I have been a great sufferer from sick headaches, but am now entirely free from that trouble. I have not felt so well in ten years as I do now. I would recommend Peruna and Manalin to all sufferers. I will say, God bless Dr. Hartman and his wonderful remedies."

Stomach Catarrh.

Miss Julia Butler, R. R. 4, Appleton, Wis., writes:

"For the past six years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach, causing loss of sleep and appetite, with frequent severe pains after eating.

"My sister advised me to try Peruna.

"I took your treatment and my appetite returned speedily.

"I gained strength and flesh and am in perfect health.

"I am so thankful your medicine has done me so much good."

Mrs. O. D. Robinson, 48 St. Felix St., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"I have taken Peruna and it did me more good than all my two years' treatment by special physicians. I can really say that I feel like another person. No more swollen feet and limbs. No more bloating of the abdomen. No more shortness of breath. No more stiff and sore joints. You have no idea what your treatment has done for me. It certainly has prolonged my life and made a new woman of me.

"O, such a blessing I have received through your kindness, doctor, and the assistance of the medicine which you so kindly prescribed. I am able to work since I began your treatment, but before I was not able to help myself, much less work for any one else. All praise is due to Dr. Hartman and his treatment."

TRAMP SCARE IS WIDESPREAD

Ontario Government Has Been Asked to Send Detectives to Various Centres

There is a tramp scare in Ontario, and the Ontario Government has been asked to send detectives to various centres to round up vagrants, but there are only four Provincial inspectors and they're busy.

Generally, these requests for Government aid in chasing hobos close with these words: "the high constable has taken no action."

The Government's attitude seems to be this: that the counties should be able to handle tramps, many of whom are not at all violent, merely lazy. An expert detective is not needed in guarding or arresting tramps. Ordinary men with some strength and courage are good enough.—Toronto Star.

EXCURSIONISTS IN CITY TO-DAY

Between Five and Six Hundred People From Belleville Here

Between five and six hundred excursionists arrived in the city this morning from Belleville. The outing is under the auspices of the Holloway street Methodist Sunday School. It is their second annual excursion to this city. The special train arrived at the station shortly after 10 o'clock. The visitors are spending the day in viewing the many places of interest in Peterborough, including a trip over the lift lock.

They return to Belleville this evening at seven o'clock.

TENDERS HAVE BEEN RECEIVED

For the New St. James Methodist Church in the South End

Three tenders have been received for the building of the new St. James Methodist church in the south end of the city. The building committee met yesterday and made some alterations in the specifications reducing the cost about one thousand dollars. These modifications will be laid before the contractors tendering before the committee meets to decide which one they will award the contract to.

The new structure will be of brick and will accommodate four hundred and fifty people. It is expected that the new building will be ready in about three months. Until the cold weather comes, services will be held in the tent. The attendance so far has been very encouraging, there being an average between seventy and eighty present at the morning services and over a hundred in the evenings. The number of scholars in the Sunday School is also large.

James Muir's barn, of Binkrook, for the second time this year, was struck by lightning and destroyed.

After six years of railway construction in China, Gordon B. Johnson, C.E., has returned to his home at Belleville.

SEVENTY MINERS ARE DEAD NONE ESCAPED IN DISASTER

Explosion of Gas in Maypole Workings at Wigan Imprisons Miners and Search Parties Are Driven Back by Fire—18 Bodies Found.

Wigan, Eng., Aug. 20.—It is not believed a single man of 70 miners who were entombed by an explosion, which occurred Tuesday in the Maypole Coal Mine here, survived the disaster.

The ventilating fan, which was put out of order by the explosion, was repaired yesterday morning, and the mine having been cleared of gases a rescue party descended.

The sight which met their eyes was horrifying. Not far from the bottom of the shaft 18 bodies were found, all frightfully mutilated, legs and arms being blown off and heads battered almost beyond recognition.

The management of the mine declares that between 60 and 70 [illegible] were under ground at the time of the explosion and that there is no hope that anyone will be brought out alive.

Women and children, however, who had remained at the pit head all night refused to leave until the bodies of their dead are brought to the surface.

The search parties yesterday afternoon were driven back by the fire. A number of the rescuers were overcome by the fumes from the burning coal, but were safely brought to the surface.

It will be impossible to make a thorough examination of the workings until the fire has been subdued and the air purified.

INSANITY IS THE PLEA ADVANCED

Hain's Wife Files Papers Claiming He is a Degenerate.

New York, Aug. 20.—The World prints the following special from Winthrop Highlands, Mass.:

The motive for the murder of William E. Annis at the Bay Side Yacht Club last Saturday by Capt. Peter C. Hains, Jr., U.S.A., aided by his brother, Thornton Jenkins Hains, is to be found in the filing of a suit brought by Mrs. Peter C. Hains against her husband.

In this suit Mrs. Hains alleges that her husband is a morally degraded person and charges are made of the most sensational character. At the same time the complainant demanded in her petition that the case itself be tried in open court.

THORNTON JENKINS HAINS.
Brother of the Murderer Charged as Accessory.

It was admitted yesterday that the defence will be insanity. To what extent the insanity theory can apply as a defence for T. Jenkins Hains' part in the tragedy is not clear, however, although it is known he brooded over his brother's marital troubles to a considerable extent.

The mystery of the so-called "threatening letters" written by Captain Peter C. Hains to William E. Annis, his victim in the Bay Side tragedy of Saturday was cleared up last night.

The letters were challenges to a duel. In them the army officer demanded that he be allowed "a gentleman's satisfaction" by meeting on the field of combat the wrecker of his home.

LOTS OF MONEY IN PEACHES

Essex Fruit Farmer Stands to Clear Nearly $14,000.

Windsor, Aug. 20.—The fruit crop in Essex County will surpass in value the yields of any previous year, according to experts who have examined the orchards. This is particularly true of the peach crop of which there has been a large increase in the acreage. One farmer has an orchard of 100 acres and he expects that his peach crop will bring him a profit of $12,000 to $14,000. Essex farmers have found that fruit is far more profitable to them than any other crop they can raise.

The corn crop also promises to be remarkably fine.

Fires at Vancouver.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 20.—The worst bush fires of the summer in the vicinity of Vancouver are now raging. Probably the most damaging fires are burning in Squamish Valley and on Bowen Island, and there is a blaze at Point Grey., which threatens to cause considerable loss.

The city waterworks plant at Capelano is threatened.

Reorganization Rumored.

Toronto, Aug. 20.—Persistent rumors, says an evening paper, declare that Attorney-General Foy will reorganize his Department, and appoint J. Seymour Corley of Toronto provincial prosecutor, Eric Armour city crown attorney, and Police Inspector William R. Davies as chief of provincial police staff.

Burglars In the Excitement.

London, Aug. 20.—While the fire was in progress here on Wednesday burglars entered two houses on Piccadilly street, in the north end of the city, getting away with $125. They have not been traced as yet.

THE HUNTER WAS HUNTED

County Constable Placed Under Arrest in Toronto.

Toronto, Aug. 20.—Leading a fourteen-year-old prisoner around handcuffed at the end of a chain, County Constable Loughlin McBean of Cannington was arrested by P. C. Reburn on Station street yesterday on a charge of being drunk.

Yesterday McBean got his prisoner and, handcuffing him at the end of a long chain, marched away in the direction of the Union Station. He was found about 4 o'clock wandering aruond the vicinity of the station in an intoxicated condition, dragging his youthful captive around with him.

Farmer Gored to Death.

Belleville, Aug. 20.—Charles Ketcheson, Sr., a pioneer as well as one of the best known residents of Sydney township, was gored to death Tuesday night. He was bringing in cows from pasture on his farm when he was attacked by a bull and injured in such a manner that he died four hours later. Both his legs were broken and he suffered other severe injuries. He was about 75 years of age and leaves a grown-up family.

Slipped Over Border.

St. Catharines, Aug. 20.—Some fifteen Polish women were rounded up at Merritton Tuesday afternoon by an immigration officer from Niagara Falls. In some manner it seems they had got over the border. As soon as their presence in Canada was discovered an officer was sent after them. They said they were on their way to Grimsby to work in a canning factory.

Victim Identified.

Toronto, Aug. 20.—The victim of Tuesday night's accident at the King street subway has been identified as William Blatherwick of 68 Montrose avenue. He was a tailor and an Englishman. He had been despondent for some days and was about to return to England. His son maintains that the death, however, was accidental.

To Honor Irish M. P.'s.

New York, Aug. 20.—John E. Redmond, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary party, and Joseph Devlin, M. P., are expected to arrive in this city from Ireland about Sept. 16, and a reception has already been arranged for them by a committee of the United Irish League of America.

HALIFAX CHOOSES MR. R. L. BORDEN

Enthusiastic Convention—Premier Hazen Present.

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 20.—R. L. Borden, M. P., and Mayor A. B. Crosby were unanimously chosen as the Liberal-Conservative candidates for the House of Commons for this constituency at a convention, the largest and most enthusiastic in years, held yesterday afternoon.

Mayor Crosby asked for time for consideration before accepting and the convention was adjourned until Wednesday next.

A feature of the nomination was the presence of J. D. Hazen, Premier of New Brunswick, who addressed the convention after the candidates had been selected.

High Jinks at Cobalt.

Cobalt, Aug. 20.—The first day of the firemen's celebration was, from every standpoint, a grand success. The town is crowded with visitors from different parts of the province, especially from the several towns of New Ontario, Haileybury, Liskeard and Englehart being well represented. A private car of distinguished visitors came up from Toronto, among whom were Hon. Frank Cochrane, Hon. Dr. Reaume and Hon. Thomas Crawford, and R. S. Gilpin and T. W. Ellis. They will remain till to-night, when the celebration ends

Bigamist a London Man.

Windsor, Aug. 20.—It has developed that George Ferguson, who is confined in Sandwich jail on a charge of bigamy, is really Nathaniel Self, 137 Bathurst street, London. Self left his family in London a year ago and has not been seen by them since. There are three young girls in the family, the eldest of whom is 15 years of age. Two of the girls are working to help to support their mother.

AN EXPLOSION OF DYNAMITE

Double Accident in Amherstburg May Result Fatally.

Amherstburg, Aug. 20.—Stephen Austin had his skull fractured by falling steel in the dynamite explosion which destroyed the dredge Destroyer yesterday morning. He is not expected to live. Twelve others were less seriously hurt. The accident was caused by a misunderstanding between the day and night shifts. Just before knocking off for the night the men had been engaged in sinking a cartridge into a newly-bored hole. The day crew, supposing that the hole had not yet been charged, inserted a new cartridge. An explosion followed, wrecking the dredge. Almost immediately after the small stores boat towed behind the dredge exploded with a concussion that floored every man in the neighborhood and caused blood to issue from their ears. Craft nearby came at once to the rescue and picked up all the injured men and brought them here.

Pelletier Succeeds Jette.

Quebec, Aug. 20.—Sir Alphonse Pelletier, formerly organizer of the Liberal party and now judge of the Superior Court, will shortly be sworn in as the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Quebec.

He was twice Speaker of the Senate.

Leper Widow Escapes.

Tombstone, Ariz., Aug. 20.—Mrs. Wardwell, the quarantined leper, widow of Gen. Wardwell, escaped from her quarters Tuesday night and she is supposed to have boarded a Southern Pacific train for California.

To Stop Foreclosure.

Toronto, Aug. 20.—William F. Graham of Hungerford Township, Hastings County, is asking for an injunction to restrain the Sovereign Bank from taking proceedings to collect a $30,000 mortgage.

APPOINTMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE

Ontario Government Announces Several New Positions.

Toronto, Aug. 20.—W. C. McGhie of Toronto has been appointed to the newly-created chairmanship of the board of examiners of stationary engineers. The board will be under the Minister of Agriculture, and will be open Sept. 1. The factory inspectors will constitute the other members of the board.

Mr. McGhie will receive $1,800 a year. He is president of the Central Conservative Association of West Toronto.

Other appointments announced are:

Fred Weegar, police magistrate North Bay, vice William Martin, Jr., removed. Martin is being sought in connection with a shortage in his accounts as town tax collector.

Charles E. C. Newton, storekeeper at Penetang Asylum.

John E. Whitton, L. Jeffries and W. R. Hope to be provincial constables.

Hitch In Welcome.

Sydney, N. S. W., Aug. 20.—Early this morning a thin veil of smoke on the horizon signalled to the watchers on the coast the approach of the United States warships.

A sensational hitch of international importance has arisen in connection with the ceremonial procession of the American sailors through the streets of Sydney on Friday.

The nature of the hitch is "strictly confidential for the present."

Not a Popular Alliance.

Shanghai, Aug. 20.—The Sin Wan Pao, a leading Chinese newspaper, comments unfavorably upon the suggested alliance between the United States and China for the purpose of jointly opposing Japan. The paper declares that China must rely upon internal reforms, and not foreign alliances.

HALIFAX CELEBRATES IN HONOR OF THE OCCASION

Brilliant Function Attended by Prominent Members of Eastern Provincial Governments—German Schoolship Freya Contributes.

Halifax, Aug. 20.—Nova Scotia yesterday recalled the glories of her past, when, amid the pomp of military ceremonial, Lieut.-Governor Fraser unveiled a tablet in commemoration of the establishment of the first Parliament in this province 150 years ago. Tribute to Nova Scotia was paid by speakers from all the Maritime Provinces, and Quebec.

On the platform erected in the enclosure were representative public men, statesmen, jurists, officers of the German warship Freya and of the Canadian forces, and members of the Maritime Board of Trade.

At 9 o'clock the ceremonies commenced with salutes fired from the German cruiser Freya and the Citadel. At 10 o'clock a guard of honor from the Royal Canadian Regiment and an escort of the 63rd Rifles arrived. Lieut.-Governor Fraser on his arrival was received with a salute by the guards of honor.

The tablet is of brass, and bears the names of the first representatives in the first Assembly of the province, together with the names of the officers, and the first governor. It reads in part:

"1758-1908. This tablet is to commemorate the convening of the first General Assembly of Nova Scotia, which met for the despatch of business at the Court House at Halifax on Oct. 2, 1758."

Eloquent addresses were delivered by Hon. Mr. Justice Drysdale, Chief Justice Townshend, Lieut.-Governor Fraser, Hon. W. A. Weir, representing Quebec, Lieut.-Governor MacKinnon, P. E. I., Premier Hazen, Premier Hazzard, Hon. J. K. Armstrong and Premier Murray.

NOT MANY WENT FROM THIS CITY

On Harvesters Excursion—Special Called at C.P.R. Station at 1.30

There were not so many local persons went on the harvesters' excursion this afternoon as took in the last one. The special called at Peterborough at 1.30 this afternoon and was made up at Kingston this morning.

It is expected that a larger number than went from here today will take in the excursion next Saturday.

May Be Too Optimistic.

London, Aug. 20.—(C. A. P.)—The imperialistic press express curiosity regarding the basis of Hamar Greenwood's optimism about the all-red route, agreeing that indications are rather towards a deadlock

Contractor Killed.

Montreal, Aug. 20.—Isaac Hutchins, a well-known contractor was run over and killed yesterday afternoon by an automobile. The coroner's jury gave a verdict of accidental death.

Francis Joseph Is 78.

Vienna, Aug. 20.—The celebration of the 78th anniversary of the birth of Emperor Francis Joseph is being made the occasion of patriotic festivities in the capital and through Austria and Hungary. All the towns and villages of the dual monarchy are gaily decorated, and military parades and popular festivities are being held. In accordance with the desire of His Majesty, a large proportion of the funds collected to celebrate the event will be devoted to founding philanthropic institutes.

Marienbad, Aug. 20.—In honor of the birthday of Emperor Francis Joseph the King gave an official dinner last night.

No Coal Strike Coming.

Pittsburg, Aug. 20.—President Francis Feehan of District No. 5, United Mine Workers of America, said yesterday the Western Pennsylvania coal miners will not strike because of the failure of operators and miners to agree on the check-off system. He said the operators violated their agreement when they limited the collection of union dues to 50 cents a month, and that although he proposed to submit the question to arbitration, the operators refused.

Fears For Miss Peck.

Lima, Peru, Aug. 20.—Alarm is felt here for the safety of Miss Annie S. Peck of Providence, R. I., the noted mountain climber, who on Friday afternoon signaled her arrival at an altitude of 26,000 feet on Mount Huascaran, the summit of which is covered with perpetual snow.

Since that time no word has been had from Miss Peck or the two Alpine climbers who accompanied her.

Bruchesi Off For Rome.

Montreal, Aug. 20.—Mgr. Bruchesi, Archbishop of Montreal, will leave on Friday morning en route for Rome, and will also attend the Catholic congress in London.

The present visit of his grace is all the more interesting from the fact that his name is being freely mentioned in connection with the appointment of a Canadian cardinal at the October consistory.

To Help Minister.

Toronto, Aug. 20.—Rev. Dr. Carman, as general superintendent of the Methodist General Conference, yesterday issued a special appeal to the Methodists of Canada on behalf of the Methodist pastor and congregation at Fernie, B. C.

Dr. Carman says that Rev. W. Lashley Hall lost everything in the fire that destroyed both the church and the parsonage.

Huge Lock-Out In Prospect.

Manchester, Eng., Aug. 20.—The Lancashire Federation of Cotton Spinners has decided to reduce the wages of 200,000 operatives five per cent. If the men decline to accept the reduction, they will be locked out for a month.

The weavers also may be compelled to cease work.

Tenders For Canal Dock.

Welland, Aug. 20.—Tenders have been called for the construction of a dock on the Welland Canal here for the use of the Ontario Iron & Steel Co., Electro Metals, Limited, and other industries. The appropriation is $45,000.

Walked Into Canal.

Ottawa, Aug. 20.—D. Lamson, labourer, walked into the Rideau canal on Tuesday night by accident or design. The body was recovered yesterday afternoon.

For three vacancies on the Merritton Public School staff, there were 57 applicants.

HEARD HIS COMRADE PRAY THRILLING STORY OF ESCAPE

Rescued Man Lay Fighting Off Flames With Hose Until He was Found—Could Hear Last Words of Chief and Cockburn—Wife Bears News Bravely.

London, Ont., Aug. 20.—The victims of Tuesday night's fire will be buried with full honors, Chief Clark and Fireman Wein by the fire department and Sergeant Cockburn by the military.

CHIEF CLARK.

The collapse of the building, following as it does the Crystal Hall disaster of a year ago, has naturally created a lot of talk as to whether the course of building inspection then decided on has been carried out.

David Cowan of Cowan & Co., hardware dealers, who are among the fire sufferers, said yesterday that only on Monday last Chief Clark had told him that he with Inspector Nutter would soon inspect some of the stores along Dundas street, including the very block where he was killed, having heard that some merchants were carrying too much stock on the upper floors.

Fireman Cole is resting as easily as can be expected. One side of his face, his back and his foot and ankles are badly burned. Doctors are unable to say yet whether he is internally injured or not, although it is feared his lungs may be crushed.

The total loss is estimated at $175,200, the heaviest loser being Westman & Co., whose loss is $50,000.

Fireman Cole says the quartette had got nicely inside the door when they were met by stifling smoke, but pressed on. With a crash the front part of the building came down. They dashed to the back when the floor went down beneath them and when Cole came to he found himself on his back with the wreckage bridged above him and scarcely touching him. By a kind turn of fate the nozzle of the hose was beneath his arm. It saved his life, for with the nozzle gripped in his hands he played the life-saving water on the flames around him.

"It was pitch-dark, and near me, I could hear someone praying. I think it was the chief and sergeant. One of the men was saying, 'Oh, God I am dying; Father, forgive my sins, and relieve me from this terrible agony."

The breaking of the news to the dead chief's wife was one of the most pathetic incidents of the terrible calamity. She went home after watching the fire and waited and waited for his home-coming. She telephoned several of her friends and asked to be told the worst. "I am brave," she said. "Tell me all."

Finally she was told that the worst had happened, but proved herself a woman worthy to be the wife of a fire-fighter. She was dazed for a moment; her eyes welled up with tears, and then she said to Mrs. W. G. Abbott, whose father Chief Roe was, killed four years ago, "You know what it is to go through this. It has come at last."

MEN HAVE GONE BACK TO WORK

Two Hundred Said to Have Been Taken on at Montreal.

Montreal, Aug. 20.—The C. P. R. officials claim that old railway hands are returning to work. At the Angus shops yesterday 200 additional men were taken on, making 2,100 in all now at work there. Of the 200 presenting themselves for work yesterday morning eight were old men who had returned. At least this is the contention of the officers at the works, whereas pickets state that no such number of men have returned.

Toronto, Aug. 20.—The company has issued a notice that those not returning to work to-day can never work for the C. P. R. again, but the men say they will stand firm.

RIGHT THUMB WAS CUT OFF

Ashburnham Woman Had Painful Accident This Morning.

Mrs. Fred Cook, 13 Cricket Place, Ashburnham, was the victim of a painful accident this morning. Mrs. Cook was in the act of splitting some kindling wood when the hatchet she was using slipped and fell on the thumb of her left hand, completely severing it. Dr. McGrath was called and attended the injured woman. Mrs. Cook suffered considerable pain as a result of her misfortune.

Earl In Kingston.

Kingston, Aug. 20.—Earl Grey, on the Government steamer Speedy, with a corterie of Government officials, reached here yesterday. The Governor-General called on Col. Gordon, G.O.C., at the armories.

The steamer then cleared for Port Dalhousie.

Minister Kills Himself.

Utica, N. Y., Aug. 20.—Rev. James Duane Phelps of Syracuse shot himself in his room in the Wurz Hotel on North Genesee street, this city, some time during the night, and he was found yesterday morning hanging out of his bedroom window.

When Memory Failed.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 20.—The enquiry into the lynching of Scott Burton was brought before a coroner's jury yesterday.

Most of the witnesses described the scenes in the black belt, but when questioned as to the identity of members of the mob their memories failed them.

Did Not Kill Himself.

Welland, Aug. 20.—It is now fairly well established that Charles Warner of the firm of Warner & Gibson Co. here, who disappeared so suddenly a few weeks ago, did not commit suicide. A witness has been found who saw him take the M. C. R. train for Buffalo on the day of his disappearance.

Body to Lie In State.

Toronto, Aug. 20.—The funeral of the late Dr. Wild will take place on Friday afternoon from Bond street Congregational Church to Mount Pleasant cemetery.

The body will lie in state at the church from noon Friday until the hour of the service.

Killed In the Alps.

Innsbruck, Austria, Aug. 20.—As Leontine Roman, a Polish actress, and Posselt, a violinist, were ascending the Gerlos peak yesterday, they fell over a precipice. The actress was killed. Posselt was severely injured.

THE RATES ARE MADE HIGHER

I.O.F. High Court Votes to Readjust its Schedule.

Meaford, Aug. 20.—The Central Ontario High Court I. O. F. yesterday unanimously adopted, with cheers for Supreme Chief Ranger Stephenson, a report of committee favoring the adoption of a new scale of rates commencing Oct. 1, 1908, which will put the institution on a sound and permanent basis.

The election of officers resulted: Alex. Cowan, P.H.C.R., Caledon East; J. T. Scott, H.C.R.; Clarence Bell, Toronto, H.V.C.R.; R. D. Niddrie, M.D., Creemore; Alex. Stewart, Toronto, H.T.; A. N. Smith, G. C. Albery, Meaford, H.C.; auditors, A. N. Smith, Meaford; R. N. Cuthbert, Toronto.

Brampton was chosen as the next place of meeting.

Charged With Arson.

Brantford, Aug. 20.—Rose Ehrlish, a resident of Burford, was arrested yesterday afternoon by County Constable Kerr on a charge of arson.

The barns of Aaron Ehrlish, a brother-in-law, a mile distant from the woman's house, were burned on the morning of Aug. 3. Evidence to the effect that the woman was seen leaving the place at the time of the fire will be submitted. She is the wife of a Jewish farmer.

The recovery of insurance is said to be the motive of the alleged crime.

Terrible New Explosive.

Munich, Aug. 20.—A new high explosive of a power beyond anything hitherto used in the German army was tested near here in the presence of the artillery proving commission from Berlin, representatives of the Bavarian War Ministry, the imperial navy and the fortresses and ordnance departments, with what are described as sensational results.

Three shells, exploded by electricity, tore Krupp armor plates to pieces. The explosive is the invention of Fritz Gehr.

Ekers Accepts.

Montreal, Aug. 20.—Ex-Mayor Ekers formally accepted the Conservative nomination yesterday in St. Lawrence division.

The ex-Mayor ran eight years ago and was defeated by the present member, Mr. Robert Bickerdike, who will also be the candidate of his party at the coming contest.

Castro at Odds With France.

Caracas, Aug. 11, via Willemstad, Aug. 20.—A sensation has been caused in diplomatic circles by the refusal of President Castro to permit the Brazilian Minister to take charge of French interests in Venezuela, although Dr. Jose Paul, the Venezuelan Minister of Foreign Affairs, had originally agreed to this arrangement.

New Manager For Soo.

Sault Ste. Marie, Aug. 20.—W. C. Sranf of Charleston, W. Va, has been appointed general manager of the Lake Superior Corporation. He is expected to arrive this week to take charge of the allied industries of the company. Sranf was formerly general manager of the Kanawha and West Virginia Railway.

Neepawah Aground.

Detroit, Aug. 20.—According to a telegram to Captain Sinclair, the steamer Neepawah is aground 25 miles north of Otter Head, Lake Superior.

Fatal Fall.

Dublin, Aug. 20.—T. H. Ennis, assistant Under Secretary for Ireland, was thrown from a jaunting car and killed instantly.

"THE NIGGER IN THE WOOD-PILE"

Thousands of people go through life feeling more or less miserable without ever knowing the reason. They suffer from headaches, indigestion, pains in the back, and at the slightest chill get rheumatism or neuralgia.

They try to cure these separate outbreaks, never suspecting that the root of the whole trouble is the failure of the bowels to move regularly, and in many cases the sluggish action of kidneys and skin. The result, of course, is that the whole system gets clogged with impurities, which soon turn to poison, and show their presence in various ways.

"Fruit-a-tives"—or fruit juice tablets—promptly stir up the sluggish liver, regulate the bowels, and stimulate the kidneys and skin to do their work properly. Thus they cure all these troubles by removing the cause, and make it possible to really enjoy life. 50c a box—6 boxes for $2.50. Trial size 25c. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

The Daily Review

THURSDAY, AUG. 20, 1908.

WELL DONE

The Examiner has had a series of Montreal Herald editorials running through its columns for some days in lieu of its customary better stuff. These ponderous productions of a public pen are intended to lay the foundation of the Laurier cause for the coming contest. The Herald is a nice, well-meaning paper. It has drawn during the lifetime of the Laurier Government no less a sum than $217,000 (two hundred and seventeen thousand) in warm, hard cash from the Public Treasury! It endorses the policy of Sir Wilfrid, at least this part of it. Its statesmanlike utterances are of such a convinced and convincing character that if we did not look at the entries in the public accounts we would think them true. What is attributed under like circumstances to the Conservative press seems to the Herald to be entirely inapplicable to the chief Liberal organ of Eastern Canada. But just think of it, $217,000 in twelve years, or at the rate of $19,000 per annum.

AUSTRALIA'S GROWTH

"Some idea of Australia as a factor in the world's food supply may be gained by a glance at the principle export figures for 1906, the last year for which statistics are available. It is a factor which should have considerably more weight than it has at present in commercial relations that Great Britain absorbs nearly half the total exports from Australia, which last year amounted to over 70 million pounds sterling, and that other portions of the Empire purchased to the extent of over 13 million pounds sterling. When the statistics for last year are published it will be found that agricultural and pastoral output show a substantial increase on those of the previous year."—Morgan, in London Standard.

Australia has Protection and makes full use of it. It used to be a Free Trade crank but it saw the error of its ways.

THE GRAHAM RECEPTION

If what the Examiner says about our remarks regarding this reception, were founded on fact, there might be some grounds for this charge of "peanut politics," that has been levelled at us by our contemporary. In the first place, "W. O." who wrote the caustic reference to the quite apparent beating of the local Liberal tom tom is not as alleged in the pay of the Review. He was a volunteer correspondent writing on his own responsibility. His letter to that effect will be found in another column. Now then for a few words on the "reception." The plan first of all proposed by the Liberal pushers in this matter, our friends Mr. Hall, M. P., and Mr. J. H. McClellan, amongst the number, was to engage the Opera House have the Mayor preside and read an address of welcome to be followed by a general fusilade of short addresses telling Mr. Graham what we want, telling him also, of course, what a "great government" he represents and generally paving the way for a great advertisement of himself and his political friends immediately prior to an election. Sir Wilfrid's published tour begins September 15, so that to pretend there is no election in sight is nonsense. To show that we are not political peanuts we may say that when Sir Fred Borden was banquetted here we did all we could to make it a success, because no election was then in sight. It will be admitted that we were fair enough on that occasion. But the difference is manifest between the two. Now as to another fact, when Ald. Elliott, the urbane chairman of the Reception Committee, notified us that we were "to say a few words" and narrated fully the circumstances we respectfully declined. Returning later he said that all politicians were to be ruled out of the speech-making whereupon we wished the reception success and proposed to attend. But this did not suit "somebody." So the politicians were restored to the programme, hence our withdrawal. The Review has made no severe reference to the affair at all. To tell the truth, we do not care a button about it, for it will take more than a canal to save Sir Wilfrid and Co. this time. As writing the letter referred to seems to have been saddled upon us by the Examiner and as the saddling does not fit, the case of that journal against us will be seen to be rather weak. If the Conservatives had a similar celebration at a similar juncture we should know what to think and we are not far astray in avoiding an occasion which for the five hundredth repetition of the same thing is both unnecessary and in bad taste.

THE NEXT ELECTION.

Large numbers of men are out of work in Canada. The work that they should have is being done in Yorkshire, Germany, and the United States. If it were being done at home there would be fewer people out of work here. But there is another underlying aspect of this business. Not only is the work done abroad, but the money to pay for it goes out of Canada and helps to leave us stranded. Then as if to make matters altogether beyond hope of redemption Sir Wilfrid invited all and sundry from the four quarters of the earth to come into competition in our labour market. They came. Then to add an additional burden, vast sums of money were borrowed which we shall have to repay. The financier is the man who stands to make by such administration. No one else can. Rich beyond the dreams of avarice as old Dr. Johnson used to say, the money men want more. They want it all. That is why we starve in the midst of plenty. Everything is at hand for food, clothing, happiness and comfort if the very morsel of existence were not snatched from our mouths as we raise it to them. Loans! Loans! Always loans! High interest for the money-lenders and low pay for the wage earner. This is the Liberal ideal and they are realizing it. But reverse the policy. Bring back to Canada our work now done abroad. Keep our money at home. Let immigration be restricted within reasonable limits and what will be the result? Canadians will have work to do fair wages and hope for the future. The Liberal policy is one of proven failure. Give Mr. Borden a chance.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER

It is not creditable to the Liberal press that it has chosen to make Sir Wilfrid Laurier's personality the chief issue in the coming campaign. It shows a desire to avoid national issues as if Sir Wilfrid's person was the stalking-horse to distract public attention from his work or a shield to protect themselves. Evasive speeches, rhetorical flourish, and the picturesque if somewhat weak character of the gentleman himself are not to be outweighed by a halo which is certainly largely undeserved. It is customary to praise a party chief. If he deserves it, it is well, if not, it is bluff. We had hoped to avoid personality as an issue but if Sir Wilfrid's is to be made the only hope of the Liberal party it must be tackled along with the rest. There are numbers of men in French Canada, of a similarly picturesque pose. Sir M. Lemoine, Sir Henri Joly de Lotbiniere, the late Sir J. A. Chapleau, Sir Geo. E. Cartier—all these gentlemen were or are polished, subtle— in a word, French. That the Liberal clique deputed to manage "the elections," should try to make out that Sir Wilfrid stands alone as a pleasant and respectable gentleman is amusing especially when we consider the company he is in. If he were as they say, he would have cleaned house much more effectually than he did and the "cast out" would have remained so. Herein is where Sir Wilfrid's weakness lies. He condemns what he makes use of. He stands therefore condemned out of his own mouth. His French imagination has betrayed whatever there may have been of French thrift in him. He is in a motor-car going 60 miles an hour and nearing a precipice. He has already run over many rights—but no privileges. His patronage list is enormous and his "friends" therefore eagerly want him back. Since Boss Tweed plundered New York there has been no equal to the proven plundering at Ottawa. As the Civil Service Commission reported, that Service is in many respects even "without conscience." Surely language strong enough for anybody. Sir Wilfrid has had his way "unrestrained and free" for twelve years and yet the country —this young, favoured and resourceful country—is practically shivering with poverty. Is that statesmanship? Is it successful statesmanship? "Don't look around for excuses. Answer the question." It is true no one else's personality in the cabinet can be made an issue with safety. Most of them are best let alone. But on what ground does Sir Wilfrid's want another lease of power? Surely not that he has made us prosperous, happy and content. He is accused of favoring the world's money-lenders. They think him charming. Pleasant manners and an untained imagination are not the best things for Canada. We want a strong, steady, clean, high minded able man like Mr. Borden and we shall get him. The people think so and "the people rule." All men with money-making, capitalistic inclinations and ambitious love Sir Wilfrid. Alas! He seems, also, to love them. However it is open to the people to work for less as the Globe says, and then we shall conquer the markets of the world. But for whose benefit? The people's? Not on your life.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Has the Preference made you rich? If not, why not?

The C.P.R. returns for the first week of August show a substantial decrease.

Who has prevented Sir Wilfrid from having his way? What's the matter with the country?

Mr. Gladstone used to say that to define Liberalism one should say, "Trust in the people qualified by prudence"

The decrease in the Toronto Street Railway earnings continues to astonish the Torontonians. The population has increased. People out of work are flocking in for the winter.

Western crop results are not satisfactory if we expect a great deal. But as an average return they are better than the returns from Saskatchewan, in the late contest.

The armament of Great Britain under Liberal rule is increasing to an absurd extent. It will not be long until each private (taxpaying) citizen will be protected by at least two soldiers and one warship.

Fernie, B.C., or what remains of it got nothing from the Dominion Government which exists only for grafters. From the Ontario Government it got five thousand dollars. One government is head-over-heels in debt and the other has plenty. Which is it?

The Examiner is very savage about improper motives being attributed to the political pushers of the Graham reception. Last night's Toronto Star would give anybody the idea that the canal is lined with cheering crowds welcoming the 'Bessie Butler,' the 'Sovereign,' the 'Empress' and other Government boats loaded with good things. Who wired that report?

Before writing its letter to itself the Review did not evidently read the proof of its council report, which appeared in its columns the same day as the letter.

No, the "political engineer" of the Review did not write the letters to himself, nor did he take his opinions from the Review's report of the Council meeting. He took them from the Examiner's report, which explains the "public reception" or all it is worth and more, too.

It was finally moved by Ald. Bradburn and Johnston that the mayor and a representative of the Peterborough Board of Trade meet the Honourable Minister at Gore's Landing, and come with him to the city, and that a public reception prepared by the reception committee, be tendered him on Thursday evening.—Carried. —Examiner.

This is where we got the idea of the "Public Reception." The three column, three deep headlines on the front page at the top of our contemporary in big type, informs the public that the Hon. G. P. Graham is to be "honoured." Now Mr. Graham is so far as we know a very "nice man" and one of the few personally clean men on the whole list of government supporters at Ottawa but on the eve of an election how can we be expected to "honour" him when, if we told the truth we would say that it was not the canal that ought to be promoted but the government itself.

Fisherman's Love.

By TEMPLE BAILEY.

Copyrighted, 1908, by Associated Literary Press.

"Oh, if you don't mind," said the girl in the broad hat, "would you put this worm on for me?"

Halleck looked up. She was dangling a line in front of his nose, and she held out to him a tin can.

"I simply can't put them on the hook," she said, with a little shudder. "I hate to see them squirm."

Halleck looked at her again. She didn't seem at all the type of young woman who made acquaintances promiscuously. She had a grave, direct glance, and at present her mind was bent seriously on the question of fishing.

In silence Halleck impaled the worm.

"Thank you," she said and dropped her line into the water.

In a moment there was a splash, and with a little cry the girl landed a fish.

"Please take it off," she said, and Halleck found the line again dangling in front of his nose, but this time with a golden, jewel spotted fish at the end.

Without harming the charming creature Halleck slipped the hook out of its mouth. "You'd better throw it back," he advised. "It's too small to eat."

"Very well," she said and watched the little sunfish as it swam through the liquid water to freedom.

Then once more she held out the tin can.

"Please put one on," she said.

Again Halleck patiently laid aside his hand net and baited her hook, and again she dropped her line in the water, to bring it out again with another infinitesimal fish.

"This one is too small, too," Halleck told her. "You can't catch any fish worth keeping on the pier."

"Why are you fishing then?" she questioned.

"I am catching bait," was Halleck's information, "and when I have enough I am going out in my boat for pickerel."

Her eyes shone. "Oh, I should love to catch a pickerel," she said eagerly. "Do you know, those two little fish that you took off of my line are the first I ever caught?"

Halleck looked at her with a speculative eye. "I could take you out"—He hesitated.

"Could you?" Then in a business-like way, "How much do you charge for an hour?"

Halleck stared at her.

"I don't understand," he said at last.

The grave eyes met his in a direct gaze.

"Aren't you the man who rents the boats?"

"No."

"Oh!" Her tone was startled. "Oh, I beg your pardon. I thought"—

"That's all right," Halleck assured her.

But her face was stained by a burning blush.

"I must have seemed very—troublesome"—

"Not a bit. I am one of your fellow guests at the hotel. I sit at the table next to you. I saw you last night with an elderly lady."

"Yes, my aunt."

She spoke abstractedly as she gathered up her rod and little basket. "I don't think I will fish any more," she remarked.

"Please don't run away on my account," Halleck begged. "I am going out in a few minutes, and you can have the pier all to yourself."

He did not offer to take her with him. He knew now that she was not that kind of girl, and he was glad she was not.

He put his traps into his boat and pulled out, lifting his white linen hat gravely as his boat shot into midstream.

That night he saw her again at the table. She was in pink, and she wore her hair in pretty golden puffs all over the top of her head. He liked her little stately manner and the deferential way she had with her aunt.

The older lady was tall and thin, with sparkling brown eyes. The sparkling eyes rested often on Halleck during the meal, and when dinner was over and the two ladies passed him at the table the aunt stopped.

"You are Mr. Halleck?" she questioned.

"Yes." Halleck rose and stood beside her.

"I asked at the office," the lady explained. "My niece has been telling me that she took you for a boatman. She feels badly that she should have spoken as she did. But I am glad it happened. I am Mrs. Evans. I know your mother well, Mr. Halleck, and I might not have met her son if I hadn't been looking for the man that Helen fancied she had offended."

Halleck walked to the door with her, where the girl in pink waited for them.

"This is Mr. Halleck, Helen," Mrs. Evans said. "He isn't a bit offended, and he writes delightful books, as his mother did before him."

Helen surveyed him with the grave eyes that had delighted him that morning.

"Did you catch any pickerel?" she asked.

"Four," he informed her, "big ones."

"Helen is simply crazy over fishing," Mrs. Evans stated. "She has always lived inland, and now she spends morning, noon and night on the lake."

"I'll tell you," Halleck planned. "we will go tomorrow, and we will catch our fish and cook them on the island."

And they went, the three of them, in Halleck's boat, and for bait they had minnows, and their prey was pickerel, and before noontime Helen had caught two shining, slender beauties, and Mrs. Evans, who, in a broad hat and with a magazine, had made herself comfortable, was moved to enthusiasm.

"Helen," she said, "we will come every day."

"Mr. Halleck may think we are troublesome, auntie."

"Mr. Halleck will think he has been blessed by the gods," said that gentleman, and Helen laughed a little.

"I am starved," she said. "Let's go and cook our fish."

So Halleck took them to a green, cool, shadowy spot in the center of the island, and there they broiled their fish and ate their lunch in delightful solitude.

That was the beginning. Helen, under Halleck's guidance, learned to catch pickerel. But she learned more than that, for Halleck was teaching a lesson of lips and eyes and heart, and Mrs. Evans watched the two with shrewd but satisfied eyes.

It was in the third week that Halleck unconsciously launched a thunderbolt.

"Every time I come it seems lovelier," Helen said as they explored the island together, while Mrs. Evans napped under a newspaper.

"Yes," Halleck said. "Mrs. Halleck always insists that it is the garden spot of the world."

There was a dead silence, and presently Helen complained of a headache, and they went home.

Halleck found it impossible to get a word with her that night.

"I don't know what is the matter with her," Mrs. Evans said when he sought her disconsolately. "She just sits up in her room and mopes."

That night she said to Helen, "I think Mr. Halleck feels very bad at the way you are treating him."

"I don't see why he should." Helen in a pale blue negligee was curled up in the window seat. "I don't see why he should. I don't think it is the proper thing for a married man to take us boating, auntie."

"Married fiddlesticks!" ejaculated Mrs. Evans.

"Well, he is," Helen insisted. "He spoke to me the other day of Mrs. Halleck."

"Never heard of her before," sniffed Mrs. Evans. And the next morning she sought Halleck. He threw back his head and laughed when she told him, and that afternoon Helen, fishing languidly on the pier, heard a voice behind her.

"Can you put on your worms?"

"Yes," she said. "They wriggle dreadfully, but I—I prefer to do it myself."

"Of course," Halleck said, "if you wish. I wouldn't deprive you of the pleasure." He sat down beside her.

"I thought you had gone out in your boat," she told him.

"No. I expect Mrs. Halleck this afternoon, and I wanted to make arrangements."

"Oh," Helen said and pulled her hat deeper over her eyes.

"She will bring both of the children," he went on.

"Indeed!" indifferently.

"And her husband, if he can come." He was watching her out of the corner of his eye.

The line gave a spasmodic jerk.

"Her husband!" Helen quavered.

"My brother. Funny, isn't it, that I don't call her by her first name. But you see my brother is a lot older than I, and when I was a kid I always called her Mrs. Halleck."

"It is awfully funny." But there was a queer little quiver in Helen's voice. Halleck's face grew very tender as he watched.

She drew in her line.

"There isn't any bait on your hook," he told her. "Let me put it on." Her eyes met his adoring ones, and then their hands met.

"Let me do things for you always, dear," Halleck begged. And Helen, with grave eyes and smiling lips, whispered, "Yes."

At Long Range.

"I see you read a great deal of mining literature."

"Yes."

"Did you ever go prospecting for gold?"

"No; I can lose enough time and money merely prospectusing."—Washington Star.

The Spare Room.

Like Bluebeard's secret chamber locked up tight,
Kept all the year without a speck of light,
A perfectly imperial brass bed,
With downy pillows and a snowy spread,
A gorgeous bureau redolent of pine,
A couch on which 'twere barbarous to recline,
Some chairs that cost—well, goodness knows the sum;
The furniture upholstered in rich plum—
It's worth your life to even peep in there,
That showy, useless room that's called
"the spare!"
—La Touche Hancock in New York Press.

Unpoetic.

"Don't you enjoy the glories of summer?"

"Yes," answered the unpoetic person; "it is something of a comfort to find the gas bills getting so much smaller."—Wasp.

The Usual Test.

"Yes; he's the most popular man in our consular service."

"Great diplomat, eh?"

"No; great entertainer."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

An Optical Illusion.

There was a girl in our town,
And she was none too wise,
But she wore a dotted veil which made
Myopic both her eyes.

How very wise she seems.

SURVEYING FOR LINDSAY LOCKS

Party Left Here For That Purpose Yesterday.

A surveying party comprised of Messrs. Neil Rutherford, W. G. Montgomery, R. Adams Davy, and B. Armstrong were registered at the Snowden House yesterday and left for Buckhorn. They went to Lindsay in connection with the long-talked of new locks which are going to be put in in that town. Their duty is to make a survey of the land in the vicinity of the structure. Then they will make soundings and thus ascertain the nature of the bottom of the river. In this work about a month will be occupied.

After this part of the work has been completed it will be some time before the specifications can be drawn up. So a considerable time will yet elapse before the construction of the locks will begin in earnest.

Steamer Otonabee will make a special trip to Stony Lake to-morrow (Friday) Aug. 21, leaving Wolfe St. wharf at 8 a.m. sharp, and returning at 7.30. Dinner on board and at Mt. Julian. Return tickets 75 cents, Children 40c.

ILLNESS NOT RESULT OF SWIM

Review Wrongly Informed Regarding Mr. Art Hall.

It was stated in last night's Review that Mr. Arthur Hall, as a result of swimming across Clear Lake, while holidaying at the YMCA camp, became suddenly ill. However the above statement is not true, the reporter having been wrongly informed. It was not for several days after the swim that he took sick and his illness was cetainly not caused by swimming was certainly not cause by swimming such a long distance. When he came out of the water he was quite strong and in excellent health.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING OF FAIR DIRECTORS LAST NIGHT

Grounds Will be Lighted for Evening Performance—Horse Races Will be Best Ever—Longboat and Simpson May Run Five Mile Race.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Peterborough Fair directors was held last evening in the office of Storey and Simpson, Water street. The president, Mr. R. H. Leary, was in the chair. The following directors were present, Messrs. Johnston, Shea, Baptie, Brown, Garbutt, Leary, Collins, Deyell, Gillespie, Kennedy, Bell, Elliott, Stewart and Conway.

Considerable business was transacted and several matters were discussed. Arrangements have been made with Mr. J. H. Larmonth of the Peterborough Light and Power Co., to have the exhibition grounds lighted for the evening performance of Friday, the 18th. The 57th band will be in attendance on Friday afternoon and evening and on Saturday afternoon.

The committee in charge of the horse races state that the best events in this line that have ever been given at a Peterborough Fair will be put on this year. Good prizes are being offered and the races will no doubt prove a strong attraction.

A special train, leaving here at 7.30 o'clock, on the Saturday evening will be run to Campbellford. This will allow people from Campbellford and intervening points to spend the three days of the Fair in Peterborough.

Another feature the directors have under consideration and which if carried out, will prove a great drawing card is a five mile race between Simpson and Longboat, the event to be run on the afternoon of the second day of the Fair.

A number of the directors took in the excursion to Cobourg this afternoon taking with them considerable advertising matter to be distributed among the people there. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, September the second.

CHARGED WITH SELLING TOO MUCH LIQUOR TO PERSONS WHO WERE WITHOUT LICENSE

The case of a local brewery charged with selling too much ale to unlicensed persons was next commenced and a plea of "not guilty" registered. Considerable time was taken up before the case was begun, as two of the prosecution's witnesses, who had been indirectly subpoenaed were not present. The Magistrate questioned the Chief in the matter of serving subpoenas and he intimated that they should be served on the persons themselves and thereby avoid delays of this nature. It transpired that both witnesses were out of town. Mr. Haverson did not want to delay the case, and compromised with the prosecution by submitting a willingness to agree that the absent witnesses had obtained ale from the man to whom the brewery sold it, providing that similar evidence be deduced from any of the witnesses present. The evidence of License Inspector Stewart, and of a man named Smith was taken, the latter testifying that he had obtained liquor from the Brewery Company's customer. The case was adjourned until 2.30 p.m.

BRAZEN ACTS OF TRESPASSERS AT CAMPBELLTOWN MILL

Mr. J. A. Miller, 324 Water street, owner of the mill at Campbelltown, has complaint to make of actions of trespassers who break into the mill there, and also into the shack, which is nearby. The doors of both have been nailed up during the time the mill has not been running, but in spite of this both places have been broken into and the doors left open, giving the mill engine no protection against anyone who might take the notion to tamper with it, and perhaps do it injury. In the shack the bolting for the mill is stored.

These high-handed invasions into private property must cease and any offenders caught will be prosecuted. Mr. Miller says that for his own protection he must take this step, and as the deliberate breaking open of the doors is a serious offence, the offenders will no doubt be severely punished if they are arrested and brought into court.

TALLY-HO OUGHT TO DO LAND OFFICE BUSINESS HERE

A gentleman who was formerly interested in a livery business in Winnipeg is of the opinion that a tally-ho would be a paying proposition in Peterborough.

He remarked this last night to a Review reporter and when the matter is considered there really does appear to be some reason for his suggestion.

Just look at the excursions from Belleville, Lindsay, Port Hope, Bowmanville, Whitby and other places that have been run to Peterborough this year," he said.

Those who come on them naturally want to see all the points of interest in the city and being strangers have great difficulty in getting around by themselves. With a tally-ho to take them to the lift lock, the cemetery, the parks, and to do up the city generally in the matter of sight seeing.

"In my opinion a tally-ho would be a great money maker to some enterprising Peterborough liveryman."

FOUR NEGROES LYNCHED IN RUSSELLVILLE, KY. ON SUSPICION OF CRIME

Interesting Interview With Mr. D. O'Connell on His Recent Trip to St. Louis and Kentucky—Kentucky is a Lawless State and Lynching is Not Unfrequent.

Mr. D. O'Connell of the law firm of O'Connell and Gordon who recently returned from a holiday trip to St. Louis, Mo., and Kentucky in conversation with a Review reporter who called upon him this morning, gave a most interesting account of some places he visited.

Mr. O'Connell attended the Knights of Columbus convention in St. Louis on the 4th, 5th and 6th of August which was held in the Knights hall. About 170 delegates were in attendance in addition to several thousand visitors. After the convention Mr O'Connell spent several days in Kentucky, spending two days in exploring the famous Mammoth cave. The Mammoth cave is universally known, and is visited by a great many tourists. It is 360 feet under the surface of the earth and there are many miles of passage ways. In it are also a great number of domes and galleries. In going through Mammoth cave one comes to the Echo river, upon which the visitors are conveyed in boats for a distance of half a mile.

Some specially attractive features of the cave are the Star Chamber, the statue of Martha Washington and the Leech Vats.

In the Star Chamber, the lights of visitors are extinguished and one sees the beautiful evening sky studded with stars. This is made by reason of gypsum and other brilliant stones in the ceiling.

The statue of Martha Washington is given a life like appearance and is very beautiful.

The Leeching Vats used by the miners in the war of 1813 with Great Britain. Had it not been for the discovery of these the United States would not have been able to obtain ammunition for the war.

The cave affords an excellent opportunity to see the geological formation of the crusts of the earth, and the changes in rock formation.

Mr. O'Connell spent some days in Russellville and Bowling Green where trouble had arisen with the negro population. In Russellville a young negro having had a dispute with his employer, shot and killed him. The authorities felt that if they left him in gaol at Russellville he would not be safe, so removed him to Louisville. Four other negroes were also arrested on suspicion that they were implicated in the crime. These were left in Russellville gaol.

On the following day they were taken out and tied to a tree a short distance from the gaol.

The first negro when brought back to Russellville was guarded by a full company of soldiers and upon his arrival the soldiers refused to give him over to the Sheriff. The conveyance in which he was, was dumped into the ditch. Under the united guardianship of both soldiers and sheriff he was brought to gaol.

Mr. O'Connell returned to Louisville on the same train as the prisoner.

Kentucky is undoubtedly a very lawless state and lynching is not infrequent, Mr. O'Connell stated. Little or no respect is paid to human life. The negroes live in terrorism and the white people find it necessary to execute a few every year for crimes they commit. Among the white population the law is loosely administered and politics and wealth are by no means unimportant factors in preventing criminals receiving their just punishment.

Here is Elegance in Costumes

ADVANCE SHOWING

OUR ADVANCE SHOWING of styles each season has become a feature of this growing business—It has spelled success to this popular resort of Women's Wearables. We aim at being the first to exhibit the season's newest styles in Women's Costumes, Coats and Skirts—This season finds us at the head again with the finest stock representing fashions dictates from New York and Paris. The newest thoughts of the wisest thinkers. All are entirely different and so exclusive as to cause the most conservative or the most fashionable to fall in love with them at once.

Among the score of styles that we are showing, we choose one very tempting model to describe which will appeal to the most fastidious dresser.

BROWN STRIPED CHEVRON TWILL SUIT $40.00

The coat is the seasons popular length, 38 inches, cutaway style, beautifully trimmed with bias self strappings on the seams down the front and around portions of the skirt giving the effect of panels. These straps are finished at the back with small buttons and fancy braid at waist also a row of six large buttons on the side seam straps. The sleeves are the neat tailored style, trimmed with brown panne velvet buttons and fancy braid in pretty effect. The coat has wide shoulder straps trimmed with stitching and buttons. The collar is the New Guard style trimmed with brown panne velvet military and fancy braids. The coat is lined throughout with Skinners satin in Grey.

The Skirt is made in fitted hips, 15 gore style, finished with French Seams, the front gore presents a box pleated effect and is trimmed with small self buttons. A narrow shaped flounce runs round the skirt near the bottom terminating at the front gore. This flounce is trimmed with large sel button. See this suit in Ready to Wear Department, Second Floor.

A mere word description cannot do justice to this or any o the numerous styles we can show you for Fall 1908. Prices range from $15.00 to $50.

When viewing the new costumes, ask to see the splendid range of Fall Coats and Voile Skirts.

OBITUARY

Mr. Samuel Might of Cavan, son of the late Mr. Samuel Might, of Cavan, and resident on the old homestead died there this morning at 3 o'clock. The funeral will take from the homestead at 1.30 p.m., on Saturday next.

ELIZABETH McCONKEY.

The death occurred very suddenly yesterday afternoon at 12 o'clock of Elizabeth McConkey, wife of Mr. Vincent Paul, of Bridgenorth. The deceased had only been ill about ten days and her death came as a great shock. She was 33 years of age and was highly respected by all who knew her.

She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband and four small children, the youngest being a baby only ten days old. A brother and sister also survive her.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock from the family residence to the Little Lake cemetery.

TIDES AND "TIMES" WAIT FOR NO MAN

A member of the Review staff had the pleasure of being shown through the extensive new Times printing and publishing house to-day. The building is 3 storeys in height, 30 feet wide and 200 feet long. In front downstairs is the bookstore, back of it the business office, farther on the press room, while on the first floor are the composing, ruling and stereotyping departments. A new and powerful motor furnishes power for a well-lighted and up-to-date establishment.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Our correspondent "Reader" of yesterday asks if it is customary for the Mayor to read an address to a cabinet minister during or immediately prior to a general election. It is not a matter of vital importance although many think it is. People discount these affairs at such times at their true value and beyond a general advertisement all round no harm is likely to be done. The minister's attention might very well be called however to the scow that has for so long been sunk in that part of the canal near the Otonabee bridge.

The Liberals of Peterborough are said to be in a quandary, as Mr. J. R. Stratton insists upon going to Parliament and both Mr. Finlay and Mr. Hall, the present members, desire renomination. Meanwhile Messrs. J. H. Burnham and John A. Sexsmith, the Conservative nominees, are building up a magnificent organization. — Mail and Empire.

WAS FRIEND OF CHIEF HOWARD

Late Chief Clark of London, Formerly Associated With Head of Local Brigade.

The late Fire Chief Clark of London was a great friend of Chief Howard of the local brigade. The London chief, as readers will remember, met his death in London on Tuesday when the floor of Westman's hardware store collapsed.

The late Chief Clarke, and Chief Howard were members of the London fire department together and struck up a warm friendship. Mr. Howard's opinion of his former friendship, both as a man and in his official capacity is the very highest and he was much pained to hear of Chief Clark's terrible death. He will endeavor to get away to attend the funeral.

Chief Howard has received a telegram from Chief Thompson of Toronto, asking him to join him and the Ottawa chief at Toronto tomorrow morning when with the Hamilton and Brantford Chiefs, they will go on to London to the funeral of Chief Clark who was killed in London on Tuesday.

This morning Chief Howard received a telegram from Mayor Croley of London who expressed his thanks at the condolence from Peterborough and which stated that a public funeral for the late chief would be held this afternoon. All the fire chiefs in the province will be in attendance.

PUBLIC MEETING CALLED AT APSLEY

The following has been handed to the Review for publication;

Dear Sir,—You are invited to attend a public meeting of the electors of Burleigh, Anstruther and Chandos, to be held in the town hall, Apsley, on Saturday evening, August 22nd, at 7 o'clock pm, for the purpose of considering the best course to be pursued by the people of the north in the coming Dominion elections. It is to be hoped that there will be a large attendance of those interested so that these townships may join forces in having a representative, if possible, who will make himself useful to us.

A representative of the Bell Telephone Company will also be present to explain the position of the company in connection with the erection of a telephone line connecting Apsley with the outside world.

Come and bring with you any ratepayer interested in these important matters.

Yours sincerely,
W. GALLON."

HEAD OF BIG FISH ON EXHIBITION

In the Review office—Caught by Mr. John Doris

The head of the monster 36 pound fish caught by Mr. John Doris a few weeks ago in the Otonabee river near Campbelltown has been mounted and is now on exhibition in the Review office. It is certainly the largest fish that has been caught this season, and Mr. Doris must have had a great time in landing it.

Str. Otonabee will make a special trip to Stony Lake tomorrow (Friday) Aug. 21, leaving Wolfe St. wharf at 8 a. m. sharp and returning at 7.30. Dinner on board and at Mt. Julian. Return tickets 75c. Children 40c.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Review Does Not Hold Itself Responsible for Opinions Expressed by Correspondents

A HOT ONE

To the Editor of the Review,

Dear Sir,—Allow me space to make a little comment on the opinions expressed in last evening's Examiner, re those W. O. full letters. The writer of this exceedingly witty article has another guess coming to him when he not only intimates, but asserts that the letter I wrote to your paper was one of your dictation. Briefly, I am prepared to make affidavit that I am not on the pay list of the Review, and that the letter I wrote was an expression of my own opinions. Any sane man can see that the circumstances surrounding the visit of the Hon. Mr. Graham warrant the statements I have made through your paper.

Is it not a lovely sight to see the ample preparations being made by canal employees to tender a magnificent "public reception" to the Minister and advocating the immediate extension of the same canal. There are three boats in the Government employ on canal service, the Empress, the Sovereign and the Bessie Butler, the last of which cost $25,000. The argument for the extension of the are three boats in the Government has sworn to extend at least fifty times, is that it is nothing more or less than a bowling farce, as it is at present. To the workingman who is not on its paylist, it is a huge burden maintained at an enormous expense to allow a few—very few, freight scows and pleasure craft to get through its locks. The maintenance of the staff alone must cost the Government not less than a quarter of a million dollars annually. I notice in the Government blue book of canal statistics for 1907 in a general statement showing the tolls collected during the season of navigation that the following collection for lockage were made.—

Barley	.10
Cattle	.00
Flour	.12
Wheat	2.21

Now I wonder on what species of louse the one cent tariff was collected. Surely a look at the above list of toll charges should show that there is no justification of the expenditure to maintain this waterway when there is practically no more business that that.

Yours, etc.,
W. O.

To the Editor of the Review.

EH? WHAT?

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir—Hon. G. P. Graham, Minister of Railways and Canals will tomorrow commence an inspection of the Trent Canal system. He will reach Peterborough to-night after a short visit to the Cobourg Horse Show, and during the evening will be tendered a reception in the Opera House. To-morrow morning he will embark on a yacht and proceed through the Trent waters up to Lake Simcoe and Orillia.—The Globe. Thursday, August 20th.

What do you think of that? The local Grit organ insisted that no public reception was to be tendered, but the above article should have the effect of making public opinion general as to the real significance of the visit and reception.

RUGBY WILL SOON HAVE THE ENTHUSIASTS WARMED UP

Peterborough Likely to Have a Team in the Intermediate Series of the Inter-Provincial —A Junior Team for the O.R.F.U.—City Rugby League—Great Outlook.

It's rugby now. The smell of pigs are in the air these nights and the pigskin enthusiasts are becoming anxious to get busy on the gridiron once more. While not much ado has been made about it the devotees of the fall game are quietly working in its interests and much preparation for the opening of the season is being made. A meeting of the rugby club will be held probably the first week in September and in the meantime those interested are taking active measures towards making the season a successful one.

PUBLIC SUPPORT THE THING.

Peterborough has been one of the very best towns in Canada in the matter of producing trophy getting rugby teams, but the support tendered the teams from season to season has not been uniformly as good as it should have been. Last year the team was given lamentably poor poor patronage by the citizens in spite of the local papers taking much pains to call the attention of the people to the way the local aggregation was being neglected and besides that the games were of the most interesting character. It is to be hoped that the citizens will take a deeper interest this year in the furtherance of the sport. And aside from displaying a proper sporting spirit by attending the games, those who go are always sure to get their money's worth in exciting and scientific sport.

THE GAME HERE.

As has been before stated Peterborough will in all probability be represented in the intermediate series of the inter-provincial. Their membership will doubtless be welcomed.

Hamilton and Montreal will give Peterborough their support in the matter of having them taken into the league. From all indications there will be some splendid rugby in the intermediate series of the provincial, so the people of this city look forward to some interesting contests.

JUNIOR TEAM.

The matter of putting a team in the Junior O.R.F.U. is receiving serious consideration and it is the intention of those who are working up the game here to do what they can to having one in that series. There should be plenty of material for a junior organization as every year there has always been an abundance of younger players to choose from. And the young fellows in their workouts with the heavier and older players have often given them opposition that kept their opponents busy all the practice.

CITY RUGBY LEAGUE.

That all important organization, a city league, is likely to be formed. It is here the players are developed for the senior teams and as a training school for rugby or for that matter, any other game, a city league is the most valuable.

In the above article the outlook for the coming year is outlined and this should be the greatest season of rugby in the history of Peterborough.

INTEREST HAS DIED OUT IN THE WALK HARTLEY MADE

The Review can't see its way clear to back Jimmy Graham, the genial Buffalo pedestrian who wants to try and break Dave Hartley's record in that memorable walk of his.

A letter to the sporting editor of the Review was received from Graham, and published in last night's issue, in which the ped, who got fifth money at the walk here, asked that the Review back him in the walk.

When Hartley's performance was in the mouths of everybody, then Graham's attempt to make it in faster time than the local man did would have attracted widespread attention. But since the course has become cold and the well-known Davy dropped out of notice to quite an extent, it is not thought a great deal of interest would have been taken in the attempt, if Graham would like to make it in better time than the Canadian sheet and toe performer did.

MOHL-ROGERS BOUT BEING AWAITED WITH INTEREST

The Mohl-Rogers bout in the Brock street rink, which will take place on August 28th is being looked forward to with much interest.

Mohl has never been seen in Peterborough and he and the formidable "Yank" will make a very exciting match. Rogers has been doing nothing but winning since he left here, but Mohl thinks he has a good chance of making a break in his opponent's big string of victories.

Mohl is looked upon as a dangerous man, both in Germany and the United States and Rogers will be in great shape when he takes him on. Both wrestlers are training hard and Roger's manager, W. B. Naylor, writes that his big grappler never felt so fit in his life.

The mat at the rink will be laid in a day or two.

IF PETERBORO' BEATS LONDON WILL BE IN WALKER FINAL

Rain yesterday morning held back the Dominion bowling tourney slightly, but nevertheless good progress was made. One round of the Trophy, two rounds of the Association and Consolation, as well as the preliminary and first rounds of the singles and doubles were done with.

Interest naturally centered around the Trophy event. McNee of London beat Knox of the Alexandras, and at one stage of the game led by 17 shots, but the remaining three games were excellent especially that between Swabey and Hastings an extra end being required.

Forbes' quartette of Kew Beach, look as if they will be there at the finish. Yesterday they showed their class against Fraser, of Dundas, although they were never behind. In the sixteenth end, Fraser lay four, but Skip Forbes ran the end, cutting out Fraser and laying shot. His second was a perfect show, making a difference of six shots on the end.

Van Valkenburg of Balmy Beach had hard luck against Fitzgerald of Peterborough. "Van" had the lead by four shots on the sixteenth, but Fitzgerald ran the shot in the seventeenth, with Van laying two shots. Back to the ditch went the kitty, and when the smoke cleared the Peterborough men lay five shots. The Beachite made a perfect draw to the ditch and it looked as if he lay shot, but just then an extra puff of wind came and edged his ball over, leaving the eastern men one up. The last end was a heart breaking one. First Van Valkenburg lay short, but Marshall put down a beauty, cutting in on the jack. Orr came back and edged in. But again Skip Fitzgerald came to the rescue and ran another end, wicking our Orr's and laying shot. Van Valkenburg was narrow with his last and the game went to the Peterborough quartette, who play McNee of London today in the semi-finals.

Swabey of Victoria had a repetition of the previous game with Hastings of Canadas. Although the latter secured four on the last end, he lost by one shot on the extra, and Swabey plays Forbes in the semi-finals.

Dr. Hawke, Van Valkenburg, Lister and Greenwood, were the notables who went down to the consolation, while such men as Boeckh, Parsons and Baker are allowed to go home. Norman Brown of the Granites attributes his defeat by Rice's Queen City to the strength imparted by Dr. Frawley's goat, in the form of milk to Rice's quartette. Paul of the Victorias thought it a shame when he went under to the same bunch that the Queen City's should receive outside assistance but Dr. Frawley and his goat will be in the game today.

The doubles and singles got off to a good start. Many veterans went down and many newcomers showed up. Today all rink matches, singles and doubles unplayed will be pulled off at 9 am. sharp. In the semi-finals of the Walker Trophy Forbes of Kew Beach meets Charles Swabey of Victorias, while McNee of London with his youngsters, plays Fitzgerald of Peterborough, the winners playing in the afternoon in the finals.

T.A.S. DEFEATED WELLINGTONS IN EXHIBITION BY 12-10

Yesterday afternoon the T.A.S. trimmed the Wellingtons in a fairly close game of ball by a score of 12—10. Shortly before the league games were over the Wellingtons put it over the "water wagon" boys by a big score, and yesterday's game was played to give the T.A.S. nine a chance of regaining their reputation as "ball" players. Both sides played fast ball all the way through and it was due to the heavy hitting that the score ran up so high. The game was played at Riverside Park and a fairly large crowd of fans witnessed the game. The T.A.S. have by no means disbanded yet, and are confident that they can give the Straths, winners of the City League, a close run for the honors in an exhibition game. The feature of yesterday's game was McFadden's throwing to the bases. He caught five men napping by his swift, straight throws and also showed up well at bat. Hawkins twirled for the Wellingtons while Cahill and Derocher did the heaving for the T.A.S.

The teams lined up as follows:

Derocher	2b	Chaney

—COMMENT—

Some Newsy Notes on Sport.

Among the outs of the visiting skips at the Dominion Lawn Bowling Tournament at Toronto is Mr. R. Kerr, of this city.

Tommy Burns has demanded $20,000, win, lose or draw for a fight with Ketchel. Is Tommy exhibiting the streak or is he rating his appearance before the public as worth all that money.

When Harry Burridge comes here to catch for the Petes in their game against the nine that wins the championship of the Senior City League of Toronto he will certainly be given the glad hand. Burridge was always a popular boy in Peterborough, and his excellent work with Youngstown this year has marked him as one of the best young catchers in the business.

Everything is prepared in connection with the Mohl-Rogers bout here on the 28th at the Brock street rink. A big house should be on hand to see these big mat experts battle.

Some fast trotting is looked for at the Peterborough Fair. This should attract a large patronage.

The letter to the sporting editor of the Review in which Jimmy Graham of Buffalo, suggests trying to break Hartley's record for the walk from here to Toronto, brings up the question of Harrison attempting it. He thought of doing so a short time ago, but hasn't been heard from lately in the matter.

Some time ago Dave Hartley said he could prove he was doped at the walking match, but up to the present time he hasn't thought it worth while to prove it. He also spoke of another long distance walk, but as far as can be learned no definite arrangements for it have been made.

It was baseball, now its rugby, and the Review stick-handlers are looking forward to the hockey season when they will again chase the puck, which in last year's press game they succeeded in seldom in catching.

WHAT ABOUT THE WALKING TOURNAMENT?

What about that big six days' walking match to be held here this fall? Or is it going to be pulled off at all? It's pretty nearly time those who intend to conduct the tournament, if the matter has not fallen through, got busy and made preparations.

It was contemplated to hold one in September or October, and the public would like to know whether the proposition will materialize or not.

STRATHS. AND PICKED TEAM

Will Meet in Exhibition Game if Arrangements Can be Made

A movement is on foot to have an exhibition game played between the Straths and an all star team of city league players. The game will likely be played on Saturday afternoon.

The match should be a very interesting one if arranged. The Straths are a fast team and put up a nice article of ball, but they will have to go some to beat a nine selected team from the best of the other teams in the league.

SELLLEN BEAT TOM LONGBOAT

I. C. A. C. Runner Who Was Here at Barriers Meet Last Fall Defeated Him in 5 Mile Run

Percy Sellen defeated Longboat in the five mile run at the police games in Toronto yesterday. The time made was very fast, 26 1-2.

Sellen was seen here last fall at the Harriers' meet, when he ran in the three mile special which was won by Jack Tait. Sellen dropped out about the middle of the race.

IS LONGBOAT DONE FOR?

After the race Tom Flannagan seemed plainly disheartened and expressed the opinion that Longboat would probably never return to his old-time form. Mr. Flannagan has given his best time and talents to condition the Indian and recent results must be more disappointing to the Irish-Canadian manager than any one else.—Toronto World.

Proof is inexhaustible that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures female ills and carries women safely through the Change of Life.

Mrs. Letitia Blair, Cannifton, Ont., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was sick for five years. One doctor told me it was ulceration, and another told me it was a fibroid tumor, and advised an operation. No one knows what I suffered, and the bearing down pains were terrible.

"I wrote to my sister about it and she advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"It has cured me of all my troubles, and I did not have to have the operation after all. The Compound also helped me to pass safely through Change of Life."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

STORM DID HARM AT INDIAN RIVER

Flattened Grain and Blew Down Fruit---Schools Open After Holidays.

Indian River, August 18— Messrs. [illegible] and Company shipped a car-load of fine export cattle from here today. The same firm have shipped a large number of cattle lately.

Mr. Buttrell of Charbot Lake is the guest of Mr. J. Duff

We are pleased to notice that Mr. John Sullivan is able to be back to work again after his recent illness.

We are sorry to learn of the illness of the eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs. J. K. Devlin. It is hoped that she will soon recover.

The thunder storm which passed over here last Monday, no doubt, did a considerable amount of good but the damage was about equal, there having been a lot of grain blown down and a lot of fruit was blown off the trees

The schools in our vicinity, opened on Monday last, Both the teachers and scholars found their holidays so enjoyable that they seemed much too short.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. N. Patterson who has been confined to his bed for a large part of the summer is improving.

The whistle and noise of the threshing machines are being heard in our vicinity again this year. Both Mr. Nelson and Mr. Welsh are kept very busy and there are indications of their work lasting to beyond Christmas.

Mr. P. G. Walker has been doing a large business in the line of fruit of late. Almost every morning he receives a large supply from western Ontario and the same day it is delivered to the surrounding neighborhood and also to Warsaw, Lang, and Westwood and other places.

No doubt the crops will be very good this year by the indications of the local grain merchants. Mr. Hall is shipping today a car load of new peas. The price being paid is 90c per bushel.

To Cobourg This Afternoon—Majority Will See the Horse Show

About three hundred took in the bowlers' excursion to Cobourg this afternoon. The special train left the G.T.R. station at 1 o'clock, and will leave Cobourg on the return trip at 9.30 this evening.

The majority of those who went intended to take in the big horse show now being held in Cobourg.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

FACTS ABOUT COLDS.

What a Well Known German Periodical Has to Say.

Wissen fur Alle, a well known German periodical, has recently been discussing a few facts about colds, and perhaps some of us who are afflicted with the uncomfortable summer sneezing and blowing may be a bit interested in part of the article:

"Many people may be surprised to hear that even in this world there are places where it is impossible to catch cold. There are facts, however, which bear this out. Explorers in the arctic regions never catch cold. Their clothes are often saturated with perspiration through their struggles over the ice and are a mass of ice when they retire for the night, and yet despite the fact they often have to sleep out in the open in their sleeping bag and that this is their only means of thawing themselves out their health does not suffer in the least. Indeed, it has been declared that most explorers are physically the better off for their sojourn in the northern regions.

"Then there is the classical instance of the St. Kilda cold. On that rocky, lonely island, lying some forty miles beyond the western Hebrides, there are about a hundred inhabitants who manage by cultivating a little of the ground and by catching sea fowl to keep themselves alive. The coast is so precipitous and the seas so stormy that for eight months out of the twelve they are practically inaccessible. Oddly, whenever a steamer touches at this island all the inhabitants, including the very infants, are seized with a cold."

The German periodical puts down the readiness of the man in the temperate zone to take cold to the coddling habit which fears exposure, resulting in a delicate constitution, more ready to suffer at the slightest change of temperature. It sums up by saying: "Exposure is not the direct cause of colds. It only acts on a lowered vitality. The only safeguard is continued exposure."

"HOODOO" LUNCHEON.

It Should Be Held on the Thirteenth of the Month.

There are few forms of entertainment which afford as much amusement as is furnished by a "hoodoo" party.

The party should be held on the 13th of the month unless it is absolutely impossible. Invite thirteen girls for your luncheon. The invitations may have the picture of a witch in one corner, and seal the envelope with a four leaf clover cut out of green paper.

Use table mats in the shape of four leaf clovers cut from green silk or silkaline and make a centerpiece the same. In the center of the table on the green centerpiece place a black silk cat, such as may be bought in any toy shop.

Charming candle shades may be made at home easily and inexpensively. From nursery books cut pictures of witches on broomsticks and either paste or trace them on white paper. If colored black they will loom up distinctly when the candles are lighted.

Each name card may be made different. One might be a wriggly snake, another a horseshoe, another a broom, a fourth an owl and many other things which represent some hoodoo. A cake in which have been baked different articles which suggest various superstitions, such as a ring, a silver coin, a thimble, a button and a china hare, would afford a great deal of fun.

A rabbit's foot mounted in silver and a brooch in the form of a horseshoe would make appropriate prizes if games or cards are played.

Write With Both Hands.

Sir Edwin Arnold once stated that one of the many evidences of Japanese common sense is the custom of teaching children to write with either or both hands. Charles Reade, through arguments in his writings, converted many persons to become ambidextrous, and it is a gift or an acquisition greatly to be desired by those who wield a pen. To be able to change the pen from one hand to the other at the first premonition of weariness would relieve many a weary hour and perhaps prevent writers' cramp. Thomas Jefferson while American minister to France broke his right wrist, but with little trouble learned to write with his left hand. That was before the days of the typewriter, and without the use of both hands it would have been impossible later for Jefferson to carry on his voluminous correspondence. Instead of wasting time and patience trying to break a naturally left handed child from using the pen in that hand, would it not be better to teach him to use both hands equally well? An adult whose muscles are no longer supple can learn to write with the left hand in one week, and in one year the handwriting of one hand will be as good as that of the other.

For the Woman Who Travels.

One of the most useful garments for the woman traveler by sea or her sister who must take a sleeper for a land journey is a black china silk negligee. Let it be cut with ample fullness both back and front full length to the floor, open in front and finished with a sailor collar. A dressy touch may be given by edging the collar and sleeves with lace and jaboting lace down either side of the front. Fasten the front with ribbon bows at intervals of eight inches. The garment takes but small compass, does not show the effect of close packing and may be substituted for the bulky bath robe on shipboard or in the sleeper. Those who have been the fortunate possessors of such an acquisition to the wardrobe cannot speak enthusiastically enough of the comfort coming from its use.

Chas. Slosbery and Henry Reichle were arraigned in Buffalo on a charge of smuggling five Chinamen from Canada to the United States.

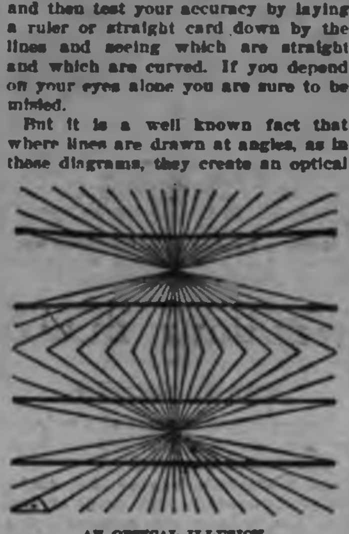
WHICH ARE PARALLEL?

Test Your Friends' Eyes With Angles and Horizontals.

"Seeing is believing" is an old saying that is very popular, though it is by no means true that we can "believe our own eyes" implicitly. For instance, two of the horizontal lines below are parallel, and two are not. The point is to tell which are which. Try to decide from merely looking at them and then test your accuracy by laying a ruler or straight card down by the lines and seeing which are straight and which are curved. If you depend on your eyes alone you are sure to be misled.

But it is a well known fact that where lines are drawn at angles, as in these diagrams, they create an optical illusion. Buildings often look distorted because the architect has failed to take into consideration this effect of lines. The old Greek and Roman architects fully understood these principles of optical illusion, and in their buildings you can see what pains they took to overcome the apparent distortion which the eye in certain cases sees. A carpenter who undertakes to saw a board off at right angles without using a square is sure to go wrong if the grain of the board happens to run somewhat obliquely, and there are many other cases in everyday life where a knowledge of this matter is quite important.



AN OPTICAL ILLUSION.

SIGHT OF INSECTS.

Distinguish Objects With Feelers Rather Than the Eyes.

It has always been a commonly accepted belief among boys and girls—and many grown folks, too, for that matter—that insects have sharp eyesight. But a distinguished French scientist tells us that very few insects have good sight. In most it is so poor that they see objects as though through a colored plate. A bee sees a tiny insect that passes before it as a confused patch on the bright sky. The eyes of insects are mostly important in enabling them to direct their flight. A layer of varnish over their eyes, though transparent, makes them wholly unable to find their way. The eyes enable the ants to distinguish the ultra violet rays, of which they have a great horror.

It is by their antennae, or feelers, that insects distinguish objects. At a distance the odor is communicated through the antennae, and near at hand odor and touch enable them to distinguish objects. Through the antennae insects recognize their food, never by eyesight.

It is by the antennae that the ant recognizes its enemies. The French scientist cut off the antennae of a number of ants of different species well known as deadly enemies and put them into a box together. They associated with each other in a most friendly manner, proving that their sight had nothing to do with their ability to distinguish friends from foes, while the antennae were everything. — Chicago News.

Age of Solomon's Seal.

Have you ever found in the spring woods a plant with little green bell shaped flowers growing along its stem and shaded by long pointed leaves? This is King Solomon's seal. If you want to know how old it is and how it gets its name, dig it up and count the flat scars on the long root. They are supposed to look like seals, and their number shows the number of years the plant has lived, for each sprout leaves one of the scars. The long thick root or underground stem really acts as a storehouse of food for the plant, like a bulb, so that is why the King Solomon seal is up and growing when most of the other little plants have scarcely got their eyes open.

Jingle Bells.

A game which never fails to excite and amuse a child is "jingle bells." An older person harnesses with a tarlatan rope or any piece of stout worsted or twine which might serve as a harness two children, and these are to be the "leaders." The other children then take hold of the rope in twos, except the last in the line, who act as driver.

The children trot away at a merry pace, while the mother or older sister plays the well known college glee "Jingle Bells." The leaders hurry on, making turns around invisible corners and wandering in and out of imaginary lanes.

Madam Snail.

It was indeed a lucky thing
For Madam Snail—oh, dear,
How tired she felt!—that she should faint
When garden elves were near.

The kindly brownies "brought her to"
With water, fan and salts,
But since that day she's only crawled
An inch, with seven halts!

DOCTOR IN THE ARCTIC.

English Medical Man Goes to Work Among the Esquimaux.

Dr. James F. Rymer, who is a native of Croydon, and graduated at the Royal College of Surgeons in 1887 will shortly gain the distinction of being the first fully-qualified English medical man to take up permanent residence and carry on professional work within the Arctic Circle. After serving eight years as medical officer at the Carthusian Monastery in Sussex, Dr. Rymer went to Canada, and for the past six months has lived at Edmonton, Alberta. A few days ago he left there on a lonely journey of 1,500 miles along the Athabasca and Mackenzie rivers, his destination being Fort Good Hope, which is about 100 miles within the Arctic Circle. He has sufficient medicine in concentrated forms to last a year, and has arranged for more to be forwarded later. His clients for medical and surgical treatment will be the Indians and Esquimaux in the vicinity of Fort Good Hope and Fort Macpherson. Several forms of disease and fevers often break out among these natives, and as they have had no skilled attention in the past the loss of life has been enormous. Dr. Rymer will endeavor to persuade them to better obey the laws of health, and will care for them when sick. He can speak French, which is the only language other than their own that the Indians understand, and intends at once studying the language of Indians and Esquimaux as soon as he arrives. At his headquarters he will not have more than five white companions, these being connected with a Roman Catholic mission and a trading post. Dr. Rymer's hobby will be photography, and as opportunity offers he proposes to go prospecting in some of the districts of the Far North hitherto unexplored.

WHAT GREAT MEN ATE.

Venison Was Favorite Meat of Sir Walter Scott.

Peter the Great consumed baked goose stuffed with apples, and considered it a fine dish.

Frederick the Great made a satisfactory meal on salt beef or pork and cabbage.

Henry VIII. could always eat himself into a condition of sleepiness on a haunch of venison.

Alexander the Great, when on a campaign, ate the rations of a common soldier.

Pius IX., during most of his pontificate, ate only an egg and bit of toast for breakfast.

Macauley said that no man need ask for better food than plain roast beef and baked potatoes.

Fielding said that tarts made with currant jelly were "heaven's own food."

Kaulbach enjoyed sauerkraut and pork beyond all other kinds of food. He once said that "cabbage and German go well together."

Rare Ben Johnson asked no better treat than a pork pie with an abundance of Canary wine.

Locke considered that the proper breakfast for a studious man was a bit of fish and a piece of bread.

Michael Angelo, during the most part of his life, lived plainly on the food of an Italian peasant.

Famous Essex Church.

Essex is rich in ecclesiastical architectural beauties, and Benfleet contains one of the most ancient in the county. Some portions date back several centuries, and there is a particularly beautiful carved porch over the principal doorway. Another feature is the ancient western doorway leading to the tower, which, with the stone steps in the wall, formerly leading to the loft, is one of the oldest pieces of the structure. A brass inscription records the splendid work of a former vicar in the following terms: "To the memory of John Arthur Cook, vicar and rural dean, died 1856. Always unwearied in the discharge of his sacred duties when this parish was terribly visited by cholera, A.D. 1854. He devoted himself night and day to the care of the sick, nursing them himself, and with his own hands performing the most servile and menial offices, and discharging his priestly functions in the intervals of their suffering. Forty persons died of the pestilence in one month, and for seven days and nights he never went to his bed, and his own house received one of the sufferers from the roadside. Acting with like devotion during a visitation of fever he laid down his life with and for the suffering members of Christ."

What the Officer Saw.

A certain regiment was on the march from Dover to Aldershot. It was the rule to march by companies, with a few minutes' interval between each, and to keep each other in sight, the band and drums leading.

Starting off at a good pace and not taking notice of the regulation halt, the band soon got a long way ahead of the others. On reaching a bend in one of the hills they halted for a fey minutes to have a rest. Presently up galloped a mounted officer in hot haste and shouted for the band sergeant.

"What do you mean," he said, "by getting out of sight of the leading company?"

"We were not out of sight, sir," answered the sergeant.

"What do you mean by telling me that?" exclaimed the officer, in a rage. "You were out of sight. I saw you myself."

The Largest Reptile.

The largest existent reptile is the man-eating salt water crocodile of southern Asia and Australia, which, when full grown, measures thirty feet in length from end of nose to tip of tail. One man makes hardly more than a mouthful for this fearsome creature. Prof. Koch's novel theory that the bite of the crocodile is responsible for the strange malady known as sleeping sickness has a kind of grim humor when one thinks of this monster. Its bite usually produces a sleep that knows no earthly waking.—London Graphic.

Howard McPhee, of Orillia, was drowned in the rapids of the Severn river, his boat being swamped while fishing.

for young married couples to have both lives well insured. It is something to depend upon in case anything should happen to either. In fact it is now generally admitted that every man, woman and child ought to be insured for the benefit of their families. The cost is little—the benefit great. There is really no excuse for not insuring now-a-days, while the company we represent is offering such excellent terms. Let us tell you more about it.

CONCLUSION OF THE BEST OF BEST "Y" CAMP EVER HELD

Y.M.C.A. Camp, Sandy Point, June 18.—Just a line to let the people know that the best "Y" camp ever held has come to an end. During the last week the boys have had a better time than ever. The day of the regatta they all went to the races and had a very enjoyable day. The Port Hopers were very much taken in when they saw how the people around here could paddle, saying that they were not as good as paddlers in Port Hope. The week passed very rapidly, the boys making the best of their time. "Bill" Jewell, of Port Hope, caught a three pound 'lunge.

Thursday came and the boys went to the Chemong regatta having a swell time. The Petes did not go, so they had a bon-fire and taft pull after supper, and had the cottagers from around come and partake. Two of the kind young ladies made the taffy for us. Friday Mr. E. Dunfee, or Duffy, of Port Hope, went home and Saturday "Gord." Horsley, "Bill" Jewell, Gusto McGibbon and Fred Harlall came back home. The Port Hope fellows were a nice bunch, which does not dispute that some of the fair sex thought so. The five boys that stayed over Sunday had a very enjoyable time. On Monday some of the young ladies up the shore had a picnic and invited the camp to come, which they did. They They walked to Burleigh and went from there to Perry's Creek, had supper and returned home in Wood's launch. Two of the bunch, a young lady and fellow, missed the launch and had to walk home. Before I close we must thank the cottagers up the shore and near by for the way they used the boys. We appreciate their kindness very much.

The remainder of the camp came home Tuesday. The boys hung on till the last moment. "Tom" Arnott, the cook, pleased the fellows. The fellows who came down Tuesday were "Bunnie" Edwards and Harold Brown of Port Hope, and George Martin Percy Woodbridge and Wally Armstrong, of Peterborough.

BLACKLISTED MEN APPEAR BEFORE THE MAGISTRATE

James Akey, the proprietor of a local livery stable, charged a young man with ill-treating a horse which the latter hired from him. The case came up in the police court this morning. Dr. Johnston testified that the defendant had used the beast improperly and as the latter pleaded guilty to the charge the court fined him two and costs, amounting in all to six dollars and cents, giving him ten days credit.

A second charge was read against the same defendant that of being under the influence of liquor, when on the Indian list. The evidence of Dr. Johnston, James Akey and Bruce Bartley was taken and the Magistrate dismissed the charge as the evidence given did not warrant a conviction. James Haverson, K.C., of Toronto, defended on this charge. In connection with this case considerable discussion as to the exact meaning of the law applying to interdicts. Joseph Stewart, License Inspector, stated that he has written the license commissioners regarding the correct interpretation of the same. H. D. Hall, city solicitor, conducted the prosecution.

John Donohue uncorked one of his sweetest smiles when dismissed on a similar charge and bade the court an effusive adieu on leaving. The evidence of Patrick Hogan, a licensed hotelkeeper, and William Warmington, one of his bartenders, went to show that Donohue had not asked for liquor, as was alleged by the prosecution, and the charge fell through.

"A great streak of luck for you John," said his Worship.

"Yes, your Worship," replied the occupant of the dock, as he promised never again to look on the cup that staggers.

HOW ZAM-BUK SAVED A GIRL'S HAIR

A Lesson to All Mothers.

When eczema, ulcers or ringworm break out on the scalp generally the first thing the doctor orders is to have the hair cut off. Don't do it before trying Zam-Buk, which can cure without such a sacrifice. Mrs. J. Butler, of 5 Bannockburn Avenue, Montreal, says;—

My daughter, Annie, caught eczema. It broke out on her face and scalp and the disease was quickly transmitted to Herbert and Edith, and in their cases not only their heads but their hands and faces were covered with sores and scaly places.

I tried various blood purifying remedies in vain and then consulted a doctor. He applied all kinds of lotions but the sores remained the same. He next ordered that the hair be shaved off from the girls' heads in order to get down to the disease on the scalp. They each had nice long hair and I thought it such a pity to put it off. I refused. He thereupon withdrew his services altogether.

After that I bought first one thing and then another, but it was all no good until we got Zam-Buk. That proved equal to the case and in a few weeks it cleared every trace of skin disease from each child. With it in use there was no need to cut off the girls' hair or take any other extreme measure. it just went to work and healed the sores in fine shape."

Zam-Buk cures blood poisoning, cuts, bruises, old wounds, running sores, ulcers, boils, eruptions, scalp sores, eczema, itch, barber's rash, burns, scalds and all skin injuries and diseases. Best cure for piles yet known. All druggists and stores at 50 cents a box, or from Zam-Buk Co. Toronto.

Ottawa city is going to issue treasury notes in London to renew its $750,000 loan.

THERE ARE 33 ON THE BLACK LIST

Hotel and Liquor Merchants Have to Use Great Vigilance.

There are 33 persons all males on the liquor blacklist in Peterborough. This seems a particularly large number and a local hotel man who showed over the list that had been left with him by the License Inspector, said that the greatest difficulty was experienced in trying to make sure not to sell to blacklisted men on account of them being so numerous.

Quite a number of names have been put on in the last couple of months.

WEDDING BELLS

BRAY—GREEN

The following account of a wedding of interest, locally, is taken from the Millbrook Reporter.

On Wednesday, August 12th, Abbey Cottage, Stratford, the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Stoll was the scene of a very quiet and pretty wedding, when their sister, Miss Mary E. Green, was united in marriage to Mr. Harry Bray, of Campbellcroft. The ceremony took place at half past one in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The Rev. Mr. Salton, of Trowbridge, being the officiating clergyman.

The bride was gowned in white mull trimmed with lace and insertion. the bride entered the room leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. W. Green, of Peterborough, who conducted her to the alcove where the groom awaited his bride. After the usual congratulations the company repaired to the drawing room, where a dainty wedding dinner was served. They recieved many handsome as well as useful presents. The groom's gift being a crescent pin with pearls.

Among those from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. W. Green, of Peterborough, and their daughters Lilain and Gladys; Mr. and Mrs. R. Green, of Cayuga; Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Johnston, of Silcote.

Mr. and Mrs. Bray left by G.T.R. for Toronto, at which place they made a brief stay, returning to Campbellcroft where the groom's sister awaited them. The bride's travelling costume was blue cloth with waist of lace over cream silk with hat to match.

Be wise and have a glass of iced "Salada" Tea when you feel warm. A small piece of lemon will add to its flavor.

SPORTING

HOW BURN CAME TO LOSE RACE

Ottawa, Aug. 19.—Art Burn, the former Ottawa runner, who took part in the big Olympian Marathon race, is again on his way to the West. Art renewed many acquaintances in the Capital yesterday and was congratulated on all sides on his healthy appearance. Burn goes right through to Calgary and will get after Howard Parsons, the Neepawa runner, for a matched race. Many Western people believe that Parsons can defeat Burn, but Arthur is out to prove that he is still entitled to the name 'champion of the West."

Burn attributes his collapse in the Marathon not so much to the heat as to some wine which was handed to him on the road. Art had little to eat on the morning of the race, and while right up with Lawson, Cotter, Longboat and Simpson, some one ran out from the roadside and offered him a drink. Burn was thirsty and hungry at the time, and without paying much attention to what the glass contained, drained it. His tongue was swollen at the time and anything in the way of a drink was welcome. Art finished the wine and a few minutes later took sick at his stomach. Then the heat became intense, and he knew that it was all off. Burn kept it up, however, and left many of the Marathon runners behind him.

"I think I would have been right up in the front rank had I not taken that wine," said Burn yesterday. "I do not know who gave it to me. I only know that I was terribly thirsty at the moment and that I was glad of something to ease my throat and mouth."

Burn speaks in high terms of Dorando's running. The Italian, he says, never spoke a word, but continued to run, run, run, until he fell in a heap a few yards from the winning post.

Burn will probably come East to Hamilton in October to run in the Herald road race. He is anxious to have some of the eastern long distance men go West and meet him.

Central Canada EXHIBITION AT OTTAWA

Sept. 18th to 26th, '08

Displays will far excel those of any previous year. A Grand Pure Food Exhibit is to be made by Canadian manufacturers.

High class vaudeville programme will be given daily in front of the Grand Stand in addition to the horse races.

The night entertainment will consist of the latest comic opera "What Happened Then?" by the famous De Wolff Hopper and all star company. Popular prices will prevail.

A grand display of paintings and Ladies' Work will be made to signalize the opening of the handsome new, fire-proof building, now being erected at a cost of $12,000.

The special attraction in front of the Grand Stand in the afternoon will include the latest European novelty "Del Oro's Performing Cows." This attraction is billed to appear in Ottawa for the first time in America. There will also be a most sensational automobile race on a specially constructed incline, the contesting chauffeurs being two daring young women.

There will be balloon races daily with a double parachute descent from each balloon by the famous Prof. Hutchinson and companion.

Get the official programme when issued next month.

REMOVAL WOULD BE USELESS SAYS THE ENGLISH DEALERS

Lifting of Embargo Would Only Hurt the Scotch Producers and Would Not Increase the Number of Store Cattle.

London, Aug. 21.—The opinion of prominent dealers in Canadian meats at the central market, Smithfield, differ somewhat as to the advantages to be reaped by them through the removal of the embargo on Canadian cattle, but all agree that the Scotch and English farmer would be benefited by the removal of restrictions.

Among several interviewed were Gartons, who handle largely colonial meat; they doubted if the dealer would derive any benefit, but the removal would allow more meat being supplied. Canadian store cattle were far ahead of Irish, as they fattened and made better meat.

Canadian exporters of live cattle were at present making quite as much if not more than they would be shipping store cattle.

Duckworth & Son, while allowing that the free importation of Canadian stores would benefit trade in many ways, yet as it is not the quantity they deal in but quality; and if the restriction were removed Canadian cattle could be sent to Scotland, and there fed up and sent to London as Scotch meat which would hurt the Scotch trade, as the Scotch is considered the best sent to London.

The Cooper Co. are satisfied that the Scotch farmer would benefit by the removal of the embargo, but not the meat dealer. It was a very large question, and an exceedingly difficult one on which to express an opinion, but if the removal of the restriction cheapened meat he was then in favor, as at present meat is too dear.

SERIOUSLY BRUISED IN BLAZE WHICH DESTROYED HOUSE

Accident to Mrs. James Mann, Trent River—House Was Completely Destroyed by the Flames—Tar Being Boiled Caught on Fire.

Havelock, Aug. 20.—The house of Mr. James Mann, of Trent Bridge, three miles south of here on the Trent River, was completely destroyed by fire this morning and Mrs. Mann was painfully and seriously burnt.

Tar was being boiled in a pot on the stove in the kitchen with which to tar the roof, when it took fire soon was a blazing mass. Mrs. Mann made an heroic attempt to save the house from fire by trying to carry the pot of fire outside, but had only taken a few steps when the heat of it became unbearable and she had to drop it. The blazing tar at once rolled over the floor, immediately setting fire to the house. The house was completely levelled to the ground with other small buildings adjoining it. Mrs. Mann was badly burned, most seriously about the head and hands. It is reported here that her clothing was completely burned off her by the fire and that she is in a very critical condition.

BRAINSTORMS ARE BARRED

Hains Brothers Will Not Repeat Thaw Delays Says Prosecutor

New York, Aug. 21.—District Attorney Darrin of Queen's County, who has charge of the prosecution of the Hains brothers in connection with the killing of William E. Annis, announced yesterday that Queen's County would not tolerate a great expenditure of money in trying the case.

"The trial of the Hains brothers will not be a repetition of the Harry Thaw case," he said. "To begin with, I do not think the Queen's County jury will stand for a brainstorm defence. I expect that my application to Governor Hughes, asking for a special grand jury, will be granted, and that the governor will name a judge to preside, who will see that the Hains brothers have a fair and impartial trial, but at the same time with no unnecessary delays."

Both will go on trial for their lives under the dual plea of insanity — a defence unprecedented in the history of American crime.

Missionary Conference.

New York, Aug. 21.—A foreign missionary conference, composed of missionaries and missionary workers from all parts of the world, will be held in Edinburgh, Scotland, in June, 1910.

President Roosevelt, in his letter of endorsement, says in part: "It seems to me that this effort to bring together missionaries from all parts of the world and from every body of Christians represents a movement of deep importance and singular impressiveness."

Madman Attacks Mayor.

New York, Aug. 21.—Attacked by an insane man armed with a knife in his office yesterday, Mayor Stoil of Hoboken had a narrow escape from death and was saved by the arrival of his bodyguard, a detective, at a critical moment.

Wm. Carmody, who was released from an insane asylum a few days ago, entered the office when the mayor was alone and brandishing a knief, demanded pay for his time spent in the asylum.

Cote May Be Candidate.

Montreal, Aug. 21.—It is generally understood that Thomas Cote, managing director of La Presse newspaper, and a strong personal friend of the Prime Minister, will be the Ministerial candidate in the County of Rimouski at the coming Federal elections.

Bruno Nautel, mayor of St. Genome, was chosen yesterday as Conservative candidate in Terrebonne.

Canada Prejudiced, Says Post.

London, Aug. 21.—(C. A. P.)—The Morning Post is publishing a letter pointing out a hard case under the immigration law and refers to an impression abroad that Canada is prejudiced against English immigrants. It hopes the Dominion will soon be welcoming an unlimited number thereof.

REV. STEUERNAGEL.

Pastor Steuernagel has returned from an six weeks visit to Toronto and Rochester. He will speak at Bethany Tabernacle next Sunday morning and evening. These will be his concluding addresses before leaving for Rochester where he will locate temporarily.

MORE FANATICS HAVE ARRIVED

Body of James Sharpe's Adamite Followers Turned Back.

Lethbridge, Alba., Aug. 21.—Another party of Adamites, followers of the famous Sharpe who caused the trouble in Saskatchewan, attempted to enter Canada at Twin Lakes (twenty miles south of Cardston), Wednesday. They were turned back by Immigration Agent Humphreys of Lethbridge. The party included John Bennett, wife, two sons, aged 19 and 17, and three daughters, younger.

Bennett says he believes the world has had nineteen hundred years of night, and that Sharpe is the first man to behold the dawn.

The origin of the fanaticism due to a meteor falling on Sharpe's farm, after which he had a vision. A party of 31 separated at Wilburton, Okla., Sharpe's going to Canada by Dakota. Bennett came by Alberta and another party is entering by British Columbia. The Bennett party has been traveling from Oklahoma for two and a half years with a team of superannuated horses.

This Man Seeks Asylum.

Brockville, Aug. 21.—Max K. Phillon, a married man with a family, who came here from Montreal, applied at the local asylum to be admitted as a patient.

While he talked rationally, Phillon said he knew himself he was not mentally right, and unless placed under surveillance might cause personal injury to some one.

He was sent back up town to consult with physicians and after an examination by two doctors the necessary papers were made out.

Duelists Fatally Shot.

Robinsonville, Miss., Aug. 21.—H. B. Suber and J. H. Gilmore, rival merchants, fought a duel with pistols in front of the former's store Wednesday night. Suber was shot in the breast. His pistol failed to explode, but he retreated to his store and seizing a shotgun emptied the contents into Gilmore's back as the latter was leaving the scene.

A Serious Affair.

Brockville, Aug. 21.—In connection with the disappearance of Mabel Charlton, a 13-year-old girl, the police here yesterday took into custody Joseph Belfoy and Garfield Eligh, the latter a married man, while they are looking for a third, Fred Hackett.

All will be charged with a serious offence against the moral code.

Theatrical Man Drowns.

Battleford, Sask., Aug. 21.—H. R. Thibault of Sault Ste. Marie, who arrived here a few days ago to fill an engagement at the Grand Theatre, was drowned while bathing in the Saskatchewan river.

Drowns In Cistern.

Welland, Aug. 21.—Mrs. Sleat of Humberstone on going to the cistern for water was horrified to find the body of her 17-months-old son, Clifton. The child had lifted the cover and fallen in.

The dead body of an unknown man has been discovered on an island in the centre of the Lachine Rapids, but it cannot be reached.

An enquiry is to be made into the cause of the failure of so many candidates for teacher's certificates at the Kingston Collegiate.

Hope has been abandoned with regard to Miss Turnock, D. M. Gifford and Mr. Lamerne, who went out in a sailboat on Lake Winnipeg on Sunday.

THE RECEPTION TO AMERICAN FLEET

Sydney Gives Americans Enthusiastic Welcome to Australia

Sydney, Aug. 21.—Rear-Admiral Sperry, commander of the United States fleet, in an interview yesterday on the arrival of the vessels of his command, said:

"The enthusiasm of the welcome accorded us is almost beyond belief and it seems evident that such a demonstration of kindly feelings must have more back of it than mere curiosity and excitement. It is pleasing to me to think that this indicates a real and heartfelt sympathy between the two English-speaking nations which are united not only by the ties of blood, but by great commercial interests in the Pacific and elsewhere."

The reception was for a time threatened with a hitch. The imperial regulations forbid the landing of armed men in Australia. This fact was communicated to Admiral Sperry, who, in reply, informed the Government that he would not allow his men to participate in the processions and reviews unless they came ashore armed.

It was finally announced that the Government had granted permission for the American sailors and marines to land armed, but without ammunition.

Eight Children Burned.

Colfax, Wash., Aug. 21.—Six children are dead and two others are burned so seriously that recovery is doubtful at the H. W. Schultz ranch, resulting from a fire that destroyed their home Wednesday night.

Four of the dead were children of Schultz. The other two were children of W. W. Fox, a brother-in-law. The men were away harvesting and the mothers were attending a theatrical performance.

The two eldest Schultz girls attempted to rescue the children, but lost the way to the door and were forced to drop the babies to make their own escape.

Tailors to Strike.

New York, Aug. 21.—Thirty thousand members of the United States Brotherhood of Tailors have been ordered on strike. They want 20 per cent. increase in wages.

AN ITALIAN FIGHTS ARREST

Officers Catch Runaway Jailbird Desperate Conflict.

Parry Sound, Aug. 21.—Constable Knight and District Constable Madigan had a desperate fight with an Italian who escaped from jail here. Learning that Frank Sporanco, one of a trio that escaped, was working in a field near Byng Inlet, the constables went to the place. Sporanco had stolen a repeating rifle, and as the constables advanced toward him he opened fire.

The Italian fired five shots, the constables replying with their revolvers.

Constable Knight, feigning to have been hit, fell to the ground among some bushes. Constable Madigan, imagining his companion was killed or seriously wounded, started for Byng Inlet to procure assistance. Meanwhile, as soon as Knight was satisfied the Italian had emptied the rifle, he got up and advanced toward the man, who, turning to run, was struck in the thigh by a bullet from Knight's revolver.

As the constable closed on him the Italian attacked Knight with the rifle, striking him over the head and cutting it so badly that five stitches were necessary to close the wound. The constable, however, felled the Italian with the butt of his revolver. He was just able to handcuff his prisoner before he became exhausted from the wounds on his head.

May Be In Toronto.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Aug. 21.—E. C. Harting, who is alleged to have embezzled from eight to twenty thousand dollars from building associations and insurance companies here, is now believed to be hiding in Toronto.

Harvester Goes Insane.

MacGregor, Man., Aug. 21.—A harvester giving the name of Thomas Kirkwell, 26 Rendwith street, Toronto, has gone violently insane here, and has been committed to Portage jail.

Pope Well Again.

Rome, Aug. 21.—The Pope, who has been suffering since Tuesday with a cold which affected his gout, was yesterday morning feeling quite well.

PEACE GOT SIX MONTHS IN CENTRAL AND FORBES GOT TWO MONTHS IN THE GAOL

Housebreakers Were Sentenced at the Police Court This Morning—Men Who Broke Into the Home of Mr. E. G. Patterson Saturday, August 1st.

Pease and Forbes, the two men found guilty of house breaking on Saturday, August the first, were this morning sentenced by Police Magistrate Dumble.

Peace, the older of the two, was given six months in the Central Prison, and Forbes, got two months in the County gaol.

The two prisoners appeared for trial a week ago, charged with the breaking into the house of Mr. E. G. Patterson. They were found guilty and were remanded for sentence until today.

"Have you anything to say" asked the magistrate before passing sentence.

The prisoners replied in the negative.

"You men have evidently come from the United States" continued His Worship, "and immediately upon your arrival here you commenced plundering. We find that there is no such steamer as you said you worked on. at Buffalo."

The above judgment was then given.

Both prisoners took their sentences good naturedly, Forbes who is just eighteen years of age, remarking, 'Well, I will have my room on the bill for a couple of months yet."

Police Chief Loses Hands.

Chatham, Aug. 21.—Chief of Police Makey of Blenheim has lost the use of his hands for all time. With Bert Ford, whose family had just had scarlet fever, he was fumigating the house, when the gasoline used in the lamp exploded, frightfully burning his face, chest and hands.

Blinded and in great pain he started to run for help, falling and peeling the burned flesh off his hands in strips.

Schooner's Bow Stove In.

Belleville, Aug. 21.—While coming in to port yesterday the schooner Dundee was run into by the steamer Varuna and had her port bow stove in. A passenger on the Varuna, Mrs. R. Smith, had her leg broken. The Dundee's damage was about $500.

Balloons Cruise Together.

Berlin, Aug. 21.—The Parseval and the Gross steerage balloons cruised together for two hours yesterday over Berlin. They performed various evolutions with great success and were close to each other for the entire flight.

Rice Lewis Co. Burned Out.

Toronto, Aug. 21.—Fire yesterday morning caused a loss of about $125,000 to the five-storey building and stock of the Rice, Lewis & Son, Ltd., hardware and iron merchants, King and Victoria streets.

P. C. Roberts noticed smoke pouring from the upper windows and turned in an alarm, which was followed by a general alarm.

The blaze originated near the elevator shaft on the ground floor, and spread up the shaft to the top storey, where paints and oils were stored, and which was burned out, the roof being taken off.

Murdered on Public Road.

Pottsville, Pa., Aug. 21.—With his throat cut and his skull crushed in with rocks, the body of Morris Bender, aged 40 years, a well-to-do mining man of Orwin, was found lying along the public road by his son Wednesday night. The husband of the murdered man's niece, Ralph Reedy, with whom he had quarreled earlier in the evening, is missing.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

The Railway Commission will sit in Winnipeg Sept. 10.

His Excellency the Governor-General was in Toronto yesterday.

John Richardson of the Manitoba Cartage Co. was thrown from his rig at Winnipeg and killed.

The Athletics of St. Catharines have challenged New Westminster Lacrosse Club for the Minto Cup.

G. A. Nicholson, a delegate to the Oddfellows' convention, was struck by a street car at Montreal.

The health of the Empress of Russia again causes concern. There have been recurrences of hysteria.

Howard McPhee, son of the Indian agent, was drowned at the junction of the Severn and Black rivers. He was 22 years of age.

In response to an advertisement for three vacant positions on the teaching staff the Merritton Public School Board received 57 applications.

Miss Peck Safe.

Lima, Peru, Aug. 21.—After suffering terrible hardships Miss Annie S. Peck of Providence, R. I., the mountain climber, returned from her trip up Mount Huascaran Wednesday.

No word had been received from her since Friday afternoon, when she signalled her arrival at an altitude of 25,000 feet.

Miss Peck was accompanied by two Alpine climbers and it was because of the sickness of one of these men that the party was prevented from reaching the summit of the peak.

Drowning at Vancouver.

Vancouver, Aug. 21.—At Second Beach yesterday, Miss Elva Selman, 22 years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Selman, 536 Nelson street, was drowned. The young woman was at the bay with her mother and a party of friends at a picnic. They witnessed the drowning.

Escaped Cattle Thief Captured.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Aug. 21.—Ed. McGee, who, with his brother William, arrested for cattle stealing, escaped from Simcoe jail five weeks ago, was caught here yesterday. William has already been recaptured and is now serving a two-year sentence.

PLOT DISCOVERED TO BLOW UP THE SHOPS AT WINNIPEG

Winnipeg Strikers Prevent Outrage by "Force" Element—Three Trains Ditched in West—Officials Deny Story of Second Ultimatum.

Winnipeg, Aug. 21.—The first sensational development since the strike of mechanics on the C. P. R. commenced was revealed to the public yesterday afternoon, when it became known that a plot had actually been formulated to either dynamite or burn the company's shops here. It was hatched by the Anarchistic colony of sympathizers in North Winnipeg, who had planned to pull off their coup last Sunday night. The strikers heard of it, and immediately took steps to frustrate it, and were successful. The company has doubled its police patrols since that time.

J. H. McVety yesterday morning admitted that he had heard of contemplated attack on the company's property, and said that the executive had stopped it. Strong pickets went out to guard the yards, and to prevent anything happening. The pickets saw small groups of foreigners, but no action was taken.

From members of the strikers' executive it was learned that great fears are entertained that "force" element in the north end of the city, principally composed of foreigners who have no real connection with strikers, may get out of hand any night.

Winnipeg, Aug. 21.—The C. P. R. put ten more men to work in the shops yesterday, making a total of twenty.

An extra westbound freight was ditched six miles west of St. Mary's Wednesday afternoon and five box cars were demoralized. This makes three trains lying in the ditch in this district. The cause of the accident is said to have been a broken wheel.

It is reported that engineers running out of Cranbrook have orders from Calgary to run through without inspection.

Local strikers say the cars are being taken out in bad condition.

One carman was working in the yard yesterday, the first since the strike began. The engineers book repairs as frequently as usual, but the statement is made that no record of the repairs made is kept, so that it is not known whether the repairs are done or not.

Kingston, Aug. 21.—An official of the C. P. R. named Mendel arrived Wednesday from the head office in Montreal, and opened an employment bureau here, to secure men to take the place of the striking mechanics.

Montreal, Aug. 21.—An emphatic denial is given by the management of the C. P. R. to the report that an ultimatum had been issued to their striking mechanics, to the effect that if they did not return to work by noon yesterday they would never be permitted to re-enter the employ of the company under any circumstances.

The company state that they are not only willing but anxious to recognize any of their old men. Eighty men were engaged here yesterday, two of them being old hands.

The company has a list of 38 employment agencies which are offering men both in the United States and Canada, but none from the other side of the line are being accepted.

Toronto, Aug. 21.—J. W. Leonard, manager of the C. P. R., was in the city yesterday and inspected the shops and round-house. He went north this morning. Mr. Leonard would make no statement, but it is said that he is to make a complete inspection of the road and upon his report will rest whether the company makes overtures for a compromise or continue the fight indefinitely.

MR. FRED CRESSWELL OF OTONABEE, THROWN FROM BUGGY AND BADLY INJURED

Mr. Fred Cresswell, of Otonabee, was badly cut about the head and face last night in an accident on Charlotte street, between Gilmour street and the boundary line, being thrown out of his buggy as the result of colliding with another rig. Mrs. Cresswell was with him at the time. He was driving south on the street at the time, and his horse, a four year old colt, became rather hard to control while he was trying to pass a runabout containing a young man and a young woman, and which was being driven the opposite direction.

One of the front wheels of Mr. Cresswell's buggy struck the hub of the runabout and the horse he was driving gave a sudden plunge sideways being frightened at the noise of the collision. The buggy tilted and Mr. Cresswell was thrown violently to the ground. His horse broke into a gallop, but his wife managed to get it under control about one hundred yards above Warne's grocery store.

She drove back and found her husband still lying on the roadside and his head and face was bleeding profusely. She drove the horse to the front of the residence of Mr. Geo. Warner who immediately had the wounded man brought into his house. Dr. McCulloch was sent for and dressed the wounds, most serious of which was a cut on the scalp which required four stitches to close it. A great deal of skin was scraped off his face and his right arm was somewhat wrenched. The injured man was in a semi-conscious condition when taken to Mr. Warner's house, but recovered sufficiently to be taken home by his wife, Mr. Warner accompanying them on account of the horse being of such a nervous nature.

The occupants of the other vehicle did not stop to offer any assistance to Mr. Cresswell, although in the darkness of the night they may not have known that he had been pitched from his buggy.

WOULD LIKE TO BUY ANTICOSTI

American Syndicate Said to be After Island in St. Lawrence.

Montreal, Aug. 21.—A special from Quebec says that it is rumored in the ancient capital that an American syndicate is about to take over the Island of Anticosti, which has been the property for some years past of the French Chocolate King, Monsieur Menier.

It appears that a party consisting of Mr. Gimson, Mr. Meniers, lawyer, Capt. Belanger, formerly of the Savoy, and a Mr. Philipp, said to be the head of the purchasing syndicate, has just left Quebec for the island on board the fine yacht Vadis.

"Another Bomb," Said Leslie.

Toronto, Aug. 21.—Mayor Oliver says he is determined that the Board of Control shall investigate the channels through which the exhibition funds handled by Col. J. K. Leslie made their disappearance.

Early in the day he was credited with some apparently insignificant remarks in which he hinted that there would be "another bomb exploded," but when questioned last night he disclaimed any further knowledge concerning the shortage than he has already made public.

Domestic Tragedy.

Detroit, Aug. 21.—Philip Weir, 34 years of age, shot and killed his wife yesterday afternoon at their home, and then committed suicide by swallowing carbolic acid.

Weir had been married previously. The couple quarrelled yesterday when Mrs. Weir challenged the validity of this marriage.

Used Whisky In Bye-Election.

Halifax, Aug. 21.—At the trial of A. R. Bayne for corrupt practices in the Colchester bye-election several witnesses swore that they got cash and liquor from Bayne. Robert Falconer said he got $20 and a case of flasks of whisky, and that Bayne told him he was to use the liquor for the election.

YACHTMAN HAS TERRIBLE TRIP

In Midlake in Fierce Storm—Companion Dropped Dead

Milwaukee, Aug. 21.—Beaten about by a storm from Monday night until Wednesday night, the little yacht Juniata of Milwaukee, with David Beebe and the dead body of his sailing companion, Philip Thompson, on board, was picked up in mid-lake Wednesday and towed to the harbor here.

Thompson had been steadily at the tiller for hours, when in the height of the rain and windstorm he arose to put on a coat. Without a word he dropped to the bottom of the boat dead.

As the Juniata neared the harbor she sank out of sight.

Heavy Gale on Lake.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 21.—A 45-mile gale kicked up a heavy sea on Lake Ontario Wednesday night and practically stopped navigation, only the large steamer Toronto being able to make port.

Killed at Crossing.

Stanley Junction, Man., Aug. 21.—While driving across the track here yesterday a rig containing three persons was struck by a Canadian Northern work train. Edward McClure, aged 10, was killed and his grandmother, Mrs. S. A. McClure, was seriously injured.

Coal Dock Collapses.

Sault Ste. Marie, Aug. 21.—Upbound boats report that the dock at the Pittsburg Coal Co. at Point Aux Frene, between the Soo and Detour, collapsed Wednesday night.

Part of the machinery and a large amount of coal went into the river.

THE T. V. C.

It is not desirable to introduce criticism into remarks upon last night's reception but some things undoubtedly call for it. We refer to the Honourable Minister's idea of the T.V.C. as an artery of tourist traffic. He dwelt with emphasis upon this point. He is reported to have said that "there is another side of the question and one which perhaps has never struck you. By opening up this waterway there ought to be the development of a tourist trade alone that would surprise you." He is wrong. It has struck us, but not with force. New canals are neither devised nor built for tourist traffic and it is just such ideas as this that have kept back the construction of this important work for so long, despite all concerted effort to the contrary. The real merit of this waterway has failed to have as a consequence the effect upon the people of Canada generally which it should have had. For years the project was ridiculed outside of the Trent district for just such reasons. The enormous importance of the canal as an artery of inland circulation in matters of trade in addition to its continental usefulness in that respect is what demands its construction. The workingman will not stand for building a canal for tourist traffic. Then again we think that the prosecution of the Georgian Bay Canal is unnecessary in the face of the T.V.C., which it rivals. Ours is a better way. That the revenue was in the last year of it only $1,427.00 from end to end not half the salary of the engineer-in-charge is due merely to the general limpness of Canadian trade. Build up our industries and provide them with proper means of transportation. Transportation makes trade possible. The army of employees has also discredited the T.V.C. somewhat in the popular mind. A fleet of steamers for administering the canal's business excites irritation. As for the completion of the canal, that is the justification of its promotion as a public work. The country has these many decades been committed to such a course. It is a pity that other more showy but less useful schemes have to such a serious extent sapped public resources. The 'show' part of this undertaking, also should be cut out. There are too many attempts to dazzle the public eye. We wish the minister "Bon voyage!"

RACE AND CREED

Besides Sir Wilfrid Laurier it is announced that Hon. Mr. Lemieux will speak in Ontario during the parliamentary election campaign. Even at the risk of being accused of raising race prejudice, it is recalled that the Liberals of Ontario once marched to victory under the Mowat banner to that stirring campaign psalm, "Beware the French-Canadian horde, Ontay-ree-oh, On-tay-ree-oh!" —Montreal Gazette.

Next to the deadly parallel comes the verdict of history. The above clipping contains one of the most laughable instances of time's revenges on record. "Beware the French-Canadian horde!" Let the Liberal's French-Canadian papers get busy and quote the whole of this entrancing poem. Happily illustrated with its (false) colours it would look charming. Are we to understand then that when flowing from the lips of the sweet singers of the Reform party this is not bigotry? What would the habitant, the gentle habitant, his wife, and children think if after being taught that Conservatives were only so many ghouls they were to be told that once upon a time they were called a "French-Canadian horde." Of course poetry and song are supposed like taverns, to run under license but this sort of thing is a little too much. O Ontayree-oh, Ontayree-oh, once the home of Ross and Jim Commee and water privilege Kerr, now the domain of the Tory wolf and the Whitney mustang. You who once cried "Beware the French-Canadian horde" now live and bask in the smiles of that 'horde' O, tempora, O, mores!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

We enjoy the privilege of reading, through the kindness of a friend, 'The British Weekly' the great British "Non-Conformist" journal. It is delightful to peruse in it the opinions of Britishers, men of "light and leading" in the churches, science, art, education, etc., who constantly interchange views or express opinions in its columns. Whether it is that we have not got the men or the material or that our people are 'above it' one cannot perhaps exactly say but the tendency in Canada is to discourage rather than to encourage it. Unless a citizen has lost a punt or the Ashburnham stinkhole is worse than usual or some one wants to have a little exercise by scarifying the Examiner or another launch has been safely let through the lift lock which crowds admire and still larger crowds wonder at and wot not that it cost them nearly half a million, or the number of muskrats caught by Billy Naugon is larger than usual—a letter to the press is rarely written. It is one of the great privileges and delights of the British custom that enlightened and educated men place their talents and acquirements in the form of opinions at the service of their countrymen and women. Such a custom goes far to redeem life from its vacuity and furnishes a means of information and education of a great and general value. Men who work hard mentally and read a great deal are in duty bound to let the public, who toil with their hands, know what is going on in the great world below, around and above us. It is such things as these that turn our minds away from the Thaw and Hains cases which do so much to reduce us to their own brutal level.

A KILLING COMPARISON

If there is anything calculated to take the "blow" out of our Liberal friends at Ottawa and their supporters it is a glance at the comparison between Australia's trade and that of Canada for the last five years. The importations of Australia are less than its exports by $100 000,000. Those of Canada are greater than its exports by $275,000,000. If buying abroad means prosperity, why not let us hurry up and spend our last cent at once in that way, but if saying up our cash in our own country means prosperity let us get the Laurier Government to abdicate as soon as possible. At one time their totem was the full dinner-pail. Now it is the empty one. An unwise trade policy and an inconceivable madness for spending our hard-earned money for the benefit of foreign financiers and their Canadian agents have reduced us as we see, below the level even of Australia, which is cursed with visitations of drought and has a population of only 4,500 000. Our Liberal contemporary accuses us of "knocking." There is some truth in the accusation. The Liberal policy is getting some pretty hard knocks everywhere. In fact if it does not look sharp it will be "knocked out of the box," altogether.

THE BALANCE OF TRADE

The balance of trade is the balance of power. If a man pay out more than he takes in where he will land? Yet this is precisely the condition of Canada. We have in the last twelve years paid out hundreds of millions in cash more than we took in. The consequences are upon us. A properly applied and effective system of protection would keep within the country what is almost wholly unnecessarily paid out. The aim apparently is to provide cheap manufactured goods and cheap food by letting in outside goods at a low rate. This involves the payment out of money which we should earn ourselves. Therefore, it cannot be successfully done. It is not true that these foreign manufactured goods are cheaper. They are shoddy and just as expensive. Where then is the gain? But there is a mighty loss. Moreover, it is a loss all round. The farmer loses the home-market because manufactories and cities decline. The employee soon goes elsewhere in search of work and finding none. A country that might have done all its own work within its own borders, kept its cash capital and have gone on with the products of its energy to an almost unlimited degree, is gradually held up by the spectre Want. What sort of want? The want of capital. It is all gone abroad to people who have more cuteness than we have and who capture our cash. The country weakens. Excuses make the people more disgusted than before. All sorts of fol-lols in the way of "magnetic personalities" and "great areas of virgin soil awaiting the plough" are flung at the people's heads. By whom? Their own representatives forsooth. It sounds very like [illegible] everyday impudence—and so it is. But who profits most by cheap labour fed on cheap food and clothed in cheap shoddy? The man with the hod! Hardly. The man with the hoe! Not so far as we can see. The employer? He has to pay the bank. The answer is "The money-lender."

EDITORIAL NOTES

Numbers of people have expressed the opinion that making use of the city representatives for "show" purposes as at first intended, and advocated by the "promoters" when a businesslike interview is what is wanted is improper. The original programme would have put Cole's circus in the shade. We have got the employees now give us the canal.

From La Patrie we take the following interesting quotation:

"L'Evenement" replies to 'Canada' which excused the commutation of Rochette's sentence by that of Shortis:—Shortis's crime was that of an enraged man, who not knowing what he was doing killing while labouring under the domination of his passion while that of Rochette is the crime of a coward, killing gradually, reasoning out his whole plan and deciding in cold-blood to poison his wife in order to take another. The commutation of Rochette first laid at the Prince of Wales' door is not explained by the Department of Justice. It ought to be.

American journals everywhere salute with emotion the departure for another world of an old soldier of the republic, who has just died in Arizona, and whose name deserves to be honored, not only for his devotion on the field of battle, but for his admirable, conjugal devotion. General Wardell spent his last years at the bedside of a sick wife. Mrs. Wardell was the victim of the most horrible of diseases, leprosy, and in order to have the privilege of remaining by her side he went into exile with her in Arizona. When spoken to he replied with heroic simplicity, 'My wife married me when she was young and beautiful and I have no right to fail her in her misfortune.' What a contrast to many Americans who have become multi-millionaires to repudiate the early companions of their poverty.—La Patrie.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Of Entertainment Given on Board the Steamship "Lusitania"

The Review is in receipt of a copy of a programme of entertainment given on board the steamship "Lusitania" in aid of the Seamen's charities at Liverpool and New York on Saturday, Aug. 8th.

Mr. J. J. Turner, sr., of this city, was one of the passengers on the steamer. He acted as chairman and also contributed two vocal numbers. His first song was "Sparkling Moselle," and his second one was "The Maple Leaf For ever."

The programmes were neatly gotten up and were printed on board. On them is printed a picture of the ship and a border of flowers making them look very artistic.

STORY OF THE FLOOD

One of the Strange Legends of the Yuma Indians.

CAUSE OF THE GREAT STORM.

The Tipping Up of the Earth Caused the Deluge Which Engulfed the World—The Mysterious Ark and the Escape of the Chosen Few.

To this day the great deluge recorded in the Bible is a mystery to the North American Indian. He will not be led to believe that the flood was brought about by the sins of man. He is equally unwilling to believe that it was the work of an angry God, as he could not see how the Almighty should be so unjust as to punish the Indians of America for the naughty things of a race of people across the ocean. Another reason which makes it still more difficult for the Indian to believe that the flood was a punishment to the world is the fact that with him there is no sin. In his language there is no such word, nor does he expect to be punished for any of his acts.

But though there is no equivalent to the word sin in the Indian language (nor in the Indian mind until the Christians came), the Indians have their philosophy in regard to what is commonly so termed. Some of their teachers (most of whom claimed to have been taught the philosophy of life and its laws directly by disembodied spirits or by ethereal beings from other planets) taught that as man lives here so is his life hereafter. If he is quarrelsome or warlike here, so he will be in the more spiritual life. If he is serene and contented here, so he will be there, etc.

The deluge, as described by the few who were miraculously saved, was the more grandly terrible in that it came on suddenly. From the highlands occupied by the Indians they saw the waves of the sea sweep in upon the land and recede, only to advance with immensely increased volume and stupendously huge breakers. Then there came a terrific storm that seemed to blow from all and in all directions. The storm caused huge waterspouts which appeared over the wild ocean as far as the eye could see. The terrified people fled to the mountains, but these were all soon to be submerged, with the exception of one. This mountain which alone remained uncovered by the flood is called Avee-beilah (Mountain of the Moon), yet today it is not a very high mountain.

For awhile before the mountains became submerged there was a great calm, and a dense fog covered the earth. Then suddenly a mighty boat appeared to the awed view of the Indians. It approached and stopped at the several mountains still uncovered by the waters, and at each point where it touched, as if guided by invisible intelligence, the Indians, as if obeying an unspoken but potent command, entered the boat.

The boat rested first at a place called Avee-qua-lul (mountain peak), now Pilot Knob, on the border of Mexico. There was a mesa on the top of this mountain, though at this day it does not exist, and on this mesa the Indians first celebrated their delivery. This they did by playing sacred games, chanting sacred songs, etc. On rocks at the foot of this peak there are hieroglyphics in an unknown language, which some of the Indians believe were made by those who survived the flood.

Petrified driftwood is still to be seen two-thirds the distance up the sides of Avee-beilah, which drift, the Indians say, was deposited by the waves of the great flood.

The Indians, having rested for a time on the mountain peak, again entered the boat and were carried eastward, eventually to a small valley. Here they again rested, and then, leaving the boat, they wandered from one place to another, after a time returning to the valley. To their surprise, the boat was gone. It could not have floated away, for the land was dry whereon they had left it, the flood having subsided after a great calm of its waters. The boat could not have crumbled to pieces, for there had not been time for its decay. They could only conclude that the mysterious boat, having fulfilled its mission of preserving a few of their race, had disappeared as miraculously as it had appeared.

The spot where the mysterious boat, or ark, had rested was marked by the Indians placing there a huge log. They called the place Qual-jo-para (boat's resting place). This spot is held sacred by the Indians, who will seldom point it out to strangers. Not many hundred years ago, it is said, some Indian warriors were passing the spot, and one of them to show his skepticism shot an arrow into the side of the great log. Immediately a stream of blood gushed from the spot pierced, and the skeptic fell dead. The story of the event was carried to all the near tribes, and since then Indians passing the place fear to even look leisurely at the log.

A reason given by the Indians as the probable cause of the flood was that there was a tribe of Indians who, like Columbus, believed that the earth was not flat, but round, and to prove whether this theory were true thousands from the different tribes banded together and started out on a journey to find the edge of the earth if it was flat. The flood occurred soon after the Indians started on this journey, so that they really believed that those adventurers had reached the edge of the earth and their weight had tipped the earth to such an extent as to cause the water to rush in on the land.—Los Angeles Times.

WONDERFUL MIRAGES.

False Peak of Tenerife and Illusions in the Dardanelles.

The peak of Tenerife is known among deep sea sailors as the "false peak." Owing to some peculiarity of the atmosphere it is always seen by mirage in exactly the opposite direction from which it lies, and only the fact that all captains know that the mirage appears long before the true peak is visible through the most powerful glass prevents many a ship from sailing many miles out of her course. It is hard for a greenhorn to believe that the majestic purple mountain towering astern or on the port beam apparently only a short distance off is in reality miles away in exactly the opposite direction and the seemingly solid earth at which he is gazing is only a reflection on the clear mirror of the air. Many weird tales are told of shipwrecked men who have steered for the false peak in the expectation of finding land and have perished of hunger and thirst while pursuing the phantom mountain.

Sometimes the passengers and crew of a vessel on the lookout for the false peak see a much rarer and more beautiful mirage, that of a ship in the sky. It usually appears about 10 o'clock in the morning, about ten degrees above the horizon and under full sail, every delicate spar and tapering mast clearly visible against the blue ether and even the play of light and shadow in the bellying canvas plainly discernible to the naked eye. It generally remains in sight half an hour or more before gracefully fading away. The oldest mariner can never remember having seen the mirage of a steamer in that latitude, but always that of a full rigged ship, and this peculiar fact has given birth to many romantic legends about the ship in the sky, all connecting it in some way with the false peak.

The vicinity of the Dardanelles is the real home of mirages, and it is seldom that any vessel sails along the Syrian coast without seeing one or more. Oddly enough, the mirages of the Dardanelles are always the reflections of objects that can be seen with the naked eye and are invariably distorted in grotesque and fantastic caricatures of the things reflected. It is certainly startling to see a steamer bearing down with her masts where her water line and should be and the water line where the tops of the masts and funnel ought to show, while her decks are in the right place, thus adding to her uncanny appearance, but this is a frequent sight near the Dardanelles. There is one peculiar feature of the mirages which hover near the false peak—the real objects of which they are reflections are so far away that very often they are never sighted until long after the reflection has vanished, and sometimes not at all.

The Lion's Attack.

As to a lion's method of attack Frederick Courteney Selous says in his book: "As a rule, I think, a lion seizes a sleeping man by the head, and in that case, unless it is a very old and weakly animal, death must usually be instantaneous, as its great fang teeth will be driven into the brain through the thickest negro skull." Similarly, when a lion attacks an animal it tries to get at the head or the throat—at the vitals of the animal. Says Mr. Selous: "My experience is that when a single lion tries to kill an ox or a buffalo it invariably seizes it near the muzzle with one paw and usually succeeds in either breaking its victim's neck or causing it to break it itself by its own weight in falling. When several lions attack an ox or a buffalo they will often bite and tear it all over and take a long time to kill it."

"My men work well," said a police commissioner, "because they are well trained. Training, you know, is everything."

He paused and smiled.

"Two physicians were discussing," he said, "a certain pretty nurse.

"'Was she a trained nurse?' said the first physician.

"'She must have been,' replied the other. 'She hadn't been in the hospital a week before she was engaged to the richest patient.'"

A Limited Luxury.

Two Irishmen were discussing the phenomenon of sleep. Said one, "Oi bear as wan av thim poethry lads calls it 'bald nature's hair reshtoorer.'"

"Tis," assented the other; "shlape's a grand luxury. It's a pity a man can't kape awake long enough to inj'y it. Jist whin he's thinkin' phat a foine long shnooze he'll be bovin', begorra, it's mornin'!

Gallant Lover.

"Silly boy," she said, "why did you get offended? Though my words were severe, you might have seen that I was smiling."

"Well," he replied magnanimously, "your mouth is so small I didn't notice it."

ARE WITH SIR A. FITZGEORGE

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Formerly of Peterboro' are With Distinguish- Visitor to Canada

Toronto, Aug. 20.—A distinguished visitor at the King Edward Hotel is Col. Sir Augustus Fitzgeorge, K. C., V.O., C.B., third son of H.R.H. the late Duke of Cambridge and his morganatic wife, Mrs. Fitzgeorge, who is now making a tour of the country in company with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Taylor, of London. Sir Augustus has now retired from the army. He joined the 1st Rifle Brigade in Canada in 1865 and was A.D.C. to Lord Napier of Magdala, in India, for five years, afterwards accompanying the Prince of Wales on his Indian tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are well-known in this city, Mr. Taylor having been a former manager of the Bank of Montreal here.

SURVEYING FOR LINDSAY LOCKS

A surveying party comprised of Messrs. Neil Rutherford, W. G. Montgomery, R. Adams Davy, and E. Armstrong were registered at the Snowden House yesterday and left for Buckhorn. They went to Lindsay in connection with the long-talked of new locks which are going to be put in in that town. Their duty is to make a survey of the land in the vicinity of the structure. Then they will make soundings and thus ascertain the nature of the bottom of the river. In this work about a month will be occupied.

After this part of the work has been completed it will be some time before the specifications can be drawn up. So a considerable time will yet elapse before the construction of the locks will begin in earnest.

WERE MARRIED IN HONOLULU

The following clippings from the Honolulu Bulletin tell of the marriage of Mr. Albert Chambers, son of Mr. D. Chambers. We extend the best wishes of all our readers. Mrs. Boswell mentioned in the extract, formerly lived at Harwood, Rice Lake.

Miss Nellie Campbell, of Blenheim, Canada, arrived yesterday on the Marama, making the trip from the Coast to become the bride of Albert Chambers of the Hollister Drug Co., the ceremony being performed today at St. Andrew's Cathedral.

The marriage of Miss Nellie Campbell, of Blenheim, Ontario, Canada, to Mr. A. Chambers of the Hollister Drug Company, took place today at the St. Andrew's Cathedral. The wedding was a very pretty affair, at which intimate friends were present. Mrs H Boswell of Ewa was matron of honor and Mr. Beakbane best man.

Peterborough won by 4 points.

CRICKET

While in the early nineties Peterborough coped on even terms with Toronto, Montreal and Ottawa, there were spots in between of even a less dazzling character than yesterday's. On one occasion some 288 runs were made by Toronto for 4 wickets which resulted in mutual misunderstandings and recriminations in the team. On another occasion Lyon made his record Canadian score of 238 against Peterborough at Rosedale, when several tasty remarks were hurled at the bowlers. So that yesterday's results are not altogether disappointing.

CONCERNING OUR ATHLETES

A glance at the daily paper is all that is required to convince any one of the dominance of interest in athletic sport.

No other subject demands so much space, such skill in proper presentation, so varied knowledge.

Baseball, football, yachting, rowing, swimming, tennis, track athletics, archery, feats of strength are attracting the attention of the civilized world.

The "square deal" is the thing demanded. Crookedness is fought on every hand by the advocates of honorable competition.

The blight of gambling has put horse racing under the ban everywhere. The attempt to transfer the gamblers' attention to baseball was resented on all sides.

The honest athlete is sure of esteem. The dishonest one is quickly forgotten.

The present week has seen a remarkable tribute to a veteran ball player. A great outpouring of enthusiasts brought a generous contribution to a man who has been prominent for a generation.

He has seen ball players rise into prominence, lose caste, and become forgotten. His own powers have been maintained by avoidance of the temptations which have brought ruin to hundreds of his fellows.

The personal tribute is no more notable than the indication of the popular feeling about athletics. The "square" athlete has a sure place in American hearts.

Reports come of many plans for the preservation and prolongation of human life. Disease is being fought as never before. The long feared ills of the race are being driven away in a great conflict.

It is easy enough to discover evil elements in "sport." But the general recognition of its influence upon the people seems to proclaim an increasing belief in the value of outdoor games of every sort in helping to develop a sturdier race.

It must be this aspect which accounts for a widespread interest in various forms of athletics which appears to be a distinguishing characteristic of the American citizen of to-day.

The newspaper is a sure index of the popular mind. It would be an interesting figure, if it could be actually known, which would represent the number of Americans who daily study, comment upon, or at least examine hurriedly the summaries and descriptions of the athletic contests of twenty-four hours.—Chicago Tribune.

BLOOMFIELD AND WELLINGTON

Played Tie Game Yesterday—Score Was 5-5

The baseball game yesterday between Wellington and Bloomfield resulted in a tie, the score being 5—5. The Bloomfield team was composed entirely of Park Nine players, while six of the Petes played for Wellington. Hickey and Hamilton was the battery for the Bloomfield nine and Hawkins and Edmunds was the battery for the Wellingtons.

The story that plans for Halifax defences sent from Ottawa to Halifax were missing is officially denied.

COWS MUST NOT RUN AT LARGE

Ashburnham Woman Fined in the Police Court This Morning

An Ashburnham woman had to pay two dollars this morning for allowing her cow to run at large in Ashburnham.

Mrs. Moore, the complainant, stated that for some months past, this cow had been coming right up to her door and was a regular nuisance. The cow was usually tethered to a stake but after it had been tied for about two hours, it always broke away and came on her property.

"She is a friend of the flies on the cow," said the defendant to the amusement of the rail-birds

The accused woman went into the box. She swore that her cow never ran at large, that is, to damage any person's property. Her son took the animal each day to the commons and tied it to a stake.

His Worship said that as the woman didn't pay for pasture, she would have to pay a fine.

She immediately paid the two dollars and remarked as she went from the court room "I will go home now and water my cow."

A number of boys were charged with throwing stones at the police court this morning. They pleaded not guilty. The complainant stated that when driving to Ashburnham, the other evening, some missiles were thrown at the buggy in which he was driving. He could not say who threw them.

His Worship dismissed the case. He thought the young man was a little premature in laying the information.

FOR THE PROVINCIAL EXHIBITIONS

All cities over the province are preparing for their exhibition and Peterborough is no exception to the rule.

It is the time we meet our old and new friends, and those who are not our friends, it is also the best time for the introduction of the newest and smartest cuts in fall suits, and where they can be shown to the greatest advantage.

CALCUTT B. AND M. CO. FINED $20 FOR SELLING TOO MUCH LIQUOR TO UNLICENSED MAN

On the resumption of the charge charge against the Calcutt Brewing and Malting Co., yesterday afternoon two local men were put on the stand by the prosecution. The first testified that he had been down to the shack in North Monaghan, where it was alleged the liquor had been sent by the Brewing Company. On both occasions, he in company with the second witness, had purchased ale from the keeper of the shack. He paid the man for the drink. Witness gave his evidence in a very straightforward way and it was corroborated by the second.

Harry Roddy swore that he was acquainted with the shack owner, but did not know of the existence of the shack, as he had not visited him for nearly three years. This closed the case for the prosecution. Mr. Haverson, in addressing the bench pointed out that the secretary of the company had sold the ale in good faith. The latter had questioned the buyer on the occasion of one of the purchases and had received the reply that he was merely ordering same for others. Mr. Moore, who prosecuted, asked that a conviction be made, since the evidence given showed gross carelessness on the part of the Brewing Company's employees. The clerk who sold the liquor had not made proper enquiries regarding the legality of the sale. He could not sustain the arguments of the defending counsel in the face of the evidence given. The minimum fine of $20 and costs was imposed.

EXCITING TIME IN LANDING A FIFTEEN POUND LUNGE

Mr. Frankie Murphy, of Chicago, who is the guest of Mr. Martin McFadden, Elm street, caught a fifteen pound lunge in Lake Chemong yesterday afternoon. Mr. Murphy is spending a few days at Villa Maria Cottage, Chemong Park. After dinner yesterday in company with a friend he rowed up to the head of the lake. They were caught in a heavy shower and took shelter in lee of an island.

After the storm was over they started for the Park. Mr. Murphy threw out the trolling line to try his luck, and had only gone a short distance when he felt something pulling with great strength on the line. Mr. Murphy, whose experience in landing a fish was somewhat limited, had the time of his life with the monster. After pulling and struggling for a few minutes he got it into the boat. But the next task was to kill it. He had nothing by which to accomplish this. Grabbing an oar he struck the fish with it, but in doing so he broke the blade. He then went at it with his fists, but could not kill it in this way. He finally picked up the anchor, and hitting it twice he killed it.

Mr. Murphy had an exciting time, but is very proud of his capture.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULTING ASSYRIAN AND ROBBING HIM OF ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS

At the trial of James Baldwin this morning, charged with highway robbery and assault by Abraham Aboud, Magistrate Edmison heard several witnesses. Mr. D. O'Connell was Aboud's counsel and Mr. R. F. McWilliams defended Baldwin.

Dr Fraser, of Lakefield, gave expert medical testimony, having examined Aboud after the alleged assault. He had found two nasty cuts on the Assyrian's head. He was very weak, having suffered considerably from loss of blood.

Hugh Cochrane, a farmer living near Baldwin, knew both parties and heard prisoner's account of the affair about six o'clock on the Thursday evening subsequent to the assault.

Latter, according to his story, had pulled knife on Aboud and Baldwin defended himself with a club. Baldwin had owed the Assyrian $1 and this was the cause of the trouble. The Assyrian had met Baldwin on the road and when the latter had said that he did not have a dollar, the Assyrian said, "You'll never owe another man a dollar," and charged him with a knife. Cross examined by Mr. O'Connell, witness stated that assault had taken place one quarter of a mile south of witness' house. Witness had not seen the Assyrian until after dinner, and then saw Baldwin about six o'clock. Witness had walked from his house to his ranch shortly after the Assyrian left and when passing the place where it was alleged the assault took place, noticed marks of a struggle on the road. Witness told Mr. McWilliams' Baldwin's counsel, that the marks on the road already referred to had not attracted his attention to any extent.

William Smith testified that he had held a conversation with Baldwin after the fracas took place. He had seen the Assyrian also after the attack and the latter appeared to be in bad shape. Baldwin was the father-in-law of the witness and had gone home immediately after the assault. He had noticed the tracks in the road although he saw no club and had not searched particularly for evidence of the assault.

Cross-examined by Mr. O'Connell witness reluctantly admitted that Baldwin his stepfather, was not a very industrious person and had not worked much during the past year.

MRS. WESTLAKE.

Was probably the prosecution's best witness. She gave a very voluble account of the story told her by Aboud after the assault. Aboud had been struck twice on the back of the head and she thought that Aboud was dying. At this juncture Mr. McWilliams objected to Mr. O'Connell's question to the witness regarding Baldwin's habits. Mrs. Westlake became very angry when the objection was being discussed, claiming that she had been insulted by one of the lawyers. She said that Baldwin was a dangerous man and was of idle habits.

Mr. Westlake did not give any new evidence and on account of the lateness of the hour and the number of witnesses to be examined, the court adjourned until two o'clock.

THE STRATHS REPLY TO THE CHALLENGE OF WEST ENDS

The West Ends have challenged the Straths to an exhibition game. Now it appears to us that the West End team went down and out a couple months ago and they have got together again and are anxious to meet the champions. But they are just a little too late as the Straths have hung up the wooden stick for the season and have decided to play no more games till the city league opening next year and will endeavor to perhaps pile up a more substantial score than this year which was Strathconas 13; West Ends 3.

Now the West Ends insist on a game and will play them for a sum of money ranging from $10 to $50, which could be made good use of this winter to bear expenses of hockey material.

The West Ends had their chances to defeat the Straths and why did they not do it then.

SKIP FITZGERALD LOST TO LONDON IN THE SEMI-FINALS

At the Woodbine Park this morning the semi-finals were played in the Walker Trophy competition and, as a result Skip McNee of London and Skip Forbes of Kew Beach meet in the finals. McNee beat Fitzgerald of Peterborough by 29 to 9. Forbes won from Skip Swabey's Victoria rink by the close score of 17 to 15.

In the London-Peterborough game, Fitzgerald's rink began well, getting shot, London made two on the second end, and, getting the lead, kept it. In the third Peterborough got 3, and hung to the same score till the 7th. In the meantime, London crept up to 10. Fitzgerald made another jump in the 15th. Peterborough laid three but Nightingale took out two. McNee drew shot.

In the 16th Peterboroughs drew in two for shot. Fitzgerald of Peterborough knocked in a London bowl for shot, making London 15 up in the 8th end, to a total of 8 points, and remained stationary until at the end of the 13th, London were 14 up, and going strong.

In the 14th London laid one shot. Dr. Marshall of Peterborough got shot on an overdraw, and London could not dislodge it.

WILL THE ONTARIO BODY BE IN EXISTENCE THIS YEAR?

There has been talk of putting a team from Peterborough in the Junior O.R.F.U., but it is a matter of doubt at present whether that body will be in existence this year.

The following is a dispatch from Toronto:

Toronto Aug. 20.—Will the Ontario Rugby Football Union be in existence this coming season. This is a question which is of interest to every rugby football player at the present time. And it looks as if the once strongest football union in the province, an organization which for the past twenty-five years has had great success, will fall through. In past years it has been represented by teams in nearly all the football towns in both Western and Eastern Ontario.

The prospects of the Ontario Rugby Football Union have not been bright since Mr. George Ballard, the former president of the organization, threw in his lot with the Federalists, and became the backbone of the Inter-Provincial League, consisting of Ottawa, Montreal, Argonauts, and the Hamilton Tigers. The Inter-Provincial later on added an intermediate section, including London, Hamilton, and Argonauts II., which practically demoralized the intermediate section of the Ontario Rugby Football Union, leaving only three Toronto teams to battle for the intermediate championship while the senior series of the O.R.F.U., minus the Hamilton Tigers and the Argonauts, was practically nothing but an intermediate league.

The junior series had fair success, but the changing of the age limit a few years ago, added to the downfall of the intermediate series, while it did not greatly improve the junior because it has made it harder for the younger boys to break into the game at the right age. Only the larger towns and cities, which could organize city leagues, had a chance to develop young players. With the age limit again fixed at 21 years, thus forcing the older players into the intermediate or senior leagues, O.R.F.U. might regain some of its former strength. There is some talk of doing this.

The Inter-Provincial Executive Committee last year refused to accept the ruling of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Association in regard to the amateur status of one of its players, Russell, of Montreal. This appears to be the only drawback to the Inter-Provincial becoming the all-powerful organization this fall.

KEW BEACH CAPTURES TROPHY SO NEARLY PETERBORO'S

The fourth day of the Dominion Bowling Association tournament was another most successful one. The Walker Trophy was won by Kew Beach, but only after two more exciting contests. The finals found them opposed to the London Thirties. Forbes and his men were off at the crack of the gun, scoring four in the first and third ends and counting ten to one at the end of the sixth. The Western men then got in their stride and the brilliant play that ensued brought forth continuous applause from the large gallery that surrounded the lawn three deep. Scott, for London, and Hayes, for the Beach, were bowling "touchers" two out of three shots. As soon as one would build up a cluster around the kitty along would come a running shot and exit the kitty. Whether it was a raise or run that skippy called for, the goods would be delivered. No better bowling was ever done for the trophy. From the sixth to the fifteenth end McNee kept up his uphill fight, Forbes only scoring one in the meantime, and the score was at tie, 14 all. In the fifteenth McNee lost his game. Forbes lay five shots and instead of drawing and cutting some of them out he ran and missed. Forbes scoring five and getting a lead that he never relinquished. The finish saw him seven up, the score being 15 to 18.

The men from Peterborough were winners in their game with McNee, the latter running away with it, 29 to 9. The Ontario and Toronto also furnished many fine games.

THE RING

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 19.—Manager O'Connor, for Stanley Ketchell, is wrought up over Tommy Burns' demand for $30,000, win, lose, or draw, for a fight with the middleweight champion. He said:—"What has Burns ever done that he should dictate terms? All he has to show is whipping "Bill" Squires, a third-rater. When Burns comes back we will hound him until he will be glad to make a match. We will follow him wherever he goes and he will have to fight or go out of the country."

It is reported here on good authority that Packey McFarland's sudden departure on Sunday for Chicago is for the purpose of getting rid of Harry Gilmore, jr., as Manager. Packey several days ago had a long conference with Billy Nolan, Bat Nelson's former manager, and Nolan may be his new manager when he returns here. McFarland is playing for a fight with Nelson if Nelson whips Gans, as there is more money in a McFarland-Nelson match than in any other.

BOWLING WILL BE POPULAR IN PETERBORO THIS SEASON

A game that has become very popular in Peterborough is bowling, and the prospects are that a livelier interest than ever will be taken in the game this year. The alleys are already in much demand, and as the weather gets cooler the game will be played to a greater extent.

Some clever bowlers have been developed in Peterborough during the last season and the game has got this city in earnest. Mr. J. B. Hay, secretary of the Peterborough Bowling Club, states that at least one city bowling league will be formed, the jewellers having decided to organize one a little later. It is quite probable that there will also be other local bowling leagues and everything points to the game being particularly popular in Peterborough this season.

TORONTO CRICKETERS MADE HIGH SCORES IN GAME WITH LOCALS

The Toronto cricketers proved too much for the locals in the game between the two teams on Varsity Oval yesterday and the crack Queen City eleven won a sweeping victory. Toronto went to bat first and their innings closed when seven wickets had fallen with 316 runs to their credit, only 5 of which were byes, indicating excellent wicket keeping.

Peterborough obtained 70 in the first innings of which Marshall made 28 before being caught out by Saunders. Duggan batted well for 21, being unfortunately run out when well set.

In the second innings Marshall was again to the fore with the willow getting 14, four of which were made on a square cut to the boundary. Gibson also batted well. The innings was closed at the fall of the fifth wicket to enable the visitors to catch their train.

The locals speak most highly of the kindness and cordiality of the Toronto club.

Although somewhat disastrous the day was most enjoyable.

The game was not a rough one, as it will be seen by the fact that only one man was hurt.

YANKEE ROGERS TRAINER SAYS HIS MAN IS IN PERFECT SHAPE

W. B. Naylor Arrived in the City Last Night—Rogers Defeat of Jim Smart the English Heavyweight—The Bout With Gotch.

Yankee Rogers' manager, Mr. W. B. Naylor, arrived in the city last night from Sherbrooke, Que., accompanied by his wife and child. Mr. Naylor states that Rogers will be able to give a great account of himself in his match against Fritz Mohl at the Brock street rink on next Friday, August 28th.

"Rogers was never in better condition in his life than he is at the present time," said Mr. Naylor, "and as Mohl has also been going through a great course of training at the Buffalo gymnasium which has been the training quarters of Gotch, Rogers and other celebrated wrestlers in preparing for big matches."

Manager Naylor has confidence in his man winning the bout, although he realizes he will have no easy proposition when he tackles the big German mat artist.

Rogers wrestled his last match in Sherbrooke, Que., on Aug. 15th, when he defeated Jim Smart, the well-known English heavyweight, who has just come to America from the Old Country. He beat Smart twice in 39 minutes, securing the first fall in on a leg Nelson in 30 minutes and the second on a toe hold in 9 minutes. The bout was a strenuous one and held the attention of the audience all the time it lasted.

Articles have been signed for a match between Rogers and Gotch for the championship of the world and the bout will be pulled off in either Sherbrooke or Peterborough next month. An effort should be made to have it pulled off here, if possible, as it will be the most important mat battle since the memorable bout between Gotch and Hackenschmidt in Chicago.

FRITZ MOHL EXPECTED TO ARRIVE HERE NEXT TUESDAY

Fritz Mohl, the German wrestler, is expected in Peterborough on Tuesday and will complete his training for his bout with Rogers at the Brock street rink on August 28th.

Mohl reports that he is in great trim and expects to win. He has been going through a lot of work in the past few weeks and will step on to the mat in the pink of condition. His workouts at the Buffalo gymnasium are being watched by large audiences of Buffalo sports. He has a large following in the American city and his friends and backers believe he should come out to the good when he battles with the far-famed Rogers.

Displays will far excel those of any previous year. A Grand Pure Food Exhibit is to be made by Canadian manufacturers.

High class vaudeville programme will be given daily in front of the Grand Stand in addition to the horse races.

The night entertainment will consist of the latest comic opera "What Happened Then!" by the famous De Wolff Hopper and all star company. Popular prices will prevail.

A grand display of paintings and Ladies' Work will be made to signalize the opening of the handsome new fire-proof building, now being erected at a cost of $12,000.

The special attraction in front of the Grand Stand in the afternoon will include the latest European novelty "Del Oro's Performing Cows." This attraction is billed to appear in Ottawa for the first time in America. There will also be a most sensational automobile race on a specially constructed incline, the contesting chauffeurs being two daring young women.

There will be balloon races daily with a double parachute descent from each balloon by the famous Prof. Hutchison and companion.

Curious Old Laws.

Some of the old laws of Nepal, India, were curious. Killing cows ranked with murder as a capital offense, for instance. Every girl at birth was married with great ceremony to a betel fruit, which was then cast into a sacred stream. As the fate of the fruit was uncertain the girl was supposed never to become a widow. To obtain divorce from a husband a wife had only to place a betel nut under his pillow and depart. In Nepal the day is considered to begin when it is light enough to count the tiles on the roof or distinguish the hairs on a man's hand against the sky.

Force of Habit.

There is a certain western congressman whose boundless affability and habitual absentmindedness have occasionally led him into absurd mistakes. One day during his last campaign as he stepped from the train at the station of his home town after an arduous two weeks of stumping and "glad handing" his little daughter rushed up to him and kissed him. The congressman beamed upon her with a proud and tender parental eye.

"Well, well," he exclaimed, "if it isn't my little Alberta!" Then he added mechanically, "And how is your dear old father?"—Success Magazine.

Marrying.

Marry not for riches;
They vanish in an hour.
Marry not for beauty;
'Tis but a fading flower.
Marry not if very old,
Likewise if too young.
Marry not a coquette, or
You're apt to be stung.
Marry not one too short,
Neither one too tall—
And if you're happy single Marry not at all.

Destroying the Point.

Every one knows the man who is notorious for so telling a story as to destroy its point. An English nobleman, Lord P., was noted for his success in thus ruining the prosperity of a story. The author of "Collections and Recollections" exhibits a specimen of his lordship's peculiar art.

Thirty years ago two large houses were built at Albert gate, London, the size and cost of which seemed likely to prohibit tenants from hiring them. A wag christened them "Malta and Gibraltar because they can never be taken."

Lord P. thought this an excellent joke and ran round the town, saying to every friend he met:

"I say, do you know what they call those houses at Albert gate? They call them Malta and Gibraltar because they can never let them. Isn't it awfully good?"

Some one told Lord P. the old riddle, "Why was the elephant the last animal to get into the ark?" to which the answer is, "Because he had to pack his trunk."

Lord P. asked the riddle of the next friend he met and gave as the answer, "Because he had to pack his portmanteau."

His Excuse.

"Look here," thundered the captain of the suburban hose company, "why don't you turn out? Brown's barn is on fire."

"I—I can't," responded the dude fireman.

"And why not?"

"Because I have just discovered that a red shirt does not suit my complexion, sir."—Chicago News.

LOVE'S LABOR LOST.

Lion at Earl's Court, London, Ejects His Glass Eye.

Jealousy over Nellie, an unsophisticated young lioness in Mr. Frank Bostock's jungle at Earl's Court, was responsible for a sanguinary fight between Nero and Brutus, rival lions, for her affections. In the melee Nero lost not only his temper, but his left eye, and being a forest-bred creature in the prime of life, which is to say about ten years old as lions go, Mr. Bostock thoughtfully decided to have the lost optic replaced with a glass substitute manufactured by Messrs. Peachey & Son. One morning, before the jungle had been opened to the public, the novel operation of inserting the eye was performed by Mr. E. H. Scott, the well-known veterinary surgeon, who has many a time done a similar service for various animals, but never before for the king of the forest. It took Mr. Bostock and a small army of other valiant men about half an hour to subjugate Nero, who had first of all to be lassooed and dragged forward to the iron bars so that his head should be brought within reach of the doctor's hands. Time after time Nero routed his friendly enemies before he was safely gagged and bound, the other lions meanwhile roaring their sympathy as they looked on, in the most knowing manner, from the adjacent cages. Before venturing to deal with the eye, Mr. Scott injected into the left foreleg a solution of morphia, which, although designed for his benefit, Nero objected to with all the command left in him. In a minute or so he had dozed off sufficiently to enable Mr. Scott to insert the glass eye into the empty socket. Having been photographed with his new optic, Nero was at once freed from his coils, but, before there was time to say "Jack Robinson," Nero, with a sort of vigorous wink, ejected the eye on to the floor, and began merrily pacing his cage as if nothing had happened. After a moment's dismay, even Mr. Bostock and the doctor had to laugh at what the policeman called a "fair knock-out." It should be explained that, as is usual in fitting artificial eyes, that used for Nero was not full-sized, the intention being to replace it with a larger one after a week or so in the usual way. As soon as another and bigger eye has been made, Nero will again be placed under the surgeon. There is no record of a lion having previously had any operation of the kind.

New Field-Marshal.

Gen. Sir Charles Henry Brownlow, G.C.B., Indian army, has been appointed field-marshal, and thus joins a very select band. The new field-marshal is in his 78th year, and is a son of the late Col. G. A. Brownlow, brother of the first Lord Lurgan. Joining the army in 1847, nearly the whole of his military service was spent in India, and he took part in a great many campaigns on the frontier. His first experience of war was in 1848-49, when he went through the Punjab campaign. Between 1852 and 1858 he served with the Hazara, Mohmand, Boudar, and Eusofzai expedition, and was severely wounded in the Mohmand affair in 1854. The gallant officer served in the China war of 1860, and on his return to India took part in several more frontier campaigns, viz., the Ambeyla expedition of 1863, and in the Hazara expedition of 1868. In 1871-72 he was appointed brigadier-general, and commanded an expedition to the Looshai country. Gen. Brownlow, who had received numerous medals and clasps, and was frequently mentioned in despatches, was an aide-de-camp to Queen Victoria from 1869 to 1881. From 1879 to 1889 he was assistant military secretary for Indian Affairs at the Horse Guards. He was placed on the unemployed supernumerary list in 1894, having been promoted general five years previously.

How Rats Move Eggs.

Strange as the story may appear of rats removing hen's eggs from the bottom to the top of a house by one fellow lying on his back and grasping tightly his ovoid burden with his fore paws, while his comrades drag him away by the tail, I have no reason to disbelieve it. I have seen two brown rats accomplish the feat from stair to stair in a farmhouse in Banffshire, the first anxious rodent pushing the egg up on its hind leg and the second assistant lifting it up with its fore legs. It was the best athletic feat I ever witnessed, but it is not out of the common.

The rat will extract the cotton from a flask of Florence oil, dipping in his long tail and repeating the manoeuvre until he has consumed all that can be reached.

I have found lumps of sugar in a deep drawer at a distance of thirty feet from the place where the petty larceny was committed, and a friend once saw a rat mount a table on which a drum of figs was fixed and straightway tip it over, scattering its contents on the floor below, where a score of his expectant brethren sat watching for the windfall.—Scotsman.

Scales In the Mint.

Passing through the mint, attention was directed to a large pair of scales which were said to be as fine as anything in the country. They recalled the grand balance scale used in the Bank of England, and on inquiry the mint scales proved to be a worthy specimen of the same class. The Old Lady of Threadneedle street uses a piece of mechanism that stands about seven feet high and weighs in the neighborhood of two tons. This scale is set every day, just as the one at the mint is, and is so delicately adjusted that it will correctly weigh a grain of dust or 400 pounds of gold.

A postage stamp would affect the index six inches. If any weight beyond its capacity is placed on the machine it makes its protest by ringing an electric bell and keeping it up until its load is lightened.

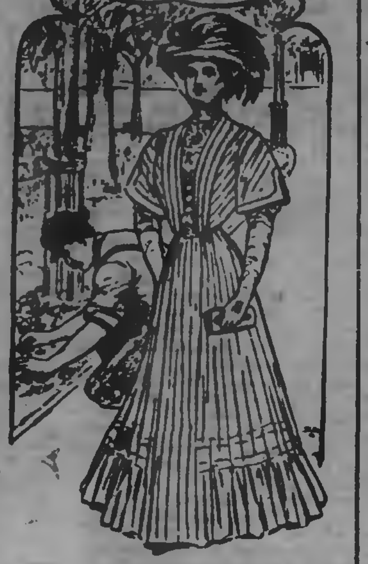
Woman's World

ONE WOMAN'S INFLUENCE.

Mrs. Balis' Way of Helping Along "the City Beautiful" Idea.

What a busy homekeeper can do to help in making "the city beautiful" is shown in the case of Mrs. Sylvia Chapin Balis of Belleville, Ont., who is an earnest worker for civic improvement.

The work began in a small way. Having neighbors with children who loved flowers, she first drew the little ones into a combination for the beautifying of the rear yards in the block. Unsightly litter was all removed. Vines and blooming flowers were planted along the fences, and the former unsightly and untidy alley was made to blossom as the rose. It became a veritable little park.



MRS. SYLVIA C. BALIS.

The influence extended throughout the entire neighborhood, which entered into a fascinating contest for beautifying. A civic improvement society was formed to do for the whole town what the little group of neighbors had done for their own immediate environs.

Mrs. Balis was formerly active in work for the deaf, being located at the School For the Deaf, Trenton, N. J. She has written a helpful text book which is much in vogue among this class. Last summer at the annual convention of American Instructors of the Deaf held at Morgantown, N. C., she was chosen as a member of the board of executive directors, being the first and only woman to be accorded this honor.

For Round Shoulders.

The fact that round shoulders are generally caused by an unsatisfactory physical condition was for a long time overlooked. Yet the truth of this theory may easily be proved by a mental summary of those whose shoulders are bent. You will find that not one on the list is a person of abundant vitality.

Indeed, so generally recognized is the part which organic causes have to do with this deformity that the very first thing recommended by a physician appealed to in such a case is to take some invigorating tonic, such as quinine and iron. As a supplement to this prescription the patient is recommended to take as much outdoor exercise as possible—to do anything, in fact, which shall get the blood into circulation.

Among the very best outdoor exercises to take in treating oneself for round shoulders is walking. This should be done with head and shoulders thrown back, and a constant effort should be made to breathe deeply. A good plan to acquire the deep breathing habit while walking is to count six while you inhale and six while you expand the breath. If this is done regularly when walking the habit of expanding the chest and lungs becomes fixed. Horseback riding is another excellent means by which to correct this defect.

But all this will be of no avail if the patient persists in her inclination to bend over during the course of household pursuits. To effect a rapid cure the back must be held perfectly erect while reading, sewing or eating. One indulgence of the old easy habit of slouching over makes it all the harder to reform. When sleeping a hard mattress should be used by the woman with bowed shoulders, and at the most one pillow may be allowed. The cure will be much hastened, however, if no pillows are used.

The Girl a Man Likes Best.

She is neither pretty nor plain, but she is charming. Her clothes portray her individuality and are a part of herself. There is no clashing tone in the scheme of color, and her attire is always suitable to the occasion.

This particular girl is never obtrusive. She can listen with interest to the conversation of her companion, but can, if necessary, converse brightly upon various topics of interest. A shy man is quite at his ease with her, and a clever man appreciates an intelligent companion.

This girl makes a point of studying human nature, and she is well rewarded for her trouble, for the more she realizes the many trials and sorrows of life the greater is her sympathy with human beings.

And the cultivation of compassion and loving kindness is probably the secret of her power of fascination.

People realize instinctively the influence of sympathy and will equally respond to sincere expressions of friendship.

The average man seeks a helpmate in his wife. He has visions of a gentle, loving influence in his home and also an inspiring, encouraging personality who will cheer him on the gloomy days and delight in his success. He appreciates a girl with taste, who will grace the head of his table and who is sufficiently clever to order his home in an intelligent manner. He is proud of her accomplishments, but they are secondary objects of interest so far as his general happiness is concerned.

Beauty is not the all important factor. Indeed, good looks are occasionally a doubtful asset, for the frivolity and foolishness of pretty women have almost become proverbial.

Sympathy, tact and unselfishness are among the chief weapons of the girl whose fascinations attract men.

Advice About Advice.

The best advice that can be given probably is: Take all the advice you can get and then do as you please. The successful person, or the one whom the crowd counts successful, is being constantly besieged with applications for advice how to succeed. He is generally incapable of giving it.

The same advice, outside of a few maxims generally applicable, is seldom good for two persons.

Advice, as a rule, is cheap and about as valuable as most cheap things. To be constantly following advice without stopping to consider its source is the plain mark of weakness. The person of power is the one who neither gives nor takes advice in generous quantities.

The world would be better off if advice were much less plentiful. Then perhaps its quality might rise in proportion to its scarcity.

The Lamp of Love.

Wisdom is the lamp of love, and love is the oil of the lamp. Love, sinking deeper, grows wiser, and wisdom that springs up aloft comes ever nearer to love.

If you love you must needs become wise; be wise and you surely shall love. Nor can any one love with the veritable love but his love must make him better, and to grow better is but to grow wiser.

There is not a man in the world but something improves in his soul from the moment he loves, and that though his love be but vulgar. And those in whom love never dies must needs continue to love as their souls grow nobler and nobler.

Love is the food of wisdom, wisdom the food of love, a circle within which those who love clasp the hands of those who are wise.—Maurice Maeterlinck.

Silver and Polished Articles.

Silver and polished articles can easily be cleaned if washed in warm water to which has been added one teaspoonful of ammonia to each cupful of water.

To clean the kitchen sink, wash it thoroughly with ammonia and warm water.

If common sulphate of iron be dissolved in the proportion of one pound to four gallons of water and poured over the sink three or four times, offensive smells will be completely destroyed.

Turpentine gives a fine polish to tinware and is also efficacious in cleaning bath enamel which has been discolored.

Copper should be cleaned with a lemon from which the juice has been squeezed. Dip the lemon in salt, wash and polish with a clean, soft cloth.

A Simple Cleaning Process.

Many of us embroider linen or lawn shirt waists or linen centerpieces and doilies for our friends. Many of us, too, though naturally neat, will find our work soiled before it is finished. But if one desires to make up the material or give it to a friend without washing it may be made perfectly clean by sprinkling thickly with French chalk and rolling up for a few days. The chalk may then be easily shaken out and an immaculate gift presented without destroying the original finish of the fabric. I know from experience that this is as efficacious as it is simple.—Harper's Bazar.

Marriage In India.

In India, with its teeming and poverty stricken myriads, parents often find it no easy task to marry off their daughters, for a wife has to be bought by the suitor. Widows are cheap, and when a father finds his daughter getting on in years he makes a widow of her by the simple process of marrying her to a bunch of flowers! When the flowers are dead she is technically a widow and can be offered at a bargain price.

Youthful Anxiety.

The baby was slow about talking, and his aunt was deploring that fact. Four-year-old Elizabeth listened anxiously.

"Oh, mother," she ventured at length, "do you think he'll grow up English? We couldn't any of us understand him if he turned out to be French!"—Lippincott's.

A woman who does not sleep soundly is in danger of a nervous breakdown. A woman who finds herself weakening in nerve and strength must rest. This rest must be systematic, not spasmodic. She must break up the accustomed routine of her work, though she need not give up all work. She must do all things moderately. She must rise late and retire early.

When the brass tops on kerosene lamps get loose, try melted alum for holding them in place. Alum must be melted over an intense heat, and it is excellent for mending purposes.

A SENSATIONAL ARRAIGNMENT IN POLICE COURT YESTERDAY

Joseph Lavasseur, Jr., Taken Into Custody on the Charge of Perjury—Swore He Didn't Sell Liquor, Witnesses Stated He Did—Bail Fixed at $2000.

At the conclusion of the Stewart vs. Calcutt Brewing Co. case, Joseph Lavasseur, Jr., the owner of the stand which figured so prominently in the case, was arraigned on a charge of perjury. The evidence against the prisoner appears very strong and he would not plead until he had conferred with his counsel. Bail of $2,000 was allowed, $1,000 from himself and two sureties of $500 each.

It was on the strength of the evidence given by the young men who testified in the case against the Calcutt Brewing and Malting Company that the information was sworn against Lavasseur.

The prisoner himself was to have given evidence and was in the Council Chamber while the other witnesses were testifying.

When the Chief had heard what they had said concerning buying liquor at the booth kept by Lavasseur down the river, he slipped down stairs and got the necessary papers which Police Magistrate Dumble filled out. Lavasseur was told to take the prisoner's box and the charge against him was read by the Magistrate. He seemed completely astounded and his sudden arraignment caused quite a flutter of excitement in the court room.

In a former case in which the prisoner was charged with illicit dealing in liquor by selling it at the booth down the river, he denied in the witness box that he was guilty of doing so and said he simply secured lager for persons who rented his boats of which he stated he had six for hire. They paid him the regular price for it, he said, and he bought from the Calcutt Company without any profit, but simply as a matter of accommodation to those who rented his boats. So when it was sworn in police court yesterday that lager had been bought at his stand by the bottle, the charge of perjury was laid.

FINISH THE CANAL PUSH THE WORK

Minister of Railways and Canals Says---The Government is Committed to It---So Far as I am Concerned it Will be Pressed to Completion.

Last evening the Council Chamber was filled by citizens gathered to see and hear what the Hon. Mr. Graham, Minister of Railways and Canals would say with reference to the Trent Valley Canal and its possible and probable completion. The Minister arrived in the city during the afternoon and was accompanied by his private secretary, Mr. Robertson, and by Mr. M. J. Butler, Chief Engineer of the Department. The Minister is on a visit of inspection over the waters of the Canal, and connecting lakes to the north going as far as Orillia. On Friday morning the party will be taken by Superintendent McClellan in the Government boat to Fenelon Falls, and on Saturday the trip will be continued to Orillia. From that point the Minister will return to the Capital by rail.

Mayor Rush presided at the meeting. He read a very brief address of welcome, voicing the acknowledgements of the supporters of the canal citizens at large, and of all interested in its early completion and called on several local men to make remarks.

Mr. W. H. Meldrum, who being a miller and manufacturer of cereals referred to the importance of the canal from that point of view, and contrasted the freight rates charged to Montreal from points that had water connection as compared with the rates obtainable by those which were not on lines of connection by water. He referred to the work done by the Government in conserving the waters in the back country, ensuring a supply for power purposes in the dry season. He claimed that pledges made by the Prime Minister were being fulfilled, as they should be to meet the expectations of the people. The press, the people of the district were all of one mind—that the canal should be completed, and that it would prove to be a large factor in the transportation problem now before the country.

Mr. W. H. Moore said that in coming here the Minister would see the most progressive city in the Dominion. He briefly reviewed the history of the canal and its progress. No one party could claim all credit for what had been accomplished. The work of those who had laboured, such as the late George Hilliard and Mr. John Carnegie, had borne fruit. The Government was doing well—they might do better. The facilities were needed to move the western crops. Finish the canal and it would be better than the Erie, even after the States had spent one hundred millions in rebuilding it. No one who looked at the Trent Canal and its future usefulness could deny it as a great national work.

Mr. D. W. Dumble was glad to say that on welcoming the Minister they all greeted one who came as one having authority. We had all lived and worked in hope and trusted to see that hope realized. The call of the west was that the canal should be forced through, to help in moving the crops. The canal was not a canal though so called, but a chain of lakes connected. There was no limit to the capacity in season to handle traffic and no sa safety. One mill at our doors required 6,000,000 bushels of grain to keep it going. It sent away two trains of product per day. One manufactory at Lakefield forwarded each day a train load of cement. The canal had been dammed by faint praise, but he hoped that the Minister, seeing would believe and push on the work to completion.

Mr. W. H. Denham Superintendent for the Quaker Oats Company, and manager of their large interests here, was the next speaker. Being thoroughly practical, the closest attention was given to his remarks. He prefaced what he wished to say by reading six or seven reasons for the building of the canal and which are printed in the work issued by the Trent Valley Canal Association in support of the scheme and added some valuable comment. The mill turned out 1,000 barrels of flour and 1,800 barrels of oat products per day. This meant that a very large quantity of grains had to come in and that a large product go out. Time and again they had been hampered because they could not get in supplies in sufficient quantity and could not send out the product to free the mill. These occurrences not only stopped production but they entailed loss to the company, and what was equally serious loss to the people employed in the mill by ceasing work. So that lack of transportation worked harm to our citizens and loss of employment. It was one thing to increase the capacity of a works or an institution but most critical that at the same time the facilities were provided to bring in the raw material and get rid of the finished product. Largely grain came from the west. Most largely the product had to find the port of Montreal. Finish the canal, open both ends and material, coal and supplies would all be accessible. We had sent deputation after deputation to Ottawa. These accomplished something, but cost money. It seemed a sensible thing to do to bring Ottawa to the canal in the person of the Minister. He did not believe that the Minister could go over the route of the canal as he proposed to do, and fail to know and understand that the completion must come and that speedily.

Mr. R. R. Hall, M.P., said that he had been heard of so often on the subject that what he might say would not be fresh. $750,000 had been placed in the estimates for this year's work, and it was being expended while earlier appropriations were also being put to use. He outlined what had been done to bring the waters of the district under the control of the Dominion Government, with the object of increased regulation and conservation. He believed that the benefits were apparent, and would be increasingly seen in that the waters were let down for use when most needed. He hoped to see $2,000,000 spent next year on the canal, and hoped to see the early completion of the work.

Mr. T. E. Bradburn, M.P.P., and Alderman George E. Elliott spoke briefly in support of the interests of the canal.

Hon. Mr. Graham was cheered on rising. He complimented the city on its progress, especially on the beautiful parks and said that we should ever keep green the memory of those whose liberality provided these breathing places for the people. He thought the city of Peterborough in a very favorable position for, while it might not have all the advantages that it wished in transportation it had cheap and abundant power. That should largely remove the handicap—if there was one. Transportation was certainly the vital question of the day, and for the country. To make a country prosperous three things were needed: a good country, good natural resources and ample transportation. From producer to consumer by the shortest route and at lowest expense was the necessity. But this should work both ways and when the barges on the canal went loaded from the West to the East it was vital that they should move back from East to West carrying freight and not empty. To secure transportation costs money, not dribblets, but whole chunks. Canada had paid out much, but he believed it a good investment. Canada had invested a billion dollars in building railways and was now building more. Last year we had one railway from coast to coast. This year the G.T.P. will assist in bringing out the grain, as far as Winnipeg, at least. Two lines of railway across the continent would not suffice, and in a year or two we should require and have three. Canada had spent $120,000,000 on canals and the betterment of her waterways. Spend more and we will get more betterment. The Trent Canal would cost about $5,000,000 when finished. This year nearly $1,000,000 was going into the work as fast as it could be wisely expended. (Applause.) It was gratifying, he observed, to find an audience applauding large expenditures but he trusted that the object in view condoned the offense. So far as he was concerned he could assure the people that the work would be pushed to completion and as far as the Government was concerned it was committed to finish the undertaking. He could say that in 10 years the tonnage passing through the Canadian canals had increased over 623 per cent. Last year's tonnage was double that of the year before. Canals were healthy regulators of freights not only in season, but the year found. He urged the young men to study their own country, to devote one evening each week to Canada, to learn to realize its resources, its opportunity, and they would learn there was no use in leaving it to find a better, for a better did not exist. Canada was only just beginning to develop and a pregnant source of development was in power to turn the wheels of industry. He outlined some of the difficulties the department had met with in placing power on the market, and claimed that the object in view was to make power available but to get back some portion of its value to assist in maintenance. A feature of the completing of the canal would be the impetus given to the tourist traffic. In all the continent there was nothing to be found better and more beautiful than the district bordering on the inland lakes connected by the Trent Canal. He was familiar with it and he was charmed. The State of Maine claimed to have received over $1,600,000 from tourists during the season of 1907, and Maine had nothing nearly so beautiful as the Midland district could offer.

He again made renewed expression of his intention of pushing the completion of the work and assured the meeting that the Government would not stop short of the completion of the canal.

Mayor Rush briefly thanked the Minister for his interesting address and for the assurances given after which the meeting closed.

Many citizens went forward and joined in congratulations to Hon. Mr. Graham.

3 COMIC OPERA SELECTIONS

King Dodo, Yankee Consul and Florodora Request Numbers at To-night's Band Concert

The concert to be given by the 57th band tonight at Victoria Park, should be a very interesting one as a programme of much variety and merit has been selected.

Among the numbers the selections from three comic operas, King Dodo, Yankee Consul and Florodora will be played. They are among the "request numbers" asked for, for the last concert but which could not be played owing to the programme being full at the time they were received.

The programme for tonight is as follows:

March, Flying Squadron.
Selection—Request—King Dodo.
Euphonium solo with variations.—Tramp, Tramp, by Bandsman Cronk.
Song—New—Some one that I know and you know too
Intermezzo—New—Topeka.
Sacred march—Domineale.
Selection—Request—Yankee Consul
Serenade—Sizilietta.
Selection—Request—Florodora.
God Save the King.

THIEF GOT FIVE KEGS OF LAGER

Entered the Cellar of Hotel in Havelock—A Clue to Guilty Party

Havelock, Aug. 20.
Special to the Review.

Some sneak thief entered the cellar of Mr. Mike McNichol, who conducts an hotel at the west end of the town on Wednesday night, some time after 12 o'clock and five kegs of lager and seven pounds of butter were stolen.

The thief as yet has not been detected, but it is understood that the authorities have a good clue as to who the guilty party was.

POLITICAL NOTES

Mr. J. R. Stratton was in attendance at the Anglican Church social at Hall's Glen last evening.

Mr. J. A. Sexsmith paid a visit to Lakefield and Peterborough yesterday.

Mr. Finlay, M.P., is confident of re-election in East Peterborough.

Hon. George P. Graham was organizer of Eastern Ontario when Lott, Sibley and Co. devised and executed the sliding-seat ballot-boxes which were afterwards thrown in the lake at Belleville but were recovered. Some of these latter 'enthusiasts' are now 'doing time.' This incident greatly helped to 'prejudice' the electorate against the late Ross Government.

MEN REFUSED TO DRAW WAGES IN ORDER TO REMAIN EMPLOYES

Winnpeg Strikers Offer to Patrol Company's Premises—They Are Afraid of Lawless Foreign Element Following in Their Wake.

Montreal, Aug. 22.—Both sides are now claiming that the C. P. R. strike is going their way. A small number of strikers returned to work yesterday, and a hundred more mechanics were secured by the company.

But the main body of strikers affirm they are not worried by such developments and that they still control the situation.

The company yesterday issued notices to the men to call and draw their August pay. The union, however, instructed the men not to do so, and most of them obeyed the orders. This seems to have been done to support the claim that as long as the men are on the pay lists they are employes of the company.

The company alleges the shops now have enough car men, but that they require a number of metal workers.

The company announces that the strike is not interfering with the running of trains, and they do not anticipate any trouble in moving the harvest crop.

Bell Hardie, the leader of the C.P.R. strikers, announces that a number of the brass workers at the Angus shops had joined the ranks of the strikers.

Winnipeg, Aug. 22.—There is talk of suppressing the Socialist meetings, arranged for the benefit of the strikers, as the result of the discovery of the plot to dynamite the C. P. R. shops. Leaders of the strike fear their sympathizers among the foreign element much more than they do their own men, whom they have well in hand.

The men are declaring their willingness to patrol the company's property day and night in order to protect it from violence.

The strikers made a statement yesterday, claiming that "Passenger trains are invariably arriving from one to nine hours late, and are being run without proper inspection and in some instances without water for passengers to drink. Shippers, they say, are complaining of live stock and freight being unnecessarily delayed in transit, an instance being cited of a car of horses being on the road for five days and six nights coming from Sudbury, Ont., to Winnipeg.

"The company," according to the mechanics, "are making strenuous efforts to secure men. The office of the superintendent of motive power has been turned into an employment office and a lunch counter, and all available men are hired, fed and then whisked away to the shops on motor cars in charge of detectives."

Says Secretary McVety: "The strikers have the situation well in hand and on one occasion have protected the company's property from lawless foreign sympathizers, who had made arrangements to burn part of the works."

WILL WED TEN YEAR OLD GIRL

Aged Minister Chose Novel Way Way of Making Child His Heir.

Ellicott City, Md., Aug. 22.—A license was issued yesterday for the marriage of Rev. George S. Fitzhugh, aged 67 years, to Lulu V. Frazier, a girl 10 years old.

The proposed marriage has not taken place, however, Mr. Fitzhugh having suffered a severe attack of heart disease after obtaining the license, and he is now said to be critically ill in South Baltimore. Mr. Fitzhugh is understood to be an Episcopal clergyman of Virginia, of which state the little girl is also a native. When the license was secured a necessary letter of assent from the girl's mother was exhibited to the clerk.

The explanation of the peculiar case is said to be that Rev. Mr. Fitzhugh desired to make little Miss Frazier his heiress, and that his object cannot be attained to his satisfaction by the adoption of the child.

Gazette Announcements.

Ottawa, Aug. 22.—The Canada Gazette announces that morphine and opium preparations now come under the patent medicine act.

Some materials, chiefly brass and steel rods, used for manufacturing purposes, are put on the free list till further notice.

The winding up order of the Ontario Bank will be made Sept. 16 in Toronto.

W. J. Longworthy, Port Arthur, will be deputy judge of the Thunder Bay district during the absence of Judge O'Leary.

Priests Shut Out.

Brockville, Aug. 22.—The United States immigration inspector here stopped five priests from crossing to the other side. They came from Geru Kurdestan, Asiatic Turkey, and were begging alms.

All were clothed in priestly robes much the worse for wear, and were nearly penniless.

PRESENTED WITH TWO ADDRESSES

Hon. Geo. P. Graham and Party Have Arrived at Fenelon Falls

Word has been received in the city that the "Bessie Butler" with the Hon. Geo. P. Graham and party, on board, had arrived at Fenelon Falls. At Young's Point, the minister was received by a number of residents and was presented with an address. At Bobcaygeon he was again presented with an appreciative address. To both of them he replied, thanking the people for their hearty reception.

COMMENCES HIS DUTIES TO-MORROW

Rev. W. C. Riddiford the New Pastor of Park St. Church Has Arrived

Rev. W. C. Riddiford, the new pastor of Park street Baptist church, has arrived in the city and will commence his duties tomorrow. He was accompanied by his wife and family. They have taken up their residence on Rubidge street. The new minister is a graduate of McMaster University. He came here from Mount Forest and his previous pastorates have been at Toronto, Hamilton and Mount Forest.

WANT TO GRANT RUNNING RIGHTS

Maritime Board of Trade in Wild Meeting Passes Resolution.

Halifax, Aug. 22.—Amid scenes of confusion never before seen at a meeting of the Maritime Board of Trade, in which the charge was made that the meeting had been "packed," the resolution, introduced by the Halifax board, to grant running rights over the Intercolonial to the C. P. R., was adopted yesterday. A motion that the vote be recorded was then put and lost, whereupon F. W. Sumner, a delegate from Moncton, charged that fifteen or twenty men not accredited delegates had voted. This imputation was resented vigorously by the Halifax delegates, but amid demands that he apologize Mr. Sumner reiterated his charges. President Faulkner of the Halifax board exploded them by pointing out that, while Halifax was entitled to fifty-four delegates, only fifteen were present.

Lumber Yards Burning.

Kingston, Aug. 22.—The lumber piles of Isaac Allen, Mississippi, 63 miles north of here, caught fire yesterday afternoon, and a call was sent to Kingston for aid. Mayor Ross ordered four firemen to the scene with steamers and other equipment, and the Kingston & Pembroke Railway ran a special train.

Latest reports say that 200,000 feet of lumber was burned, but the fire is now under control. Mississippi has a population of 300, and the whole town turned out to fight the flames.

Hotel Burns.

Huntsville, Aug. 22.—The Pym Hotel was destroyed by fire yesterday morning, the guests having barely time to escape with their lives.

New Minister at Tangier.

London, Aug. 22.—Reginald Lister, counsellor of the British embassy at Paris, has been appointed Minister at Tangier.

Transatlantic Wireless.

New York, Aug. 22.—Within two years this city will be in wireless telephonic communication with Paris, or such at least is the confident expectation of the De Forest Radio Telephone Co., which has entered into a contract with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. for the use of its new 700-foot tower at No. 1 Madison avenue.

In the Eiffel Tower in Paris, at a height of 930 feet, apparatus differing slightly from that used in the United States will receive the vibrations.

Bride Kills Herself.

Heringsdorf, Prussia, Aug. 22.—The bride of a week of Prof. Rudolph Spitzer of Sternberg, Mecklenberg Schwerin, yesterday threw herself from the top of the Bismarck tower here, falling 1,200 feet to the bottom of the cliffs, upon which the tower is built. The couple came here on their honeymoon.

The woman left a note addressed to her husband asking his forgiveness and requesting that he marry another woman with whom he could be more happy.

Stolen From Under Pillow.

Chatham, Aug. 22.—While Frank Ouellette, C. P. R. agent at Stoney Point, slept Thursday night someone walked off with $568 of the company's money, which was under his pillow.

Million Dollar Coal Co.

Vancouver, Aug. 22.—D. C. Corbin, railway magnate of Spokane, is head of a new coal company with a capital of a million dollars, to work properties in East Kootenay.

Wheat Safe Now.

Winnipeg, Aug. 22.—Crop reports continue to come in of a very favorable character.

LIQUOR GALORE AT ELECTION

Bayne Trial Shows That Spirits Were Distributed in Colchester.

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 22.—The trial for alleged bribery of A. R. Bayne, in connection with the last Federal election in Colchester, N. S., has resulted in some racy evidence. It would appear that Bayne was quite free in the distribution of liquor, but it has not been shown yet that he was acting on behalf of John Stanfield, M. P.

John Jamieson, a mail driver, said Bayne had given him a drink and $5. Nothing was said as to what it was for, but witness had expected it. They had been talking election. One man said there was a two-gallon keg in his barn on election day; another that a basketful of whisky had been left on his doorstep the night before the election.

The case was adjourned for a week, the prosecution claiming it could not find important witnesses wanted.

Boy Drowns.

St. Catharines, Aug. 22.—The six-year-old son of William Cornish was playing on a bridge crossing the mill race at the Thorold road, yesterday afternoon, and fell into the water. The boy was soon missed and a search was made for him by his mother. Word soon came to her that the lad had been found against the grates at the top of the flume at the Packard Works and the grief-stricken woman went to the spot, almost a mile away, and identified the boy.

Was Fugitive From Justice.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 22.—John P. Reid, who committed suicide in London, England, Thursday, was a fugitive from justice here, having been indicted for assault on his own daughter. He was a wealthy contractor and fled the country after his indictment.

Murray Made President.

Regina, Sask., Aug. 22.—At a meeting of the board of governors of the University of Saskatchewan held here yesterday Prof. Walter C. Murray of Dalhousie University, Halifax, was unanimously chosen president of the institution.

WHOLE FAMILY WAS WIPED OUT

Russian Revolutionists Take Terrible Revenge on Suspected Traitors.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 22.—News has reached this city of a terrible vengeance taken by the revolutionists in Ekaterinoslav Province, upon a Jewish family named Edelstein, who were accused of giving information to the authorities.

They visited the Edelstein house and threw bombs through the windows. They then opened on the members of the family with revolvers and shot to death the father, a daughter, a woman guest and her child. The mother, a son-in-law and two grandsons were severely wounded. In the course of a couple of hours the victims who were still alive had been conveyed to a hospital. Not satisfied with their vengeance the revolutionists now descended upon the hospital and shot the mother and son to death.

Jewels Stolen.

New York, Aug. 22.—Jewels valued at more than $50,000 have been stolen from a secret treasure room in the mansion of Commodore Frederick G. Bourne at Oakdale, Long Island. The treasure room was built when the mansion was erected, and its existence was only known to the family.

Murdered Man Identified.

Camden, N. J., Aug. 22.—Positive identification of the body of the man who was found in an old trunk in a ravine near here by a party of picnickers, as that of Soloman J. Rosenbloom, a wealthy merchant of Windber, Somerset County, Pennsylvania, was established yesterday.

Well Guarded.

Toronto, Aug. 22.—The Turkish Minister of Justice and his family, escorted by three United States secret service officers, passed through Toronto from the Falls Thursday evening en route to Montreal.

King Opened Croquet Lawn.

Marienbad, Aug. 22.—King Edward officially opened the new croquet lawn here Thursday and played a game with Anthony Drexel of Philadelphia.

ACCIDENT AT A FUNERAL CAUSES PANIC IN CROWD

Burial of Late Chief Clark and Sergt. Cockburn Attended by Unfortunate Incident in Which One Woman is Badly Gashed and Many Trampled Upon.

London, Ont., Aug. 22.—While the funeral of the London fire victims was passing the debris where they met their death a team of horses attached to one of the hacks took fright and shied towards the crowd, causing a small panic in which many fainted, others were trampled on, baby buggies tipped over, windows broken and many people had their clothes destroyed. Three sustained bad cuts in the head. What was a minute before a quiet crowd gazing sorrowfully as the remains of the late chief and sergeant passed by turned into a shrieking, running mass of humanity which extended from Ridout to Wellington streets, a distance of three blocks. In the mad rush people ran down the side streets and some into stores, hallways, stairways, and many who could not get away were carried off their feet to the pavements, where they were trampled on. Mrs. Gale of 748 Grey street was standing near the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets, and in the mad rush she was knocked down and received a bad gash in the back of the head. Mrs. W. E. Davis, who was standing on the corner of Talbot and Dundas streets when the rush came, managed to keep her feet till an aged lady standing near her was carried off her feet, and while in the act of helping her to arise Mrs. Davis was thrown heavily to the pavement.

The funeral services at Chief Clark's home was conducted by Rev. A. J. Vining of the Talbot Street Baptist Church, who referred feelingly to the splendid devotion to duty of the dead chief.

Rev. Canon Dann of St. Paul's Cathedral, assisted by Rev. G. N. Hazen of the Centennial Methodist Church, conducted the services at Sergt. Cockburn's home, after which the two corteges met and proceeded down Dundas street to Mount Pleasant cemetery.

The following fire chiefs attended the funeral: Thompson, Toronto; Ten Eyck, Hamilton; Henderson, St. Thomas; Pritchard, Chatham; Keyes, Galt, and Myer, Stratford.

SIX RIOTERS WERE INDICTED

Springfield Grand Jury Catches Half-a-Dozen.

Springfield, Ills., Aug. 22.—Six alleged rioters have been caught in the grand jury net here. The inquisitorial body last night returned indictments against the six persons, the documents charging twenty separate offences. All were predicated upon the trouble at Loper's restaurant, and were identical with those charged against Kate Howard in the indictments returned yesterday. Judge Creighton fixed the bail at $3,000 for each indictment.

The small towns of the county continue to be danger spots. At Buffalo, a village 15 miles from here, the following notice has been posted at the inter-urban trolley line station: "All niggers are wanted out of town by Monday, 12 noon sharp." It was signed "Buffalo Sharpshooters."

Short Work of Legacy.

Hamilton, Aug. 22.—A despatch from Port Huron says that John J. B. Smith, a Hamilton youth arrested on the charge of smuggling diamonds into the United States, will be released in a few days, and his mother will make an effort to have him placed in an asylum. It is alleged that he spent $1,500 of a $2,400 legacy in ten days.

Congo Treaty Adopted.

Brussels, Aug. 21.—After several months of bitter struggle, the Chamber of Deputies yesterday adopted the Congo annexation treaty by 83 votes to 55, and, though yesterday's action probably will insure the solution of the great Congo problem, there still remains open the question of Belgium's financial responsibility.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

A quartette of Kingston boys are marooned on Horseshoe Island. The lake has been so rough that they dare not venture off in their small boat. Friends may charter a boat to rescue them.

Detective Newton of Toronto left for Chatham yesterday to get Philip J. Osborne, who surrendered himself there for theft of $80 from White Bros., clothiers, West Queen street, Toronto.

Labor Day, September 7th.

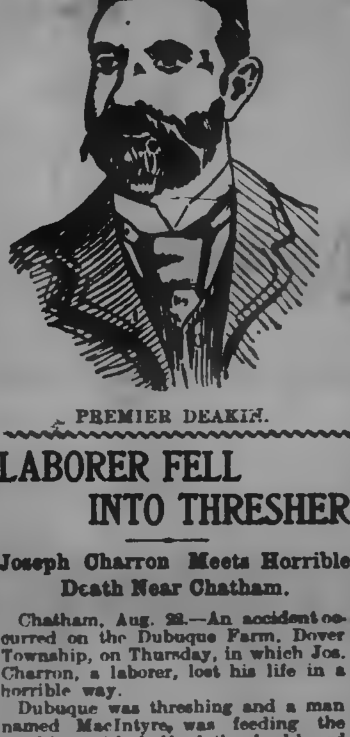
THE UNITED STATES FLEET WELCOMED BY AUSTRALIANS

Half a Million Persons Witness Arrival of Spuadron and City is Magnificently Decorated for the Occasion—Australia Will Have Similar Navy.

Sydney, N. S. W., Aug. 22.—Amid scenes of enthusiasm rarely if ever before equalled in an Australian city, Rear-Admirals Sperry, Schraeder, Wainwright and Emory, with their staffs and 3,000 bluejackets and marines of the American fleet, made their first official landing on Australian soil yesterday, and the Australian-American entente was resumed where it left off at Auckland, New Zealand.

Rear-Admiral Sperry and the accompanying officers of the American warships landed yesterday morning at Farm Cove, where they were formally received by Lord Northcote, the Governor-General; Alfred Deakin, Premier of the Commonwealth; the lord mayor of Sydney and the aldermen and the principal officials of New South Wales. An enormous crowd of sightseers thronged the landing and enthusiastically cheered the visitors.

Formality was laid aside in the official welcome, the authorities of Sydney and the Commonwealth greeting the visitors with every expression of kinship and good-will, voicing the unanimous sentiment in Australia that American and British interests are identical in the Pacific.



PREMIER DEAKIN.

Following the big parade there was a public reception to the officers and men of the fleet in the Domain after luncheon was served, both of which functions were attended by great throngs of residents eager to show their friendship for the visitors.

The local press reflects the general feeling in Sydney that American sea power aids the security of Australasian interests in the Pacific.

It is estimated that the crowds witnessing the fleet's arrival and thronging the streets here exceeded 500,000. It is no exaggeration to say that the reception exceeds anything in the history of the fleet's world cruise, excelling even the welcome at San Francisco.

The state banquet given by Sir Harry Rawson in the town hall was a brilliant function. There were upwards of 1,000 guests, and the balconies were thronged with ladies. C. G. Wade, the Premier of New South Wales, presided. Alfred Deakin, the Prime Minister of the Commonwealth, made a striking address of welcome.

London, Aug. 22.—(C. A. P.)—A Melbourne cable says that Premier Deakin in welcoming the American fleet, said Australians lived in the hope that from their own shores some day would sail a fleet not unworthy to compare with the magnificent American squadron.

Big Timber Deals.

Vancouver, Aug. 22.—New York capitalists have purchased 16,000 acres of cedar timber limits on the northeast side of Vancouver Island. They will pay $300,000 and will establish a logging camp this fall and may erect a sawmill.

Another lumber deal yesterday was that of James and Somerville of Memphis, Tenn., who have purchased three tracts aggregating 20,000 acres between Jervis Inlet and Grief Point. The deal aggregates about $400,000.

LABORER FELL INTO THRESHER

Joseph Charron Meets Horrible Death Near Chatham.

Chatham, Aug. 22.—An accident occurred on the Dubuque Farm, Dover Township, on Thursday, in which Jos. Charron, a laborer, lost his life in a horrible way.

Dubuque was threshing and a man named MacIntyre, was feeding the machine with half of the feed-board closed down. Charron got on top of the machine and began sweeping off the chaff. He got too near the feed-board and the jarring of the machine caused his foot to slip and he fell into the feed hole. He was dragged into the cylinder and killed.

Morine Faces Fielding.

Shelburne, N. S., Aug. 22.—Hon. A. B. Morine, K. C., of Toronto, was nominated by a large and enthusiastic Conservative convention to contest the constituency of Queen's and Shelburne at the Dominion elections.

That is Hon. Mr. Fielding's riding, and as Mr. Morine is a Queen's County boy, and popular, the contest will be keen. Mr. Morine has been living in Toronto for two years.

Mr. Morine was present and accepted the nomination. He said that while Mr. Fielding was an honest man, as far as he knew, he found fault with him because he had consented to every bad job of the Government, and also because of his record as Minister of Finance.

Holland Awaits Report.

The Hague, Aug. 22.—Holland's action against Venezuela and the text of her note to President Castro will depend largely upon the reports M. de Reus, former Dutch Minister to Venezuela, who recently was expelled by President Castro, makes to the Government. He is expected to arrive here next Monday. M. Van Swinderne, Minister of Foreign Affairs, will consult with M. de Reus before the Government takes further steps in the matter. The ex-Minister's arrival is eagerly awaited here.

Toronto Pays to Cure Rabies.

Toronto, Aug. 22.—Mrs. E. Sherwin, who was terribly bitten by a pet terrier, since discovered to have been seized with rabies, left yesterday afternoon for New York, where she will be treated at the Pasteur Institute in the hope that hydrophobia might be prevented.

Mrs. Shewin's relatives were unable to send her to New York and in order that her life might be saved the city bore the expense.

Taft May Tour.

Hot Springs, Va., Aug. 22.—It developed yesterday that it is by no means impossible that the Republic Presidential candidate may alter his program and, instead of remaining in his home city, Cincinnati, throughout September and October, make a speaking tour of at least some of the doubtful states.

Bubonic Plague at 'Frisco.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 22.—News reached the health department yesterday that ten new cases of "bubonic plague" have broken out in San Francisco during the past week. Astoria and other American towns have established an indefinite quarantine against San Francisco.

MAYOR PAYETTE IS HONORED

Chief Magistrate of Montreal is Made Knight of Legion of Honor.

Montreal, Aug. 22.—At the hands of M. De Loynes, consul-general of France, Mayor Louis Payette received yesterday morning the insignia of the Knight of the Legion of Honor.

The function was attended by a large number of aldermen. M. De Loynes was accompanied by Baron d'Halewyn, vice-consul.

Yesterday afternoon Louis Herbette, the official delegate from France to the Quebec celebration, was entertained by Mayor Payette at the City Hall and congratulatory addresses were made on both sides.

Breach of the Factory Act.

Brantford, Aug. 22.—Provincial Factory Inspector Kelland has laid a charge against Henry Benson, whose son, 13 years old, works at the Massey-Harris factory. When the lad entered the shop his father swore he was born in November, 1893, whereas the birth registration is 1894.

Crown Attorney Wilkes will press the charge.

Moving Horns Wants Rights.

London, Aug. 22.—(C. A. P.)—The Mohawk hereditary Chief Thanagarineh, otherwise Moving Horns, an Ontario herbalist, disappointed in his attempt to obtain the ear of the Privy Council respecting the Medical Association's refusal to allow him to heal, says it has cost him $3,000 so far, but he cannot rest until he gets his rights.

Investigation Completed.

Ottawa, Aug. 22.—W. L. Mackenzie King, Deputy Minister of Labor, has completed his enquiry into the disputes which have arisen between the Canadian cotton manufacturers in the Province of Quebec and their employes. Wages had, he found, also been reduced in the United States centres and factories were on short time.

Murray Made President.

Regina, Sask., Aug. 22.—At a meeting of the board of governors of the University of Saskatchewan held here yesterday Prof. Walter C. Murray of Dalhousie University, Halifax, was unanimously chosen president of the institution.

Morine Faces Fielding.

Shelburne, N. S., Aug. 22.—Hon. A. B. Morine, K. C., of Toronto, was nominated by a large and enthusiastic Conservative convention to contest the constituency of Queen's and Shelburne at the Dominion elections.

Negro Lynched.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 22.—Anthony Davis, a negro non-union miner, whose house was dynamited at Pratt City, Wednesday night, was lynched last night by a mob of union miners near Pratt City.

First Westward G. T. P. Train.

Winnipeg, Aug. 22.—The first unofficial passenger train to [illegible] over the G. T. P. westward [illegible] Portage la Prairie, with [illegible] one [illegible].

NOT A WORD

Not a word of sympathy does the Conservative party get from its Liberal rivals with respect to the alleged improper conduct of some Conservative heelers at the Colchester election in Nova Scotia. If it is true it is sad. We join with those who would join with us in putting down similar work and in showing the world that to ally ourselves with blackguards is not our highest political ambition. The tu quoque reference is too frequently employed. If Colchester has offended cut it off. We say the same in its case as we have said in the hundred and one Liberal instances that have come under our notice in a lurid past.

WHAT NEXT?

A case in a New York hospital is exciting general comment. Transfusion of another individual's blood has produced transfusion also of that person's characteristics and ideas. This will produce confusion also, some will think. It is only on this basis however, that we can account for a variety of things. Human inconsistency must be largely traceable to this cause, for if ideas and characteristics are transfusible by blood so also must they be by other means. It is possible that many cases of conjugal infelicity are due to this cause. There is one consolation, however, it is impossible for the wrong idea to be conveyed. It must be transfused as it existed in the original or not at all. Now it is very seldom that one man conveys to another the wrong telepathic information regarding a "wet." It is seldom that we hear of two men bringing up against a counter with two wholly different and irreconcilable ideas. No word may have passed, yet the idea remains. How is it? The accuracy of it is scientific and can be explained on no other ground. But hold! If a pig's blood is transfused, will a man become a pig? If so, it will also explain much. It accounts likewise, for the showy instincts of women who wear birds' feathers. Wearing the wing of a bird of paradise would give the idea to the wearer that she is an angel. Whereas the whole business would be a delusion. She might only be a fool like the rest of us. The old method of spanking, too, was after all the feeling it gave the culprit at first hand and correctly the idea which the irate father wished to convey. His sorrow at being compelled to do it, which we have heard so much about at various times bursts from the victim's eyes in the form of tears. These were formerly supposed to be an evidence of pain, real or sham pain, but we now know that it was the evidence of thoughts not worn and certainly not hoped for. A man strikes another in the street or in the mouth, or perhaps both. What for? It is nature's way of conveying an idea. It is called a 'misunderstanding,' but as a matter of fact, there is no misunderstanding about it. It is quite well understood. In fact everything can be explained if we mortals could only wait long enough—except, perhaps, the Romaine street sewer.

CROSSING THE SCENT

"Among the signs that Liberal leaders are looking for a general Parliamentary election is the reappearance in the newspapers of this province of statements and arguments to show that the Conservatives persecute Sir Wilfrid Laurier because he is of French descent and a Catholic, and that the only way to counteract the villainy is for all French-speaking and Catholic voters to mark their ballots for Liberal candidates. The timber limit, grazing lease, town site and general land grafters are understood to attach much importance to this phase of their party's campaign."—Montreal Gazette.

The Globe of August 20th quotes approvingly our editorial on Public Opinion in Canada in which we remark that "sensible people of all races and creeds have learned to trust each other." We believe that sentiment will meet with general approval. It is high time, however, that the Liberal press ceased trying to unload other sentiments on our backs.

AN ICE-BREAKER

The Montcalm was an ice-breaker. She is also Sir Wilfrid's record-breaker. What excuse can there be for the list we give below:—

The Montcalm of the Marine service of Canada is officially described as "a screw steel ice-breaker." She works at breaking ice on the St. Lawrence. Her dining-room outfit, largely silver and cut glass, bought from B. J. Coughlin & Co., of Montreal, is described in the Auditor's report for 1904-5 (part P, page 24.) It includes the following;— The cost was $12 758.82.

30 jugs	$58 28
6 dish covers	118 00
2 cruets	15 50
2 pickle frames	15 00
2 jelly frames	13 00
2 coffee pots	46 00
2 tea pots	42 00
4 milk jugs	68 00
4 cream jugs	50 00
2 sugar bowls	54 00
6 salts	15 00
30 napkin rings	22 50
3 fruit stands	148 50
3 butters and knives	19 87
3 ice pitchers	60 00
3 trays	33 00
2 crumb brushes	10 50
2 crumb trays	8 60
3 dozen desserts chased	66 00
3 dozen fish eaters	90 00
2 fish carvers	13 50
22 bread plates and knives	24 50
2 soup tureens	26 25
2 cake baskets	30 25
Afternoon tea, sugar and cream	22 50
2 cheese dishes	32 00
24 nut crackers	27 00
73 forks	49 50
100 spoons	50 25
6 peppers	22 50
4 dish covers	21 02
74 sherry glasses	30 01
72 ruby hock glasses	52 25
70 champagne glasses	42 50
111 tumblers	47 10
Meat and game carvers	39 32
10 dozen spoons	40 00
72 cups and saucers	71 10
12 tea cups	[illegible]
Cases for fish eaters	12 75
Cases for desert knives	10 50
3 toast racks	8 63
6 gravy spoons	9 00

The high price is due to the exactions of those favoured mortals put on the patronage list by the Laurier Government. The patronage list is the invention of the present Government. Will anyone say that Sir Wilfrid does not know that it exists?

EDITORIAL NOTES

Has the Preference made you rich?

Has immigration made you rich? Who is profitting by it?

In the United States the phrase, "It's all over but the shouting," becomes "It is all over but the shooting."

"Papa, what does 'Hon' before a man's name mean?"

"It doesn't mean anything nowadays, my son."—Philadelphia Times.

Hoodlumism is again on the increase. Lakefield has a Redman case. The Nova Scotia harvesters are setting the pace but it may prove to be the pace that kills.

We are warned in eastern towns and cities to look out for the returning immigrants who, on the cessation of work in the West will have to come back to Ontario and fall back on our charity.

A county constable by name Lachlan McBain of Ontario County in possession of a prisoner at Toronto got so drunk that he didn't know where he was. This will have to be considered in Hon. J. J. Foy's new scheme of re-organization of his department.

Mrs. Brown—Is your husband's business growing? Mrs. Smith,—Oh, dear, yes. Why, last week his receipts were so large that he had to have a receiver to take care of them.—Exchange.

This reads like an account of our Dominion revenue.

"The wheat crop this year will be about 102,000,000 bushels," was the answer of Secretary of the Northwest Grain Dealers' Association, Frank O. Fowler, to a question on this return from the Northwest Grain Dealers' excursion through Manitoba and the Territories.—Globe.

Manchester, England, August 19—The Lancashire Federation of Cotton Spinners has decided to reduce the wages of 200,000 operatives five per cent. If the men decline to accept the reduction they will be locked out for a month.

When bad times come and the wolf begins scratching at the door who is the only man to hear him with indifference? The money-lender. Why? Because per centages go up in times of scarcity and down in times of plenty. In other words, Isaac of York, always fattened on the necessities of others. In studying economics and the theory of wages this should be borne in mind.

One train-load of Nova Scotia harvesters seized a respectable woman passengers, disrobed and photographed her, tied cattle and horses to rear of train till dragged to death and broken in pieces, shot an inoffensive Italian at Port William and caused a woman to go out of her mind. The mild treatment of brutes by judges and magistrates will bring on lynching. Humane measures are wasted on such as these.

It is likely that some of the local Conservatives if not the association itself will offer a large reward in the coming contest for information leading to the conviction of those buying or seeking to buy votes for money or other valuable consideration. A reward of $100.00 would be a dangerous thing for crooks to run up against. It is necessary to protect the seller in order to secure his evidence. If a larger reward is necessary it will be forthcoming. To have good honest, hard work, upset by unscrupulous men is disappointing. We suggest to the Liberals that they do the same.

There has been considerable criticism of the Government because of the commutation of the sentence of death passed upon Omeri Rochette, who was found guilty of a peculiarly heinous murder. The reply from the Laurier papers is that the action was no worse than that of the Conservative Government in the case of Valentine Shortis. There may be some justice in the contention, but there is no vindication. The failure in the Shortis case was one of the things that convinced many people the Conservative Government of the day had lost its strength. The failure in the Rochette case will convince many that it is again time for a change.—Montreal Gazette.

ROMANCE IN THE LIFE OF AN ARTIST

Paris, August 21 - Charmed by the beauty of a barefooted Italian girl, whom he saw drawing water from a fountain in Rome, and who reminded him of an old sweetheart whom he had unsuccessfully wooed in the little town of Beddgelart in North Wales, Lewis Niles Roberts, a millionaire artist, of Boston, has just wedded the charmer after her completion of a two years course in a Paris school, whither Roberts sent her that she might be prepared to grace his studio.

Gina Pietra was the maiden name of the young wife.

Five years ago, Roberts, a tall, athletic young man who had inherited the fortune of his father, a rich publisher in Boston engaged quarters at Groat Inn. in Beddgelart, to pursue his art studies and collections amid the quaint North Wales surroundings. In one of his rambles he met a Welsh maid whose dark eyes ensnared him. She lived with her mother on a moor land farm. She was all the mother had, and though Roberts urged his claims and met with a full response from the simple lass, the mother would not give her up. Though it was the greatest sacrifice of her young life, the little girl acceeded to her mother's wishes and refused to marry the "stranger," as her mother called the lovelorn artist and poet.

Roberts left Beddgelart immediately and went to Rome. In one of his wanderings he met Gina. He asked if he might take her photograph. She replied that she allowed no one but her father to make her pictures.

"Is he an artist?" Roberts asked. "I must see him." Gina led the way to a little house in a steep straggling street and there Roberts found the father—an artist in poor circumstances. In a short time he and Gina were betrothed. He sent her to Paris where he had a beautiful house that she might be educated, with the understanding that their wedding would follow the completion of her course. The romantic fulfilment has just taken place and today Gina, the girl wife, is the pet of the elite of the French capital.

LOVE'S WARNING IT HAS LIMITS

Andrew Lefebvre, electric lineman, only loves Rose Branier, of Clarence street, one dollar and fifteen cents worth. Up to yesterday Rose thought Andre loved her a whole city gas tank full but, alas, this infatuation for her disappeared in an instant before the total, hard vision of a $2 bill. Not only did Cupid get [illegible] but Rose's premeditated [illegible] in the matter of spending Andre's coin so worked upon him that he gave her a push in the face. Then Rose had him up before the bench this morning and the magistrate completed Andre's picture of future financial shipwreck by fining him $1 for two weeks.

Mr. Lefebvre in explanation said that he took Rose to Rockcliffe yesterday for a little trip. On their return she asked him if he would buy her something—something nice, and only $1.15. Sure Andre would. In the shop Rose picked it out and said sweetly, "And it's only $3.15."

"Heavens" screamed Andre, sprinting for the fresh air.

Around the corner he waited for Rose and gave her a push in the face. It was harsh, perhaps but as Andre said it was something fierce to have the price jumped $2 without a moment's warning.—Ottawa Citizen.

POLITICAL NOTES

An offer will be made by the Conservative candidate, Mr. J. H. Burnham, to hold joint meetings with his Liberal opponent throughout the riding. Such a course of campaigning is undoubtedly more satisfactory to the electors who do not need to come out twice where once will do while it gives them altogether a better idea of the merits of the debate. Conducting meetings alternately it is possible to do so fairly. It is a revival of a good old-fashioned custom which has provided much interest and no little amusement to the electors in former times. It is no secret that the attendance at country meetings has declined of late years. Moreover it is hard sometimes to get members of an opposite party to attend party meetings. Personally if not politically Mr. Hall is an agreeable gentleman and Mr. Burnham looks forward to his acceptance of the offer in the same spirit in which it is made.

STOP THAT SCRATCHING

Just as long as you have dandruff your head will itch. It's the little microbes that are gnawing down into the hair roots. It may take a long time for these persistent pests to get down to the vital part but when they do they will destroy life of the hair in a very short time.

"My hair was falling out rapidly and becoming gray when I heard of your guaranteed Hair Restorer, and, after using one bottle my hair stopped turning gray. The first application removed the itching, my hair stopped falling out and I now have a new and it is soft, glossy and pliable." Carrie Williams, 844 Clinton Ave., South, Rochester, N.Y.

news in brief

In order to make a test case which will eventually be referred to the Mikado's Government, a Japanese named [illegible] who obtained his first naturalization papers in the United States Circuit Court in New York but who has been refused naturalization as an American citizen has appealed to the Department of Justice in Washington. This case puts the department in an embarrassing position, for it is one of those delicate questions which bid fair never to be settled. The acting attorney-general, Mr. Russell, admits that naturalization would be refused and that the Japanese would be informed thereof.

Rear Admiral Sperry, commander of the United States Atlantic fleet, yesterday sent the following message in reply to the communication from the Hon. DO GIRLS DRIFT?

Few Have the Definite Aim That a Man Has.

Man is, generally speaking, a creature of purpose. By the time he has reached college (or at the same age in a noncollege career) his "way of life" has generally crystallized into a certainty. His future is ordered; he sees and plans for so many years of additional training, such and such a phase and plane of life, and sooner or later wife, home and children.

Without quibbling or evasion, says the Delineator, it is undeniably true that 75 per cent of all women become wives and mothers. That this destiny is not unalterably proposed for you does not imply that the proportion is not fixed. But what proportion of women are deliberately training for the duties of wifehood and motherhood? Perhaps you have what you consider a clear call to take up settlement work or an overshadowing aptitude for mathematics. Very well, but the number of girls who have such definite aim is really small. Most of them are drifting—yes, drifting—there is no other word!

A girl drifts through high school or finishing school or even college, taking on a veneer of intellectuality with little depth of meaning.

Some time after leaving her college or school she is married. Yes, generally she is. There's no getting around it despite the attitude of impatience regarding this future possibility that seems to be fashionable with many college girls. And how much preparation for this life has she had not merely in housekeeping, but in the higher—the mental, ethical and social preparation—insuring both easy adjustment and practical successful co-operation in the new condition?

PAINT BRUSHES.

How to Care For Them When Not In Use.

One is often at a loss to know how to keep paint brushes from getting hard. A writer in the American Blacksmith gives a good plan and says: "We took a common candy pail, which we secured from the grocer, and painted it inside and out with two coats of paint. We then put a row of hooks on the inside of the pail about two or three inches from the top. When through using a brush we simply hang it in the pail, into which a sufficient quantity of water has been poured to just cover the bristles. It is well to say that to place a brush in water before it has been touched by paint is to ruin it. The water will make it soggy and practically unfit for use in painting."

WOMEN CURED AT HOME

Women's disorders always yeild from the very beginning of the treatment to the mild but effective action of Orange Lily. Within two or three days after commencing its use the improvement becomes noticeable and this improvement continues until the patient is completely cured. Orange Lily is an applied or local treatment, and acts directly on the womanly organs, removing the congestion toning and strengthening the nerves and restoring perfect circulation to the deceased parts.

In order to convince all suffering women of the value of this remedy, I will send a 35-cent box, enough for ten days' treatment, absolutely FREE to each lady sending me her address. MRS. S. F. CURRAH, Windsor Ont. —For Sale by W. B. WARNE, 348 George Street.

BONES OF ARM PROTRUDED THROUGH FLESH—ACCIDENT WHILE ADJUSTING BELT

As the result of an accident he met with while trying to put a belt on a threshing machine the belt having slipped off while the engine was in operation Mr. Tom Smith of Cordova had both bones of one of his arms broken. The fractures were beneath the elbows and the ends of the broken bones protruded through the flesh. He was on his way home from Havelock when the accident took place. He happened to be passing the farm of F. Varty, where threshing was being carried on. The belt had jumped the wheels and when he attempted to replace it the engine started and his arm was crushed. A Havelock physician looked after the injury.

WAS FINED FOR SELLING TOBACCO TO A MINOR

A man who keeps a grocery store on Hunter street east, was fined ten dollars and costs, amounting to $13.40 to be paid in ten days, for selling tobacco to a minor. He appeared a week ago and his case was enlarged for a week. He pleaded guilty. Walter Mahaffy the sixteen year old youth who was given three months in the county gaol a week ago. for stealing, a bicycle, was the minor, to purchased the tobacco. He was dressed in long trousers and had every appearance of being much older. However according to the evidence of Mahaffy's mother, it was learned that he was only sixteen years of age.

SUDDEN DEATH OF POPULAR YOUNG LADY

Miss Eva Curry Passed Away at Nicholls Hospital Last Evening

The death of Miss Eva Viola Curry McDonnell street, came with shocking suddenness last evening at Nicholls hospital. The deceased had only been ill a short time and her demise was quite unexpected. She was taken ill while on her vacation at Port Elgin and had to be brought home. She was removed to the hospital a few days ago where she rapidly sank until the end came last night.

She was 17 years of age and was the youngest daughter of Wm. S. Curry, 173 McDonnell street. She was widely known and highly respected by all who knew her. She was a member of St. Andrew's church.

Besides her parents, three sisters and one brother are left to mourn her loss. The sisters are Mrs. Curtis of this city and Misses Libby and Gertrude at home. The brother is Allen, of this city.

The funeral will take place on Monday at 1.30 o'clock from the family residence to the Lakefield cemetery.

BLACK RICE CROP WON'T BE AS GOOD AS LAST YEAR'S

Owing to the high water there will not be such a large quantity of rice at Rice Lake this season as there was last year. But the crop nevertheless gives promise of being a pretty good one.

The Indians of the reserves along the lake will commence gathering it about September 15th. They used a considerable quantity for private consumption and a great deal is bought for shipment by Mr. Wm. Edmison, of Harwood. Messrs. Anderson and Skinner, of Keene, also buy the rice in large quantities and sell it to the people in the village and from the neighboring rural community.

In spite of the fact that black or wild rice grows only about twelve miles from here as the crow flies, it is safe to say that the large majority of the people in Peterborough don't know the taste of it. It is regarded by many as possessing a pleasanter taste than white rice.

THE RIVERSIDE MARKET SQUARE

Time is Coming to Utilize the Filled in Water Front for Market

The time is approaching when the city will have to buckle to and carry out the project that has been talked of for so many years, to grade up the space on the rice front at the end of Charlotte street, now partly filled in from the dredging in the river.

Today's market was a large one and all the space available was occupied. When the vehicles are drawn in line the street space is so contracted that resort has been had to tipping the shafts up in the air. By making a fair grade down the hill and providing two roadways one for entrance and another for exit the the waterfront would be available and make room for market interests for many years to come. The space on the square is growing to valuable to lease open and building sites made available by moving the market would be quickly taken and built up.

FRED SIMPSON WILL NOT RUN AGAIN TILL WARD MARATHON

Is Too Busy at His Home to Devote Enough Time to Training—No Prospect of the 10 Mile Race Here Between Him and Longboat for Silver Cup.

Fred Simpson thinks he has run enough lately and says he won't do any more running until he competes in the Ward Marathon at Toronto on October 10th.

The Hiawatha distance man paid a call to the Review to-day and expressed himself as stated above.

"I have too much work to do on the farm," said Fred, "it's a busy season now and I can't afford to neglect my work to take up training. However, I am keeping in trim by running around the roads at home. "I intend to train hard for the Ward Marathon and want to be perfectly fit for this race and the Herald race at Hamilton."

The statement from Simpson that he won't run any more until the time he has mentioned, does away with all hope of getting him here to take on Longboat for ten miles for which Mr. J. H. Burnham, editor of the Review, offers to put up a silver trophy. The directors of the fair will also be unable to have the five mile race at the exhibition between Simpson and Longboat, which they planned to pull off if possible.

Simpson said he wished to thank the Y.M.C.A. for privileges tendered him there and the people of Peterborough for the interest they have taken in him.

THE UMPIRE COULDN'T STAND TO SEE BLOOMFIELD LOSE

The umpire who officiated at the Bloomfield-Wellington ball game on Thursday was pretty rank in his decisions, judging from reports. He was a Bloomfield man and was most unfair and partial in his rulings favoring the Bloomfield nine on every opportunity. In the ninth innings, when the game had reached its most critical stages his work became so bad that the game was not finished. A large amount of money had been bet on the result and it was thought better to discontinue play, than to be forced to obey the dictates of the wandering umpire.

In this innings Hawkins, who pitched a remarkably good game for Bloomfield, had struck out two men. Hickey came to bat with the bases full. Two strikes were called on him and he hit the ball which dropped off his bat and rolled a short distance in front of the plate. Edmunds picked it up and threw Hickey out at first, but the umpire declared him safe. A dispute followed and the game was called off.

For Wellington the following Peterborough men played:

Hawkins, p; Edmunds, c; Lawson, 1b; Anderson, 2b; Shea, ss; Burns 3b. The outfield was composed of three home players, Wicker, McComb and Cavanagh.

Bloomfield consisted of practically the whole Park Nine team of Toronto, supplemented for the occasion by Fred Hickey of the twirling staff of the Toronto Eastern League team.

Hawkins was right on his mettle from the first innings to the last, and had it on the clever Hickey at all times. Only five hits were made off him, while Hickey's shoots were connected with for eight.

Both infields worked like clockwork and the Petes made a couple of scintillating double plays, Hawkins to Anderson to Lawson in the fifth, and Shea to Anderson to Lawson in the seventh.

Among the Park Niners on the Bloomfield lineup were, shortstop, Bill O'Brien, of Port Hope, but who has more recently been playing with Massey in the North Shore League; 2nd base, Jimmy O'Hearn who also was with Port Hope; 3rd, Midget Benson. Joe Hickey held down first and Hamilton was behind the bat.

Although the score as mentioned in yesterday's issue was 5-5 there is no doubt that Wellington would have won had the umpire been playing for his home team.

ROGERS HAS BEEN ASKED TO REPRESENT AMERICA

Special to the Review.

New York, Aug. 21.—Yankee Rogers will probably go to England as America's representative in the international tournament to be held there. Frank Gotch, as champion of the world, was asked to go as the American candidate, but owing to engagements with a theatrical company, he could not do so. Rogers, as the next best man in America, has been selected. The champion wrestlers from all the countries of the globe will be there to take part in the competition.

Mr. W. B. Naylor, manager of Rogers, who is in the city and registered at the Oriental, was seen by the Review to-day concerning the above despatch, and said in all probability Rogers would go to the tournament. He stated he had received communications from Charles Bunkier, the famous strong man, known as "Appolo," and who will conduct the tournament. One of the stipulations is that Rogers is not to be thrown before he reaches Liverpool.

PETERBORO' BOWLERS HAVE RETURNED FROM TORONTO

The Peterborough bowlers have returned from Toronto, being out of the running in the events at the Dominion Lawn Bowling Tournament. They made a splendid fight in the competition for the Walker Trophy and Ontario Cup. In the former, which was the largest event of the tournament, Skip J. E. A. Fitzgerald got to the semi-finals, being defeated by London.

The loss was disappointing to him and his rink, after doing so well, but their bowling was excellent and they deserve credit for climbing so high up the ladder.

The local bowlers report that they were given excellent treatment at the Queen City and enjoyed themselves immensely.

W. B. NAYLOR NOW MANAGER OF THE "TERRIBLE SYRIAN"

Arrangements have been closed by W. B. Naylor, the well known manager of Yankee Rogers, by which he has secured the managerial control of Hassan Abdalla, the celebrated Oriental grappler known as the "Terrible Syrian." The wrestler from the Balkans won the Parisian tournament two years ago and went from France to South America where he has been wrestling since. He won the great international tournament, which took place in the Polytheama, Rio de Janeiro, getting prize money of $4000 and the medal of honor presented for the event.

The heavyweight son of Assyria weighs 202 pounds and is like many of the big athletes from the East, unusually strong. He is expected to arrive in New York any day. Mr. Naylor will make matches for him with American heavyweights when he arrives.

WORSE THAN LACROSSE GAME

Baseball Match in Lindsay Ended in a Free Fight

The game of baseball last night ended in a free for all fight, and consequently the game was called off. The Wideawakes and Orientals were playing but it was not between these two teams that the fight occurred. The Orientals had nothing to do with the row.

The game was a tight one and the score at the end of the fourth was a tie. Excitement ran high for a while and the Oriental rooters of whom there were many, had great hopes of winning. A win for the Orientals meant that the Bankers would have the championship practically in their own hands, and therefore the Bankers were there to cheer for the Orientals and they certainly did cheer. In fact they went a little too far to suit some on the Wideawakes team. All of a sudden the catcher on the Wideawakes dropped his glove and came over to remonstrate with the rooters on their manner of so doing. Failing to get them to change their ways he repeated his remonstrance and in the twinkling of an eye half a hundred young men were trying to close the other eye,—that is, the other fellow's. The affair was a most regrettable one and it is to be hoped it will be a long while before anything of the kind is repeated.—Lindsay Post.

SHOULD TRY TO GET THIS MATCH

The prospects of securing for Peterborough the bout between Rogers and Gotch, is a matter, from a sporting standpoint, that cannot be passed over lightly. To simply skim over the announcement much does not seem to be implied, perhaps but when there is a possibility of being able to have a sporting event of such international importance take place in Peterborough, every effort should be made to have it brought here.

BASEBALL

A RULE THAT MUST GO.

The foul strike rule will probably not be in the baseball rule books next year. The Lindsay Free Press doesn't want it. The Free Press says:—

They shortened the game when they passed the foul strike rule but the spit ball has nullified the effect of the legislation, and the games now require more time to play than they ever did before. No one would weep much, unless it be those fellows who have to rely on the wet slant, if the rule-makers would legislate the nefarious curve out of baseball.

DRS. KENNEDY & KENNEDY

Cor. Michigan Ave. and Griswold St. - DETROIT, MICH.

The Sydney, NSW. correspondent of the London Times, says that Sydney's first sight of modern battleships proved even more impressive than was expected, especially to the members of the Federal Parliament, many of whom declared the spectacle was such as to inspire the earnest hope that Australia before long would possess if not a similar fleet at least a squadron worthy to be counted as an integral factor in the Imperial defence.

While the owner was taking part in a picnic a horse and rig belonging to Ernest Hilton was stolen from the street in St. Catharines.

SEIZED WOMAN IN HER HOME AND ROBBED HER

Two thugs entered the home of Mrs. Marcel Cardinal, at 609 Parthenais street, Montreal, and while one seized her and pinned her to the floor, the other ransacked the house and found $101, which, with some silverware, was taken away.

On Wednesday night Mrs. Cardinal was sitting alone in the house when she heard a slight noise and looking up saw two shadows in the mirror opposite her. Some one grabbed her by the throat and drew her back in her chair. She managed to struggle to her feet and found that her assailant was a tall man with a grey beard. He came after her and again seized her by the throat forcing her to the ground. In the meantime the other thug was searching the house, and found the money in a drawer.

Mrs. Cardinal is an active woman, thirty-six years of age, and she managed to put up a fight and cried for help. The family dog, a great dane, who was tied in the next room, broke his leash, and sprang upon the man. They managed to shut the dog in the room, and left the woman lying on the floor.

At the door, however, they met Mr. Cardinal, who was returning with two friends. The thieves ran and escaped.

COLLECTION AT ST. JAME'S CHURCH

To-morrow Evening Will be Given to Fernie B. C.

The collection at the evening service at St. James' church to-morrow will be donated to the relief of the sufferers from fire in Fernie, B.C. This was decided on a few days ago and those who suggested the idea are to be highly commended for their their thoughtfulness, as the money will be most thankfully accepted by the stricken people of Fernie.

SOLD LIQUOR TO A MINOR

Hotelkeeper Fined in the Police Court for the Offence

A local hotelkeeper was fined ten dollars and costs, amounting to $14.10 for selling liquor to Walter Mahaffy, a minor. Mr. James Heverson, appeared for the defendant and pleaded not guilty. However, from the evidence given, his Worship found the accused guilty and imposed the above fine. Mahaffy is an older looking boy than sixteen years and in this way he was able to procure the liquor.

BUSINESS GIRLS LOSE STRENGTH

They Risk Health Rather Than Lose Employment and Eventually Break Down

Thousands of earnest, intelligent young women who can earn their livelihood away from home in public offices, and large business establishments are silent suffering victims of overtaxed nerves and deficiency of strength. Weak, breathless and nervous, they work against time, with never a rest when headaches and backaches make every hour like a day. Little wonder their cheeks lose the tint of health and grow pale and thin; their eyes are dull and shrunken and beauty slowly but surely fades. Business girls (and women, because of their work and worry) look older than their years. What they urgently need is the frequent help of a true strengthening remedy to carry them through the day. Dr Williams' Pink Pills are like actual food to the starved nerves and tired brain of the business girl. By making rich, red blood they supply just the kind of help that girls need to preserve their health and their good looks. They bring bright eyes, high spirits and thus make the days duties lighter.

Miss Alexandrine Bedard, a stenographer residing at 36 Richelieu st., Quebec, says:—"For the past couple of years I felt my constitution being gradually undermined through constant indoor work, and the great tax on my nerves through the long tedious hours over a typewriter. But it was only some six months ago that the climax came when one afternoon I lost consciousness through extreme weakness. The real seriousness of my condition was then pathetically apparent, as I was confined to my room, lacking even the strength to walk about. I was attended by a doctor, but after being a month under his care showed no signs of improvement. It was at this stage that one of my relatives read of the cure of a young girl whose case bore a striking resemblance to my own, by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I began the use of these Pills the next day, and I attribute my complete recovery entirely to them. I had not taken more than three boxes when I began to get better, and after taking the Pills for about a month I felt as strong and was enjoying as good health as ever in my life."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CHAOS IN A LIBRARY.

Sarcey's Fearfully Bad Luck With Custodians of His Books.

Francisque Sarcey had a splendid library, of which he was very proud, and there are many stories told in Paris about the singular fates, comic and tragic, that overtook the librarians who successively looked after the late critic's books.

The first was a released convict, who pleaded that to be much among good books would reform him. Sarcey, pugnacious in print, was the kindliest of men in practice. He yielded to the plea. Unfortunately his protege carried the ethical cure too far, for one day he decamped, taking with him the best of M. Sarcey's good books.

The second was a distinctly minor dramatist, Debrit by name and debris by nature. He had worn himself into an incurable melancholy by persistent addiction to the humorist vaudeville habit. Sarcey saw that abstinence from further composition could only be secured if the man had some light occupation with a living wage. He established him in the vacancy left by the convict. A few days later as the critic, returning from the theater, drew his carriage up before his door he heard a smash of shivered glass above him, followed a minute later by what he no longer dared to call a dull thud on the pavement below. The woe begone librarian, wearied of life, had thrown himself out of the window. With his last breath he cursed Sarcey as his murderer.

Third in order was one Bernard, a gladsome youth, whose blithe temperament promised relief from the gloom cast by his predecessor. In the height of his glee he pulled out all the books so as to rearrange them in more logical order on the shelves. He stacked them in craggy pyramids all over the floor. But it happened to be the special day of the week whereon Sarcey was wont to have a few of his theatrical friends, male and female, to lunch with him. After lunch a dance followed as a matter of course. Nothing could dismay the librarian. He whisked the pyramids to four walls and joined in the dance. Next day he asked permission to go home and see his mother. He never returned. The pyramids had to be sorted out by Sarcey's manservant and put pellmell on the shelves again.

The last librarian was Mlle. Blouska, an elderly Polish maiden, who proved an invaluable assistant until she perished miserably in the fire at the charity ball in Paris.

INDIAN MARRIAGES.

Peculiar Rites of the Hopi and the Navajo Tribes.

Marriage among the Topi, a tribe of the Pueblo Indians, is an institution regarding which those most concerned have least to say. When the parents of a girl find it expedient for her to get married, they look up an available man and negotiate with his parents. After the matter has been arranged the principals are notified. The girl goes to the home of the groom's parents and grinds corn for them for three weeks, while the groom makes a kind of sash for the bride. Then one morning at sunrise they both bathe their heads in cold water, which completes the ceremony. There have been instances of the groom's refusing to go through the performance, which has then proceeded without him and been accounted valid, and several weeks later he has yielded and had his head bathed.

The Navajo ceremony is much more elaborate and impressive, but then the Navajo girls are much nicer. The regular tariff on a Navajo girl entering the port of matrimony for the first time is twelve horses. On the second occasion the tax is nine horses, while subsequent entries are free.

This is not purchase money, but is merely a tribute of respect to a mother-in-law and a token of appreciation of the care and expense involved in bearing and rearing the lady, a recognition not unworthy of consideration by civilized grooms. On the other hand, and deserving of great condemnation, is that law of many tribes, unwritten, but of much sanctity, that a man and his mother-in-law shall never meet after the ceremony.—A. W. Dimock in Outing Magazine.

Coral Islands.

A coral island is sometimes torn to pieces by a great storm, showing that islands disappear in more ways than one. This happened to an atoll in the Marshall group in 1905, when it happened to be in the path of a terrible hurricane. Waves about forty feet high swept over the hapless speck of land, carrying every particle of verdure and every form of life into the sea, and not a human being was saved. The upper part of the coral was broken off and swept away, and a few days later nothing but the placid waters of the ocean was seen where the atoll had stood.

MAGISTRATE DID NOT GIVE JUDGMENT ON CHARGE OF ROBBERY AND ASSAULT

Preferred Against James Baldwin by Abraham Aboud, an Assyrian Pedlar—Prisoner Has Previous Convictions Against Him—Addresses Given by Counsel.

The charge of stealing and aggravated assault, made by the Assyrian pedlar, Abraham Aboud, against Jas. Baldwin, was brought to a close, but Magistrate Edmison, who heard the charge, reserved judgment for a week.

Abraham Aboud was first called. Witness sat in the box, being evidently weak, as a result of the fracas. Baldwin had crept up behind him and struck him three times. He swore that he never carried a knife in his life, as he had no tobacco to cut or other use for it. These points were explained to the court through an Assyrian interpreter, Suliman Azerak, who is also a pedlar. He had $160 in bills in his pocket book at the time of the assault. He could not explain how the amount was made up or the denominations of the bills. He bought his pack in Toronto. Baldwin owed him $1. He had not asked the latter for the amount of the debt. On the day that he was assaulted he ate his dinner at Baldwin's and paid for it in goods—a few handkerchiefs. He asked Mrs. Baldwin for the dollar that her husband owed him, but had not received it. He received three blows on the head from the prisoner, who demanded his money after the first blow. The valises containing the Assyrian's valuables were produced and opened in court.

Richard Pearson, the constable who made the arrest, gave evidence next. He took prisoner to Buckhorn where the latter purchased some cigars and tobacco. At the time of his arrest prisoner had five dollars and a quarter in his possession. Prisoner told the constable that the pedlar had assaulted him also, and asked for his arrest. Acting on this information the constable had Aboud, the Assyrian detained in Lakefield. He did not think that the prisoner could obtain a club, such as was used in the immediate neighborhood. Witness told Mr. O'Connell that he had found no knife in that locality, but had taken one from Baldwin in Mr. Edmison's office.

High Constable Cochrane was again sworn and testified that Baldwin was a good worker and had worked for him and earned about thirty dollars in that way this spring.

The Assyrian's pack containing his money was opened and $40 and 5 cents found in a lower tray. Mr. McWilliams tried to find out the reason why the pedlar carried part of his money in his pocket and the remainder in his pack, but nothing definite was found out.

This concluded the case for the prosecution. James Baldwin sworn, said he lived in Cavendish and knew the Assyrian pedlar. The latter had stayed and slept on frequent occasions in prisoner's house. Had he so desired he could have taken Aboud's money and valuables on previous occasions. His evidence was very contradictory and nearly an hour was spent by Mr. O'Connell in the effort to get a detailed account of the day's happenings.

Mr. McWilliams made a very strong plea for his client, asserting that the only evidence against Baldwin was the unsupported statements of Aboud.

Mr. Wood, as prosecuting attorney, charged strongly against the prisoner and pointed out the various discrepancies that were to be observed in the evidence of the defence witnesses. He was uqite willing to allow Mr. O'Connell, who represented Aboud on the charge of assault laid against the latter by Baldwin, to address the court. Mr. O'Connell, who had borne the onus of Baldwin's cross-examination, reviewed the highly improbable story told by the latter remarking that the evidence given by one of the different defence witnesses, did not correspond to that of Baldwin. At the conclusion of Mr. O'Connell's address, the Magistrate remanded the case for a week in give him time to study the evidence submitted.

The counter charge of assault laid by Baldwin against Aboud was thrown out by the Magistrate, who insisted that there was positively no evidence against Aboud.

DRINK JOHNS' TEA

THE DOCTORS SAID "THERE MUST BE AN OPERATION"

"Fruit-a-tives" Saved Mrs. McCready Untold Suffering and Almost Certain Death.

"Publish this for humanity's sake," writes Mr. C. McCready, of Putnam, Ont., in his letter to the owners of "Fruit-a-tives." Physicians said that only an operation could save his wife's life. But again "Fruit-a-tives" proved its wonderful powers. The doctors were wrong—Mrs. McCready is to-day well and strong—and "Fruit-a-tives" have made friends of every one for miles around Putnam.

"Dear Sirs,—My wife suffered for over a year from Indigestion and Bowel trouble. Several doctors treated her for this trouble and advised her that only an operation would save her life, as they stated it was a tumor that was causing the trouble. The operation was to cost $200.00 and, while she was debating in her own mind about being operated on, she was advised to try "Fruit-a-tives," which I procured for her from our local merchant. From the first box she improved, and after having taken four boxes she is completely cured and is now as well as ever.

I decided then that "Fruit-a-tives" was the most wonderful remedy in the world and it certainly saved my wife's life. She still takes one tablet every night, we also give them to the children with excellent results, and they have to thank "Fruit-a-tives" for the fact that their mother is now with them, they fully expected she would be in her grave. Publish this for humanity's sake."

(Sgd.) C. McCready.

For Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Constipation and Biliousness—for all troubles due to defective action of Bowels, Kidneys and Skin, "Fruit-a-tives" is a certain cure. These tablets are made of fruit juices and tonics, are pleasant to take and quick to act. Trial size, 25c—regular size, 50c a box or 6 for $2.50.

At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

BROCKVILLE SPEED BOATS

A Special Craft Building to Break the Record

Gilbert Bros., of Gananoque, builders of motor boats and launches, have on the floor of the shop, the hull of a speed launch, that they will show a speed in excess of anything now afloat in Canadian waters. The home of the speed boat craze is around and among the Thousand Islands on the St. Lawrence. Some of the money that is being expended in the erection of the magnificent residences—called cottages—is going into these novel craft. The waters are fairly alive with them darting about. Each one launched is built with the object of greater speed, and the competition among the builders is very keen. The one in the hands of Gilbert Bros. is to be finished in time to enter the motor boat races at the Toronto Fair. It is beautifully built, of British Columbia cedar, in narrow strips, concaved and convex on the edges and driven together with wire copper nails, strip to strip. The strips are screwed to the ribs, making a very strong and rigid construction.

The length of their boats is about 30 feet. Inside the engine is carried on stringers, the length of the hull, so as to minimize the vibration and spread the force of propulsion over the whole bottom. The boat will be driven by a 15x20 p.p. gasoline engine, and the builders expect it to trim Miss Fidgetty, which is credited with a speed of 23 miles an hour. The work throughout is a marvel of close fitting and fine finish, the the skin of the boat is as smooth as if moulded from paper. Every detail that experience suggests is carried out with the object of securing phenomenal speed. Owners of speed boats will watch the performances of the craft with interest, and if the boat realizes the hopes of the builders it will be a great waving feather in their cap.

LOOKING FOR SAWDUST SLIDE

A Dangerous State of Affairs on East Bank of the River

Something like an avalanche is going to fall some of these days at the east side of the river, opposite the power house. The immense banks of sawdust have been undermined by the current and have toppled over at an uneasy angle. Where the slice is separated from the general mass of debris, there are cracks and gullies that would engulf a team and waggon. A very small shock may start the pile falling into the river and some sort of a stoppage will follow. To be sure the current will finish its work and carry it down stream to lodge against the old Rogers dam. Should the debris reach there it will settle and fill up the channels. What to do is a puzzle. It can hardly be removed, to burn would be dangerous and at present indications it would take about 150 years for it to decay and blow and rot away. Years ago it should have been burned in a burner, but property owners protested that such a course would make risk to all buildings within reach of sparks blowing from the burner. It was a temporary expedient to get rid of it by piling it up. Some day it will have to be grappled with in earnest.

BATHING PLACES ON THE OTONABEE

It has been suggested that improvements might be made in bathing facilities for women and children along the Otonabee. When will some unselfish benefactor arise and give this portion of the mass of the people half a chance to enjoy themselves during the heat of the summer? Many for various reasons cannot go to watering places. It isn't everyone who can get a wharf built at his door. He must be rich himself to begin with and therefore influential or else no attention will be paid to him. This is "played out" we all know, and yet it is not. It is at present the order of the day in Canada. However, let us get back to our muttons. Why not improve on that condition of things in Peterborough? They are long since past it in Yankeeland. We have excellent men on our representative bodies if they only meet with a little encouragement. At Smith street, or a little above is the old tail race. With a little trouble and less expense it could be made almost a dream of joy to bathers during the heat of summer. It is hardly fair to expect Mr. Hall and the Nicholls estate to do everything for us. We are getting spoonfed. Give the people who don't go or can't go to happy hunting grounds in hot weather a chance to be clean, cool and happy. We do more to encourage crime in Canada through our selfishness than in any other way.

John Dillon, murderer of Constable Shea, is very ill in Montreal jail and will have to be taken to the hospital.

Chase & Sanborn's HIGH GRADE COFFEE

Some people buy Chase & Sanborn's Coffee because of its exquisite flavor—others, because of its strength—some, "just because they like it."
All of them, because no other coffee suits them so well. 91

57th REGIMENT WILL LEAVE HERE SATURDAY SEPT. 5th

Meeting Held Last Evening to Arrange for Annual Trip—Will go Through Thousand Islands—Marchout Next Tuesday Evening.

A meeting of the officers of the 57th regiment was held last night in the mess rooms. It was decided to take the regiment to Barriefield and Alexandra Bay on the St. Lawrence river, for the annual trip. The regiment will leave Peterborough on Saturday, September 5th, at 8 30 o'clock. They will go under canvas at Kingston on Sunday. On Monday they will go down through the Thousand Islands per the Lake Ontario Navigation Company's steamer Aletha.

At the meeting committees were appointed to undertake transportation and the arranging of the messing of the men while in camp.

A detachment of the regiment will form part of the composite city corps at Barriefield, returning to Peterborough on Wednesday, the 9th.

The regiment will go into camp with both bands, stretcher section and signal corps.

The annual tattoo will take place on Wednesday evening. The 57th regiment band will take part in this pageant.

In preparation for the trip, the regiment will hold three drills, one next Tuesday evening, the second one a week from Tuesday, and the third on Thursday, September 3rd. A marchout will be held next Tuesday.

LONDON AGENT CHOSEN FOR NEW IMMIGRATION OFFICE

N. B. Colcock of Niagara Falls, Ontario's Representative—Is Englishman With Wide Experience of Affairs in Old Country and Canada.

Toronto, Aug. 24.—Neville Bentley Colcock, Niagara Falls, Ontario, vice-consul there for the United States, has been appointed immigration inspector in the new office of the Ontario Government in London, England.

He will leave Montreal on Sept. 4, sailing by the Virginian. Mrs. Colcock and her son Harry will remain at Niagara Falls for some time.

The announcement sets at rest the rumors current that Hon. Nelson Monteith would be appointed to the new office in London.

Mr. Colcock expects on his arrival in Liverpool to meet Mr. Monteith and Sir James Whitney and learn their intentions as to the new immigration policy of the Government, and such decisions as have been made regarding the new London offices. Since the Dominion Government accepted the duty of distributing immigrants the province will devote itself more thoroughly to a selection of the best people to be found suitable for settlers in Ontario, advising them as to settlement, and securing them for provincial destinations.

Mr. Colcock is exceptionally well fitted for this work. According to his friends, his connection with old country papers gives him an intimate knowledge of affairs in the United Kingdom, which will be invaluable in the duties before him. He is a native of England and knows where the best results are to be obtained.

Connected as he has been for many years past with the weekly and daily press of Ontario, he can speak with the authority begotten of intimate knowledge of matters and conditions in this province.

BELL BOYS ARE IN TROUBLE

Five Dismissed From Walker House---Two Gaoled.

Toronto, Aug. 24.—There are five vacancies for bell boys at the Walker House as the result of a playful escapade on Saturday night.

A guest, James McKay, woke up about midnight Saturday to discover that a single dollar bill of his $25 wad remained in his trousers' pocket. He notified the management, and at 3 a. m. a round-up was made of the bell boys, who were indulging in the luxury of a Turkish bath. Two of the older boys, George Ray and John Meredith, were arrested by Detective Murray, while the other three were allowed to go to their homes.

Suspected Burglar.

St. Thomas, Aug. 24.—A stranger giving his name as Edward Roberts, Long Island City, was arrested here late Saturday afternoon. He had entered the home of W. Boughner, but realizing that his movements were known to a neighbor he decamped. The police were telephoned for and arrested him just he was coming out of another place near-by.

Quite a number of burglaries have been committed in London and St. Thomas during the past week. The suspect is well dressed and is between 25 and 30 years of age. He has been living at Port Stanley.

Tramp Badly Hurt.

Belleville, Aug. 24.—Three tramps were riding the blind baggage from Toronto east, and one of them, in a crazy fit, jumped off when the train was going at full speed.

His companions notified the authorities at Trenton, who went out and found the man, who said his name was William Trimble of Toronto. His arm was broken, face badly smashed and severely bruised and internally injured. He was given medical attention.

Ambassadors Recalled.

Constantinople, Aug. 24.—The Turkish ambassadors at Berlin and Vienna and the Minister at Belgrade have been recalled.

TO CHECK THE TOLSTOI BOOM

Russian Authorities Disapprove of Birthday Celebration.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 24.—The preparations for the celebration of Count Leo Tolstoi's eightieth birthday, Sept. 9, are strongly disapproved by the Government, and some of the authorities are bringing pressure to bear to check the celebration.

The Ministry of Education has vetoed the decision of the University of Kazan to confer upon Count Tolstoi an honorary membership.

Prayer Settled Up Fleet.

Montgomery, Mo., Aug. 24.—Capt. Hobson said before a large audience here yesterday afternoon that because he was going up and down the country declaring for a big navy and warning the people of an approaching war with Japan, some thought he was not in full sympathy with the Christian spirit.

He assured them if it had not been for prayer there would have been no Merrimac victory.

Fire Chief Resigns.

Windsor, Aug. 24.—Fire Chief Thos. Drury of the Walkerville department, stepped out of office unexpectedly on Saturday. His resignation was handed in during the morning and he quit a few hours later. No reason is assigned for his sudden resignation, which came as a surprise to the firemen.

Charles Moore, who was in charge of the department before Drury's appointment, becomes chief again.

Constantinople Burning.

Constantinople, Aug. 24.—Fire broke out yesterday afternoon in the Stamboul quarter and within a very brief period a terrible conflagration was raging.

A strong wind carried the flames at great speed, and for six hours they swept over the section, destroying 1,500 houses and shops. The fire is still burning.

FIRE BROKE OUT IN MINT

Firemen at First Refused Admittance to Put Out Blaze.

Ottawa, Aug. 24.—Fire in the basement of the Royal Mint caused some excitement Saturday night.

Soft coal and cordwood piled in front of the boiler became ignited and, owing to all the employes being away, the fire department found it impossible for a time to enter the building.

The armed policeman at the gates, acting up to the stern orders given him, absolutely refused to open for the firemen.

Chief Provost then ordered ladders against the railing, and the firemen climbed over them in true burglar fashion.

Little damage was done, as the structure is built almost entirely of stone and steel.

A Martyr to Science.

Chicago, Aug. 24.—Dr. Antonio Lagorio, founder of the Pasteur Institute, and conqueror of hydrophobia, has become inoculated with the disease he long has fought. The famous specialist became infected with the hydrophobia germ while experimenting on a rabbit in his laboratory here.

He is now a patient at his own institute, under the care of his assistant, Dr. G. B. Bruno, and testing the efficacy of his own treatment. Although the disease has reached an acute form, the physician said Saturday night that he was not at all alarmed.
